

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1156 - Arrest the Police

C1156 Arrest the Police

When Su Cancan said this, these people were immediately dumbfounded.

No one would have thought that such a thing could go to military secrets.

They were just the police and had no right to interfere in the matters of the army. Under normal circumstances, they would not harass the organization of the army.

But no one had ever heard that the Flower Island of a Wu Group company was also a military installation.

Thus, when they heard this news, the police officers at the scene were a little deceived.

Moreover, at this time, the Security Team users had also rushed up and started to forcibly disarm them.

If anyone saw this, they would definitely be very shocked, because no one had ever seen a police officer being disarmed.

At this moment, the manager's face was as red as a boiling pot. He felt as if he had lost all face.

"Don't listen to their nonsense. When did you receive this news saying that this is a military installation? As special police, if you get your guns taken off, you won't lose any face at all. How will you carry out your duties in the future? "

As soon as he said that, the special police who were going to put down their guns also stopped because the words had reached such a point. There was nothing they could do.

Security Team naturally would not be inferior to others. They possessed absolute power, so they were naturally not afraid of these special forces.

Moreover, the commander of the police at the scene was just too arrogant, and did not put them in his eyes at all, which made quite a few Security Team practitioners feel somewhat unhappy.

"You're quite arrogant!"

Su Cancan walked down from the bridge with a few Security Team s. She directly skipped past the few policemen in front and walked to the person in charge.

Looking at the few stars on his shoulder, Su Cancan let out a cold laugh.

She took out an identity card from her breast pocket and opened it in front of him.

It was clearly written on it. It was the person in charge of security in the military research bases, Su Cancan's name, and also the name of their Security Team.

The police officer in charge could not believe it. He quickly took the thing and carefully looked at it in his hand. After that, he became stupefied.

Because the ID is real.

This guy was suddenly at a loss for words. He didn't know what to say.

Actually, it wasn't his fault. If it was anyone else, they would probably be trembling in fear.

After all, the situation was already like this. No one knew what would happen next.

"Are you done reading? Take him down for me!"

Su Cancan waved at the people behind her, and the Security Team s beside immediately rushed up and pinned this guy down, then cuffed him.

Everything happened very quickly. From the time the order was given to the person in charge, to when he was caught by the Security Team, only a dozen or so seconds had passed.

Before even the person involved could react, the matter was already over.

"I suspect that you intentionally violated the rules and charged into military installations! Don't listen to warnings! The security forces have the right to arrest you! " Su Cancan's words were very forceful, and the policemen below immediately fell silent.

They put down the weapons in their hands cooperatively. In fact, only the special police felt that they had been wrongly accused.

They didn't participate in any of this, they were just called here to deal with the riots ... At first, they said that someone was holding a weapon illegally, which was why the special police came here.

Who would have thought that these policemen who were in charge of business would actually be so audacious as to charge into military installations ...?

This was a major mistake. If he was caught, it would basically be over.

"Let the cops go. It's none of their business."

Su Cancan saw that there were simply too many policemen. If they were all going to be taken away, it would be a huge problem for her. She might as well just take away the person in charge and let the rest go.

This time, it could be said that no one would dare to find trouble with Flower Island anymore.

Even if there was some public service, no one would dare to intrude on them using force.

For a moment, the news of the person in charge of the business police being detained quickly spread across the entire Police Station.

At this time, the chief also had a face full of shock, and his entire Police Station was in complete shock.

Everyone knew that Wu Tian wasn't that easy to deal with, but they never expected him to be so hard to deal with.

"Sunn Hongsheng, send someone to take a look at the situation. This matter must not be blown out of control. Also, inform everyone in the bureau not to spread this news!"

The bureau chief was so nervous that he was trembling. This was not a small matter, there was a chance that it might affect a large group of people.

It should be known that although this commercial police didn't belong to the police department, but rather to the administration of the bureau, they were also part of the police department. If they were to commit a crime, the police department would also have to assume some responsibility.

Therefore, if the military was really entangled with this matter, how could the police chief not be nervous?

As for Wu Tian, he still looked calm. No one cared about the police's incident and they treated it as if it had never happened.

However, Wu Tian looked at the officer who was cuffed and didn't know what to do.

"Tell me, what are you doing here?"

"Enforcement. I am entrusted with this task. I want you to enforce the agreement in the contract."

This person in charge no longer had the arrogance he had just now. He had completely admitted his wrongs. He also knew that he had gone too far this time, he didn't expect to run into such a tough opponent.

"I'm telling you, hurry up and release me. I have a special execution document. Everything is in accordance with the law, and there is no reason for you to arrest me. "

When the person in charge thought of this, he hurriedly grabbed onto it like a lifeline. He was certain that no one could say anything about this matter.

However, Wu Tian was not that easy to deal with. He smiled, turned around and started to play Tai Chi.

"If you say it like that, then I can just say it, if you do not have permission to personally lead personnel, and wield weapons and prepare to charge into Flower Island, I can just directly shoot you down on the spot."

Although Wu Tian's voice wasn't loud and his tone was gentle, his words were like a nail that pierced the manager's heart.

He had no way to wash away this matter. It was like a signboard that was nailed to his body, leaving him with no other choice but to pinch his nose and accept it.

"I ..."

"Enough, I'm not willing to listen to your nonsense either. Who ordered you to come here this time?"

Wu Tian casually sat on the sofa and looked at the man before him with glowing eyes.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1157 - Internal Strife?

C1157 Internal Strife?

Actually, Wu Tian knew very well that if nothing unexpected happened, this person in charge should have been used as a gun by someone else.

"No one supports me, I'm just executing the orders from above!"

The official's tone started to become even, probably because he also felt guilty. Although, according to him, he had legal documents on the operation.

But is this thing really effective? It could be seen from his attitude.

"If you don't want to say it, I have nothing to say. If you are willing to cover up for your companions, I don't mind. However, when you are truly going to be punished, do not regret it. "

Wu Tian did not say much, nor did he ask. In any case, if you're not willing to say it, then I won't ask. However, later on, don't go back on your word.

As Wu Tian said that, a scream came from the room next door, along with the sound of being whipped. The sound made all the hair on one's body stand on end.

That manager swallowed a mouthful of saliva and thought back carefully. It seemed like Wu Tian's words were not without reason.

The person who urged him to do this seemed to have already left before the matter could even ferment. In other words, not only was he not punished, no one even knew that he had been here.

And he had to take responsibility for all of this.

"F * ck!" After realizing this, he realized that he was being used as a gun this time. He was even being sold off and getting money for others.

"Have you come up with something?" You can tell me, of course, that I won't reveal what you think. "I won't complain to the higher-ups. You can still continue to be your business police officer. We won't disturb each other."

Wu Tian smiled. His words quickly penetrated the man's psychological defenses.

"I'll tell you!"

The director, who had just returned to his office, received a message on his cell phone at this moment. Not only did the police officers' actions fail. Even their supervisor was arrested ...

Hearing this, the director was also stunned for a moment. Never in his wildest dreams did he expect that Wu Tian would have such power to be able to do such a thing.

This was not the same conclusion as their previous investigation. Everyone thought that he was just a rich business owner, who would have thought that he had the backing of the military? This time, he really met someone he couldn't afford to offend.

However, he had already done what he had to do. At this moment, it was too late for him to regret. He could only continue to persevere. The director angrily kicked something on the side, but gritted his teeth and decided to persevere.

The moment he entered the office, he sat on the chair and looked at the door in a daze, wondering what he should do next. At this moment, Yuan Jingwen suddenly pushed the door open without knocking.

Yuan Jingwen gave the director a fright.

"Why don't you knock?"

The director was just about to get angry, but was shocked and lost his temper immediately. He immediately stood up and scolded Yuan Jingwen.

Yuan Jingwen felt wronged. Usually, she would come in this way but she had never seen the director say anything. However, she was suddenly scolded, so she must be feeling a bit upset.

"I'm sorry!" Yuan Jingwen left the room, closing the door behind her. She knocked lightly on the door and walked in again.

"Come in, what's the matter? If you have anything to say, you'd better say it quickly. "

The director didn't have a good attitude and didn't even bother to look at Yuan Jingwen.

Yuan Jingwen felt upset. She didn't think that she had done anything wrong. How did she end up with such a treatment all of a sudden? However, since he was the leader, there was nothing Yuan Jingwen could say. She was just a subordinate, so she should still take care of her leader's thoughts.

"It's like this. We investigated the financial report again and found that there weren't any major problems. It would be a little difficult to find trouble for them in this area ..."

"You said so much just to give me the bad news?"

The director's expression was clearly not friendly. At this moment, his lungs were about to explode from anger. Since she was here to report, couldn't she say something nice?

Even now, she still dared to say such a thing. It was truly shocking.

"Director, you requested that any progress be reported. I think we should report this to you if we don't make any headway, in case you make a mistake. "

At this time, Yuan Jingwen also became stubborn. She felt that she did not do anything wrong, so she did not need to be scolded.

However, when she replied, it was immediately taken as a retort. Not only had she refuted her leader, but she might even deliberately embarrass the director.

"What are you saying? Do you mean to say that without you, I wouldn't be able to make the right judgment? "

The director had been very angry about this matter, but Yuan Jingwen's words immediately pierced his wound.

He misjudged Wu Tian and now that Yuan Jingwen was still provoking him, he exploded on the spot.

"Get out!"

The director only looked at Yuan Jingwen at the door and suddenly started shouting curses.

Yuan Jingwen could hardly believe her eyes as she looked at her superior in front of her.

She had never seen this director curse like this before. Perhaps he was usually very strict with others, but in front of Yuan Jingwen, he was always kind and considerate.

Even Yuan Jingwen herself had always admired this director. But now, the director's sudden outburst had shattered all these beautiful hopes into nothingness.

"You ..." Yuan Jingwen was momentarily at a loss for words. She didn't know what to say, so she angrily turned around to leave. But at this moment, the director suddenly caught up and grabbed Yuan Jingwen.

Yuan Jingwen was surprised. She thought the director had found out about his mistake and wanted to apologize. However, when she turned around, she found that the Director was staring at Yuan Jingwen maliciously.

"I've already felt that something was wrong with you. From now on, I'll formally warn you. Don't forget that I helped you before! You must be completely at my command. If you want to act on your own, I tell you, you bear all the consequences yourself. "

The director's voice became sinister, and Yuan Jingwen's eyes turned from puzzled to frightened.

Why hadn't she thought of that before? Now the Director knew her negative news. What ability and leverage did she have to fight against this Commissioner?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1158 - Leading Bird

C1158 Leading Bird

She walked out of the director's office with a dejected look on her face. Yuan Jingwen had been so excited, but now she looked completely dejected.

She had never thought that things would turn out like this. This had already completely exceeded Yuan Jingwen's expectations.

However, Yuan Jingwen herself had no way to do anything about it.

When the director mentioned that incident, Yuan Jingwen immediately thought of that night.

She thought of her own brother, his pleas.

She had her own family, and she had her own love.

But it was because of this that she was now chained to the director's side.

Even if she had been strangled to the point that she couldn't breathe, even if she was covered in red marks, Yuan Jingwen had no way to fight back against this.

Unless she didn't want her own brother and home anymore, she would be able to leave this Director for real.

Before that, all Yuan Jingwen could do was to do nothing.

She could only follow the director's orders and do whatever he wanted her to do.

In the morning of the second day, Yuan Jingwen brought a pile of documents over to Flower Island.

This was an important task that the director had assigned to her. She had to give Wu Tian an ultimatum no matter what.

To put it bluntly, regardless of whether Wu Tian was willing or not, he had to fulfill the terms of the contract.

Yuan Jingwen knew that it wouldn't be that easy, and she also knew what had happened in the past.

If she angered Wu Tian, perhaps even Yuan Jingwen's own safety wouldn't be guaranteed.

The Commissioner did this because he was worried about his own safety, so he pushed Yuan Jingwen out.

This man was really narrow-minded. Yuan Jingwen sighed. She was now doubtful as to why she would have a good impression of this man back then.

People like beautiful people. People only look at one person from the surface.

When they arrived at the entrance, Yuan Jingwen stood at the entrance of the Flower Island, a little nervous as she looked at the heavily armed Security Team practitioners at the entrance.

Those guns were real guns, and the day before, they had been pointed at his colleague's head.

"What do you do?"

She looked like a woman in uniform. The Security Team Practitioners were not as rough as they were towards other people, their voices softer.

"That... I came to visit Wu Tian. "

Yuan Jingwen's voice was low and she looked a little timid.

"You can go in!"

Unexpectedly, the Security Team Disciple didn't obstruct Yuan Jingwen a little this time. They could also tell that this girl couldn't possibly pose any threat to Wu Tian. She also didn't have any weapons on her.

Judging from her movements and limbs, she didn't seem like a powerful agent.

It was because of the above reasons that Security Team thought that Yuan Jingwen was safe, so they let her in.

The matter was so simple. Many times, things that everyone thought were very complicated were dealt with in such a rough and simple manner.

Yuan Jingwen trembled as she crossed the floating bridge. When she finally stepped onto the Flower Island, she couldn't help but be stunned by the scene in front of her eyes.

In this place, other things aside, the scenery was truly amazing.

Compared to the 5-star scenery, it was not inferior in any way. Furthermore, it was very quiet. Even though there were people walking around, there was a sense of peace and harmony.

It was extremely harmonious, and that was the first thought that popped into Yuan Jingwen's mind.

It was completely different from the hustle and bustle outside. There didn't seem to be any quarrel here, but it was also full of passion. It was simply a perfect workstation.

The people who can work here are really happy... Remembering that she had been scolded previously, Yuan Jingwen suddenly felt envious of these employees.

The environment was so good and the facilities so convenient. Furthermore, the salary of the employees of Wu Group Corporation was surprisingly high as well.

How could anyone not be envious?

However, she still had to do her own thing. Yuan Jingwen asked around and finally got to Wu Tian's office bit by bit.

She looked at the words 'chairman's office' written on the door. She was still a little nervous.

"That ..."

Just as she was hesitating on whether she should knock on the door, the sound of high heels came from the side, echoing on the floor.

Soon after, a tall and graceful woman appeared beside Yuan Jingwen. She put her mouth close to Yuan Jingwen's ear.

"You came to find Wu Tian?"

Yuan Jingwen jumped in fright. She quickly turned her head to see a beautiful woman standing in front of her. She looked familiar ...

Looking again, isn't this Huang Lan, who often appears on TV? That famous star!

Yuan Jingwen felt a chill run down her spine. She hadn't expected to see Huang Lan here ...

"Go in, what are you standing here for?"

Yuan Jingwen immediately went to pull the door handle, pushed the door open and entered, pulling Yuan Jingwen along with her.

Yuan Jingwen waved her hands repeatedly. She felt a little embarrassed and directly rushed in. Would Wu Tian be angry?

But before she could react, he was already dragged in by Huang Lan.

At this moment, Wu Tian was lying on the table and sleeping lazily ... Hearing some movement, he raised his head in a daze.

"What, the two of you together?"

Wu Tian had a puzzled expression on his face. Huang Lan and Yuan Jingwen had no relationship at all ...

It was indeed hard to figure out why both of them would appear in front of him at the same time.

"There's nothing strange about it. This girl is standing at the door and doesn't dare to come in, so I brought her in."

Huang Lan smiled. She looked at Yuan Jingwen's uniform and knew that she was from the Gong family. Therefore, she must have something to discuss with Wu Tian.

"If you have anything to say, then hurry up and talk. I won't disturb you any longer."

With that, Huang Lan walked out of the room with a smile. She even kissed Wu Tian on the way out.

Facing Wu Tian now, Yuan Jingwen was no longer calm and confident like before. She could only feel nervousness.

"This doesn't seem like you. You didn't seem like such a weak person before."

Wu Tian also noticed that something was wrong with Yuan Jingwen's situation. Previously, when she was facing him, she was like a little lion cub. Although her body wasn't big, she still had the courage to bite people.

But now, all of her teeth had been pulled out. Not to mention biting, she didn't even dare to open her mouth.

Yuan Jingwen seemed to have realized that her current state was not good. She hurriedly took a deep breath and adjusted her mood ...

"President Wu, I came here to discuss some matters regarding the contract. According to the regulations of the Investment Promotion Department of our company, as well as the terms and conditions we signed with you previously ..."

"Alright, I know what you're going to say. You want me to take responsibility, right?"

Wu Tian immediately knew what she was going to do when he heard her. She was just using this to pressure him and force him to admit it.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1159 - Dispirited Mind

C1159 Dispirited Mind

Wu Tian was already mentally prepared for this kind of thing. Before Yuan Jingwen finished her sentence, he directly expressed his attitude.

"Impossible."

Yuan Jingwen didn't have any time to react to these exceptionally firm words, nor did she have any chance to retort.

"I can't accept you two saying that Baili Zhenlin failed. "If you can give me tangible evidence to convince me, I won't go back on my word."

The most important thing for a businessman was their integrity, and Wu Tian was no exception.

"I will approve every single word in black and white of the contract I signed! However, this kind of method really makes me feel very unhappy, unless you find Baili Zhenlin and take out the evidence of his investment failure. "

Wu Tian was adamant about this matter. Even if he said he wouldn't, it wouldn't be an exaggeration to say so.

After all, he was the one who was responsible for the guarantee, and it was inevitable that he would ask for evidence.

However, this was exactly what Yuan Jingwen and the others were worrying about right now.

It was precisely because she couldn't provide it that she had to think of all sorts of ways to make things difficult for Wu Tian.

In the end, she didn't expect that she would be put in a difficult position. This was what the rumors called lifting a rock to smash her foot.

Yuan Jingwen stammered, but she couldn't say anything.

To tell the truth, such a thing was akin to making people deliberately take the blame. Other than emphasizing the importance of regulations and laws over and over again, it could not say anything.

"You, you're just a person who has a grudge against us. What's the point of you?"

Wu Tian saw through it with a glance. Yuan Jingwen was definitely not the mastermind and schemer of this incident, but she was the main executor. This so-called executor was actually a scapegoat. If something really happened, the responsibility would be on her.

However, the real people who obtained benefits were secretly doing nothing. This was idiocy.

Yuan Jingwen felt wronged when she heard Wu Tian's words. How could she not know about the content of the letter? But she was powerless to help.

"That... Let's end the conversation here. I will come back to visit President Wu later. "

Yuan Jingwen left the room dejectedly. She dragged her feet and left the building bit by bit. At this moment, the scenery outside the Flower Island was not that attractive to the onlookers.

Suddenly, her world seemed to darken as it began to darken. Everywhere she looked, it was all black and white ...

"What's the point of me living?"

Step by step, Yuan Jingwen walked to the shore. The waves continuously lapped at the shore beside Flower Island, and the sound of the waves reached Yuan Jingwen's heart from her ears.

Looking at the sea, Yuan Jingwen suddenly felt like she really wanted to go in and see for herself. She really wanted to know what was in the sea.

She took a step forward, to the edge of the bank, and was about to take a step into the air when the phone rang and pulled her back from her reverie.

"Director ..."

This was probably the call she didn't want to receive right now.

"How is the situation?"

The director's tone was still not friendly, which made Yuan Jingwen very nervous.

"He asked us to provide evidence that the investment failed so he would accept our penalty request ..."

Yuan Jingwen said nervously. She knew this reason wouldn't satisfy the director, but this was her only outcome of the conversation.

The current her didn't have the ability to force Wu Tian to submit.

"To send you out to do some work, are you going to do this for me? What are you doing!"

The director angrily scolded her again, but at the end of the sentence, he might have felt the silence from the other end of the phone.

He adjusted his tone and returned to his usual friendliness and calmness.

"I'm sorry, but my emotions were a bit unstable just now. You should know about the recent situation as well. I'm very anxious. It's fine, you can come back first."

Hearing him change his mood like changing his face ... Yuan Jingwen suddenly hung up the phone.

What dog-shit leader, what dog-shit director, she herself was nothing but a dog in front of him. He wanted to be good to her when she was good to him, to be good to him when she was bad to him when his face was different from his to her body.

Why did she have to go through all this messed up stuff on her own ... The more Yuan Jingwen thought about it, the more she felt wronged. Looking at the sea, she jumped straight into it.

On the shore, the sound of falling water was almost instantly drowned out by the sound of the waves.

It was completely silent, as if nothing had happened. The Flower Island employees were still busy with their own things, and no one noticed that on the side of this remote river bank, someone had actually fallen into the water.

At this moment, Wu Tian directly jumped out of the window. It was already too late for him to walk through the door.

Others didn't see it, but he had seen it clearly.

He saw Yuan Jingwen jump down from the sea with his own eyes, but he didn't know what this girl was thinking. Even if she was under pressure, she shouldn't be so anxious ...

Wu Tian didn't know what he was scolding, but seeing the girl commit suicide made him feel uncomfortable.

Had he forced her? She might have her own mission, and he must have put a lot of pressure on her. Wu Tian immediately felt that he might have overdone it.

After all, she was just little girl. Although it was a bit strange, she was still an ordinary person and couldn't ask for too much.

Wu Tian broke into someone else's house and threatened her. Then on his mission, he put a lot of pressure on little girl. The more he thought about it, the more he felt like he had become a bad guy too.

However, he was quite fast. He ran to the shore in a few seconds. Wu Tian stood there and looked into the sea. There were some papers and documents floating on the sea. It seemed that she had indeed jumped into the sea.

However, he could not find Yuan Jingwen's figure ... The seawater was different from ordinary water. The water's buoyancy was quite large.

Although it could drown people, as long as you didn't struggle and avoid being entangled by anything, you would basically be floating.

Wu Tian calculated from the moment he saw her jump into the sea, it only took him a few seconds to run to the shore.

People can't die in such a short period of time ... But thinking about how there would be a lot of seaweed at the bottom of this sea...

Yuan Jingwen might have been entangled by seaweed, so she might not be able to float to the surface.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian took off his shoes and swam in without hesitation.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1160 - Short-sightedness

C1160 Short-sightedness

His life was in danger, so he had to put everything else aside.

Wu Tian's water quality was still alright. In the past, his swimming skills weren't very good, but ever since he started training, his body's physical strength had far surpassed that of an ordinary person's.

He held his breath in the water. He could swim for more than ten minutes at a time. This was something that ordinary people could not do.

Wu Tian swam back and forth in the sea. This sea was actually not calm at all. The waves came and went, and the atmosphere under the sea was very heavy.

The seaweed and kelp were like a forest, densely packed. He pushed away with his hand every step of the way.

It seemed like it was time to clean up this sea, Wu Tian decided as he swam. No matter what, such a thing could not happen again.

After searching for a few minutes, Wu Tian started to get anxious.

He could not find Yuan Jingwen's figure at all, which was strange. She had obviously jumped down from this area, so how could he not find her?

Wu Tian floated up to the surface of the water. He looked at the direction of this place and the direction of the seawater flow.

Wu Tian immediately swam over when he noticed that the documents were all heading towards the southeast.

If there were no surprises, perhaps Yuan Jingwen had been pushed southeast by the sea breeze.

"President Wu, what happened to you?"

At this time, the Security Team staff also discovered that something was amiss on the shore, so they hurriedly ran over.

When they saw Wu Tian flopping around in the water, they thought Wu Tian might have drowned.

At this moment, Wu Tian couldn't care so much. He saw that there seemed to be a uniform color in the seawater in front.

Thus, he fiercely rushed over. As expected, when she dived into the water, Yuan Jingwen's feet were entangled by a kelp and there was no movement from her as she floated in the water.

Wu Tian rushed towards the sea and carried Yuan Jingwen out of the sea.

At this time, the Security Team Enforcers arrived on kayaks as well. They carried Yuan Jingwen onto the boat in a fluster.

Fortunately, these people had all trained for first aid, so they quickly pressed Yuan Jingwen's chest and squeezed out the water from her lungs.

"Quick, quick, send her to the infirmary!"

Wu Tian urged them anxiously. He didn't want anyone to die here, not because he was afraid of bad luck, but because he felt that this girl was pretty good. There was really no need for him to commit suicide for such a messed up thing.

After an unknown period of time, Yuan Jingwen suddenly woke up from her state of being floating in the sea.

She knew that she had fallen into the water, because this was her own choice.

Jumping into the water and then being submerged by the sea was the only thing Yuan Jingwen could think of that would free her.

She really did not want to be controlled by this Chief anymore. She could not let that matter hold her back for the rest of her life.

However, Yuan Jingwen had no way to fight back. The only thing she could do was to give up her own life.

Only in this way would the Chief give up on the idea of threatening others because he no longer had someone he could threaten.

Her family and her younger brother would be protected by Yuan Jingwen's decision.

The only thing she sacrificed was her insignificant life.

Was she in heaven?

There was a ticking sound in her ear. Yuan Jingwen slowly opened her eyes and found that the ceiling was white, the walls were white, and even the blanket she was wearing was white.

Even the people beside him who were constantly walking around wore white clothes.

It seemed like she was indeed in heaven.

Yuan Jingwen's vision was still blurry, but she remembered watching the images of heaven on TV. They were all bright and white, matching her current environment.

"She's awake."

A nurse said in surprise. At this moment, everyone gathered around. A look of curiosity was written all over Yuan Jingwen's face.

Some doctors quickly checked her pulse and temperature and let out a long breath.

"Whether she's awake or not, I don't know if she can still speak. Such a long period of hypoxia might cause permanent damage to the brain. "

Hearing these words, Yuan Jingwen suddenly felt as if she wasn't in heaven, why did she feel so familiar, it was as if she was in a hospital.

She tried her best to open her eyes, but her upper and lower eyelids couldn't budge. It was as if they were glued to her.

"How is she, is she better? When can she wake up?"

At this time, Wu Tian walked into the ward from the outside. From the sound of the ward, he thought something was wrong with Yuan Jingwen, so he rushed in to check.

"She seemed to have woken up just now. Perhaps she has fallen asleep again. If nothing goes wrong, the possibility of her regaining consciousness is rather high."

The doctor briefly described the situation. In any case, this was the best possible outcome.

An average person would have suffocated for several minutes under such circumstances. If there were no accidents, they would be dead for sure. Unless those who had gone through special training were able to survive.

Yuan Jingwen, who was about to fall asleep again, instantly woke up when she heard Wu Tian's voice. It was as if an electric shock had struck her brain.

She's not dead? He was even saved by Wu Tian?

Yuan Jingwen couldn't care about how tired and tired she was right now. She opened her eyes with great effort and looked at the people in front of her. Sure enough, Wu Tian was beside her.

"Why is it you ..."

"Why can't it be me? Is that how you speak to your savior? "

Wu Tian was full of smiles. Since she could speak, it meant that Yuan Jingwen was fine.

Yuan Jingwen let out a long sigh. Although she was weak right now, she had a lot of things she wanted to tell Wu Tian.

"Let them all out, I have something to say to you."

Yuan Jingwen waved her hand weakly. She didn't want a third person to hear those words.

The doctors and nurses left the room without Wu Tian's order and closed the door.

"I was threatened. It was my director who forced me to do it. He planned all this."

Yuan Jingwen finally revealed some of the information that Wu Tian wanted to know. In the past, she probably wouldn't have thought that she would ever betray the Division Chief.

"Then I can probably guess that this really has nothing to do with you."

The truth was not that important anymore. Wu Tian knew the other party's goal and their methods, but the only problem was that the other party had sufficient reasons and a legal basis for doing so.

Wu Tian might not be able to gain the upper hand in this matter if he were to take on these issues with his life on the line.
