Chapter 1212 - Final Chapter

C1212 Final Chapter

Having just returned to the Flower Island, Wu Tian did not plan to rest, nor did he plan to participate in any celebratory banquets. Instead, he directly went to the operations room.

He handed the phone to Loong Yun for her to analyze.

"I want to find this CEO! "With your fastest speed!"

Wu Tian said with a serious expression. This would be the last challenge he would face and also the last enemy he knew.

Loong Yun didn't ask any further questions and immediately launched an investigation.

Seeing that she was now planning the intelligence work for the entire operations room, Wu Tian felt relieved, probably because Security Team had also put down their previous grudge.

"Wu Tian, are you alright?"

The moment the room quieted down, the door of the large room suddenly opened. A group of people stood outside and looked at Wu Tian nervously.

Wu Tian glanced around and found that there were quite a lot of people. At this moment, Huang Lan was even crying silently.

"What are you guys doing? Look, I'm still fine." Wu Tian smiled at them and lowered his head. Only then did he understand the reason why there had been people staring at him since just now.

He was covered with blood all over. It was as if he had crawled out from a sea of blood. It was no wonder that people were scared.

"I'm going to change my clothes. You guys go back first, don't get in the way of my work!"

After chasing these girls back, although the matter was slowly coming to an end, it was still rather chaotic outside, so letting these girls stay in their own rooms was the best.

After cleaning everything up, Wu Tian put on a suit and a leather suit. This time, he planned on using a different method to deal with this CEO of Brilliant Company.

Previously, when he heard them make a phone call, Wu Tian felt that the other party should also be at S City, which meant that this guy had been plotting behind the scenes the entire time.

But this time, all of their chips had been completely wiped out. Presumably, this CEO already didn't have any cards left to play.

Wu Tian felt that he could just go over and negotiate with this guy.

"President Wu, the investigation is done, at the Wu Group Building ..."

The news that came from Loong Yun stunned Wu Tian for a moment. He couldn't believe his own ears.

"Wu Group Building?"

Wasn't that his own chassis? Why was this fellow there?

However, that was not important. He just needed to know where he was.

"Prepare a helicopter for me immediately, I'll be there right now!"

"That ..."

Loong Yun's voice suddenly sounded hesitant. Wu Tian felt that something bad was about to happen.

"What's wrong?"

"Satellite images show that a lot of explosives have already been placed in our Wu Group Tower. I'm afraid this person wants to ..."

Loong Yun could not finish her sentence. Wu Tian was furious and rushed towards the helipad.

The helicopter had been prepared for a long time, so it took off immediately with Wu Tian.

Arriving at the Wu Group Building, Wu Tian was indeed on the roof. He saw a person from Britain sitting there with a reclining chair and leisurely drinking the coffee in his hands, as if he was enjoying the sunbath when the sun was born.

Wu Tian slowly jumped down from the plane. He made the whole thing look very elegant, but it was clearly just an act.

However, Wu Tian felt that he couldn't just lose points like that.

"You're Jackson?"

Wu Tian slowly walked to a few meters in front of the Brilliant Company President and sized up the guy in front of him with an expressionless face.

"That's right, we've been fighting for such a long time, but this should be the first time we're facing each other."

Jackson pointed at the recliner on the side, and signaled Wu Tian to come with him.

Wu Tian ignored the guy and took out a gun from his pocket. Then, he took out a silencer and planned on installing the gun.

Jackson was not scared by Wu Tian's actions, but he had a big smile on his face.

He reached out his hand and picked up a small remote control from the small table beside him. Then, he gestured to Wu Tian.

"I'm not afraid of death at this point, but I think you don't want this building to be buried with me, or even your life?"

Jackson kept looking at Wu Tian, as if he wanted to know what Wu Tian was thinking at the moment.

However, Wu Tian did not stop his movements. Instead, he quickly installed the silencer into his pocket and fired a shot at Jackson.

However, this shot did not hit Jackson, but instead shattered the coffee pot beside him.

"Interesting, I've found you to be a little interesting!"

Jackson suddenly laughed maniacally, causing people to feel as if this fellow had gone mad.

"There is only one choice in front of you." Wu Tian threatened plainly. He was not joking.

Jackson pressed his finger on the remote control, a smile on his face.

"Then let's see if your gun is faster or my finger is faster."

The two parties started to confront each other. After a while, Wu Tian suddenly started laughing.

Jackson was confused by Wu Tian's sudden reaction.

"Are you crazy?"

Wu Tian retracted his smile and pointed at Jackson.

"I think you're the crazy one." As Wu Tian said this, he raised his hand and shot.

This shot was aimed at Jackson's head, but he did not expect to miss. It hit Jackson in the arm.

Jackson laughed maniacally. He had already loosened his grip on the remote control, but his other hand had lifted up.

He had prepared two remote controls in the morning.

"I didn't think you'd be finished. Die together with this building, hahahaha!"

Jackson arrogantly pressed down on his finger in front of Wu Tian. However, the explosion that he had expected did not occur.

He looked at his hand with a strange expression and realized that only his bare wrist was left. The hand holding the remote control had dropped to the ground with a clatter.

His expression was still the same, but his voice was no longer audible.

"Like I said, you only have one path you can take. Unfortunately, you did not choose the one I gave you."

Wu Tian glanced at him indifferently, raised his gun and pointed it at the guy's forehead, then pulled the trigger.

It was all over at this time.

"President Wu."

At this moment, Number 1 came out from behind Wu Tian, while holding the remote control that he snatched from Jackson.

Wu Tian took the remote control and smiled at it. Then, he crushed it.

This time, it was him who won to the end.
