C145 I will Accompany You to the End

"Then I would like to see for myself." Wu Tian directly reached out his hand and pressed the other party onto the chair with all his strength.

Cai Dawei struggled for a long time, but was unable to move. In a moment of desperation, he grabbed the teacup on the table and threw it towards Wu Tian.

Wu Tian hurriedly dodged the attack. His right hand was like a snake as it shot out and grabbed Cai Dawei's throat as fast as it could. At the same time, his left hand grabbed Cai Dawei's arm and twisted it.

Cai Dawei struggled a few times but couldn't break free. He shouted in anger, "Brat, let go now!"

"With your insignificant skills, you still have the nerve to say that you've been in society, it's just a disgrace." Not only did Wu Tian not let go of him, he pressed his head down on the table even more forcefully.

"Kid, I'll count it as you being ruthless. I admit defeat." Cai Dawei's arrogance soon disappeared.

He didn't think that the kid in front of him was such a ruthless character. Clearly, he had gone through professional training to have this kind of ability.

"Speak, who bribed you to do this to me?"

"Hmph, I won't say it."

"You're asking for trouble." Wu Tian's eyes turned cold. He was ready to teach this kid a lesson.

At this moment, two security guards rushed in and scolded Wu Tian, "Let go of our boss."

"Don't even think about it."

"It seems like you're really looking for a beating." After the two security guards said this, they raised their fists and prepared to attack.

"Bam!"

Wu Tian raised his hand and slapped on the table. A loud sound was heard and the table was shattered.

The two security guards were so scared that they stopped on the spot, not daring to move forward.

Only now did the two of them understand that the youngster before them was a formidable character. His strength was astonishing, and his methods were cruel and malicious. If they were to pounce on him like this, their bones might be broken.

Seeing that the two security guards were hesitating, Cai Dawei started to get anxious and urged them: "Hurry, hurry and make a move."

"Sorry, Boss Cai, we still have things to do, so we'll be leaving first." With these words, the two security guards hurriedly turned around and left.

They only took the meager salaries to earn money for their meals. They didn't want to risk their lives just because of this.

"Trash, you two trash, quickly come back." Seeing the security guards escape at such a crucial moment, Cai Dawei was so angry that his face and neck turned red and he almost exploded.

"Boss Cai, stop shouting. No one will help you." After Wu Tian said this, he directly stomped Cai Dawei on the ground.

"Kid, let go of me."

"Cut the crap." Wu Tian grabbed Cai Dawei's chin and asked again, "Speak, who bribed you to frame me?"

"I won't."

"Then let's see if your words are firm enough." Wu Tian viciously punched Cai Dawei on the head, then took out his fruit knife and slowly stabbed at Cai Dawei's vitals.

Cai Dawei was so scared that he tightly crossed his legs and asked with a trembling voice, "What are you trying to do?"

"I want you to become a eunuch." Wu Tian used his foot to step on Cai Dawei's body, his dagger continued to move closer to Cai Dawei's pants.

"Stop!"

Seeing that the knife was getting closer and closer, Cai Dawei finally couldn't hold it anymore and could only admit his defeat: "Don't fight, let's talk nicely."

He knew that this brat was just scaring him, but if this brat was really going to be so fierce and really stab the fruit knife down, then he would be finished for the rest of his life.

"Let me ask you one last time." Wu Tian waved the fruit knife in his hand and asked impatiently, "Speak, who ordered you to do this to me?"

"I will speak, I will speak." In order to keep his life, Cai Dawei could only answer truthfully: "It's Boss Huang."

"Which Boss Huang?"

"Huang Ze."

"So it's that old thing." Wu Tian slowly put away his fruit knife and let go of Cai Dawei's body at the same time.

Actually, he should have already known that Huang Ze was behind this.

Recently, the only person he offended was Huang Ze. No one else could think of such a despicable method.

After Cai Dawei was freed, he got up and prepared to escape. However, he was stopped by Wu Tian at the door, "Don't be in such a hurry to leave."

"I've said everything I need to say, what else do you want?"

"Help me with something." Wu Tian grabbed the cigarette on the table and lit it up, then instructed Cai Dawei, "Call Huang Ze now."

"This ..."

"If I tell you to fight, then hurry up and fight."

"Alright, I'll call." Cai Dawei gritted his teeth and had no choice but to call Huang Ze.

Now that he was in Wu Tian's hands, he could only blame his bad luck.

Before Cai Dawei could make a call, Wu Tian grabbed the phone and turned on the hands-free, "Boss Huang, do you still remember who I am?"

"You're Wu Tian?" On the phone, Huang Ze's voice was slightly stunned, and he quickly recognized Wu Tian's voice.

Wu Tian was too lazy to speak any nonsense, and went straight to the point: "I heard that Boss Huang bribed Dawei to deal with me and Seafood TV?"

"Yes, that's me." On the phone, Huang Ze's voice was extremely arrogant: "This is the result of offending me. I will make you infamous, make your Seafood TV completely go out of business."

"Boss Huang, why don't we all take a step back ..."

"No." Before Wu Tian could finish his words, he was interrupted by Huang Ze with a sinking tone. "Even if you kneel down and beg me, I will destroy you and your company together."

"No room for negotiation?"

"Nope."

"Since Boss Huang insisted on fighting with me, then I can only play with you until the end." After Wu Tian said this, his tone suddenly turned cold. "Fighting with me will not end in a good way."

"These words should be said by me. If you fight me, you will only die. Not only will I make you infamous, I will also make you lose everything." Huang Ze's tone was extremely arrogant.

"I'm at Dawei's studio, don't come over and beg me."

"Stop f * cking boasting. As the owner of Seafood TV, how much ability can you possibly have?" Huang Ze did not know Wu Tian's true power.

As far as he was concerned, this kid was just the owner of the small live broadcast platform and the restaurant owner. He didn't have much power at all.

With his company's strength and Huang Family, defeating this brat wasn't difficult, it was even easier than stepping on ants.

"I will make your company close down and lose everything in half a day." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

After making the call, he turned to Cai Dawei and asked coldly, "What's the name of Huang Ze's company?"

"Zezhong Group." Cai Dawei answered with a smile.

He clearly heard the conversation just now, so he thought this brat was bragging, bragging, and purposely scaring Boss Huang.

With this brat's strength, he was too far away from defeating Boss Huang. This was like an egg hitting a stone.

"Got it." After Wu Tian said this, he dialed Loong Yun's number again.

At a critical moment, he planned to use his family's influence to deal with Huang Ze.

Just like what grandfather had said before, as a descendant of Wu Family, he could naturally borrow the power of his clan to settle some matters.

After he dialed, he directly said to his phone, "Secretary Loong, I have something I want you to do. Make the Zezhong Group disappear. "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 146 - A Complete Victory -

C146 A Complete Victory

Laughter rang out.

Hearing this, Cai Dawei couldn't help but burst out laughing, as if he heard the funniest joke in the world.

After Wu Tian hung up the phone, he turned around and stared at Cai Dawei, "Did what I just said make you feel funny?"

"You've gone a bit too far this time." Cai Dawei forcefully held back his laughter, and said sarcastically: "With your little status, you still dare to say you want to destroy Zezhong Group?"

"Of course."

"Brat, you really don't know how high the sky is and how deep the earth is." Cai Dawei walked over to the sofa and collapsed, then said slowly: "Everyone says that newborn calves are not afraid of tigers, I think you really don't know the power of Zezhong Group."

"I really don't know about that."

"Well, I'll tell you something about it." Cai Dawei lit up a cigarette, took a few puffs and said: "The Zezhong Group is mainly run by the automobile industry.

At the same time, it also takes into account the real estate, catering, entertainment and other industries. It is quite famous in Luzhou, and is more than ten times stronger than your Seafood TV company. "

"No matter how powerful it is, it's just trash in my eyes." Even though Wu Tian knew that the crowd was very strong, he was not scared.

Compared to their Wu Family family, Zezhong Group was just a small company, so it would not be difficult for him to destroy it.

"Such a powerful company, I want to know how you are going to make it disappear?" Cai Dawei secretly curled his lips into a hint of contempt.

"I have my ways."

"Alright, I'd like to see how capable you are." Cai Dawei leaned his body against the sofa as if he was waiting to watch a good show.

He wanted to see how this brat would end this matter.

After a long wait, the office door was knocked open by someone and Huang Ze rushed in frantically.

Cai Dawei stubbed out his cigarette and hurriedly stood up to welcome Boss Huang. "Boss Huang, why are you here?"

"Get out of the way." Huang Ze pushed Cai Dawei away and walked in front of Wu Tian in a flurry, "I admit defeat."

At this moment, Huang Ze no longer had that arrogant and domineering attitude from before. Instead, he was like a defeated rooster, hanging his head in dejection.

He didn't want to admit defeat, but he had no choice.

In just a few hours, the big banks had cancelled their loans to the company, the company's capital chain was under enormous pressure, suppliers and distributors had cancelled their cooperation, and their cars and retail businesses had been hit hard.

This was nothing, the key point was that the company's stocks were shorted, and the customers all began to sell off. In just a few hours, the company had lost more than 1 billion yuan.

Worse, the stock continued to fall crazily, the chain of top and bottom was broken more and more, and the pressure on the company's debt also increased.

The investigation revealed that all of this was directed at one person, and that person was Wu Tian.

The reason why the company suffered such heavy losses in such a short period of time was because of Wu Tian's manipulation from behind the scenes.

If this continued, the company would soon face a major crisis, and it was not far before it would close down.

"Boss Huang, everything is fine. Why did you admit defeat?" Wu Tian pretended to be stupefied.

Cai Dawei, who was beside him, was puzzled and echoed, "That's right, Boss Huang. You're a big entrepreneur, why did you admit defeat to him?"

"What do you know?" Huang Ze turned around and glared fiercely at Wu Tian. He shouted in a low voice, "My company fell into a crisis in just a few hours. The stock market's Dream Butterfly, the capital chain, and the supply chain have all broken down. The dealers have all left one after another ..."

"What? How could this be?"

"It's Wu Tian. He's behind all of this." Huang Ze was so excited that he spat on the ground.

"It's him, it's a god ..." Cai Dawei's mouth was wide open in fear. He said exaggeratedly, "He's that capable?"

"This kid's power is even more terrifying than we thought." When Huang Ze said that, he nearly bit his teeth into pieces.

He had originally thought that this brat was just a restaurant owner. He had made money from his meals and invested into the live broadcast platform.

If he was just a restaurant owner or a big shot in the live broadcast world, with his Huang Family, he would definitely be able to handle Wu Tian.

However, after this confrontation, he found out that Wu Tian had an amazing power behind him.

He had yet to investigate exactly which power it was, but he was certain that this power was a hundred times larger than Huang Family and was one that he could not afford to offend.

"Heavens, he, he, he ..." Cai Dawei looked at Wu Tian as if he was looking at a monster. When he spoke, even the corner of his mouth was trembling.

He simply did not dare to imagine just how terrifying his power would be if he were able to cause the Zezhong Group to fall into danger in a short amount of time.

For such a terrifying force, wanting to trample a small studio like theirs to death was much easier than stepping on an ant.

To think that he was laughing at this kid before, thinking that he was just boasting.

Only now did he realize that the kid in front of him was a hundred times stronger than he had imagined. For a small studio like theirs, they had no right to be his opponent.

After being stunned for a short while, Huang Ze could only put down his posture. He braced himself and begged Wu Tian: "Boss Wu, I hope that you can be magnanimous and let our Zezhong Group go."

In order to keep the company, he had to lower his status.

There was no helping it, he could not just sit by and watch the company collapse. If he were to continue delaying, the company's crisis would only get bigger.

"I remember what I said before. I told you not to run over here and beg me to spare you." Wu Tian crossed his legs and acted like he was a second elder.

"I was wrong, I promise, I will never go against you again." Huang Ze expressed deep repentance.

To be honest, if he knew Wu Tian had such a strong background, he wouldn't have even tried to curry favor with him. How could he possibly offend him?

"For Elder Sister Lan's sake, I'll let you off this time." Wu Tian's tone became a bit gentler.

After all, Huang Ze was Huang Lan's half-brother. Even if it was for Elder Sister Lan's sake, he couldn't be so ruthless.

"Thank you, Boss Wu." Huang Ze hurriedly bowed and expressed his thanks. His brows gradually relaxed.

"Don't be happy too early." Wu Tian poured cold water on them and continued, "If you want to protect your company, you have to first help me and Seafood TV Corporation to eliminate the effects."

"Then what do you want me to do?"

"Apologize to me and Seafood TV company and have them spread out in the same way." Wu Tian instructed.

"Alright, I'll do it now." Huang Ze did not hesitate because he had no other choice right now.

He quickly got Cai Dawei to send a message, clarify the previous matter, and apologize to Seafood TV Corporation with the diagrams and voice. He also used forces from all sides to eliminate the negative effects.

When he had done enough, Wu Tian called Loong Yun and told her to remove all the seals on Zezhong Group.

Just like this, the dark battle between Wu Tian and Huang Ze came to an end. In the end, Wu Tian had a complete victory.

In this battle, the losses of its Zezhong Group were severe, and its direct and indirect economic losses exceeded hundreds of millions.

It had very little effect on Seafood TV companies. After eliminating the negative news, because of the increase in exposure, the flow of Seafood TV companies had actually skyrocketed.

After dealing with these matters, Wu Tian was ready to leave Dawei Studio. Cai Dawei stopped him before he could leave. "Boss Wu, this is my card. If you need anything in the future, just say so."

"Alright then." Wu Tian kept his name card, and then asked: "Where are the photos and negatives of the host and I that you guys took?"

"Here's the picture." Cai Dawei quickly handed the yellow leather envelope over. The photos inside were bulging.

Wu Tian took the envelope and slapped it on Cai Dawei's head, warning him, "Next time you dare to get a reporter to secretly take pictures of me, I'll kill you."

After saying this, he quickly left the office.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 147 - Jealousy -

C147 Jealousy

Just as Wu Tian walked out of Dawei's studio, he received a call from Huang Lan. She invited him to eat at the Fortune Restaurant.

He wanted to thank Elder Sister Lan for her support of the seafood carnival, so he agreed to go to dinner together.

He first went to the Heavenly City of Hua Manor to pick up Huang Lan, and then the two of them proceeded towards the Fuyuan Restaurant.

After they found a random spot, Huang Lan started to order the dishes. The few dishes she ordered were the highest quality dishes in the restaurant. Furthermore, she asked Shen Xue to cook the dishes herself.

After ordering the dishes, the two began to chat.

"Brat, did you have fun with those female host s last night?" Huang Lan couldn't help but mock him.

She just saw the netizens' photos of Wu Tian having an ambiguous relationship with the female host.

"Elder Sister Lan, don't misunderstand, I'm not interested in those host s." Wu Tian quickly clarified and explained, "Someone is trying to mess with me."

"I've been in the entertainment circle for so many years, of course I understand. If you were really interested in those little host s, you wouldn't have brought them out in the open either. "

"It was my carelessness that almost implicated the seafood carnival."

"That's not your fault. If the enemy really wants to deal with you, you can't escape their Demon Claw no matter how careful you are." Having said so, Huang Lan couldn't help but ask, "Oh right, who was the culprit behind this?"

"Huang Ze."

"It's him?" Huang Lan was shocked at first, but then nodded in understanding. "A man like him will get his revenge for his enmity." Before, when you were cut off from him, he would definitely take his revenge in secret. "

"But don't worry, the matter has been resolved."

"That's good."

"Elder Sister Lan, thank you for supporting our seafood carnival." Wu Tian ordered a bottle of red wine and poured two cups. He pushed one of the glasses over to her.

"Elder Sister Lan, let me toast you."

"Then how are you going to thank me this time?" Huang Lan raised her glass and shook the red wine slowly. A charming smile appeared on her face.

"How do you want me to thank you?"

"I want to ..."

Before Huang Lan could finish her words, she was interrupted by Shen Xue, who was walking over.

"Pah!"

Shen Xue threw the tray onto the table forcefully and glared at Huang Lan with hostility. "Your dishes are done, eat up!"

Her attitude instantly caused the atmosphere to turn incomparably awkward.

"Cough, cough!"

Wu Tian coughed dryly and smiled as he helped her out, "Xue, from the looks of it, you don't seem to be happy?"

"It's good that you're happy. You don't have to care about me." Shen Xue was like someone who had swallowed gunpowder and always spoke with a harsh tone.

Ever since she saw Wu Tian and Huang Lan enter the restaurant, she felt very uncomfortable.

When she saw the two of them chatting happily and intimately, her entire body felt like it was going to explode at any moment. She was gnashing her teeth while cooking.

"Ugh ..."

Wu Tian choked a bit and pointed to the seat beside him: "You've worked hard, let's sit down and eat together."

"Humph!"

Shen Xue snorted and sat down between the two of them.

"Come, let's eat!" Wu Tian placed a few dishes on the table and then removed the cover.

He grabbed his chopsticks and took a bite of the dish. He questioned softly, "Xue, why are you cooking so salty today?"

"You think the food is too salty, you deserve it." Shen Xue crossed her arms in front of her chest, looking extremely angry.

"Ugh ..."

Wu Tian was speechless once again. He had never seen Shen Xue as angry as she was today. He felt a little baffled.

"Pfft!"

Huang Lan couldn't hold back her laughter. Seeing Shen Xue's state, she couldn't help but secretly laugh.

This made Wu Tian even more confused. He asked with a puzzled expression, "Elder Sister Lan, what are you laughing at?"

"Nothing." Huang Lan put away her smile and said as if no one was around, "Brat, didn't you say you were going to thank me just now?"

"Yes, how do you want me to thank you?" Wu Tian put down his chopsticks and asked.

The dishes on the table were so salty that he couldn't eat them. He didn't know if Shen Xue did it on purpose or not.

"I want you to be my boyfriend." Huang Lan directly brought up this request. As she said this, she couldn't help but glance at Shen Xue.

Wu Tian's reaction was calm. He knew that Elder Sister Lan was probably joking again.

Shen Xue, on the other hand, was not as composed. She rose from her chair. "I don't agree."

"Chef Shen, I asked Wu Tian to be my boyfriend, what does that have to do with you?" Huang Lan questioned.

"I... I don't think you're suitable. " Shen Xue's face turned completely red. It took her a long time before she managed to utter such words.

"Whether it's appropriate or not has nothing to do with you."

"I ..." Shen Xue gritted her teeth, not knowing how to respond.

In the end, Wu Tian finally explained for her, "Xue, don't take it seriously. Elder Sister Lan is joking with me."

"Wu Tian, there's something that I really want to ask for your help with." Huang Lan put away her smile and said seriously.

"If there's anything you need, just tell me."

"I want you to accompany me back to the Huang Family in a few days."

"Why did you let me accompany you back?"

"Because I rarely return home and I have a sense of fear towards Huang Family. So I want you to come with me. " Huang Lan's tone was very sincere.

The moment Huang Family was mentioned, she could not help but frown secretly. She felt an inexplicable sense of depression towards her.

Seeing Elder Sister Lan's expectant gaze, Wu Tian nodded, "Ok, no problem."

Elder Sister Lan had helped him so much, and now that she had a request, he had no reason to refuse her.

"Alright, let's go out and choose a suit." Huang Lan took the lead in walking out of the restaurant after she finished her sentence.

Wu Tian had no choice but to follow her out. Before leaving, he didn't forget to say his goodbyes to Shen Xue: "Xue, go to work first. I'll come see you another day.

After saying this, he hurriedly chased after her.

"You ..." Looking at their backs, Shen Xue stomped her feet in anger.

Now, she was becoming more and more suspicious of Wu Tian's relationship with the female singer named Huang Lan.

She didn't know why she was so angry. In any case, when she saw how intimate and intimate the two of them were, she felt uncomfortable in her heart.

Right now, she didn't have the mood to work. Seeing the two leave, she angrily quickly followed them out.

Wu Tian and Huang Lan came to a shopping mall not far away and started to choose their clothes.

Huang Lan casually picked up the dress on the hanger and placed it on Wu Tian, gesturing a few times. Dissatisfied, she tossed it on the counter and went back to picking.

They had not been able to find the right clothes for a long time. However, she still continued to choose patiently.

To tell the truth, she had always been so patient in buying clothes for herself. She didn't expect herself to be so concerned about buying clothes for Wu Tian.

As the two of them were carefully choosing their clothes, they saw Shen Xue walk into the clothing store. Her face was full of anger.

"Xue, didn't you come to work?" Wu Tian was surprised to see Shen Xue in the clothing store.

Shen Xue pouted angrily. "Why can't I come? Do you find me a burden?"

"I didn't mean that." Seeing how angry Shen Xue was, Wu Tian didn't know how to deal with her. "Since you're here, let's go together."

"Come, let's go to that shop." Shen Xue dragged Wu Tian into the clothing store.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 148 - Jealousy Is All over the Sky -

C148 Jealousy Is All over the Sky

When she saw Wu Tian being dragged away by Shen Xue, Huang Lan felt upset. It was as if something she loved was taken away by someone.

She gritted her teeth and followed them.

When they entered the store, Shen Xue and Huang Lan were busy picking out Wu Tian's clothes. From their point of view, they quickly picked out the gift they wanted.

"This set is not bad, come over and try it." Shen Xue held onto her clothes and waved at Wu Tian.

Wu Tian had just taken two steps when he was stopped by Huang Lan. She handed him the suit she had chosen, "She's too rustic. Try out the one I chose."

"That set of yours is too flowery, it's not suitable for Wu Tian." Shen Xue immediately retorted and handed over the set of clothes in her hands. "This is the most suitable set of clothes."

"It's not suitable. He'll know if it's suitable if he tries." Huang Lan did not show any weakness as she passed the gown in her hands over.

The two girls fought over Wu Tian's clothes. Both of them were very tough at the moment, and could argue at any time.

Who would have thought that the usually gentle and generous beautiful chef Shen Xue would pick clothes for Wu Tian and argue with someone else.

What they didn't expect was that the usually aloof and beautiful singer would start to get jealous with a little girl.

"The choices are all good, I like them all." Seeing that the two girls were about to start fighting, Wu Tian quickly took the clothes from their hands and said, "Why don't you buy both sets!"

"Forget it, I don't think these two sets will look good." Having said so, Huang Lan turned around and left the clothing store.

Shen Xue didn't say anything. She nudged Wu Tian with her arm and walked out of the clothing store in a huff.

"Bastard!"

Wu Tian was about to go crazy because of these two women. He cursed under his breath, threw off his clothes, and chased after the two women.

The moment he walked out of the clothing store, Shen Xue grabbed him by the arm. "Tell me, do you like that woman?"

"Don't misunderstand, Elder Sister Lan and I are only ordinary friends." Wu Tian explained with an ugly expression.

This girl's actions tonight were a bit strange. It was hard to fathom her actions.

Shen Xue didn't seem to believe him. She pressed on, "Are you and her really just ordinary friends?"

"Yes."

"Then why are you so intimate with her?"

"You're thinking too much."

"I didn't think too much about it. She definitely wants to seduce you. You have to stay away from her." Shen Xue warned angrily.

"She's a singer, how could she seduce me?"

"Just listen to me. You can't get too close to her." Shen Xue turned around and glared fiercely at Huang Lan. She had now completely treated this woman as an enemy.

"Alright, I'll listen to you." Wu Tian didn't want to be bothered like this anymore, so he could only say it in a perfunctory manner.

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard Huang Lan let out a cry of pain.

He turned to see her crouching on the ground. She hugged her ankle with both of her hands, looking as if she wanted to die from the pain.

"Elder Sister Lan ..."

Wu Tian was about to go over and ask about the situation, but Shen Xue held his arm tightly and stopped him, "Don't go over there. Look at that woman, she's pretending."

"Elder Sister Lan doesn't look like she's pretending. I'll go take a look." Wu Tian couldn't care less. He pushed Shen Xue away and ran towards her. He asked Huang Lan with concern, "Elder Sister Lan, what's wrong? Are you alright?"

"My ankle is sprained. It hurts a little." Huang Lan bit her lower lip and replied in a gentle tone that she had never used before.

"Quickly sit down, I'll take a look for you." Wu Tian helped Huang Lan to sit on a chair on the street. Then he held her ankle and pressed it clockwise. His movements were very gentle.

When Shen Xue saw this, she was angered to the point that she was about to explode.

"Wu Tian, you're just a piece of scum." Shen Xue cursed angrily as she twisted her waist and ran across the street.

"Xue ..."

Seeing that Shen Xue was so angry, Wu Tian got up hastily to give chase.

Shen Xue gradually slowed her footsteps as she waited for Wu Tian to catch up and coax her.

Any girl liked to be coaxed and spoiled by boys, and she was no exception. As long as Wu Tian came over to coax her, she definitely wouldn't be so angry.

However, after she waited for a while, she noticed that Wu Tian had suddenly stopped walking. He said to her, "Elder Sister Lan is injured, I have to take care of her. You can go back first."

"Scum man, scum man, scum man." Upon hearing this, Shen Xue became even angrier and scolded the scumbag three times. She stormed back to the dining room.

"Sigh!"

Wu Tian secretly sighed. He returned to Huang Lan's side, held her ankle and continued to press it clockwise. He asked with concern, "Elder Sister Lan, how are you feeling now?"

Laughter rang out.

Huang Lan didn't answer. She just covered her mouth and giggled.

"You're still smiling even after being injured? Let's go, I'll send you to the hospital." Wu Tian held Huang Lan's arm, preparing to send her to the hospital.

"Idiot, I'm just teasing you!" Huang Lan pushed Wu Tian away and stood up from the ground. She smiled and said, "Actually, my foot wasn't injured at all."

When she saw Wu Tian being intimate with Shen Xue just now, she felt a pang in her heart, so she pretended to have sprained her ankle and wanted to use this method to interrupt the two of them.

However, she didn't expect Wu Tian to be so good, he was easily tricked.

"Elder Sister Lan, you ..." The moment he heard he was tricked, Wu Tian's face turned ugly.

He had been extremely worried when he saw Elder Sister Lan's pained expression, but in the end, this woman was purposely toying with him.

"Are you angry?" Seeing Wu Tian angry, Huang Lan knew that she went overboard and quickly withdrew her smile.

"Nothing, it's good as long as Elder Sister Lan is fine." Wu Tian grinned. He felt that there was no need to fuss over this matter.

Elder Sister Lan often liked to joke with him, so he had long since gotten used to it.

"My heart is touched to see you so worried for me." Huang Lan stroked her hair and reminded him, "You can go chase after Shen Xue now."

"Right ..."

Wu Tian wanted to go to the cafeteria to comfort Shen Xue, but he suddenly stopped after walking a few steps and said, "Forget it, I'm not going to the cafeteria!"

"Why don't you go?"

"The employees saw this. They thought I bullied Shen Xue." Wu Tian scratched his head with an awkward smile on his face.

Laughter rang out.

Huang Lan was amused by his words. After a long while, she retracted her smile and sighed emotionally. "You have really good luck with women. Beautiful women by your side are like the clouds in the sky."

When she said this, she felt an indescribable sadness in her heart.

"Elder Sister Lan must be teasing me." Wu Tian shook his head with a bitter smile. He felt like Huang Lan was joking again.

"I didn't tease you. I felt it. Forget it." Huang Lan wanted to say something but hesitated and took the initiative to change the subject, "There's no need to buy a dress, I'll get someone to customize it and send it over to you another day."

"Thank you, Elder Sister Lan."

"I should be the one thanking you. You are willing to accompany me to return to the Huang Family, this is truly very important to me." Upon mentioning Huang Family, Huang Lan's face once again revealed traces of worry.

"Elder Sister Lan has helped me so much, I should be helping you with that small favor."

"Then help me one more time."

"What is it?"

"How about warming my bed tonight?" Huang Lan shook her long hair, flirtatiously teasing him.

Wu Tian knew it was a joke, so he took the risk and said, "Ok, there's a hotel across the street, I'll stay with Elder Sister Lan all night."

"You wish." Huang Lan's face turned red, but she started to feel embarrassed.

The brat seemed to grow bolder and bolder in front of her.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 149 - Elegant Moment -

C149 Elegant Moment

Seeing Elder Sister Lan's shyness, Wu Tian became even more daring. He leaned over and said, "Elder Sister Lan, didn't you ask me to warm your bed tonight?"

"It was just a joke, yet you took it seriously." Huang Lan charmingly rolled her eyes, her face completely red.

"As long as Elder Sister Lan needs it, I'll keep you company anytime."

"Fuck, I'm not that cheap." Huang Lan rubbed her arm and took the initiative to change the subject. "It's getting late, why don't you send me home!"

"Ok, I'll take you home." After Wu Tian answered, he called Uncle Fugui to drive the car over.

After escorting Elder Sister Lan to the Heaven City, Huang Lan asked with a smile, "Brat, do you want to go to your sister's room?"

"It's too late. Maybe another day."

"Alright, go back slowly. We'll meet again another day." Huang Lan waved her hand and turned around, heading back to her residence.

After Elder Sister Lan's figure disappeared from his sight, Wu Tian turned around and ordered Liu Fugui, "Uncle Fugui, let's go home."

"Alright!" Liu Fugui started the car and drove away from this place. He couldn't help but laugh secretly, "Tian, these two women are very interested in you."

"What do you mean?"

"Can't you see that they all like you?"

"No way." Wu Tian rubbed his chin with his hand. He could still say Shen Xue liked him, but why would Elder Sister Lan like him?

"You're good at everything, just that your EQ is too low." Liu Fugui shook his head with a bitter smile and said with certainty, "In my 40 years of experience, those two girls are jealous of each other because of you. They both like you."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian seemed to be awakened by Ye Zichen's words.

He thought about it carefully. The two women were a bit jealous of each other. They were both secretly vying for each other's affection, and neither of them wanted to retreat.

"Then which girl do you like?"

"I ..." Wu Tian held it in for a long time before he finally said, "Xue and Elder Sister Lan are both good, each one is good."

"Cough, cough!"

Liu Fugui coughed dryly and said sarcastically, "Tian, don't tell me you want to kill two birds with one stone?"

"No, no, I just haven't decided yet." Wu Tian scratched his head, feeling troubled.

In the past, he had been vexed over not being able to find a girlfriend, but now, it was the complete opposite. Having too many girls by his side also made him feel vexed.

"You are someone who does important things, and I believe these things will not be difficult for you." After Liu Fugui said this, he sped up the car and headed back to his living quarters.

Wu Tian looked out of the window without saying anything.

Other things might not be difficult for him, but this matter had truly troubled him. Sometimes, he really didn't know what to choose between them.

Forget it, this sort of thing could only be done one step at a time.

After returning home, he entered his study and started to study seriously. Only at this moment would he be able to forget his worries.

The next day, after Wu Tian got up, he originally wanted to go to school for class, but on the way, he received a call from Lee Mu.

Knowing that it was related to the operating system, he told Uncle Fugui to turn around and quickly go to Tianmu Technology.

At the company, Lee Mu is holding a temporary meeting for employees to celebrate the victory of the mobile phone system and praise everyone.

Seeing Wu Tian rushing over, Lee Mu announced the end of the meeting and quickly walked over, "Boss Wu, let me tell you a piece of good news. The new system is basically complete."

"So fast?" Wu Tian was also very happy when he heard the news.

"Not fast. Before you joined the company, we had already been working on a new system for half a year. It's just that we haven't made much progress due to the shortage of funds previously." Lee Mu had a smile on his face the whole time he was talking.

The development of a mobile operating system was the biggest dream of his life, and any achievement could make him happy.

"That's right." Wu Tian patted Lee Mu's shoulder and praised him, "To be able to make a cellphone system, you have done a great job."

"No, the biggest credit is Boss Wu. If you didn't help us make so much money from these two games, we wouldn't have any money to invest in the new system."

"It looks like our cooperation is perfect. I invested in R & D for the company's profits. You used your technology to lead everyone to a new system."

"Yes!" Lee Mu nodded in approval, then said: "Let's go, I'll take you to see the new system demo."

After saying that, he took the lead and walked towards the conference room.

Wu Tian followed closely behind, accompanied by Yuan Wangchun and the rest.

After arriving at the meeting room, Lee Mu couldn't wait to open up the PPT projection on the white screen and explain the structure of the new system.

Lee Mu spoke passionately and had a lot of confidence in the new system. After all, he had worked hard for more than half a year.

Wu Tian listened with relish. He did not understand a lot of professional knowledge. After listening to this demonstration and narration, he also felt that the new system was pretty good.

"Pa Pa Pa ..."

After Lee Mu finished his demonstration, Wu Tian couldn't help but clap. The others also followed suit.

Hearing the applause, Lee Mu secretly felt relieved and asked, "Boss Wu, what do you think?"

"From my personal point of view, the new system is pretty good. If I were a user, I would be willing to try it out." Wu Tian gave such a precise answer.

"Thank you, Boss Wu, for your approval and acknowledgement of the new system, as well as for some details. I'm having the team handle them right now."

"That's good."

"The hardest thing about the system is the ecological system. The system is done now, and there are only a dozen commonly used software. If I want to create a perfect ecological system, it will take a very long time, and it will take a lot of time and money." Lee Mu voiced out his current dilemma.

"If it's money, we can borrow it from the bank."

"With the current size of the company, borrowing from the bank won't amount to much. We still need to raise money."

"The competition in the mobile operating system is too great. The profit cycle is rather long and the cost is quite high. It'll probably be very difficult to borrow money to finance this project." Wu Tian couldn't help but splash a bucket of cold water on him.

He knew from the start that making a new phone system was as difficult as ascending to heaven, much more expensive than playing the game.

While games can recoup money in a short period of time, mobile systems are different. It is hard to see the benefits in a short period of time.

Too much investment, too much risk, and many big companies are reluctant to take the risk of making a mobile phone system.

However, Wu Tian had also thought about it before, if they were afraid of failure and didn't do it, they would stagnate in this area and they would never be able to break the technology monopoly abroad.

"Ai!"

Lee Mu sighed and said dejectedly: "It's indeed difficult to raise money for this project. After all, there aren't many bold bosses like you in Luzhou."

"Don't worry, let me think of a way to finance it. Your main task is to do a good job with the system." Wu Tian patted Lee Mu's shoulder and comforted him with a smile.

"But ..."

"Alright." Wu Tian didn't give Lee Mu a chance to open his mouth and instructed, "Give me the PPT and details of this project, I will definitely think of a way to finance it."

"Alright, I'll prepare it right away." After Lee Mu answered, he quickly told his secretary to prepare the information.

He quickly handed the prepared documents to Wu Tian and said gratefully, "Boss Wu, thank you for supporting me."

"This is our common cause." Wu Tian smiled, took the documents and left.
