C1146 Intent to Cooperate

If it was an ordinary person, they would definitely be obsessed with it.

After all, who wouldn't like to be praised by others? Wu Tian was the same, but he was clearly more profound.

It's all for the sake of profit. If someone wanted to praise you for your money, then you wouldn't be happy.

You don't know that, but everyone here has their own troubles. You all know that my company is very big, but my expenses are also very big, and the cost is also very high.

At this time, Wu Tian straightforwardly complained to Yuan Jingwen. Anyway, the two of them seemed to be in a miserable state compared to each other.

This was in order to get the words out of his mouth in advance. This way, Wu Tian would have more room to turn around when it came to money later on.

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Yuan Jingwen still had a smile on her face.

How could she not know what Wu Tian was thinking?

What a joke, Yuan Jingwen knew it very well.

Baili Zhenlin wiped off his sweat on the side. These two old foxes ...

Wu Tian naturally didn't need to say anything. In the business world, what kind of people haven't he seen before?

As for this Yuan Jingwen, even though she was young, she wasn't an easy opponent to deal with.

"Can the two of you speak properly? Oh right, what do you think of my suggestion?"

Baili Zhenlin's interruption finally eased the awkward atmosphere that existed between Wu Tian and Yuan Jingwen.

"Alright, since you brought Wu Tian here now, we can consider this matter."

Yuan Jingwen nodded in agreement.

"No, you guys can still tell me what's going on? Don't just pull me up. "

Wu Tian was confused as he did not know what was going on.

"It's like this. Baili Zhenlin wants to form a joint venture with us and then buy the assets of the Pritt consortium. But we don't think he has the qualifications or the collateral for this. So we want him to have other partners. "

Yuan Jingwen pointed at Wu Tian, implying that Wu Tian was this so-called partner.

This was more or less what Baili Zhenlin meant when he went to find him.

"Okay, then, what am I going to do?"

"Actually, you don't need to do anything. Just sign an agreement. You are the guarantor."

Wu Tian's heart jumped when he heard the word guarantee.

This matter was not that simple. If something were to happen, he would have to bear all the responsibility.

He had to have a lot of trust in Baili Zhenlin to be able to finalize this matter.

"Big brother, this doesn't seem to be the same as what you said before. I thought it was just to get me to pay or use my name to take the blame for you ..."

Wu Tian quickly pulled Baili Zhenlin aside. This was no joke. If it was guaranteed, Wu Tian wasn't worried that Baili Zhenlin would run away. However, he didn't want Wu Tian to bear the consequences because of Baili Zhenlin's poor management or any other messed up factors.

"Big brother, let go of me first. I can't breathe ..."

Baili Zhenlin was so angry that his face and neck were red, and he was almost out of breath. Hearing this, Wu Tian released him and hurriedly explained.

"It's like this. Actually, I don't need you to do anything, and I won't allow you to pay. Secondly, I don't need you to manage it. "You still don't trust me?"

Wu Tian had mixed feelings when he heard this.

"I believe in you, but this matter is too risky! I can't get any benefits out of it ..."

Wu Tian didn't want to mention this benefit because he didn't want to earn money from it.

Currently, the shares of the Pritt Consortium were very low. If they were to buy at this time of the year, there would be a very high premium. If he sold it, he would be able to reap a large amount of money.

However, not just anyone could play this game. The biggest prerequisite was that players had plenty of money.

"Don't worry about that, we'll split the profits fifty-fifty when I earn it."

Baili Zhenlin patted his chest and said. He was rather generous.

After all, the relationship between Baili Zhenlin and himself wasn't ordinary. Wu Tian thought about it and decided not to directly refuse. In the end, he could only nod his head and agree.

"Alright then, I'll be your guarantor."

Yuan Jingwen was also very happy. She immediately took out the contract and let the two of them sign it.

"After the contract is signed, this matter is settled. Now, we are both shareholders. We will contribute 100 billion yuan, and we will account for 90% of the shares. The remaining 10% is yours, Baili Zhenlin. "

Although the contract was signed like this, the government would not interfere with the management of the company and how the company would purchase it.

This was what Baili Zhenlin and Yuan Jingwen had discussed earlier to confirm.

"No problem, no problem. Just like that."

Yuan Jingwen nodded and put the contract away.

"Alright, I will go and ask the Leader now. If he approves, the funds will be transferred to the account as soon as possible."

Yuan Jingwen was quite efficient and did not seem to procrastinate at all.

However, no matter how Wu Tian looked at Yuan Jingwen, he felt that this fellow was not as simple as he thought.

But even if he had to say one, two, and three, he still wouldn't be able to say it.

Even on the way back with Baili Zhenlin, Wu Tian still kept on talking about it.

"Don't think too much into it. This Division Chief Yuan is quite a nice person. Although she looks a little strange ..."

Baili Zhenlin tried to persuade them along the way. However, there was one thing that the two of them agreed on. They were both in professional attire and had combed their ponytails ... Although it looked very cute, in a functional department like the government...

It was always a strange feeling. They couldn't say what was wrong, but they just felt that it was against the rules.

"As long as you feel that there's no problem, I can approve it here. "I didn't expect Baili Zhenlin to pull Wu Tian over ..."

A middle-aged man with glasses looked at the contract Yuan Jingwen handed to him and nodded with a smile.

Yuan Jingwen stood at the bottom with a serious expression, no longer looking as happy as she did before.

"I also think this is a good opportunity. If we use Wu Tian's reputation to buy it, the price will definitely be lower and the profit will also be bigger."

In the current situation, Wu Tian only invested in his own reputation, but not his money. He wouldn't exchange it for their profits, it was simply the best ending.

At least for the government, there is no better outcome than this.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1147 - Sudden Failure

C1147 Sudden Failure

Although he wasn't sure, but looking at Baili Zhenlin's happy expression, Wu Tian felt that it was hard to say.

After all, this was a good thing. As long as they could complete this project well and acquire a portion of the Pulitzer consortium's assets, they would naturally be able to make a huge profit.

At present, the only difficulty was how to get the Pulitzer consortium to find a way to sell the assets.

Although Zhang Zerui was doomed now, his company wasn't in danger, but there was no one in the company that could manage this.

Naturally, there was no way to unify the power of speech in his company.

"Do you have a plan? Don't tell me you still have to figure it out on the spot. "

Wu Tian was a bit unsure.

"Of course I have one. Who do you think I am? Can it be that I can do this?" Baili Zhenlin looked indifferent, as if he was prepared for it.

"What's your plan? If you buy a part of their business, do you plan to run it yourself, or do you plan to sell it?"

Although Wu Tian didn't want to participate directly, he was still curious.

"You forgot, my Nanhe Securities Corporation is still in the hands of this Pulitzer consortium. Now, I have to take back what I lost with my own hands!"

At this moment, Wu Tian suddenly realized that Baili Zhenlin's expression was full of seriousness and determination. If it was before, Wu Tian still had some doubts, but now, he didn't dare to relax at all.

"Alright, since you already have the idea, I will try my best to cooperate with you. However, what I can do is rather limited."

Wu Tian calculated that the Pulitzer Corporation could no longer hold on. It could be said that the Wu Group Corporation no longer had a company that could obstruct his development.

He didn't even have a competitor anymore. Thinking about this, Wu Tian's heart started to feel empty.

He always felt that something was missing.

But no matter what, this was good news, Wu Tian started to feel happy from the bottom of his heart.

Wu Tian wanted to put this matter aside for now. He was prepared to take advantage of the fact that the company had no enemies at the moment to develop their own abilities.

Only at this time, when no one was bothering them, would they be able to fully utilize their abilities.

Baili Zhenlin also started to busy himself with his work. It was just that he didn't have any ventilation with Wu Tian during this period of time. He really didn't need Wu Tian to manage anything. He didn't even have any special communication with Wu Tian.

Wu Tian originally thought that this matter would steadily progress forward. However, he didn't expect that all of a sudden, a bunch of police officers would come knocking at his door.

These police officers were not part of Sunn Hongsheng's criminal investigation police. Although they were marked as police, they did not seem to be in any ordinary department.

The appearance of these people surprised Wu Tian for a long time. He really didn't know when he had provoked these policemen.

"You are President Wu, right?"

The leader of the police officers saluted Wu Tian politely. His tone was neither warm, hot nor overbearing, making others unable to guess his intentions.

Wu Tian was usually very careful when facing people like this. Generally speaking, only the old foxes in the old foxes could achieve such a feat.

Therefore, he had to be careful when dealing with people like them. Otherwise, it would be very easy for him to suffer a huge loss.

"Who are you?"

Wu Tian was a bit hesitant. He recalled that he didn't do anything wrong recently and the company didn't violate the law either.

"Hello, we are the financial management department's police, responsible for the company's financial affairs."

As he spoke, the police officer tossed his business card over. Wu Tian took the business card and looked at it carefully. It clearly stated that their duties were in charge of business and finance.

"This is the first time I've heard of such a department ..."

Wu Tian muttered to himself. He had never seen Sun Hongshuang mention that there was such a category within the police station ... It seemed like he would have to ask a lot later.

"I have something to say to you this time."

As he spoke, the police officer took out a document from his briefcase.

He handed the document to Wu Tian for him to take a look.

"What is it?"

Wu Tian was curious, but after he brought the thing back, he became even more suspicious.

This was because this document was a copy of the previous contract they had signed with Yuan Jingwen.

Could there be a problem with this contract? Or was there something wrong with it?

"What's the matter now?"

The officer coughed and then slowly explained to Wu Tian, "Well, after our investigation, there is a big problem with Baili Zhenlin's management. Now, it has been confirmed by the Financial Services Bureau that his investment is already a failed investment. Therefore, they entrusted us to inform you that they are about to implement the treaty as stated in the contract. "

"What?"

Wu Tian was stupefied when he heard this. What kind of situation was this? Didn't Baili Zhenlin do well a few days ago? Looking at his complacent look, Wu Tian felt that Baili Zhenlin didn't have any problems.

What's more, this person was Baili Zhenlin. His Nanhe Securities Corporation was at the S City back then, and it was also a well-known company. How could he say no? Wu Tian truly felt that there was no one outside the S City who was more suitable to do this than him.

"I've finished speaking. Take a look, what are your plans?"

The police officer didn't pay attention to Wu Tian's question. In fact, he didn't seem to care about it at all.

"You have to tell me everything! How did his investment fail!? 100 billion and he's done for just like that? "

Wu Tian didn't believe anything, he wouldn't believe it even if he was beaten to death.

The government invested 100 billion in it. No matter how much he spent, he couldn't possibly let Baili Zhenlin use up all of it in just one or two weeks.

Besides, if this money was just used to buy the assets of the Prescott Consortium, it would not be a complete waste. Those assets also have value.

"President Wu, I know you're a bit excited. But we're just a cop in charge of business, and we don't know how he did it. "

The police officer said there was nothing he could do about it, because he knew very little.

Seeing him like this, Wu Tian also knew that he couldn't get any answers out of him. He sighed and let him go.

The police officers had left several documents and lists.

It was probably a simple description of the current situation that Yuan Jingwen and the others had mentioned.

Simply put, Yuan Jingwen and the others believed that Baili Zhenlin's investment had completely failed.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1148 - The Lost Baili Zhenlin

C1148 The Lost Baili Zhenlin

Back then, their contract had already been fixed.

The department that they were recruiting for had the right and obligation to determine whether Baili Zhenlin's investment was successful or not.

If he was found to have failed, then the contract would be executed as Baili Zhenlin's breach of contract.

Wu Tian suddenly regretted it a little now. Why didn't he take a closer look at the contract?

Now, let's not talk about Baili Zhenlin's reason, if this matter involved Wu Tian.

For some inexplicable reason, he had to shoulder the responsibility of being the guarantor. It was obvious what kind of mood he was in now.

"Damn it, what is Baili Zhenlin doing!"

After sending the policemen away, Wu Tian turned around and screamed in anger.

"Loong Yun, find Baili Zhenlin for me!"

Wu Tian shouted behind him out of habit, but after a long while, no one replied him. At this moment, Wu Tian realized that there was no one around him.

He was very reliant on Loong Yun, and Loong Yun was even the one who did such small things. Now that Loong Yun was no longer by his side, Wu Tian still felt uncomfortable for a while.

"Looks like I need to find a secretary first ..."

Wu Tian noticed that there was no one around to make him a cup of tea, so he started to wonder about this.

He opened the list and looked at the documents. The gist of it was that Wu Tian had to bear the responsibility to compensate for the 100 billion yuan. If he couldn't do that, he would use some of his company's equity or other types of things as collateral.

The more he read, the more it reached the end. Wu Tian felt like he had been caught in a trap...

"What's going on ..."

Wu Tian was very surprised, so he quickly made a phone call. He had to contact them as soon as possible, otherwise, he wouldn't even know how he died.

At this time, Baili Zhenlin's phone was no longer connected.

Wu Tian was extremely anxious. He turned his head and shouted out of habit, "Loong Yun ..."

But after he shouted, he suddenly realized that without Loong Yun as his secretary, he wouldn't be able to carry out much of his work.

In the past, he had asked for a lot of things directly from Loong Yun, so she would send the results to him in one go. Wu Tian almost never had to worry about that.

But now, Wu Tian had driven Loong Yun out of the Flower Island and sent her to a remote mountain area ...

Wu Tian sighed, feeling mixed emotions in his heart.

If it wasn't for what happened before, Wu Tian wouldn't be like a headless fly now.

However, without Loong Yun, things had to continue.

Thinking about it, he could only hand the matter over to Wei Jiaming, who was in charge of intelligence.

Wu Tian quickly made a phone call and called Wei Jiaming into his office.

Although he was no longer in charge of intelligence work, his previous work record was still impressive. Therefore, Wu Tian picked him for a reason.

"Come, sit down. I have something that I need you to help me with."

Wei Jiaming, who hadn't seen Wu Tian for a long time, was also very excited at this time. When he heard that Wu Tian had a mission for him, he became even more confident.

"President Wu, just say it, no matter what kind of mission it is, I will definitely complete it!"

Wei Jiaming said excitedly as he patted his chest. Back then, he was just a peddler, but now, because of the appearance of Wu Tian, his life had completely changed.

His life was definitely richer than before, but that was not the point. In the past, when he was the shop manager, he would always be bullied.

However, he didn't have to worry about that anymore. No one would dare to bully Wei Jiaming. He was one of Wu Group Corporation's trusted aides.

"It's like this. Investigate where Baili Zhenlin is now and what he did, especially the past few days. Investigate it in detail as much as possible."

Wu Tian frowned and said. He refused to believe that Baili Zhenlin would pull him down just because of this 100 billion.

It was clear that he did not want to gain anything from this. He should not have done such a thing.

However, the truth was in front of him, so Wu Tian didn't know how to understand it.

Wei Jiaming nodded. This matter wasn't too troublesome for him.

Now that Wu Group Company's technology had increased by several levels, it was not difficult for them to find the person via the reconnaissance satellite.

If that person appeared outside, it was very likely that he would be photographed by the satellite in the sky.

After 24 hours of computer analysis and comparison, if they were fast, they would be able to find out the results within a few hours. If they were slow, then there would definitely be data coming out within a day or two.

"Don't worry about that, I'll do it right now!"

Wei Jiaming saluted excitedly. To be honest, these kinds of things were usually passed on to him by Loong Yun before. Now that there was no Loong Yun, Wei Jiaming was going to accept Wu Tian's leadership directly.

"It's been hard on you. I'm depending on you this time!"

Wu Tian patted Wei Jiaming on the shoulder. He was worthy of his trust. However, Wu Tian still felt that it wasn't as convenient as Loong Yun's usage.

Loong Yun was too obedient to Wu Tian. She knew what Wu Tian was thinking even without him doing anything.

However, once a person got used to this kind of looseness, it would be very troublesome if they wanted to go back to the tedious ways they were before.

However, Wu Tian couldn't care so much at the moment, since he had already received the documents from the Administration for Commerce, Wu Tian had no choice but to deal with this matter.

What exactly was going on? Was there some sort of conspiracy?

Wu Tian kept thinking about this question in his mind. He started to recall everything that happened during the negotiation that day. Logically speaking, Baili Zhenlin shouldn't betray him.

Could it be that there was a problem somewhere else? Was something wrong with the government?

Wu Tian began to doubt this point in his heart. It's really not impossible.

However, Wu Tian was a bit unsure. If he wanted to know more, he would have to investigate it himself.

Since there was no one else to help him, Wu Tian decided to go on stage personally.

Under the cover of night, Wu Tian took the car keys and put on a set of black clothes before hurrying out of his room.

He had just turned a corner or two when he saw two people standing in front of him, talking.

Taking a closer look, it was Number One and Erniu. It seemed like they were very happy when they spoke.

No.1 still greeted him shyly when he saw Wu Tian walk over.

Wu Tian looked at him, hesitated for a moment, then waved at Number 1.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1149 - Tracing

C1149 Tracing

"President Wu ..."

Number One quickly ran over. Usually, he spent most of his time inside Flower Island and was rarely able to interact and communicate with Wu Tian and the others.

It was also because Wu Tian was too busy and there were always all sorts of things that happened.

"Pack up and come out with me."

Wu Tian's words were very concise. Number One always staying inside Flower Island was not a good thing, moreover, he was a youth, he should also do some things for himself.

It just so happened that Wu Tian wanted to find out some news this time. With Number 1 by his side, it would be very convenient.

Furthermore, he would be able to have a companion along the way, so there was no need to worry about his safety. Currently, there were only a few people who could threaten Number One.

Erniu looked at Number 1 being called away. He was curious as to why she didn't have him, so she also ran over.

He pulled Wu Tian's clothes, opened his eyes wide and had a pitiful look on his face.

Wu Tian knew what she was thinking, but it was a secret operation this time. Erniu's physical fitness might affect their efficiency.

"I can't bring you along this time, but I'll definitely bring you along next time. For an opportunity like this, it's best to let number one pass."

Wu Tian had taken Erniu out on missions quite a number of times already, but because Erniu was so useful, Wu Tian was especially afraid every time.

If he wanted to ensure Erniu's safety, he had to reduce the number of times he appeared outside.

Naturally, he couldn't casually let others know about her existence, so this time, Wu Tian decided not to bring Erniu along.

Although she was unhappy, Erniu still chose to listen to Wu Tian's request. After all, missions were more important.

"I don't need to prepare anything to set off right now ..."

Number 1 had a smile on his face, and his eyes were bright with anticipation.

"Alright, let's set off now!"

The two of them moved swiftly and swiftly, arriving downstairs.

In order to be inconspicuous, Wu Tian specifically chose a relatively ordinary looking car.

Taking advantage of the night, he drove out of the Flower Island, and then quickly disappeared into the flow of traffic.

This time around, their goal was to arrive at the office where Li Zhenlin was brought to.

Since there was no one to lead the way, it wasn't easy for them to enter the government office building, so Wu Tian parked the car opposite the office building.

He quietly watched what was happening outside the car.

They had about ten minutes before they got off work. Perhaps that Yuan Jingwen would come out at this time. At that time, it would be much better for Wu Tian to follow her than directly barging in.

Soon, the person Wu Tian was waiting for came out. However, Yuan Jingwen wasn't alone. Beside her was a middle-aged man wearing glasses.

This man looked very amiable, but his expression was rather righteous and gave off the bearing of a leader.

Seeing Yuan Jingwen being so respectful beside this person, Wu Tian guessed that this person must be Yuan Jingwen's leader.

"The two of us, follow them!" Wu Tian saw that the two of them didn't drive, so he decided to get off the car and follow them on foot.

As he was already disguised when he came out, if he didn't look at his face carefully, he wouldn't be able to recognize Wu Tian.

Therefore, he and Number One were casually walking on the road, intentionally or unintentionally following behind Yuan Jingwen and that leader.

"President Wu, are we following those two? What are they? A couple? "

Number 1 talked about how he had been chatting with the employees frequently in the Flower Island recently, but who knew what kind of nonsense these employees had instilled into him.

"No, you don't need to make any wild guesses. The person we are looking for is indeed him."

Wu Tian waved his hand. He wasn't in the mood to answer those boring questions.

However, he was also curious about the relationship between Yuan Jingwen and her leader.

The two of them walked in front and soon reached a restaurant street. This place did not look like a high-end restaurant.

In Wu Tian's memory, ordinary government officials would only be eating in some big hotel or other ... After all, they still had a show to play, but Yuan Jingwen and her brother didn't do that at all.

Wu Tian felt it was strange, so he quickly followed him inside.

"President Wu, are we going to eat?"

"We're following them!"

Wu Tian said in annoyance. He suddenly realized that this Number One didn't like to talk much in the past, perhaps it wasn't because he didn't like to talk much, but because he didn't know their language.

Having been in the Flower Island for such a long time, not only was Number 1's China language incomparably smooth, he could even make out a few accents and dialects.

If you cover your face, you will feel that this is a person from the China who was born and raised here.

"Sorry, sorry, it's not like I couldn't control my mouth ..."

Number 1 thought Wu Tian was angry, so he quickly apologized. Hearing him say that, Wu Tian felt a bit embarrassed.

"Nothing, I was just a bit worried. Actually, you didn't do anything wrong."

Wu Tian quickly told him in an amiable manner. He didn't want his emotions to affect this teenage boy.

At his age, Wu Tian needed praise and recognition, so he couldn't possibly give him the opposite effect.

"President Wu, the two of them went in!"

As he was talking, Number One's sharp eyes caught sight of Yuan Jingwen and her leader walking into a small Sichuan cuisine restaurant.

"Quick, we have to catch up!"

Wu Tian took a closer look as he hurried along. This Little Chuan Restaurant didn't seem to be that amazing and looked very ordinary.

The furnishings inside were also very simple, there wasn't even any decorations.

The two of them looked in from the outside and saw Yuan Jingwen and her leader sitting at the table, ordering dishes.

Wu Tian looked around suspiciously. He kept having the feeling that this place might be a place for them to exchange information.

However, this was too much like a professional Sichuan cuisine. There were no flaws at all.

Were these two really here to eat?

Wu Tian felt it wasn't good to go in, so he and Number 1 sat at a stall across the street. They ordered some food and pretended to eat while looking at the Sichuan Cuisine.

Inside the Sichuan Cuisine, Yuan Jingwen and the middle-aged man were holding a menu and ordering dishes.

"How's it going?"

Yuan Jingwen, who was at the side, quickly lowered her head and quietly said, "It's more or less done. I think it's probably the time for him to get anxious. "

"Alright, that's good. Don't force Wu Tian too much, our goal is not to force him to death."

The leader said indifferently. He had a relaxed and carefree appearance, as if this matter was just like the clouds in the sky. There was nothing worth paying attention to.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1150 - Sneaking into Yuan Jingwen's House

C1150 Sneaking into Yuan Jingwen's House

The two people who were watching looked around, then followed Yuan Jingwen and her leader to stroll around the streets. In short, they had been busy for an hour or two.

Wu Tian didn't notice any abnormal actions from the two of them, and in the end, Wu Tian started to suspect if he had followed the wrong person.

Or could it be that he suspected the wrong person? Could it be that this Yuan Jingwen had nothing to do with this matter?

While he was daydreaming, Wu Tian started to get distracted as he stood at the side of the street.

But Number One was still focused on following them.

Seeing Yuan Jingwen and that Leader leaving, the two of them walked in a different direction. At this time, Number 1 quickly patted Wu Tian.

"President Wu, something terrible happened. The two of them split up. Who are we following?"

Originally, they had planned to follow a single target. However, now that the two had separated, two targets had appeared.

Wu Tian snapped out of his daze and pointed in Yuan Jingwen's direction.

"Let's go chase her!"

After saying that, the two of them hurriedly followed her. However, when they arrived at the mouth of the alleyway, they discovered that Yuan Jingwen's figure had already disappeared.

They looked around but there was no sign of her, as if she had never been there.

"Am I seeing things?"

Wu Tian even started to doubt his own eyes, but he clearly saw Yuan Jingwen walk into this alley.

It was a small alley with a width of only one meter. Usually, only one person would be able to walk through it.

Both sides of the alleyway were two to three stories high. The residents had built the buildings themselves, so it was rather messy.

But there were also some of the region's unique beauty, in other words, artistic, which suited some of the pleasures of youth.

"President Wu, I'm sure she walked in here!"

Number One's eyes were very sharp. Its vision far exceeded that of an ordinary person's, so he would definitely not doubt his own eyes.

But they really couldn't find Yuan Jingwen ...

"Strange, could it be that she can fly over walls, or even pass through walls?"

Wu Tian muttered to himself. However, it was impossible to just stand there and not go in. Thus, he walked into the alley while talking. Both sides were walls, and there seemed to be no place to hide.

When they didn't know what to do, Number 1 suddenly pulled Wu Tian and pointed to the wall at the side.

"President Wu, look! There's a door here!"

Wu Tian followed the direction of Number 1's hand and found that it was indeed as he said. There was a door in the wall, but it was covered by the climbing tiger on the wall.

If he did not observe carefully, he might not be able to discover this place.

"Did she go in?"

Wu Tian guessed so, but other than this place, there was no other place with a door. As far as Yuan Jingwen was concerned, she had no other way to hide from him.

"President Wu, if not, I'll go in and take a look!"

Number One took the initiative to volunteer, but Wu Tian was a little unmoved inside.

They still didn't know what was going on inside. What if there was danger?

"No, this is too risky!"

Wu Tian said worriedly. However, if they don't go in, they won't be able to find out what's going on inside and they won't be able to find out the truth from Yuan Jingwen.

"The two of us will go in together. If there's anything else, we can look out for each other!"

Wu Tian decided that if they wanted to enter, they should either enter together or not enter at all.

Number 1 naturally didn't say anything more. Instead, he looked at Wu Tian gratefully. He thought Wu Tian cherished his life, so he did it because he couldn't bear to let him take the risk.

With a sigh, he felt that he would follow Wu Tian for the rest of his life.

There was no handle on the outside of the door, only a keyhole. It looked like it needed a key to open the door.

Wu Tian and co. did not have the key, so they did not know what to do with the door.

Since they couldn't get in, they had to think of other ways. Wu Tian raised his head and saw that there was a exhaust vent above them.

He looked around but no one was there. Wu Tian dragged # 1 from the bottom and sent him up. Number 1 quickly removed the fan from the vent and opened up a path.

The two of them quickly entered the cave. Their speed was extremely fast and it only took them two to three minutes to get inside.

No one was around during this period of time, so no one knew what they had done.

Wu Tian sighed in his heart as he started to drill into the ventilation passage again.

The last time he made this, he saved Erniu, so this place might be a paradise for Wu Tian.

The two of them crawled along the east and west side of the tunnel, but the tunnel wasn't very long. Soon, they found an exit.

Looking down along the vent, they saw that there was a living room below, and the things were a little messy.

The living room was not very big, but the room was fully equipped. There were all sorts of things, including some ladies' clothes and supplies.

It was a girl's room.

"We are at her house!"

Wu Tian looked carefully and didn't see Yuan Jingwen. The two of them held their breath to listen carefully and found that there was a splash of water coming from the direction of the bathroom.

This was a good opportunity!

Wu Tian quickly opened the vent and secretly jumped down with Number 1.

Fortunately, the two of them were both practitioners, so they had some ability. As a result, they barely made a sound.

Wu Tian told # 1 to go to the bathroom and take a look, while he himself quickly picked up the documents in the living room and started searching around here.

He wanted to see if anything had anything to do with their one hundred billion project.

The time for a girl to take a bath was very long. Although this wasn't absolute, it was enough to give Wu Tian a few minutes.

However, there were too many things in the living room. There were documents and books everywhere.

There doesn't seem to be anything special here. Wu Tian originally suspected that there was something wrong with this Yuan Jingwen, but from the looks of it, there didn't seem to be anything special about her.

In fact, it could be said that she was being a bit too professional ... Very few people would be willing to take work back home.

Wu Tian searched for a long time, but was unable to find anything. He was so anxious that he got angry.

At this moment, the sound of water in the bathroom suddenly stopped. Yuan Jingwen had finished her shower.

Number One quickly ran to Wu Tian's side, indicating for him to quickly hide.

Wu Tian didn't have any other choice. He raised his head and looked at the air vent. It wasn't that easy to run back from there at this time.

Thus, he decided to get close to the window and hid himself behind it.

Number 1 was even more extreme. He was smaller in stature and had flipped under the sofa. No one would be able to see him if he hid inside.
