Chapter 1501: Do You Doubt My Ability?

Sister Wen Wen's injury had long recovered. There was not even a scar.

Now that he heard that Su Bei wanted to use this method to solve the problem, Huang Liming had no reason to be righteous.

"Why? You're not going to appraise it? Then don't you want compensation?" Su Bei asked.

How could Huang Liming not want compensation? But Sister Wenwen was not injured. He could not fake it, right?

1

He said fiercely, "Yue Ze, you win! I won't argue with you about Sister Wen Wen! But don't let me see you in Sheng Tang Entertainment again!"

With that, he left with his men.

Yue Ze shook his head helplessly. "Actually, I guessed that Sister Wen Wen's injury had already recovered. It's just that before I left, I had to continue working here and didn't dare to make such a big fuss."

"Alright, now that this matter has been resolved, you and Lv Shan don't have to feel burdened anymore. Let's go meet the celebrities you mentioned."

"Yes, I've already called them and arranged to meet them at a nearby cafe," Yue Ze said. At the mention of the artistes who were leaving with him, his eyes lit up.

As long as there were artistes, even if they were not thought highly of in Nirvana Entertainment, they could quickly gain a foothold in the industry.

Su Bei accompanied him to the cafe.

"Su Bei, these artistes have good qualifications. Among them, there are models, actors, and singers. Jia Chen and Li Xinxin are models who developed very quickly. Although they were dragged down by Sheng Tang, they haven't lost their ability. Jia Chen has already participated in a domestic fashion show. It won't be a problem for him to compete in an international fashion show now."

At the mention of his artistes, the smile on Yue Ze's face became fervent.

He was very concerned about his artistes as though they were his own children.

A moment later, a tall man and woman wearing sunglasses walked into the cafe and arrived in front of Yue Ze and Su Bei. Behind them were a few people dressed the same.

Yue Ze had already booked a private room. He welcomed them in.

Yue Ze briefly introduced them to Su Bei. The man and woman in the lead were Jia Chen and Li Xinxin. The two of them were quite capable and were boyfriend and girlfriend. They were currently in a passionate relationship.

“Jia Chen, Xinxin, I’ve already gone to Nirvana Entertainment. I told you before that as long as you come over, I’ll definitely do my best to give you the resources in my hands in the future. I’ll also promote you to become international supermodels,” Yue Ze said.

He had told them this before.

Previously, people from Sheng Tang Entertainment under Tang Yue had gone to be mistresses.

Some top artistes were busy jumping ship or relying on their resources and fame to earn what they wanted.

However, the mid-level artists did not have it easy.

As for Yue Ze, he had been protecting them from harm. He even provided them with some normal work.

Hence, these people were very convinced by Yue Ze.

Yue Ze had also promised Su Bei that he would bring them to Nirvana Entertainment and quickly get their work back on track.

The other artistes were less experienced. They sat on the sofa at the side. Clearly, they would go along with Jia Chen and Li Xinxin’s arrangements.

“Jia Chen, this is your and Xinxin’s contract. Take a look.” Yue Ze handed them the contract that he had prepared beforehand.

Jia Chen had been silent since he came in. It was not until he received Yue Ze’s contract that he said, “Brother Yue Ze, as far as I know, Nirvana Entertainment is still lacking experience. Can you really make Xinxin and me into international supermodels?”

Yue Ze smiled confidently. “Are you still doubting my ability?”

Jia Chen pushed the contract to him. “Director Huang has already promised me that as long as I stay, Sister Wen Wen will bring me and Xinxin to an international fashion show. Moreover, we’ll be the opening stars. When the time comes, my progression won’t be any slower than when I leave with you.”

“Jia Chen, what do you mean?” Yue Ze could tell that something was wrong.

However, Yue Ze did not think that Jia Chen had betrayed him. He just thought that Jia Chen was just dissatisfied with the details of the contract and hoped to fight for more.

“Brother Yue Ze, let’s not beat about the bush. You’ve trained a supermodel like Su Bei before, so you know her very well. As a top manager, you’ve indeed taught us a lot. But don’t you think that our progress has been a little slow while we were under your care? Xinxin and I have been following you for two years, but we haven’t come into contact with the international market yet. If it were any other manager, we would’ve become international supermodels long ago. We might even have taken on movies and variety shows!” Jia Chen complained.

Yue Ze said angrily, "So that's what you think? It's not like you don't know that Sheng Tang Entertainment was in chaos in Tang Yue's hands. It seriously affected my plans and your work. To become an international supermodel and accept movies and variety shows, you need certain opportunities and a suitable image. For example, Su Bei worked hard back then..."

"Enough! You always say that Su Bei is very hardworking, talented, and spirited. That's why she could develop so quickly. Aren't you just looking down on us? Since you like comparing us to Su Bei so much, why don't you compare yourself to the best manager in history? Anyway, we won't follow you anymore. You're like a dog in front of Director Huang. How dare you bark in front of us?" Jia Chen looked at Yue Ze casually.

Yue Ze slammed the table and stood up. "Jia Chen, so in your heart, I'm such a manager?"

"Aren't you? When did we have anything to do with those big shots' dinners and cocktail parties? Have you ever given us these opportunities to fight for good resources? Have you fought for them yourself?"

Yue Ze was so angry that he laughed. He had painstakingly isolated those big shots and rich people from his artistes, but it turned out his artistes felt that he had deprived them of their opportunities.

How ridiculous!

All his efforts were like a joke. Instead of being appreciated, he was condemned.

"Jia Chen, Li Xinxin, are you going back on your word?" Yue Ze's voice was filled with pain.

Jia Chen raised his chin and couldn't be bothered to answer.

Li Xinxin's expression was reserved and cold. Obviously, she had the same thoughts as her boyfriend.

Yue Ze's gaze landed on the other artistes.

They hurriedly lowered their heads and did not meet Yue Ze's gaze. It was obvious that they were following Jia Chen and Li Xinxin's wishes. They could also tell that Huang Liming had put in a lot of effort to stab Yue Ze in the back.

Yue Ze could not help but smile bitterly. "Alright. I know the choice you've made. If you stay in Sheng Tang Entertainment, Huang Liming will at least give you a chance to eat. If you follow me, you might not be able to survive. Forget it, forget it. Just take it that I've made a mistake. I just hope that you guys will be able to fill up your tummies!"

Chapter 1502: Carve A Way Out Of The Industry

Su Bei said in a low voice, "Brother Yue Ze, let's go!"

Both of them walked out.

When they left, the entire private room was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

By the river.

Su Bei handed a can of beer to Yue Ze.

He took it and gulped it down. Then, he raised his head dejectedly and looked at Su Bei. "Su Bei, don't you think I'm a failure?"

"They'll regret looking down on you." Su Bei took a sip of beer.

Yue Ze continued to drink his beer.

The series of events had dealt him a huge blow.

A man's voice came from behind. "Brother Yue Ze!"

Yue Ze turned around and saw that it was a small-time artiste in Sheng Tang. He had appeared in the private room just now, but because he did not have much experience, he did not interrupt. He felt like he did not even have the right to talk to Yue Ze.

"Mu Kai? Why are you looking for me?" Yue Ze looked at him indifferently.

"I-I want to follow you," Mu Kai said.

He was quite tall, but his facial features were average. He used to be a male model, but he hadn't made a name for himself even after working for a long time.

Yue Ze had many artistes under him, and he was not outstanding among them.

Yue Ze had even forgotten when he signed him.

Yue Ze laughed and said, "You saw what happened just now, right? I've gone to Nirvana Entertainment. I'm Sheng Tang Entertainment's enemy. If you follow me, you won't do well in the future. You won't be able to return to Sheng Tang Entertainment even if you want to. If you stay in Sheng Tang Entertainment, you still have some prospects."

"Brother Yue Ze, I've already made up my mind," Mu Kai said solemnly.

"Oh? Then tell me, why do you want to follow me?" Yue Ze no longer held out hope for this group of people.

Mu Kai said, "From a personal point of view, when I came to Sheng Tang Entertainment and was bullied, you helped stop it and took the initiative to bring me under your wing. From a realistic point of view, now that you've left, I can't get any better resources anyway. I might as well leave with you and get another chance."

Yue Ze stood up and patted his shoulder. "Alright, you can follow me. It just so happens that I have no one under me now."

"Brother Yue Ze, I'm not joking," Mu Kai said seriously.

Yue Ze threw away the can of beer and looked at him. "I'm not joking. Come on. The contract will be signed in two days! Go to Sheng Tang Entertainment first and settle the contract termination..."

Mu Kai took out his termination agreement. "It's done."

He was not famous in Sheng Tang Entertainment to begin with. When he proposed to terminate his contract, Sheng Tang Entertainment was already in a terrible fix. When they heard that he was going to follow Yue Ze, they mocked him while approving the termination of his contract. Everyone was waiting to see him make a fool of himself.

Su Bei and Yue Ze immediately brought Mu Kai back to Nirvana Entertainment.

Since Mu Kai had chosen to trust Yue Ze, Yue Ze did not want to let him down.

Su Bei carefully examined Mu Kai's appearance for a while. His appearance and facial features were relatively rough. He did not have the exquisite looks that were popular nowadays.

However, he was tall. He was 1.87 meters tall and had very broad shoulders. Even among the models, his figure was outstanding.

However, he was a little too thin, and his aura was not strong enough.

After observing him for a while, Su Bei said to Yue Ze, "Brother Yue Ze, what do you think about letting Mu Kai grow a beard?"

"Sure! Why didn't I think of that?" Yue Ze immediately nodded in agreement.

Su Bei immediately called the stylist in and pasted a beard on Mu Kai to create a new image.

Nowadays, everyone in the market was pursuing young celebrities. In order to cater to this, many companies, regardless of whether their artistes were suitable or not, were targeting young celebrities. Even models were no exception.

Previously, Yue Ze had many people on his side, so he rarely paid attention to Mu Kai.

Soon, Mu Kai appeared with a faux beard. Even the stylist was surprised. "This style is really good. It suits Mu Kai very well. He looks like a gentlemanly yuppie."

The more Su Bei looked at him, the more she felt that his appearance was very good. He had the style of a masculine man. Even if she couldn't compare his looks to those young hunks, his temperament was still noteworthy. This mature and elite style would also be widely praised. It would make a way for him in the industry.

Su Bei looked at him for a moment more, then frowned.

Mu Kai was not confident in his looks to begin with. Seeing Su Bei frown, he panicked. "Mr. Su, do you think I'm not suitable?"

"It's not that your appearance isn't suitable. It's just that you're too thin. From today onward, you should work out in the company every day. You're so thin. It's really a waste of your height and shoulders."

Only then did Mu Kai feel relieved. He said shyly, "Previously, Sheng Tang Entertainment asked everyone to lose weight. We couldn't be too fat or too muscular, so I didn't dare to eat or train. I was afraid that my muscles wouldn't look good."

"You don't have to compare yourself to those young hunks. You're you. In 10 days, there'll be a big show in S Country. If you can use these ten days to quickly train your figure, I can help you fight for an opportunity," Su Bei said.

Mu Kai was pleasantly surprised. "Really?"

"What's in it for me to lie to you?"

Yue Ze patted Mu Kai's shoulder. "Train well."

He sent Mu Kai to make some simple arrangements, then returned to Su Bei. "Su Bei, that big show is an international one. Can Mu Kai really do it?"

"A type of man like him is quite rare in the domestic market. It should be possible to fight for a chance for him. The premise is that his basic skills shouldn't fall behind."

Yue Ze immediately said, "I'll keep an eye on him."

Su Bei believed in Yue Ze's strength.

After that, she continued to film the next scenes on set. Feng Ze stayed on set for a few days before leaving.

It was as if he had never been there.

Feng Ze hated Su Bei very much. The outside world had originally paid the movie a lot of attention, but because of this, they began to doubt it.

After all, if the key figures in the production were in conflict, it gave a reason for the people to think the final work would be bad.

Fortunately, the filming went very smoothly.

After filming that day, Su Bei agreed to go back with Lu Heting to visit Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu.

Seeing the two of them return, the butler beamed and welcomed them in.

After entering, Su Bei saw that there weren't just the two elders there.

There were also people from the Fu family-Fu Jiangcheng, Madam Fu, Fu Xing, and Fu Yujia.

Fu Xing had always had a good relationship with Lu Heting, but because of Fu Yujia's matter, they were estranged. The two families gradually stopped interacting with each other.

Su Bei received a few unfriendly gazes and instantly understood. She knew that Lu Heting's childhood sweetheart and her family were probably unwilling to accept the fact that Lu Heting was already married.

Chapter 1503: The Dowry Keeps Getting Smaller

As for who gave them such confidence... It was probably those two elders who had never accepted her.

Su Bei glanced at the two elders and greeted them with a smile. As Lu Heting's wife, she would definitely do her best.

After exchanging greetings, Fu Yujia's gaze fell on Su Bei.

She had watched Su Bei's movies and seen Su Bei's performance on stage. She originally thought that her peerless beauty was only displayed on stage because of the director and her styling.

However, Su Bei was simply standing here without any makeup now. It was as if there was a halo around her that made people unable to take their eyes off her. She was dazzling, and her beauty was really shocking.

Fu Yujia bit her lip and subconsciously raised her head and puffed out her chest.

This kind of beauty that required her to go all out was really lethal.

Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu did not see Da Bao and Gun Gun beside Lu Heting and Su Bei. They could not help but look disappointed. They said in a low voice, "Heting, why didn't you bring the children along?"

"There are guests here today. It's inconvenient to bring the children along. Next time, I'll bring them to see you two when you're alone," Lu Heting said calmly. There was no flaw in this reason.

Madam Fu smiled and said, "Heting's words make sense. Children are afraid of strangers. It's inevitable that they won't be able to relax when there are too many people around. They won't be able to have fun. This must be Heting's new wife, right? She's really beautiful and generous. I'm envious."

Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu indeed knew that Su Bei was a capable woman. They did not hate her in their hearts, but they had always been dissatisfied with her profession.

Old Master Lu chuckled and said, "You're too kind. Heting has good taste."

In front of outsiders, Old Master Lu still gave his family enough face.

"I heard that Su Bei is a movie queen. She's indeed talented and beautiful," Madam Fu said with a smile. "She's really good-looking."

Although Madam Fu knew that Old Master Lu and Old Master Lu didn't like the profession of an artiste, she still deliberately mentioned that Su Bei was a movie queen. Although her tone was full of admiration and didn't seem to have any selfish motives, her intentions still made Lu Heting raise his eyebrows.

He looked at Madam Fu and said, "Madam Fu."

He addressed her as Madam Fu, not Aunt Fu. Madam Fu subconsciously tensed up and looked at Lu Heting.

Lu Heting tidied up his sleeves that were not wrinkled at all. He held Su Bei's hand and sat down naturally on the sofa. Then, he slowly said, "I heard that many things have happened to Fu Yujia's Sheng Tang Entertainment recently. The rumors outside are quite radical. If you need any help, Madam Fu, please feel free to ask Grandpa and Grandma. Our two families have been friends for many years. I'm sure the elders won't stand by and do nothing."

As soon as he said this, the entire living room suddenly fell silent.

The matter with Sheng Tang Entertainment was naturally about the mistress incident. This matter had blown up, and the rumors outside were not that good.

Although Fu Yujia had pushed everything to Tang Yue and she let Mrs. Cao punish a few agents, it was impossible for Fu Yujia to stay out of this mess.

This was probably the last thing Madam Fu wanted to talk about.

Hearing Lu Heting's words, the expressions of the family changed.

Even Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu felt embarrassed.

However, there was nothing wrong with Lu Heting's words. They were simply the most dignified words on social occasions.

Lu Heting handed the gift in his hand to the two elders. "Su Bei bought this for you, Grandpa and Grandma. Please accept it."

Madam Fu finally stopped. She didn't dare to casually touch any topic about Su Bei anymore. No matter what she said, she had to look at Lu Heting's expression before she spoke.

Even after dinner, Madam Fu did not dare to say anything to sow discord.

After Lu Heting and Su Bei left, Madam Fu heaved a sigh of relief.

Fu Yujia loosened her grip slightly. Tonight, from the moment Lu Heting entered the door until he left, his gaze had been on Su Bei. He would only look at her when she spoke to him.

However, his gaze was completely different from when he looked at Su Bei.

"Grandpa Lu, Grandma Lu, I'll visit the two of you next time." Fu Yujia looked disappointed and lost in thought.

Old Master Lu looked at her and smiled. "Alright, next time, I'll help you find a good husband. You can't reject me."

Hearing this, Fu Yujia's heart turned cold, but she didn't show it on her face. She smiled and said, "Grandpa Lu, you really like to joke. You know that I'm still young."

...

After getting into the car, Lu Heting tilted his head and looked at Su Bei. "Aren't you going to ask me about Fu Yujia?"

"I've already asked others. It's normal for there to be women who grew up with you. The Lu family has many friends, so many people must've grown up with you. Did you think I'd take it to heart?" Su Bei smiled brightly.

Lu Heting pondered for a moment. "So you're not worried that I'll be snatched away?"

"What can be snatched away doesn't belong to me." Su Bei smiled. Feeling the man's aura deepen, she quickly tried to salvage the situation. "Of course, I can't let others snatch away such a good man like my husband."

Lu Heting's expression seemed to say, 'That was more like it.'

Su Bei told him about the current situation of Nirvana Entertainment and said, "I'll be a little busy recently. After all, this is Mr. Weijian's company. I don't want his dowry to keep getting smaller and smaller. Otherwise, he won't have the confidence to pursue her."

1

The word dowry made Lu Heting chuckle.

"Now that Brother Yue Ze is here, he'll bring a few newcomers out. Everything will be fine once they're on the right track." Su Bei was very confident.

"You can't be too tired. Otherwise, I'll ask Lu Weijian to come back immediately."

Su Bei smiled. "Yes, Hubby."

...

In the past few days, Mu Kai had indeed developed a lot of muscles.

He had a good foundation, and professional coaches were arranged in advance according to the artistes' activities so that the artistes would be in their ideal state.

According to Su Bei's request, Yue Ze asked Mu Kai to participate in a local fashion show. It was a very simple show. Generally speaking, only newcomers would participate in it.

Afraid that Mu Kai would overthink, Yue Ze even specially talked to him.

"Brother Yue Ze, I don't have any psychological burden. Anyway, what's the difference between me and a newcomer now?" Mu Kai said magnanimously.

"That's good. Although it's a small show, I hope you can give it your 100%," Yue Ze said.

Mu Kai nodded. "I got it."

Chapter 1504: After Leaving Sheng Tang, He's Worse Than A Dog

What he did not know was that the reason why Su Bei asked Yue Ze to help arrange this small show for him was that Su Bei had found out that a fashion leader who would be attending the international fashion show two days later would also be watching some small shows to look for talents.

This fashion leader was in his 60s, but he was very active. He had never stopped poaching newcomers, and brands were happy to use his newcomers.

Whether or not Mu Kai could take on such a heavy responsibility required him to prove himself during this small show.

Whether he could seize the opportunity or not was his own matter.

During the fashion show that day, Mu Kai really gave it his 100%.

This was his first time on stage after changing his appearance. His beard made him look like a yuppie and a gentleman, but it also covered his facial features.

Facing the camera, he felt more confident.

After leaving the stage, Yue Ze nodded at him. "Not bad. President Su plans to bring you to meet Senus."

"The fashion leader, Senus?" Mu Kai was surprised.

"That's right. Your performance today was not bad and Senus agreed to meet you. This is why you should take every show seriously. Every time you go on stage, countless pairs of eyes will be looking at you, and there's no lack of people who will give you a new opportunity if they find you good," Yue Ze said. "Perhaps performing well once or twice won't bring you anything, but your efforts will eventually be recognized."

Mu Kai nodded. He was glad that he had always been very serious about his work.

That night, Su Bei accompanied Yue Ze and Mu Kai to meet Senus as Su Lu.

Mu Kai originally came to Nirvana Entertainment for Yue Ze. His impression of Su Bei was average, and he did not think that she would bring him anything.

However, after hearing her conversation with Senus, he knew that Su Bei was definitely not ordinary.

Her understanding of the fashion industry and her knowledge of the modeling industry were no lower than anyone else's. What was even rarer was her fluent English. It was shocking and surprising.

Yue Ze looked at Mu Kai and saw that he was shocked. He couldn't help but laugh. The person in front of them was Su Bei, a legend in the modeling industry. When she took a step back from the industry, she made many find it regretful.

It was a piece of cake for her to help a model rise... And this was before she used her real identity.

If she used her real identity, Mu Kai would not even need to walk on the runway tonight to see Senus.

However, Su Bei did not want Mu Kai's success to come too easily. Sometimes, it was a good thing for young people to be more polished.

After saying goodbye to Senus, Mu Kai looked at Su Bei with admiration. "President Su, your English is very fluent."

"You can do it too. When the time comes, Brother Yue Ze will arrange a special English teacher for you. You'll find the skill handy when you go on the international runway in the future," Su Bei said with a smile.

Mu Kai immediately fell into deep thought. He imagined himself on the international runway and speaking in English in front of the entire world... Just thinking about it made him very excited.

...

Two days later, the Feeling International Fashion Show was held in Jingdu City as scheduled.

This matter concerned Yue Ze and Mu Kai's first opportunity, so Su Bei personally accompanied them.

As soon as she arrived, she saw Jia Chen and Li Xinxin all dressed up.

When Jia Chen saw Yue Ze, he was obviously stunned. It was obvious that he did not expect his artiste to enter such an international fashion show so quickly.

However, he immediately became arrogant and greeted with a smile, "Hello, Brother Yue. Are you here today to watch the show?"

"I'm working," Yue Ze replied simply.

"Oh, I almost forgot. That person, Li Kai, no, that's not right. Zhang Kai? Or something else? He followed you here." Jia Chen seemed to be thinking hard, but he didn't say the correct name. He spread his hands apologetically. "I'm really sorry. I was too busy to ever remember that colleague's name."

Standing at the side, Mu Kai's face was extremely tense.

Yue Ze said unhurriedly, "It's normal for noble people to forget things. However, you'll remember it in the future."

"Brother Yue Ze, are you threatening me?" Jia Chen made a scared expression. "I'm very scared."

However, Li Xinxin smiled. "Jia Chen, stop fooling around. You're the opening today. You have to cherish the opportunity that Director Huang has fought for you. It's really a rare opportunity to open and close for an international fashion show like Feeling. Don't waste your time on these unimportant people. Anyway, some people are worse than dogs after leaving Sheng Tang."

Mu Kai clenched his fists. Yue Ze quickly stopped him and said, "Don't be rash."

Jia Chen raised his eyebrows evilly and said, "Brother Yue Ze, I have to go and prepare. You know as well that the preparations for being the opener will take a long time."

Seeing that Yue Ze did not respond, he and Li Xinxin left smugly.

Li Xinxin said, "Next time you see them, don't say too much. It's simply a waste of life to waste time with such people."

"How can we not let Yue Ze see our success? He's always thought highly of himself, but he didn't push us to be top models. Does he really think that we can't live without him? Now that I can be the opener of Feeling, how can I not slap this achievement in his face?"

Li Xinxin smiled and said, "It'll be a slap in his face when you get the endorsement."

"I'm determined to win this endorsement," Jia Chen said confidently.

Huang Liming had already told him that as long as he successfully opened the show, he would be the brand ambassador.

This was a good opportunity to make himself famous in the entire S Country.

It was also a good opportunity for him to enter the ranks of top models.

Li Xinxin knew that her boyfriend would be fine. He was tall, thin, and charming. One look from him could make people scream.

Once he gained a foothold, his value would rise.

This was something that Yue Ze could not provide.

How stupid. Yue Ze actually went to Nirvana Entertainment.

And that person named Kai something was also stupid enough to go to that kind of company.

The show was about to begin. Yue Ze and Su Bei were relieved after talking with Mu Kai.

Thinking about his usual performance, there was nothing to worry about.

“Just perform as usual,” Yue Ze said.

Backstage, Yue Ze was accompanying Mu Kai.

Su Bei went to the main venue.

Upon entering the venue, she felt relaxed and happy. The lights on the stage suddenly lit up, and the first model walked on stage.

It was Jia Chen.

It had to be said that he was indeed qualified. His long legs and height matched the ratio that was expected of supermodels.

However, his thin figure was not suitable for this brand.

This brand reflected a mature business elite. A mature man would rarely be very thin. Instead, he should look healthy and strong.

Chapter 1505: How Could It Be That Person?

It seemed that Sheng Tang Entertainment had suffered a blow from all aspects recently, so in order to stabilize people’s hearts, they were fighting for resources. Whether the artistes were a suitable match for the brand or not was not in their considerations.

After Jia Chen left the stage, he was full of confidence.

He immediately called Huang Liming.

Huang Liming was also full of confidence. “No problem. Don’t worry. I’ve already communicated with the fashion leader, Senus. As long as there’s no big problem with your opening, you’ll be the spokesperson for the brand.”

“Thank you, Director Huang.”

Li Xinxin also walked over and hugged Jia Chen. “Congratulations, my dear. You’re Feeling’s new brand ambassador.”

“Thank you, Miss Ambassador.” Jia Chen smiled.

They celebrated with each other and poured themselves some red wine. Their faces were brimming with happiness.

Looking at the models who appeared later, Jia Chen knew that they were all uncompetitive.

Only the model who was the closing act could compete with him.

1

All the big shows would use the most important models as the opening and closing acts.

Sometimes, the one closing the show was even more important than the opening it.

Seeing his expression, Li Xinxin knew what he was worried about. She said, "Mr. Ambassador, don't think too much. Didn't Director Huang say that the model closing the show today is a European model? Feeling is going to expand their market in S Country. Their brand ambassador can't be European or American. It has to be a native of S Country. There's no need to worry about that."

Jia Chen finished his glass of red wine and smiled. "I'm not worried. I'm just thinking about where we'll enjoy ourselves when we become top supermodels."

Li Xinxin smiled and threw herself into his arms.

However, they soon heard some bad news. Mu Kai was the model for the closing!

1

"How could it be that person?" Only then did Jia Chen remember that his colleague's name was Mu Kai.

In his impression, Mu Kai did not have much of a presence, and his facial features were even worse. When he was in Sheng Tang Entertainment, he was completely at the bottom.

Li Xinxin frowned and said, "Yue Ze really held himself back. He never fought for you in the past, but now he's given Mu Kai such a precious opportunity!"

Jia Chen sneered. "So what if it's Mu Kai? With his figure and appearance, he's dreaming of competing with me?"

He had seen Mu Kai with Li Xinxin just now, but he did not recognize him at all.

The current Mu Kai was no longer the same as before.

Then, they saw Mu Kai go on stage.

There was a burst of applause outside.

However, this did not affect Jia Chen's confidence. After all, it was normal for there to be applause when the event was coming to an end. This was the most basic etiquette of the audience.

He calmly returned to the stage with the other models.

The fashion leader, Senus, appeared with all the models.

Then, Senus took the microphone from the host and said, "I want to thank the people of S Country for their love and recognition of our brand. Today, I also want to take this opportunity to announce Feeling's first brand ambassador in S Country."

Jia Chen was full of confidence. He looked at Yue Ze and Su Bei in the front row, completely disregarding them.

As soon as Senus announced his name, he would immediately step forward and bow to the audience.

“Our brand ambassador is-

“Mu Kai!”

When Senus said these two words, Jia Chen had already taken half a step forward. When he retracted his leg, his face turned red and he felt dizzy.

He looked at Yue Ze and Su Bei. The two of them were talking softly with calm expressions. In his opinion, the two of them were mocking him.

The reporters had already started interviewing Senus. “We’re establishing a business elite style this time. It’s a mature and gentlemanly style. Mr. Mu Kai’s appearance and temperament are quite compatible with us.”

The reporters began to take photos, impressed by Mu Kai’s appearance.

The aesthetics of the people of S Country were more childish. Even among models, young hunks were more popular. There were relatively few who had beards, so they were a rare sight.

On the other hand, Mu Kai was compatible with the brand in all aspects. Naturally, the reporters would not be stingy with the film.

That night, Mu Kai’s photos were also released to the public.

He had broad shoulders, long legs, and a gentlemanly demeanor. His muscles were well-defined, making fans who had not seen such models in the market for a long time very excited.

Mu Kai became famous overnight.

As for Jia Chen, although he was not bad, he was reduced to cannon fodder.

Jia Chen angrily looked for Huang Liming, who spread out his hands. “I’m also very angry that Senus changed his mind at the last minute. It’s not like you don’t know that foreigners are difficult to deal with. I spent a lot of effort this time. Who knew that Mu Kai would intercept me?”

Huang Liming’s ability to shirk responsibility was top-notch.

Finally, he comforted him. “Soon, soon. There’s going to be an international show soon. I’ll fight for a chance for you. Then, I’ll hype up you and Li Xinxin as a good-looking couple. At that time, won’t it be easy to defeat Mu Kai?”

Jia Chen could only believe his words.

However, he was unwilling to let the matter go just like this. He took out his phone and contacted a marketing account.

Mu Kai’s popularity boosted everyone’s confidence in Nirvana Entertainment’s prospects.

Yue Ze also gained a foothold in Nirvana Entertainment.

And Su Bei’s reputation grew as well. Everyone was convinced by the decisions she made now.

However, as soon as Mu Kai became famous, the internet began to criticize him. People brought up the fact that Mu Kai was from Sheng Tang Entertainment. They wondered if he was involved in the mistress incident. Perhaps he was a fox who also destroyed others' families.

They even said that Yue Ze might be the manager who caused the mistress incident back then. Otherwise, he wouldn't have left Sheng Tang Entertainment so quickly.

In fact, not many people believed in such brainless people. However, there were people who reposted those comments without any doubt. It was quite a headache, and it did not have a good impact on Nirvana Entertainment.

Yue Ze was so angry that he laughed. "Maybe they can only slander me and Mu Kai like this. After all, they can't find any other dirt on us."

"Redness comes from being in the dark," Su Bei said. "Since the reporters want to respond so much, I'll respond to them when the time comes."

Sure enough, when they got off work that day, Su Bei and Yue Ze were surrounded by reporters at the entrance of the company. Logically speaking, these reporters could not stay here for long. It was Su Bei who specially asked the security guards not to chase them away.

"President Su, can you tell me what happened to Yue Ze and Mu Kai recently? Were they involved in the mistress incident or did they do anything else to exchange their bodies for remuneration? Did they leave behind any dirt?"

Chapter 1506: That's More Like It

"President Su, does Nirvana Entertainment know about the gossip on the internet? Has Mu Kai ever accompanied a rich woman or even a rich big shot?"

Su Bei smiled at him. "Do you have any evidence for such scandals? If you don't have any photos or evidence, can I accuse you of brainless slander?"

The reporter was a little scared. "We're just verifying it based on what we saw on the internet. This isn't our own speculation."

"In that case, let me tell you that it's nonsense. Previously, the celebrities who were supposed to be dealt with in Sheng Tang Entertainment's mistress incident were handed lawyer's letters and are currently being punished by the law. The agents who participated had all been handed over by Sheng Tang Entertainment as well.

"Previously, some people from Sheng Tang Entertainment did mess around, but it has nothing to do with Nirvana Entertainment. Yue Ze and Mu Kai got a new lease on life by coming to Nirvana Entertainment. If anyone thinks that they've done something, please submit a lawyer's letter and sue them! If not, please remember that those things had never been done by people from Nirvana Entertainment!"

On the one hand, Su Bei was helping Mu Kai and Yue Ze out of their predicament. On the other hand, she was secretly helping Sheng Tang Entertainment.

No one could find any evidence against her. After all, what she said was the truth. She also said that it was only some people from Sheng Tang Entertainment who did those things and did not blame the entire company.

Moreover, she cleverly compared Sheng Tang Entertainment to Nirvana Entertainment.

It was all done implicitly, but it hurt Sheng Tang Entertainment's reputation and image.

It was not easy for them to calm things down, and no one was allowed to talk about it anymore. With Su Bei's words, however, there was another wave of discussion. Gossip kept adding to the gossip.

The label of 'prostitution den' that Sheng Tang Entertainment was finally about to rid themselves was once again stuck tightly on them.

Fu Yujia lost her temper during the meeting.

Huang Liming was furious. In the end, he spent money to delete all the posts.

Jia Chen and Li Xinxin immediately shrank back like quails, not daring to cause trouble again.

At this moment, the reputation of Nirvana Entertainment gradually improved.

Su Bei asked Yue Ze to add fitness and boxing courses for Mu Kai. Since he wanted to take this path, they had to make him more glorious.

...

At night, Su Bei sorted out the paintings she had drawn at home.

Da Bao and Gun Gun helped her.

Lu Heting came back to help as well.

There were many paintings of all sizes.

Su Bei counted and said with a sense of accomplishment, "I didn't expect to have painted so many just by casually painting with Gun Gun."

"It's obvious that you spend a lot of time with your son," Lu Heting said with heartache.

"Of course, I have to accompany my own son."

Gun Gun raised his little face. "That's right. I'm still a little kid. I need Bei Bei to accompany me."

1

Lu Heting picked him up and walked toward the children's room. "Little boy, go to bed early tonight. It's not healthy to stay up late."

Gun Gun kicked his short legs. "I still want to play with Bei Bei."

Lu Heting didn't give him a chance. He threw him back to his room. Gun Gun was angry. Da Bao walked in and said, "Alright, go to bed."

1

"It's good to have Brother Da Bao accompany me." Gun Gun made a face at Lu Heting's back.

After Su Bei sorted out the paintings, she gave them to Qian Gouhua.

Qian Gouhua's art exhibition was almost ready. He was just waiting to hang up the paintings.

When he received Su Bei's paintings, his eyes behind his lenses lit up. "Not bad, Su Lu! These paintings of yours aren't inferior to the ones I saw before. This exhibition will definitely be a success."

"Brother Gouhua." Su Bei was familiar with him now and no longer called him 'Mr. Qian'. "This is almost all of them. Use them as you see fit. I might not have much time to paint after this. I'll be taking it easy."

"I know, I know. You're the big boss of Nirvana Entertainment now. You must be busy," Qian Gouhua said. "I'll make the proper arrangements."

...

A few days later, Su Bei's art exhibition was held as scheduled.

Qian Gouhua had a lot of experience in this line of work and was familiar with the process. He had already done some publicity work on the internet.

After Su Bei's representative works were posted on the internet, they attracted the attention of many professionals and painting enthusiasts.

On the day of the exhibition, Su Bei was still busy dealing with documents at Nirvana Entertainment.

Not long after, Yue Ze walked in and said, "Su Bei, I don't know who sent you so many flower stands. The entire company is almost full of them."

Coincidentally, Qian Gouhua also took a photo and sent it over. [Su Lu, you're really something. This art exhibition has just started, but so many people are already sending their congratulations.]

Su Bei walked out of the office and frowned at the many flower baskets. On each flower stand was written: [Congratulations to Su Lu's exhibition!]

There was also the name of the art exhibition, the address, and so on.

Looking at the penmanship, it was impossible for Lu Heting to have done it. It was mainly because he was not that bored and would not give her such lame things.

Besides, Su Bei's art exhibition this time was just a small attempt. She did not plan to announce it to the world with great fanfare. Lu Heting also knew she wanted to keep a low profile.

When Su Lu walked out, the employees outside congratulated him with smiles. "President Su, congratulations!"

"President Su, you're so talented! Congratulations! We'll go and support you when we have time!"

Su Bei could only smile. "Thank you, everyone. Go ahead with your work. There's no need to pay too much attention to this."

Yue Ze, Chen Ce, and Lin Tong immediately ordered a flower stand and sent it over as well. Mu Kai excitedly went to buy a large bouquet of flowers.

They had agreed not to make a big deal out of it, but almost everyone knew about it now.

Su Bei thought of Lu Weijian and gritted her teeth.

Coincidentally, Lu Weijian called. The first thing he said was, "Congratulations, Sister Bei Bei. Sister Bei Bei, you're really good at the zither, chess, calligraphy, and painting. You know everything! Sister Bei Bei is the best! Long live Sister Bei Bei!"

"Lu Weijian!" Su Bei touched her forehead. "I told you not to make a scene. Are you afraid that people won't know enough about me? You're afraid that your legs won't be broken, huh?"

1

"What's wrong? Can't I even make a call?" Lu Weijian said aggrievedly.

"Just a call? Nirvana Entertainment is packed with flower stands now! Can you get someone to take some away first?"

Thank you for reading on myboxnovel.com

Lu Weijian felt even more aggrieved. "It really isn't me! Big Brother told me to keep a low profile, and I did! I didn't do anything! I know, it must be Huo Zhong. That kid did it. He wants to frame me! He wants you to expose your identity so that Grandpa and Grandma will break my legs!"

Chapter 1507: Tools For Being Elegant

Su Bei was speechless.

Lu Weijian had already grabbed Huo Zhong. "Huo Zhong, tell me the truth. Did you deliberately send flower stands to Sister Bei Bei? You clearly know that Sister Bei Bei's identity as Su Lu can't be exposed now. What do you think you're doing by sending the flower stands?"

"What's wrong with it? I'm just expressing my admiration for Su Bei and Da Bao. What's wrong with my admiration for Su Bei and Da Bao?"

"You're shameless!" Lu Weijian said angrily, "That's my Sister Bei Bei. What does she have to do with you? She doesn't need your admiration! Take it back!"

Su Bei heard the two people fighting again. They did not look like the people in charge of the Huo family at all.

She sighed and hung up the phone, cutting off the demonic voices on the other end.

However, after Huo Zhong's commotion, the outside world knew that President Su Lu of Nirvana Entertainment was holding an art exhibition.

Of course, the outside world had mixed opinions about such things.

[Art exhibition? Isn't he just relying on Nirvana Entertainment's reputation to flatter himself?]

[I don't see anything good in those paintings.]

Jia Chen and Li Xinxin had suffered at Su Bei's hands. They used their alternate accounts to fan the flames and criticize Su Bei. They said that the things she drew were ignorant and she had no talent at all. She just wanted to use this as an excuse to earn money.

However, there were also people who praised Su Bei's paintings. They were beautiful and displayed high elegance. They were not gaudy or pretentious.

Among the differing comments, Su Bei's art exhibition caught the attention of everyone as soon as it started. It was really popular.

At night, Su Bei decided to go over and take a look.

She had changed into a white T-shirt and black trousers. She was still dressed like an ordinary young man.

As soon as Qian Gouhua saw her, he held her hand and said, "Su Lu, you're really a talent. No wonder your artistes will all become popular in the entertainment industry. With all the hype, the number of people who came today is much higher than I expected. Moreover, everyone is discussing your work now. This art exhibition is really very successful!"

Su Bei really wanted to say that she didn't hype anything up at all. Who knew that Huo Zhong would find out about this exhibition and things would end up like this?

However, she knew that Qian Gouhua would not believe her even if she said it, so she could not be bothered to explain.

"There are a lot of reporters over there. But I haven't arranged any interviews for you yet. It's the pursuit of us cultural and art creators to maintain a little mystery," Qian Gouhua said.

There were also many people from Nirvana Entertainment, and Su Bei could tell that they were all here to give their superior face. Su Bei had to entertain them for a while.

On the second day of the exhibition, there was finally time to relax. The people who came were basically true enthusiasts, not people who wanted to join in the fun.

However, the news from the day before also came out. It pointed out that all of Su Bei's actions were just hype. Moreover, the people who attended the art exhibition were all from Nirvana Entertainment. There were even photos.

Sure enough, the photos were filled with managers and artistes of Nirvana Entertainment, as well as various staff members.

Since Jia Chen and Li Xinxin had seized this opportunity, they naturally had to see it to the end.

Huang Liming immediately paid a marketing account to post on Su Bei's exhibition.

[The president of Nirvana Entertainment opened an art exhibition. Everyone is supporting him.]

[Paintings are a tool for some rich people to pretend to be elegant?]

Qian Gouhua slammed the table angrily. "Nonsense! These people don't know what real art is at all! Anyone can paint. But whether they paint well or not has nothing to do with the identity of the person who paints it! These people are simply uncultured and have no taste!"

Su Bei smiled and advised him, "Forget it. Brother Gouhua, don't be angry with these people. It's not worth it to be angry."

“Hmph, what do those people know? How dare they evaluate you like that? They should be nailed to the pillar of shame in the arts!”

“Brother Gouhua, in your professional opinion, how are my results this time?”

“Of course, they’re top-notch!” Qian Gouhua was all smiles. “Firstly, there are people of all ages here. Secondly, they have a good evaluation of your painting. As long as the media doesn’t say anything bad about you, everything will be fine.”

Su Bei nodded. “There are still two days left until our art exhibition. The media will only be lively for a while before the news passes. They’ll also need to fork out money to defame me unless they’re willing to disregard the cost.”

“That makes sense!” Qian Gouhua nodded. “But I’m going out to take a look. I have to be on guard against thieves and pickpockets.”

“There are such people at an art exhibition?”

At the mention of this, Qian Gouhua beat his chest and stomped his feet. “You don’t know this, but a good painting was stolen from an art exhibition I held previously. It would’ve been fine even if I had lost everything, but the most important thing is that the painting was the apple of my eye. These days, anything can happen.”

Su Bei walked out and looked around the scene. She bumped into a sneaky woman wearing a mask. She grabbed the other party’s wrist and asked, “What are you doing?”

“I-I wasn’t doing anything. I’m sorry, Mr. Su. I didn’t mean to dress like this...” The woman took off her mask, revealing a palm-sized face.

It was Xu Zhiqin, a manager from the company. Su Bei frowned. “Why are you dressed like this?”

“President Su, I like your paintings very much, but I’m afraid that if I just come over to take a look, the media will write some nonsense about it. I’m dressed like this because I don’t want to cause you trouble.”

When Su Bei came to Nirvana Entertainment, she learned about Xu Zhiqin. She was originally an actress. Back then, many directors thought highly of her and she won the Best Newcomer Award. However, she suddenly quit and became a manager.

Apart from some emotional regard, there was nothing bad about her.

Su Bei let go of her. “It’s okay. Since you’re here, attend it openly. You shouldn’t be afraid of what the people outside will say.”

“The people outside have gone too far,” Xu Zhiqin said.

“They can say whatever they want.” Actually, Su Bei did not mind. The evaluation given by the people who came to the art exhibition was what was true.

Most of the comments she heard were praises. Even when they pointed out shortcomings, they were reasonable.

Xu Zhiqin nodded and said, "Mr. Su, I'll continue to look at the paintings."

After saying that, she turned around and gave him a thumbs-up. "You're really amazing. That's what I'm saying as an enthusiast."

With that, she joined the crowd.

Su Bei pursed her lips and smiled.

As she was thinking, she heard someone outside say, "Oh my God, am I seeing things? Is this true?"

"I also want to know if it's true!"

Chapter 1508: Undeniable

"It's actually Lin Xiruo! That talented painter! I've been dreaming of seeing her. I really didn't expect to see her here."

1

"It's her. It's true! Time really favors her. It didn't leave much of a mark on her."

"And she's so gentle. I'm envious."

Most of the people present liked paintings, so it was not strange for them to recognize Lin Xiruo.

Su Bei found it strange. Who was so big-mouthed that they told her mother she was holding an art exhibition?

1

It was supposed to be a small art exhibition, but even her mother was alerted about it. Su Bei was a little embarrassed.

However, since she was already here, she could only welcome her.

Today, there were still many reporters outside. Many of them were attracted by the headlines posted by those marketing accounts. They all wanted to report more on this news.

Unexpectedly, after waiting for an entire day, the people who came were just painting enthusiasts. The reporters were already a little bored and were about to return home. They did not expect to see this big shot in the painting world.

It was different from the last time she was photographed by reporters in the movie theater. At that time, Lin Xiruo did not wear any makeup at all and her mental state was extremely bad. She looked like a passerby. After returning to the country, she could only be referred to as He Xuyan's mother.

Today was different.

She was in high spirits and had put on simple and suitable light makeup. Her facial features were gentle, making her look like a spring breeze.

The reporters were excited and immediately started filming. "Lin Xiruo, look over here! Over here!"

“Lin Xiruo, may I ask why you’re here today?” a reporter immediately asked.

Lin Xiruo smiled. “This young man’s paintings have piqued my interest, so I came to take a look. I didn’t expect to meet reporters here. Please focus more on the paintings and don’t steal the limelight. I’ll excuse myself now.”

With that, she entered the exhibition with her assistant.

Su Bei went forward. Lin Xiruo glanced at her and nodded politely and distantly. Then, she passed by her. From her expression, it was as if she did not know her at all.

So... her mother didn’t come to support her? Was it purely because she admired her paintings?

1

Su Bei was stunned. This was really... unimaginable.

Just now, it was Xu Zhiqin. Now, it was her mother. It turned out that her paintings were really popular.

Su Bei sent a message to He Xuyan. [Do you know the painter, Su Lu?]

[I don’t.]

[Did you know that Mom came to see his art exhibition?]

[Mom likes going to art exhibitions very much. As long as it’s something she likes, she’ll go. However, over the years, as her ability gradually improves, there are very few painters who can make her take the initiative to go to their art exhibitions. If Mom has gone for the exhibition, then that painter must have some merits.]

Su Bei nodded gently. It turned out that she really had some redeeming qualities.

He Xuyan sent another message. [What’s wrong? Is there a problem?]

Su Bei replied: [No, I just saw Mom appear at Su Lu’s art exhibition. I was just asking.]

She walked in and saw her mother stopping in front of every painting. She had a serious expression and would occasionally chat with her assistant.

Qian Gouhua came over and pulled Su Bei. “Su Lu, look! My taste is accurate, right?! You’ve obtained the recognition of a great painter! I didn’t expect Lin Xiruo to come to your art exhibition! It’s your honor and mine!”

Su Bei carefully took a photo of Lin Xiruo gazing at her painting and sent it to Lu Heting. [Mr. Lu, I’ve gained the recognition of a great painter!]

Lu Heting replied: [Your painting skills were first recognized by the head of Lu Group.]

[So I’m really awesome.] Su Bei smiled.

[That’s undeniable.] This time, Lu Heting’s mellow message was intoxicating.

Su Bei pursed her lips.

As Lin Xiruo had come to Su Bei's art exhibition, the reporters naturally did not leave out the information in their reports.

As a result, they were also willing to shoot Su Bei's paintings, unlike before when they only cared about getting news on Nirvana Entertainment.

This time, there were fewer doubts. After all, both praise and criticisms cost money.

This wave of news surged discussions.

Su Bei became famous again as a painter.

Su Bei had tested Lin Xiruo before. Lin Xiruo really did not know that she was Su Lu.

After a few days, Su Bei gave a simple interview before returning home.

Filming, managing the company, and painting... During this period of time, Su Bei had been working hard.

After sending Da Bao and Gun Gun to their room, she sat on the sofa and dealt with some work. When she closed her eyes, she instantly fell asleep.

When Lu Heting returned home, he saw the woman on the sofa. A smile appeared on his lips, but his eyes were filled with heartache.

When she was asleep, her expression relaxed, and there was a calm smile on her lips. Doing what she liked made her tired but happy.

When Su Bei was in a daze, she felt that there was someone in front of her. When she opened her eyes, she could feel his breath. The smile on her lips widened as she smiled. "You're back?"

"Mhm." Lu Heting put down his coat, rolled up his sleeves, and massaged her shoulders.

Su Bei snorted in comfort, and Lu Heting laughed. "Are you feeling better now?"

"I feel much better now." Su Bei smiled softly.

"This is for you." He took out a bottle of Coke from somewhere.

Su Bei's eyes lit up. "For me? I haven't drunk it in a long time. Hubby, you're the best."

Although it was just a small bottle, it was enough.

"Yes, you still have to go easy on your stomach, so you can only take a small bottle." Lu Heting's eyes were filled with indulgence.

She raised her head and took two sips. Then she sighed softly and handed it to him. "Do you want it?"

"I'm not thirsty," Lu Heting said. She hadn't drunk it in a long time, so it was fine to let her have a small bottle.

Su Bei took it back and sipped it again.

“By the way, I also left you sweet and sour pork ribs. I made them myself! Gun Gun ate three big bowls of rice at dinner! I’ll get the food out for you.” Su Bei put on her slippers and rushed into the kitchen.

Lu Heting followed her and leaned against the kitchen door. Looking at her back, his eyes were filled with joy.

...

Su Lu’s identity was too popular in Nirvana Entertainment, and it was convincing enough. The rest of the work would be much easier from now on.

The training plan for newbies was also progressing smoothly.

The company entered a normal orbit.

Yue Ze was also placed in an important position.

However, under these circumstances, Vice President Hu’s life was not easy.

Chapter 1509: For Himself

Even the director, Gao Ban, only had eyes for Su Bei now and would follow her whenever he was free.

Su Bei knew that this person was cunning, but he was not a bad person, so she would give him some work to do.

Vice President Hu was low profile to begin with, and he would soon lose any real power in his hands.

Between him and Su Bei, it was clear to all who was the more capable one when it came to resolving Mrs. Cao’s matter.

However, while others were convinced by Su Bei, he was not!

He had connections and ability, which was why Lu Weijian had personally poached him. He couldn’t bow down to a young man like Su Lu!

He called Lu Weijian, and Lu Weijian answered.

“Mr. Weijian, now that Su Lu is in charge of Nirvana Entertainment, I’m afraid that there won’t be a place for you when you come back.”

Lu Weijian was busy. The Huo family’s matters were not any easier to deal with than the matters of Nirvana Entertainment, especially with Huo Zhong around.

He said perfunctorily, “So what if there’s no place for me?”

1

Vice President Hu: “...”

He said, “But Su Lu is acting as though he owns the company! This is intolerable!”

“Then so be it. What can you do about it?” His sister-in-law had to be pampered even if it meant he had to kneel to her!

1

Vice President Hu was completely speechless.

Since Lu Weijian didn't care, he would handle the problem himself.

...

This was when the news of Mu Kai's accident came about.

When Yue Ze received the call, he was shocked. "What? A fight? Are you injured? I'll be right there!"

Now, Mu Kai was his trump card and the leading star of Nirvana Entertainment. If something happened to Mu Kai, it would definitely be a big problem.

Su Bei received his message and replied: [Go ahead. I'll be right there.]

Yue Ze drove the car to the hospital in fear. When he walked in and saw Mu Kai, he heaved a sigh of relief. He looked like he had only suffered a small injury and was fine. His mind was still working well, and he didn't have many wounds on his body.

But a few others were injured, and someone had called the police.

"What happened?" Yue Ze asked immediately.

"I was drinking with a few friends outside. Who knew that these people would provoke us and deliberately cause trouble?" Mu Kai said. "Then they started a fight with us. Fortunately, I've been practicing boxing recently. These people are no match for me at all, so I didn't get injured. On the contrary, they're the ones who got hurt."

Mu Kai's physique was not just for show. When he fought, he was not weak at all. It was just that his leg was slightly injured with a few small wounds.

Fortunately, he was a male model. These small wounds would not affect things.

The injured people were still shouting, "You injured us, yet you want to let the matter slide just like that? I want you to go to jail and compensate us!"

Mu Kai said in a low voice, "Compensate? Go to jail? You're the ones who deliberately provoked me! Even if someone has to go to jail and compensate, it's you guys!"

"Alright, there's no need to talk to them anymore. The most important thing now is not to escalate the situation," Yue Ze said. "I've already gotten someone to get the surveillance footage at the bar. There must be an explanation for all of this. We'll know who's right and who's wrong soon."

When those people heard that they were going to check the surveillance footage, they immediately felt a little guilty.

A moment later, Su Bei came over. After hearing the whole story, she said, "I've brought a lawyer over to deal with it. This lawyer will take full responsibility for Mu Kai's matter."

Those people were even more terrified now. They did not expect things to turn out like this.

Su Bei knew what kind of person Mu Kai was. After working with him for a while, she realized that Mu Kai cherished this rare opportunity more than others. Besides, he did not have any bad drinking habits. When he was drunk, he would only fall asleep and not mess around.

Therefore, these people must have a motive.

It was obvious from their guilty expressions.

“Um... We were just drunk, so we hit him. It’s not a big deal...” the leader of the group of people said. “Why don’t we just let this matter go?”

The lawyers behind Su Bei were all dressed in suits and leather shoes. They looked serious and scary.

These people were just paid to cause trouble for Mu Kai. They only had to injure him and run away. No one was supposed to catch them.

Unexpectedly, Mu Kai’s boxing practice recently was quite effective. Things got out of hand.

Now that Nirvana Entertainment was taking action, the leader of the other party begged Su Bei, “Mr. Su, let’s talk things out.”

“Okay, then tell me what’s going on,” Su Bei asked.

“Someone gave me a little money and said that they want to cause trouble for Mu Kai. It would be best if we injured him so badly that he couldn’t go on stage, but we couldn’t cause too much trouble. Therefore, the few of us agreed. When we think of artistes, we wouldn’t think they’d have any combat strength, but who knew things would end up this way?” The person smiled bitterly.

“Who was it?” Su Bei’s tone was a little cold.

“We don’t know either. No one will reveal their identities in such a situation.”

Looking at that person’s expression, Su Bei figured he really did not know the identity of the person. However, she already knew what was going on.

Mu Kai’s background was very simple. There was nothing outstanding about him. Su Bei knew all his friends who drank with him. They were all new artistes signed by Nirvana Entertainment.

If anyone really had a grudge against him, it would be Jia Chen and Li Xinxin!

The reason was very simple. Mu Kai’s sudden rise had blocked Jia Chen’s path. Soon, there would be an international fashion show in the country. This was the best time for Jia Chen to surpass Mu Kai.

Unfortunately, Jia Chen was not skilled enough. He wanted to surpass Mu Kai, and he could only use such an opportunity.

Su Bei left the matter to the lawyers and left the hospital with Yue Ze and Mu Kai.

Yue Ze said, “President Su, I think this matter has something to do with Jia Chen and Li Xinxin.”

“I think so too. This international fashion show is very important. If Mu Kai does well, his career as a supermodel will be stabilized from here on. Jia Chen and Li Xinxin also want to rely on this chance to lay their foundation,” Su Bei said. “They’re dreaming! It seems that we can’t let them be this time.”

Her tone was calm, and her expression looked ordinary. However, Yue Ze and Mu Kai could hear the murderous intent in Su Bei's words.

Su Bei looked at Mu Kai and said, "Mu Kai, we can't give them any chance this time. Can you do it?"

"I can!" Mu Kai said loudly.

Jia Chen actually used such a method to deal with him. It made him feel bitterly disappointed and humiliated.

Fortunately, Su Bei and Yue Ze would not give Jia Chen such a chance!

This battle was for the company and himself!

He would not let his guard down!

Chapter 1510: You Have Your Ace

This international fashion show was a rare opportunity for every model.

If one performed well on such a big show, one's social status would rise. Some famous supermodels would use this opportunity to stabilize their status.

More importantly, there would not be another international fashion show like this held in S Country until the next year.

The duration of a model's professional career was far shorter than that of actors and singers.

If one missed a year, one might miss the best opportunity in one's career.

Therefore, this time, all the models who could appear on the stage attached great importance to this big show.

Sheng Tang Entertainment even dispatched Sister Wen Wen because they wanted to nurture another batch of heavyweight supermodels.

Jia Chen and Li Xinxin were the most favored ones.

Back then, in order to keep them in the company, Huang Liming had promised them a lot of things. Fu Yujia had also placed her hopes on them.

This time, they could only succeed and not fail!

However, the people who had spent money to hit Mu Kai were beaten up instead. Not only was Mu Kai fine, but those people also had to take responsibility.

Jia Chen was glad that he had only asked his friend to look for these people and never once showed his face. Otherwise, he would be the one bearing the legal responsibility.

...

Su Bei was also seriously preparing for this big show.

There was a knock on the door, and she said, "Come in."

Xu Zhiqin walked in and said, "President Su, I have something to tell you."

She looked a little troubled, but she mustered up her courage.

"Go ahead." Su Bei put down her pen and looked at her.

"I went out to eat with a friend that day and accidentally bumped into Vice President Hu. He was on the phone. When he spoke, he mentioned your name. Although I don't know what he said exactly, his tone sounded terrible... I don't dare to guess, but I thought it'd be better to tell you," Xu Zhiqin said.

Su Bei nodded gently. "Okay, I understand. I'll be careful."

Actually, Su Bei had already expected that Vice President Hu was still not convinced by her.

Seeing that Su Bei didn't take it seriously, Xu Zhiqin didn't say anything else. Before leaving, she turned around and said, "President Su, Vice President Hu was quite ruthless in the past. You'd better be careful."

Su Bei glanced at her, and Xu Zhiqin walked out.

Xu Zhiqin didn't know if Su Bei would really pay her words any heed, but that was all she could do.

Su Bei made a call and asked someone to pay attention to Vice President Hu's movements.

During this period of time, everything had been calm and peaceful. She had yet to find a chance to kick Vice President Hu out of the company, but if he did anything, she could not be blamed for her actions.

Soon, it was the day of the international fashion show.

The show this time was obviously much grander than the last one.

Yue Ze explained to Mu Kai, "Last time, it was just a single brand show for the fashion leader, Senus. But this time, it's different. This time, dozens of brands will appear together. Countless fashion personalities and designers from Italy, France, and the United Kingdom will also attend. A big show like this can only be held in S Country every few years."

Mu Kai nodded. "I'll seize the opportunity."

"Sister Wen Wen is here today. With her strength, it won't be difficult for her to help Jia Chen and Li Xinxin," Yue Ze said. "But you have to remember that you have your trump card."

Mu Kai nodded solemnly again.

Jia Chen and Li Xinxin had just announced their relationship. Although the two of them were not famous, their sweet relationship and couple photos still won them a lot of praise.

This was a good opportunity for the two of them to increase their status together. In order to attract attention, the organizers had arranged for the two of them to go on stage together.

There were already many fans who came to see them today.

Jia Chen recalled what had happened last time with a solemn expression.

Li Xinxin smiled and advised, "My dear, what are you worried about? What happened last time is already in the past. It's impossible for Mu Kai to be so lucky every time. This time, the two of us will make a big opening together while Mu Kai was just a small closing act. He can't compare to us at all."

The so-called 'big opening' referred to this fashion show.

Meanwhile, the 'small closing act' referred to the previous fashion show.

As the name implied, there was a difference between the two.

The opening and closing acts for small shows could not compare to those of the big shows. This was publicly acknowledged.

When Li Xinxin said this, Jia Chen's expression relaxed a little. "Where's Sister Wen Wen?"

"She'll be here soon," Li Xinxin said and looked up. "Sister Wen Wen!"

Sister Wen Wen was now a supermodel of Sheng Tang Entertainment, but her status had faintly surpassed all the other artistes in the company.

She was also the most valuable artiste in Sheng Tang Entertainment after Su Bei.

Her name was always compared to Su Bei's.

Because she had a perfect figure and was very experienced in dealing with people, everyone respectfully called her 'Sister Wen Wen.' This title had already become her name.

Sister Wen Wen walked over and asked, "Are you ready?"

"Of course, Sister Wen Wen!" Li Xinxin immediately said. "With your support, Jia Chen and I will definitely work hard to make today's show a success!"

Sister Wen Wen nodded and said, "Alright. In that case, I'll bring you on stage tonight!"

"Really?" Li Xinxin was excited.

Jia Chen's eyes lit up.

The two of them had already fought for the chance to be the opening act. Now that Sister Wen Wen said she was going to bring them up on stage with her, their progression this time would definitely be very stable!

"Get ready!" Sister Wen Wen said, raising her eyebrows as she smirked. There were always people comparing Su Bei to her. What was there to compare with Su Bei? The moment Su Bei became popular, she immediately left Sheng Tang Entertainment. As for her, she was still with Sheng Tang Entertainment. She could even train a few supermodels!

She had long been suffocated by Su Bei's name. When the people she led also held high positions in the industry, who would dare say that Su Bei was an existence that could not be surpassed?!

Watching Sister Wen Wen leave, Li Xinxin held Jia Chen's hand and said, "Darling, there's really no problem this time. We're both the main opening and closing acts this time. At most, Mu Kai can only walk near the end of the show. After today, there's no need for us to compare ourselves to him!"

“There’s no need for you to compare yourself to them.” On the other hand, Yue Ze said to Mu Kai, “After you get on stage, you just do you. As a supermodel, you only have to think about surpassing yourself. Whether it’s a small opening act or a big opening act, an ordinary runway show, or a major one, you don’t have to compare yourself to others. Remember, your only enemy is yourself!”
