

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1201 - Interrogation of Prisoners

C1201 Interrogation of Prisoners

Although their hearts were full of doubts, in order to achieve their goal, Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng still followed the example of these believers and also knelt and kowtowed.

And the so-called bishop up there, he's preaching his sermon without any shame.

In short, he kept on talking nonsense, and Wu Tian was not in the mood to listen. He just moved along with Luo Huaicheng in the crowd, wanting to see if they could find their target.

However, there were too many people here, and they were all densely packed with human heads. Finding one's target here was no different from finding a needle in a haystack.

The so-called bishop's speech continued, but the content had changed to raising money from the believers.

This was the so-called eleventh tax, to be paid to the so-called church as a tenth of his income.

Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng were stunned hearing this, but the most important point was that these believers also listened to this so-called Sect Leader's request.

All of a sudden, they lined up and squeezed forward with their own money, eager to donate their own money.

Wu Tian quickly pulled a young man beside him. He looked like he was in his twenties. Wu Tian felt that he should be an educated person, why would he listen to these rumors?

"May I ask why did you donate ..."

Wu Tian couldn't help but be curious. Although his way of asking was a bit abrupt, he didn't have the time to care about that at the moment.

"Needless to say, this is all for our blessings in the future, to clear our past sins. Don't you know that we were born guilty? "

Wu Tian was confused by the question, but soon realized that it was a doctrine promoted by the Church.

Through this so-called anxiety and the desire to get something without working hard, it was bewitching.

"Dammit, aren't these people too despicable? For money, they can do whatever they want ..."

Luo Huaicheng really looked down on this kind of person. Honestly speaking, this kind of person should be directly dragged into the police station and arrested. He didn't know why Police Station actually didn't care at all.

"They probably can't handle it now. Plus, based on the current situation, as long as there's no murder, the police won't come here."

Wu Tian knew that Sunn Hongsheng and co. lacked energy and didn't have the energy to manage this.

The only choice was to first use good steel on the blade, and then resolve the great negative effects caused by the Biochemical Man.

The two of them followed the crowd and continued walking forward, gradually getting into an inconspicuous corner. Since they couldn't find any useful information in the small square, Wu Tian and Long Haicheng prepared to go elsewhere.

While they were resting on the side, Wu Tian heard someone talking in the alley behind them.

His voice wasn't very loud, but the content of his words made Wu Tian care very much.

"The money this time should be around one to two million. It's not a lot, but it should be enough for you to use for a while."

"Fuck, we are already very tired now since we are avoiding their daily search. You are actually using this little money to fool me?"

The other voice seemed to be very unhappy and was not very satisfied with the number.

As Wu Tian listened, he carefully walked over and prepared to take a look.

Luo Huaicheng didn't know what Wu Tian was interested in, so he looked at him strangely.

"There's nothing we can do about this. We've already called for a call twice this week. It used to be once a month, but we really can't afford it anymore ..."

The people who were preparing the funds also seemed to have a hard time doing it. Some things were not as simple as they seemed.

However, the other person did not care about his mess. He immediately slapped him.

"I'm telling you, I won't care about this. If you don't have money, why did Brilliant Company send us here?"

When they heard up to here, Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng's eyes opened wide. They never thought that they could actually hear the two words "Brilliant Company" here.

They immediately knew that these two were definitely related to the Biochemical Man, and from the way they said it, it seemed like this so-called cult was also helping to raise funds for the Biochemical Man's movement.

If that was the case, Wu Tian suddenly understood that one of the main reasons why these Biochemical Man were so hard to find in the city was because someone was helping them.

With this kind of person, no matter how hard Wu Tian and the others try, they would be unable to effectively organize and stop them.

When the conversation between the two people was almost over, the person who collected the money still kept the money even though he didn't think it was enough.

Just when that person was about to leave, Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng immediately rushed up and covered his mouth, then led him to a small, empty room.

This place was very remote, and there didn't seem to be anyone that had come here.

The two of them took off his mask and realised that he was the person who tried to contact the Biochemical Man.

"We're really lucky."

Wu Tian and Luo Haicheng looked at each other and smiled. They originally thought that they were looking for a needle in a haystack, but who would've thought that they actually bumped into one?

The guy looked nervous. He wasn't British, he was a pure Chinese. Regardless of whether it was his words, appearance or various aspects, he had revealed this point without exception.

"You are ..."

The man knew he was being kidnapped because Wu Tian had tied him up with a piece of cloth he had found in the room.

"Don't care who we are, you will answer whatever I ask you. Otherwise, just wait for your death!"

Wu Tian's threat was very simple and crude. He only did one thing and this guy obediently shut his mouth. He also gave up on shouting for help.

Wu Tian walked over from the side and lightly pulled down the leg on the stool.

You know, this stool is a piece of metal...

This move scared the guy in front of him silly. He nodded his head to show that he was willing to cooperate.

"Say it, who is behind all of you?"

Wu Tian smiled as he looked at the captive. The leg of the chair in his hand continuously tapped on his palm.

"This ..."

The other party hesitated for a moment. It seemed like he didn't want to say it. However, he looked at Wu Tian and felt that Wu Tian was even more terrifying.

"I say, I say ... I am just an ordinary person, I just know that there is a company with Britain behind it, I really don't know anything else. "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1202 - Be Caught in a Tight Encirclement

C1202 Be Caught in a Tight Encirclement

Wu Tian obviously knew everything he said, so he didn't care about that.

"The company's name, and how many people are currently in S City?"

At this moment, Wu Tian was like a professional police officer, constantly questioning.

However, this unlucky guy was hesitating to speak. It was as if he was always hiding something, making people feel extremely displeased.

Seeing that, Wu Tian used his chair leg to hit him.

He completely subdued this guy because his face had swelled up and his right cheek was blown up like a balloon.

There were a few broken teeth that were bleeding from the corner of his mouth, making it difficult for him to speak.

"I'm not joking with you, and I'm telling you very clearly. I'm not afraid that you won't say anything, but in the future, even if you wanted to say something, you might not have the chance."

Wu Tian looked at this person coldly. What he said was not a joke. With Erniu's existence, even if this person didn't say anything, Erniu could still read this information directly from his mind.

Therefore, torturing someone to confess was just a formality for Wu Tian, so he was too lazy to actually do it.

"I say, I say ... The company seems to be called Brilliant Company, and I heard that it used to be very rich, but I don't know why they have already taken out some money, that's why they asked me to come to this place to raise funds. "

As she sobbed, she said these words with regret in her heart. If only she had been completely cooperative just now, she wouldn't have had to suffer so much.

"What's the matter with this church? What does it have to do with this Brilliant Company?"

Wu Tian didn't think that Brilliant Company had already extended their hands to this place, but from the sound of it, it seemed that Wu Tian blowing up their base was a devastating blow to the bus company.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have made such a desperate choice. Thinking about it, Wu Tian also calmed down a little.

"This church seems to have been founded by someone from Brilliant Company. I don't even know the specifics ..."

He was only a small fry among them, and the truth of what he knew was limited.

"Someone's coming from over there. It seems like their meeting has ended already."

Luo Huaicheng had been keeping an eye out of the window all this time, so he quickly came back to report to Wu Tian when he saw the situation outside.

Wu Tian nodded to Luo Huaicheng. He looked at the guy in front of him again and fell into deep thought.

The two of them should have retreated, but what about this guy in front of them?

If he had killed him, he would not have committed such a heinous crime. He really shouldn't have done that. At any rate, it could have been his life.

However, if they let him go, this guy would inform the enemies in the blink of an eye. At that time, Wu Tian and the others would be in an even more passive position.

"How about we knock him out?"

Luo Huaicheng could see Wu Tian's worry. At this moment, they didn't have many choices.

"No, let me think."

Wu Tian shook his head. It was not safe. Who knew when he would wake up? If he woke up earlier, Wu Tian and the others would still be in danger ...

"Then what should we do?"

Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng were both in a daze. At this moment, a loud vibration came from inside the room followed by a series of sirens.

Both of them jumped in fright and quickly ran over to check.

He discovered that the guy that was tied up just now had actually broken free from the restraints inside his hand. He didn't know where he was shaking a hand held alarm.

The voice came from his portable alarm. It was too loud, and it just so happened that the worshippers had scattered and there were quite a few people around.

Hearing this sound, many people looked over. They all picked up their weapons and carefully moved closer.

"F * ck!"

Wu Tian cursed. He never expected this guy to have such a trick up his sleeve.

"Run!"

Luo Huaicheng poked Wu Tian without a word. Then, he opened the back door and the two directly went out through the back door.

"Capture those two!"

Some sharp-eyed followers saw Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng and immediately pointed at them while shouting. At that moment, the surrounding followers quickly rushed towards them like a flood.

Layers upon layers of people began to surround them from the outside.

Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng, the two of them. Although they had the ability to fight with them, there were too many people. There were only two of them and there were over a thousand of them.

The most terrifying thing was that when Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng were running away, someone actually took out a bow and arrow and shot them.

"Why do they still have weapons?" Wu Tian's jaw immediately dropped. He originally knew that the China did not allow guns to appear in the public, so the moment he found out, it would be a serious crime.

However, this sort of cold weapon was a rather vague and indistinct weapon. Even so, its destructive power still remained.

Hundreds of years ago, he was able to smoothly kill someone, and hundreds of years later, he was able to do the same.

"What's going on?"

"There's no time to say it, hurry up and run!"

The two of them madly ran inside the shack. Fortunately, their hands and feet were relatively agile as they continuously jumped back and forth on the rooftop.

Although the followers could also chase them closely, they could not be as nimble as Wu Tian and the others.

It was just that this shantytown was a bit big. It was not easy to escape from this area, which was thousands of square meters.

Moreover, the followers on the outside had already formed a circle with all kinds of bows, swords, spears, and other weapons. They were constantly moving towards the inside and would probably collide with Wu Tian and the others in around ten to twenty seconds.

"This won't do, if this goes on, we won't be able to do anything ..." Seeing the current situation, Wu Tian felt that it was impossible for them to succeed in escaping, so he stopped and prepared to think of another way.

"Even so, we can't not run!"

Luo Huaicheng's thoughts were not that complicated. He only knew that if he was caught by these people, he might lose his life. This sort of coordination didn't care about the law. If someone really died here, no one would call the police.

Wu Tian looked around and suddenly seemed to see a person wearing purple in the family. He was obviously different from the other believers.

At this moment, Wu Tian suddenly remembered that the Sect Leader who spoke on stage previously seemed to be hiding such a purple shirt under the dress. Could this guy be the Sect Leader?

Thinking about this, Wu Tian suddenly had an idea. He patted Luo Huaicheng on the shoulder and said to him, "Help me attract firepower here. I'll be right back!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1203 - Catch the Thief First and Capture the King First

C1203 Catch the Thief First and Capture the King First

With that, Wu Tian didn't care about Luo Huaicheng's expression, nor did he care about Luo Huaicheng's protest. He just turned around and ran away.

He slipped from the roof into the alley and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

However, the target of the followers was still Luo Huaicheng. They didn't really care about losing a single person.

Luo Huaicheng immediately continued to run. A large group of people gathered behind him like numerous hunters chasing after a prey.

Under the shadow of the roof of the shantytown, Wu Tian cleverly evaded these believers and then quietly went behind them.

This guy had gotten a set of clothes from who knows where. He dressed up like a bunch of other believers. Then, he quietly approached the purple-clothed man.

This guy was not in the front line, but was hiding in a tall tower. He seemed to be giving orders right now.

Wu Tian passed by without a change in expression. No one questioned him along the way because many people hurried in and out, probably thinking that Wu Tian was one of them.

It had to be said that the strange clothes these people wore helped Wu Tian a lot because they were wearing a tunic and a beige mask that revealed only their eyes.

Therefore, Wu Tian couldn't see their faces clearly, nor could they see Wu Tian's face clearly. As long as they didn't talk, no one would know who they were.

After climbing up the tower, Wu Tian walked step by step towards the Hierarch. He didn't have a weapon in his hand, so he just stood to the side and pretended to be the Hierarch's follower.

At this time, another person, who was dressed the same as Wu Tian, walked over. He looked at Wu Tian strangely. He probably felt that it was against their rules for someone to appear here.

"If you don't catch up with our enemies and give them the divine punishment, what are you doing here?"

He scolded Wu Tian harshly, which immediately attracted the Sect Leader's attention.

He turned around and looked at his companion and smiled, "It's alright, we're all on the same side. He's probably worried about my safety as well."

When Wu Tian heard that this Sect Leader was still trying to excuse him, his heart was filled with joy as he nodded his head.

It would be too much of a waste if he didn't take advantage of the opportunity his opponent had created for him.

"Right, right, right ..."

"It's enough for me to be here alone! Hurry up and go, don't let me see you again!
"Otherwise ..."

Perhaps because he felt that his words were not threatening enough, this follower immediately pulled out a short knife from his waist. The patterns on the knife were very exquisite, and there seemed to be some bloodstains on the pipe.

Wu Tian's eyes swept the short knife back and forth. He was just worried that he didn't have a weapon, yet the other party took out such a ...

Thinking about this, Wu Tian suddenly reached out his hand to grab the follower's wrist without saying anything, causing him to be unable to grab the knife in his hand.

His hand loosened, and Wu Tian immediately caught the knife from the bottom, then backhanded hit the back of the bucket with the knife on the neck. He immediately fainted.

At this moment, the Sect Leader was using his binoculars to look at Luo Huaicheng, and he was using the walkie-talkie in his hand to direct them. He didn't even notice the situation behind them.

Only when Wu Tian touched the blade of the sword to Wu Tian's neck did the Hierarch feel a wave of coldness close to his skin.

"What are you doing ..."

The Sect Leader's entire body trembled. Even though he was usually extremely powerful, his life was still the most important at a time like this.

"What are you doing? Tell your men to stop? Otherwise, you know that the blade in my hand is merciless."

Wu Tian said sinisterly. He even waved the knife in his hand, leaving a bloody mark on the Hierarch's neck.

Seeing the pain in his neck, the Sect Leader was immediately terrified. He originally wanted to use his prestige to scare Wu Tian, but it seemed that the idea was not realistic.

"Alright, you can put down the saber first. I'll tell them to stop moving right now!"

The Hierarch was trembling in fear. His face no longer held the majesty it had shown to guard the Hierarch. He looked no different from a dog.

Wu Tian ignored him and just slashed his chest again with his knife. He didn't dare to say anything else. He immediately picked up the walkie-talkie and shouted into it.

It had to be said that the sect leader's prohibition was quite good. These people had actually all stopped.

Seeing this, Luo Huaicheng was very curious, because he didn't know why these people suddenly stopped chasing him. He looked back and saw Wu Tian waving at him from the distant tower.

Luo Huaicheng wasn't an idiot, he understood what was going on when he saw Ye Zichen took a hostage with a knife in his hand.

Therefore, he also quickly ran over. Due to the Sect Leader's order, although the believers were glaring at Luo Huaicheng, no one dared to stop him.

"Let's go. With this guy here, they won't dare to do anything to us!"

Wu Tian held the High Priestess hostage as he walked step by step with Luo Huaicheng towards the outskirts of the shantytown.

As long as they left this area, the two of them would be safe.

Based on the current situation, these believers would not easily leave the shanty district.

Seeing that their own church was being led out, the followers immediately gathered on the main road that led away from the shanty housing area, blocking him completely. They wanted to use this method to stop Wu Tian's advance.

However, the knife in Wu Tian's hand wouldn't let these things happen. It was just that after slicing on this Sect Leader's body again, he immediately dispersed these people.

"Luo Huaicheng, go get a car!"

Wu Tian ordered Luo Huaicheng while holding the Sect Leader hostage.

"Don't worry about that!"

As Luo Huaicheng spoke, he picked up a brick and threw it towards a car.

The window of the car shattered and Luo Huaicheng successfully got into the car. Within two minutes, the car was on fire.

Seeing that the time was ripe for them to escape, Wu Tian knocked the back of the Hierarch's neck a few times, knocked him unconscious, then dragged the two of them into the car and sped away while carrying him on his shoulder.

Along the way, Luo Huaicheng fled the port area with a speed of 180 miles. He was going to head towards the city center. He would have to hand this over to Sun Hongsheng and the others for investigation and trial later.

He could not let this cult continue to wreak havoc in this place.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 1204 - Half-way Kill

C1204 Half-way Kill

However, halfway to the car, two people suddenly appeared on the road. One of them was a burly man who was bare-chested. He punched the ground with his fist.

All of a sudden, the asphalt on the road was smashed apart with a single punch. The road became extremely rugged and rugged, making it impossible for him to continue forward.

And Wu Tian's car had to be forced to stop in this kind of situation.

"What's going on?"

Wu Tian felt that something was not right in front of him, so he leaned his body out of the car and looked ahead.

The enemy saw Wu Tian at first glance, but in the next second, a rock shot towards Wu Tian like a cannonball.

Luckily, Wu Tian was able to dodge in time. Otherwise, his upper body would have been smashed into meat paste.

"There's an enemy!"

Wu Tian didn't have time to explain himself. He turned around and shouted at Luo Huaicheng, then he kicked the door open and jumped out.

Because a bigger rock had been thrown directly at their car.

With a loud rumble, the car they were sitting on had almost been smashed into scrap iron. In this pile of scrap iron, blood and a burst of white stuff flowed down, and the smell of blood permeated the air.

The two of them did manage to escape death, but the unconscious Sect Leader in the backseat should be dead by now.

However, Wu Tian didn't have the time to care about this person at this moment because the two Biochemical Man s on the road were constantly throwing things at Wu Tian and the others.

This sudden development caused the surrounding people to scatter in all directions. No one expected that such a situation would occur.

Wu Tian and Luo Huaicheng continuously dodged between the cars. Although they could not jump up and down, their attacking speed was far beyond their imagination.

"Damn, they should be here for revenge!"

Wu Tian was a bit unhappy. He didn't expect them to be so fast.

They had obviously just come out from the shanty town not long ago, could it be that they had already informed these Biochemical Man?

Those believers should not know about these Biochemical Man. Wu Tian thought about it and felt that the only person who could possibly do this was the one they investigated and contacted these Biochemical Man.

It must have been him who had notified the biochemical reformers at that time.

"The communication device on my body is broken! Can you still use that one? "

Luo Huaicheng felt that he had to ask for help after the incident, but no sound could come out from his communication device.

"I lost mine just now ..." Wu Tian also did not have anything left, but he was still wearing his exoskeleton Mecha, so he could still fight.

The enemy was two people, and they were also two people. Perhaps this was their fate.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian no longer hid and stood out. This way, it could reduce the heartache of ordinary innocent citizens.

He bounced off the ground and landed on the roof of the car, staring coldly at the two biochemical reformers in the distance.

When they saw Wu Tian appear, the thing in their hands stopped and stared coldly at Wu Tian.

Seeing that, Luo Huaicheng couldn't be discouraged, so he stood out behind Wu Tian.

A 2v2 was fair.

"I'll deal with the one on the left, you deal with the one on the right!"

Wu Tian made a simple distribution, but he did not let down his guard. He did not know what ability these two Biochemical Man possessed, so it was very possible that he would be in great danger if he recklessly cleared them out.

"Alright!"

Luo Huaicheng was eager to give it a try. After receiving the order, he jumped out and threw a punch towards his target.

Wu Tian, on the other hand, held the short knife that he had just snatched and rushed over with a big stride.

The two biochemical reformers looked at each other and smiled. One of them stood at the front, crossed his arms and coldly looked at Wu Tian's attack.

They had no intention of defending or dodging, as if they wanted to use their bodies to block their attacks.

Wu Tian felt that it was strange that he had never seen such a person before. However, upon second thought, since they were willing to do so, why wouldn't Wu Tian do it?

Luo Huaicheng's attack arrived in front of the Biochemical Man, but the moment he attacked, Wu Tian noticed that a translucent barrier seemed to suddenly appear in the air and then suddenly disappear.

However, Luo Huaicheng's fist hit the protective cover, then he was pushed back by the rebound force and fell to the ground.

They were prepared. Wu Tian immediately turned his body in the air and forcefully changed the direction of his slash.

He felt that this shield was not that simple, it could even deal damage to them.

Luo Huaicheng's attack just now was a living example.

When Wu Tian was hesitating, they immediately grabbed onto the plane. Before Wu Tian landed, they were unable to move their bodies due to the unstable movement. The Biochemical Man that acted as a shield in front of them immediately dodged to the side.

As for the Biochemical Man behind him, its cheeks were bulging like a toad's. Then, it breathed in a mouthful of black poisonous smoke towards Wu Tian.

"Poison!"

Wu Tian could smell a pungent smell from afar. He knew that if this graduate student hit him directly, he would probably be injured or dead.

Wu Tian couldn't dodge in the air so he quickly covered his nose and mouth.

The black smoke rushed towards Wu Tian and nearly made him pass out.

The moment he came out from the darkness, he kicked his head. The Biochemical Man seized the opportunity and attacked Wu Tian without any way of dodging.

The strength of the kick was so strong that even though Wu Tian was wearing the exoskeleton armor, he could clearly feel the huge impact that he had to endure.

Wu Tian was sent flying backwards, knocking Luo Huaicheng, who had just stood up, back into the wall.

These two opponents are a bit difficult to deal with...

Wu Tian was a bit unhappy, but he also knew that he couldn't care less about that at this moment. He had to get rid of these two people.

"Use our plan number two. Don't worry about them. We will annihilate the enemy at all costs!"

Wu Tian quickly helped Luo Huaicheng up. It was impossible for one of them to do this alone, so they had to do it at the same time.

Luo Huaicheng stretched his muscles a little. Although he looked a bit awkward just now, neither of them had sustained any injuries.

With the protection of the exoskeleton's armor, it was like he was wearing a thick layer of armor. Other than the impact from the impact, there were no other effects.
