

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1111 - Useful Person

C1111 Useful Person

Liu Feng ran out excitedly. He didn't let Wu Tian leave, but told them to wait here.

In his words, he could definitely give Wu Tian an answer within a day.

Wu Tian and Loong Yun didn't know whether they should trust this man or not. After all, he looked so unreliable.

However, at this moment, Wu Tian and the others didn't have any better choices. Even if they went somewhere else, it would not produce better results.

They simply took a break in the office. Wu Tian saw Liu Feng calling out to his men outside and distributing the photo to everyone.

"You all opened your eyes wide! This is our most important matter! You must find this person before tonight! "

Liu Feng ordered loudly, and the people below obeyed his request. They all packed up their things and prepared to set off.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that he was the first person in this county to be able to move with such efficiency and scale.

Loong Yun could be said to be snorting disdainfully, as she felt that this was a complete waste of time.

"President Wu, let's think of our own way. If we really can't do it, then I'll sneak into their police system and see if we can find out anything about this person."

What Loong Yun said was indeed a solution, but it would take a lot of time and a lot of risk.

Wu Tian said that using this method would be the fastest at the moment.

It would be much better for the locals to do such a thing than if they were newcomers. At the very least, they could determine where the scene in the photo was.

Then the news of where the person might live would slowly narrow their search.

"Let's wait a bit. Maybe they can bring us some news. "If there's no result tonight, it's not too late to use your method."

In any case, Sun Honglei and the others hadn't made any substantial progress, so this case would probably be temporarily put on hold.

Wu Tian didn't have to worry about anyone competing with him for the progress. It wasn't impossible for him to slowly investigate.

The few of them were slowly waiting, but these few hours felt like years to them. It was really depressing.

When it was finally evening, Liu Feng still did not show up.

Wu Tian stood by the bed and watched the hooligans come back dejectedly. The expectation in his heart for Liu Feng had dropped to its lowest point.

"It seems like you're right ..."

Wu Tian sighed. At this point, he felt he lost to Loong Yun's judgment.

"Then do as you have said and immediately prepare my plan."

Loong Yun said and prepared to leave with Wu Tian and the rest. After all, they could not invade the system of the Public Security Bureau here, so they had to protect their identities.

Just as they were about to leave, the sound of a car suddenly came from outside. Then, Liu Feng ran out of the car and gasped for breath.

He was out of breath as if he had just finished a marathon, but there was no dismay on his face. Instead, there was a hint of happiness.

"Wait a moment, he's back!"

"How is it? Do you have any news? "

Liu Feng didn't answer Wu Tian immediately. Instead, he rushed to the side of the teapot and poured himself a large cup of water.

He took a drink of water to wipe off his sweat, then gasped for breath as the guy finally finished his preparations.

"I found the result!"

"This is great!" Wu Tian let out a long breath and then asked expectantly, "Where is this person? I'll go find him now! "

Liu Feng had already thought about this for Wu Tian. He clapped his hands towards the outside and a few hooligans dragged a person in.

Wu Tian sized up the person in front of him. His clothes were still different, but he was unconscious now and looked like a pile of mud on the ground.

The delinquents threw him on the ground and left their office.

"This is the kid! It took us a long time to figure out that he was the one who lived next to the bank. "

Liu Feng briefly introduced the results of their investigation and also complained about it. Maybe Wu Tian would give them an additional sum of money out of pity.

"Yes."

Wu Tian didn't hear too much. At this moment, all of his attention was on the person on the ground.

This person did not have any strong aura, which meant that he had never cultivated it before. He should not be an expert like Zhang Zerui.

Wu Tian took a closer look. He was dressed in famous brands and his clothes were expensive.

However, his face and the skin on his hands were still relatively rough. There was still the calluses from before. It was impossible for such a person to be a rich person who never did anything.

Loong Yun walked over at this moment. She first took a look at the man's face to see if there were any useful clues.

Other than money, there was nothing else useful on this person. This was beyond Wu Tian and the others' expectation.

"Hurry up and check his account... I think we're probably close to the truth. "

Although Wu Tian couldn't explain why he felt that way, he felt that he couldn't be wrong about this intuition of his.

Loong Yun did the same thing without him even needing to remind her. Liu Feng, who was beside them, looked at them curiously.

Wu Tian and the others' operation arrangements and investigation methods were all very professional. This made him start to be curious about the true identities of Wu Tian and the others.

"I'll take this person with me!"

Loong Yun had only dealt with the matter simply. If she really wanted to interrogate him through torture, she would have to personally deal with it herself.

Of course Liu Feng wouldn't stop them. Since he had already received the reward, then Wu Tian and the others would be his bosses. They could do whatever they wanted.

"Brother, although I don't know how to address you, but if there's anything else you need from me, please feel free to speak!" Seeing that they were leaving, Liu Feng quickly gave his contact details to Wu Tian respectfully.

If it was before, Wu Tian would have thrown his business card to Loong Yun without any hesitation. He didn't need to contact someone like that directly.

But this time, Liu Feng's performance made Wu Tian quite satisfied. He happily received the business card and put it in his pocket.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1112 - Torture

C1112 Torture

After a few greetings, Wu Tian stopped wasting time with Liu Feng and prepared to leave in a hurry.

Since they had not booked a hotel yet and had brought such a person with them, it was unlikely that ordinary hotels would let them in.

Besides, he didn't have a car, so it wouldn't be convenient for him to go anywhere. Wu Tian had no choice but to leave this matter to Loong Yun, but it couldn't be resolved in a short period of time.

Liu Feng took the initiative to walk over when he saw them acting like that.

He didn't know if this kindness of his could be acknowledged by Wu Tian, but he thought that this was probably the only thing he could take out.

"Then I will really have to trouble you ..."

Wu Tian agreed without saying anything.

If he didn't mention it himself, Wu Tian would be embarrassed to directly leave it in his Delong Company.

This place was indeed good. On one hand, it was remote. On the other hand, with Liu Feng's reputation, ordinary people wouldn't casually come here.

Others wouldn't find it suspicious if they did anything, because these hoodlums usually didn't do anything good ...

"Look at what you're saying, being able to help you is my good fortune!"

Liu Feng's mouth was good at speaking, but he forcefully coaxed Wu Tian to the point of being happy.

"You really know how to say that if I borrow a few rooms from you, it would only take a day or two at the most." Wu Tian said as he took out the money. Since he wanted to take over someone's place, he should give them enough money.

Liu Feng had already taken so much money. Although he also wanted this amount of money, he still refused after thinking about it.

"You've already given me a lot, so there's no need to give me more."

At this moment, this guy became even more generous. If someone who knew him saw this scene, they would definitely think that the sun had risen from the west.

One of Liu Feng's biggest traits was that he was very stingy. Although he was very rich and had a lot of people under his command, he was still very stingy.

He had always been open-minded when he saw money, and now that Wu Tian had placed the money in front of him, he actually took the initiative and didn't want it anymore ...

"This is the first time I've seen someone who doesn't want my money. Tell me, do you have any requests? It can't be that you want me to use your resources for nothing, right? "

Wu Tian wasn't a fool. He knew that no one was willing to help out for nothing, so since Liu Feng didn't want money, he must want something else from somewhere else.

Liu Feng chuckled. As expected, the person in front of him was quite sensible and seemed to have some skills. He saw through his thoughts at a glance.

"It's like this. I don't know who you are, but I'm just a person from a small county. Compared to you big families, you're way too weak, so I'm begging you, after you go back, can you tell the other counties to stop bothering me?"

Liu Feng felt quite embarrassed. After all, it was embarrassing to hear such words from a grown man.

Wu Tian felt that it was a bit strange, why was there such a messy situation.

"What you're saying is that I should stand up for you, but I don't even know the people near here ..."

It wasn't that Wu Tian didn't want to help him, it was just that he didn't have a way to do that either. Didn't he just ask the wrong person?

Liu Feng didn't feel any difference from Wu Tian's words. It seemed to be within his expectations.

"Nothing, as long as you can remember this matter of mine."

Since he said that, then Wu Tian will not take it to heart. He showed him his friendliness, so Wu Tian felt that he was really good.

Actually, he didn't really want to have much to do with Liu Feng. To be honest, he was just a small fry. It was just that he was useful to Wu Tian now.

After they left the county, Wu Tian estimated that he would forget about this person in less than ten minutes.

As she spoke, Loong Yun had already instructed the Security Team personnel to move the fellow lying on the ground into another room.

She poured a bucket of cold water over him, waking him up.

He looked at the people before him in horror, realizing that he was tied to a chair and was unable to move.

"Enough, we won't waste our time talking to you anymore."

Wu Tian looked at the person in front of him and was too lazy to introduce himself. He brought a screenshot of the surveillance video to the man.

"The person on top should be you, right? Let me ask you, who asked you to do this."

This poor unlucky bastard didn't know Wu Tian's background, nor did he know if he should say it or not.

He gritted his teeth and decided not to say anything. However, Wu Tian and the others weren't idiots. Since he didn't say anything, they naturally had other ways of knowing.

"I advise you to be more honest and speak your mind so that you don't bring yourself trouble."

Wu Tian kindly advised. Although Su Cancan wasn't here, that didn't mean that Wu Tian's method of interrogation wasn't as good as hers.

"What's your name? What does it have to do with Zhang Zerui? "

Loong Yun looked at the person in front of her with a serious expression. She had a pen and a notebook in her hand, ready to write down her answers as she asked.

The forehead of this fellow who was tied up like a dumpling was filled with sweat, because he saw the Security Team guard take out his gun, and gently place it on the table in front of him.

This kind of threat was obvious. If he still thought that these situations were worth more than his own life, then he could just not say anything.

"I say, I say ..."

However, this person still felt that just having money didn't have any use. One had to have the life to spend it.

"My name is Zhang Peng, I don't know what Pulitzer consortium you are talking about ..."

Because Wu Tian raised the pistol and pointed the muzzle at Wu Tian's head, this Zhang Peng immediately revealed everything he knew without any hesitation.

He didn't hesitate at all, as if this had nothing to do with him.

"You said you don't know Zhang Zerui? Then why are you here, and where is Lee Zhan? "

Wu Tian's questions were like a barrage of cannons as they were fired at him. Just hearing his tone made people feel like Wu Tian was going to kill this guy.

Zhang Peng swallowed his saliva and said slowly, "I just received a letter. It said that if I do as they asked, I would get a reward."

Zhang Peng looked for something on his body frantically, but his hands and feet were tied, making him unable to move.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1113 - Anonymous Letter

C1113 Anonymous Letter

Wu Tian didn't seem to be much of a threat seeing him like that, so he nodded towards the Security Team s beside him, indicating for them to untie the ropes on this guy's body.

Zhang Peng saw that his hands and feet were untied, so he quickly took out a letter from his pocket.

Loong Yun took the letter and opened it. She carefully examined its contents. It was basically the same as what he had said.

"There is indeed a letter requesting him to remit money to an account at a specific time."

Although Wu Tian didn't believe this man, he had no choice but to believe Loong Yun. Since that was the case, he had no choice but to accept this matter.

However, he still felt a bit unhappy. Why was he always being toyed with?

It was as if the enemy already knew that Wu Tian would investigate until this point, so from beginning to end, he had been setting up scams and a bewitching array for Wu Tian.

"You say this is an anonymous letter?" Wu Tian stared at Zhang Bo. He wanted to know if this person was lying or not.

Hearing that, Zhang Peng immediately raised his hand and put it beside his head. He swore to the heavens, "I guarantee that what I said just now is true!"

"Then tell me, when did you receive this letter and when did you start acting?"

Loong Yun continued to interrogate the man while Wu Tian walked out of the room gloomily.

Liu Feng had been standing guard nearby to see if there was anything he could help with. Seeing Wu Tian walk out with a worried face, he quickly came over to welcome him.

"How is it?"

Liu Feng looked into the room curiously, but the door was already closed. He didn't see what was going on inside the room.

"Nothing."

Liu Feng rolled his eyes and said with a smile, "Sir, if you have no solution, why don't I try it?"

"You? What good idea do you have? "

Wu Tian squinted at Liu Feng. No matter how he looked at it, he felt that Liu Feng was scheming something. He worked so hard to show off his ability in front of Wu Tian.

However, if he really had a way, then it would be considered as helping Wu Tian solve a big problem.

"This, is just a small trick. It's rather funny." Liu Feng didn't say it explicitly, but his words also made Wu Tian feel that he indeed had some methods of his own. However, these methods could not be used casually.

"Alright, I'll go in and tell them to let you try."

Wu Tian agreed without hesitation.

Not long after that, Liu Feng walked in and Wu Tian heard a burst of wailing and cursing coming from inside.

Screams and lashes. In short, if one only listened to the sounds, one would think that it was some kind of prison where torture was used to force confessions.

Loong Yun looked over worriedly. They had been chased out, so they had no idea what was going on inside.

"President Wu, can we do that? If he kills Zhang Peng, then we won't be able to get any information from him."

Wu Tian shrugged his shoulders casually, "He wasn't beaten by us, did you? None of our people have made a move. "

Since that was the case, whatever happened inside had nothing to do with him.

"Besides, the clue is the anonymous letter. Is there a postmark on it?"

Loong Yun shook her head. The envelope was blank, devoid of anything.

Hearing this, Wu Tian started to have some doubts. Normally, a letter would have to have a sender and a postmark.

Only when all these items were put together could it be considered as a complete letter.

But this Zhang Peng, he said he received this letter himself, but who gave it to him? Or did he pick it up?

It was impossible for this letter to appear for no reason.

"Investigate the people inside and see if you can find out where this letter came from."

Wu Tian felt that this matter needed to be properly investigated. While they were talking, Liu Feng walked out with a head full of sweat.

He seemed to have just been in a particularly vigorous exercise, and was panting heavily.

Seeing him come out, Wu Tian went up to him, "How is it?"

"This guy is really stubborn. He didn't say anything, but my whip is about to break ..."

Liu Feng didn't think that he would meet such a troublesome opponent. But even though he didn't say anything, was it really possible that he didn't know anything at all?

Wu Tian, Loong Yun, and the others looked at each other. They didn't know what to say at that moment.

Even though he had been tortured to death, he still could not find anything useful. The things he knew were probably very limited.

"Then that's it. You handle this person yourself. We'll think of a way to investigate from somewhere else."

Wu Tian felt that there was no point in continuing to stay here, so he wanted to leave.

However, this time, he was not joking around. He was truly planning to leave. After greeting Liu Feng, he left Zhang Peng.

Liu Feng happily sent Wu Tian and the others off. Then, he turned around with a gloomy face.

He set his sights on Zhang Peng again. Although Wu Tian let Liu Feng handle the situation on his own, Liu Feng did not plan to let Zhang Peng go.

To be able to attract the attention of such an unknown big boss, there must be a secret on Zhang Peng. Liu Feng felt that if he could grasp this secret, he might be able to have a closer relationship with Wu Tian.

Perhaps he would have a chance to soar into the sky. Thinking of this, Liu Feng picked up the whip again and slowly walked towards Zhang Peng step by step.

It was late. Loong Yun had booked a hotel in the center of the county town.

Although the environment and economy of this place were not particularly good, there were still things that were not bad at all.

On the way back, Wu Tian was still thinking about this, but he still couldn't understand it.

What exactly did this Lee Zhan want to do? And why did Lee Zhan casually hand over his bank account to a stranger?

He had more than a billion yuan in his account. No matter who it was, they couldn't just throw that much money to an unrelated person.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1114 - Fire

C1114 Fire

Wu Tian pondered over and over what Zhang Peng had said before.

Luckily, Loong Yun had already recorded all of this down. At this moment, Wu Tian was watching the playback with Loong Yun's laptop in his hand.

In the screen, Zhang Peng was shocked and his face was full of fear. He immediately nodded and admitted it.

"I don't know the people from the Pulitzer consortium you are talking about ..."

"Look at this!"

Wu Tian played it again. Loong Yun still didn't notice anything wrong at this time.

"What's wrong? What's wrong with this? "

"Of course! When I was at the front, I never mentioned Pulitzer Corporation. I only asked if he knew Zhang Zerui, and in the end he told me that he didn't know anyone from Pulitzer Corporation. "

Wu Tian seemed to have found a new world and was extremely excited.

"However, this shouldn't mean anything ..."

Loong Yun might not have understood Wu Tian's intentions, but she still felt that there was nothing to be surprised about.

"Does everyone know that the boss of the Pulitzer consortium is Zhang Zerui?"

Loong Yun also began to mutter to herself. Although they knew about Zhang Zerui's relationship with the Pulitzer Financial Group, very few people knew about it.

Rather, it was better to say that Zhang Zerui hid himself well. He was very low-key and would almost never take the initiative to appear in front of the media.

"Yeah, why didn't I think of that! We know about the relationship between the Pulitzer Financial Group and Zhang Zerui because we often deal with him. But outsiders do not know this! "

Let alone the people in this small town, even the regular citizens probably wouldn't know Zhang Zerui's name if it was S City.

So the problem was here, how did Zhang Peng know that Zhang Zirui was from the Pulitzer Financial Group?

He was definitely not as simple as he looked on the surface. If he did not know anything, then it must be fake.

"Quick, turn around. We have to go back and take a look!"

The caravan made a sharp turn on the road before rushing back.

However, after returning to the Delong Company this time, this place was still as quiet as before. It was just that there was a dead silence everywhere.

Wu Tian didn't think too much about it. Both he and Loong Yun felt that the atmosphere wasn't right, but they were still thinking about Zhang Peng's problem.

"Liu Feng, Liu Feng!"

"Strange, strange ..."

With Liu Feng's previous attitude, he would definitely greet Wu Tian with a smile when he sees him return and take the initiative to run out. But at this moment, there was no sound at all.

"Are they all not here?"

Loong Yun instructed a few Security Team practitioners beside her to take a look outside. At this time, everyone felt that the silence here was indeed a little strange.

"That's impossible. Where can they go at night?" Wu Tian said with a face full of doubt. Then, he walked to the room where Zhang Peng was imprisoned. He turned on the light and found that Zhang Peng was long gone.

The rope had been loosened long ago, so he was nowhere to be seen. They looked at all the rooms nearby, but there was no one there.

"Strange ..." Wu Tian simply took out the name card that Liu Feng gave him before. It seemed to have Liu Feng's number on it. He dialed the number and there was a busy signal.

"He didn't answer my call ..."

Just as Wu Tian was mumbling, a Security Team employee ran over from afar and shouted at Wu Tian: "President Wu, there's a phone ringing here!"

The moment Wu Tian heard this, he immediately ran over. It was definitely him! In other words, Liu Feng's phone should be nearby.

Following the sound, Wu Tian and a group of people found out that the sound came from a staircase. There were a few heavy trash cans in that corner, and the sound came from behind the trash can.

They moved the trash away and were surprised. Liu Feng was lying there with blood all over his face and his phone was buzzing on his body.

It seemed that he came too late, this Zhang Peng really had some tricks up his sleeves. Liu Feng, who had so many people, couldn't even beat this Zhang Peng. It seemed that his departure had truly harmed them.

"Watch out!"

Loong Yun saw that the situation wasn't good. She first asked the few members on the scene to carry out security, then hurriedly informed the people outside the county, waiting for the other support units.

Wu Tian and the others did not bring a large number of people with them to the city because they were afraid of attracting attention.

But he couldn't care so much now. Safety was of the essence. I'm afraid they all almost fell into the enemy's trap. It's just that Liu Feng became their scapegoat.

Wu Tian ran over and touched Liu Feng's chest with his hand. He found Liu Feng's heartbeat to be not bad. Liu Feng shouldn't be in any danger.

"He's still alive! We have to think of a way to get him away! "

Wu Tian pulled Liu Feng out from the trash can and planned to put him on the ground. He didn't know how many wounds he had on his body. He was afraid that any random movement would cause his injuries to worsen.

However, time flew by. While they were busy working here, an explosion came from the other side of the building, followed by a huge fire.

The flames quickly spread to the rooms to the side, and at that moment, the entire corridor was filled with smoke.

"President Wu, we have to leave this building as soon as possible!" Loong Yun quickly pulled Wu Tian and ran out. Wu Tian was still thinking about Liu Feng and looked left and right. He didn't have any useful tools, so he simply kicked a door.

He forcefully pulled down the door from the door frame.

They put Liu Feng on the door and made a simple stretcher to carry him out of the two-story building.

Perhaps it was because the building had a fire aid, but the flames spread extremely fast. In less than two to three minutes, the entire building had already been engulfed.

Zhang Peng and his men seemed to be ruthless and merciless, not leaving any traces behind when doing things. At this moment, another Security Team member who had gone to investigate also ran back.

"President Wu, we found a lot of corpses in the warehouse in the backyard. They were all Liu Feng's men." This team member was out of breath. He had run like a madman the entire way here.

"I just entered not long ago, there's a fire inside. I ran out with great difficulty ..."

"He's trying to destroy the corpse!" Wu Tian had mixed feelings as he looked at the Delong Company that was completely ignited. Just what kind of person did he provoke to actually do such a thing?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1115 - Liu Feng's Enemies

C1115 Liu Feng's Enemies

Very soon, someone started to call the police nearby. Wu Tian and the others didn't dare to run too far, so they started to treat Liu Feng near Delong Company.

At this time, the group of people and the fire engines were in a state of chaos as they tried to extinguish the fire.

"President Wu, our men are already here. The team is outside." Loong Yun received the message and rushed over to inform Wu Tian.

Wu Tian was currently looking at the Delong Company fire not far away and his heart was heavy.

"Alright, let's go."

Liu Feng was quickly sent to the medical vehicle. The facilities and preparation for Security Team were very adequate, and he could even undergo a certain degree of surgery on the medical vehicle.

It was said that his injuries weren't serious, and he only suffered some superficial wounds. On his back, there were many lashes of blood.

It was just that Liu Feng still hadn't woken up from the shock.

Wu Tian had always been guarding the outside of the medical vehicle. Although there were close to a hundred people's Security Team stationed nearby, he still felt uncertain about it.

As they slept out in the open, the weather was still rather cold at night. Loong Yun saw Wu Tian sitting there alone, afraid that he would catch a cold, so she brought a blanket for him.

"President Wu, you should just cover yourself with the blanket. Be careful not to catch a cold."

Wu Tian agreed, but he still didn't look too good.

"President Wu, I just investigated the surveillance cameras nearby and found something."

Loong Yun said as she took her tablet computer to show it to Wu Tian.

"Is there a group of people here?"

"That's right, they're riding on a few minibuses, and once they arrive they start smashing them down. The surveillance cameras behind us have all been destroyed by them, so there's no further news. "

Wu Tian nodded. There wasn't much difference from what he had expected.

It was unknown whether it was their luck or misfortune. If Wu Tian and the others had left a little later, they would have met these people head on.

However, he didn't know whether these people were after Liu Feng or Zhang Peng.

"Does the police know about this now?" Wu Tian muttered in his heart, if the police came in on a large scale to investigate, they might be implicated.

Wu Tian didn't have any ulterior motives. He was just afraid that his investigation would be delayed because of this.

"It's said that the fire had just ended, but the police haven't come in yet, but if they find the body behind them, that's only a matter of time. "However, the surveillance cameras have been deactivated. If the police find us, I will find a way to deal with them."

Loong Yun had a clear understanding of the situation. There was no need for Wu Tian to worry about this.

Wu Tian sighed. Now, they were at a loss of what to do. Who were the perpetrators? If they wanted to know, they could only wait for Liu Feng to wake up.

The long wait was boring and boring for anyone, especially under Wu Tian's anxious heart.

However, things were not looking good here, and there were some problems at the company.

Due to the huge incident that happened to Hualong Entertainment back then, it was not easy to recover in such a short period of time. The work of the website had also become stagnant, and this itself was an extremely fatal blow to a company that specialized in producing content.

Audiences don't just concentrate on waiting because you have something to do. They start looking for new alternatives very quickly.

Therefore, under such a situation that could be predicted, the number of people visiting Seafood TV could be said to have plummeted.

This situation was simply getting worse. After returning home, he would have to find a way to reverse the situation.

Almost an entire night passed just like that. When the first light of dawn lit up the sky, Loong Yun suddenly brought him good news. Liu Feng woke up.

Wu Tian didn't feel sleepy anymore. He immediately stood up and walked towards the car.

Liu Feng was lying on the bed with a blank look on his face. When he saw Wu Tie, he was so excited that he was on the verge of tears.

"I'm still alive?" His voice trembled, probably because he felt that it was unimaginable that he was still alive.

Wu Tie nodded his head and turned around to signal to Loong Yun. Liu Feng, Loong Yun and himself were all in the car.

You still can't just let people know when you're talking about important things.

"We found you behind the trash can and saved you, but you can't count on the rest of the people. They aren't as lucky as you."

Wu Tian wasn't very direct with his words, but Liu Feng immediately understood it with his brain.

He nodded his head in frustration. He was in an extremely bad mood. The many people under his command had all vanished in a single night ...

"Do you know who did it? And what happened at that time? "

Wu Tian's most urgent goal right now was to restate what happened that day. Zhang Peng couldn't let him run away like this. This kid must have a lot of secrets.

"Yesterday, not long after you left, a group of people appeared. There were too many of them, and before we could even react, we were already defeated by them ..."

When he said that, Liu Feng's heart was like a knife cutting through it. The scene that happened at that time was already deeply etched in his heart.

"I have never seen such a gruesome battle. They chop at people with machetes, and my men want to fight back, but they will be killed in groups of three or five. I want to run, but there is someone chasing after me. "It can be considered that I was lucky. After I hit one or two, I hid behind a trash can ..."

Liu Feng's voice was incredibly low and filled with sorrow, making those who heard it feel sad.

Although Wu Tian did not personally see the mess that followed, he could feel how miserable it was from looking at the Security Team Enforcer's expression.

"Do you know who did it?"

Wu Tian gritted his teeth. He couldn't just let this matter go like this.

"I know, even Wang Hu and the others from the neighboring county are old enemies of mine. I don't know what's wrong with them, they actually got serious this time. As for that Zhang Peng you mentioned, I didn't see him the whole time."

Liu Feng gritted his teeth as he spoke. He would remember this grudge for the rest of his life.
