C169 Dining with the Huang Family

When the two of them returned to the house, they found that the Huang Family people were all gathered in the hall, and it was so noisy that it seemed like there was a general meeting going on.

From their conversation, they knew that they were still discussing about Wu Tian. They were still suspicious about Wu Tian's identity. They didn't know if this brat was the young master of the Wealthy Class or not.

Right now, even Huang Old Master was not at a loss.

Just now, he sent a few groups of people to investigate Wu Tian's background, but they all came to similar conclusions. They didn't even find the power behind Wu Tian.

Now, everyone was more curious about Wu Tian, but they felt that this brat was a bit mysterious.

He didn't think that out of nearly a hundred people within the Huang Family, they would be stumped by the background of a little brat.

After some discussion, Huang Old Master finally decided to treat Wu Tian as an ordinary guest before clarifying his background.

Now that he saw Huang Lan and Wu Tian walk over, Huang Old Master brought the Huang Family people to welcome them.

"Wu, since you're here with our Huang Family, then you're our guest. I'll get the kitchen to prepare some food and wine, please!" After saying this, Huang Old Master took the lead to walk towards the restaurant.

The people from Huang Family followed closely behind them. Only Huang Ze walked over and said very politely to the two of them: "Wu, Lan Lan, this way!"

Huang Lan's footsteps paused slightly. She couldn't help but raise her head and glance at Huang Ze.

In her memory, this half-brother had never called her so cordially before.

In the past, although Huang Ze did not humiliate her like the other Huang Family people did, he was neither hot nor cold to her, and he would rarely take the initiative to talk to her.

This was the first time he called her Lan Lan so affectionately.

She knew that Huang Ze addressed Wu Tian like this because of his face. To put it bluntly, he was trying to curry favor with Wu Tian.

Huang Ze did not say much as he brought Wu Tian and the Huang Family people into the dining hall.

There was a large round table in the dining hall. This kind of table could accommodate more than twenty people and was specially reserved for family members.

After Huang Old Master took his seat, the Huang Family people all took their seats as well. Huang Ze, together with Wu Tian and Huang Lan, sat beside him.

After sitting down, Huang Old Master asked Wu Tian indirectly, "Wu, what business does your family have?"

"My family does all kinds of business." Wu Tian answered.

Right now, Wu Family was a huge business empire, with many different types of businesses.

"Then who are the people in your family?" Huang Old Master continued to ask.

He wanted to find some clues from Wu Tian's words and find out if this brat was from a Wealthy Class or not.

"In all walks of life, in all walks of life, there are all kinds of people." Wu Tian did not know much about the family, so he could only give a general answer.

"Is that so?"

Huang Old Master was slightly disappointed. From what he had said just now, he did not find any flaws.

After asking a few more questions, he couldn't be bothered to continue asking. He raised his wine glass and said to the crowd, "Today is a festive day. It's rare for our families to be reunited. Come, let's toast."

"Cheers!" The Huang Family people no longer bothered about Wu Tian's background, they all raised their glasses and toasted Huang Old Master.

Just as the people of Huang Family were gathering and drinking merrily.

A square-faced man rushed into the dining room.

The man's name was Huang Taiping. He was Huang Ze and Huang Lan's father. He was the chairman of Taiping Corporation.

"Dad, something bad happened." Huang Taiping reported to Old Master the moment he entered the restaurant.

Huang Old Master put down his wine cup and comforted him, "Don't be so impatient. If you have something to say, say it slowly."

"Because of our company's product quality problem, many banks have cancelled their loans, and our capital chain has encountered a serious problem." Huang Taiping wiped the cold sweat from his forehead.

"How could this be?" Upon hearing that there was a problem with the Taiping Group's funds chain, Huang Old Master became nervous.

There were many companies under Huang Family, but Taiping Corporation was one of the supporting companies in the family. If something were to go wrong with Taiping Corporation, there would be trouble with Huang Family.

"Dad, I suspect that our competitors are messing with us." Huang Taiping analyzed for a bit and continued, "If we don't solve the problem of the funds, our company will face a lot of risks."

"Hurry, contact the major banks." Huang Old Master naturally knew the seriousness of the situation and became anxious.

Money was the lifeline of a company. If the capital chain was broken, it would be equivalent to cutting off the lifeline of a company.

The immediate priority is to solve the problem of capital, which can be easily resolved if banks are found to be willing to lend.

"I've already contacted them. No bank is willing to cooperate with us in the short term." Huang Taiping said dejectedly.

"This ..."

Hearing this, Huang Old Master's face immediately turned dark and gloomy.

The people from Huang Family all looked as if they were about to face a great calamity, so at this moment, how could everyone still have the mood to eat, they all couldn't help but be secretly anxious.

After a short period of silence, Huang Old Master gnashed his teeth, "I have a good relationship with the governors of the various banks in Luzhou. It seems that I can only personally step in."

With that, he took out his phone and began to make calls.

Everyone, including Huang Taiping, placed their hopes on Old Master.

After all, everyone was aware of Old Master's ability and connections. Every time something happened, Old Master would deal with it himself.

Under the crowd's watchful eyes, Huang Old Master made a few phone calls. After the call, the expression on his face turned even worse.

"Dad, what's the situation? Are there any banks willing to cooperate with us?" Seeing that his father had finished his call, Kong Taiping hurriedly asked about the situation.

Huang Old Master sighed and shook his head helplessly, "The bank has already teamed up with their opponents, I'm afraid our company has no chance at all."

"Father, Grandfather, looks like our competitors have long planned this in advance. This time they want to destroy our Huang Family." Huang Ze couldn't help but ask.

"No!"

Huang Taiping gritted his teeth as if he was unwilling to admit defeat, and said to himself fiercely: "Our Huang Family must not be broken like this."

"But now that the Luzhou Bank has cancelled the loan, seeing the capital chain break, the situation will only get worse." Huang Ze looked dejected.

Not only Huang Ze, everyone present from the Huang Family had a dejected look on their faces. Everyone knew that this time, the Huang Family had encountered an unprecedented calamity.

"Father, as the Patriarch of the Huang Family, you must have a way, right?" Huang Taiping turned around and looked at Old Master again.

"I ..."

Huang Old Master gritted his teeth helplessly. Just as he was about to give up, his eyes suddenly lit up, and his gaze landed on Wu Tian, "This Wu has a good background. If he has such a powerful background and power, it shouldn't be difficult for him to help our Huang Family solve this problem."

"Who is this kid?" Only then did Huang Taiping notice Wu Tian's existence, and he couldn't help but question him.

"His name is Wu Tian, he's Lan'er's boyfriend." Huang Old Master explained with an expressionless face.

"Boyfriend?"

Kong Taiping swept his gaze over Wu Tian a few times and finally landed on Huang Lan. He cursed, "Why are you looking for someone like that to be your boyfriend?"

He had never liked this illegitimate daughter of his.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 170 - Wealthy Aristocracy -

C170 Wealthy Aristocracy

Huang Taiping had always disliked Huang Lan, because he had this illegitimate daughter, his position in his Huang Family plummeted, and he was excluded and criticized by his brothers.

If not for the fact that Huang Lan was his child, he would have long since thrown her into the rear mountains to feed the dogs and not leave her in the Huang Family.

Back then, he had a mistress outside of his home, but never in his wildest dreams would he have thought that his mistress would become pregnant.

What was even more unexpected was that the mistress actually gave birth to the child behind his back, which was the current Huang Lan.

All these years, he had always resented his mistress. Since she had been forced away by him, he had spread this resentment onto her daughter, Huang Lan.

"You only care about your business and your future. Since when did you care about what kind of boyfriend I was looking for?" Huang Lan didn't back down in the slightest.

Normally, she didn't want to talk back to her father.

However, her mood was especially depressed today, so she couldn't help but retort.

"Bastard, you still dare to talk back to me." Huang Taiping was instantly enraged and was prepared to teach his daughter a lesson.

"Stop!"

In the end, Huang Old Master spoke up to stop him: "Now that Huang Family is approaching a crisis, it is not the time for conflict."

"Father's teachings are correct." Hearing this, Huang Taiping immediately suppressed his anger and said to Wu Tian: "Brat, my daughter won't date you, our Wu Family also doesn't welcome you, quickly scam."

Huang Old Master let out a heavy cough and said to Wu Tie: "Don't be in such a hurry to drive Liu Tie away, maybe he can help our Huang Family."

"Dad, with one look at him, we can tell that he is poor, what does he have to help us with Huang Family?" Huang Taiping thought his father said something wrong and couldn't help but open his mouth to question.

"From what Little Ze said, Wu Tian's background is very powerful, he might be the descendant of some powerful underworld clan."

"Hidden Wealthy Class?"

"Right."

"Dad, you really know how to joke around. How can an underworld rich family be so rustic like him?"

"Maybe I'm overthinking it, but what if he really is a member of the Wealthy Class?" Huang Old Master considered the situation thoroughly.

He was the same as most people with Huang Family, he did not think that Wu Tian was behind any strong and powerful families.

However, this brat had previously defeated the Zezhong Group that Huang Ze was in charge of. From this, it could be seen that there was definitely a force behind this brat, and it was unknown whether it was strong or not.

He was not afraid of ten thousand things, just in case.

If this kid really was a noble from a rich family, and the power behind him was even greater than his Huang Family, wouldn't that be a huge disaster?

"If this kid is from the Wealthy Class, I'll eat that door." Perhaps it was because Huang Taiping was in a hurry, so he spoke a lot more frivolously than before.

He did not believe that this brat was some kind of rich aristocrat. In his opinion, this brat was at most a rich upstart, relying on some money to pretend that he was a rich person.

"This is not the time to argue." Huang Old Master gestured for Huang Taiping to calm down and said, "We'll know just how strong Wu is after a try."

"How?"

"It's simple, our Taiping Corporation has encountered a serious problem with the broken capital chain. If Wu can help us find three banks to lend, that would prove that he really has astounding power." Huang Old Master suggested.

Everyone echoed his words.

Everyone now really hoped that Wu Tian was a noble from a Wealthy Class who could help Huang Family solve this crisis.

"We used up all our connections but we couldn't find a bank to lend. How could this brat find three banks to lend to the company?" Huang Taiping couldn't help but sneer.

From the beginning to the end, he didn't believe that Wu Tian had that much power.

"We'll know if we can try." Finishing his words, Huang Old Master turned to look at Wu Tian, "Wu, if you can find three banks to lend to us, Taiping Corporation, then it will prove that your power and influence are above our Huang Family."

"I don't need to prove anything." Wu Tian shrugged casually.

From the beginning till the end, it was only the people from the Huang Family that were suspecting his identity, as he did not intend to display anything in the Huang Family.

"Then let me ask you, do you have the ability to solve the problem of bank loans?" Huang Old Master asked impatiently.

"It's not a big problem, but I have to ask Elder Sister Lan first." After Wu Tian said this, he turned his head and asked Huang Lan: "Elder Sister Lan, do you think I should help Huang Family solve this problem?"

He wanted to respect Elder Sister Lan's opinion on this matter.

If Elder Sister Lan wanted to help Huang Family, he would naturally do his best.

If Elder Sister Lan had any resentment towards Huang Family and did not want to help Huang Family, he would naturally spare no effort to show his support for Elder Sister Lan.

"If possible, I hope that you can help our Huang Family to resolve this crisis." Huang Lan expressed her attitude.

Although she had suffered many grievances and shed many tears at home, this was, after all, her home.

Grandfather was her biological grandfather and her father was her biological father. All of these people had blood relations with her.

Even though she hated Huang Family people in her heart, she did not want to see her father, grandfather, and family fall into deep water and water.

No matter what, she grew up with Huang Family. Although her father treated her indifferently, he had never made her starve from the cold.

"Elder Sister Lan, I'll listen to you." Wu Tian nodded in agreement, then shifted his gaze onto Huang Old Master, "Remember, I'm here to help you out on Elder Sister Lan's account."

With that, he took out his phone and began to make calls.

This call was naturally to call Secretary Loong, asking her to arrange a few banks under Wu Family to provide loans to Taiping Corporation.

After making this call, he said to Huang Old Master, "Soon, there will be at least three banks that will lend to your company."

"Brat, boasting ..."

Huang Taiping wanted to say something more, but before he finished his sentence, the phone in his pocket rang. He quickly took out his phone and picked it up.

He was very excited just by speaking a few words into his phone. He quickly said to Huang Old Master, "Dad, there are four banks that are willing to provide loans for our company."

"That's great, that's great." Hearing this, Huang Old Master was very excited, he quickly asked: "Which four banks?"

"Heng Feng, Heng Long, Qi Hua and Bin Kai."

"No, I've called the presidents of the four banks before. They clearly refused to lend, so why did they suddenly lend to us?"

"He said he had a guarantee from Mr Wu." Huang Taiping explained.

"Mr Wu?" Huang Old Master frowned as he suddenly stood up from his chair and exclaimed, "Wu Tian?"

Only now did they realize that the person who gave them the guarantee was Wu Tian.

He didn't expect that this brat would ask the four big banks to provide a loan for the company with only a single phone call.

Deity!

This brat was simply too powerful.

At this moment, even Huang Old Master could not help but admire Wu Tian from the bottom of his heart.

Only now did he dare to confirm that this kid in front of him definitely had some kind of astonishing power. He must be the descendant of a noble family.

To be able to solve the Huang Family crisis with a single call, this kind of strength and influence was truly astonishing, and much more powerful than Huang Family.

Huang Family people also had a face of surprise, everyone only now recognized Wu Tian, this guy definitely has amazing strength behind him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 171 - Attitude Reversal? -

C171 Attitude Reversal?

The most surprised was none other than Huang Shanshan. Perhaps even in her dreams, she never would have thought that Wu Tian relied on a phone call to solve the problem of the Huang Family fund chain.

All this time, in her heart, her grandfather was omnipotent. There was nothing that her grandfather could not solve.

And this time, even her grandfather couldn't do anything about the money chain crisis. She didn't think that Wu Tian would be able to solve it perfectly with just one phone call.

Through this matter, even an ignorant brat like her could understand how powerful Wu Tian was.

Previously, she had thought that this kid was nothing special.

Only now did they realize that this kid was a super big shot, much more powerful than their Huang Family.

Huang Shanshan had already forgotten the hatred from before. Now, she couldn't help but look at Wu Tian in a new light. The astonishing power displayed by this brat surprised her.

"I really didn't expect this ..." Huang Taiping snapped out of his daze, as he still couldn't believe this fact.

If he did not see it with his own eyes, he would not have dared to believe that Wu Tian, who was dressed in shabby clothes and had no taste, had such a powerful force behind him.

The fact that a single phone call could solve the crisis in the Taiping Group's capital chain showed just how amazing the power behind it was.

Before, he looked down on Wu Tian, but now, he had to re-evaluate Wu Tian.

They were all saying that one mustn't judge a book by its cover, but to think that this fellow would be such a big shot. It was truly surprising.

"Wu."

After a brief moment of blankness, Huang Taiping took the initiative to walk over and hold Wu Tian's arm, "Forgive me for being stupid. I had really misjudged you previously."

"I am very ordinary." In fact, he did not have a good impression of Huang Family people.

When he thought about the mistreatment and injustice that Elder Sister Lan had suffered all these years in the Huang Family, he felt a little detest the people from the Huang Family.

"I don't know if you're normal or not, but I do know that you're the benefactor of our Huang Family." Huang Old Master had changed from his previous posture, and said with a kind and grateful tone: "Wu, thank you for helping our Huang Family solve such a big crisis, let me toast to you."

After saying this, he personally poured a glass of wine for Wu Tian and passed it to him.

He knew that this kid definitely could not be offended. If he could curry favor with this kid, then it would be of great benefit to their Huang Family.

"You are an elder, so I should respect you." At this point, Wu Tian had no choice but to accept the wine cup. After clinking glasses with Huang Old Master, he drank it all in one gulp.

"As expected, bold and straightforward. I did it too." Huang Old Master gulped down half a cup of wine.

He choked until he coughed a few times, then turned his head to tell the Huang Family person: "What are you blanking out for, thank your benefactor for the pleasure."

Only then did the Huang Family people react, they all raised their glasses and toasted Wu Tian.

At this moment, everyone no longer had their previous cold arrogance. No one dared to look down on Wu Tian anymore.

They surrounded him enthusiastically, trying their best to curry favor with him.

Everyone understood the importance of trying to curry favor with Wu Tian. At this moment, no one dared to neglect such an important guest.

Only Huang Taiping was still stunned on the spot.

Huang Old Master bumped into him and reminded him in a low voice, "What are you blanking out for, do you want me to teach you?"

"Dad, you mean I should ..." Huang Taiping finally came back to his senses.

"Right." Huang Old Master nodded vigorously and said in a deep voice, "You saw it just now. Wu Tian's influence is so great that it scares everyone. You must think of a way to win him over."

"But he is neither hot nor cold to us Huang Family people, it will not be easy to win him over." Huang Taiping shook his head in disappointment.

He had observed earlier that Wu Tian did not have a good impression of Huang Family people. In fact, there was a bit of disgust in his eyes.

"He's obedient to Lan'er's words. As long as you control Lan'er, then it's not a problem for you to win over Wu Tian." Huang Old Master suggested.

You are an expert at pointing out the crux of the problem.

"Yes!"

Huang Taiping nodded in agreement: "This kid really listens to Huang Lan's words. The relationship between him and Lan Er seems to be very deep."

"Do you still need me to teach you?"

"Understood."

"Remember, for people like Wu Tian, you have to think of every possible way to win him over."

"Alright."

"Even if we can't climb up, we definitely can't offend him." Huang Old Master lectured sincerely.

"Alright."

"Go!" Huang Old Master patted his son's shoulder and threw him a confident look, not saying anything more.

Huang Taiping poured himself a glass of white wine, raised his glass and walked towards Wu Tian, smiling as he tried to curry favor with him, "Wu, I have offended you quite a bit. Let me toast you, as a form of apology."

"I don't dare." Wu Tian raised his glass and clinked it with Huang Taiping. He took a sip of the white wine in the cup and acted neither cold nor hot.

Huang Taiping finished drinking and praised with a smile, "Wu, you are quite handsome and magnificent. You are truly a match made in heaven with Lan Lan."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian still ignored him.

When he thought about the grievances that Huang Taiping had caused to Elder Sister Lan all these years, he felt that this man was truly not a qualified father, which was truly disappointing.

"Yes!"

The smile on Huang Taiping's face became more and more awkward.

He originally wanted to use this opportunity to curry favor with Wu Tian, but the result made him feel unsatisfied.

However, considering Wu Tian's identity, he could only grit his teeth and endure. He turned to Huang Lan and said, "Lan, you have such good eyes. I'm so pleased to have found such a good boyfriend like Wu Tian."

Huang Lan's nose turned sour and tears almost rolled down her face.

It had been a long time since she'd heard her father call her Lan'er. In the past, her father had always been straightforward and had never been so intimate with her before.

"Lan'er, dad has made you suffer all these years, dad is apologizing to you." Huang Taiping no longer had a cold attitude like before and took the initiative to apologize to his daughter.

After all, with Wu Tian's support, if Huang Lan was angered, the Huang Family would be at a disadvantage.

What's more, he wanted to use his daughter to win over Wu Tian.

"Dad ..."

Huang Lan shouted and threw herself into her father's arms.

All these years, even in her dreams, she had wanted to be carried by her father and act like a spoiled child in his arms.

At this moment, all the resentment in her heart disappeared and was replaced by kinship.

"Good girl, dad will love you in the future." Huang Taiping said softly as he patted Huang Lan's back.

He had never thought that his daughter would be so amazing, being able to climb up to the level of a young master from a wealthy family like Wu Tian.

If his daughter could marry Wu Tian in the future, then she would really become a phoenix on a branch and her value would increase by a hundred times.

So he wanted to get on good terms with his daughter in advance.

Since Huang Taiping could think of all these and the rest of the people in Huang Family were not stupid, they could naturally think of all these long-term benefits.

Everyone tried their best to please Wu Tian, but they all surrounded Huang Lan. Even the few elders who had humiliated Huang Lan previously started to curry favor with her.

All of a sudden, Huang Lan became the focus of attention, the darling of the Huang Family, receiving all sorts of praises from the people of the Huang Family.

Huang Lan opened her mouth, but did not know what to say.

In the past, the people from the Huang Family had treated her as an outsider. They had treated her coldly and emotionlessly, and had mocked and humiliated her in all kinds of ways.

She never thought that one day, someone from Huang Family would try their best to curry favor with her. Even the elders had become unusually passionate.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 172 - Pet Love for Love -

C172 Pet Love for Love

Huang Lan raised her head high in the air, the corners of her mouth curling up into a smile that had never been seen before.

This was the first time she received the recognition of a person from the Huang Family, and the first time she was doted on by the Huang Family elders.

Finally, she also tasted the warmth of her father's love, the feeling of being a daughter of the Huang Family.

She had been dreaming for a long time, and today, she finally got what she wanted.

And all thanks to Wu Tian.

She knew that those people were either afraid of the power behind Wu Tian and thought that she was in a relationship with Wu Tian that was why they did not dare to offend her.

There were also people who wanted to curry favor with Wu Tian through her, and they wanted to use her to get close to a super big boss like Wu Tian.

The people from Huang Family all changed their attitude towards her because of Wu Tian.

From today onwards, the people of Huang Family would no longer dare to humiliate her, and would no longer dare to call her a cheap bastard.

From today onwards, she would become the great miss of the Huang Family, and in the Huang Family, she would no longer be an illegitimate child.

And all of these, was thanks to Wu Tian. It was Wu Tian who changed the attitude of the Huang Family people towards her, and it was Wu Tian who changed her position in the Huang Family.

If not for Wu Tian, she might never have tasted fatherly love and kinship. In her family's eyes, she would forever be a bastard.

Just like this, Huang Lan was surrounded by people from the Huang Family. They did their best to curry favor with her, and she became the precious gem of the Huang Family.

In Huang Shanshan's eyes, all of this made her feel very uncomfortable.

In the past, she was a Young Miss of Huang Family, and was spoilt and spoiled by Huang Family people.

She didn't expect that all of this would change because of Wu Tian's appearance. On the contrary, the illegitimate child of Huang Family, Huang Lan, became the darling of Huang Family. Instead, she, a genuine young miss, was treated with contempt.

This contrast left her feeling extremely unbalanced.

She didn't think that the illegitimate child who was ignored by the Huang Family would be so favored. It was all because of Wu Tian.

Right now, she couldn't help but be jealous of Huang Lan. She didn't know where she had found such a powerful noble hidden in the world. In an instant, she flew onto a branch and turned into a golden phoenix.

This won't do, she had to think of a way to steal Wu Tian's hand. Only with her genuine Huang Family she could be worthy of Wu Tian, what qualifications did a wild chicken like Huang Lan have to be with Wu Tian.

Thinking about this, she squeezed into the crowd and changed her attitude from before. She reached out her right hand towards Wu Tian in a docile tone, "Hello, I'm Huang Shanshan."

"An unruly and willful young miss, didn't you previously have someone beat me up?" Wu Tian looked at the girl in front of him carefully, his tone sounded a bit playful.

From the very beginning, he did not have a good impression of this unruly and unruly girl.

Later on, he saw this girl humiliating Elder Sister Lan. He couldn't help but want to teach this little girl a lesson and vent the anger in his heart.

"Earlier, when you threw me in the trash, I was angry enough to want to beat you up. But you just helped Huang Family, so I'm not going to lower myself to you." Huang Shanshan generously waved her hand and changed the subject. "Follow me to my room, I have something to talk to you about."

"What is it? Tell me and I'll listen."

"There are some things that are inconvenient for others to hear." Huang Shanshan bit her lips, feeling a bit awkward instead.

"Sorry, I don't have time right now."

"Then what are you doing?"

"I want to stay here with Elder Sister Lan." After saying that, Wu Tian wrapped his arms around Huang Lan's slim waist.

He wanted to take this opportunity to tell Huang Shanshan and the Huang Family people that Huang Lan was his woman and that no one was allowed to bully her in the future.

This sudden hug caused Huang Lan's face to turn red, and her heart began to beat like a beating drum.

This was her first time being hugged by a man in front of someone from the Huang Family, causing her to involuntarily blush and feel her heartbeat.

"You ..."

Huang Shanshan bit her lips angrily. She turned her head to glare fiercely at Huang Lan and scolded, "She's just a bastard. How can she compare to me?"

"Apologize. Apologize to Elder Sister Lan for what you just said." Wu Tian was instantly enraged and ordered coldly.

"You want me to apologize to this bastard? Impossible." Huang Shanshan crossed her arms in front of her chest as she struck back without any signs of weakness.

The sound of a slap rang out.

Wu Tian raised his hand and viciously slapped Huang Shanshan's face. He roared, "I'll say it again, apologize to Elder Sister Lan."

"You, you, you actually hit me." Huang Shanshan was like an explosive, and she was immediately annoyed.

Thinking about how she was a dignified young miss of Huang Family, how her grandfather and parents viewed her as a beloved daughter of heaven. Since she was young, she had always been doted on by people of Huang Family, and had never been beaten up before.

After getting beaten up this time, she naturally wouldn't let it go. She ran over to Grandpa and wailed, "Grandfather, Wu Tian hit me ..."

Before she could finish, she started crying while wiping away her tears.

"That's what you should do." If it was any other time, Huang Old Master would definitely protect his granddaughter.

But today was different from the past. Today, the one who attacked was Wu Tian, a person whom their Huang Family could not afford to offend.

"Grandfather, why are you protecting outsiders ..." Upon being scolded by her grandfather, Huang Shanshan cried even louder.

"Enough!"

"Apologize to Lan, and listen to Wu," he ordered Huang Shanshan.

"What? You want me to apologize to her?"

"Go quickly." Huang Old Master roared at the top of his lungs.

"I ..."

Hearing this roar, Huang Shanshan didn't dare to speak anymore. She had never seen her grandfather so angry before.

Gritting her teeth, she walked up to Huang Lan and said, "Sorry, I was wrong. I shouldn't have scolded you."

Although she apologized on the surface, she hated Huang Lan very much in her heart.

"In the future, if you dare to scold me, a bastard, then don't blame me for being impolite." Huang Lanwen warned her proudly. Since she was young, she had never been as stubborn as she was today in her Huang Family.

Having said so, she turned to Huang Old Master and Huang Taiping and said, "Grandfather, Dad, I'll take Wu Tian to his room to rest first."

With that, she pulled Wu Tian's arm and walked outside.

The two of them left the main building and arrived at a small building at the back. This was the Huang Family guest room, and Huang Lan would usually stay here when she returned home.

After returning to her room, Huang Lan locked the door from the inside and burst into wild laughter.

Smiling, she started to cry again. She said excitedly, "I've lived for so long, but I've never been as happy as I am today."

"Elder Sister Lan, as long as you're happy." Wu Tian also laughed with satisfaction.

He knew that Elder Sister Lan was crying because she was happy.

"Wu Tian, thank you." Huang Lan wiped her tears as she thanked Wu Tian seriously, "You were the one who helped me find my home."

"Elder Sister Lan has helped me so much, so it's only right that I help you."

"I now understand a principle. Only when you become truly powerful will no one dare to underestimate you." Huang Lan slightly raised her head and said with a serious expression, "It was you who helped me win the respect of my loved ones and my family."

"Huang Lan, I really don't know how you endured all these years."

"If I didn't know you, I would have endured this much longer. Thus, I am very glad to know you. My bitter days have finally come to an end." Huang Lan rubbed her nose and tossed all the grievances and heartache far away.

If not for Wu Tian, perhaps she would never be able to feel the warmth of her family and home.

"Elder Sister Lan, you better work hard. There will be a lot of people who will love you in the future." Wu Tian smiled as he comforted her.

Only at this moment did he feel that Elder Sister Lan was a helpless little woman who needed the care and care of a man.
