

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1121 - Whose Fault

C1121 Whose Fault

No one would have thought that Wu Tian would be trapped on the same bed in the dark of night.

Furthermore, he and Su Cancan were in the same bed. Judging from Wu Tian's touch just now, Su Cancan probably wasn't wearing much clothes at the moment ...

The more he thought about it, the more nervous Wu Tian became.

He didn't dare to move too much for fear of waking Su Cancan up, but if he was too weak, he wouldn't be able to struggle free. This guy was like a bear as he tightly pressed her body against Wu Tian's chest as if she was hugging a huge rag doll.

Feeling the pressure from his chest, Wu Tian was unexpectedly in pain and happy for a moment.

"Not good, I can't continue like this ..." Wu Tian was very anxious, the strength in his hands had also started to increase.

As a result, he got himself into big trouble, and Su Cancan woke up at that moment. She blinked her big eyes and looked at Wu Tian in surprise.

There was almost no distance between the two of them. Su Cancan was astonished at first, but then she became angry.

She pushed Wu Tian away and gave him a sharp slap!

"What are you doing? Are you looking to die?!" Su Cancan spoke harshly as she wrapped her body in a blanket, not wanting to expose any part of her skin in front of Wu Tian.

The slap was so crisp, Wu Tian felt like stars were starting to appear in front of his eyes.

He shook his head and almost fell off the bed, but fortunately he managed to hold his body back.

"Why did you barge into my room? You'd better explain to me. Otherwise, you'll have to bear the consequences!"

At this moment, Su Cancan was completely awake. She began to move her muscles and bones, because for the foreseeable future, it was almost certain that Wu Tian would be beaten up.

"I didn't break into your room, this is my room!"

Wu Tian felt wronged. He looked carefully to confirm that this was the room he lived in.

However, Su Cancan did not take Wu Tian's words seriously. She still looked annoyed.

"Stop bullshitting around here, can you trick me just because of this reason?"

Su Cancan's face was filled with disdain. She pointed at the wall and snorted coldly at Wu Tian, "Go over there, face the wall! If you dare to turn around, I'll wring your head off! "

Wu Tian knew what he was going to do, it was just that she was afraid that he would see her dressed, so he didn't mind.

"Alright, alright, I'll listen to you!" Wu Tian's tone was very perfunctory, but he still did as he was told. However, he muttered to himself as he froze: "What's there to hide, it's not like I haven't seen it before ..."

Hearing this, Su Cancan immediately felt embarrassed. It was really embarrassing for him to say this in front of her.

"I'll tell you that you're finished!" Su Cancan quickly put on her clothes as she started to think about how to deal with Wu Tian.

"Let's not talk about anything else for now. You can go to the door to take a look. Is this my room?"

On the other hand, Wu Tian was confident and confident. His straight body was not afraid of slanting shadows, so he believed that he had no problems.

However, when he said that, Su Cancan was awoken.

After Su Cancan finished dressing herself, she walked to the door and found that it was indeed Wu Tian's room. She immediately realized that she had done wrong.

However, since things had come to this, it was impossible for Su Cancan to admit her mistake. She directly took down the door plate and switched it with the door plate in her room.

After finishing everything, Su Cancan turned around. She stood at the door facing Wu Tian as she pointed at her nose and said, "You come and see for yourself. If I go the wrong way, I will naturally apologize to you. But, you took advantage of me ..."

As she said that, Su Cancan recalled the scene of the two of them hugging each other and her face immediately blushed. Although she was usually noisy, she was still rather shy when it really came to critical moments.

After all, she was just a girl who had never seen the world before.

Wu Tian ignored this. He felt that it was impossible for him to make a mistake, so he swaggered to the door. Then, his expression froze.

Because there was Su Cancan's room number hanging on the door, Wu Tian couldn't understand what it meant.

"That shouldn't be, I clearly saw my room just now ..."

Wu Tian didn't know what to say. He had just promised that he wouldn't walk into the wrong room, but now, things had turned out like this ...

"What else do you have to say?"

With a cold expression, Su Cancan began to rub her palms together. New and old grudges would have to be settled today.

"I ..."

Wu Tian was speechless. He didn't know how to explain himself, was he wrong? However, he believed that he could not be wrong. He repeatedly confirmed it several times.

It must be Su Cancan's doing! Wu Tian immediately confirmed this fact in his heart. It must be her, otherwise, who else could it be.

She must have been afraid that she was in the wrong, so she switched the cards on purpose. Thinking of this, Wu Tian felt reassured. Therefore, he didn't want to be outdone by Su Cancan.

The two of them were arguing in the corridor, but they forgot that it was late at night. The surroundings were very quiet, and their voices were like loudspeakers, waking up the people around them.

At this moment, Su Wenxin swaggered in from the outside. Her body was swaying a little as if she had just returned from drinking wine.

She glanced at Su Cancan and Wu Tian, who were arguing at the door, and walked over with great interest.

"What are you two doing?" Su Wenxin sized him up before her gaze stopped at Wu Tian. He was only wearing a pair of underpants.

There was a man and a woman, and then there was this kind of situation. It would definitely make people think more about it. Su Wenxin didn't say anything, but the expression on his face betrayed her thoughts.

"Master, it's not what you think!"

Su Cancan hurriedly said. Only now did she notice that Wu Tian wasn't wearing any clothes. Then, she slapped Wu Tian's face.

"Shameless! Wear your clothes quickly!"

Wu Tian felt wronged, even if he jumped into the Yellow River, he wouldn't be able to wash away his grievance.

"Why don't the two of you just get together. After all, the two of you are engaged ..."

Su Wenxin added fuel to the fire, and didn't have any intention of trying to persuade Su Cancan. This sentence made Su Cancan run away. Seeing her running away, Su Wenxin, as her master, laughed out loud from behind.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1122 - Sequelae

C1122 Sequelae

Wu Tian was also helpless towards Su Wenxin's words. He quickly went back to his room to change his clothes and then changed his room number.

Noticing that it was getting late, he went to bed after greeting Su Wenxin.

Although it had been a farce, Wu Tian, who had returned to his bed, could still feel Su Cancan's warmth and the faint scent of her body.

This feeling made Wu Tian feel relaxed and happy, and he instantly fell asleep.

When dawn arrived, Loong Yun came to wake him up. Wu Tian was reluctant to leave.

At that moment, Wu Tian suddenly felt that Su Cancan wasn't as terrible as he had imagined. Although she didn't have a good temper, she kept a cold face all day long and didn't give people any face.

However, the bashfulness on her face last night was real. In the end, Su Cancan was still a girl.

Nothing could change it. No matter how hard he tried to conceal himself, how much he tried to hide his emotions, he could not change this fact.

Thinking about that, Wu Tian couldn't help but snicker.

When Loong Yun saw him giggling foolishly, she was confused. She thought Wu Tian had taken the wrong medicine.

"President Wu, there's an important meeting today. I hope that you can hurry up and prepare for it."

Seeing that Wu Tian didn't come back to his senses, Loong Yun quickly gave him a reminder.

"Meeting?"

Only after hearing that did Wu Tian realize that the problem with Hualong Entertainment was not small. Thinking about that, he quickly went to get up.

Wu Tian didn't even have time to eat breakfast as he directly rushed towards the meeting room.

On the way, he bumped into Su Cancan. Wu Tian felt awkward and didn't know where to look.

On the other hand, Su Cancan's face was expressionless as she returned to her icy beauty appearance.

The moment they passed each other, Wu Tian felt Su Cancan's body shudder.

This girl had pretended to look like that, but in the end, wasn't she also extremely nervous ...

It was just a small episode, so Wu Tian didn't take it to heart. However, Su Wenxin's words lingered in his mind.

Indeed, he and Su Cancan had an engagement between the two of them. Old Master Wu Zhi had mentioned this before, but he put it on hold due to a series of incidents.

But the marriage had not been cancelled, and sooner or later they would have had to deal with it.

With Wu Zhihe and Su Wenxin's support, Wu Tian had no way to directly reject the marriage contract. Although it could be delayed now, it was better to pretend that there was no need for it.

But one day, he would have to face it. At that time, what choice would Wu Tian have?

Wu Tian had already arrived at the meeting room as he was indulging in his thoughts. At this moment, most of the executives were already gathered inside the meeting room.

"Everyone is here! "Then let's hurry up and start the meeting!"

As the host, Loong Yun immediately announced the start of the meeting. The main problem this time was also the Hualong Entertainment that Zhang Chi was leading.

"President Wu, the main problem now is that the Hualong Entertainment has been paralyzed. Many of us employees are still unable to come to work ..."

Zhang Chi frowned. He had dark circles under his eyes. It could be said that he didn't have a good rest these two days.

Wu Tian nodded. He had already heard this news when he was outside.

Hualong Entertainment was a content production company, so if no one was working, then naturally there would be no content output.

What the masses were buying were cultural products that they had produced, such as variety shows, television series, movies, and even videos.

Previously, the reason the Hualong Entertainment was so profitable was because when a large number of foreign movies and TV dramas were being introduced, they were also producing a large amount of high-quality resources.

In such a short period of time, the seafood TV's reputation had risen to an extremely high level.

"How much longer will it take?"

It was too late to recruit people from now on. Wu Tian felt that he could only wait slowly for this to happen. However, he had to have a time limit and couldn't wait endlessly.

Zhang Chi wiped the sweat off his forehead and lightly shook his head. He could not say anything about this.

"It's hard to say ... Some employees are less likely to be stimulated, but others are more likely to be... I hope you can understand this as well. "After all, kidnapping and killing ..."

Zhang Chi didn't even want to continue talking about what happened after because he was one of those who went through it. When a normal person encountered something like this, they would have been scared out of their wits.

He was still able to take charge of the work because he knew that he was the person in charge of the company, so he had to stand up.

But the employees didn't have his awareness, and they couldn't ask the employees to be like Zhang Cheng.

Naturally, the employees didn't want to come to work in the company, especially when the psychological stress didn't subside.

When Wu Tian heard this, he felt that this matter would not be resolved in a short time. He had to think of another way.

"Since that's the case, let's transform our Seafood TV!"

Wu Tian waved his hand and slammed the table. This was not something that could be accomplished just by saying it. A mature company would have to pay a huge price if it wanted to transform.

One had to involve a portion of the original items before adding in new ones. It was necessary to slowly investigate which items had to be added in order to get rid of and what had to be added.

"President Wu, isn't this too risky? With our current profitability, we should be able to survive for another week." Wu Zaibin objected at the time.

He still thought relatively highly of the current pattern of Seafood TV. As long as Hualong Entertainment could recover one's vitality, these naturally wouldn't be too much of a problem.

"What if something like that happens again?"

Wu Tian didn't say anything else but asked back and immediately made Wu Zaibin speechless.

Indeed, if a similar situation was to occur again, the damage to his Seafood TV would be even greater.

"Just listen to me. Think of a way to change the current model. Open up the permissions for this content production and let ordinary people create their own content. That way, our cost will be reduced a lot."

According to Wu Tian, they were going to set up a foundation or a support plan to help some creative people publish their works on Wu Tian's website.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1123 - Turning Passive into Active

C1123 Turning Passive into Active

As there was no room for discussion on this matter, after Wu Tian made his decision, everyone could only pinch their noses and accept it as they prepared to handle this matter.

Since the New Star Project had already started to operate perfectly, the supporting plan of Zhang Chi and the others was not that difficult anymore.

As per the rules, the support plan soon came online.

Due to Wu Tian setting some regulations and at the same time, some motivating measures, it immediately caused a huge reaction on the internet.

Most of the time, those who were interested in making video could only treat making video as a hobby.

Since they could not get enough money from this to support their own lives, they could only maintain their hobbies during the amateur hours.

However, it was precisely these people that were able to produce some good works.

Wu Tian's plan had been launched, and it just so happened to meet the needs of these people. The number of people who registered this support plan was over a million.

In an instant, it caused a wave of attention in the entire web. Even the news of the collapse of Yingdi Entertainment was overshadowed by this matter.

The reporters and reporters, who were discrediting Wu Tian every day, did not dare to say anything more.

After all, the things that the Yingdi Entertainment had done were even worse, so much so that now, their Yingdi Entertainment was gone, and their leader was no more. Naturally, they were unpopular because they resisted Wu Tian's boycott of Wu Group.

However, it would be a grave mistake to think that Wu Tian would stop there.

After the meeting, Wu Tian did not leave immediately. Instead, he left Yu Naixin and Wu Zaibin Lili behind.

"The reason I asked you to stay behind is because I still have something I want to tell you. You should be well aware of the matter regarding the collapse of the Yingdi Entertainment, so I have an idea in my mind."

The others looked at Wu Tian and started to get nervous. They didn't know what Wu Tian was going to say.

"It's like this. Right now, the entire traditional media field has suffered a huge blow. That is to say, if we were to develop the online media, no one would be able to stop us."

Wu Tian was full of smiles. He had been thinking about this for a long time, but he had never made up his mind to do it. And now that the Yingdi Entertainment had completely collapsed, it gave Wu Tian the chance to do so.

"Brilliant! Boss, you're too smart! Why didn't I think of that!" Wu Zaibin immediately agreed with both of his hands. He was very sensitive in this regard.

At the very first moment, he felt endless business opportunities and possibilities.

However, as the head of the media, Wu Zaiyao frowned at this moment, despite the fact that the two men were now full of ambition and fighting spirit.

However, it was actually very difficult to do the job well.

"Yingdi Entertainment has indeed failed, but right now it has been bought by Pulitzer Corporation. Our pressure has not decreased at all, and I think it has even increased."

"Right now, they have not only not become scattered sands, they have become even more rigid and have a tendency to gather together. In other words, I am afraid we will have to face a situation where public opinion is monopolized at home. "

Wu Zaiyao's words made Wu Tian and Wu Zaibin feel as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over them.

"Then what do we do? We can't just let them find fault with us, right?" Reading those rumors online every day, Wu Tian was annoyed by himself. He had never responded to them before.

However, no matter who it was, they would definitely feel displeased in their hearts. Just pretend that you're not affected by the people scolding you every day?

"Unless we fight back equally... But obviously, that's impossible. Pulitzer Corporation only has hundreds of television stations and thousands of media outlets. This body is not something that we can suppress ... "

Wu Zaiyao, however, felt more and more pessimistic, and that was what she was thinking, because it was true that the pressure they faced was so great.

In the past, they had met the media or journalists. Their individual strength was like an egg, while Wu Tian was that stone.

It goes without saying what the result of an egg hitting a rock would be.

However, right now, the opposing side already had several tens of thousands of eggs. Even if they were unable to truly do any effective damage to the stone, the created might was sufficient to let others feel that the stone would very possibly be crushed to dust by their attacks.

Loong Yun saw that there was no progress in their discussion, so she interjected, "Isn't our only chance the internet? "Originally, we already have an advantage on the internet, and we also have a big website like Seafood TV. I feel that we just need to make good use of the public opinion on the internet."

"You mean ..."

Loong Yun nodded. If there was no chance of winning against them head on in their opponent's area of expertise, why not choose to give up and fight on her own home ground?

"We might as well develop the internet media. As long as we do our best, I don't think the Pulitzer consortium will be able to do us too much harm."

Loong Yun's words were a boost to his morale. Wu Tian started to have confidence again. After thinking for a while, he felt that what she said made sense.

"Alright, you guys hurry up and prepare. I will arrange this matter very soon. When the time comes, maybe we will take the initiative to attack!"

Wu Tian's face turned stiff. Honestly speaking, it was time for him to show his hand to Pulitzer Financial Group. He and Zhang Zerui had been fighting in the open and in the dark for a long time, and the two sides had a draw.

However, Wu Tian felt that it was meaningless if this continued. He didn't have the mood to hang around with such a person every day.

It would be better to just start from here and turn passivity into initiative. Although Zhang Zerui still hadn't taken the initiative to look for trouble for him, Wu Tian could take the initiative.

"Don't worry, I'll go and collect their black materials right now!"

Wu Zaiyao understood immediately. This wasn't the first time they had done this. They were already familiar with it.

"What about me? What can I do? " Wu Zaibin was an expert at managing the stock market, but it didn't seem right to ask him to do it with the media.

Wu Tian looked at him and thought for a moment, "Go and keep an eye on their stocks. If you have the chance to short something, don't be soft-hearted."

Wu Zaibin immediately nodded. He had been doing this the whole time and had never relaxed.

Wu Tian wanted to say something, but at this moment, Loong Yun received a message from the side.

He hurried over. She brought Wu Tian a piece of good news: "President Wu, Zhang Peng is awake!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1124 - The New Idea of the Network Age

C1124 The New Idea of the Network Age

In the online age, more and more people are focusing on mobile phones and things on the Internet.

The newspapers and television stations from before gradually began to be ignored by the public.

In the past, there was no need to worry about selling these. But now, even if they were given away for free, no one would want them anymore.

Such a trend was the basis of Wu Tian's actions.

Right now, there were a few companies in China that were doing social media on the internet, and they had already become the public outpost of the new generation.

Wu Tian obviously didn't want to be outdone and immediately applied for an account.

"Have you all registered this? Speak 'I think it's very popular recently. The number of people who have registered is already over a hundred million."

Not only did he register himself, he even began to advertise himself in the company. This thing was indeed quite interesting. Everyone could share some of their own life or experiences with the company. In short, they could share anything they wanted.

The netizens' public opinion had been focused on the forums and other places, but the appearance of this Whisperer had lowered the bar to an extremely low level.

"President Wu, why are you so interested in these things? I've never seen you play with these things on your phone before."

Loong Yun felt a little strange. This was the first time she had seen Wu Tian do this. Normally, he wouldn't even bother to use his phone. If he didn't need to use his phone as a contact, he might not even have brought his phone with him.

"I also have to cater to the progress of society. I can't be left behind by the times, can I?"
"Right now, there are many new words on the internet. If I don't follow up, I'm afraid I won't even know what they are saying."

Wu Tian was very interested right now and was very excited about it. Loong Yun probably thought this was a good thing, so she didn't say anything else. On the contrary, Wu Tian took away her WeChat account and the two of them paid attention to each other.

As he played, Wu Tian looked at the endless stream of messages on the board and suddenly had a thought. As the chairman of Wu Group, although there were a lot of people chasing after him outside, but in this statement, his authority was less than a person who shared a cat image.

This was one of the biggest differences between tradition and the emerging world. The power of speech had begun to change.

"Loong Yun, did you see that? The people playing this game are all youths around the age of 20, as well as teenagers."

Wu Tian's tone sounded like he had discovered something new in the world.

"Loong Yun didn't have the slightest idea of what was going on. She felt that it was only natural." Isn't this very normal ... "

"No, no, no!" Wu Tian's intention was not that simple, it was to pay attention to the things behind this. "Look, who do you think is the future, these young people are the future. If they can get a place in their hearts, then it will definitely benefit our company in the future!"

This was probably the vision and awareness of the CEO of a super large corporation. The first thing he saw was the interests and demands of his company.

"No, I have to do it properly." Saying that, Wu Tian changed his nickname to Wu Tian, and even stated that he was the boss of Wu Group company on the introduction.

Of course, his name was also an important resource. It might be a bit exaggerated to call him a household name, but one out of ten people had definitely heard of Wu Tian's name.

Loong Yun could not understand Wu Tian's actions.

Usually, when people were online, they wouldn't use their real names.

On one hand, it was to protect his privacy. On the other hand, it was to express his personality. Wu Tian could be said to have done the opposite.

Few people would do that.

"President Wu, how can you use your own name? If others find out your identity, won't they come back and harass you every day?"

His concerns were not unfounded. While this type of APP could bring people closer to each other, the negative effects of this kind of APP also increased exponentially.

Wu Tian could be said to be dismissive of them, as he did not care about the possible side effects.

"What do you know? This is called going the other way. Now I understand that there are a lot of users in this app. Who is the most famous? If there are a lot of people watching, then you have the right to speak." This thing is much better than not asking them to post so many articles! "

The most important point is that the cost is very low. On average, Wu Zaiyao could not post any article. If she wanted to get a lot of attention, she would need to invest at least a few hundred thousand yuan.

Because there are many websites that need to be posted to recommend these articles, the amount of traffic absorbed is low on the one hand, and sometimes counterproductive on the other.

They might even be criticized by others. This wasn't the first time they had experienced this kind of thing.

The most important thing was the high cost. Although Wu Tian was very rich now, an article was worth more than a hundred thousand yuan. Wu Tian was starting to hate to part with this money, and the traditional position of public opinion on the internet was slowly going to be lost.

Without popularity, there was no point in continuing to spend money on it.

"You mean you want to become an online celebrity?"

Loong Yun's reaction was pretty fast. She immediately understood what Wu Tian meant by that.

"Pretty much. But I don't have that much ambition. I just want to become a celebrity on this app. It doesn't matter if he admires me or not. As long as he follows me and sees the message I send, it's fine."

Wu Tian was filled with confidence. He felt that as long as he took the lead in this world, he would be able to influence the public opinion on the internet.

Although the youngsters weren't the most numerous, they were definitely the loudest on the internet. In today's world, the truth did not necessarily gain the approval of most people. Rather, the size of the voice was a yardstick for determining whether or not a person was right.

"Then I understand. I will immediately arrange for people to open this account and then give you some attention."

Loong Yun immediately came up with some cheating methods that didn't count as cheating. She made all the employees of her company open up such an account, then paid attention to Wu Tian and refreshed his data.

Naturally, Wu Tian would become the most recommended account in this app.

"Sure, but I have one more thing I want you to do." Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. However, this method could only be used to treat symptoms and not the root of the problem.

He had already thought of a better way to make his account more outstanding.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1125 - Five Minutes of Persistence

C1125 Five Minutes of Persistence

Wu Tian pretended to be mysterious. After blinking his eyes, he quietly told his thoughts to Loong Yun.

"Please contact the company that made this APP for me. I have a business to discuss with them."

When appraising the reputation of Wu Tian's company, he thought that this business would be easily taken down.

However, after Loong Yun heard his request, she frowned. Both her eyebrows were about to meet.

"President Wu, I've tried to contact this company before, but unfortunately, upon hearing that it's Wu Group company, they immediately refused to communicate ..."

Loong Yun couldn't do anything about it either. She had already used all sorts of methods to beat Loong Yun up, but the other party just didn't want to agree to her request. No matter what, they were not willing to have any contact with Loong Yun.

"What?"

Wu Tian had a face full of difference. He felt that he had never offended this company before. Why did they just look at him in annoyance?

"Why don't you try again? I really need this company!"

Wu Tian hurriedly begged a few more times, hoping that Loong Yun would try again. It could be said that his future plans were all directly related to this step.

If it started badly, everything that happened after that would be in vain. There was no possibility of success at all.

"Alright then!"

Loong Yun could only nod in agreement. How could she refuse Wu Tian's request?

She continued with this matter just like that. Wu Tian continued to immerse himself in his sightseeing.

However, not long after he started playing, he heard someone knocking the door.

If he didn't say it out loud, he would have forgotten that Zhang Peng had woken up.

This guy still had a lot of secrets that he wanted Wu Tian to uncover.

"Hurry up and open the door, don't let me knock again!"

Hearing Su Cancan's voice from outside the door, Wu Tian quickly put down his phone and opened the door. He dared to provoke anyone else, but this guy was the only one he couldn't afford to offend. Wu Tian didn't want to be lynched by Su Cancan...

"Coming, coming, my dear aunt. What are you in a hurry for?"

Wu Tian went to open the door and saw Su Cancan and a few Security Team s standing at the door. They escorted Zhang Peng to the door of Wu Tian's room.

Looking at this scene, Wu Tian remembered that he did arrange this before.

"Alright, come in."

Su Cancan, of course, was unwilling to let him go. She glared at Wu Tian when she entered. The two of them were still angry even now.

Therefore, it was naturally impossible to make Wu Tian feel good about it.

At this moment, Zhang Peng looked miserable. There were wounds all over his body, but they had already been bandaged.

Heavy shackles and chains were on his hands and feet, fearing that this fellow would run away. As for the Security Team Disciple on the side, he was glaring at them like a tiger eyeing its prey, and there was even a spear at his waist.

The general meaning was that, as long as this Zhang Peng had any plans to act rashly, the Security Team Soldiers would probably immediately shoot and destroy him.

"Boy, you're not bad, but you've even tricked me."

Wu Tian gestured for them to sit on the sofa while he himself sat opposite Zhang Peng and looked at the man in front of him with a smile.

"Unfortunately, you still haven't died by my hands."

Not only was Zhang Peng not afraid in front of Wu Tian, he had a righteous and calm appearance. People couldn't help but feel that this fellow was a good or bad person ...

What he did was bad, but in his heart, he was more magnanimous than anyone else ... This feeling made Wu Tian feel confused and unhappy.

"Cut the crap, you know what I want to ask you!"

Wu Tian slammed the table. It doesn't matter if you don't speak the truth, nor does it matter if you don't speak. However, the moment you open your mouth, you start to look down on Wu Tian.

Zhang Peng sneered. Wasn't it just life and death, would he really be afraid of that?

"I advise you to save your breath. In my line of work, sooner or later, you will die. Either you lick the blood off your blade or you count your money with your gun. One day less."

Seeing him like this, people felt that he was a righteous man, ready to die at any moment.

Wu Tian didn't expect this guy to be so stubborn. Even when he was about to die, he was still so stubborn.

"This ..." Wu Tian shifted his gaze to Su Cancan. If he couldn't get any answers out of her with a normal question, then he could only choose a few abnormal methods.

"Alright, go out and wait for the news!"

Su Cancan walked over expressionlessly. Of course, Wu Tian's meaning was clear. To Su Cancan, torture was like eating and sleeping, and she was already familiar with it.

Wu Tian couldn't bear to watch the following scene, so he walked out of the room. He stood in the corridor, leaning against the wall, and played with his cell phone for a while longer.

In less than five minutes, Su Cancan walked out.

Her expression still didn't show anything, she just said coldly to Wu Tian: "Go in."

Wu Tian's face was filled with joy. This was too fast! Didn't that Zhang Peng just say that even if he died, he wouldn't leak out the information ...?

However, based on the current situation, he could only last for five minutes at most.

When he walked back into the room, the Security Team s who were originally in charge of guarding were all, without exception, lying on the side of the washbasin at this moment, vomiting nonstop into it ...

He had no idea what the few of them saw that caused such a strong reaction.

When Wu Tian looked at Zhang Peng again, he found that the guy in front of him was sweating profusely. His head was trembling and his eyes were full of fear.

It was as if even the slightest sound would frighten him.

Although she didn't know how Su Cancan did it, she could turn a person into this in five minutes. Her methods were probably too cruel.

However, Wu Tian wouldn't have any sympathy for this kind of person at this moment. He was just speaking those harsh words to him shamelessly just now.

"Tell me, who was the one behind this?"

This time, Wu Tian directly accused Ye Zichen of the main topic, and did not waste any more words with him.

Zhang Peng's pupils immediately shrunk as he looked at Wu Tian in fear. In the end, he decided to follow his request.

"I said, it's a person called Hee Wenjia. He promised me a large amount of money and told me to remit this sum of money. He also told me that if anyone finds out, I must help him hide the secret and get rid of this enemy."

In other words, Hee Wenjia was the real mastermind behind this, but Wu Tian had never heard of this name. He wrote the name down quietly and sent it to Loong Yun, who might know who it was suitable for.
