

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 153 - Troubleshooting? -

C153 Troubleshooting?

"Actually, Boss Zhao is very interested in this project. You just want me to find a reason to convince you, right?" The smile on Wu Tian's face became even wider.

After just half an hour of interaction, he seemed to have seen through Zhao Changfeng's heart.

These so-called big bosses do not lack money. They like to take risks and make any risky investments.

But they didn't take risks. Before they did something, they had to find a reason to take risks.

"You are still young, I never would have thought that you would possess a different attitude from your peers. Truly a rare sight." Zhao Changfeng couldn't help but admire him secretly.

The young man in front of him was indeed different from the others, he could see through his thoughts in just half an hour. He was indeed extraordinary.

"You're too kind." Wu Tian couldn't help but feel pleased with himself.

It seemed that the experiences of the various families that he had seen before were of great use to him, allowing him to learn how to get along with the boss.

"Then how are you going to persuade me to invest in you?" Zhao Changfeng waited for the answer eagerly.

"Since I asked you to invest in the project, of course I would use the project to talk." Wu Tian took out the documents he prepared beforehand and handed them over, "This is a detailed plan for the new system, you'll understand once you see it."

"Let me see." Zhao Changfeng took the documents and opened the file inside. He found that it was full of sketches.

Looking through the sketches, he found that they looked like slides.

The document did not contain any professional knowledge, it was just basic information. Ordinary people would be able to understand it at a glance.

After looking at the solution of the new system, Zhao Changfeng thought for a few seconds and looked up at Wu Tian, "I have to admit, your company is indeed full of talented people."

"Our company spent half a year to build this system and it's basically completed. What we lack now is to perfect the ecology." Wu Tian gestured and said calmly, "This is equivalent to the reclamation of the wasteland. Now, we need people to plant a full variety of crops on it, grow them orderly, and then sell their fruits."

"That's a good metaphor."

"Everything is ready now. As long as we have money, we can plant the land and sell the fruits." Wu Tian made a very straightforward analogy.

If he were to directly talk to the boss about the system, it would be very boring. If it was this sort of vivid metaphor, it would be even more resonating.

"You can own a company, or you can only invest in a single project. You have the lion's share of the profits, but one thing is, you can't directly participate in the operation of the company and the project."

"Alright, I've decided to invest in this project." After some deliberation, Zhao Changfeng immediately made a decision.

He had thought about it carefully. Although the mobile phone system was a risky project, its profits were also huge.

If he succeeded, he would definitely become a giant crocodile in the world of China and science and technology. With his reputation alone, he would be able to earn money, and at that time, he would even be able to participate in international competitions.

Even if he couldn't do it, he would just be losing money.

As far as he was concerned, he did not lack money right now. He had several lifetimes' worth of money on hand, and he loved to invest in these kinds of risky investments.

Each had a 50% chance of winning.

This was equivalent to a huge gamble. If he won, he would make a huge fortune, and more importantly, he would be able to make a name for himself in the China.

If he lost, it would be a heavy loss, but it wouldn't hurt. He could still afford to pay for it.

"Boss Zhao, this kind of investment is easily worth billions, I hope you can consider it carefully." Wu Tian reminded him with good intentions.

"I have thought it through. I believe that you are not someone who is easy to deal with." Zhao Changfeng said half-jokingly.

The reason why he dared to invest this time was because of Wu Tian's personal capabilities. Don't look at how young this brat was, he wasn't at a disadvantage in any aspect.

His mentality, temperament, ambition, and insight were all much better than those of his age, to the point where even he was lamenting about his inferiority.

"Thank you for Boss Zhao's trust in me. If Boss Zhao has thought it through, we will set a time to draw up the contract."

"Then come find me at my company another day."

"Alright." Wu Tian raised his teacup and said with a smile, "Boss Zhao, I hope we can cooperate happily."

"Happy cooperation!"

After Zhao Changfeng clinked his cup, he drank most of the tea in it.

At that moment, the waiter walked into the room, carrying the dishes. He didn't expect that one of the waiters was Cheng Yuanyuan.

After seeing Wu Tian, she seemed very surprised. After being stunned for a moment, she smiled sweetly at Wu Tian as a form of greeting.

Zhao Changfeng, on the other hand, had a strange expression on his face when he saw Cheng Yuanyuan.

When the waiters finished serving the dishes and were about to leave, Zhao Changfeng pointed at Cheng Yuanyuan and ordered, "You, stay."

"Yes sir!"

The other attendants left the private room while Cheng Yuanyuan stayed in the private room. She asked with a smile, "Dear customer, do you have any instructions?"

"Come and drink with me." Zhao Changfeng patted the seat beside him and said in an irresistible tone.

"Sorry, I'm only responsible for serving dishes to customers, not serving drinks." Cheng Yuanyuan tactfully refused.

Mainly because of Brother Tian, she forced a smile on her face and didn't want to offend Brother Tian's friends.

"Pah!"

Zhao Changfeng took out his gold card and slapped it on the table. With a rich and imposing manner, he said, "Accompany me for a day. The 5 million from the card is yours."

Usually, women would not enter his eyes, but this waiter was very similar to his first girlfriend, which was why his heart skipped a beat.

"I'm sorry, I'm not the kind of girl you think I am." The smile on Cheng Yuanyuan's face instantly disappeared and was replaced by anger.

She hadn't thought that the other party would actually take out money to buy her. This was an undisguised insult to her.

"I don't need to know who you are, all you need to know is that you're a girl I like." Zhao Changfeng stood up and slowly approached Cheng Yuanyuan.

"Boss Zhao."

At this critical moment, Wu Tian stood up and stood in front of Cheng Yuanyuan to help her out, "This girl is my friend, I hope you don't take her seriously on my account."

"Your friend?"

"Right."

"Since she's your friend, then let her accompany me. No matter how much it costs, it's fine." Zhao Changfeng was determined to have Cheng Yuanyuan accompany him.

He had a lot of women around him, all kinds, all kinds, people like him who never lacked women.

However, he hadn't seen a woman that could move his heart for a long time. The girl in front of him reminded him of his first girlfriend, so he wanted to have her accompany him.

"Yuanyuan isn't that sort of girl. No matter how poor or bitter she is, she wouldn't sell her body for money. I hope Boss Zhao can let her go." Wu Tian advised in a very gentle tone.

"I want her today." Zhao Changfeng was even more enthusiastic. He said to Wu Tian, "There's an additional rule to the cooperation between us. If you can't make this girl accompany me, then the cooperation between us will be cancelled."

"Boss Zhao, it's boring just like that." The smile on Wu Tian's face gradually disappeared, and his expression turned ugly.

"Wu Tian, you have no choice now. If you want to cooperate, then get that girl to come and accompany me."

"If Boss Zhao insisted on using this as a condition, then it's fine if we don't cooperate." Having said this, Wu Tian pulled Cheng Yuanyuan and turned to leave.

To be honest, he was very disappointed by Zhao Changfeng's character, and he didn't want to work with such a person.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 154 - Enmity! -

C154 Enmity!

"Stop!"

Zhao Changfeng's face sank as he reminded coldly, "If I don't invest, your homegrown system won't be able to do it."

"Even if you don't invest, I'll still find a better investor." Wu Tian did not show any weakness as he retorted.

"You have to consider this carefully. Other than me, no one else is willing to burn money for you."

"I've thought it through very clearly. Even if the System can't do it, I won't use my friend's body to do business." Wu Tian's tone was very tough and there was no room for negotiation.

He could never exchange Cheng Yuanyuan's body for project financing.

With that, he pulled Cheng Yuanyuan along as he prepared to leave.

Zhao Changfeng seemed to be annoyed. He slapped the table and threatened: "Wu Tian, if you dare to bring that girl out of the room today, you will be making an enemy out of me, Zhao Changfeng."

"So what?"

"If you want to become my enemy, I will do whatever it takes to destroy you." Zhao Changfeng bared his teeth and said fiercely.

No one had ever dared to speak to him in such a tone before. This time, he was thoroughly enraged.

"Boss Zhao, I know you are rich, but I, Wu Tian, am not scared." Wu Tian did not show any signs of weakness as he retaliated. He did not feel any fear because of the other party's identity.

"Is it worth it to go against me for a woman?"

"I only do what I think is right. No one can change my mind." After saying that, Wu Tian pulled Cheng Yuanyuan and walked out of the room resolutely.

Before they walked out of the room, they heard Zhao Changfeng roaring behind them: "Wu Tian, I, Zhao Changfeng, am irreconcilable with you."

Wu Tian didn't respond. He just pulled Cheng Yuanyuan along and quickly left. They only stopped when they were quite far away from the room.

"Brother Tian, thank you!" Cheng Yuanyuan retracted her arm, bowing deeply to express her gratitude.

She had clearly heard the conversation in the private room.

In order to protect her, the boy in front of her was willing to give up his good business, not even sparing to have a grudge with a business leader.

To be honest, she didn't expect Brother Tian to be so protective of her. She was extremely touched and didn't know how to express her gratitude.

"It's nothing, don't take it to heart." Wu Tian smiled and comforted her.

Just as he finished saying this, he saw Liu Jun anxiously chasing after him.

As soon as he came over, he scolded Tian sincerely, "Tian, you were too impulsive. It wasn't easy to negotiate such a deal, but it ended in failure."

"Zhao Changfeng's character isn't good enough. It's fine if we don't want this sort of cooperation." Wu Tian shrugged indifferently.

"Do you know how much it will cost your company to lose this collaboration?"

"I know."

"Then you!" The words that Liu Jun wanted to say finally turned into a deep sigh and said with worry, "Not only did you lose your cooperation this time, you also offended Boss Zhao and set limits for yourself."

"I've offended him. It doesn't matter."

"Zhao Changfeng will definitely get revenge for his grievances. That's why you offended him. He will definitely spare no effort in bringing you down. I'm worried that ..."

"Uncle Liu, don't worry about me." Wu Tian wiped his handsome hair and confidently said, "Everything will be done. I don't believe that he can do anything to me."

"He is rich and powerful. His power is beyond your imagination. If you really fight him, I'm afraid you won't be able to withstand it." Liu Jun was still worried.

"Worse comes to worst, we'll just perish together."

"You ..." Liu Jun was so angry that he didn't know what to say. He glanced at Cheng Yuanyuan and spoke to Wu Tie in a low voice, "Everyone says that a beauty is a disaster. It's not worth it to sacrifice yourself for a woman."

"I'm not doing it for women, I'm doing it for justice. I always do things based on my heart. If a person has no conscience, then no matter how much money they earn, it's useless."

"What you said makes a lot of sense." Liu Jun nodded in approval. What he wanted to say finally became a sigh again and reminded him, "Be careful then. I'll go back first."

With that, he threw his hands behind his back and walked towards the elevator.

After Liu Jun had left, Cheng Yuanyuan asked in a low voice, "Brother Tian, did you cause a big trouble this time?"

"This has nothing to do with you, don't mind it too much." Wu Tian smiled as he comforted her.

"But you lost your business to help me, and offended Big Boss ..."

"I broke all decorum with Zhao Changfeng for the sake of justice and conscience. If I knew that he was such a person, I wouldn't have wasted my time discussing and cooperating with him."

"But ..."

"Alright." Wu Tian knew that the girl still had something on her mind, so he changed the subject: "Let's not talk about this, find a place and I'll treat you to a meal."

"Since you've helped me so much, let me treat you instead!" Cheng Yuanyuan put her hands behind her back, a sweet smile on her face.

"Alright, then let's go." Wu Tian made a gesture of "please" after saying that.

Cheng Yuanyuan smiled gently and took the lead to walk towards the elevator.

The two of them went to a Chinese restaurant nearby and started chatting after ordering a few dishes.

"Brother Tian, what do you do?" Cheng Yuanyuan couldn't help but ask curiously.

"I invested in a Technology Company and am currently working on a mobile operating system."

"So powerful." When she heard about such high-end items, Cheng Yuanyuan immediately had a whole new level of respect for Wu Tian.

"The operating system is only a preliminary structure. It's still far from success, so I need to find someone to finance it."

"Sorry, if I hadn't appeared, your financing would have been successful." When it came to financing, Cheng Yuanyuan once again had an apologetic look on her face.

"Why are you saying this again?" Seeing how depressed she was, Wu Tian took the initiative to change the subject: "Oh yeah, let's talk about you. How did you know how to write novels?"

"At first, it was entirely a hobby. When I realized that I could earn money by writing and playing with others, I devoted more of my energy to novels."

"You're so beautiful. You could have clearly relied on your looks to eat, yet you worked so hard. Truly amazing." Wu Tian couldn't help but praise him with his thumb.

"How am I as beautiful as you say?"

"She is indeed beautiful. Her temperament, looks, skin color and figure are all perfect. You should be the most beautiful female author."

"Am I that beautiful?" Cheng Yuanyuan touched her face and felt a little embarrassed.

"Yes."

Cheng Yuanyuan laughed happily.

As the waiters were serving the dishes, Wu Tian ordered a beer and asked Cheng Yuanyuan, "Do you drink?"

"Why do you guys like letting girls drink?" Cheng Yuanyuan blinked her large eyes and asked with a smile.

"I didn't mean that." Wu Tian scratched his head in embarrassment and explained, "I was just asking politely."

"I don't drink, you drink!"

"Alright!" Wu Tian nodded and did not say anything else. He poured himself a cup of wine and started drinking.

Just as the two of them were about to eat, a few male students, who were not too friendly, barged into the restaurant and walked towards them.

The three hoodlums walked closer to Wu Tian and the other guy and shouted brazenly: "Brat, someone asked us to teach you a lesson."

"Zhao Changfeng told you to come, right?" Without even thinking, Wu Tian knew that these three hoodlums were sent by Zhao Changfeng.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 155 - Unexpected Attack -

C155 Unexpected Attack

"Enough nonsense." After the three hoodlums finished shouting these words, they raised their fists and were ready to attack.

Cheng Yuanyuan cried out in fright. She quickly reminded Wu Tian, "Quick, let's run."

"With me here, don't be afraid, I can handle it." Wu Tian stood up to protect Cheng Yuanyuan behind him and comforted her in a gentle tone.

"But ..."

Cheng Yuanyuan still couldn't conceal the fear and unease in her heart.

After all, the opponents had too many people. If the three bullies were to attack together, Wu Tian's small body would definitely not be a match.

What if he was hurt?

But before she could finish, she was interrupted by Wu Tian: "Trust me, everything will be fine."

"Oh!"

When she saw Wu Tian's confident gaze, Cheng Yuanyuan didn't say anything more. She just curled up behind him with a face full of fear.

"Boy, watch me." The three hoodlums raised their fists, baring their fangs and brandishing their claws, and pounced towards Wu Tian like mad bulls.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth. When he saw several people closing in, he grabbed the wine bottle on the table and smashed it down.

"Bam!"

With a muffled sound, the head of one of the lackeys started bleeding, quickly dyeing his face red.

The other two hoodlums were slightly surprised for a moment, and then pounced even more savagely.

Wu Tian quickly pushed the table beside him to separate the two hoodlums. Then, he leaped forward and swept his right hand across the table, easily sending one of the hoodlums flying.

After dealing with this hoodlum, Wu Tian didn't stop at all. His body quickly slid down and came out from under the table, kicking towards the third hoodlum without any warning.

The kick landed right on the guy's knee. After letting out a scream, the guy fell to his knees, unable to get up for a long time.

Cheng Yuanyuan was already stupefied by what she saw.

She did not expect Wu Tian to be weak and to be so fierce in a fight, able to beat the three hoodlums within a few punches and several kicks.

She had always thought that Brother Tian was just a rich boss. Only now did she realize that not only was this boy rich, his skills were also terrifyingly strong.

This fight had completely overturned her understanding of Brother Tian. Her eyes were full of worship and surprise.

"Scram!"

Wu Tian kicked the hoodlums and yelled impatiently, "Get out of here, don't let me see you again!"

The three lackeys stood up from the ground without a word and walked out of the restaurant with their tails between their legs.

At this moment, they were no longer as arrogant and tyrannical as before. They were now like grandchildren, and their eyes were filled with fear when they looked at Wu Tian.

The three of them might not even have dreamed that the seemingly weak and foolish kid before them would possess such astonishing strength.

"Go tell Zhao Changfeng." Before the lackeys left, Wu Tian coldly said, "Let him not cause me any more trouble. After all, I'm not someone that is easy to mess with."

The three hoodlums didn't reply. As soon as they walked out of the restaurant, they were scared out of their wits and ran away as fast as they could.

Only when the hoodlum had left, Wu Tian took out a few notes from his pocket and passed it to the restaurant owner, "Sorry, I smashed your thing. This is my compensation for your loss."

"It's fine, it's fine." The restaurant owner was just about to get angry, but when he saw Wu Tian spend so much money, he immediately beamed with joy.

"Miss Cheng, let's go." The restaurant was in such a mess that there was no more food to be had. Wu Tian could only leave the restaurant with Cheng Yuanyuan.

After walking out of the restaurant, Cheng Yuanyuan couldn't help but exclaim in admiration, "Brother Tian, I didn't expect you to be so good at hiding your skills."

"I've been practicing martial arts in my body recently. The effect is quite good." Wu Tian scratched his head and explained with a smile.

"You're so strong and you're so nice. If any girl can marry you in the future, that would truly be her fortune."

"Don't praise me, I will be proud." Wu Tian smiled and changed the topic, "Let's go, I'll send you home first."

"Alright!" After Cheng Yuanyuan answered, she followed Wu Tian to the other side of the street. Her heart was elated as if she had eaten honey.

After sending Cheng Yuanyuan home, Wu Tian returned to his living quarters.

After returning home, he opened Cheng Yuanyuan's novel. He hadn't read it for a long time and discovered that it had been updated by over a hundred thousand words.

Thus, he held his phone and read it with relish.

This book's storyline ups and downs, full of characters, rich in emotion, a bit of people can not extricate themselves.

Even when he had finished reading all the updated words, he was still immersed in them and savored the aftertaste.

It was hard to believe that a girl around the age of twenty could write such an emotional story. Her experience was truly plentiful.

After reading the novel, he went to take a bath and then went to his study to learn about management.

When he was reading very late, Loong Yun brought him a bowl of brain soup and left the study without a word.

He learned to sleep late.

The next day, Wu Tian didn't go anywhere after he got up. The first thing he did was to go to school and attend classes. He was worried that Teacher Mu would come to his house to find him if he skipped class again.

Fortunately, Teacher Mu didn't say anything this time. She just looked at him meaningfully for a bit before starting the class.

The first two sections were Teacher Mu's lessons.

After the third period, he suddenly received a call from Lee Mu: "Boss Wu, it's bad, something happened."

"What's going on?" Wu Tian frowned and quickly asked.

"Our new system has been hacked. It's in a semi-paralyzed state."

"How could this be?"

"Two hackers from different regions are attacking our system. The situation is very bad."

"Our new system still hasn't officially come online. How could we encounter a hacker?" Wu Tian couldn't help but mutter to himself.

The new system had yet to be officially online, so it posed no threat to the competitors. There was no need for the opponent to call for a hacker to attack it.

After a moment of thought, Wu Tian's eyes lit up as he mumbled to himself, "Could it be that he was the one behind this?"

The first person he thought of was Zhao Changfeng.

Yesterday, he offended Zhao Changfeng in Shangri-La, so with his vengeful personality, he would definitely find someone to secretly harm him.

However, he did not expect Zhao Changfeng to be so despicable that he would get a hacker to attack the new system, hoping that they would die before the new project could even be announced.

"I have ordered the technical staff to go back to investigate and lock onto the other party's IP. I believe we will be able to find the mastermind soon."

"Alright." Wu Tian nodded in approval and spoke into his phone once again, "Have all the technicians in the company to do their best to maintain our new system. We must not let our system be destroyed by hackers."

"Don't worry about that. It won't be that easy to destroy our new system. After all, we're not vegetarians." Lee Mu's tone was obviously filled with confidence.

The technicians the company owned all had real skills, and they could also play a role in handling issues for the company at critical moments.

"This matter has given us a warning. Although the system is important, the network security cannot be ignored. It seems that we have to create a new security barrier for the system."

"Alright, after this storm, we will set up a security system for the new system."

"Alright, notify me as soon as you find out who the mastermind is." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 156 - Have a Grudge -

C156 Have a Grudge

Wu Tian had already guessed the mastermind behind this, and it was most likely Zhao Changfeng who did it.

Right now, he was only guessing, so he wasn't too sure. He could only wait until the results of the investigation before making a decision.

After he received the call, he continued to attend class. After he finished the fourth period, Lee Mu called him again.

Wu Tian picked up the call and asked urgently into his phone, "Did you find out who was behind all of this? Who was the culprit behind our system?"

"The ip of the two hackers came from Huafeng Group."

"It really is him." The result was just as Wu Tian had guessed, it was Zhao Changfeng who had his men do it from behind the scenes.

"I just don't understand. We have no enmity with Huafeng Group, so why would they want to harm our system?" On the other end, Lee Mu couldn't help but ask out of curiosity.

"I had a conflict with Zhao Changfeng yesterday, that's why the old guy took the opportunity to take revenge."

"What's going on?"

"Yesterday afternoon, I was looking for Zhao Changfeng to cooperate to raise money. In the end, we had a falling out because of a woman ..." Wu Tian gave a brief account of what happened to him in the hotel yesterday.

After listening to the narration, Lee Mu immediately expressed his support, "Boss Wu, you're right. You can't go against your conscience for the sake of business."

"Looks like you're thinking the same thing as me."

"However, we have already offended Zhao Changfeng. I'm afraid that it will be very troublesome. After all, Huafeng Group is very strong."

"You don't have to worry about these things. I'll think of a way to settle it. You just have to handle the company's matters properly." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

After the call, he skipped class and left the classroom.

In this situation, he had to take care of the hackers. Otherwise, he wouldn't have the mood to go to class here.

He had just sneaked out of the classroom when he met Mu Ran.

When Wu Tian saw this woman, he knew something was wrong. He felt like he had been caught stealing something.

"Classmate Wu." Mu Ran's expression turned serious as she asked like a teacher, "You're not in class, what are you planning to do by sneaking around?"

"I have a stomachache and I want to go to the toilet." Wu Tian quickly found an excuse to lie.

However, how could he fool Teacher Mu with his lies? She immediately exposed him. "Don't think that I don't know. You're trying to sneak out to skip class, aren't you?"

"I ..."

All of a sudden, Wu Tian's face became even uglier than a bitter gourd.

Teacher Mu was an experienced person, and it seemed that it wouldn't be easy for him to get away from her.

"Classmate Wu, you wrote me a guarantee before that you won't skip class in the future. Why do you want to skip class again?" Mu Ran scolded him angrily.

"I'm sorry, Teacher Mu. I was wrong." Wu Tian quickly apologized and explained, "The company has some urgent matters that it needs me to deal with."

"You are a student now. Even if you have a big problem, you still have to focus on your studies. Hurry up and go to class."

"This ..."

"What is it? Is my speech useless? "

"No, no." Wu Tian quickly waved his hand and changed his tone, "Teacher Mu, your dysmenorrhea was very serious last time. Are you feeling better?"

"Cough, cough!" Mu Ran coughed dryly.

When she mentioned this matter, her face became abnormally embarrassed. She reminded Classmate Wu in a small voice, "Classmate Wu, didn't I tell you? Don't mention the matter from last time."

She didn't want her classmates to know that she had spent the night at Wu Tian's house. If this news were to spread, it would damage her reputation and reputation.

"Teacher Mu rested at my house for the night because of dysmenorrhea. We didn't do anything shameful between us, so what's there to be afraid of?" Wu Tian purposely raised his voice, as if he was afraid that others wouldn't be able to hear him.

"Shh!"

Mu Ran made a silencing gesture and looked around to make sure no one was around before pulling Wu Tian's sleeves and walked to the corner.

She put on airs and criticized, "Classmate Wu, we agreed last time that we should not mention this again. Why are you still talking about it?"

To her, staying overnight in a student's home was a very sensitive topic. Once word of this got out, she would not have the face to continue being a human being.

"I'm sorry, Teacher Mu. My mouth is a little disobedient today. I'm afraid that I'll be talking nonsense again if I return to the classroom." Wu Tian pretended to be obedient.

Even a fool could tell that he was intentionally threatening Teacher Mu.

"You ..." Mu Ran was so angry that the corner of her mouth twitched, "Classmate Wu, what do you want to do?"

She really regretted spending the night at Wu Tian's house and got caught by this brat instead. Right now, it was truly troublesome.

"My company has some urgent matters. I would like to take a leave of absence for half a day. I hope that teacher can approve it." Wu Tian begged with a smile.

"And if I refuse?"

"If my classmates knew that Teacher Mu stayed the night at my house, they would definitely let their imaginations run wild and twist the truth."

"Are you threatening me?"

"I don't dare."

"You ..." Mu Ran gnashed her teeth in anger, but she couldn't do anything to this brat. In the end, she could only compromise. "Forget it, I will allow you to take the leave of absence."

"Thank you, Teacher Mu." After Wu Tian thanked her, he quickly left, leaving Teacher Mu sulking on her own.

"This brat is getting bolder and bolder." Mu Ran cursed in a huff and turned around to enter the classroom.

After Wu Tian left the school, he let Uncle Fugui send him to Huafeng Group.

He wanted to talk to Zhao Changfeng again. Originally, he didn't have any deep grudges towards Zhao Changfeng, so he didn't want to get into a fight over this.

Huafeng Group truly deserved to be called a large company. Its office building was majestic and spectacular. It stands like an eagle on Changfeng Street.

As Wu Tian entered the Huafeng Group Hall, he was stopped by the security guards and the front desk clerk. It took a lot of effort before he finally saw Zhao Changfeng in the chairman's office.

Zhao Changfeng sat behind his desk with a domineering attitude. He held a white porcelain teacup in his hand and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

"Boss Zhao."

Wu Tian shouted expressionlessly, "The reason I'm calling you Boss Zhao is because you are older than me. This is respect between people."

"Speak, what can I do for you?" Zhao Changfeng drank a mouthful of tea and squinted his eyes as he looked at Wu Tian.

"I've come to find you this time to reconcile with you." Wu Tian took two steps forward and said in a gentle tone, "It's not suitable for us to have enmity. I hope we can each put down our enmity and be honest with each other."

"So you're afraid?" The corner of Zhao Changfeng's mouth raised as a smile of victory appeared on his face.

As far as he was concerned, the kid in front of him was afraid of admitting his wrongs and came over to plead for peace.

"I'm not afraid. I just don't think it's necessary. It won't do anyone any good if we fight to the death."

"Hahaha ..."

Zhao Changfeng raised his head and laughed crazily. He laughed for a long time before he finally said, "Young man, you think too highly of yourself. With my strength, it's easier to defeat you than to strangle an ant."

"I admit, your Huafeng Group is very strong, but I, Wu Tian, am not a soft persimmon either, not that easy to pinch."

"In my eyes, you're not even comparable to a persimmon." Zhao Changfeng put down his teacup and smiled, "I just got someone to attack your system. Your company is in chaos right now."

"As the chairman of Huafeng Group, don't you feel that it's dishonorable to use such despicable methods?"

"You're still too young." Zhao Changfeng shook his head with a bitter smile and said in a pressuring tone, "The victor is the king and the loser is the bandit. Means are not important."
