

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1101 - End

C1101 End

These people probably thought that the rich people really valued money so much that they thought Wu Tian had gone crazy.

He saw his money being given away in large quantities, and at this moment, he began to have the thought of giving up.

"If you keep the money, I'm sorry, but we still have hundreds of hostages! Killing a few hostages is nothing to us. "

The thugs joked. They didn't treat these hostages as people at all.

On the contrary, it made them feel like this was just a joke from their mouths, and the lives of the hostages weren't even considered lives. In their eyes, attacking a person was as easy as crushing a bug.

Wu Tian looked coldly at these people and looked at them with an ashen face.

"If you dare, then try it! If you do not want to die! "

Hearing this, the thugs became even more arrogant.

One of them stood up, walked to Wu Tian and looked at him arrogantly.

"That's what you said ..."

Before he could finish his sentence, his head suddenly burst open. The red blood mixed with the white in his brain and splattered in the air.

At the same time, his body also fell to the ground. At this moment, when everyone looked again, there were only a few fragments left on his head.

At this moment, the sound of a gunshot came from afar. This gunshot had come from outside the window.

Loong Yun and the others didn't stay idle while they were inside, constantly reporting the situation inside to the Special Team outside through some hidden cameras.

Seeing that the enemy's threat had been lifted, they no longer had to control their firepower.

It had to be said that the shooting skills of these Special Team soldiers were extremely powerful. Under such circumstances, they were able to hit their target.

You should know that the person was only two to three meters away from Wu Tian.

Everyone present was shocked by what they saw. The thugs couldn't believe that their man had been killed right in front of their eyes.

All of this was just the beginning. Gunshots were constantly fired in all directions, and the people who were hit in the chest continuously had their heads blown off.

Even though they had closed the curtains, Special Team knew the situation inside the house like the back of their hand. Even so, they were still able to hit the target.

These people originally thought that they had grasped the situation, but after paying a painful price, these people realized that in front of a true killing machine, they were not even worth mentioning.

The rest of the thugs immediately ran away. They did not want to die in this place. Even if they had to take money, it would be useless.

Some of them wanted to attack Wu Tian, but they were sent flying by Azure Dragon's punch.

At the same time, gunshots started coming from the floor below. Luo Huaicheng should have already started the main assault with his men.

The people from Special Team would fight from the bottom to the top, and the people from Security Team would fight from the top to the bottom.

They were progressing quickly, and the journey was almost an easy one.

The thugs didn't have guns in their hands, so they couldn't defend against such an attack.

The sticks in his hands were enough to deal with ordinary hostages, but dealing with these soldiers was simply a joke.

In just a few minutes, both sides had reached the last floor that had not been attacked.

The remaining half of the mob were gathered here, as were the hostages. They had sealed all the stairways up and down and destroyed the surveillance equipment inside.

At this moment, even Wu Tian and the others had no way of knowing what was going on inside.

The attacks stopped once again, but now Wu Tian and the others were in control of the situation.

"You can't go any further! We have hostages! "

He picked them up, took them outside, and gestured with his knife at their necks.

This time they were serious, not joking.

"Since you have gone back on your word, then don't blame us for being merciless!"

As he spoke, the thug's sword was about to cut through them when they suddenly felt as if something had flashed before their eyes.

When they saw that the knives in their hands were gone, the thugs did not know what was going on. They looked at each other and wondered.

However, they immediately felt that something was wrong, because there was a trace of pain on their necks. A few of them lowered their heads and reached out to touch it, only to discover that their hands were covered in blood.

Only then did these thugs notice that their necks had been cut open with the same knife.

However, the speed was simply too fast, so fast that they didn't even have the chance to react.

The sound of people landing on the ground rang out. Following the sound, a few corpses fell to the ground. Those hostages, on the other hand, were scared stiff.

They originally thought that this time round would be the end. However, they never expected that such a thing would actually happen. It was simply like a miracle.

The thugs were stunned. They had no idea what to do. The weapons in their hands were useless, so the only thing they could do now was to detonate the bomb.

"I'll kill you all!"

As he said that, a person stood up and took out his cell phone to press a button.

This very traditional method of detonating explosives was often seen in movies and TV dramas, and it was very effective.

Of course, these thugs had learned from them, and now they were in a state of despair.

They probably thought that it was impossible for them to leave this place alive. Since that was the case, they might as well pull Wu Tian and the others along and kill them all.

However, the explosion that they remembered did not happen. What awaited them was Wu Tian and the others, who crossed their arms and looked at these thugs with a cold smile.

"What's going on ..."

"Why didn't the bomb ring?!"

The thugs trembled in fear. They realized that they were all idiots at this moment. They thought that they could use the feather as an arrow, but in front of others, the feather was still feather.

"Fire!"

Su Cancan looked at the scene in front of her with an indifferent expression as she spoke to the Security Team staff beside her. The few of them immediately used the transmitters in their hands to throw the jars out.

These jars exploded right between the mob and the hostages, but this one wasn't a lethal one. It was a smoke bomb.

A cloud of light purple smoke quickly filled the room, and in just two or three seconds, it had completely enveloped the entire room.

And that was why the Security Team users had already put on their gas masks and entered along with the smoke.

Wu Tian looked at Su Cancan's actions and was a little worried that the thugs would cause too much trouble.

He was just about to contact Su Cancan to ask her to leave, but he found that the Security Team s were swaggering inside. Those thugs and hostages fainted on the ground, unable to move.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1102 - Fish That Have Escaped the Net

C1102 Fish That Have Escaped the Net

If not for this skill, Wu Tian would have almost forgotten that Su Cancan was previously a member of Wudu Sect.

To people with Wudu Sect, this kind of poisonous miasma that could confuse a person was the foundation of all basics.

There were many similar things, which was not difficult for them.

Su Cancan had always been afraid that they would do something too extreme, so she didn't dare to use this tactic.

However, these people were currently gathered in a not too big or small confined space, which was beneficial to her poison.

As expected, this move was twice the result with half the effort. As the smoke dispersed, the one hit fell to the ground.

The Security Team Practitioners quickly supported the few hundred people out and placed them in the hands of the Special Team. These people would be sent to the hospital to be examined, and the remaining thugs would all be handcuffed.

At this moment, the special forces had also walked out from the corner. They were the true mainstay of this victory.

"Thank you so much, Zhao Hui!"

Wu Tian ran over excitedly and held their hands.

If it wasn't for them, who knows how they would solve the problem this time. Maybe Wu Tian would have to pay several billion.

"President Wu is too polite. You saved all of our lives. It's nothing to help you with such a small matter." But you have to be careful, I don't think it's that simple. "

After hearing Zhao Hui's words, Wu Tian started to scheme in his heart.

He was indeed thinking the same thing. This matter was definitely not ordinary. Furthermore, it also revealed a strange feeling to others.

If it was really Wu Tian, how could they not know famous celebrities like Xi Chengwen?

They even handed her over to Wu Tian as the first batch of hostages. If it was a normal robber, he would definitely hold such an important person in his hands and raise their conditions.

"You noticed that, too. What do you think?"

Wu Tie nodded. He walked to the side of one of the thugs and squatted down with Wu Tian. He stretched out his hand to touch the clothes on the thug's body and said slowly.

"Look at what he's wearing, these clothes are actually the factory's uniforms. I heard that a lot of the factories have gone bankrupt recently. It seems like some of them are really off-duty workers."

As he spoke, he opened the palms of the unconscious thug. There were calluses everywhere on his palms, and only rough workers would look like this.

"But ..." What the hell are they? Why are they attacking me? They even use my hostage as a threat? I don't think these people can make bombs, and they can't have bombs. "

Wu Tian also doubted this point. If they could get the bomb out, then why did these guys perform so poorly at this time? It was completely different from their previous cruel and merciless behavior.

"I'm afraid there should be other people directing them from behind. When they wake up, we should interrogate them."

Zhao Hui could not tell what was left over in that short period of time.

"Let's go back first. There are still some clues on the bomb that we can investigate. Maybe we can find out where these bombs came from."

The control of this kind of thing was rather strict, especially regarding the raw materials inside. Generally, there would be a very specific place to produce and sell it. If something were to happen, it would be quite simple to search for it.

"I really thank all of you ..."

After Wu Tian sent off Zhao Hui's group, the situation inside the building had become much better.

Most of the people had been cleared out. Fortunately, some of the equipment and scenes were not severely damaged.

It was just that a few houses had been burnt beyond recognition, but this loss was nothing to Wu Tian.

As for the ransom they paid, they were all taken back. The members of Special Team didn't care about the money and returned it back to Wu Tian without missing a cent.

Needless to say, all the money that was transferred to the bank was frozen and returned to Wu Tian.

It could be said that this time, the crisis was solved perfectly, and Wu Tian won at his own minimum cost.

"It's been hard on you this time."

Wu Tian saw Su Cancan standing silently in the corner of the hall. He quickly walked over to comfort her.

"This is what I should do."

Su Cancan was not moved by Wu Tian's concern, but she remained expressionless.

"That is true, but this result was achieved with your help!"

Wu Tian was in a very good mood at the moment. Even if Su Cancan was not nice to him, he didn't care too much.

"I'm leaving."

Su Cancan didn't seem to want to say anything more. Seeing that the situation was now completely under her control, she decided not to stay any longer.

Just as she was about to turn around and leave, Wu Tian suddenly received a call.

It was Sunn Hongsheng. He had been out there with the police, keeping an eye on the situation. Wu Tian had told him to tell him what was wrong.

Now that he called, something was definitely going to happen.

"What's wrong?"

"I found a few people with strange movements!" They came out of your underground garage, and I'm sending someone to watch them right now. "

Sunn Hongsheng quickly said. He could tell from the voice on the phone that Sunn Hongsheng was probably running at this moment. It seemed like what he said about tracking and surveillance was true.

"Strange person? "Could it be ..."

Wu Tian had always guessed that there was someone in command here, but he just couldn't find him.

Erniu also said that they did have a leader, but the leader wasn't here.

Now that these mysterious people appeared at this very moment, could it be that they were the masterminds behind the organization and planning of this event?

Thinking of this, Wu Tian quickly said to Sunn Hongsheng, "Hurry up and follow them, I'll send someone to support you!"

Su Cancan was about to leave when she heard Wu Tian's call. Knowing that he seemed to have found the real mastermind, she turned her head and walked back.

"Give me their information, and I'll handle this matter!"

Wu Tian looked at Su Cancan in shock. It was rare for her to volunteer herself to do something like this.

"Will it work?"

"Why are you blabbering so much!" Su Cancan didn't wait for Wu Tian's disagreement before snatching his phone from him. After confirming Sunn Hongsheng's location, she turned around and left without a word.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1103 - Reprisals

C1103 Reprisals

Seeing Su Cancan's positive attitude, Wu Tian was also a lot more relieved.

It should be safe to let her do it.

Looking at the flying helicopters and stretchers coming out from the building, the reporters outside were all desperately reporting this matter at this very moment.

Many people thought that this was a huge case and it didn't take long for the entire internet to know about it.

After all, to be able to use a set of Special Team on such a scale, the matters within would definitely not be small.

Before the result was out, all sorts of rumors were flying around.

Some people say that this is due to Wu Tian and his company randomly cut staff members and resulting in retaliation.

Some people even said that Wu Tian's competitor's employees planned this matter. In short, it could be any kind of person.

However, they all had the same characteristic, which was that they both intentionally or unintentionally wanted to bring the culprit of this case to Wu Tian and the others.

If it were any other company, perhaps they would have already begun to wave their flags and denounce these criminals.

But now, the voice of sympathy for the criminals slowly spread out. It was very hard for people to understand.

When he saw these reports, Wu Tian was so angry that he couldn't help but laugh at himself.

There was probably no one in this world with more unscrupulous conscience than these heartless media personnel. Didn't they know of their responsibilities and roles?

He actually allowed these rumors to spread online, and it even added fuel to the fire.

How could he do such a thing?

"President Wu, should we send a warning letter to them?"

Loong Yun was not happy with this situation, but they couldn't be as helpless as these people. Big companies had to have the bearing of big companies.

"Forget it ..."

Wu Tian waved his hand. He was going to leave the things here to Azure Dragon and the others to deal with, while he himself sat in the car and prepared to return to Flower Island.

"We're stingy if we send the lawyer's letter. But it also reminds me that public opinion must be in our hands. "

Wu Tian said thoughtfully as he glanced at the building outside. This was personally built by his grandfather, Wu Zhi, but he had experienced a lot of vicissitudes of life.

This kind of attack had happened several times already.

From a certain point of view, Wu Tian did not protect the building that his grandpa gave him at all.

"President Wu, then should we also increase security here?"

Loong Yun spoke as she drove. With such an incident, everyone in the company would be terrified.

"Since it has already happened, what's the use of us doing security? We can add a little more security, but not too much. There's no point. "

The other party knew that Wu Tian wasn't that easy to deal with, and probably wouldn't do anything like that again.

However, this was not enough to solve the fundamental problem, as the economy of the S City had also suffered such a huge shock, so he had to think of a way to solve this problem.

Otherwise, these jobless people will become a bigger danger sooner or later.

Halfway to the car, Wu Tian suddenly remembered something. He patted Loong Yun on the shoulder and told her to turn around.

"Take me to Yin Rumeng's place!"

Loong Yun immediately turned the car around. She could probably guess what Wu Tian was going to do.

Yin Rumeng's club was already of a very large scale. Nobody would have thought that she was such a genius.

Wu Tian looked at the club with satisfaction. Although he rarely came, he had heard of it before.

This clubhouse was probably the safest and most peaceful place in the S City.

No hooligan had ever dared to cause trouble here, because the security inside and outside the clubhouse were all even more fiendish than fiendish gods and fiends. Anyone with ill intentions would have already retreated when they saw them.

Yin Rumeng ran out to greet Wu Tian when she heard the news. Even the people under her command lined up outside to welcome him.

It was almost midnight, and the club's business was flourishing. Wu Tian felt that they were quite active in doing so, so he quickly stopped Yin Rumeng.

"Keep a low profile. I'm here to find you, not to play."

Upon hearing that, Yin Rumeng understood immediately and dismissed her men.

"President Wu, come with me."

Yin Rumeng brought Wu Tian to her office. No one would be able to disturb them here.

Wu Tian sat on the sofa in the office and played with a small piece of furniture. Loong Yun stood beside him with a serious expression on her face. The two of them did not say a word.

At this moment, Yin Rumeng became nervous. She didn't know which action Wu Tian was going to make, but it always looked like he was coming to punish her ...

After a few minutes, Yin Rumeng could no longer hold it in and wanted to test the waters.

"President Wu, why did you come this time?"

"You should know about the incident at the Wu Group Building, right?"

Yin Rumeng quickly nodded like a chick pecking rice.

"I know, I know. Right now, the TV is rolling for 24 hours without stopping. I can't not know even if I want to."

Wu Tian nodded and then slowly said, "I'm thinking, is there any way to solve this problem once and for all? I don't want anyone else to do it next time. "

"What do you mean?"

Yin Rumeng vaguely felt that Wu Tian was implying something.

Wu Tian set his gaze on Yin Rumeng. He was very conflicted as to whether he should do that or not.

"I was thinking... It's time for you guys to play a role. If we don't properly control these people and intimidate them, there will definitely be trouble. I don't want to be a fat cow that gets targeted. "

At this point, Yin Rumeng quickly understood. Wu Tian naturally had his own reasons for coming to find her.

"President Wu, don't worry. I'll handle this matter!"

Wu Tian nodded. With Yin Rumeng's promise, he didn't say anything else.

This was the last thing Wu Tian specifically told her before he left.

"You must be careful not to reveal your identity. I will tell Sunn Hongsheng to not investigate you as much as possible, but don't reveal your identity to me."

With that, Wu Tian left the place, and after a day or two, some violent cases were sent from all over S City.

Many people were inexplicably beaten up, including women and the elderly.

They all said that a group of people suddenly rushed home with their faces covered and started beating them up.

The families that were smashed all had one thing in common, and that was that they were the relatives of the thugs that kidnapped Wu Tian's employees.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1104 - Blind Hooligan

C1104 Blind Hooligan

Of course, this matter naturally attracted the attention of the media, and people easily linked this matter to the matter of Hualong Entertainment's employees being kidnapped.

However, Wu Tian didn't try to hide it at all.

Firstly, there was no evidence that his men had done it. Secondly, the families of these thugs had been attacked, but there were basically no casualties.

However, their homes had all been smashed to smithereens.

Wu Tian successfully made an announcement to the public that the person who came to cause trouble for him had to be prepared to bear all the consequences.

Those who harbored bad intentions naturally wouldn't dare to make any big moves after seeing this action. What a joke, Wu Tian's reaction speed was extremely fast. He completed his revenge within almost two days and treated the enemies equally.

He took revenge on the poor and did not spare the rich.

For a time, even when many people were walking on the streets, they had deliberately avoided the street where the Hualong Entertainment were located.

However, at a time when the situation was not very clear, this kind of action made Wu Tian even more happy.

He didn't need to worry about the possibility of someone imitating him by committing the crime. Instead, he focused all of his attention on tracking down those escaping trashies.

It had already been two days since the situation developed. During this period, Wu Tian and the others did not act rashly.

Su Cancan had been following closely behind this group of people, and there was even a group of Special Team s that had tightly surrounded these few escaping people.

However, according to Wu Tian's request, they did not immediately arrest these people.

Since he wasn't at the front line, Wu Tian could only contact the front line through Loong Yun.

"How are things now? Did you see anyone they contacted? "

Loong Yun shook her head. If she had any news about this, Wu Tian wouldn't even need to ask her. She would have told him.

"The situation is not optimistic... It would not be easy for us to deal with them if they don't reveal any flaws at all. "

In short, the situation now was one of stalemate. Wu Tian and the group did not have a single way out. The enemy acted as if nothing had happened, doing what he needed to do.

Wu Tian frowned. The enemy was quite tolerant. Since that was the case, he had to find a way to put some pressure on them.

"How about this, I'll personally make a trip to the front! I'll go meet them. "

Wu Tian changed his clothes and went to see what was going on.

Loong Yun hadn't wanted him to go. However, she realized that with so many security guards around, her worries would be unnecessary.

After changing his clothes and dressing up, Wu Tian left with Erniu.

The place where these people were hiding was a factory district. Since this factory had now closed down and was filled with unemployed workers, it looked rather messy.

Of course, this was also one of the main reasons why they were able to gather so many people in such a short period of time. Now, it seemed that the impact of unemployment could not be underestimated.

Wu Tian arrived outside the district and looked across the street. He saw a window at the top of a hotel. It was open and a bit of a reflection could be vaguely seen.

"Is there anyone there?"

Loong Yun looked in the direction Wu Tian pointed and then looked at the documents in her hands. She nodded and acknowledged Wu Tian's words: "That's right, that person is from the police station. The next rooms have Special Team. Director Su is currently stationed in the district with his men. "

It seemed that the three forces had their own arrangements, so Wu Tian didn't need to be involved.

This was also good. With three layers of protection, the people inside wouldn't be able to fly out even if they had wings.

"Let's go in and take a look!"

With that, Wu Tian got Loong Yun to lead the way as they swaggered into the neighborhood.

People squatted on the roadside and smoked and talked with each other. Their eyes kept wandering to Loong Yun's body.

They were all 20-30 year old hot-blooded young men. When they saw the appearance of such a beauty, their eyes naturally could not leave her.

Loong Yun had a serious expression on her face. She did not put these people in her eyes at all and did not even bother to take a glance at them.

However, there were those blind people who took the initiative to step forward.

Wu Tian looked and saw that three to five people were blocking their way. The leader had golden hair on his head and was holding a cigarette in his mouth while holding a baseball bat in his hand.

The people around him also had similar appearances, just a single glance was enough to tell that they were hooligans.

"Girl, what are you doing?"

With a cigarette in his mouth, the thug tilted his head and whistled at Loong Yun. Then, he blocked her way.

Loong Yun didn't say anything. She just glared at him and was about to walk away from him.

Right now, her mission was to bring Wu Tian to their hidden base, not to tangle with these people.

The hooligan noticed that Loong Yun had completely ignored him, and he instantly became furious.

He turned his head and grabbed Loong Yun's arm, pulling her back.

"Didn't you hear me speak to you!?"

At this time, he didn't care about his face anymore and started roaring at Loong Yun.

The people around him just looked over and smiled. No one wanted to come out and fight for justice.

Wu Tian sighed. He didn't want to stir up trouble, but being harassed like this wasn't a good idea either. After all, Loong Yun was his secretary. He couldn't just watch her being bullied like this.

However, before Wu Tian could make a move, Erniu looked strangely at these thugs. Then, she suddenly opened and closed her eyes. It was as if these thugs had become a completely different person.

The leader of the group let go of Loong Yun's arm and silently turned around to leave. They walked towards a corner and squatted there without saying anything for some reason.

The surrounding people did not understand what happened and felt it was strange. However, they did not go over to stop Wu Tian and the others.

"My god, you better not take action. This place will easily expose your identity!"

Wu Tian could tell that Erniu did it, but this wasn't the result he wanted.

Erniu's identity was very important, so he couldn't allow her to expose her abilities.

"Sorry, I want to help her ..."

Erniu felt a little embarrassed, but she was only doing it out of good intentions. It was just that she was still young and didn't know what to do with herself.

"President Wu, let's go quickly!"

Loong Yun watched as more and more Brawlers gathered around her. What happened just now did not dispel the thoughts of others. Instead, more and more people started to covet Loong Yun's beauty.

Staying outside for a long time was not a good thing. If they wanted to avoid trouble, they had to leave as soon as possible.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1105 - Monitoring Investigation

C1105 Monitoring Investigation

The target's home was a seemingly unremarkable building. This type of building was built thirty years ago, and now it looked very old.

Furthermore, the house was not big. There were all sorts of junk piled up in the stairwell and it was extremely narrow. It was impossible for two or three people to walk side by side.

Su Cancan was right next to the target, so she bought the house.

Of course, the target didn't know that the room was occupied, so their trail had not been found yet.

Loong Yun walked to the door and lightly knocked on the door in accordance with the signal from before. She then brought Wu Tian in.

There were a few Security Team practitioners resting inside the room at this time. On one side of the wall, they had added a lot of instruments, such as infrared, and some ultrasound equipment.

There was even a device specifically designed to listen in on their conversation.

It could be said that there were all kinds of equipment, and this wall was something that could be directly ignored by Security Team s.

They could almost see what she had done in the house, what she had said.

At this moment, Su Cancan was lying on a sofa, resting. From the looks of her motionless appearance, she was most likely sleeping soundly.

Loong Yun quickly explained, "They are currently monitoring on a 24-hour shift. Director Su probably just got some rest too."

Wu Tian nodded and walked over carefully, trying to keep himself from making any noise.

However, Su Cancan slowly opened her eyes the moment Wu Tian sat on the edge of the sofa.

"You're not going to sleep?"

"You made such a loud noise, you could feel it from far away."

Su Cancan said happily. However, at this moment, her attitude was much better than before. This made Wu Tian very pleased.

"Any progress?"

"Nope."

Su Cancan's answer was exceptionally straightforward. If there was any progress, they wouldn't have to wait here.

Wu Tian turned his head to look at the monitor screen on the monitor. The person inside was watching TV and joking again.

The identities of these people had long been investigated. It was said that they were workers who had retired from the same factory. Their previous income in the factory was not low, so they had some savings.

However, no one could understand why these people would go and cause trouble at Wu Group company.

In short, their backgrounds were pretty clean, so there was no history of contact.

What Wu Tian was most concerned about was whether these people were related to the Pulitzer Financial Group.

It could be said that in the entire S City, other than Zhang Zerui, there was probably no other person who wanted Wu Tian dead the most.

Naturally, Wu Tian would also treat him as his first suspect.

"We can't just keep waiting like this. What if they don't say anything?" Wu Tian saw that this was not the only way, and he couldn't let Su Cancan keep wasting time here. As the person in charge of Security Team, she still had a lot of important matters to attend to.

"In a day or two, if there's no news, I'll use my method to solve this problem."

Su Cancan said indifferently. Of course, she didn't want to waste her time here. It was just for the sake of procedural justice. After all, she still had the police and Special Team behind her to watch, so she couldn't be so decisive.

If it was really according to her personality, she would have long ago rushed in and captured these few people, and then used their Wudu Sect's methods to severely torture them.

Naturally, she didn't have to worry about what they were hiding. No one could grasp their secret in front of their interrogation.

By then, they might even have to tell each other what they did when they were little.

"That's fine." Wu Tian didn't say anything. He was here to solve this problem, but he didn't want to cause too much trouble.

Su Cancan wasn't someone who was easy to deal with. If they didn't give her face, she would probably be furious.

Thinking of this, Wu Tian swallowed a mouthful of saliva and didn't say anything.

He turned his gaze towards Erniu and nodded his head ... The two of them had spoken to each other on the way here. Their goal this time was to get Erniu to investigate if these thugs had any information hidden in their minds ...

Erniu closed her eyes quietly and started to search the people on the other side of the wall.

This process did not require too much time because the people next door did not know that they would have such a method and ability. Naturally, they would not be able to put up any defenses in this matter.

Soon, Erniu got the result, not even a minute had passed.

Although the people next door didn't seem to care, they still did what they had to do and lived a good life. However, their hearts were already in a mess.

Because according to the agreement, they had to stay in contact with the top, but no matter how they contacted each other, the higher-ups wouldn't give them their plans for the next step.

Therefore, these people did not know what to do. Their minds were in a mess.

"They are waiting ..."

Wu Tian was very excited when he heard the news that came from Erniu. However, he did not show it at all. He was still as calm as ever.

"Waiting for what?"

"Waiting for next instruction ..."

This fact confirmed that these people were indeed hired as Wu Tian had expected.

However, this was not what Wu Tian wanted to see. What he wanted to know more was who the mastermind was.

"Who will give them directions and instructions for the next step?"

"I don't know ..."

Wu Tian was stunned. Why is it so hard to get information for this thing?

"You don't know?"

Erniu shook her head, indicating that this matter had nothing to do with her.

"It's not that I don't know, it's that they don't know."

After a series of explanations, Wu Tian finally understood what was going on. Of course, this was also because Erniu's level of expression was getting better and better.

Although their communication passed through the consciousness in their minds, the whole process still took quite a bit of time.

These thugs had indeed followed the instructions, but they had received the text message to find out what to do next.

But now, they could no longer receive any messages, meaning that no one would care about them anymore, so they didn't know what to do, so they could only stay at home like this.

They only knew the text, but the message was anonymous, with no message from the sender and no information from anyone.

This was why Erniu said she didn't know. These people really didn't know who their superior was.
