

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1116 - Direct Attack Headquarters

C1116 Direct Attack Headquarters

Even though these underground powers would often bully others while acting arrogantly in their own territory, the conflicts between these underground powers were the more acute.

When they fought, they were much more brutal than when other people were fighting.

It wasn't unusual for a murder to happen when they were in conflict. Actually, Liu Feng didn't think it was strange, but this time, the situation was a bit too big. The enemy had prepared hundreds of people in one go and directly annihilated Liu Feng's men ...

This was something rarely seen in the past, so the occurrence of such a thing was simply shocking.

However, since such a thing had already happened, it meant that if the enemies planned to give up everything for this war, as long as they succeeded, Liu Feng's territory would be easily occupied.

After all, they didn't have anyone left. Liu Feng could never defend his territory by himself.

Being brutal was one thing, but to these underground powers, this was the easiest and most effective way to do it. Although it was a high risk, it was also accompanied by a high reward.

"I don't care who this Wang Hu is, since he has attacked me, I will definitely not forgive him!"

Wu Tian's words gave Liu Feng a great sense of security, which made him feel a lot more at ease.

"I really must thank you. You are my savior ..."

Liu Feng's tears flowed down. If it was before, he definitely wouldn't believe that such a day would happen.

He had never thought that there would be a day when he needed others to uphold his justice. To Liu Feng, this was simply a humiliation. However, the current him could do nothing about it.

"The key is that Zhang Peng. We can't find him now, so it'll be difficult to investigate later." Loong Yun frowned. It was easy to deal with these hooligans. As long as they told the police where they were hiding, there would naturally be people who would be willing to arrest them.

But Zhang Peng was different. Honestly speaking, Wu Tian didn't know who Zhang Peng really was.

However, one thing was for sure, this Zhang Peng was definitely not simple.

"Is Zhang Peng related to that Wang Hu? Wouldn't it be too much of a coincidence for both of them to appear at the same time? "

Wu Tian felt that there must be a connection between these two matters.

"I don't know about that ..."

Liu Feng was helpless towards this matter, because in other words, what he could do was limited.

Especially with his current condition, other than the things in his head, there was almost no other use to him.

Since Wu Tian saw him like this, he didn't want to disturb him anymore. He should get a good rest now.

"Let's hurry and investigate this Wang Hu, especially before the police find him!"

Wu Tian quickly instructed Loong Yun. They had to do this as soon as possible.

Without saying anything, Loong Yun immediately turned around to deal with this matter. In less than 20 minutes, she reportedly found Wang Hu's location.

Loong Yun knew Wang Hu's name, so it would be easy for her to investigate. She just needed to go to the neighboring county and find a few people to ask about it.

After all, such a person would definitely be very famous in the local area.

And this time, for safety's sake, Wu Tian decided to bring along fifty people's Security Team s. They had all kinds of weapons in their hands, and in short, they were fully armed.

Ten cars, Hao, quickly left the camp and headed towards Wang Hu's base.

Along the way, many people were discussing the cars. It was rare to see such cars in the county, so everyone felt that it was very fresh.

Furthermore, it was not just one or two cars, but a row of ten cars. Many people thought that the army had moved out ...

However, the thick and heavy armoured vehicle that Wu Tian and the others had was made with the country's permission.

This was not a transport that was regulated by the military. Ordinary people could also use it. However, ordinary people could not afford to own such a vehicle.

Furthermore, it would be too troublesome for an ordinary person to use this kind of car. It was not convenient at all. It could only be said that this type of car was suitable for this quasi-military type of organization.

Many people looked at Wu Tian and the others' destination, which seemed to be Wang Hu's location. They immediately sensed that there might be something going on here.

As a result, quite a few people stood to the side and watched the commotion. Dozens of Security Team practitioners got down from the armoured vehicles. When they saw that there were ordinary citizens around, they put away the guns in their hands. Someone was trying to drive them away.

However, for the sake of watching the show, these people were extremely excited and remained completely unmoved.

It was useless to rely on a few people to chase them away, but Wu Tian and the others couldn't call the police. In fact, even if they didn't call the police, the police would soon know what was going on here. After all, there were so many people here.

"I don't care about all that. If they are willing to watch, then let them watch!"

Wu Tian waved his hand. After all, the Security Team s were all wearing the army's camouflage clothes. As long as they didn't say anything, no one would be able to tell whether they were in the army or the private armed forces.

At most, he could just go and negotiate with Tieh Jun after the event and borrow the military's name.

In any case, the local police probably wouldn't rush over to investigate this kind of thing. After all, Wu Tian and the others didn't do anything harmful to the place. In other words, they dealt with these hooligans for the sake of the people.

The police would be very happy, how could they possibly go against Wu Tian.

The Security Team Enforcers, Hao, immediately surrounded Wang Hu's location.

This was a very large villa, with five floors, about a dozen houses extending from the front to the back. It looked very impressive, and it was one of the few mansions in the county.

"Team One and Two, surround them from both sides and cut off their retreat."

Wu Tian was very calm and collected. This time, he definitely couldn't leave the enemy with the back door to escape — he definitely couldn't leave any trouble behind.

As for the remaining people, they directly attacked from the front. The Security Team's movements were extremely quick, as they were, after all, retired soldiers and special forces members. This was child's play for them.

In the past when they were in the army, they had trained so many times that they could do it with their eyes closed.

Because the enemy was armed, the team members were fully armed this time, and did not plan to show mercy.

Especially after knowing what they had done, everyone's heart was filled with even more anger.

"What are you guys doing!"

A little hoodlum, at this time, was so drunk that he stood up, as if he had heard the Security Team Attendants' movements and pointed at their noses, then shouted loudly.

But in the next second, a Security Team member sent him flying with a flying kick.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1117 - Wanting to Flee

C1117 Wanting to Flee

In less than a minute or two, the Security Team staff immediately barged into the villa.

There was the smell of alcohol everywhere, and there were a lot of hooligans lying around as if they were drunk.

A small group of people were still maintaining their consciousness. They saw someone barging in and wanted to stand up and fight back, but they were too drunk to fight back.

Security Team users would have thought that they would still encounter some symbolic and meaningful resistance, but they never thought that they had truly overestimated them.

These hundreds of people were captured so easily by Wu Tian and the others without even firing their guns.

"Quick, find out if there's Wang Hu in here!"

These people didn't mean much to Wu Tian, what he truly cared about was Wang Hu.

As long as this guy was caught, then that was progress.

"Reporting in, there's no Wang Hu here!"

The news came from the Security Team very quickly. They sent people to investigate one by one, but they did not find Wang Hu's figure.

"Is he still inside?" Wu Tian turned around and looked at the mansion. He picked up a gun from the side and walked in with his sleeves rolled up.

The Security Team s were responsible for watching over the area, so they couldn't leave. Naturally, there was no one left to help Wu Tian.

However, there were only a few people left, so Wu Tian felt that there was nothing to be afraid of. No matter how powerful this Wang Hu was, could he be stronger than him?

Wu Tian was not bragging. He felt that he had trained in Alien Fist and that very few people would be able to take advantage of him in a one on one fight.

"President Wu, you must be careful!"

Loong Yun looked nervously at Wu Tian. She originally wanted to stop him, but Wu Tian was too fast for her to do so. At this moment, he had already entered the villa.

Due to Hao's previous action, the villa was cleared and there was no one around. However, according to the words of the Security Team Practitioners, they had never seen Wang Hu.

He was sure that if Wang Hu wasn't drunk, he would have been able to hear what was happening outside.

Maybe he was hiding somewhere, or maybe he was trying to escape through some secret passage.

Wu Tian started to search the rooms one by one. Finally, he came to the top floor.

The furnishings and decorations of this place were more than twice as luxurious as other places. It was obvious that this place was where Wang Hu lived.

Wu Tian walked slowly towards the inside step by step. He held the pistol tightly in his hand, while his fingers were almost on the trigger.

Wu Tian didn't actually know how to use a gun, but he felt that it wasn't that difficult.

As Wu Tian's footsteps were soft, he could barely hear anything if he wasn't paying attention. Thus, he could slowly sense any movement on the floor.

Even if a needle fell on the ground, Wu Tian could hear it clearly.

After walking for less than half the distance, Wu Tian heard a series of footsteps, followed by some noises like opening cabinets.

Although the sound wasn't loud, it was still caught by the sharp Wu Tian.

There really was someone inside! The sound came from one of the bedrooms. Wu Tian guessed it was Wang Hu's bedroom so he quietly pressed his body against the door.

He pressed his ear against the door and listened.

At this moment, Wang Hu was holding onto the window as he watched the scene outside. He was extremely scared.

He was also probably stupefied. He didn't expect that the person who had captured him would arrive so quickly ...

"I need to hurry up and think of a way to escape!" As Wang Hu said this, he used both hands and feet to crawl to the side of a bookshelf. Then, he tried his best to push the bookshelf away, but he didn't dare to make too much noise, so his progress was very slow.

But luckily, even though it was lively downstairs, no one was paying attention to his room.

Wang Hu finally pushed open the bookcase with great difficulty, revealing a metal door behind that he couldn't see even if he didn't look carefully.

This door was almost the same color as the wall beside, but there was a small crack on the wall. Wang Hu quickly wanted to open the door, but there was a lock on the door and he needed a password to open it.

At this moment, Wu Tian was outside listening to everything that was happening inside clearly, so he had a plan.

He found a cloth and wrapped his shoes with it. Then, he gently opened the door and walked towards Wang Hu's back step by step.

At this moment, this fellow was so engrossed in unlocking the door that he did not notice someone approaching from behind.

When Wu Tian arrived beside him, he could almost hear Wang Hu's heavy breathing.

Everything else could be concealed, except for his heartbeat. If he was in an extremely quiet situation, then the stronger person could use this method to determine whether or not someone was approaching him.

One second later, Wang Hu was still focused on unlocking the door. The next second, he grabbed an iron wrench on the ground, turned around and threw it at Wu Tian.

His reaction was already pretty good. It was obvious that he had honed his ability from all kinds of fights.

With such a reaction speed and such power, an ordinary person wouldn't be able to withstand his attack.

However, this time, Wang Hu was unlucky to meet a freak like Wu Tian.

He twisted his neck forcefully and dodged the attack. However, Wu Tian had already made his move. He turned the spearhead, grabbed the barrel of the gun, and smashed towards Wu Tie's neck with the handle of the gun.

He treated the gun as if it was a hammer. If it hit him, he might lose consciousness on the spot, and if it hit him seriously, his neck might even break.

Wang Hu was not stupid. He couldn't let Wu Tian hit him so easily, so he quickly raised his arm to defend himself.

However, Wu Tian's strength was too great. He directly bumped into Wang Hu's arm. With a cracking sound, Wang Hu's arm fractured.

The sound was so clear that both of them were stunned for a moment.

Only after that did Wang Hu realize the intense pain that came from his arm, causing him to roll on the ground.

Wu Tian saw that the person in front of him had lost all of his fighting power and was at a loss for words.

He couldn't stand to lose an arm. His level was too poor.

Compared to those experts Wu Tian had met before, this Wang Hu was a type that could be crushed to death with a single finger.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1118 - Real Goal

C1118 Real Goal

Wu Tian picked up Wang Hu with one hand and dragged him on the ground while holding the clothes on his neck. No matter how Wang Hu bared his teeth and yelled behind him, Wu Tian just ignored him.

After leaving the villa, he threw this fellow onto the ground like a pile of mud. He did not let him go just because he was injured.

The Security Team practitioners hurriedly rushed over and pointed their black guns at this guy. Wang Hu instantly shut his mouth and knew that it was useless for him to say anything.

"President Wu, are you alright?"

Loong Yun quickly came over to take care of Wu Tian because he had been inside for quite some time. She was naturally happy to see him successfully pull Wang Hu out.

"I'm fine, this guy is simply trash. I don't even know how he succeeded in annihilating Liu Feng's men ..."

Wu Tian found it hard to understand. Just this level? Were the hundreds of people he had with him this skilled?

Compared to the powerful fighting strength Liu Feng mentioned, it felt like he wasn't the same person.

"Let's wait for a while, we can talk after the interrogation."

At this moment, Loong Yun had no way to make a proper judgment, so she could only rely on the investigation to be carried out.

Wu Tian returned the gun to the Security Team Elder beside him, then sat down at the side. It was not enough to find Wang Hu, but Zhang Peng was the key.

If he couldn't find Zhang Peng, what he did now would be meaningless.

The key point was that Loong Yun had already investigated Zhang Peng, but nothing could match this name. In short, even this name was fake.

The more he thought about it, the angrier Wu Tian felt. He never thought that he would be played for a day like this.

The key point was that this was not the first or second time. Since his company had been attacked, he seemed to have fallen into a trap.

The other side dug a hole and attracted Wu Tian to jump in. Then, Wu Tian came in and discovered that there was another hole behind the hole. The layer after layer of nesting had actually forcefully tied Wu Tian here.

If Wu Tian just let it go like that, not mentioning how all the previous investigations had failed, Wu Tian himself could not accept this fact.

The enemy couldn't be forgiven for his actions. Wu Tian didn't expect Sunn Hongsheng to help him find the truth, so he still had to rely on himself for the most important thing.

Mainly because there weren't any surveillance videos along the way, Wu Tian and the others wanted to investigate whether these people had brought Zhang Peng out with them, but they couldn't find anything.

Helpless, Loong Yun could only take Zhang Peng's photos and ask them one by one.

However, most of them shook their heads, saying that they had never seen this person before.

After spending half a day, Wu Tian and the others had almost no progress. Even the usually calm Loong Yun frowned at this moment.

"Still no news?"

Wu Tian went over to Loong Yun's side. He looked at her for a long time, but his expression never relaxed.

Loong Yun nodded, "Most people say that they don't know Zhang Peng, but they have never seen or even heard of him."

Wu Tian could only sigh at this moment. Under these circumstances, he could only accept this fact. After all, they had no better way to solve this problem.

At this moment, the outside of the mansion was full of people. They curiously looked inside, but didn't know what was going on inside.

Some people thought that the police finally started to take action to punish these local tyrants, cheering for Wu Tian and the others.

However, some people felt it was strange, because normally, these kinds of things should be handled by the police. However, the clothes Wu Tian and the others were wearing were the army's camouflage clothing.

Therefore, some people began to feel that there might be some conspiracy theories behind this.

He felt that there was something wrong with Wu Tian and the others. This Wang Hu was an important figure who had become hot, so he suffered the wrath of heaven.

In short, there were all sorts of versions of it. Wu Tian and the others had only heard about it a few times already.

They didn't have much chance to spread the rumours now. After all, as long as Wu Tian and the others left, these people could say whatever they wanted.

Wu Tian looked outside aimlessly. Suddenly, he saw a familiar face in the crowd.

His opponent seemed to have also felt Wu Tian's gaze, so he immediately lowered his head and turned to leave.

Wu Tian rushed out without saying a word, directly sprinting towards that person's speed of a hundred meters.

His opponent felt that something was not right so he ran. Because there were too many people, he wanted to run, but he wasn't fast enough.

"He's the one I found!"

Wu Tian shouted. He didn't have time to explain now, and just now, with that one glance, he saw that there was someone in the crowd who looked especially similar to Zhang Peng.

At the beginning, Wu Tian felt that he was wrong, but after a few more careful glances, he confirmed that it was Zhang Peng.

Without saying anything further, he rushed out. Zhang Peng's speed and reaction were also very fast. The two of them almost ran away at the same time while the other chased.

The crowd was completely clueless as to what was going on. They just stood there in a daze as they acted as obstacles in their human form.

Zhang Peng desperately wanted to run away from the crowd, but the speed at which he was moving was extremely slow. However, Wu Tian's speed was not any faster than his.

It was as if they were swimming in a shoal of fish, and the resistance they faced was hard to imagine.

But in the end, it was Zhang Peng who was stronger. The first thing he did was to highlight the hindrance of the crowd and jump into the alley beside it.

Wu Tian quickly caught up with them. He didn't care too much about it. Along the way, he knocked down a lot of goods that were left by the shops on both sides of the road.

He did not stop and stared at the only target in front of his eyes.

"I told you to run!"

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and started to be fierce. His feet became faster and he charged towards Zhang Peng like an arrow that had left the bow.

He was about to catch up with Zhang Peng, but this guy suddenly jumped and tapped on the wall a few times with his toes. Then he jumped up and landed on the roof after a few leaps.

He was like a nimble black cat, agilely moving back and forth on the rooftop, quickly crossing a block.

Wu Tian also did the same thing, but he was too strong. If he stomped on the ground, he might even cause a hole in the roof.

This sort of efficiency was obvious. The gap between the two of them was slowly growing larger.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1119 - Unable to Escape from Disaster

C1119 Unable to Escape from Disaster

Seeing that this guy was about to run away, Wu Tian didn't care that much at the moment and picked up a wooden stick from the side.

The tip of this wooden stick was a sharp thorn. Wu Tian felt that this wooden stick was similar to a javelin.

Thus, he used the wooden stick in his hand to throw the wooden stick after he finished his run.

The long spear was like an arrow, shooting towards Zhang Peng's back.

Zhang Peng felt a gust of wind coming from behind him and thought it was Wu Tian's fist.

As a result, he dodged to the side. Unfortunately, it wasn't a fist, but a temporary javelin.

The gun brushed past Zhang Peng's ear and took away a piece of his ear.

If it hit his body, Zhang Peng would probably be nailed to the ground.

Looking at this situation, Zhang Peng was immediately covered in cold sweat. His body was stiff and he almost fell to the ground with one step.

However, Wu Tian wasn't discouraged. He saw that there was a bundle of bamboo on the side, so he rushed over and hugged the bamboo in his arms and threw them over one by one.

The bamboo was like a rain of swords, covering the area Zhang Peng was in.

No matter how he fled, there would always be two bamboos at his side that were about to hit his body.

The situation was reversed all of a sudden. Zhang Peng was already running for his life just to avoid the attack. The attack on his body just now had scared him.

He did not expect Wu Tian's attack power to be so domineering. It was far beyond his imagination.

All of a sudden, due to the fear in his heart, Zhang Peng's speed and reaction speed rapidly decreased. Finally, he was unable to dodge in time and a bamboo stick was stuck in his thigh.

Suddenly, Zhang Peng screamed as the bamboo pierced through his thigh and nailed him to the ground.

Wu Tian rushed over and punched Zhang Peng in the head without saying a word.

The corner of Wu Tian's mouth was instantly covered in blood. However, this was not enough, so he punched Wu Tian a few more times.

Zhang Peng's originally clean face instantly turned tattered.

Seeing him like this, Wu Tian was still a bit angry, but he had to endure it. He didn't need to beat him to death in this place.

The wound on Zhang Peng's leg was very big, and blood kept flowing out. At this moment, his face was already starting to turn pale, devoid of any color. If this goes on, Zhang Peng might not last more than a few minutes before dying from excessive blood loss.

Wu Tian quickly called for Loong Yun to send someone over. He had to deal with this matter as soon as possible.

Fortunately, the speed and reaction of his Security Team was very fast and a doctor came over immediately to treat his leg. It was just that this time, Zhang Peng's luck wasn't very good.

The bamboo that hit him seemed to have touched Zhang Peng's big artery. It had caused serious damage to his great arteries, so there was no stopping the bleeding.

"President Wu, there's no way at all, there's no way to sew it up ..."

When the medical staff saw this scene, they trembled a little. Generally speaking, if there were injuries to the arteries, there would be no way to save them.

Because in that state, blood would spray out like a fountain ...

Wu Tian looked at this scene and felt very anxious. The most important thing was that he couldn't let Zhang Peng die just like that. He thought for a moment before clenching his teeth. "Cut off his legs. Don't worry about it too much. We'll save him first!"

After hearing his instructions, the medical staff also made up their minds. They immediately took out their tools and prepared to amputate Zhang Peng's leg.

At the same time, he also hung up his blood transfusion bag, thinking of all sorts of ways to forcefully prolong his life.

Wu Tian originally wanted to use this opportunity to continue questioning Zhang Peng, but at this moment, Zhang Peng had already gone to the extent where he couldn't even talk. Naturally, he had no way to respond to Wu Tian's questions.

After an emergency treatment, Zhang Peng's bleeding stopped, but his people also fainted.

It wouldn't do to leave him here, so they hurried him back to the car.

The rest of the hooligans, they left it all to the local police.

The police didn't have much suspicion towards Wu Tian's identity. In fact, as long as they looked carefully, Wu Tian and the others would have no way to prove that they came from the military.

There was no doubt about that. The police were not stupid, but in this situation, especially with so many people watching, the police could not point out Wu Tian and the others' problems on the spot.

After all, this matter was a great thing for the masses. Pouring cold water on the citizens at this time was obviously not a rational move.

It was more necessary to turn a blind eye at a critical moment.

Therefore, Wu Tian and the others returned to their own campsite without any obstructions. Liu Feng and Zhang Peng, on the other hand, were receiving treatment in the same car.

As for that unlucky Wang Hu, his condition was much better. It was just a fracture. After some bandaging and fixing, he was fine.

Therefore, he was also the one who was questioned by Wu Tian the longest.

"Where the hell did you go that day?" "Also, what is your relationship with Zhang Peng?"

At this moment, Wang Hu no longer had his arrogant attitude. He was as quiet and honest as a child. Whatever Wu Tian asked, he would answer.

"That day, I ..." Wang Hu stammered. He didn't know whether he should say it or not, but he seemed to be worried.

But then he thought, even Zhang Peng had become like that, where else could he hide?

He gritted his teeth and stomped his feet, revealing everything that had happened.

"I do know him, but we've only known each other for a day or two."

Wang Hu swallowed a mouthful of saliva. Sure enough, this was not a simple matter of creating a ruckus.

"Go on."

Wu Tian's face was gloomy. He had already thought of this. However, when the truth really came out in front of him, he still found it hard to accept.

"It's like this, this Zhang Peng took the initiative to find me, saying that he's willing to give me a sum of money. As long as he gives me the signal, I'll kill my way to his place and rescue him. "

Speaking of this, Wu Tian felt that all of this was reasonable. He knew that Zhang Peng was only him alone, so he needed some other people to protect him.

Unfortunately, after Zhang Peng's accident, he tried to find a way to send a message to Wang Hu, but when Wang Hu arrived, he found out that the place where Zhang Peng was captured was his arch-enemy Liu Feng's territory.

Thus, Wang Hu decided to do both things at once. On one hand, Wang Hu had personally rescued Zhang Peng and let him go. On the other hand, he had ordered his men to kill Liu Feng in a moment.

Before leaving, they set a fire. If it wasn't for Wu Tian leaving early, it might have been hard for them to escape.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1120 - Beautiful Woman in Bed

C1120 Beautiful Woman in Bed

At this point, he finally understood everything.

Wu Tian already knew what was going on. It was just that this Wang Hu was extremely sinful to be able to do such a cruel thing.

Although they were all hoodlums, Liu Feng's underlings still had over a hundred lives, and they just disappeared like that ... Wu Tian didn't know what to say in his heart.

"I understand the situation. You can talk to the police about the remaining matters."

Wu Tian waved his hand, then nodded to the Security Team Enforcers. They were very cooperative and pulled Wang Hu out.

Wang Hu's face was full of fear. He started to struggle with all his might, but it was too late for him to realize his situation.

"I beg you, let me go, let me go ..." Wang Hu's voice got farther and farther away.

Wu Tian rubbed his temples. He had to carefully sort out the recent situation.

Things had already progressed a lot. If nothing unexpected happened, he might be able to learn something from Zhang Peng.

Wu Tian stood up and looked outside at the camp outside. A hundred people were camping in the field outside the county. It looked a bit awkward.

To be honest, although it was a refreshing feeling, it was still quite uncomfortable and did not feel comfortable at all. After all, the wild couldn't compare to their Flower Island.

"Loong Yun, tell your subordinates that we should return to S City!" Wu Tian thought for a while. He had already caught the important witness, so he didn't need to stay in the county anymore.

As for the matter with Wang Hu, Wu Tian was too lazy to worry about it. He wasn't a local police officer.

With Wu Tian's order, the group quickly started to move out. The team members were packing up their belongings and preparing to load them into the car.

Loong Yun walked to Wu Tian's side with a worried look.

"President Wu, that Liu Feng is still in our medical vehicle. What should we do with him?"

If he didn't say it, Wu Tian would have almost forgotten about this guy.

"Right, there's still him." Wu Tian started to mutter as he dragged his own feet: "What's the benefit of taking him back with us?"

It wasn't like Loong Yun hadn't thought about Wu Tian's question. It was just that it wasn't easy to find out what was so good about him that Wu Tian could use him.

Of course, this guy had good judgement. There was nothing to dispute about this, but he couldn't do anything for Wu Tian.

Loong Yun thought about it for a moment and finally managed to point out a characteristic. "He's good at flattering ..."

Hearing her words, Wu Tian laughed on the spot. This really was ... Although Liu Feng didn't know his identity, but he was very polite to Wu Tian.

In this respect, he did have some ability. However, how this ability could be used by others was not known.

"I have a good place for him!" Wu Tian suddenly seemed to have thought of something. His eyes were brimming with a smile as he smirked at Loong Yun.

Loong Yun did not know what this fellow was thinking, but she was not anxious at all. Once she received her S City, she would naturally understand.

The convoy began to return to the city in a formidable array. While it was still dark and no one was paying attention, Wu Tian had already quietly returned to the Flower Island.

After tormenting himself for a day or two, he felt rather tired. He quickly took a shower and prepared to go to bed.

However, Wu Tian didn't think too much about it the moment he came out of the bathroom. He turned off the lights, lifted the blanket and got in.

Just as he was about to lie down, his body seemed to have touched something and Wu Tian's sleepiness instantly disappeared.

That soft and smooth feeling was without a doubt the smooth skin of a girl!

This feeling couldn't be wrong, Wu Tian could guarantee this with a hundred percent certainty.

Although she was always by his side and did not lack a woman's figure, it was still rare for her to be lying in the same bed.

Wu Tian, who was originally a bit tired, became a hundred times more energetic. His heart started to beat rapidly, as if he was back to when he was a kid, being mischievous and doing bad things.

"Who the hell is this?" Wu Tian muttered in his heart as he opened his eyes wide, wanting to see who this person was. However, the other's face was hidden under the blanket and only revealed a forehead.

Wu Tian got off the bed quietly and ran to the door to take a closer look. He made sure that he didn't walk into the wrong room. Only then did he boldly return.

He quietly climbed onto the bed and reached out to grab the blanket on this person's body. He wanted to see who this person was.

However, just when Wu Tian was about to make his move, the person under the blanket suddenly grabbed Wu Tian and hugged him like a hug.

What kind of expansion was this? Wu Tian was stunned. Even he couldn't clearly see who this person was when he was carried by someone like this.

Wu Tian didn't dare to move too much and could only follow the man's actions and lie down slowly. But when he was about to touch the pillow, Wu Tian finally saw clearly who the person hugging him was under the moonlight outside.

If it was anyone else, Wu Tian would not be as upset as he was now.

If it was Liu Yueyao, Huang Lan and the others, they might even have a night's worth of love. Wu Tian was even more amused. It was just that his luck was bad and the woman he bumped into was Su Cancan ...

Normally, this guy would just ignore Wu Tian and even go for him from time to time. With such a crazy woman, Wu Tian couldn't avoid her in time, so how could he think about taking advantage of her?

Right now, it was like this. Even if Wu Tian wanted to take advantage of her, he didn't want to ...

If she woke up, Wu Tian felt that their situation was unclear ... Su Cancan might laugh at Wu Tian if she didn't get it in her head ...

Thinking about their Wudu Sect's methods, Wu Tian's entire body started to tremble.

This wasn't a joke. It was better not to provoke her.

Wu Tian thought about it and decided to leave quietly while he found a place to spend the night.

He wanted to break free from Su Cancan's embrace, but this guy had such great strength when he was sleeping, making it hard for people to break free.

No one would have thought that Wu Tian would be trapped on the same bed in the dark of night.
