

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1106 - Bank Accounts

C1106 Bank Accounts

If one were to look at it this way, the situation had come to a standstill.

No one knew what to do next. Originally, they had seen some progress, but in the end, they felt like they had returned to the starting point.

It seemed like their only way out had been blocked by someone!

However, Wu Tian didn't plan on giving up just like that, it was still too early to say that!

He had to think of something else. Holding his chin, Wu Tian fell into deep thought.

It was impossible for these people to have nothing to do with the mastermind at all. The other side must have given them money? Or something else.

Otherwise, why would there be people who would be willing to work for others? This was simply impossible.

Thinking of this, Wu Tian called Loong Yun over.

"Have you checked their bank accounts? Are there any inflows? "

Loong Yun shook her head when she heard Wu Tian. She didn't think that they had yet to do such a thing.

"Now that we don't have the authority to investigate their accounts, the procedures aren't very fair ..." To put it simply, they were only a civilian organization and didn't have the right to investigate other people. Only the police could do this.

Wu Tian looked at the screen on the monitor. Since the situation had come to this, he didn't care that much.

"Go ahead and investigate. If anything happens, just tell Sunn Hongsheng to come straight to me!"

Wu Tian was bold, and the consequences of this was not that serious for him.

Right now, the police department was too busy to care about him.

Moreover, if the person in question did not call the police, who would know that Wu Tian had investigated their bank account?

Loong Yun moved quickly. With their efficiency and speed, it was easy for them to investigate such matters.

In less than half an hour, a detailed copy of the account was sent to Wu Tian.

"President Wu, there's really something fishy going on here. They received over a million in their bank account."

Wu Tian took it and looked at it. It was indeed written in this way.

He immediately wrinkled his brows. He had thought that there was no clue. It seemed that the other party had left some traces behind as well.

The enemy immediately revealed himself.

"Investigate whose bank account this is!"

Wu Tian immediately said. Since he had the clue, he would naturally continue to dig deeper on the clue.

Loong Yun had already finished all of them.

"Yes, he's not from the Pritt consortium, nor is he from Zhang Zerui."

Loong Yun took out another document, and this was the proof of the bank account. The information of the account holder was clearly written on it.

Because Lee Zhan's name was clearly written on it.

"Lee Zhan?"

Wu Tian didn't expect it to be this person. Although he was indeed acting against Wu Tian, he heard that Lee Zhan had already disappeared.

Perhaps he had run away with the money. At this time, it was very likely that he was already overseas. It was normal for him to not be able to find him.

However, did he still have the intention to come here and cause trouble for himself? He clearly got the money, so it wasn't good for him to cause trouble for Wu Tian either.

The Yingdi Entertainment had already failed ...

"I feel that this matter... There should be a problem! "Continue investigating!"

Wu Tian was still unrelenting. He felt that he couldn't just let this matter go like this.

Su Cancan saw Wu Tian talking about this earlier, and she seemed to be annoyed. She stood up and walked over, then snatched away the document in Wu Tian's hand.

"Lee Zhan? Was it him who gave them the money to plan this? "

"Since you've already investigated to such an extent, there's no need for us to monitor them here, right?"

"This... It's up to you. "

Wu Tian didn't have much of an opinion about this. Su Cancan didn't care too much about what he said. She picked up her walkie-talkie and gave a few commands to her own team.

Very quickly, the sound of someone banging on the door could be heard from next door, followed by a wave of alarmed cries. In less than a minute, those few thugs had already been controlled by the Security Team s who had barged in.

Su Cancan didn't seem to care. Since the mastermind behind this had already been found out, there was no point in keeping an eye on them.

She might as well arrest them and interrogate them. If she had any leads, she could send them to the police station.

"Take them away!"

Su Cancan waved her hand and those few people were carried down the stairs by Security Team practitioners into the sack.

After saying that, the people in the room immediately began disassembling their equipment, preparing to retreat.

Wu Tian didn't say anything during the whole process. He was just thinking about the conjecture he had just made.

Speaking of which, this matter was a little strange. Why didn't Lee Zhan appear again after he escaped? Furthermore, if he was in a partnership with Zhang Zerui, would Zhang Zerui let him escape just like that? Or had they already split the money?

These questions rushed into Wu Tian's mind one by one, but he didn't know which question to start with.

There were too few clues and weaknesses left behind by the enemies. It was impossible to defeat them in such a manner.

Lee Zhan's account was sent over to the thugs within the country. In other words, if it was controlled by Lee Zhan himself, then he might still be somewhere hiding and hadn't left the China yet.

After the message was sent over, Wu Tian was unable to suppress the suspicion in his heart.

He picked up the phone to contact Sunn Hongsheng and Wu Tian told him the results of his investigation.

In fact, if it was the police investigating, they could easily investigate it all. Therefore, Wu Tian felt that there was no need to hide it from them.

"Then why are you looking for me? You know all that. "

Sunn Hongsheng felt very strange. There weren't many things he could do.

"I want you to investigate who is controlling this bank account. At least he will leave a surveillance recording of his remittance. I don't have the authority to investigate this thing, so I can only rely on you."

Sunn Hongsheng had a troubled expression on his face. This request from Wu Tian was not easy for him to fulfill.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1107 - Long Trek

C1107 Long Trek

In general, the police could only use this method to investigate bank accounts, or even the bank's surveillance videos, after the investigation had been completed.

And now, they didn't have a case to investigate. If Sunn Hongsheng helped Wu Tian carry out such a search, it would likely lead to a violation of the rules.

By then, Sunn Hongsheng might not even be able to keep his job, let alone Wu Tian.

"President Wu, why don't you guys report the case first? This matter can only be handled by investigating me."

It wasn't that Wu Tian didn't think about this, it was just that he was worried that if the case was reported, the relevant information would be recorded by the police.

If the other party also had a contact person in the police station, then this matter would become troublesome.

"Can't you compromise? Or is there any other way? "

Wu Tian obviously didn't want to report the case. The main reason was because he didn't trust the people from the police station.

"That's the only way. It's the only way to comply with the rules."

Hearing that Sunn Hongsheng didn't relax at all, Wu Tian was forced to a corner in the end. Since he wanted to investigate it thoroughly, he could only do so.

"Alright, I will officially apply for the case. You can settle the paperwork for me!"

Wu Tian could only agree to this in the end. With his approval, the police started to take action immediately.

In fact, it's easy for the police to investigate this information, as long as they can use their own case as a reason, they can ask the bank to view the surveillance video.

And the banks will not refuse.

After all, for a bank, refusing the police would not be beneficial, and on the contrary, it might cause them trouble.

Soon, the surveillance video was sent to Wu Tian and Loong Yun immediately analyzed it.

This was because the footage in the video was not always clear, and it might not be able to capture the face completely.

Thus, most of the time, when determining a person's identity, it required a lot of data such as body shape, height, weight, etc.

Loong Yun was going to make such a comparison. If they were sure that this person was Lee Zhan, then they would be able to find this person.

This process was very long, because the computer immediately determined that the person on the monitor screen was definitely not Lee Zhan.

Loong Yun let the computer continue its investigation and research and reported the news to Wu Tian.

"Why do I feel like there's something behind this ..."

Wu Tian felt like he was tricked by someone. Many simple things were very complicated at the moment.

However, this was also in line with what a smart person could do. Wu Tian thought that if he was Lee Zhan, he definitely wouldn't use his own account to transfer money.

Even if he used his own account to transfer money, he would first try his best to stay out of the country. That way, even if he was found out, the police would be helpless.

However, the other party's actions this time was out of Wu Tian's expectation. Lee Zhan's account was repaid from a bank in the country, and there was even a surveillance video.

However, the operator was not Lee Zhan. However, Wu Tian felt that this was not a big problem.

"Loong Yun, arrange for someone to come over immediately. We'll capture him now and ask him face to face. Then, we'll understand!"

Wu Tian's competitive spirit was aroused. He captured every informant and every clue in his hand. He wanted to see what else the mastermind had.

"President Wu, the police are also investigating this matter. If we capture him, will there be a conflict with the police ..."

Loong Yun was a little worried. Although they were the source of the report, they did not have the authority to enforce the law in the strict sense of the word. If the police are serious about this, they're really unreasonable.

Wu Tian didn't care at all. This kind of thing was good for him, as long as it didn't affect the progress of his investigation.

"Let's talk about the future later. If they really think I can't do this, then we'll wait for the police to come knocking. Furthermore, if they were that powerful, they wouldn't need us to do anything. "

The location of the video was a thousand kilometers away from them in another province.

Wu Tian immediately flew over in the middle of the night, while the people from Security Team had already arrived before them.

This city was very ordinary, so ordinary that it had almost no special characteristics.

Although the streets were crowded with people, it was clear that there was no S City bustling about.

"Are you going to the train station? Thirty dollars for one person! "

The motorcycle drivers who were trying to recruit customers immediately swarmed over when they saw someone coming out of the airport.

Loong Yun looked at their dirty appearance and felt that she had disgraced herself, so she decided to chase them away.

However, Wu Tian stopped her as he saw that these people were deep in thought.

"Wait a moment ..."

Wu Tian walked to the front and chose one of the slightly old driver and got on his motorcycle.

Loong Yun looked at his actions in surprise. Usually, Wu Tian would use high-end transportation and she had never seen him on such a dirty and broken motorcycle.

Seeing that Loong Yun was not moving at all, Wu Tian quickly waved at him: "Come up! Let's not waste any more time. "

Loong Yun gritted her teeth and finally got into a car. The rest of the Security Team practitioners sat in other cars and followed behind them.

"This mister has good eyes. He knows that I, Old Wang, am the most reliable driver! "I've had the most experience in the area!"

The driver looked excited. He noticed that the two of them were wearing luxurious clothes. He knew he had a big client. At their destination, they might even give him more money if they were happy.

"Where are you two going?"

Wu Tian was really confused by this question. He only knew that he was here to find someone, but he didn't know where this person was.

"Let's go to your best hotel. By the way, do you know what kind of person I would look for if I wanted to do something here?"

If it was someone else, they would definitely be unable to tell you this, only senior local people would know about this. In our county, there is such a person, he has eyes and ears, if any of you have any problems, you can definitely go and find him!

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1108 - Deep into the Den of Thieves

C1108 Deep into the Den of Thieves

Hearing that Old Wang seemed to really know something, Wu Tian also became interested.

"Since that's the case, why don't you introduce him to me? If he truly has the ability, then I must truly thank you."

Wu Tian said with a smile. Then, he took out a thousand yuan from his pocket and handed it over calmly.

Old Wang was a little flattered when he saw Wu Tian being so tactful. Originally, he only wanted to charge him a little more for the car, but he didn't expect Wu Tian to be so generous and take out so much money as compensation.

He excitedly drove his motorcycle with Wu Tian and the others and headed straight into an alley in the county.

The place didn't look bustling at all, and most of the people on the streets were elderly.

As for Old Wang, he brought them deeper into the alleyway. This place was narrow and rugged, so it didn't seem like a good place at all.

Honestly speaking, Wu Tian felt a bit uneasy following this Old Wang. However, he felt that since he gave him so much money, this driver shouldn't be cheating him. Although he wasn't simple, he shouldn't have such bad intentions.

"President Wu, can we do this?" Looking at her surroundings, Loong Yun felt uneasy. The girl was more afraid of this kind of narrow and rugged place that was also very dark. Moreover, this old man specially took those bad paths, causing her to shake up and down, making her feel very uncomfortable.

"Let's persevere. If we can find someone useful, then the rest of the matter will be easier to handle."

Wu Tian didn't care about this, nor did he care about this mess. In any case, there were still so many Security Team s behind them, so they shouldn't have to worry too much about safety for the time being.

Zhang Zerui shouldn't have set up an ambush at this place. Wu Tian didn't believe that Zhang Zerui had that much power.

If he really had that kind of ability, Zhang Zerui could just directly do these things in City S.

It was because of this thought that Wu Tian did not think about his messy thoughts.

However, the person he was most concerned about was still the person he had yet to meet. Wu Tian wished to see how strong he was.

After running around in the dark alleyway for 20 minutes, Old Wang's head finally stopped under a burst of ear-piercing brakes.

Loong Yun felt as if a weight had been lifted off her shoulders. She immediately rushed out of the car door. When she heard that voice just now, she had thought that the car was going to fall apart ...

"Is that it?" Wu Tian looked around and saw that there seemed to be only one yard. There was a dirty signboard at the entrance with Delong Company written clearly on it.

"You two can just go in directly. The owner of the Delong Company is called Liu Feng. He is a person with a wide range of local contacts and knows everyone. You can't be wrong to look for him."

Seeing him like that, Wu Tian stopped suspecting and prepared to go in after all his men arrived.

"President Wu, could he be lying to us? I think we should still be careful." Loong Yun was as cautious as ever. She didn't dare to take the wrong step.

Wu Tian shook his head and said with a smile, "There's no need for him to lie to us. Even if he really wants to cheat us of our money, is there a need to travel so far?" They had been running back and forth for nearly half an hour. If it was just to cheat, then Old Wang didn't need to do this.

Saying that, Wu Tian carefully looked at the Delong Company in front of him. There were some construction equipment inside, which looked like a real estate project type company.

However, the number of floors inside wasn't very high. The car wasn't parked, and there weren't many people in sight.

No one knew what it was for. If it wasn't for Old Wang guiding them, they would never have found it themselves.

"Come on, let's go in and take a look. There's no point in talking any further. We still have to put into practice what we really know."

Wu Tian couldn't hold himself back anymore. After all, he didn't care about all that mess anymore. The most important thing was still to solve the problem.

As they talked, a few of them slowly walked in. There were around six or seven of them, and although the Security Team s behind weren't wearing their uniforms, it was obvious that they were strong and weren't that easy to provoke.

They had only walked a few steps inside when the door of the bungalow next to them suddenly opened. From inside walked a burly man with a naked upper body.

He did not have a lot of hair on his head, and his face was covered in muscles as hard as stone. When paired with the tattoo that extended from his upper arm all the way to his back, it made him look terrifying.

Wu Tian came face to face with him and even took the initiative to greet him. However, he didn't stop to look at Wu Tian, but at Loong Yun beside him.

At the first moment, he was still attracted by Loong Yun's beauty, and then the few Security Team s behind her.

"Brothers, pick up your weapons!" Who would have thought that this bare-chested fellow would think that Wu Tian was here for revenge. Thus, he directly called out to his companions.

The moment his voice left his mouth, tinkling sounds came from the nearby bungalow and the two story building. In less than a minute, nearly a hundred people had gathered around Wu Tian.

They all had a very distinct characteristic, which was their bodies were covered in firm muscles. They held iron rods or machetes in their hands, and their killing intent filled the air.

"Oh no, President Wu, we seem to have entered a bandit's nest ..." Loong Yun sighed as if she had already thought of this situation. However, she had not expected that she would still be unable to escape from it.

"There's nothing we can do about it. Accept your fate." Wu Tian didn't care, even if there were a lot of them, so what?

Which one of the Security Team personnel behind him wasn't the one in a million? Furthermore, Wu Tian specifically allowed them to secretly bring out the gun this time. There was a huge difference between the weapons of these hoodlums in front of him and Wu Tian's group.

This was not a gap that could be bridged by numbers, so Wu Tian was not worried at all and continued to stand there.

"I want to see your boss. I heard he's called Liu Feng. I came this time to ask for his help. Don't worry."

Wu Tian's intention was also very simple. First of all, he had to prove that he was not here to seek revenge.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1109 - Power Chasing

C1109 Power Chasing

The opponent looked at Wu Tian and the others with a puzzled expression and did not let down his guard.

The bare-chested man took out his cell phone and quickly made a call to his boss.

The remaining people looked at Wu Tian and the others with malicious intent, afraid that Wu Tian and the others would do something that would harm them.

"President Wu, do they really have a way to help us?" Loong Yun started to have some doubts. If these people were just hooligans, she didn't think these hooligans could do anything big in this county.

Wu Tian wasn't sure about this either, but since they were already here, he could only say that they had to do it to the end.

"Wait and see. Maybe we'll know later."

At this moment, a few people walked up and carefully looked at Wu Tian and the others.

In fact, Wu Tian was actually the one with the least attention. He wasn't tall or short, but he was skinny. Very quickly, he was ignored by these hooligans. Their gazes greedily swept over Loong Yun's body. They really wanted to stuff Loong Yun into their eyes.

Wu Tian was speechless when he saw their expressions. Loong Yun had long gotten used to the feeling of being stared at. Being too good-looking was sometimes a burden, especially in a place where the ratio between men and women was severely out of balance, and it was easy to get attention.

The Security Team users felt that these people did not come with good intentions, so they walked up and surrounded Wu Tian and Loong Yun, using their own bodies to protect them and obstructing the little hoodlums' approaching steps.

"I don't care what you people do, put down the things in your hands!" The big brother who was naked seemed to have finished his call. He shifted his attention back to directing his men to start moving.

He led the way and walked in front of Wu Tian. He took out a pair of sunglasses from his pocket and put them on his head.

"Speak, what do you all do? What business do you have with our boss? "

Wu Tian looked at this person and repeated what he just said with an indifferent face, "I just said it again, I came to ask him to do something for me."

"Brat, you're quite arrogant. You want our boss to do something for you? Don't you know how to write the 'Heaven' character? "Let me tell you, I don't care where you came from nor what kind of place you're from, but in our county, our boss is like a god!"

This guy seemed to be very satisfied and proud of Liu Feng. His words were filled with praise for his boss.

Wu Tian and Loong Yun were both listening to the side, and their goosebumps were about to rise. How could ordinary people stand this kind of praise? Even Wu Tian had never been said in such a way before.

"Then let's cut the crap. Alright, alright, where's your boss? I'm in a hurry right now, so if he can't do it, then I'll go find someone else!" Wu Tian saw that this person seemed to be wasting time with him, so he became impatient.

"I see that you are getting more and more unreasonable now, don't you think it's better for you to come and beg us for help?!" While they were talking, the surrounding hoodlums surrounded them again. They could also tell that the tone between the two wasn't very friendly. This bare-chested elder brother grinned with his teeth bared and a fierce-looking face. He angrily glared and clenched his fist, as if he was about to immediately punch Wu Tian on the head.

If it were any ordinary person, they would have apologized and begged for mercy by now. Just this kind of aura was enough to make people feel fear and terror.

Unfortunately, his opponent this time was Wu Tian. What kind of scene hadn't Wu Tian seen before? This kind of hooligan was nothing in his eyes.

He did not feel threatened at all. In fact, he even felt that the burly man in front of him was too hilarious.

He said that Wu Tian didn't know the rules, but in reality, they were the ones who didn't know the rules. They thought they were powerful, so they did whatever they wanted.

However, how would they know that there was always someone better than them? They didn't need to be compared with Wu Tian. Yin Rumeng alone could easily beat them up.

"Don't let me talk nonsense with you anymore. Also, when you speak, can you not spray your saliva onto my face?" Wu Tian wiped his face. He was still smiling, but his tone was already off.

"This is very dirty ..."

His opponent probably did not expect Wu Tian to say something like that, and he was shocked at first.

But soon after, he realized that Wu Tian was insulting him and a monstrous anger surged into his heart. This unarmed man picked up an iron rod from the side and fiercely swung it towards Wu Tian.

No matter how strong this person was, as long as they were in a county, these people would have sufficient confidence.

However, the metal rod had yet to land. In mid-air, a sudden brake stopped there.

The brawny man suddenly trembled and let go of the iron rod in his hand. The iron rod then fell to the ground.

Those who were nearby did not know what was going on, so they quickly moved closer to take a look. Each and every one of them immediately turned pale with fright.

It was because in front of this state, a Security Team employee holding a handgun had pressed it against the head of this muscular man. It was no wonder why he was in such a state of panic.

If it was anyone else, their current condition would not be any better than his.

"I told you, I'm in a hurry!"

"Don't think that you're amazing just because you have a gun!" Although these hooligans were domineering in the local area, they had fought quite a few times. However, the weapons in their hands were at most at the level of a machete.

As for guns, let alone using them, they were rarely seen.

"I don't think I'm that great." Wu Tian had already known this would happen. If he had known this would happen, he wouldn't have looked at the person in front of him with the expression he had initially. Then, he looked around.

The little hoodlums didn't dare to come up, and even took the initiative to stay a few meters away from them, ready to run away at any time.

"Don't be afraid, I mean you no harm. Just call your boss out. "

Wu Tian reiterated his purpose for coming this time. No one wanted to listen to him just now, but immediately, someone ran into the building as if they were going to call their boss Liu Feng out.

Seeing that they were sensible, Wu Tian lightly patted the shoulder of the Security Team Officer.

"Put the gun away, we don't need it for now."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1110 - Mogul

C1110 Mogul

Against such people, if he used a gun on them, it would truly be a disgrace.

Wu Tian felt that not only would he not gain any glory, he would also lose his reputation if word of this got out.

Soon, their leader came after hearing the news, rolling and crawling. It was probably because his subordinates told him about the current situation.

Liu Feng immediately realized that he had probably caused a disaster. These lackeys thought that they were invincible, but that didn't mean that Liu Feng was a fool. He knew that he was just a small fry.

When he came out, Liu Feng found that the people who came to look for him were not people he knew, nor were they some of the big bosses nearby.

He hid inside the building and tried to figure out who Wu Tian was, but he couldn't figure out who Wu Tian was. In the end, he forced himself to walk out.

"Bro, I heard that you were looking for me. What is it?"

Hearing the voice, Wu Tian looked towards the back of the crowd. Behind the group of hooligans, there stood a fairly tall man.

He was not as big and tall as Wu Tian had imagined, instead, he had a sense of elegance. He was out of place with these hooligans. However, he did not have that kind of heroic spirit between his eyes. It was as if his entire physique had been damaged.

The more Wu Tian looked at it, the more he felt like a thief who was a little bastard, rather than a hero.

Just looking at his appearance, Wu Tian had already lowered his score by a lot. Honestly speaking, Wu Tian was also starting to doubt whether this person could help him or not.

Based on the current situation, it was unlikely.

"You are Liu Feng?"

"That's me. May I ask who you are?"

Liu Feng had already memorized all the promising people nearby. He had a gun, and he had a grudge with him...

After thinking about it, Liu Feng still couldn't think of any name that could match up to Wu Tian.

"You don't have to care who I am. I came to find you because I hope that you can help me with something. Of course, I won't let you do it for nothing."

As he said this, Wu Tian looked at his subordinates beside him. He felt that it wasn't appropriate for hundreds of people to stand beside him when he was talking alone.

"Is there anything suitable to talk about? Let's talk inside."

When Liu Feng heard this, he quickly nodded his head and dismissed all his henchmen.

"Do what you need to do. This place is fine now!"

The lackeys were still a little worried. After all, they had already experienced the power of Wu Tian and the others.

"Boss, do you want us to protect you from the side?"

"Didn't you hear what I said?!"

Liu Feng's attitude towards these lackeys was not that friendly. He could easily curse at them, but the effect was pretty good. The lackeys all obeyed his request and went back to their original bungalows.

Very soon, the courtyard returned to its previous tranquility. It was no different from the way it had been before.

"Follow me ..."

Liu Feng said to Wu Tian in a very cute and polite manner. Then, he made a "please" gesture and led him to the two-story building inside.

No one spoke during the entire journey. Wu Tian sized up this Delong Company as he walked.

The Security Team Enforcers didn't care, they had other people with them, even if these people had other ideas, they would probably not have any effect in front of the weapons in their hands.

When they arrived at the office, Liu Feng was very busy with serving tea and pouring water. After tossing and turning for a long time, he finally sat down and prepared to listen to what Wu Tian had to say.

"Brother, I still don't know your name, but since you're unwilling to say it, I won't ask anymore." Liu Feng wasn't a fool. He knew that the other party must have had a reason for not saying it. If he recklessly asked, he might offend the other party.

At that time, if Wu Tian disliked him and decided to give him a shot ... That would be a huge loss for Liu Feng.

So when he thought of this, Liu Feng did not hesitate and did not dare to take even half a step further.

His realization was pretty good, this made Wu Tian quite satisfied.

"It's like this. I heard that you're the most powerful person in this county. You can do whatever you want!"

"These are all rumors spread blindly by our little brothers, please do not believe them."

Liu Feng immediately said politely. At the same time, he started to curse in his heart. He didn't know which idiot was it that went out to create rumors for him.

Maybe Wu Tian thought he was too arrogant, so he came over to make trouble for him ...

Thinking about this, Liu Feng immediately felt annoyed.

However, Wu Tian's mood was even worse than his... He had toiled for so long just to find someone who could help him, but this Liu Feng actually said he couldn't do it. Then wouldn't all of Wu Tian's efforts be in vain?

"Don't lie to me. I know you must have some tricks up your sleeves. Don't be in a hurry to refuse."

Wu Tian wasn't someone who could be fooled so easily. Wu Tian could see through his kind words with a glance.

"Tell me ..."

Liu Feng nodded and shut his mouth. This was the best way for him to answer.

"It's like this, I previously had an account with a bank in your county. I want to investigate this person and see if you can find anything for me."

As Wu Tian spoke, he sent a screenshot of the surveillance video to Liu Feng for him to see.

"This is both difficult and simple, but one thing is certain, it can be done."

Finally, there was a piece of good news, Wu Tian also let out a sigh of relief in his heart.

"I can check, but it's hard to say if I can find out."

Liu Feng changed the subject of his words. He carefully sized up Wu Tian's eyes, afraid that if he said something wrong, he would suffer a devastating blow from the other party.

"It's like this ... Although there aren't many people in our county, but there are many people coming and going. I can't guarantee that he's still in the county. So I can only try to find it. "

"Sure, tell me all the information you have found. It will be of urgent use to me! But don't worry, money isn't a problem. "

Wu Tian nodded at Loong Yun as he spoke. The latter took up a box of money.

He opened it and saw that it was actually a stack of bills.

This number was at least a few hundred thousand.

Liu Feng was about to go crazy. He didn't think that he could earn that much money just by helping him. However, without saying anything further, he took off the box and quietly held it in front of his chest ...

"Don't worry, leave this matter to me!"
