

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1141 - Proof

C1141 Proof

A murderer, under cover of the surveillance footage, actually turned his crime into self-defense...

Wu Tian didn't know whether to admire him or despise him.

If Zhang Zerui's brain was used on the right path, he would definitely have a great achievement.

However, he often did some unorthodox and random things. It made people feel that it was incomprehensible.

However, at least he didn't let Wu Tian down. Indeed, he had succeeded in getting himself out of trouble.

"Well, what else do you have to say?"

Zhang Zerui was full of pride and a smile on his face.

Seeing him like this, Sunn Hongsheng was really angry. But there was nothing he could do to stop it.

"You ..."

"Judge Liu, can you arrest him?" Sunn Hongsheng placed his hopes on the judge beside him. But the judge couldn't give him that right either.

"No. In the circumstances, he is acting in self-defense and is not committing a criminal offence at all. " Judge Liu could do nothing about it. Facing this kind of surveillance footage, there was no way for them to determine that Zhang Zerui was deliberately killing people.

As for the corpse, at most, he would be insulting and stealing it. However, there was no direct evidence to prove that Zhang Zerui had committed the crime.

So according to all the available evidence, they really couldn't convict Zhang Zerui.

"Heavens, don't tell me we have no other choice! Can we only watch him get away with it? " Sunn Hongsheng was furious. But sometimes, most people felt helpless towards their own fate.

"If you don't have anything else, then please head back earlier."

Zhang Zerui was now in a victorious attitude. His attitude towards Wu Tian and the others was truly straightforward and domineering.

"Zhang Zerui, aren't you happy too early!"

Wu Tian said word by word. He felt more and more that he should find out his secret sooner. Letting someone like him live in this world was truly a form of disrespect to the world.

"Hur hur, do you have anything else to say?"

Zhang Zerui didn't feel Wu Tian's threat at all. Because he didn't think that Wu Tian had any other bargaining power that could affect him.

"Let me tell you, don't be too arrogant!"

Wu Tian said fiercely. Then he walked step by step to Loong Yun's side. Every step of his made a click on the floor.

It was like a charging horn, but also like the sound of a heartbeat. The surrounding people began to tense up. They didn't know what Wu Tian was going to do or what Wu Tian could bring them.

But one thing was certain. Everyone was very unhappy with the current Zhang Zerui.

They truly hoped that Wu Tian could come up with some evidence to bring down Zhang Zerui.

Sunn Hongsheng was sweating profusely. He was probably the one who wanted to do this the most. If it wasn't for Judge Liu watching him, he would have already cuffed Zhang Zerui.

Wu Tian quietly took out his USB drive and put it in Loong Yun's hand.

At this moment, Zhang Zerui still had a look of disdain on his face. But for some reason, he started to feel a little nervous inside.

He didn't know why, but he felt that Wu Tian's smile made him feel a chill from the inside out. Just a single glance from him was enough to make anyone shudder.

"I'd like to see what tricks you'll play here!" I, Zhang Zerui, will accompany you to the end today! "

Zhang Zerui shouted, bracing himself.

"Loong Yun, show us that thing. I want to see how he will explain himself after he sees it! "

Wu Tian slanted his eyes at Zhang Zerui, turned around and walked away. As he walked, he sighed.

"Excessive arrogance means destruction."

Zhang Zerui listened to Wu Tian's words. The corner of his mouth twitched. He was so angry that he almost wanted to kick Wu Tian's head to death.

However, with so many people present, if he really did such a thing, it would be equivalent to intentionally murdering him.

Reason told Zhang Zerui that he couldn't do anything now. He could only wait and see what Loong Yun would take out.

Soon, Loong Yun began broadcasting another movie. Zhang Zerui's eyes immediately widened when he saw this scene.

He knew this place. This was a hidden path, and he was very clear about the surrounding trees and the sky, as well as the asphalt road.

It was at this place that he had killed Shen Wanli.

At this moment, Zhang Zerui's body was already starting to tremble. He stared at Wu Tian viciously. He never thought that this fellow would actually know that he had done such a thing ...

"Erm, watch this video first. I need to go to the toilet." Zhang Zerui said while grinding his teeth. But at this moment, he had no choice but to admit defeat.

Once this video finished playing, his fate would be determined. It was a hundred percent murder. There was no way for him to clear his name.

So if he wanted to run. He had to start running now.

"Officer Sun, we can't let him go!"

Wu Tian looked at Zhang Zerui's actions indifferently. He was already prepared. Otherwise, he wouldn't have brought over hundreds of Security Team practitioners ...

Soon, the crowd surrounded them. The surrounding buildings were also filled with Security Team practitioners.

They were ready. They weave a huge net around the crowd.

"Wu Tian, don't bully people!"

Zhang Zerui saw that he couldn't run away even if he wanted to, his teeth were about to shatter.

"What did I bully you for? If I've committed any crime, you can talk to the police and the judge, and tell me what's the use. "

Wu Tian disdained him. At this moment, Zhang Zerui was like a drowning dog. No matter how strong he was, he was just a drowning dog.

And what Wu Tian was doing now was to beat him up as hard as possible, the more painful it was, the better it was for him to scream.

And at this time, the most important part of the movie was that Zhang Zerui started killing people.

Seeing this, Judge Liu and the others from the court also found it hard to believe.

But at the moment, the evidence was clear and they had nothing to say.

"Officer Sun, arrest him!"

Following the order, the few policemen beside Zhang Zerui rushed over at the first moment.

However, in the next second, they were all sent flying backwards like bottles hit by a bowling ball.

Zhang Zerui was clenching his fists tightly and his eyes were bloodshot.

He was already planning to fight to the death.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1142 - Someone Has to Make a Choice

C1142 Someone Has to Make a Choice

At this moment, Wu Tian only thought of one thing.

He was forced to do an extreme thing

It really fit the current Zhang Zerui too well. He was not stingy with his violence and beat up all the policemen that rushed forward.

Moreover, his attacks were especially heavy. It seemed as if he didn't plan to stop at all.

"Loong Yun, let the police down, it's time for us to go up! They can't handle this Zhang Zerui! "

Wu Tian only needed a glance to know that Zhang Zerui was not an ordinary person. No matter how many ordinary policemen went, they wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

Although Officer Sun didn't want to do it, he had to do it according to Wu Tian's request. Because several of their police officers had already been injured.

Zhang Zerui only needed to throw a punch or kick, but one of them was going to break his leg ...

The Security Team users quickly rushed up. After a long period of research, they had already developed some special equipment to deal with the strong cultivators who were familiar with 11 Devils.

The few people who were in front of the Security Team immediately squatted down, and then activated an iron net that was directly aimed at Zhang Zerui.

Seeing that the situation wasn't good, Zhang Zerui ran away. His speed was so fast that it was almost impossible for the human eye to detect him.

However, even if he was fast, he wasn't as fast as Wu Tian's weapons.

The Security Team practitioners behind him were at least pushing something that looked like a gigantic flashlight, and were constantly shining it at Zhang Zerui.

He didn't run far before he screamed and fell to the ground.

On the other hand, the people at the scene smelt a faint aroma similar to barbecue. When they looked again, there was a big hole on Zhang Zerui's clothes. The flesh underneath was burnt and was constantly smoking.

And this attack came from Wu Tian's weapon. It was a laser cannon ...

It could emit very strong laser light, which would directly shine on the enemy's body, immediately causing high temperatures and scorching heat.

Even for cultivators, they wouldn't be able to withstand such pain.

However, Wu Tian still underestimated Zhang Zerui. He rolled on the ground and got up again. His speed was even faster than before. Indeed, a person's desire to survive could overcome the pain on his body.

However, Wu Tian was not in a hurry. Even if Zhang Zerui was together with him, it was impossible for him to be faster than the speed of light.

The laser cannons fired one after another, while Zhang Zerui fell to the ground like a pile of mud.

Seeing this scene, Wu Tian was extremely emotional.

If it was a few days ago, he would still be worrying about how to deal with Zhang Zerui. But now, his opponent was in such a sorry state in front of him.

Although the victory wasn't easy to obtain, it was a very comfortable feeling.

"President Wu, he can't do it anymore." Loong Yun said happily, because at this moment, Zhang Zerui fell on the ground and could never get up again.

"Bring him back!"

Wu Tian ordered his Security Team, and very quickly, someone rushed forward, wanting to capture Zhang Zerui.

Looking at his current appearance, almost everyone thought that Zhang Zerui had no room for resistance at this moment. Even those few Security Team began to be a little careless.

Who would have thought that when those few people charged towards Zhang Zerui, this guy suddenly jumped up and grabbed the clothes of a Security Team worker, then wrapped his arms around his neck from behind.

And at this moment, in Zhang Zerui's hand, there was a piece of bright glass, which was slashing against the neck of this Security Team official.

"Don't come near anyone, or I'll stab him to death!"

Zhang Zerui now had a hostage in his hands!

The Security Team s beside him immediately did not dare to attack anymore. They knew how powerful Zhang Zerui was and also knew that with Zhang Zerui's means, he could definitely cut the hostages' throats before they could even control them.

The Security Team users could not use their teammates' lives as a joke, so they started to hesitate.

Sunn Hongsheng and the others also had a look of surprise on their faces at this moment, and they quickly arranged for the judge to retreat first.

Wu Tian cursed in annoyance, but he had no choice but to consider the situation carefully. The Security Team Disciples must be saved, they mustn't watch him die!

However, if he let Zhang Zerui escape for this reason, it would be a huge loss for Wu Tian.

Both sides were important people, but Wu Tian had to make a choice. Could it be that he really couldn't have both the fish and the bear paw?

Loong Yun frowned. This kind of situation was indeed not good for them. He could also feel that Wu Tian was in a dilemma at this moment.

However, there was only one outcome for them to continue fighting like this, and that was that Zhang Zerui had run away and all their hard work had gone to waste.

Besides, those people who died because of Zhang Zerui died in vain.

In such a comparison, the extremely rational Loong Yun chose to capture Zhang Zerui first.

But man is not a purely rational animal, and man has sensibility, and this feeling is, for the most part, the principle of a person's code of conduct.

"President Wu, we can't wait any longer. Quickly give the order and think of a way to kill Zhang Zerui!"

Loong Yun advised on the side. With their laser cannons' power, they could definitely attack him before he could even react.

"No, as you can see, this position is completely hidden behind the hostages. We can't see it at all!"

Wu Tian immediately shook his head and refused. This kind of situation was really hard to deal with.

"Is there any other way ..."

Loong Yun immediately started to operate her brain, desperately trying to think of a solution.

At this moment, a thought suddenly appeared in her mind.

It was just that the price was a bit high, but Loong Yun couldn't care less at this moment.

She took out her cell phone and secretly sent a message to someone before quietly walking to the back.

She took the initiative to operate the laser cannon and then carefully aimed it at Zhang Zerui.

And Zhang Zerui wasn't an idiot. His gaze was focused on that laser cannon because that was the only weapon that could threaten him.

Seeing Loong Yun operating the laser cannon, Zhang Zerui immediately thought that the other party was going to attack him without caring about the safety of the hostages.

"You forced me to do this!"

Zhang Zerui didn't say anything further. The glass fragment in his hand directly slashed across the Security Team Elder's throat, and fresh blood immediately flowed out.

"Loong Yun, what are you doing!"

Wu Tian was shocked, he was still thinking of a solution. But who would've thought that Loong Yun's actions would cause her opponent to immediately attack ...

At this moment, the Security Team Enforcers had already rushed up and fired a laser cannon at Zhang Zerui's back. This time, the laser cannon's power was too great and it directly burnt a hole in Zhang Zerui's waist.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1143 - The Price of Reason

C1143 The Price of Reason

Zhang Zerui couldn't get up anymore after being knocked to the ground. He also lost his movement very quickly.

However, Wu Tian and the others didn't care about Zhang Zerui at the moment, and all of them ran towards the Security Team Officer with all their might.

They immediately brought him a stretcher and the helicopter came down to take him away.

Wu Tian followed beside him throughout, while Loong Yun also followed behind him.

However, Wu Tian didn't say a word to her because he really didn't expect Loong Yun to directly attack him without asking for his opinion.

This was murder! Knowing that the enemy would make a move, wouldn't Loong Yun taking the initiative to provoke him was equivalent to murdering her partner?

"What are you doing up here ..."

The more Wu Tian thought about it, the angrier he became ...

Loong Yun didn't explain anything, but in her rational mind, this was the best solution.

"That's something I have to do, President Wu. There has to be someone else who can do it!"

Loong Yun didn't feel that she had done anything wrong. She just chose the most advantageous outcome for them.

The two of them immediately broke out into an argument. It was actually Wu Tian's unilateral criticism of Loong Yun.

The expressions of the Security Team users at the side weren't very good either. None of them wanted to see their partners who normally trained with them encountering such a situation at this time.

And it was caused by one of their own ... It would make them feel very insecure.

However, Wu Tian's scolding of Loong Yun made the Security Team practitioners unable to reprimand Wu Tian.

After all, Wu Tian had never done them any harm, and this wasn't Wu Tian's idea ...

"President Wu, it doesn't matter if you curse me. It doesn't matter how you punish me. Saving people is more important!"

Loong Yun's expression did not change at this moment, but her heart remained calm as she said this.

The surrounding Security Team Disciples did not even want to look at it anymore, as they all felt that Loong Yun's actions were too despicable.

Many people turned their faces away.

Someone used an emergency bandage to stop the bleeding. Blood kept pouring out from the wound in his throat, but fortunately, they still had a spare blood transfusion device on their plane. At this moment, the blood was being transferred unceasingly to the wounded man.

This alone was not enough. Generally speaking, the cause of death for a cut in the throat was the suffocation caused by the blood being poured into the windpipe.

Therefore, they decided to use the cardiopulmonary Bypass device as well. Luckily, the helicopter this time was a specialized medical helicopter. Otherwise, they really wouldn't have been able to do anything to this wounded man.

Due to the timely response, they quickly reached the Flower Island. Loong Zaian had also been waiting for a long time, and the moment the plane landed, he immediately took the wounded away for rescue.

When the Security Team users got off the plane, each and every one of them glared fiercely at Loong Yun. Although they didn't say anything, everyone knew how they were feeling.

Loong Yun didn't have much to say about this. She just continued doing her own things.

Wu Tian didn't say a word to Loong Yun. He just took care of the wounded and arranged for Zhang Zerui to be brought back.

Loong Yun was like a transparent person, easily ignored by everyone.

As if she had never existed, the news quickly spread throughout the company, and those who had been polite to Loong Yun before began to pretend not to see her.

This was their biggest protest against Loong Yun. From top to bottom, almost everyone did the same, even Wu Tian was no exception.

Wu Tian knew that Loong Yun's actions would benefit him, but he could not accept the price. The good news was that the wounded man's life was not in danger. After all, Loong Zaian had good medical skills and he also had a lot of sophisticated medical equipment.

In the past, someone with this kind of injury would definitely die, but now he could survive.

However, Loong Yun's actions were unacceptable and Wu Tian still couldn't figure it out.

"President Wu, you called me?"

Miraculously, Loong Yun was not stupid. She knew what other people thought of her. However, she was not affected by the outside world at all. He was still doing whatever he wanted.

She did what she wanted, and it made people feel that Loong Yun was too strong and forceful — to the point that it was hard for people to accept.

Wu Tian nodded. He hadn't taken care of Loong Yun for the past two days, so the reason why he called Loong Yun over was because he had thought it through carefully.

"You've been with me for a long time."

Wu Tian's tone was cold. At this moment, he had no other choice.

"Yes, from the beginning, I accepted Old Master Wu Zhi's request to come to your side. It has been a long time."

Loong Yun's tone was as calm as ever, making everyone wonder if she was still expressionless even after the end of the world.

"Although the two of us have a deep friendship and have known each other for a long time, we cannot break through the issue of principles. Do you understand what I mean?"

Wu Tian turned around and looked at Loong Yun. His eyes were full of regret. Wu Tian didn't want to punish Loong Yun, but he had to.

As the chairman of a company, he had to be the first to set an example.

If Wu Tian did not punish Loong Yun at all for this matter, or if he was unable to satisfy Security Team with the results of his treatment, would there be anyone who would work their hardest for him in the future?

It was obviously impossible. Compared to that, Wu Tian had to make the most rational choice.

"I understand. From the moment I made that decision, I knew what the outcome would be!"

Loong Yun spoke with her head held high and her chest puffed out. Her tone was flat as she calmly accepted everything that was happening before her.

"Alright, you've been transferred, now I'll send you to the research institute in the southeast!"

Wu Tian signed his name on the paper and handed over the transfer order.

This was already the best outcome that he could think of. If he really needed to fire Loong Yun, then Wu Tian really couldn't bear to part with it.

However, if he let Loong Yun stay by his side, that would be out of the question as well. After thinking about it for a while, he could only choose to have Loong Yun change her position.

"I accept the order!"

After Loong Yun received the letter, she nodded at Wu Tian and left without saying anything else.

As Wu Tian watched the door close with a bang, a myriad of emotions suddenly emerged in his heart.

It was rare for him to part with Loong Yun for so long, and most of the time, they were always together.

If Loong Yun left this time, when would she be able to come back?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1144 - Seizing Benefits

C1144 Seizing Benefits

Due to this incident, everyone could tell that Wu Tian was in a bad mood.

Security Team people naturally would not say anything. Wu Tian had already done this, so even if they had any objections before, at this moment, they all obediently shut their mouths.

No one could say anything about this situation. This was already the best solution.

However, even though they were not talking about it in the company, the earthquake that happened outside did not stop.

The news of Zhang Zerui being caught intentionally killing people was already very popular. The Pulitzer Corporation could be said to be at the heart of the struggle.

The people in their company could be said to be in a state of panic. No one knew what would happen next.

If no one was willing to buy it, then there would only be one bankrupt outcome.

After all, their company still had no intentions of selecting a new chairman.

It was at this time that Baili Zhenlin came to the door.

Wu Tian was very surprised, because ever since Zhang Zerui snatched away his Nanhe Securities Corporation, this guy had basically lived a life of seclusion and didn't care about worldly affairs.

There were many times that she didn't see his figure, so she didn't know why she suddenly popped out at this time.

"What a rare guest." Wu Tian looked at this guy's oily face and knew that he was living a comfortable life.

"I won't say anything else, I'll go straight to the point. Today, I've come to find you because I have something to discuss with you."

Baili Zhenlin had a smile on his face. This time, he looked quite proud of himself, perhaps he had prepared something in private.

Wu Tian invited him in. This time, there was no longer Loong Yun, so he had to serve the tea himself.

"As long as it's your problem, I'm definitely willing to help you." Before he could ask anything, Wu Tian agreed.

This made him seem very magnanimous.

"Alright, with these words of yours, I am relieved. You should be involved in the recent events. "

Baili Zhenlin was no fool. Seeing Zhang Zerui suddenly get caught, he immediately realized that this must be related to Wu Tian.

The two of them were rivals. Without Wu Tian's planning and actions, it would be very difficult for them to catch Zhang Zerui's weakness.

"You already know about this?" Wu Tian didn't deny it. Since the matter was settled, he was too lazy to worry about it.

He could not do this kind of thing anyways. The other party was so cunning, it would be good if Baili Zhenlin was not taken advantage of by Zhang Zerui. As for finding trouble with Zhang Zerui, that would be even more difficult and impossible.

"Actually, I have heard that the situation of the Pritt consortium is not good. Maybe it is a good opportunity for me."

Baili Zhenlin rolled his eyes. He had been thinking about this for a long time, and now that he finally had the chance, he definitely wasn't willing to let it go.

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. He did not expect Baili Zhenlin to have this kind of thought. Although the Pritt Consortium didn't have Zhang Zirui anymore, he was still a huge company.

Not just anyone could deal with them. Their market capitalization was already several hundred billion dollars, and their debts were also extremely high.

It might not be a good thing for him to have a company like this when he was acting rashly. It might even be a loss of effort.

"That might not be a good thing. It's such a bloated company. How much money would it cost to buy it?"

Wu Tian was a little hesitant, but Baili Zhenlin's eyes were shining. It was obvious that he was very concerned about this matter.

Baili Zhenlin smiled. He patted his wallet and took out a few notes.

"I don't have much money, so I'm looking for you. I'm not going to buy them all, but I'm going to buy their business bit by bit. "

Buying only the business, not the debts, this was obviously a way to achieve the best of both worlds. However, the other party was not an idiot, and a consortium with the same wealth might also be staring at Pulitzer at this very moment.

After all, this was a huge piece of fat that no one dared to provoke in the past. However, now that the tree had fallen and the monkeys had scattered, those big financial crocodiles had jumped out one after another, wanting to get a share of this meat.

"I think I understand what you mean, but I'm not sure how much we can do this time."

Wu Tian felt that this was also an opportunity to help him earn a lot of money. However, he did not want to manage this messy business personally, and Baili Zhenlin had just mentioned it.

"Fine, I agree. How much money do you need?"

Baili Zhenlin made a 1.

"10 billion?"

Baili Zhenlin shook his head and said with a smile, "100 billion."

Wu Tian's tongue instantly froze. This guy really dared to say that.

A hundred billion, what a huge sum that was.

Wu Tian didn't have that much money on his hands now.

"Are you kidding me? Where am I supposed to get you 100 billion?"

Wu Tian rolled his eyes at him in annoyance. It was impossible for him to provide such a number.

Baili Zhenlin's smile did not fade. From the looks of it, he was not joking.

"I'm not talking nonsense. I really need 100 billion, and I don't think that's enough. But this time, we have to find a way to get some money from somewhere else. And I have a way now. "

Speaking to this, Baili Zhenlin smiled mysteriously. Although he had been free these days, he hadn't been idle either. Still, he moved.

"Didn't the S City and Culture Bureau do that project a while ago? It's said that all of the over two hundred billion invested was for naught. They must want to make up for this loss. "

Baili Zhenlin had planned this long ago, so when he first received the news, he immediately began to investigate.

"What do you mean?"

"I've already contacted them. I've already talked to the people from S City government, they have financial problems now but they still have some money. "About 100 billion."

When Wu Tian heard this, he suddenly understood what Baili Zhenlin wanted to say.

This guy actually wants to use the government's money to help him invest...

"Isn't that illegal?"

Wu Tian was more worried that Ye Zichen might be a big boss, but he was still afraid that Ye Zichen would break the law.

"Of course it's not illegal. What are you thinking? This is a normal form of investment, but it's not that easy to obtain. That's why I need you. "

Baili Zhenlin looked at Wu Tian with burning eyes. He almost scared Wu Tian to death.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1145 - Investing in Foreign Businesses

C1145 Investing in Foreign Businesses

Wu Tian sighed and nodded helplessly.

"Alright, alright. If there's anything you need me to do, just say it."

Anyway, he needed his money very much. As long as he didn't let Wu Tian pay, anything would be fine.

"Simple. Come with me now."

Baili Zhenlin immediately pulled Wu Tian to get ready to go out. Since he had already promised him, there was nothing on his hands. Wu Tian followed him without hesitation.

Seeing how secretive this guy was, Wu Tian didn't ask if he was allowed to use it or not.

If he didn't have any confidence in this matter, would it implicate Wu Tian?

Wu Tian let his imagination run wild in his head, but very quickly, Baili Zhenlin dragged him to the city government.

Speaking of which, although Wu Tian was one of the biggest companies by S City, he basically didn't have any contact with the government.

It's like you know me and I know you but we never said hello to each other.

It was Wu Tian's first time here. Honestly speaking, he was a bit nervous. He didn't know why, but it could be because the S City city was especially big, and it seemed that there was a lot to it.

No matter what, he was still the government of a large city. This sort of dignity and grandeur should be there.

Baili Zhenlin walked in with Wu Tian as if they were familiar with the route. Then, he made a detour to a corner on the second floor.

There was a small, inconspicuous room with a sign on the door that read "Inviting for Investment".

"That's it?"

Wu Tian pointed at the sign and was stunned. He thought it would be a bigger place. After all, the people entertaining them would at least have some official position.

But in this place, this small house and toilet weren't much bigger than each other. No matter how you looked at it, it didn't seem like a high quality room.

"That's right, this is the place. Don't look down on this place. Even though they are small, they have everything they need."

Since it wasn't Baili Zhenlin's first time here, he could understand Wu Tian's expression.

Although society couldn't just judge a person by his appearance, this rule was still quite practical most of the time.

"Alright then." Wu Tian was persuaded by Baili Zhenlin, so both of them knocked on the door.

Soon, he heard a voice answering the door.

"I'm going to open the door!"

It was a girl, and she didn't sound very old.

Wu Tian didn't think too much about it at this moment, but at this moment, the door suddenly opened.

The one who opened the door was a woman wearing professional clothes. She wore a pair of glasses, but had a pair of ponytails on her head ...

This slightly strange decoration immediately attracted Wu Tian's attention.

Her figure that was barely able to describe the past did not appear that outspoken or out of place, but her face could be said to be perfect.

Her fair skin was as red as milk, and she felt comfortable looking at it.

Wu Tian was stunned the moment he saw her. This was not because he had never seen a beauty before, but rather, he had never seen such a beauty. The disparity was too big.

"That ..."

"It's you, why are you here again?"

This girl seemed to have gotten to know Baili Zhenlin already, so it was better if she greeted him. He let the two of them in.

At this moment, Wu Tian still didn't understand what Ye Zichen meant, so he seemed to be slightly confused.

It was funny. This girl really looked at Wu Tian and laughed for a long time. Her eyes also jumped back and forth between Baili Zhenlin and Wu Tian from time to time.

"Let me introduce you. This is the section chief of our office, Yuan Jingwen."

Baili Zhenlin saw that Wu Tian and this Division Chief still didn't know each other, so he acted as a middleman to introduce them to each other.

Wu Tian quickly nodded and reached out to shake hands with him.

However, this Yuan Jingwen rolled her eyes and smiled at Wu Tian. However, she didn't reach out her hand and instead covered her mouth with her hand.

"This person is really interesting ..."

Wu Tian suddenly felt a bit awkward. He didn't understand what Yuan Jingwen meant.

"Let's not talk about that anymore. I believe that the reason you all came this time around is because of the matter from last time."

Now that they had chatted and greeted each other, it was time for them to get down to business. Yuan Jingwen was still rather serious when she talked about proper business.

"Well, didn't I talk to you the last time? I hope that you and I can form a joint venture and buy the Pritt consortium."

Baili Zhenlin kept on talking, and he started to use his mouth that was especially good at talking.

"Yes, that's right, but you also know that we talk about seniority. Even though your Nanhe Securities Corporation was extremely famous in the past, you currently don't have any companies under your command, so it's really impossible for you to obtain approval from the city."

Yuan Jingwen's reasoning was quite reasonable. After all, who would be willing to believe a weak person? They had to see their company's ability to confirm that person.

After all, they could not just take the money and run away, and the government was also afraid of another Yingdi Entertainment situation.

"Don't worry about that, that's why I brought her here this time."

Of course, Wu Tian was renowned throughout the world, and Yuan Jingwen knew him as well.

"The chairman of Wu Group company, if it's you, then you really have the qualifications to do so."

Yuan Jingwen nodded at Wu Tian. She recognized Wu Tian's identity from the beginning, but to Wu Tian, it seemed that Yuan Jingwen wasn't interested in him.

This made Wu Tian feel a little new, because most girls would think of ways to get close to him when they saw him.

After all, Wu Tian was very rich and everyone wanted to earn some benefits from him. However, only Wu Tian himself knew the taste.

Everyone else thought he was rich, but she just didn't have the money. The company was huge, but it also had a lot of places to spend money.

Most of the time, when he earned money, he would immediately switch hands and spend it. Only a very small number of people could truly stop at Wu Tian's hands.

"You're flattering me. To be honest, I'm not as good as you make me out to be."

Wu Tian said modestly. He suddenly realized that he must insist on not having any money, or else he might be tricked by his opponent.

"Look at what you're saying, a dignified Wu Group company like you is famous throughout the country! The number one Technology Company in China, you are still so modest. "

At this time, Yuan Jingwen started to praise Wu Tian highly, as if she was flattering him.
