C1126 Lock the Mastermind Behind the Scenes

As expected, Loong Yun's reaction was much faster. In less than two minutes, she managed to retrieve information about this person.

Hee Wenjia was the vice president of Yingdi Entertainment. If he carefully investigated, his name would appear in some of the Yingdi Entertainment's promotional bulletins.

And within Yingdi Entertainment Company, Hee Wenjia replacing Lee Zhan as the acting chairman of the board of directors, this wasn't really news.

Loong Yun naturally had no reason not to know about what everyone in the Yingdi Entertainment knew.

"Vice President, this really has something to do with Lee Zhan. Let me ask you, do you know Lee Zhan? "

Wu Tian narrowed his eyes. In that case, everything was planned by Lee Zhan behind the scenes.

However, something was not right. Wu Tian felt it was impossible.

If I wanted to make things difficult for a person, how could I possibly do these things in my own capacity?

Of course, Lee Zhan wasn't a fool. If he wanted to send money out, he just needed to fabricate an account. There was no need to use his own account to do this.

This is the same as telling others that this matter has something to do with me. If you want to find me, then come and find me.

Zhang Peng knew nothing about this.

"I don't know, I'm just an assassin. I'll do things for whoever gives me the money ..."

Zhang Peng shook his head. He never liked to ask too many questions because he knew that the more he knew, the harder it was for him to keep his life.

Most of the time, the people he killed were the ones who knew the secret but had a weak mouth.

Therefore, Zhang Peng couldn't take the initiative to send him into a dead end. Of course, it was because he didn't know what was going on behind his back. It was enough for him to take care of his own affairs well.

Wu Tian lost interest when he saw that there was no longer any useful information on Zhang Peng.

"Send him to Sunn Hongsheng's place ..."

Wu Tian pointed at the Security Team officer and took Zhang Peng out. Now, he did not need to worry about him running anymore. Zhang Peng was trembling as he walked, let alone running. It was impossible for him to escape.

As Wu Tian saw him limping out with weak legs, he suddenly felt a chill run down his spine. If Su Cancan were to use these skills on herself ...

He suddenly felt that he had to lose at least a layer of skin.

However, the rest of the matters required him to direct the investigation towards Hee Wenjia.

Wu Tian looked at the information on Hee Wenjia that Loong Yun had sent over carefully. From his resume, this guy seemed to be a more formal business manager.

He had a perfect resume and education, and his looks and abilities were quite outstanding. No matter how you looked at it, he was a business elite. The most important point was that he was the vice president of Yingdi Entertainment, which was exactly what was needed to win his life.

What does this person have to do with Lee Zhan? Could it be Lee Zhan was ordering him to do these things?

Wu Tian had a lot of ideas, but at this moment, he couldn't tell which one was the most reliable.

While he was daydreaming, Wu Tian's phone suddenly rang. He picked it up and saw that it was a message from WeChat. It seemed like a lot of people were paying attention to him.

The number of his fans had only been a few before, but now it had risen to more than a thousand.

"What kind of situation is this ..." Wu Tian didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He actually grew so many fans at this time. He clearly didn't do anything.

However, seeing that there were almost a thousand fans, Wu Tian decided to post something himself.

After thinking about it, he ran to the window to take a photo of Flower Island's building outside, and then conveniently uploaded it to WeChat.

This was just an unintentional move, and Wu Tian didn't take it to heart. In the blink of an eye, he had already begun to busy himself with Hee Wenjia's investigation.

Speaking of which, it was also strange. Ever since something happened to Yingdi Entertainment, Hee Wenjia had immediately disappeared.

Loong Yun had searched all the information she could find, and all of them indicated that Hee Wenjia had appeared in the S City for the last time a few days ago, and no one had seen him again.

Nobody knew where he went or what he did.

Faced with such a situation, Wu Tian didn't know what to do. He had been dragging this out for a long time, so evidence and witnesses would become fewer and fewer.

The more difficult it was for him to catch the mastermind behind the scenes.

Loong Yun looked at Wu Tian with a worried expression. She felt that perhaps it was the right time for her to say those words.

"President Wu, why don't we hand this matter over to the police for investigation and temporarily put it on hold?"

Wu Tian turned his head towards Loong Yun. He knew that Loong Yun said this out of good intentions. After all, Wu Tian was focusing all of his energy on this.

However, this progress was still not optimistic.

They followed the entire trail and investigated step by step. Now that the clue pointed to Hee Wenjia, it was easier said than done to find a person in the vast ocean.

Even if they had a satellite in the sky that could be used to identify them, there were tens of millions of people with S City ...

His chances of being identified by the satellite were too small.

Otherwise, it would take a lot of time. With Hee Wenjia's speed, perhaps he had already left the China by plane by now. If that was the case, no matter how much resources he used, he wouldn't be able to find it.

"No, we can't let this matter come to light for a day. If we catch the real culprit, there will be no way for our Hualong Entertainment to regain its vigor within a day."

Wu Tian was very clear that he had to go through with this and there was no room for negotiation.

Just as Zhang Chi said, Hualong Entertainment was not a good situation right now, and many employees were injured and unable to come to work.

Wu Tian couldn't just watch them continue on like this. The only solution was for the mastermind behind this to be caught by Wu Tian.

Then bring them to justice!

This way, the employees will see their own justice to be done, presumably will not be too much on this matter.

Hearing Wu Tian say that, Loong Yun knew she shouldn't have said that. At this moment, what Wu Tian needed was encouragement and comfort, not someone helping him to back down.

"Don't worry, President Wu. I will never say such words again."

Wu Tian nodded slightly. It seemed that the most important thing was to find out where Hee Wenjia was.

"Contact Sunn Hongsheng and have him think of a way to investigate the entry and exit records for us. See if this Hee Wenjia has left his China yet!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1127 - Chase

C1127 Chase

The power of the police should still be borrowed. With their help, the investigation would become much easier.

Of course, Wu Tian tried his best to make use of the various resources on his hands. Sunn Hongsheng had no way to help them investigate, so he could only provide the resources on his hands.

Fortunately, the police had the right to investigate the data. If not, Wu Tian would have to check the data himself, and who knows how long it would take for him to apply.

In about a day's time, Sunn Hongsheng received a message.

"The airport shows that Hee Wenjia has booked a plane ticket in the last two days, on the 27th. He is preparing to go to Britain, if you want to find him, you might be able to go to the airport and wait."

Wu Tian was worried that it would be difficult to find Hee Wenjia, but he didn't expect it to be so simple.

Luckily, he went to find Sunn Hongsheng. Otherwise, he really would have let Hee Wenjia run away.

"Thank you so much!" Wu Tian quickly hung up and looked at the time. It was already midnight on the 26th.

After dawn, Hee Wenjia was about to go to the airport to prepare to board the plane.

Thus, Wu Tian quickly called out to Loong Yun and informed her about this matter.

"We have to find a way to block him at the airport. We can't let him get on the plane!"

"Since it is a legal interception ... Then we can't dispatch our Security Team s, we have to think of a way to stop him. " Loong Yun was deep in thought. The people at the airport were all over the place, so using violence rashly might not be a good thing for them.

If they reported it to the police and the police came to investigate, it would be hard for Wu Tian and the others to say anything. After all, what they were doing was just walking on the edge of a crime.

Many of their actions had already violated the law. However, Sunn Hongsheng and the others knew the difficulties Wu Tian was facing, so they basically turned a blind eye to it.

However, if this matter was put on the table, the one that would suffer would definitely be Wu Tian.

"You're right, hurry up and arrange the people. Go to the airport and keep an eye on him, I'm afraid that Hee Wenjia will leave early."

Wu Tian was meticulous. At this moment, he couldn't care too much about it. He had to make sure he caught this guy.

"But, if President Wu is wearing makeup ..."

Loong Yun was a little worried. To be honest, they didn't know much about Hee Wenjia.

This person was really too low-key, and there were very few photos circulating outside.

Those who had seen him were even rarer. Loong Yun only judged Hee Wenjia's appearance from these photos.

However, with just this amount of data, if the other party was disguised, they wouldn't be able to find Hee Wenjia.

Hearing Loong Yun's words, Wu Tian also felt that it would be troublesome, but he still had a way.

"Leave this to me. I'll go to the airport too. I have a way to find it!"

Wu Tian let Loong Yun prepare first while he strolled over to where Erniu was.

At this moment, she was playing with a few little girl's from the company. Although she looked like a teenager and didn't usually talk much, she was still quite lively after getting really familiar with them.

In addition, the big sisters in the company also took care of her, so Erniu had become very familiar with them.

The staff also liked the blond little girl, so there wasn't much of a gap between them.

When the employees saw Wu Tian from afar, they immediately stood up and greeted him.

"President Wu, good morning!"

"Morning!"

Wu Tian smiled brightly and looked at Erniu with interest.

Erniu ran over excitedly when she saw Wu Tian. She rushed into his arms, hugged Wu Tian tightly and rubbed her head against his chest.

It was as if his daughter was flirting with her father.

The staff on the side also covered their mouths and snickered. They probably felt that Wu Tian was even more intimate than Erniu's father.

"Alright, alright, I've called you here for a reason. Can you come out with me?"

Erniu raised her head, winked at Wu Tian and nodded in agreement.

She knew how important she was to Wu Tian, so he wouldn't come over to find her easily. However, once he found her, Wu Tian would naturally have some matters that he could not handle and would need her help.

With Erniu, Wu Tian felt a lot more confident.

When the sun had just risen, Wu Tian and Erniu had already started their journey.

The airport in S City was not far away from the suburbs.

In such a situation, if one didn't look for a person, they might not be able to find one.

However, Wu Tian wasn't worried about this problem, people from Security Team had long since been watching from the airport yesterday.

They decided which flight Hee Wenjia was going to take, so they just waited at the waiting position for the flight.

In a blink of an eye, it was already 8 o'clock. There was only an hour left before the plane boarding time. Wu Tian had already brought Erniu to the airport.

Loong Yun quickly came over to greet him. She looked at Erniu who was behind Wu Tian without saying anything, but her eyes revealed that she seemed to know something.

"President Wu, we've already prepared everything, but we still haven't found Hee Wenjia."

"Did you do a checkup on the people waiting on the plane?"

The three of them walked inside with large strides. When Wu Tian heard that there was no news at all, he also started to mutter in his heart.

It couldn't be that Hee Wenjia didn't come ... It was not impossible. As long as the plane had not taken off yet, he could change his signature or withdraw his ticket.

"For the time being, I haven't received any news of him changing his signature. If there is, I will definitely make a change at the first possible moment."

When they arrived, Wu Tian looked at the people waiting in front of him. There were at least 200 to 300 people there.

Most of the girls and elderly children could be eliminated directly, and there were also those who had very different figures.

As for the remaining ten-odd people, they looked like they were close. However, it was impossible to tell if Hee Wenjia had put on makeup or not.

"Erniu, it's your turn to show off! "Take a look and see if Hee Wenjia is among them!"

Wu Tian knew he couldn't wait any longer, so he prepared to release his secret weapon, Erniu.

Erniu closed her eyes and started to test out these people's thoughts. But in less than five minutes, she opened her eyes again.

"What's wrong? Do you know? " Wu Tian asked anxiously.

"There's one person who's very anxious and scared ..."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1128 - There Is Nowhere to Run

C1128 There Is Nowhere to Run

With Erniu around, the result would be different.

Although she didn't directly find out who that person was, she immediately felt that there was someone who was very worried and scared.

"He's afraid, he wants to escape! Sad, depressed ... "

Wu Tian immediately grabbed Erniu's hand and asked excitedly after hearing her report.

"Who is it? Quickly tell me who it is!"

He felt that there was no need to think about it anymore. It was basically the person he was looking for.

Erniu sent the image of that person to Wu Tian's mind, while the latter walked out immediately.

"Travelers, please pack your luggage. We are boarding now!"

As the voice of the staff member began to sound out from the radio, the large crowd also began to move.

"Notify him. It's the man wearing a white jacket, cap and mask. It's him!" Wu Tian saw that he was a little far away and hurriedly informed his people.

With that, Loong Yun waved her hand to a few people. A few people in the crowd who were lying in ambush quietly walked to the suspect's side. Then, they suddenly made a move and pinned him down.

"We are the police and we are arresting a prisoner! Everyone, don't panic! " Seeing that the surrounding people had started to panic, a Security Team official hurriedly stood forward and explained.

In any case, he appeared to be a well-built man with a strong build. His every move did indeed have the bearing of a soldier, and he was definitely not an ordinary person. No one doubted him at all.

"Everyone, quickly enter." At this time, the flight attendant knew that they had to quickly cooperate, so he quickly commanded the others to enter.

Meanwhile, the unlucky guy was silently taken away by Wu Tian and the others.

Strangely, when ordinary people were caught, they would somewhat resist. However, this guy didn't even move at all. He was completely resigned to his fate.

Wu Tian and the others didn't have any trouble pulling this guy away.

The people around them assumed that the police were working on the case, so no one came to check their papers.

After returning to their car, Wu Tian directly tore off the person's mask. Looking at the face below, Wu Tian and the surrounding Security Team personnel all smiled.

"Finally, I've found you. You still want to run? Where can you run to?!"

This person was Hee Wenjia. Looking at the expression on his face, he probably didn't understand why he was found out.

"Take him away and we'll interrogate him!"

As they were in the car, Wu Tian felt that it would not be convenient to investigate him, so he decided to take him back to Flower Island first.

Hee Wenjia did not speak at all, and the expression on his face also changed of various kinds, but in the end, when it came to Flower Island, he actually heaved a sigh of relief.

"I will tell you anything you want to ask me. I just hope that you can treat me better!"

Hee Wenjia said lightly. From his tone, it seemed that he had experienced something.

"We aren't robbers like you. We won't use violence against people that easily."

Wu Tian was a bit dismissive, it's not like anyone would be tortured by him.

"Say it, was Lee Zhan the one who ordered us to kidnap my employees?"

Wu Tian took a deep breath. This had been weighing on his mind for a long time and was a problem he had been trying to solve.

Now that he had finally caught this guy, it looked like he could finally get to the bottom of this.

Hee Wenjia didn't answer immediately. Instead, he took off one of his clothes, took off his hat and stretched his arms and legs.

He seemed even more at home than he was in his own house. He wasn't even afraid.

"Can you bring me a cup of water? I'm a little thirsty ..."

Wu Tian frowned, but he still nodded to the person beside him.

"Give it to him!"

Loong Yun passed a cup of water to Hee Wenjia without any change in her expression. Hee Wenjia raised his head and gulped it down.

"Do you have more? Give me more, it's best if you can get me something to eat. My stomach is very hungry."

Hee Wenjia really thought of himself as a boss ... He actually started asking for this and that, then collapsed onto the sofa with his legs crossed.

Wu Tian frowned when he saw Ye Zichen's reaction, then walked over in annoyance.

The Security Team cultivator beside him wanted to teach him a lesson, but he was stopped by Wu Tian.

"Have you figured out what's going on? You are my prisoner now! How can you be like this? Are you not nervous at all, are you not afraid at all? Do you think I'm too nice to you? "

Wu Tian gritted his teeth as he said those words. As he thought about what happened that day, he felt so angry that the root of his teeth started to itch.

His kidnapping of his employees was not only a form of harm to his employees, but also a slap to Wu Tian's face. He had become the boss of Wu Group company for so long, yet he had never been ruthlessly humiliated like this.

"I know I'm already like this, so there's nothing much to say. I'll say what you guys want to ask, but I have to take care of myself."

Hee Wenjia actually came up with this kind of twisted logic ... For a moment, Wu Tian was left speechless.

He was stunned for a moment, then nodded at Loong Yun. "Whatever he wants, give it to him!"

However, Wu Tian turned his head around once again.

"I can fulfill your request, but you have to answer my question the same way."

Hee Wenjia wasn't an idiot. He knew that provoking Wu Tian wouldn't be beneficial to him, so he might even lose his life.

"I know, according to what you said just now, you think Lee Zhan did it right? But let me tell you, this has nothing to do with Lee Zhan. "

Hee Wenjia's sudden words actually overturned Wu Tian's judgment.

From the beginning to the end, he felt that this matter was definitely related to Lee Zhan, because the one that directly clashed with Wu Tian was precisely Lee Zhan's Yingdi Entertainment.

And after that, the thugs kidnapped Wu Tian's Hualong Entertainment, and he gave the thugs money. All these clues were confirmed, and there was Lee Zhan supporting them from behind the scenes.

Wu Tian also felt that this was indeed due to Lee Zhan's existence of a certain motive.

But now, Hee Wenjia actually said that this matter had nothing to do with Lee Zhan. It was practically subverting all of Wu Tian's knowledge.

"What do you mean? "What makes you think Lee Zhan isn't involved in this?"

Wu Tian didn't want to believe it at all.

Hee Wenjia laughed as if he was looking at a fool.

"You, do you know why Lee Zhan has been missing for so many days? Have you never thought about this? Let me tell you, Lee Zhan is already dead!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1129 - Astonishing Facts

C1129 Astonishing Facts

This sentence was like a bomb that had exploded inside the house.

Wu Tian's brain exploded as he could not think of anything else.

He needed time to accept what Hee Wenjia had just said. What did he mean by 'Lee Zhan is already dead'?

If he died, then who had he been dueling with during this period of time?

"Wait! What did you say? He's dead? "

Hee Wenjia had already expected Old Zhao's reaction from the surprised expression on his face.

"See, I said you didn't believe it, but it was true because I saw it with my own eyes."

Hee Wenjia thought about what happened that night, and he shivered when he thought about it.

But then he laughed. Whenever he felt afraid of it, he would laugh at himself in this self-deprecating way.

He laughed at himself for becoming someone else's tool, a piece that had been discarded as soon as it had been used up.

Wu Tian calmed down a little and nodded at Loong Yun. What was said must be recorded down immediately. This was important evidence.

"Say it again, what else do I not know?"

Wu Tian didn't know what the truth was anymore at this moment, but he probably understood something now. He seemed to have been tricked from the beginning to the end.

If Lee Zhan was really dead, it would probably prove why he suddenly announced that he was going overseas and why he would use Lee Zhan's account to give money to others.

All this was just a smoke bomb thrown by the enemy.

"You know the person who really planned this and even participated in it directly, that's your old adversary."

"Zhang Zerui?"

Wu Tian also felt relieved when he heard that.

Yeah, who else would do this to me other than him? Wu Tian thought that he did not have many grudges in the business world, and the only one who could not get along with him was Zhang Zerui.

Moreover, he had the ability to do this. The word "unscrupulous" simply didn't fit his personality at all.

"I was just wondering why he hasn't moved recently! So it turns out that he has been busy all this time! "

Wu Tian pounded on the table furiously. He thought Zhang Zerui had to focus on his development and think of a way to pay back the debt he had previously.

So, he never really cared about Zhang Zerui. However, the current result showed that not only was he completely wrong, he even almost lied to himself.

Hee Wenjia continued. At this moment, he no longer had any burdens so he dared to say anything.

At the beginning, it was indeed Lee Zhan and Zhang Zerui who were scheming. However, in the end, Lee Zhan wanted to withdraw from this plan, and at that time, Yingdi Entertainment's stock was rising very quickly. Lee Zhan felt that he had already taken enough money, and wanted to wash his hands with money.

"But Zhang Zerui didn't allow it, they have already invested a lot of energy and planning for this. The most important thing is, Zhang Zerui had already marked the amount of money in the industrial park, so he must get it."

There were rumors about this Wu Tian. He already knew about Zhang Zerui and Lee Zhan's conspiracy to cheat money. However, he never expected there to be so many unforeseen events.

"I don't want to talk about the specific day. Anyway, Zhang Zerui killed the two of them when they fought."

The murder that Hee Wenjia mentioned had a relaxed expression on his face. It was as if this wasn't a big thing, but he was clearly there and saw Lee Zhan's corpse with his own eyes.

"At that time ..."

Hee Wenjia laughed at himself. He felt that he was very funny now.

"I was at the scene at that time, Zhang Zerui killed someone, he knew that this matter cannot be exposed, and Yingdi Entertainment needs someone to help them carry out their plan, so I was chosen."

At this point, everything could be linked together.

Wu Tian almost understood what happened after that.

Zhang Zerui killed people, helped Hee Wenjia get on the stage, and got the hundreds of billions of dollars from the film and television industry park.

After getting the funds, the shares of Yingdi Entertainment began to plummet. The one who caused this was Zhang Zerui selling off a large amount of Yingdi Entertainment stocks.

It could be said that after this wave, Zhang Zerui had earned around 2 billion yuan, which was enough for him to ease the debt crisis.

However, the storm that followed was beyond Zhang Zerui's imagination. He never thought that it would cause an economic crisis in S City, and many businesses went bankrupt.

Seeing that this was an opportunity, Zhang Zerui decided to entangle with a group of people and hire them in the name of Lee Zhan to create trouble for Wu Tian.

Just like that, the group of thugs kidnapped Hualong Entertainment and their entire company. It wasn't until Wu Tian and the others went to rescue the company that the crisis was resolved.

From beginning to end, it could be said to be Zhang Zerui's own performance.

After listening to all of this, Wu Tian sat by the window and looked outside, deep in thought. He originally wanted to have a showdown with Zhang Zerui, but it seemed like this was the best time for that.

"Thank you for telling me this."

Wu Tian was at a loss and said to Hee Wenjia. He rolled his eyes and made a request, "If ... I mean, if I sue Zhang Zerui, would you be willing to be my witness? "

Hearing this, the hand holding the cup in Hee Wenjia's hand froze in midair.

"What did you say?"

His voice was a little shaky, clearly because he had started to feel a little afraid at this moment.

"I mean, will you be my witness?"

"Are you crazy!"

Hee Wenjia's voice was hoarse and the cup in his hand almost fell to the ground.

"Prosecute him? Where was the evidence! "What can a witness like me represent? If not, I cannot agree with you!"

Hee Wenjia immediately shook his head crazily, refusing to say anything.

He wasn't an idiot. The reason why he wanted to escape was because he felt that Zhang Zerui would very likely kill him to keep his mouth shut.

If he were to fight Zhang Zerui head on with Wu Tian at this time, he might die even faster.

After all, he knew that Zhang Zerui had killed someone... If this was exposed, Zhang Zerui would be doomed.

"Think about it, if we can use this matter to knock him down, Zhang Zerui would never be able to turn things around. You wouldn't have to hide like this."

Wu Tian began to take the lead. He felt that this was a good opportunity. Hee Wenjia should know some clues. With these things, they might really be able to play a big role in this matter.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1130 - Transactions

C1130 Transactions

Even though he said that, Hee Wenjia was still hesitant.

Wu Tian had been working on his mind for several hours already, constantly emphasizing the benefits of this matter.

Hee Wenjia said this several times, but he was still very afraid of this Zhang Zerui.

"If you have the evidence, I don't think we need to be afraid of that. I have someone at the police station!"

Wu Tian said it while patting his chest. Regardless of whether this could be done or not, he had to be clear with his attitude.

"It's not that I don't want to believe you, but ..."

Zhang Zerui was well-informed. Those who had never experienced it would definitely not understand. Hee Wenjia, on the other hand, was very clear about this.

It was definitely not a good thing to offend him, so Hee Wenjia did not want to take too much risk on this.

"Let's put it this way first. Is there any evidence to prove that he killed Lee Zhan?"

Wu Tian decided to use a different method.

After thinking for a while, Wu Tian nodded his head happily.

"Yes, his corpse!"

"What? You said Lee Zhan's body hasn't been destroyed?"

Wu Tian's face was filled with surprise, followed by a look of wild joy. One must know, he had previously investigated the case of Zhang Zerui killing a director of his company.

He even moved the corpse over, but the result was that it was stolen and then it was never found again.

According to Number One, the body was said to have been destroyed without any evidence left behind.

Naturally, the case could be said to have sunk to the bottom of the sea. It would be too difficult to turn it over again.

However, Lee Zhan's case seemed to be much better. With the information from someone related to him, Wu Tian felt that he could make use of this situation.

"The corpse was left for me to dispose of, so I locked it in a freezer ... and then told Zhang Zerui that the body has been destroyed by me. "

Hee Wenjia said hesitantly. This was also one of his life saving measures.

Seeing Zhang Zerui being so merciless, Hee Wenjia knew that if he didn't leave something for Zhang Zerui to deal with, he would probably follow in Lee Zhan's footsteps.

Therefore, he had left that move to him. From the looks of it, that move might become the key to toppling Zhang Zerui.

"Which cold storage is it, where is it?! I'll send someone to take him back now! "

Wu Tian grabbed Hee Wenjia's collar excitedly. He couldn't wait to report the case to the police as soon as he saw the corpse.

Hee Wenjia looked at Wu Tian with a serious expression and then sighed.

"I can tell you, but you have to promise me one condition!"

"Tell me your conditions!" On this level, wasn't this asking Wu Tian to pick the stars and moon? He would definitely give Hee Wenjia anything he wanted.

In the face of such a crucial event, everything else was useless.

"I want to be safe! You have to guarantee my safety! Otherwise, you can pretend that you have never heard anything I've said before. "

This was Hee Wenjia's last limit. If he felt that his safety wasn't guaranteed, he would rather not know anything.

"Don't worry, I can promise you that. You can stay at my Flower Island, and you should know my Security Team's strength as well. Right now, even Zhang Zerui doesn't dare to come here and cause trouble!"

Wu Tian was not bragging. Now that Tieh Jun had agreed, their Security Team could already use some automatic weapons. It could be said that their strength was not even inferior to the army.

With the protection of such Security Team members, there was basically nothing to worry about anymore.

Hee Wenjia had some understanding of this and knew that Wu Tian was not lying to him.

"Very well, I am willing to help you! However, once this matter has been settled, I hope that you can give me a false identity and send me abroad! "

Hee Wenjia no longer thought about his comeback. All he wanted to do now was to live the rest of his life peacefully.

To be able to live the rest of his life, this was his greatest thought.

"No problem, I promise you!"

Wu Tian slapped his chest loudly.

With his guarantee, Hee Wenjia also began to cooperate fully.

Wu Tian quickly led the group to the legendary freezer. He took Lee Zhan's body out and started to collect other messy evidence.

Things started to develop step by step as Wu Tian and the others hoped for.

Very soon, the evidence was all gathered. Wu Tian felt that it was time to reveal their cards to Zhang Zerui.

Wu Tian had chosen a auspicious day. The sky outside was bright and clear. It was a day of righteousness and righteousness.

He brought along Security Team, as well as a police search team led by Sun Hongsheng.

After learning that Wu Tian had obtained evidence of Zhang Zerui's murder, Sun Hongsheng and company also paid special attention to this matter.

These days, the police were under a lot of pressure. They urgently needed a major case to relieve their pressure, so Zhang Zerui's matter naturally fell into their eyes.

The bureau chief personally issued an order for Sunn Hongsheng to immediately supervise this case.

This case was different from the previous ones. Due to the fact that Wu Tian had already handed over the corpse to Sunn Hongsheng, almost everyone thought that this time, Zhang Zerui was completely done for.

When most of the enterprises in S City were facing a crisis, only the Pulitzer consortium was enjoying themselves. However, their place had become even more prosperous than before.

Especially that mess left behind after the Pulitzer group bought the Yingdi Entertainment.

Currently, the Pulitzer Group had the authority to speak up in the domestic media field. There were large and small television stations, newspapers, variety shows, as well as media companies and agency companies for artistes of various sizes.

This was simply a huge media empire.

Zhang Zerui opened the curtain and glanced outside at Wu Tian's team rushing towards them. The corner of his mouth curled into a smile.

"What should be coming is indeed coming!"

The secretary was very nervous. He knew he would get his retribution for everything he did. He was nervous because he knew what they had done.

"Director Zhang, what should we do ..."

Zhang Zerui looked indifferent. He took out a shirt from the hanger and put it on.

"Of course we're going out to welcome them. Since Wu Tian is already here, shouldn't we say that we don't want to show our respect?"

As the saying goes, when enemies meet, the atmosphere is tense.
