

Hidden 1821

Chapter 1821 Wait For Her To Make Her Decision

Lu Heting's expression softened. "Don't cause trouble for your sister-in-law."

"I know! You know how obedient I am in front of my sister-in-law!" Lu Weijian immediately put on an obedient expression.

"Then go ahead with your work. I'll go see Director Camilan," Su Bei said to Lu Heting.

Lu Heting gave a few reminders before leaving.

Lu Weijian bowed. "I know, I know. I'll take good care of Sister-in-law!"

As soon as Lu Heting left, he jumped up and down beside Su Bei. "Sister-in-law, are all the sets here green screen? Will all the editing be done in post-production?"

"You can take a look around and have the staff introduce you to the things here. I'll talk to you after meeting Director Camilan."

"Okay."

Camilan was instructing her assistant to get the equipment. When she saw Su Bei, her expression softened.

Since everyone knew that she was a woman, Camilan had grown out her hair, but his clothes were still gender-neutral. She still wore a mask, giving off a mysterious and gentle feeling.

"Su Bei, filming this time will be a little difficult. We're using all green screens. You'll have to pretend when you act. It's a test."

"I've never tried filming so many such scenes before. It's good to try."

"You even fooled me with your men's clothes."

"Have you heard about the Lu family's matters?" Su Bei asked with a smile.

Camilan smiled. "Yes, I only heard that Lu Yaolan is back after returning to the country."

"You know her?"

"A little," Camilan said simply.

Su Bei wanted to ask something, but she suppressed it. If Camilan was willing to say it, she would definitely tell her.

As soon as Camilan and Su Bei talked, there was a lot to talk about.

While they were chatting, Lu Weijian ran over. "Sister-in-law! I'm done touring around the place!"

Camilan saw him coming and tilted her head to look at him. Her movements faltered, then she realized she had lost her composure. She quickly covered it up. Fortunately, she had a mask covering her face, so she didn't completely lose control.

“Mr. Weijian, this is Director Camilan. You’ve heard of her before,” Su Bei introduced.

“Hello, Director Camilan!” Lu Weijian quickly reached out and shook Camilan’s hand. “I like your movies very much. I’ve seen everything. I even recommended many of my friends on the gaming team to watch them! Director Camilan, your movies are really good. I’m also looking forward to this movie.”

“Please come and see it when the time comes. And thank you for liking my work.”

Lu Weijian said excitedly, “Director Camilan, you’re so approachable. I heard that you’re still lacking investments in this movie. Do you want to have a talk with me about it?”

Su Bei knew that he would invest in whatever he liked, but he was lucky and had good taste, so he was accurate.

Seeing that he really wanted to invest, she did not stop him.

Camilan also wanted to talk to him more. She smiled and said, “Okay, let’s talk.”

Su Bei glanced at Camilan but didn’t say anything. She just said that she would get some water and went out.

She didn’t know why, but she felt that Camilan and Lu Weijian seemed to have some kind of relationship.

When she was filming her previous work, Camilan had asked her about Lu Weijian.

But no matter what, since the two had met, they would settle it between themselves.

When Su Bei returned, Lu Weijian was excitedly asking Camilan some questions about filming. For a layman like him, some of the questions were actually very childish, but Camilan patiently explained them to him.

Camilan didn’t stop until her assistant came to inform her that it was time to shoot.

Lu Weijian had a good time on set.

When Su Bei arrived the next day, she saw that he had come early in the morning.

“Does the Huo family not need you anymore?” Su Bei teased.

“What? Huo Zhong promised to help me take responsibility, so I took the time to come out and play for a few days. Didn’t I shoulder all the responsibility for him when he was playing games previously?”

“You two are truly brothers.”

“Sigh, it’s all because Grandpa Huo used to tie us together.”

Lu Weijian ran to Camilan, who was pointing at the dining table. “You haven’t had breakfast yet, right? My assistant bought too much. You can share it with Su Bei.”

“Thank you, Director Camilan.” Lu Weijian picked up the food and ate it.

After giving Su Bei her share, he went to get the equipment.

“Mr. Weijian, this equipment is very expensive, and repairing it is especially difficult. Why don’t you...” the assistant knew his identity and said carefully.

Lu Weijian quickly retracted his hand and watched eagerly.

Camilan glanced at him as she passed.

When Camilan didn’t see Lu Weijian the next day, she called him over and said, “Have some fun. But only for half an hour. Don’t exceed the time limit.”

“Director Camilan, you’re the best!” Lu Weijian was so excited that he almost hugged her.

Camilan’s lips curved into a smile.

After a few days, the crew could tell that Camilan was especially tolerant of Lu Weijian and let him do whatever he wanted.

Someone whispered, “What do you know? Mr. Weijian represents the Lu family and has invested money in our movie. He’s the backer.”

“That’s right. Isn’t it only right for Director Camilan to treat him well?”

“But Director Camilan is usually a serious person. Why would she let outsiders play around on such a serious occasion? When have you ever seen Director Camilan lower her head to investors?”

“That’s true. Could it be that Director Camilan has fallen in love with Mr. Weijian?”

...

“Hehehe, that’s really possible!”

Lu Weijian accidentally heard this discussion and felt a chill. It was not that he despised Camilan for being old, but his heart was still with Hua Cuo. If someone really liked him, it would be uncomfortable.

He left early in the afternoon and said to Su Bei, “We’re having dinner at the mansion tonight. Did Big Brother tell you?”

Camilan heard that and pretended to ask casually, “Su Bei, are the elders of the Lu family doing well?”

“They’re in good health.” Su Bei smiled. “The only one who’s not doing so well is Lu Yaolan.”

“Oh?” Camilan asked thoughtfully. “Fu Yujia was the one who framed you last time, right? Did it have anything to do with Lu Yaolan?”

“She said no. The truth is, I don’t know either. Grandpa and Grandma dote on their daughter very much and want their daughter to return to their side, so they won’t continue to investigate even if there’s anything wrong.”

As Su Bei spoke, she looked at Camilan’s expression.

Sure enough, Camilan had her head down, thinking about something.

After filming in the afternoon, Su Bei did not have any night scenes. Lu Heting came to pick her up, so she quickly got into the car.

“Director Camilan has been asking about the Lu family for the past few days,” Su Bei said. “How’s the investigation going?”

...

“I have some clues. But no matter what we have, the only person who can prove all this is her. Let’s wait for her to make her own decision,” Lu Heting said.