C1086 Secret Means of Transport

Of course, he couldn't run away by himself, and he definitely wouldn't forget about Erniu, who was still waiting for him there.

Luckily, when Wu Tian returned to the room, he found Erniu watching TV, not a single hair off her body.

Only then did Wu Tian heave a sigh of relief. The agents outside the door didn't say anything as they looked at the situation inside. Although they didn't ask, they could tell how important Erniu was to Wu Tian.

It must have been his companion, which was why he was so concerned.

"President Wu, we should go."

These people did not want to stay in the Britain for even another second.

Wu Tian nodded and quickly pulled Erniu and ran out.

The explosion woke up many people. Quite a few residents nearby opened their windows to look outside and were frightened out of their wits.

In the distance, there were sounds of fire alarm, as if a fire engine had already started to move. It seemed that it wouldn't be long before the matter of Brilliant Company would become the headline of the news.

Maybe ordinary people didn't understand what was going on, but those masterminds wouldn't be fooled by such news. They were very smart. They knew who had targeted them, and they might even take revenge.

However, these things weren't what Wu Tian was thinking at the moment. What he wanted to do the most right now was to quickly go home.

"I thought I was really going to die ..." Many of the agents were sighing. This was not a joke. By the time most of them had been captured and tortured, almost everyone was ready to sacrifice themselves.

However, they would never take the initiative to seek death. His life belonged not only to himself but also to his family. As long as there was a sliver of hope, they would not give up.

These people had risked their lives to get beaten up and even though they were injured, they did not say a single word or reveal any information. It was not easy to do this.

Zhao Hui smiled. He could be said to be in the best condition amongst the group of brothers. He reached out and patted Wu Tian's shoulder, feeling quite touched.

"We should thank Wu Tian. Although he is not a special agent, he is still one of Director Tie's men. He is very reliable. He saved us all by himself, I think he's a lot stronger than our Secret Service. "

His words were immediately acknowledged by everyone. Although Wu Tian felt a little ashamed, but in the eyes of others, their lives were saved by Wu Tian.

"Bro, if you have any difficulties in the future, you can look for us. We, the special forces, will definitely do our best to help you!"

"Yes, yes. We owe you a favor!" We owe you our lives! "

"If anyone dares to bully you, tell us and we will help you take care of him! There's nothing our agents can't do. "

Listening to them talk like this, Wu Tian felt a little bit better. However, there were still some things that kept haunting him.

"Thank you ..." But do you know the two men who were arrested with you? They are innocent, this has nothing to do with them... "But because of me ..."

Wu Tian felt very ashamed. Old Master Chu had helped him a lot and even sent him here to ask Elder Sister Hsing to take him in.

However, the base had been destroyed and Old Master Chu was still inside. It was unlikely that many people could survive inside.

As for Elder Sister Hsing, from beginning to end, Wu Tian had always felt that she was just greedy for money, so there was nothing bad about that. She didn't even know what kind of conspiracy was behind this, but she ended up in bad luck with Old Master Chu.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian felt that he had killed the two of them personally.

At this moment, these agents also became silent. They had no choice in this matter ...

Sometimes, one had to make some choices.

Which was more important, an agent and a civilian?

A rational person would choose a secret service agent without any hesitation, because it would take a lot of money and resources to nurture one.

What's more, they had more than a dozen agents this time. It made sense to sacrifice two lives in exchange for theirs.

But man does not live by reason alone, but by sensibility.

This time, not only did Wu Tian feel bad, even the special agent started to feel a bit guilty.

Zhao Hui saw that everyone was starting to feel down. He knew that this was not the time to be disappointed, so he quickly stood up to comfort everyone.

"Everyone, don't be sad. This is probably fate. We will forever remember their sacrifices, but the most important thing is for us to quickly escape this place. I'm afraid that the Secret Service of the Britain will immediately come to find us. "

His words were very correct because at this very moment, the sound of helicopters could be heard in the sky.

These people from Britain were not idiots.

"There are ships waiting for us in the harbor now. We have to get there quickly."

The agent in charge of contacting them had sent them an important piece of information. Now that they had a direction to move in, they were no longer so lost.

Soon, a large group of people began to move. They picked up a few cars and desperately drove towards the harbor a few kilometers away.

Although the members of the Secret Service were moving very quickly, as they did not know where they were, they could not find any trace of them in a short period of time.

Even when Wu Tian and co. successfully arrived at the port, they still did not catch up to them.

This time it wasn't a big ship that came to meet them, but a small speedboat.

Tieh Jun had already arranged this ship before the operation, and it was also prepared for Wu Tian to use at the beginning.

Whether they succeeded or failed in their mission this time, it was impossible for them to leave the Britain using a normal method, so they had to make other preparations.

Without a word, everyone boarded the boat and took advantage of the darkness to leave the port hurriedly, heading towards the depths of the sea.

"We can't possibly ride this boat back home, right? It's at least a few thousand miles away ..."

Wu Tian was a little surprised. If they really could pass by in this boat, it might not be long before they would be discovered by the Britain people.

Before he could finish his sentence, a huge searchlight suddenly lit up on the surface of the sea in the distance.

A few huge warships! The Britain people had even deployed a warship here in advance!

"We're finished, we're finished ..."

Wu Tian felt that this time, they were going to jump into the sea. In front of the military strength of the warship, their little boat was like a piece of paper that could be easily broken.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1087 - Retribution of the Wicked

C1087 Retribution of the Wicked

Unlike Wu Tian's panic, the agents didn't have much of a reaction. They still drove towards the warship with indifferent expressions.

Wu Tian had already closed his eyes and tightly held Erniu's hand, ready to face the impending doom and death.

Speaking of which, Wu Tian wasn't as flustered when he was underground, but his mood right now was completely different from before.

When everyone faced the situation calmly and felt that there was no hope left for it to happen, people wouldn't feel too nervous.

But there was a solution, or perhaps they felt that there was still a slim chance of survival, yet they had to face death. This was something they found hard to accept.

Wu Tian was currently in such a state of mind. He really hoped that the speedboat could turn around, but at this moment, he wasn't the one driving the speedboat ...

Just when Wu Tian was able to clearly see the ship's ship, a wave suddenly rose up from the sea, almost overturning the speedboat.

Wu Tian didn't know what happened, so he quickly grabbed the handle beside him.

When he looked again, he saw that the boat had stopped, and beside them was a dark submarine.

The agents skillfully lowered the rope from the boat onto the surface of the submarine and then skillfully climbed over it. Who knew how many times they had done this before. It was as if they could do it with their eyes closed.

"Let's go, what are we doing here? He's going to discover us soon."

Zhao Hui saw that Wu Tian didn't move and quickly pushed him with his hand. Only then did Wu Tian come to his senses.

"Right, right, right ..."

Only then did Wu Tian realize that his worries were unnecessary. These people had backup plans, they didn't rely on a speedboat to escape.

Soon, there was only an empty speedboat left on the surface of the sea, and there was no one inside.

The secret agents led Wu Tian into the submarine, and avoided the search and arrest of the ship that was carrying the Britain under the sea. They safely returned to the China.

Tieh Jun was overjoyed to see that he also valued the safety of these agents. This time, he had a whole new level of respect for Wu Tian.

According to their previous plans, Wu Tian was going to investigate and see if he could find any information.

However, this guy did even better. He led the 12 agents out directly. They didn't even need Tieh Jun to send anyone else to rescue them.

This saved him a lot of time and money. Most importantly, no one sacrificed themselves.

"Kid, you looked really good this time. I really admire you!"

Tieh Jun patted Wu Tian's shoulder. Previously, he felt that Wu Tian intentionally hid some things from him and was very unhappy about it. But now, it seemed that he had underestimated him.

"Don't worry. This time, I will definitely not treat you unfairly."

Tieh Jun's words were very convincing and he was prepared to give Wu Tian a big gift.

After all, the two of them were not at the top and bottom levels, but were similar to business partners.

Similarly, if Wu Tian was to do something, Tieh Jun would have to give a corresponding reward. This way, it would be fair for everyone.

"Boss Tieh Jun, I don't get it. The moment I close my eyes, I think of the two innocent people who died."

Wu Tian said with a pained face. His emotions did not ease just because he returned to the China.

The safer and more comfortable Wu Tian was, the more he would remember Old Master Chu and Elder Sister Hsing from the underground city. When he saw their painful faces, he would hear their screams.

Scenes of this scene kept appearing in Wu Tian's mind, making him almost unable to breathe.

"You mean Chu Mingjian and Xing Juan?" Tieh Jun's expression didn't change much. He also blurted out the names of these two people. From the looks of it, his mastery of the information had already far surpassed Wu Tian's imagination.

Wu Tian nodded. He had never suffered such a heavy blow before.

Tieh Jun shook his head. This was something that would happen to them sooner or later, so it wasn't Tieh Jun's first time dealing with this kind of thing.

"It's like this. Do you know the identities of the two of them?"

Wu Tian shook his head. His understanding of this kind of people was limited to their contact with him.

"Chu Mingjian, he's very rich, but do you know how he got his money? Many of us from China go there, and if we don't have money in our hands, he will lend this money to them. Do you know how many people are tied to this interest? "

Tieh Jun's voice was very heavy, and this was the first time Wu Tian heard this news. He looked at Tieh Jun in disbelief.

"Do you not believe me? Do you think that what you see is the reality in front of your eyes? Do you know how much of a bully the people of China will be?" "What virtue and ability does he have? To be able to become the local rich, have you never thought about this before?"

Tieh Jun's series of questions left Wu Tian speechless. He really hadn't thought about this. Thinking about it this way, he had also discovered some clues in the past. However, he himself had not thought deeply about these aspects.

"Let's not talk about him first. Let's talk about this Xing Juan. He specializes in the trade of human beings, who knows how many girls he sells from his hands. You think he's a good guy? "

At this moment, Wu Tian's previous impression of these two people had been completely destroyed by Tieh Jun.

Looking at Wu Tian's disbelieving expression, Tieh Jun coldly snorted.

"I think it's really stupid of you to feel sorry for them both. Even if these two people were to die ten thousand times, it wouldn't be enough. "

These words were like a gush of wisdom as Wu Tian immediately untied the knots in his heart.

That's right, if such a person should not die, then there would be no justice left in this world.

"Thank you ..." Wu Tian looked at Tieh Jun gratefully. If it wasn't for him, who knows how long he would have been depressed because of this.

"Alright, you can do whatever you want. Just tell me what you want from now on. I'll do my best to arrange it for you."

Tieh Jun waved his hand and told Wu Tian to leave first.

On the way back, Wu Tian finally calmed himself down.

This matter finally came to an end. Although he vaguely felt that it wouldn't end so easily, he should leave the rest of the matters to the later. At this moment, Wu Tian no longer wanted to think about such things.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1088 - Economic Crisis

C1088 Economic Crisis

On the way back, Wu Tian was still thinking about what the situation should be like.

However, it was at this time that he felt that the weather in S City wasn't too good. Dark clouds hung in the sky, and there was wind on the ground.

When the leaves were blown off, they looked desolate. This feeling made people feel as if winter was approaching.

"Any news recently?" Wu Tian asked. He kept looking out of the window as if he was deep in thought.

Loong Yun nodded as she drove.

"Yes, they ran away."

Wu Tian turned around and looked at Loong Yun in disbelief.

"Is what you said true? "It can't be, so fast?"

The matter with Yingdi Entertainment wasn't a small matter, how could he have fled so quickly?

However, Loong Yun had no reason to lie to Wu Tian. Since she was the one that said it, then it must be true.

Just like Wu Tian had guessed, Loong Yun replied with certainty, "Just like that. In the one or two days you left, after they received the investment from the government, they started trading large amounts of cash in the stock market. Some of the big customers saw through their plan and ran away after selling off the stocks, but the remaining ones got unlucky ..."

Generally speaking, those who were in trouble were the retail investors. On one hand, they didn't have a good ability to resist risks, and on the other hand, they didn't have any unique information.

These differences quickly widened the gap between them. Very soon, the wind outside had changed greatly, but by the time they had reacted, it was already too late.

"This is too fast ..." Wu Tian smacked his lips. This was not a small matter. The consequences that would be brought about would be huge.

No wonder the S City was so bleak right now. Honestly speaking, it was Wu Tian's first time seeing S City like this.

The S City government would definitely not be able to accept such a huge loss. At the same time, there would also be a large number of people who would lose their jobs because of this matter. One must know that there were many companies that would bet their future on this film and television industry garden.

Now that this thing is gone... Naturally, their employees would lose their jobs and their company would close down.

And all of this happened just two days after they left ...

"President Wu, we need to quickly start up some emergency plans. The impact of this crisis will definitely not be small."

Wu Tian could not deny what Loong Yun said.

The two of them hurriedly returned to the Flower Island and Wu Tian immediately gathered the people in charge.

As for how to survive this crisis, he could only rely on money to do so.

Whoever had enough wealth would be able to survive this winter.

After receiving the news, the executives Wu Zaibin, Wu Zaiyao, and Yu Naixin all came to Wu Tian's office one after the other. They looked at him expectantly and nervously.

Because everyone wanted to know what his next move would be.

"You should know the situation better than I do... I don't need to tell you how serious the matter is. "

Wu Tian put down the newspaper in his hand. The public opinion on the outside was like a wailing flood. No one was optimistic about the future.

And at this very moment, the Yingdi Entertainment that had been sought after by ten thousand people had dropped to the level of countless people despising it now.

Right now, their appearances could almost be said as everyone was shouting and beating them, and no one would not clench their teeth when talking about Yingdi Entertainment.

If this was in the past, Wu Tian would definitely be very happy.

However, now that such a thing had happened, Wu Tian could no longer be happy.

"President Wu, we are indeed very clear about the current situation, but the stock market is really not easy to operate right now."

Wu Zaibin's face was full of worry. These few days, it could be said that he was burning with anxiety. Although they had already withdrawn all the stocks, the stock market kept falling, which was not a good thing for everyone.

If the economy dropped, then no one would be willing to buy any services or products provided by the Wu Group company. This would naturally affect the interests of their company.

Wu Tian frowned. This matter was within his consideration. At that time, he also expected such a result, so he wasn't surprised.

"Got it ..." Let's give up on the stock market for the time being and withdraw all the money. "

Wu Zaibin, on the other hand, was somewhat surprised by Wu Tian's speech. He looked at Wu Tian with disbelief.

"President Wu, this is a good opportunity, aren't you going to buy stocks?"

Now that every company's share price has plummeted, it's almost impossible for them to buy a lot of shares at a very low price.

Therefore, Wu Zaibin didn't want to miss such a rare opportunity.

"I don't think this is a good opportunity for the truly productive and promising companies whose share prices have fallen, but not by much. And the number of people buying their shares has been rising recently. "

Wu Tian's observation was relatively detailed, and he quickly saw through it.

With his reminder, Wu Zaibin immediately realized.

"You mean the consortia that were withdrawn from the Yingdi Entertainment transferred the money to these companies."

Wu Tian nodded. In any case, if it was up to him, he would definitely do the same. Because it's the best way to keep his assets from shrinking.

"Although the prices of the other companies are very low, who knows if they can survive this crisis? So let's not invest, and the more critical the moment, the less we can do it. "

This was also a type of morality. Although this kind of morality was rarely spoken about in the shopping mall anymore, Wu Tian still felt that he should follow it from the bottom of his heart.

He might need the help of others one day.

"Okay, President Wu. I will stop immediately." They had other ways to do it, so this wasn't something they had to do.

"This is just one thing. Our own company has to be strengthened. "How much money do you have left?"

Wu Tian turned around and looked at Loong Yun. When Loong Yun heard him say that, she immediately cursed in her heart.

This guy was definitely here to ask for more money, and this money was probably not a small amount ...

"About 150 billion."

This number sounded like a lot, but for such a huge market, spending over 100 billion was just a drop in the bucket.

"Take out 50 billion and invest it in Hua Long Entertainment!"

Wu Tian's decision was very decisive. At such a critical moment, he must strengthen his company, and Hua Long Entertainment must seize the opportunity to pursue him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1089 - Secretary Visiting

C1089 Secretary Visiting

Wu Tian could ignore other businesses, but Yingdi Entertainment had to be treated as a different matter.

One had to know that this company did not hold any good ideas from the beginning. Now that his bubble had been punctured, there must be countless people in the movie industry who did not know what to do at this moment.

And if Hualong Entertainment stood up, it would be equivalent to raising a banner, and there would no longer be a match for him in the entire China.

This was equivalent to giving Wu Tian a godsend chance, so Wu Tian naturally would not miss it.

To be honest, such a large-scale investment was not really that big of a deal in the film industry.

Sometimes, a project would cost more than a billion dollars.

And now, Wu Tian had even specially launched the rookie plan, which was no small expense. As of now, most of Wu Group company's profits were invested into Hua Long Entertainment.

This was like a bottomless pit, constantly investing in projects, but with very little return.

"President Wu, shouldn't we prepare more operating funds for our company ..."

He also worries that such investments could lead to problems in their other businesses and sectors.

Wu Tian felt that what he said made sense, but this wasn't what he was most worried about right now.

"No, we've invested so much money into Hua Long Entertainment. He can only succeed and not fail." If this time, Hualong Entertainment is implicated... "Then we've really suffered a huge loss."

Wu Tian knew that he had fallen into a bottomless pit. The more he wanted to protect his capital, the more he had to invest in it.

This was equivalent to an infinite cycle, and the constant investment would cause this trap to get bigger and bigger, making it increasingly easy to pry open the bubble.

If Wu Tian's Hua Long Entertainment did not have the resources it has now, it would not be long before it goes out of business.

Everyone admitted to Wu Tian's words. While this made everyone feel helpless, they couldn't just give up on Hua Long Entertainment.

"Alright, let's do as President Wu says. We may not fail, but maybe Hua Long's performance will get better and better. "

Yu Naixin decided that she wanted the result to be as good as possible. Even if she didn't succeed, she had to do it well.

Only with this sort of awareness would he be able to truly solve this problem.

Their meeting was almost over when someone came in from outside and said they wanted to see him.

Loong Yun quickly went to ask who it was, but the people outside only reported that it seemed like they were from the government. As for their identity, they refused to say it.

This news was reported to Wu Tian.

"President Wu, do you want to meet this person?"

Honestly speaking, Wu Tian couldn't figure out who it was. It was strange to suddenly come to see him at this time.

However, if he did not see it, then he would not know who the other person was, and the curiosity in his heart would not be satisfied.

"Let him in, since we are at the Flower Island, I reckon that no matter how strong he is, he won't be able to escape our control."

Wu Tian was relatively at ease with this. Now, after a series of incidents with his Flower Island, his security level had increased by several times.

Not to mention these thugs, not even a mosquito can get through their security checks these days.

Not long after the message was sent, this mysterious person appeared in front of Wu Tian's office.

Wu Tian was surprised to see him.

This was because he had seen this person once before. Although he didn't know this person's name, he did know who this person was.

He was the secretary of the Bureau of Culture's Director Wang. When Wu Tian planned to pay a visit, he sent a letter over, and it was this secretary who received the letter.

However, at that time, Wu Tian did not reveal his real identity.

But now, he appeared. Could it be that Director General Wang realized his mistake and wanted Wu Tian to help him solve it?

Wu Tian felt that this conjecture did have some truth to it, perhaps the other party really did think so.

However, Wu Tian could not save himself at this moment and could not care about anyone else.

"Come and take a seat." Wu Tian waved towards the secretary and pulled him onto the sofa.

Loong Yun quickly served them a cup of tea and then stood by their side with her head bowed, listening to their conversation.

The secretary wasn't nervous at all. He wasn't envious of Wu Tian's luxury. His eyes basically stayed on Wu Tian. He didn't look around and didn't show too much change in mood.

He was definitely not a simple person. Perhaps he had some sort of background. If he didn't, then it would be even more admirable.

From these points alone, the secretary was many times taller than his chief.

"If I remember correctly, you should be Director General Wang's secretary."

The secretary nodded with a smile, "I also didn't expect that the person who sent the letter was the legendary Chairman Wu Tian Wu."

Wu Tian smiled and rubbed his hands. Then, he picked up his teacup and took a sip.

"Come and try this. This is the tea that was taken from the mountain this morning. It was flown in by air and you can't buy it outside."

Wu Tian didn't actually know much about these things, but he could still taste the good or bad parts.

The secretary took a sip and frowned slightly. Then he put down the cup with a smile.

Wu Tian saw the change in his mood and immediately understood what was going on.

"Chairman Wu, I didn't expect you to actually use such a method to test me."

The secretary leaned against the sofa with his arms crossed and started to relax. Wu Tian's probing made him feel less nervous.

"Haha, you really make me admire you. Not bad, this tea leaves is indeed a bluff. Not this morning at all, but from the market at a very low price. "

Wu Tian had a naughty smile on his face. Sometimes, when other business owners came to visit him, he would use this method. If the other party couldn't taste the flavor, Wu Tian would be happy to see them acting funny.

If he could taste it, Wu Tian would immediately serve good tea and treat this matter as a joke. As of now, there weren't many people who could tell that there was something wrong with the tea leaves.

However, it wasn't that their tongues weren't good enough or that their attainments in tea leaves were poor, but that they were intimidated by Wu Tian's reputation.

They couldn't believe that Wu Tian would lie to them on such a small matter, so naturally, only a few people could see through this. However, this secretary became one of them. This matter surprised Wu Tian.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1090 - I Don't Know Anything

C1090 I Don't Know Anything

After chatting for so long, Wu Tian finally decided to get down to business with this secretary.

He didn't come to find Wu Tian just to have tea with him, there must be something else.

"Speak, why did you come to find me?" But there's one thing I have to say first, and I'm afraid I can't help in this situation. "

Wu Tian was straightforward. He didn't plan to give his secretary any leeway to ease down. What he couldn't do was to not be able to do it.

This time, there was a problem with the economy, not because of Wu Tian. And this time, the scale was too big and the number of people involved was also very wide. It was not something that could be solved with just a little money from Wu Tian.

The secretary nodded. These words were within his expectations.

"President Wu, you really misunderstood. I did not come this time to ask you to do something ..." I just wanted to ask you something. "

When Wu Tian got here, he slightly nodded with a cup in his hand. Since that was the case, he was interested in listening to the story.

"What is it? Did Director General Wang send you here?"

If Director General Wang could really do this, then he was intelligent. He knew who the only person that could help him at this moment was.

However, this was beyond Wu Tian's expectation. The secretary shook his head.

"Director General Wang has been transferred..." He is no longer the head of the Cultural Bureau. "

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment, but he immediately felt relieved. This was normal, after all, such a big thing had happened, moreover it had a direct relationship with Director General Wang. It would be strange if he hadn't been transferred.

"It's actually not Director General Wang. In that case, did you come to find me for your own reasons?"

Wu Tian narrowed his eyes. To be honest, he felt that as a secretary, he didn't need to spend too much time and effort on this.

He could not be the director, and this matter had nothing to do with him. If it was anyone else, they would not even care.

"Of course I have no purpose. I just want to know what the truth is."

The secretary's smile was very sincere, and upon seeing it, one couldn't help but feel that he might really be a boy filled with sincerity, wholeheartedly pursuing justice and truth.

However, a cunning old fox like Wu Tian would never believe the things that they showed on the surface.

He began to rapidly calculate in his mind, who was this secretary? What kind of background? Could this position be a disguise for him?

What was he going to do if he wanted to know the truth?

These questions immediately appeared in Wu Tian's mind, but he knew that if he asked, the secretary wouldn't answer.

"The truth, what do you think the truth is?"

Wu Tian asked the secretary. He didn't say it directly. Wu Tian didn't say that he knew, nor did he say that he didn't know.

If Wu Tian did not answer the secretary's question, the secretary might expose his own weakness.

"I don't think there's much point in knowing what the truth is... Because the truth is there and it does not change its meaning as a truth because of a person's thoughts and decisions. "

The profound philosophy mentioned by the secretary nearly wrapped around Wu Tian. Luckily, he was stubborn and insisted on his decision.

At this moment, Wu Tian finally experienced the power of this secretary. He knew that if this person went into politics, he would definitely have a successful career.

"I'm sorry, I don't know anything about this."

Wu Tian decided not to talk to him anymore because he didn't know if he would say the wrong thing if he continued to talk.

If Wu Tian didn't know the real identity of this secretary, he definitely wouldn't give out his information so easily.

When the secretary saw that he could not gain any advantage here, he could only sigh in the end.

"Alright, I hope that I can come visit you the next time I have the chance."

Wu Tian nodded and said a few polite words before sending the secretary away.

Turning around, Wu Tian instructed Loong Yun, "Quickly investigate this person's background! I don't believe that there is no one who supports him. Otherwise, why would he know about this? "

Wu Tian was skeptical, but his guess was reasonable.

If other people had thoughts about this, Wu Tian would have been able to understand it, but this person's identity was that of a secretary.

Could it be that the secretary had a sense of justice? Wu Tian didn't believe those lies at all.

It wasn't that there weren't any of these people, but they didn't look like they were the type like secretaries.

In the past two days, S City's economic situation had become even worse.

At the same time, there were also people that had their eyes fixed on this piece of fatty meat that made them drool with desire.

Foreign capital was entering the market in large quantities.

The price of the stock had plummeted, but now there were people buying up large amounts of the stock.

Wu Zaibin quickly reported the news to Wu Tian. Sure enough, what Wu Tian was worried about had really happened.

"We didn't buy stocks, but someone really did... They really have no conscience at all! "

Wu Tian slapped the table hard. Although he was angry, but there was nothing he could do. This kind of thing could only be called immoral and didn't violate the law.

He could do nothing but curse them.

"Buying shares at this time is simply forcing them to become prostitutes. Many companies' shares will be controlled at this time. I'm afraid that after this crisis, many companies will change ownership."

Wu Zaibin was helpless. This was already happening, and he had already predicted perfectly what the result would be.

"Can't we do something?"

Wu Zaibin still hoped that such a thing wouldn't happen.

Wu Tian shook his head. Honestly speaking, although their company was a large scale company throughout the country, there was only a limited amount of things they could do.

"No. This is not something that one of our companies can change. If we can do it, then we don't need the government. "

Wu Tian's attitude was very clear. He definitely wouldn't get involved with this matter, and it's not that he wasn't willing to do it. With just Wu Group, he still couldn't go against all these foreign companies.

As the two of them were talking, Yu Naixin suddenly barged in with a panicked look on her face.

"This is bad!"

Hearing him, both Wu Tian and Wu Zaibin looked at Yu Naixin strangely.

"What happened?"

Yu Naixin walked to the side of the tea table and downed the cup of tea in one gulp.

"All of our company's supplier s are out of stock ..."
