C197 Willing to Admit Defeat

"I ..."

Tan Yiming gritted his teeth and said with an embarrassed smile: "Boss Liu, I was just joking earlier, you must not take it seriously."

He was, after all, the boss of Yiming Corporation, and since he was in a high position, he felt too embarrassed to bark like a dog in front of the two of them.

"So, you're going back on your word?" Liu Jun's face turned ugly.

"You took back your words?"

"Before, we were gambling with each other. The loser will imitate the dog ..."

"When did I make a bet with you?" Tan Yiming just wouldn't admit it.

Since there was no evidence, the other party could do nothing to him.

"You ..."

Liu Jun was so angry that his old face turned dark. He said with contempt, "I've never seen a scoundrel like you. You're simply a shameless bastard."

"Liu Jun, you're still too inexperienced to fight me." Tan Yiming shook his suit and looked up proudly.

"You ..."

Liu Jun wanted to curse a few more times, but he was stopped by Wu Tian. "Uncle Liu, don't be angry. I had already guessed that Tan Yiming would be shameless. I've already recorded the conversation between you two about gambling on my phone."

With that, he took out his phone from his pocket.

"Great." When he heard that Wu Tian had a recording, Liu Jun was instead happy. He pointed at Tan Yiming's nose and threatened, "Your reputation will be ruined today."

"Who are you trying to scare!"

Tan Yiming twitched his mouth and acted like he didn't care, "I don't believe that this brat has a recording."

Actually, he wasn't too sure either. He didn't know if this brat really had a recording.

"It doesn't matter if you believe me or not. I'll let everyone listen to it." After Wu Tian said this, he raised his phone and shouted to the guests, "I have Tan Yiming's recording, do you all want to hear it?"

"Yes!"

As soon as they heard that someone was going to expose the rumours in the circle, many people came over to join in the fun.

"Since everyone wants to hear it so much, then release it for everyone to hear." After Wu Tian said this, he unlocked his phone in front of everyone.

Tan Yiming was so nervous that cold sweat broke out on his forehead. It didn't look like Wu Tian was joking.

If that recording was broadcast, his reputation would be completely destroyed, and it would be a fatal blow to the company.

Just as Wu Tian was about to watch the recording, Tan Yiming hurried forward to stop him. "Wait."

"Boss Tan, is there anything else?" Wu Tian shook his phone and looked at Tan Yiming with a smile.

"I admit defeat." Tan Yiming gritted his teeth in frustration and whispered, "I'm willing to admit defeat, let's find a place without people, I'll fulfill my promise."

"Boss Tan should have been more obedient earlier." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. He put away his phone and said to the guests, "Calm down everyone. I'll tell everyone the news in a while."

With that said, he took the lead and walked out of the crowd.

Liu Jun and Tan Yiming followed closely behind.

The three of them ignored the guests and walked to the more remote toilet.

Wu Tian turned around and looked at Tan Yiming, urging him, "Boss Tan, since you've lost, hurry up and learn to bark like a dog!"

"After I finish learning how to bark, you have to delete the recording." Tan Yiming did not forget to put forward this condition.

"I have no objections. Let's begin."

"Alright!" Tan Yiming turned around and looked around. After making sure that there was no one around, he ran over to lock the washroom door. Then, he lowered his voice and barked like a dog three times.

There was no other way. He had no other choice now. If he did not start barking like a dog now, when that recording was released, he would lose face in front of everyone.

Rather than losing face in public, he might as well lose face in front of Liu Jun and Wu Tian.

After all, he wasn't the only one who would lose face in public. The companies under him would probably suffer as well, and if word got out, the employees would laugh their teeth off.

"Hahaha ..."

As soon as Tan Yiming finished his dog barks, Liu Jun couldn't help but laugh out loud.

After he finished laughing, he couldn't help but stick out his thumb and praise, "Tan Yiming, you really did learn to bark like a dog."

"Old Liu, you ..." Tan Yiming was so angry that his face turned green. He had never been so humiliated in front of Liu Jun before.

He never lost every time he fought with an old face. He never expected that he would lose all his face because of Wu Tian.

He gritted his teeth, suppressed his anger and said to Wu Tian, "I've already fulfilled my promise, shouldn't you delete the recording now?"

"I'm sorry, I was deaf and didn't hear you." Wu Tian feigned ignorance as he deliberately made things difficult for them.

"You ..." Tan Yiming was so angry that his veins almost popped out. He wanted to beat this kid into a meat patty to relieve the hatred in his heart.

"Boss Tan, keep your voice down and learn to bark like a dog a few more times."

"Brat, you're ruthless." Tan Yiming glared fiercely at Wu Tian a few times, and could only bark like a dog three times.

At the moment, he could only delete the recording. If the recording were to leak out, it would be a disaster.

"Hahaha ..."

Hearing the dog barking, Liu Jun and Wu Tian laughed at the same time.

With that smile, Tan Yiming's old face became even more smelly than dog shit.

After holding it back for a long time, he suppressed his anger and urged Wu Tian, "I've already learned how to bark like a dog. Hurry up and delete the recording."

"What recording?" Wu Tian asked in confusion.

"Stop bullshitting with me. It's that recording from before. Hurry up and delete it."

"No recording." Wu Tian shook his phone and said with a smile, "I didn't take out my phone at all. How could I record anything?"

"You ..."

Tan Yiming reacted and jumped up to stare at Wu Tian, "Bastard bastard, you actually dared to tease me."

"You're so stupid, I have to tease you."

"Bastard, I'll kill you!" Tan Yiming pounced on Wu Tian like a mad dog, baring his fangs and brandishing his claws, preparing to grab him.

He was the dignified boss of Yiming Corporation, yet he was fooled like a monkey by him. The anger in his heart could be imagined.

"Wait, don't be in such a hurry to make your move." Wu Tian raised his phone again and threatened, "There was no recording before, but I recorded the sound of you barking like a dog just now."

"Little brat, don't f * cking lie to me." Tan Yiming had been played once before, so he would not believe Wu Tian's lies this time.

"I didn't lie to you this time, I really have the recording of you barking like a dog in my hands. Listen if you don't believe me." After Wu Tian finished speaking, he clicked on the recording.

Sure enough, Tan Yiming imitated the sound of a dog barking.

After listening to the recording, Tan Yiming was so angry that he almost vomited blood. "What the hell are you trying to do?"

He had been fooled by this brat before, but he never thought that this brat actually had recordings of him barking like a dog.

This fellow before his eyes was simply too scheming, and he was unable to guard against it.

"This recording costs a million yuan. I wonder if anyone would buy it." Wu Tian asked with a smile as he shook his phone.

"I'll buy it!"

At the side, Liu Jun couldn't help but answer, "Tian, I'll pay one million to buy that recording from your hands."

If he could buy Tan Yiming's recording of him barking like a dog, it would become his fatal weakness and he could completely control Tan Yiming.

"I'll pay two million." Tan Yiming naturally couldn't let his weakness fall into the hands of Liu Jun, so he directly increased the price to buy the recording.

"Three million." Liu Jun continued to raise the price.

"4 million." Tan Yiming did not back down.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 198 - He Have a Lot of Ways to Make Fun of Others -

C198 He Have a Lot of Ways to Make Fun of Others

"Five million."

"Six million."

"Seven million ..."

Just like that, Tan Yiming and Liu Jun started a bidding war in the washroom. Both of them wanted to buy that recording of a dog barking.

In the end, the two raised the price to ten million.

"10 million." Tan Yiming steeled his heart, clenched his teeth and raised the price to 10 million, just so that the video of him barking like a dog wouldn't fall into Liu Jun's hands.

"Deal!"

When the other side shouted out "10 million", Wu Tian slightly smiled and decisively shouted out the two words "deal".

"Brat, a recording is actually tricked me into selling it for ten million yuan. You're really too despicable." Although Tan Yiming won in the end, he still felt indignant.

Ten million was not a lot to him, but it was not a small amount either. Giving it to Wu Tian for nothing really made him feel uncomfortable.

"Boss Tan, I won't force you to buy it if you think it's too expensive." After saying that, Wu Tian turned around and was about to leave.

Tan Yiming was so shocked that he quickly reached out his hand to stop her, "Alright, I'll buy it. No matter how expensive it is, I'll buy it."

With that, he took out a cheque from his pocket, wrote out a quota of 10 million and handed it to Wu Tian.

"Then I won't be polite." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. He took the 10 million cash cheque and said with a smile, "Boss Tan's video of him barking like a dog is really valuable."

"Stop making sarcastic remarks and quickly delete that recording."

"Ok, I'll delete it now." Wu removed the recording from his phone in front of Tan Yiming.

"Hu!"

Seeing that the recording was deleted, Tan Yiming secretly felt relieved.

"Boss Tan, let's work well together. We'll work together next time when there's a chance." After Wu Tian said this, he took the 10 million check and prepared to leave.

In the end, he was stopped by Tan Yiming and threatened coldly: "Brat, you think you've cheated me of ten million just like that?"

"Then what do you want?"

"Foolish brat, if you fight with me, I will make you wish you were dead."

"So you're saying Boss Tan wants to kill me?"

"Of course." Tan Yiming gritted his teeth and like a mad lion, he fiercely said: "Soon, I will destroy your family and put you in dire straits. I will make you beg for death."

"Damn, I hate it when people threaten me the most." Wu Tian took out his phone and clicked on the recording.

"Woof woof woof ..."

The sound of Tan Yiming imitating a dog came out of the phone once again.

After hearing the voice, Tan Yiming's face turned as ugly as a pig's liver, and he shouted hysterically: "Brat, didn't you delete that recording? Why is there more? "

"The file I just deleted is the original one. This is called a backup." Wu Tian shook his phone with a bright smile on his face.

"You ..."

Tan Yiming was so angry that his lungs were about to burst. He didn't expect this guy to secretly backup that recording.

As if he had gone mad, he pointed at Wu Tian's nose and cursed: "Brat, you are really shameless."

"To deal with scum like you, I have to use some despicable methods." Wu Tian said with a proud smile.

"You ..." Tan Yiming was speechless.

He didn't expect the brat before him to be so scheming, fooling around with him as though he was a monkey.

The dignified CEO of Yiming Group actually fell into the hands of this brat. Just thinking about it made him angry.

"Boss Tan, are you going to buy this backup?" Wu Tian smiled and asked.

"I ..."

Tan Yiming gritted his teeth for a long time. Finally, he unwillingly blurted out one word: "Buy."

Even if he had to spend a lot of money, he couldn't let this recording spread out. Otherwise, his brilliant life would be completely ruined.

"I'm not selling." Wu Tian put away his phone and put his hands into his pockets as if he was a slob.

"Why aren't you selling it?"

"If I want to sell it, I'll sell it. If I don't want to sell it, I won't sell it."

"You ..."

"Uncle Liu, a backup copy of this recording is for you." Wu Tian directly relayed the recording to Liu Jun, smiling as he said, "If Boss Tan dares to be disrespectful to you again, then expose the recording."

"Alright!"

Liu Jun was very satisfied. He walked over to Tan Yiming and said, "Old Tan, the video of you barking like a dog is in my hands. If you dare to oppose me in the future, don't blame me for exposing it."

"You ..."

Tan Yiming was so angry that his face turned red, but he couldn't do anything about the two of them.

He had competed in the business world for so many years, and now he was so embarrassed.

He originally wanted to destroy Liu Jun, but now that he had done that, it was the same as having his tail stepped on by Liu Jun. It would be hard for him to have a chance to make a comeback in the future.

"Old Tan, don't ever offend me again." Liu Jun tried to persuade him, and then said to Wu Tian, "Tian, let's go."

"Let's go!" Wu Tian glanced at Tan Yiming and followed Uncle Liu out of the bathroom.

The moment he stepped out of the bathroom, Liu Jun was so happy that his mouth couldn't close. "It's been a long time since I've been this happy. Tan Yiming's old face is turning red from anger."

"We shouldn't be softhearted when dealing with this kind of old animal." Seeing Uncle Liu's happy expression, Wu Tian was also very happy in his heart.

"I really admire you, you little rascal. You have so many skills. Even an old cunning fox like Tan Yiming has been turned into nothing." Liu Jun couldn't help but stick out his thumb.

Right now, he admired Tian more and more, and he also liked this brat more and more. Not only was he smart, but he was also a straightforward person.

"Uncle Liu, thank you for teaching me well all this time. It's all thanks to you." Wu Tian smiled and said humbly.

"I didn't teach you to be naughty."

"You're an old fox, you taught me to be a little fox."

"You stinking brat." Liu Jun scolded him while feigning anger, "If you dare to call me an old fox again, be careful that I might get angry with you."

"Uncle Liu, I'm not scolding you, I'm praising you."

"Brat, how can you praise others like that?"

"Just kidding, Uncle Liu, don't be angry."

"I'm not that petty."

The two chatted for a bit before leaving the hotel.

Before he left, Liu Jun suddenly suggested: "Tian, there's an earthly auction tomorrow. Let's go together."

"Alright, I've been quite free recently." Wu Tian agreed decisively.

Previously, he wasn't interested in real estate, but ever since he invested in the Emerald Garden with Liu Jun, he realized that real estate was actually quite interesting.

Not only was there a big profit, there was also a lot of connections. It could be used as a sideline and could help him reserve funds.

"Alright, let's go to my house for lunch tomorrow. We'll go together after lunch." Liu Jun sent out the invitation.

"Alright!" Wu Tian couldn't find any reason to refuse, so he could only nod in agreement.

He understood what Uncle Liu meant. The reason he invited him to his house for dinner was definitely because he wanted to make use of this opportunity to get him and Liu Mengyao together.

"I'll see you tomorrow." After Liu Jun said this, he got into the BMW and drove away.

Wu Tian smiled bitterly as he shook his head. He turned around and got into his red flag car and returned to his living quarters.

As soon as he entered, he saw Loong Yun reading a magazine in the living room with a serious expression.

"Secretary Loong." Wu Tian walked over to lie down on the sofa and ordered, "Come over and help me massage my back."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 199 - Misconception -

C199 Misconception

Loong Yun turned around and glanced at Wu Tian. She didn't say anything as she continued to read the magazine.

"Secretary Loong, I asked you to come over and give me a back massage." Wu Tian raised his voice and ordered again.

The sound of the book being placed could be heard.

Loong Yun placed the impurities on the table and coldly replied, "I'm sorry, young master. I'm your secretary, not a servant."

"You talk so much nonsense, is it really that hard for me to let you beat my back?"

"I won't."

"It's okay, I'll teach you." Wu Tian crossed his legs and deliberately made things difficult for her: "Come over here, extend your little fist and help me hit my back shoulder."

"Yes sir!" Loong Yun gritted her teeth as she tried her best to suppress the resentment in her heart. She walked over and started to punch Wu Tian on the back.

"So comfortable." Wu Tian changed his position and lay on the sofa. He stared at Loong Yun as if he was admiring an antique. "By the way, have you been in love before?"

Loong Yun's arms paused slightly before she spat out two words expressionlessly, "No."

"You haven't been in love at your age?"

"Yes."

"Then you really have lived for nothing." Wu Tian shook his head regretfully and sighed, "At your age, you are in love."

"Not interested."

"Then what are you interested in?"

"I ..." Loong Yun thought for a moment before shaking her head. "I don't know."

"Woman, you're really boring. You're no different from a wood person." After Wu Tian said this, he placed his legs on the tea table and said, "Come, help this young master beat his legs."

"..."

Loong Yun's eyes showed a bit of boredom, but she didn't say much. She squatted in front and beat Wu Tian's legs, but her face was a bit blushing.

At this moment, Azure Dragon walked in.

Seeing the scene in the hall, he hurriedly apologized, "I'm sorry, Young Master, I came at the wrong time."

With that, he turned around and prepared to leave.

"Halt."

Wu Tian quickly called out to Azure Dragon and explained, "Don't misunderstand, I only asked Secretary Loong to beat my legs for me. It didn't mean anything."

"So she was only helping you beat your legs. I thought ..." Azure Dragon turned around and swallowed his words before he could finish them.

"You think I'm molesting Secretary Loong?"

Coughing sounds rang out.

"Don't worry, this young master isn't that bad." Wu Tian waved his hand, signaling Loong Yun to stop. He then asked Azure Dragon, "Is there anything that you need me for?"

"Young master, I would like to take a few days leave. My sister will be discharged soon, so I would like to take good care of her for a few days."

"No problem." When he heard that Azure Dragon's little sister had been discharged, Wu Tian was also very happy. He arranged, "If you don't have anywhere to live, I'll find a place for you to stay. It's also convenient for you to take care of your little sister."

"No need, we have a place to stay." He was too embarrassed to trouble the young master anymore.

"If there's anything you need help with, just ask away."

"Not yet."

"Say hello to your sister for me. I'll go see him another day."

"Thank you young master, please be careful during this period of time. I'll be leaving first." Azure Dragon turned around and left after saying that.

After Azure Dragon left, Wu Tian turned around and instructed Loong Yun, "What are you standing there for? Let's continue."

"I'm sorry, young master. My arms are hurting." Loong Yun didn't want to touch the young master's body anymore, so she found a random reason to refuse.

She felt awkward being in such close contact with her young master.

"Your arm hurts?"

"Yes."

"Then you don't have to help me beat my back."

"Thank you, Young Master." Loong Yun secretly heaved a sigh of relief when she heard this.

However, the young master's next words made her feel as if she had fallen into an abyss.

"Here, sit down." Wu Tian patted the seat beside him and said in a serious tone, "I've learned some massage techniques. I can help you massage your arms to ease the pain."

"What?" Upon hearing those words, Loong Yun's face turned unsightly.

She thought that she had gotten rid of massaging her young master, but who knew that her young master would help her? This made it even more difficult for her to accept.

After a moment of surprise, she hurriedly waved her hand and refused, "Young Master, there's no need. My arm doesn't actually hurt that much."

"Cut the crap, sit down."

"Young master, there's really no need ..."

"What? You don't believe my method?"

"I ..." Loong Yun wanted to cry, but no tears came out. She had no choice but to sit down obediently.

"Here, straighten your arms." Wu Tian ordered in a deep voice like an old Chinese doctor.

"Yes sir!" Loong Yun could only stretch her arms obediently.

"Don't be too nervous, relax." After Wu Tian gave some instructions, he stretched out his hand to help Loong Yun press the button clockwise.

Start at the shoulder and press down a little clockwise.

Previously, when he had read the medical manual, he had pressed down on it according to the instructions written in it. This was also his first time using such a method.

"It hurts!"

Loong Yun cried out. The moment her arm was touched, her body shook violently as if she had been electrocuted.

She didn't know why, but every time she was touched by her young master, her body would feel a little numb. She had never felt this way before.

"What's wrong?" Wu Tian thought he was too strong, so he quickly let go of his hand and asked in concern.

"I'm fine." Loong Yun sighed inwardly, pretending that nothing had happened. Her expression was still as cold as ever.

"Don't be afraid, relax." Wu Tian stood up from the sofa. He half knelt on the sofa and helped Loong Yun treat her more seriously.

Loong Yun quickly adapted to this technique, but to her surprise, her body felt much more relaxed after being pressed by her young master.

She was indeed very surprised, she did not expect that the Young Master really had some skills.

"Alright." After pressing for more than 20 minutes, Wu Tian retracted his arm. He instructed with a smile: "Go take a shower, rub some alcohol on your arms, sleep for a bit and you will be able to recover tomorrow."

"Thank you, Young Master." After Loong Yun expressed her thanks, she swung her arm.

The pressure just now had made her arms feel much more comfortable. Even her upper body felt much more relaxed and comfortable.

"It's also very difficult for you to work for me. You can find me whenever you feel uncomfortable in the future. I promise that I'll help you cure it." Wu Tian said with pride.

"Yes, then I'll go take a bath first."

"Do you need my help?"

"You ..." Loong Yun wanted to curse out a few words, but she swallowed her words back in her throat. In the end, all that was left was a cold glare as she turned around and walked into her room.

Wu Tian grinned. After seeing Secretary Loong's back walk into the distance, he stood up and entered the study room. He then locked himself in the study room and continued to read and study.

The night passed in silence.

Wu Tian got up early to start practicing martial arts before dawn the next day.

Even if Azure Dragon wasn't here, he still had to train hard and not neglect his martial arts.

While he was practicing, the phone rang. It was Lee Mu again.

"Good news." The moment the call connected, he heard Lee Mu's excited voice, "Our system has successfully entered the market. The promotional effect is very good."

"Not bad, you did well." Wu Tian couldn't help but feel happy when he heard that the new system had a good impact in the market.

"Boss Wu, do you want to come over and celebrate together?"

"No need. You guys celebrate. I'll be training at home." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

After hanging up, he continued practicing martial arts. He was even more passionate than before.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 200 - System Paralysis -

C200 System Paralysis

This training lasted for more than two hours, until he was completely exhausted and sweating profusely.

After going to the bathroom to shower and change his clothes, Lee Mu's phone rang again.

Wu Tian looked at his phone and asked, "Director Li, is there some exciting good news?"

"Oh no, something has happened." In the end, Lee Mu's flustered voice came from the other end of the phone.

Hearing this voice, Wu Tian quickly stopped smiling, and asked urgently into his phone, "Quickly tell me, what happened?"

"Not long after our new system entered the market, it was attacked by a hacker. The system is temporarily paralyzed."

"How could this be?"

"Perhaps it is because our System is too good and we are being envied by others."

"Hurry up and think of a way to repair the system. I'll be right over." After Wu Tian said this, he hung up the phone and left the room in a hurry.

Uncle Fugui drove, and they quickly arrived at Tianmu Technology.

The company was extremely busy, especially the technicians, who were wholeheartedly trying to crack the attack.

"What's the situation like?" As soon as he arrived at the company, Wu Tian urgently asked Lee Mu about the situation.

"The current situation is controllable. Everyone is busy trying to crack the hacker's attack. I believe the system will return to normal soon."

"That's good." Wu Tian was slightly reassured and asked again, "Who attacked our system?"

"It's a foreign hacker. We're investigating which company it is."

"F * ck!" Wu Tian was even more angry when he heard that the new system had been hacked by foreign hackers.

"Boss Wu, sit first. Drink some water." Lee Mu poured a cup of water and passed it over, consoling, "I believe we will succeed this time."

"There's nothing to be afraid of." Wu Tian took the cup and calmed down a little.

After drinking a few mouthfuls of water, he asked Yuan Wangchun, "How is the previous two games that our company developed?"

"The game itself is weak in terms of realisation, but since the development of derivatives around here is starting, there should still be a lot of income left." Yuan Wangchun replied with a smile.

"When you've pretty much developed the surrounding areas of the game, you can try to develop a new game. Of course, you still can't relax in those two games."

"Understood."

"Although the game isn't our main business, we can use it to quickly cash out." After Wu Tian said this, his tone changed: "Don't worry, Director Li will definitely support you."

"Yes, the company will fully support it." Lee Mu immediately understood Wu Tian's intention and quickly expressed his stance.

"Thank you for your support, Boss Wu and Director Li. We will definitely expand our gaming industry and definitely won't drag down the company." Yuan Wangchun made a vow.

"That's good." Wu Tian nodded. That was what he had been waiting for.

If the sidelines were to drag the company down, the company would not be able to put too much effort into the mobile phone system and would certainly have an impact on the main industry.

At this moment, Zhou Cheng ran over and shouted excitedly, "Boss Wu, Director Li, the system has finally been restored successfully."

"Great."

Hearing that, Lee Mu raised his hands and made a gesture to celebrate his victory.

After a short celebration, he hurriedly asked the technician, "Did you find out which company attacked our system?"

"I'm afraid it will take a long time."

"Hurry up and investigate, we must find out who the mastermind is."

"Yes." After Zhou Cheng answered, he led everyone to continue working.

Investigating the opponent's details is more cumbersome and a bigger challenge than fixing the system.

Just as the company's technicians were putting all their energy into the investigation, another malfunction occurred in their cell phone system.

"Boss Wu, Director Li, our system is under attack again." Even Zhou Cheng looked as if he wanted to cry, but had no tears.

The system had only been repaired for less than half an hour. Who would have thought that the system would be hacked again.

"Another attack?" Hearing that, Lee Mu's face instantly turned as bitter as a bitter gourd.

Their mobile phone system had been hacked twice in a short period of time.

This time, Wu Tian was very calm. He asked Zhou Cheng, "Who attacked our system this time?"

"Same ID as the first time, also from abroad."

"Seems like he's fighting against us." Wu Tian used his hand to rub his chin and ordered, "Put the repair system aside first and quickly investigate the details of the other party."

"Yes sir!"

Zhou Cheng was getting busy after answering.

In the end, a black box popped up on the computer. It was a message sent by a hacker through a special section. He hurriedly told Wu Tian and Lee Mu, "Boss Wu, Director Li, the opponent is provoking us.

"What is it?" Wu Tian also noticed the black box, but it was filled with dense code.

"Immediately decode it." Zhou Cheng tapped on his computer keyboard for a while before he said: "They said our China system is trash, and they even scolded us Chinese as trash."

"Damn it!"

Hearing this, Wu Tian was instantly angered.

This group of foreign hackers had relied on their outstanding skills to brazenly provoke and humiliate them.

After thinking for a moment, he asked Zhou Cheng, "Is there any way to send this kind of message to them?"

"This is very simple. You can just change the code after hacking into the ID system." Zhou Cheng said with confidence.

"Fine, send them a message like this: 'Coward, you only dare to play tricks behind my back. Tell me who you are, and we will fight to the death'." Wu Tian thought for a moment and said to Zhou Cheng.

"Alright."

After Zhou Cheng received the order, he quickly tapped on the keyboard and got busy.

After working hard for more than 10 minutes, he finally managed to hack into the other party's computer, and used the code to put Wu Tian's words into the other party's computer.

After about 10 minutes, a notification box popped up on the table. It was filled with code.

Zhou Cheng quickly translated the code and said to Wu Tian, "He said they are KBTs from Royal Qi Company of Dur Nation, and asked us what we can do to them. He also said that in the future, he will target our system."

"A despicable Huangqi Company." Wu Tian's eyes flashed. He took out his phone and dialed Loong Yun's number. He went straight to the point, "Secretary Loong, help me check the Dur Nation's Huang Qi Company."

"The Kingdom of Dur?" On the other end of the phone, Loong Yun's tone was slightly serious.

Perhaps she didn't think that the small Technology Company under Young Master's banner would actually fight against foreign companies.

"Difficult?"

"It's not difficult. Young Master, please wait."

"The sooner the better. If you find out, give me a call." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

Then he said to Zhou Cheng, "This bunch of bastards, curse him a few times, vent your anger first."

"Sure!" Zhou Cheng was waiting for the right words, and then he once again blacked into the system and started cursing to his heart's content.

Right after he finished insulting the other party, he received a code to curse at him. His words were filled with a strong sense of aggression and humiliation.

In this way, the two sides launched a spectacular international war of curses through their respective technology.
