Chapter 1211 - Exposure of the Mastermind

C1211 Exposure of the Mastermind

Based on the current situation, it was only a matter of time before these thugs were subdued.

For such a large-scale rebellion, it was impossible for the army to not intervene.

Soon, more than a dozen flares were launched from the outer perimeter, illuminating the entire sky.

Immediately after, the police officers with explosive shields surrounded him, step by step.

The heretics in the community panicked. Since there was no one to command them, they didn't know if they should move forward or run away.

The word "escape" no longer applied to them because all entrances and exits were sealed.

Seeing that the situation was settled, Wu Tian let out a long sigh and silently looked at the scene in front of him without saying anything.

Most of the thriving and thriving communities were burnt and destroyed by the great fire after this period of suffering. Although there were no casualties, the amount of losses alone was already incalculable ...

However, that's good too. If the old don't go to the new, then these houses will be destroyed and Wu Tian can build new ones.

At this moment, the police had already rushed down to arrest them. Although these thugs still wanted to fight back, their numbers were no longer an advantage.

Wu Tian suddenly felt that there was a familiar figure among the crowd. If he looked carefully, wasn't that the person who commanded the thugs before?

He was obviously killed by his own knife?

Wu Tian felt very confused, so he hastily jumped down from the roof and ran to catch up.

This time, in order to avoid being discovered by the enemy, he intentionally hid in the shadows and even took long detours from time to time.

Although this guy looked exactly the same as before, his figure seemed to have become skinnier, and he was also skinnier.

Even his movement speed had become slower than before.

Wu Tian caught up to him effortlessly, but he did not attack immediately.

Instead, he wanted to see what this person wanted to do.

The unlucky fellow found a burnt house and hid in a corner. He took out a phone from somewhere and nervously dialed a number.

"CEO, our army has been completely wiped out. The police are here!"

"Then pray for yourselves!"

"It can't be like this. CEO, you have to think of a way to save us!"

This fellow was desperately trying to call for help, but the other party simply hung up the phone and did not care about the lives of these unlucky bastards.

Hearing their conversation, Wu Tian immediately sneered in his heart. He deserved it.

In the end, those who committed evil deeds would be betrayed by those who committed evil deeds. In a sense, this could also be considered a cycle of karma.

At this moment, he wasn't hiding on the beam in his room anymore. He immediately jumped into the room, startling this fellow.

"If I remember correctly, I should have killed you once."

Wu Tian looked at the Biochemical Man in front of him with a smile. He started to suspect if this Biochemical Man had any special abilities.

"Please don't kill me, really don't kill me, I'll tell you everything, whatever you want to know, I'll tell you everything!"

He immediately kneeled on the ground and kowtowed towards Wu Tian. The continuous kowtows caused Wu Tian's forehead to be badly mutilated. However, this guy still didn't stop.

Wu Tian only felt a wave of disgust when he saw Ye Zichen submit.

Perhaps the civilians who had been killed by these people had done the same thing before they died and begged these thugs to spare them.

But did these Biochemical Man give anyone any form of forgiveness? Of course not.

There was not a single survivor, but anyone who heard or saw the murder scene was dead.

Wu Tian threw the knife in his hand in front of the man and said coldly, "Pick it up, I'll give you a chance."

The man picked up the knife in panic. His body was shaking as if he was scared and didn't know what Wu Tian wanted to do.

"Come, do you see this?"

Wu Tian said to the Biochemical Man as he pointed at his own chest.

"Take your knife and stab here. If you succeed, you can leave."

Wu Tian looked at the guy in front of him with a smile. He was willing to bet, don't look at how subservient he was before. However, once he had the opportunity, he would definitely not give up in front of him.

As expected, the Biochemical Man's eyes flashed with a vicious light. It was obvious that it felt that it had a chance to defeat Wu Tian.

With a loud roar, the Biochemical Man tightened its grip on the blade in its hand and pounced towards Wu Tian.

Wu Tian opened his arms wide as if he wanted to give him a hug. There was a smile on his face, but his open-mindedness made people even more scared.

Ordinary people would never do such a thing at this moment ...

The dagger easily pierced through his body. Blood spurted out from the ruptured artery like a fountain.

The entire room was instantly covered in blood.

As for the Biochemical Man, it kneeled onto the ground with a thump as it tightly gripped its throat with its two eyes looking at Wu Tian in disbelief.

At this moment, the short knife was stabbed into his neck, bleeding profusely.

Wu Tian coldly looked at the person in front of him. He loved peace and didn't like such battles, but towards these animals that killed, Wu Tian would not treat them as a single person.

"I will not give you any forgiveness, nor will I give you people any chance to forgive."

After saying that, Wu Tian picked up several Molotov bottles from the outside and threw them onto the Biochemical Man's body, igniting a fire.

Even if he had the ability to reincarnate, he would probably be burnt to ashes this time around.

Wu Tian left the guy's side without looking back. He turned around and walked to the other corner of the room and picked up the phone that the guy dropped.

He opened his phone and looked at the contact list, especially the records of the previous calls.

"It seems that there is still someone waiting for me, CEO of Brilliant Company."

Wu Tian was very satisfied with this result. If everything ended like this, he would feel unhappy instead, making it difficult for him to enjoy himself.

Walking out of this room, the sky outside looked as if it would soon brighten up. The fiery red sun slowly rose from the horizon in the distance, gradually dispersing the black dawn.

This night was a bloody one, but at the same time, it was also heading towards the light.
