C1096 Rescue Operation

These people deserved it. They came to find trouble when Wu Tian's mood was bad. They were already lucky not to give them a good beating.

Sunn Hongsheng usually didn't dare to be so arrogant towards these reporters. After all, if they randomly reported any news, the police might be scolded half to death.

However, it was not easy for anyone here.

Luo Huaicheng had already ordered his men to clear this place out, and the people from Special Team already started to occupy some of the high points on the side fully armed.

"Over there, send two men and a sniper on the top floor!" The Special Team had a total of five hundred people, and under Luo Huaicheng's command, they all started moving.

Wu Tian walked over with a worried look and asked while pulling Luo Huaicheng.

"Captain Luo, are you confident this time?"

Luo Huaicheng looked at the building. The kidnapping case this time could be said to be quite rare in the history of the country. To be honest, he wasn't too sure either.

If it was really as Wu Tian had said, these people were just laid-off workers and temporary thoughts. Then things would be easy.

However, no one would believe that a group of ordinary people could actually get a large amount of explosives. They can also kidnap hundreds of people in the company.

Their identities were definitely not ordinary. What ordinary people? Those idiotic reporters would believe that, at least Luo Huaicheng and the others would not dare to be careless.

"It's hard to say, but I will try my best!" Luo Huaicheng said gloomily. The mission this time was indeed not easy.

Wu Tian frowned. His people aren't here yet, so if they force their way in, he wasn't sure if anything would happen to them.

"If not, I'll go myself!" Wu Tian had already mentally prepared himself for such a situation. He also felt that this was something that ordinary people would not be able to handle.

Luo Huaicheng turned pale with fright when he heard that. He quickly stopped Wu Tian.

"You can't go, they are thugs and they may have other weapons in their hands. Let me tell you, the best thing we can do now is to wait. Once my men are in place, find a way to investigate the enemy's position. We still have an hour, don't we?"

Speaking of which, Wu Tian nodded. He had started to arrange people to prepare for this one hour. After all, if there really wasn't any good way, Wu Tian decided to use money to redeem them.

However, it was hard to say whether or not these people had the ability to bear the consequences of this incident. After all, Wu Tian was truly angry this time.

"My old bro, this is already happening. Can I not go?" Wu Tian was truly worried. If he couldn't personally understand the situation, then there was a high probability that he wouldn't be able to relax.

"With a body like yours, can you do it? If you go, you might even cause trouble for our team members! I didn't mean to annoy you, but I hope you can understand why I'm saying this in such a matter-of-fact way. "

Luo Huaicheng felt that he might have gone too far with his words. In fact, he didn't even know Wu Tian's own strength, so he thought he was just an ordinary person.

While they were talking, Luo Huaicheng's men were already in position. As these thugs were occupying the middle positions, the upper levels were controlled by Su Cancan along with her Security Team, while the lower levels were occupied by the Special Team's people.

It could be said that the enemies couldn't move up and down. They were basically like turtles in a jar and couldn't escape anymore.

If it wasn't for the fact that they had hostages, Wu Tian would have sent people to kill all of these thugs.

"Captain, we are currently searching below, but it will be difficult to find the bomb in a short period of time ..."

"You still have to find them for me. There are hundreds of lives above!" If this building collapsed, then hundreds of people would die. This was the center of the city, and there were many tall buildings around ...

Moreover, there were many people who had gathered. If things went wrong, there might be tens of thousands of casualties, or even hundreds of thousands of casualties.

If this happened, not to mention Wu Tian, Luo Huaicheng and the rest would be played from top to bottom.

Just as he was speaking, another explosion came from the top of the building. The glass in the other room was shattered and the flames spread out. Smoke continuously floated up from the explosion.

"What the f * ck!" Wu Tian clenched his fist and punched the car beside him, forcing the car into a pit.

"President Wu, quickly contact the robbers inside and ask them to ensure the safety of the hostages!" Luo Huaicheng could also guess that the purpose of the other party's action was to intimidate Wu Tian in this way.

That way, they would have the ability to deal with the threat of Wu Tian and the others.

"That is only natural."

Wu Tian quickly did as he was told, but the other side stopped contacting Wu Tian and refused to answer the call.

And according to Luo Huaicheng's special forces report, they came from the faraway observation point. The other side pulled all the curtains around the windows in order to prevent the members from getting information from the outside.

At this moment, everyone was at a loss for what to do. After all, they had already used all sorts of methods, but none of them had any effect.

Actually, Wu Tian's idea was very simple. Number 1 was very good at speed. Maybe his speed could be used in this operation to rescue hostages.

There was no need to talk about Erniu's ability. She could help Wu Tian get what was on his mind in advance. That way, he might be able to avoid some potential risks.

If neither of them could solve this problem, then Wu Tian felt that he would have no other choice, so he might as well give up completely.

Saying that, Wu Tian let these people carry the money and followed behind him. He was prepared to walk into the building to take a look.

The other party could not possibly stop him from leaving. After all, he was in charge of paying.

Just as they were about to enter, Luo Huaicheng suddenly ran over to stop Wu Tian.

"Wait a minute, we have new developments!"

Luo Huaicheng said in pleasant surprise, and then hurriedly pulled Wu Tian aside.

Everyone didn't know what Luo Huaicheng was up to, but they saw that there was still plenty of time, so they followed him.

When they arrived at an alley nearby, Wu Tian finally understood what Luo Huaicheng was talking about.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1097 - Kind People Get More Help

C1097 Kind People Get More Help

Actually, Wu Tian's idea was very simple. Number 1 was very good at speed. Maybe his speed could be used in this operation to rescue hostages.

There was no need to talk about Erniu's ability. It could help Wu Tian know what was going on in the people's hearts. That way, he might be able to avoid some potential risks.

If neither of them could solve this problem, then Wu Tian felt that he would have no other choice, so he might as well give up completely.

As he said that, Wu Tian had these people take the money and wanted to follow behind him to take a look inside the building.

The other party couldn't possibly have stopped him from going out, right? After all, he was in charge of paying.

Just as they were about to enter, Luo Huaicheng suddenly ran over to stop Wu Tian.

"Wait a minute, we have new developments!"

Luo Huaicheng said in pleasant surprise, and then hurriedly pulled Wu Tian aside.

Everyone didn't know what Luo Huaicheng was up to, but seeing that there was still plenty of time, they followed him.

When they arrived at an alley nearby, Wu Tian finally understood what Luo Huaicheng was talking about.

Because in front of him were twelve agents in tight suits.

He was very familiar with these people because the one leading them was Zhao Hui.

"Wu Tian, we're here to help you. If you encounter something like this, you should contact us first!"

Zhao Hui excitedly walked up and hugged Wu Tian.

These agents had a very high opinion of Wu Tian. Without Wu Tian, they would probably be dead by now.

"I really didn't expect you to come here, but don't you have a job? Is it really okay to let you participate in something like this?"

Wu Tian didn't know that these agents could move freely. If not, inviting these more professional people would be twice the result with half the effort.

"We've all suffered such serious injuries. Recently, there aren't any missions. We just have some training. Since you ran into some problems, let's just treat it as training."

Zhao Hui said with a smile on his face. Anyway, it's great to have them participate. This way, Wu Tian would feel a lot more at ease.

Looking at these people, Wu Tian was also very emotional. It seems that his previous efforts were not without rewards.

"Alright then, let's not talk about pleasantries. This matter isn't easy to deal with. The other party has too many people, there are at least a hundred of them. Furthermore, they have taken almost five hundred hostages ..."

Wu Tian briefly explained the situation to them. The most important issue was the bomb.

According to the information provided by the thugs, they claimed that they had placed many bombs inside the building. As long as they could not get the ransom or exceeded the time limit, the bombs would explode.

By then the whole building wouldn't be safe, let alone the people inside.

The agents looked at each other, their expressions unchanged.

Zhao Hui crossed his arms and nodded as if he thought of something.

"Making bombs is my forte. Leave that to us."

He was very confident. If he, Zhao Hui, were to say that he was second in terms of bombs, no one would dare to say that he was first.

As for his technique, Wu Tian had already experienced it before at that place in the Brilliant Company.

"Really! It would be great if that were the case! "

Wu Tian was extremely excited. The appearance of the special agents had really helped a lot.

If they could find all of these bombs and destroy them, the rest would be a lot easier to deal with.

The enemy had no weapons in their hands, so what could they do to threaten these hostages?

After what Wu Tian feared naturally disappeared, he would no longer show mercy to these people.

"Alright, let's divide up. Special Agent team, you will lead your men and sneak in from the top of the building. Afterwards, you will be responsible for dismantling all the bombs. But I'm curious, how did you figure out where the bombs are? "

To be honest, Wu Tian couldn't figure it out no matter how hard he tried, so he directly asked.

Zhao Hui smiled. He waved to his companions and took out a box from the back.

Opening it, he saw that it was a very delicate instrument. There was a stethoscope that seemed to be used by doctors.

"This is an ultrasonic detector. We can use it to detect whether there are bombs nearby. So don't worry."

Zhao Hui explained it briefly and then sent the device back.

Seeing this, Wu Tian nodded his head. On this point, he would no longer question the agents of Zhao Hui.

"Since the special agent is coming from the top, how about I have my Special Team ready to break through from the bottom?"

Luo Huaicheng was also eager to give it a try. Actually, they didn't have much interaction with the special forces, but seeing that they were able to show off their skills here, to be honest, Luo Huaicheng didn't want to admit defeat.

He knew that each of the agents was one out of ten thousand, a dragon among men. However, their special forces weren't for you to bully, not to mention that after getting the training equipment provided by Wu Tian, Luo Huaicheng felt that his strength had increased to a lawless level.

He urgently needed a stage to display his strength, and at the same time, he could also show his combat ability to the leaders up above.

"You guys are fighting from the bottom, but it doesn't seem like you have any advantage. Is that really possible?"

Wu Tian was still worried. After all, the special forces were from the top down and the special forces were from the bottom up. There was a natural suppression from them.

"There will definitely be some difficulties. However, we have quite a large number of people!"

Luo Huaicheng did not think so. If his Special Team was unable to solve such a small problem, then it would be impossible for him to become a Special Team.

Seeing that he was so insistent, Wu Tian didn't say anything else and happily agreed to Luo Huaicheng's request.

"Fine, then let's do it like this. After the bomb has been removed, we will receive the secret service team's message and figure out how to sneak in. We need to avoid harming the hostages as much as possible!"

Wu Tian emphasized repeatedly. These hostages were his treasures, they were his employees!

Furthermore, it was said that Zhang Chi's group, along with the other higher ups of his department, were inside. If these people were to lose, Wu Tian would have no place to make up for it.

"Don't worry President Wu, you did save us before, now it's our turn to help you. It's time to show you the power of our secret service team!"

After saying that, Zhao Hui left with his men. This was the start of the show.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1098 - Bargaining

C1098 Bargaining

The sky started to turn dark. This was more beneficial to Wu Tian and the others.

Under the cover of the night, the group was quickly split into two.

Wu Tian, on the other hand, followed his plan and prepared to go in with Number 1 and Erniu.

Since he had already called ahead of time, Bao Tou and Wu Tian had arranged to meet up on the tenth floor in the middle of the hall.

The tenth floor had a rather large hall. The surroundings could be seen clearly. The other side might have felt that it would be safer to trade here.

They obviously knew that they were surrounded, so the only way for them to survive was to use the hostages in their hands.

Soon, Wu Tian had reached the tenth floor. The few of them stood in the middle of the hall and looked around. It was quiet.

None of them spoke, but they were all very nervous.

Wu Tian could feel that the other party must be secretly observing them. However, Wu Tian brought a few people with him this time. They didn't seem to have any fighting strength.

Erniu looked like a teenage girl, while Loong Yun was a secretary. Wu Tian and Number 1 were thin and weak, so they didn't look like they could fight.

The only person that could be a threat was Azure Dragon. He was bulky and bulky, but he was alone. The other party was probably looking down on him as well.

Soon enough, the thugs appeared in front of them. However, they were not a single person. Rather, they were a group of people.

They formed a circle and surrounded Wu Tian and the others.

"About that, I've already taken the money you guys wanted ..."

Wu Tian pointed at the money box behind him. Ten billion was not a small amount. These boxes couldn't hold 10 billion, so he still had some money in his bank card.

These thugs' eyes were filled with greed. They couldn't wait to snatch all these money right away.

However, they did not do so. Instead, they suppressed the flames of desire in their hearts.

"As for your leader, I want him to keep his word! Let all my employees go! We'll hand over the money in one go and hand over the person! "

Wu Tian said righteously. This was nothing to him, as most rules were like this.

However, the other party was not an ordinary person. Therefore, they could not use the ethics and ethics of an ordinary person to request anything of them.

"We don't have a boss. If anything happens, we'll decide it all together!"

"That's right, you said that person promised to release him, how could I not know! Give us the money first, we need to count it! "

At this moment, the thugs started to make all sorts of noises. All in all, they didn't cooperate with Wu Tian's request at all.

Some of them even tried to push forward to fight for it, but were pushed back by Azure Dragon.

Although these people were vicious, they did not have a solid body. They did have the feeling of being laid-off workers.

However, most people wouldn't be so bad, so Wu Tian was suspicious of their identity.

"If you don't have any sincerity, then it won't do. I am a businessman, a businessman is about sincerity! Since you and I have agreed on this, and I have brought money with me, doesn't it seem a little excessive for you to go back on your words? "

Wu Tian didn't intend to directly offend these people, but he also didn't want to be played by them.

"Looks like our Boss Wu is angry ..."

"But I did not sign this promise with you. Any decision we make here is the result of our discussions. If you have a conversation with that person, you can go and find him!"

"Exactly, without an agreement that we all agree on, this agreement cannot be counted as one."

All of a sudden, all sorts of arguments arose, Wu Tian felt like his head was going to explode. He never thought that these people would be so difficult to deal with and even come up with such unreasonable arguments.

Wu Tian was about to die from anger, but he couldn't show it on his face. If they angered these people, they would be in trouble if they took the hostages.

Looking at this scene, Wu Tian took a deep breath, "Don't argue anymore. Since you all plan on coming here together to resolve this issue, then fine, you all can start negotiating now."

Wu Tian was willing to wait here for them. To be frank, he wanted to see what they could come up with.

Those people looked at each other. The thugs stared at the cash box as they moved back and forth on Wu Tian's group.

They then said something below.

After a while, someone suggested his idea.

"We demand a ransom, double it!"

When they heard this, before Wu Tian could say anything, Loong Yun had already yelled out.

"What? Double the price? Do you know how much it is? Our company doesn't have much money left!"

Loong Yun was so anxious that she broke the sound barrier.

"What does that have to do with me? What's more, with your Wu Group Company's huge group, you can't even raise these tens of billions of dollars?"

"Exactly, who are you trying to trick? You rich people still want to pretend to be poor in front of us?"

For a moment, Loong Yun was almost unable to speak, so she quickly shut her mouth.

Wu Tian scratched his head with a frown. Things really have become a bit difficult to deal with.

"Calm down everyone. The problem of money is easy to solve, it's just that ..."

Wu Tian didn't intend to reject the other party's request, but he also didn't intend to agree directly.

"But what?"

"Cash is not something that can be obtained so easily. It will take time! I've been preparing this money for an hour or two, and now you're doubling it for me. I can't get it in three or four hours. Banks don't always have that much cash in their hands. "

Wu Tian spoke with a sincere heart. Actually, what he said was true. If he really had to take out 10 billion, he wouldn't be able to take it out now.

Even if the company had ten billion on its account, he still wouldn't be able to do anything about it.

"Unless you want me to transfer the funds directly, that is the only way. Otherwise, I won't be able to do it. "

Wu Tian spread out his hands, indicating that he was powerless.

The group of thugs didn't know what to do either. In front of them, they could even guide the conversation forward. However, at this moment, Wu Tian had already taken control of the situation.

They did not even realize this point, and the group of people immediately began chattering again. What could be considered as a more suitable outcome for them.

Not long after that, the people who had been talking raised their heads again.

"We've decided to give you some relief. 15 billion, you still have an hour!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1099 - Delay Time

C1099 Delay Time

From a certain point of view, they did give Wu Tian a leniency.

Of course, this was not because of their conscience, but because they were afraid that they would not be able to get the money.

If both sides were to perish together, although the biggest loss would be Wu Tian, these thugs would face the fate of getting nothing.

They, too, had their own selfish motives. In the face of such a huge amount of wealth, they would definitely be thinking whether they should allow themselves to earn more.

If they missed this opportunity, they would never be billionaires again.

So no one was willing to give up the money.

"You said you could transfer the money?"

A thug suddenly asked.

Wu Tian immediately nodded and replied, "Yes, if you are willing to provide a bank account, I can transfer the money to you through transfer."

Many thugs stood up happily when they heard this. They were already worried. With so much cash, one part of it was that they couldn't carry it, and the other part was that it wasn't safe.

If the money could be transferred directly to the account, the matter would basically be relieved.

"I have an account, you can transfer it to my account!"

The thug smiled happily. He wanted the money right away, so he took two steps forward and walked out of the crowd.

He slowly walked in front of Wu Tian and wrote a note on his bank account before handing it over.

He didn't think that someone would actually bring his bank account number over right now. Wu Tian didn't know whether he should pick it up or not.

He said that he wouldn't accept it, but there were so many people watching. And he did say something like that.

But if he took it, he would have to send the money over. This was not a small loss.

The scene suddenly became awkward. Wu Tian looked helplessly at Loong Yun behind him, wanting to ask for her opinion.

Loong Yun secretly nodded her head. She felt that there was a little benefit in doing so. These people had provided an account, which meant that their identity had been exposed.

After seeing Loong Yun's nod, Wu Tian was finally confident. He then received the note with his account number and handed it over to Loong Yun.

"It will take me some time to transfer the funds. Please calm down."

Wu Tian was still smiling along with him. In short, he just didn't want the other party to feel what he was thinking. As for everything else, Wu Tian still had a lot of ways to deal with them.

Very quickly, their movements were able to complete the task very quickly.

With this opening, many people started to get restless. After all, this method could be said to have completely dispelled their worries.

No matter who it was, first of all, they would receive the money in advance. Second, they wouldn't have to worry about the safety of their own money.

All of a sudden, a lot of people also came up to Wu Tian to get him to transfer the money. Some of the thugs seemed to be unable to stand it any longer. Not all of them were idiots.

"What are you guys doing? Are you handing over your account to wait for them to know your identities?"

"You're all fools!"

There were now voices among the thugs. At this moment, Wu Tian and the others were extremely happy in their hearts.

Who would have thought that they themselves weren't made of steel. Wasn't it still very loose?

Who told them to just say that all the decisions here require collective approval and consent?

Now that it was settled, these people naturally had no choice but to organize them and use the transfer to receive the funds.

Moreover, when they did receive the money, this effect would quickly spread to even more people.

Wu Tian originally hoped that he could come over and stall for time, but it seemed that this plan was rather successful.

With so many people wanting him to transfer the funds, it would be impossible for him to do so in such a short period of time. The other side couldn't say anything to Wu Tian.

It was at this time that Wu Tian stood aside and started to count the number of thugs. The number of people that had appeared was about one hundred, and there were nearly seventy to eighty people present.

In other words, as long as the people in front of him were taken care of, there would only be a few people left in the building.

Just as Wu Tian was thinking this, someone on the other side suddenly stood up and walked straight towards Wu Tian.

"Since you're willing to transfer the funds to them, shouldn't you send the cash here to us as well?"

There were quite a few people who were staring at the money. After all, after some of them asked to transfer the money, wouldn't the remaining people be able to directly request for the current cash?

Although it was not guaranteed that everyone would be able to get it, there was definitely a large portion of people who would be able to get the money.

These words seemed to have opened their brains, as a group of people immediately surrounded them.

"That's right, you have to pay us!"

Wu Tian looked at the increasing pressure on his side. This was not a solution. He quickly stood forward.

"Everyone, pay attention. You can ask me to, but I must see my people. I don't know if they are safe or not. I won't give you a single cent until I see them."

Wu Tian didn't feel that he was at a disadvantage. On the contrary, he felt that since the other party wanted his money so badly, he had to show some sincerity.

Under the temptation of so much money, it was impossible for the other party to not compromise.

As expected, the thugs stopped in their tracks and started chatting with each other.

After a while, they came to their conclusion. A few of them left the group and ran to the back.

As Wu Tian watched their figures disappear, he wondered if these people had gone to bring his hostages.

Very quickly, he saw these people carry a few people over. When they arrived in front of him, Wu Tian was able to see them clearly.

These hostages were all wearing black headgear, and their hands and feet were tightly bound, making them unable to move.

They let out whining sounds, as if something was stuffed into their mouths, making them unable to speak.

Wu Tian felt heartache when he saw their expressions. No matter what, they were still his employees.

"Let them go!"

Wu Tian said in a hurry. He tried his best to get close to his employees, but the thugs blocked his path.

"Pay first!"

If he doesn't pay, they won't let him see the hostages. Facing this kind of situation, Wu Tian was speechless.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1100 - Reversal of the Situation

C1100 Reversal of the Situation

They saw that Wu Tian didn't want to give them any money, so they didn't let him see it. Wu Tian was speechless.

The initiative suddenly returned to the hands of these thugs, who were carrying weapons such as sticks.

They were openly threatening his employees. If Wu Tian didn't pay, they might do something extremely cruel in front of him.

"Yes, yes, yes. Take off the hood and let me see!"

Wu Tian made a certain amount of compromise, but he had to know that these people were really employees.

He might not be able to recognize all the employees, but Loong Yun had a very good memory. As long as she could see, she would be able to identify them.

The thugs didn't seem to care. They took off the black headgear on the hostages' heads, revealing their faces underneath.

Wu Tian looked at the hostage in front of him in surprise, it was obviously Xi Chengwen ...

Aside from Huang Lan, he had the hottest celebrity under his command. He had never imagined that she had also been kidnapped ... I just don't know if they know who she is...

"Alright, you saw them too. Hurry up and give us the money!"

Wu Tian had a helpless look on his face. Being forced like this by them, it would not be appropriate for him to not pay them anymore.

"Good, good, good ..." I'll give you a portion of the money, so you can hand the person over to me. To be able to exchange for money and hand over a person, that shouldn't be a problem, right? "

These thugs didn't have much opinions on this matter. They still had a lot of hostages under their command, so sending a few to Wu Tian didn't affect their authority.

In order to show their sincerity, the thugs pushed Xi Chengwen's group to the side.

Azure Dragon quickly went over to support them and help them remove the bindings on their bodies.

Wu Tian and Loong Yun took the cash box and opened it.

He stacked the cash one by one from the inside and distributed it outside at a price of 200 million per person.

"Why did you all only come here now ..."

When Xi Chengwen saw the faces of Wu Tian and the others, she immediately cried. She thought that it was very likely she would die here. However, they did not expect Wu Tian to come save them.

"I came late, I came late ..." I'm sorry. "

Wu Tian apologized guiltily. This was what he had said in his heart. If he had found out earlier and started the operation while they were still just doing odd jobs, things might not have gotten so out of hand.

Actually, what Xi Chengwen said earlier was more of a lament. She knew that Wu Tian was in a difficult situation.

Furthermore, Wu Tian was constantly giving money to others. Xi Chengwen wasn't stupid enough to understand what was going on.

However, she couldn't say anything with her current position. After all, they were hostages and this money was equivalent to buying their lives.

Wu Tian rolled his eyes. On the surface, he was still playing with the money. However, he started to chat with Erniu in his mind.

"Did you find anything wrong?"

"It's hard to say ..."

Erniu looked at Wu Tian with a complicated expression. Honestly, Wu Tian didn't know what this meant either.

"Which one of them is the leader?"

Wu Tian firmly did not think that it was impossible for no one to take the lead. This was pure bullshit. By saying this, they decided to group up was actually a plan to delay the war. No matter who they lied to, they couldn't lie to Wu Tian.

Therefore, he felt that there must be a commander amongst these people.

"Leader, he's not here ..."

Erniu carefully checked their brains. Although these people wouldn't say such things on their faces or mouths, there was no way for them to defend themselves. Erniu immediately started to read their minds.

It had to be said that this ability was too abnormal. It was like a human radar. No matter what secrets they had, there was no way to stop Erniu's detection.

"What?" You mean there is a leader, but he's not here? "

Wu Tian was surprised. He thought that the leader must have lurked in the crowd, but he didn't expect such a result.

It was no wonder why these thugs would split into two or three groups and use different methods to collect the money.

It turned out that since no one was present to command them, the question was, who was their leader? Who planned all this from behind?

Wu Tian was planning to do this, but suddenly, Loong Yun pulled Wu Tian under her.

Wu Tian suddenly became happy when he saw Loong Yun making an OK gesture towards him.

This was the signal they had secretly communicated with before. Loong Yun had an extremely hidden earphone in her ear. If you didn't pay attention, you wouldn't be able to see the earphone anymore.

They could hear the movements of the special forces at any moment. Obviously, this OK gesture meant that the special forces had already completed their mission.

It had only been a little more than ten minutes, but they had already figured out the bombs inside the building.

Apart from a few bombs that they had no way to get close to, all of the remaining bombs had already been disposed of.

Hearing this news, Wu Tian's back immediately stiffened. What was he afraid of?

Since they did not have any bombs, and their threat to the hostages had been reduced to an extremely low level, they would have to launch a large-scale counterattack!

Wu Tian's hand suddenly stopped holding the money. He had been putting the money out from the inside of the money box, but at this moment, he suddenly put the money back.

These thugs were surprised at Wu Tian's actions and could not believe it.

"What are you doing?"

Some people started to be flustered. The people in front all received the money, but now that it was them, Wu Tian seemed to have changed his mind.

"I'm not doing anything, I just want to go back on my word."

Wu Tian said as if nothing had happened. At this moment, the people in front of them were ... Their eyes were as wide as an egg from a cow.

They never expected Wu Tian to say something like that, it was completely outside of their expectations.

"You ... Don't you want your hostage? "

At this moment, the thugs started to get nervous. Xi Chengwen, who was on the side, also stared at Wu Tian. Cheng Wen was also afraid that Wu Tian would really give up on those remaining hostages.

"I definitely won't give up on the hostage. From now on, I'll solemnly declare to all of you that no matter who you are, release him immediately! Otherwise, the consequences will be for you to take responsibility for! "

Wu Tian's powerful words echoed in the entire hall.

The air suddenly became quiet. The thugs looked at each other, then burst out laughing like thunder.

This man was crazy. The thugs pointed at Wu Tian, thinking that this rich guy must have gone crazy over money.
