

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 201 - Solve Things -

C201 Solve Things

Wu Tian didn't directly participate in this scolding battle. Instead, he walked to the window and stared into the distance.

At present, the company is full of positive R & D technicians and programmers, there is no aggressive hacking.

Through this incident, he received some inspiration.

It seemed like the company still needed a group of top hackers in the world. If they were bullied, they could at least fight back.

However, there were not many top hackers in the world that could be found, and it was not easy to find such a talent.

Just as he was deep in thought, the phone in his pocket rang.

He took out the phone and saw that it was Loong Yun. He quickly answered the phone and asked, "Secretary Loong, did you find any results?"

"Yes."

"Quickly tell me about the background of the Huangqi Company."

"Huang Qi Company is a Technology Company company in the Kingdom of Dur. Its scale is about the same as Young Master's Tianmu Technology. It's just that their company has two top hackers in the world, and they often use despicable means to suppress their competitors." Loong Yun recounted the details of the Huangqi Company in one breath.

"With our Wu Family, can we destroy this company?"

"It's not difficult. Our Wu Family has branches in Dur Nation, so we can use the Dur Nation's company to ban Huang Qi."

"Are you sure?"

"I'm sure."

"Fine, I will follow you for two hours. Help me get rid of this Huang Qi company."

"Yes."

"Hurry up and do it, I'll wait for your good news." Wu Tian hung up after saying that.

He thought for a moment, walked over to Zhou Cheng and instructed, "Tell those fellows in Huangqi that within two hours, I want them to disappear from Dur Nation."

"This ..."

Zhou Cheng hesitated for a moment. He couldn't tell if Boss Wu was joking or not, so he didn't dare to act rashly.

He knew that Boss Wu had a lot of power, but Huangqi Corporation was after all a foreign company. No matter how strong he was, it was impossible for him to easily destroy a foreign company.

Even Yuan Wangchun and Lee Mu expressed doubt.

After a brief moment of silence, Lee Mu finally raised his doubts: "Boss Wu, is what you said the truth?"

"Of course it's the truth." Wu Tian nodded, his expression was extremely serious.

"Are you really going to destroy the company?"

"Right."

"But Huangqi Corporation is, after all, a company of the Kingdom of Dur. They have roots abroad, how should we make our move?"

"Don't worry, I have my ways."

"But ..."

"Alright." Wu Tian was too lazy to explain so much. He directly instructed Zhou Cheng, "Do as I said just now. Tell Huang Qi company what I just said."

"This ..." Zhou Cheng was still a little hesitant.

According to Boss Wu, he was going to destroy the Huang Qi company within two hours. However, if he didn't destroy the company within those two hours, they would be in great disgrace.

However, when he saw Boss Wu's serious expression, he didn't dare to disobey and could only use these words to hack into the enemy's computer.

After waiting for more than ten minutes, he received a message from the enemy.

After translating this part, he hurriedly reported to Wu Tian, "Boss Wu, Huang Qi Corporation mocked us for overestimating ourselves, saying we don't know our own limits ..."

"Ignore him." Wu Tian directly interrupted Zhou Cheng and instructed, "Think of a way to repair the phone system. Let's do our best."

"Yes."

After Zhou Cheng answered, he immediately got busy in front of the computer. However, he was a bit anxious and uneasy in his heart.

Very soon, the computer received the code for the Huang Qi company's invasion. It was nothing more than mocking and humiliating words.

Since Boss Wu told him to ignore it, he could only pretend he didn't see it and continue to busy himself with repairing the company's mobile phone system.

It took him over an hour to finish repairing the system. The cellular system returned to normal.

However, everyone still felt apprehensive, afraid that the System would be deceived by Huang Qi and the others. They were all terrified.

After half an hour, the system was still stable and everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

At this moment, a code prompt popped up on Zhou Cheng's computer.

After translating the code, Zhou Cheng was so excited that his hands were dancing in joy. He hurriedly reported to Wu Tian, "Boss Wu, Huang Qi and his gang have taken the initiative to apologize. They hope we can spare them."

Hearing this, Lee Mu and Yuan Wangchun were dumbfounded.

They didn't expect the arrogant and arrogant Huang Qi company to take the initiative to apologize and beg for forgiveness. The sun had risen from the west.

"Is that so?" Hearing this news, the corner of Wu Tian's mouth curled up. He appeared very calm, as if everything was under his control.

"Boss Wu, what is going on?" Lee Mu couldn't help but be curious in his heart as he asked urgently.

"As I said, I'm sure I can make the company disappear from Dur within two hours." Wu Tian replied with a smile.

"What?"

Lee Mu was so shocked that his eyes were wide open. He said in disbelief, "You really let someone destroy someone's company?"

"Right."

"Oh my god!" Lee Mu, Yuan Wangchun, and Zhou Cheng exclaimed at the same time. They were all shocked by Wu Tian's powerful force.

They could not imagine how powerful he would be if he could destroy a foreign company in two hours.

They previously thought that Boss Wu only had a strong backer and power in the Luzhou. It was only today that they realized that Boss Wu's power internationally was also this strong.

They were all in awe of Boss Wu, and were full of admiration for their boss.

This was the true plan, which was to win in a battle that was thousands of miles away.

Sitting in China's small office, he relied on the powers behind him to easily deal with the worms that were far away abroad.

This kind of courage was truly admirable.

"Everyone, remember, as long as you make yourself stronger, no one will ever dare to step on you again." Wu Tian turned his head and glanced at them. He clenched his fist and said, "Everyone, work hard. Make the company big and strong. It makes all foreigners afraid."

"Boss Wu is right, we must make the company big and strong." Lee Mu's passion was ignited as he raised his right hand and shouted out as if he was swearing an oath.

At that moment, the computer received two more code messages.

After a simple translation, Zhou Cheng reported to Wu Tian, "Huangqi Corporation is still apologizing to us and has promised not to offend our company and our system in the future. They have also promised us a loss fee of ten million US dollars and hope we can let their company off."

"Go and tell those people, they definitely can't bully us China people just because they have some ability. China people are father that you can never offend." Wu Tian instructed Zhou Cheng.

"Alright, I'll reply to them right away." According to Wu Tian's request, Zhou Cheng sent those words into the system through code.

After sending the last message, he couldn't be bothered with Huang Qi and the others.

Since then, Huang Qi and the others were much more obedient. They no longer dared to mess with the mobile phone system, much less offend the people from China.

It was only after this time that they truly understood that China people could not be offended. Once the China people got angry, no one could stop them.

In this way, the system was able to quickly resolve the crisis. The company soon returned to normal.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 202 - Boudoir -

C202 Boudoir

After settling the matter of the company's phone system being hacked, Wu Tian brought the backbone of the company out to eat. He just happened to receive a call from Liu Jun.

"Uncle Liu, is there something you need me for?" Wu Tian asked as soon as he picked up the phone.

"Tian, yesterday you said that you would come to our house for lunch. Why haven't you come yet?" On the other end of the phone, Liu Jun's tone carried a hint of resentment.

"Eating?"

Only then did Wu Tian remember that when he left the famous Hua Manor yesterday, he had indeed agreed to go to Uncle Liu's home for dinner.

He didn't expect to come to work at the company for a while, so he forgot about it.

After a slight pause, he hurriedly explained to his phone, "Sorry, Uncle Liu, there was a problem with the company just now. I was too busy dealing with the company crisis that I forgot about the meal."

"Has the company crisis been resolved?"

"It's done."

"That's good. Hurry back to my house, we'll be waiting for you for lunch."

"Alright, I'll be right there." After Wu Tian hung up, he said apologetically to Lee Mu, "I still have some private matters to attend to, so I won't be joining the dinner. You guys can go now."

After saying that, he hurriedly ran out of the company and got Uncle Fugui to drive him to the Liu family villa.

Uncle Fugui's driving skills were amazing. In just 20 minutes, he had arrived at # 1 in the south side of the city.

He had been here once before, so he was fairly familiar with this place.

When he hurried into the hall, he saw Liu Jun waiting inside with his family. It was done very grandly.

"Tian." Liu Jun led his family and stood up to welcome them. He politely said, "On behalf of my family, I welcome you here."

"Uncle Liu is too polite, this really surprises me." Wu Tian scratched his head with an embarrassed expression on his face.

Uncle Liu invited him to dinner so solemnly, but in the end he almost forgot about it, it really shouldn't have happened.

"Tian, there's no need to stand on ceremony here. Treat it as if it's your home." Liu Jun patted Wu Tian's arm and said with a smile, "The meal is not ready yet. I'll let Mengyao bring you upstairs to have a look."

"This ..."

Wu Tie originally wanted to refuse, but before he could finish, he was interrupted by Liu Jun. He ordered his daughter, "Mengyao, bring Tian to visit upstairs."

The visit was fake, but he actually wanted to create an opportunity for his daughter to be with Wu Tian alone.

"Alright!"

As the owner of the house, Liu Mengyao naturally couldn't refuse. She walked over to Wu Tian and made a gesture, "Let me take you upstairs!"

"Alright!" Wu Tian nodded and followed Liu Mengyao upstairs.

Today, Lady Liu was wearing a short skirt. Clearly, she had been deliberately dressed up. She even wore some light makeup on her face, revealing a sense of maturity and sexiness within its elegance.

The two of them went up the stairs one after the other.

Walking to the middle of the escalator, Wu Tian looked up. He happened to see the scene inside Liu Mengyao's skirt. He quickly lowered his head and coughed violently.

"What's wrong?" Hearing such a weird cough, Liu Mengyao hurriedly turned around to ask about the situation.

"No, nothing." Wu Tian acted like he was guilty of a crime, he didn't know where to look with his embarrassed gaze.

Liu Mengyao also noticed something. Her charming face suddenly flushed red as she hastily pressed her hand against her skirt. "Y-y-you, did you see something?"

"I didn't see it."

"You obviously saw it, but you still don't admit it." Liu Mengyao bit her lips, her expression revealing how bashful she was.

She really regretted wearing this dress. She must have been seen by him when she went upstairs just now, otherwise, Wu Tian wouldn't be as guilty as he is now.

"Um, I didn't mean to." Wu Tian scratched his head in embarrassment. Since things had come to this point, he couldn't continue to quibble.

"Men are bad."

Liu Mengyao angrily retorted as she turned her body slightly to the side. "You go to the front so you don't have to peek at me again."

"I ..."

Wu Tian wanted to cry, but no tears came out. He even felt a bit aggrieved in his heart.

He had obviously seen it by accident, but in the end, he was treated like a hooligan by this girl. Right now, he was at a loss for words.

In this sort of situation, it was useless for him to explain. Thus, he could only shut his mouth and walk upstairs first.

There was nothing special about the upstairs. It was just a few bedrooms.

Uncle Liu's intention was probably very simple. He wanted to let him visit his daughter's bedroom and have the chance to be alone with her.

"This is my room." After they had gone upstairs, Liu Mengyao walked over and opened one of the large rooms. "Come in and have a seat."

"Clean and elegant, not bad." Wu Tian praised as he walked into the room, then sat down in front of the sofa by the wall.

"What would you like to drink?"

"Whatever!"

"Then I'll make you a cup of coffee." Liu Mengyao walked over to pour a cup of coffee for Wu Tian, then sat beside him.

"Suction!"

Wu Tian sniffed and complimented with a smile, "Not bad, it smells very sweet and light and pleasant."

"Of course. The coffee was imported from Barr."

"I'm not talking about coffee, I'm talking about your taste."

"What ..."

Liu Mengyao rolled her eyes and said, "I thought you were being honest, but I didn't think you would like to use flowery words as well."

"What I said was right. The smell on your body is exactly the same as the smell in your room. It's light, comfortable and extremely nice to smell." Saying that, Wu Tian sniffed forcefully.

"Is that so?" Being praised like this, Liu Mengyao felt as if she had just eaten honey, and her heart was filled with sweetness.

"Yes." Wu Tian nodded forcefully and smiled, "I'm almost drunk from smelling your fragrance."

"Wu Tian, do you often use this method to tease other girls?"

"I didn't."

"I see you're dishonest." Liu Mengyao rolled her eyes slightly and said angrily, "Why haven't you been looking for me all this time?"

"I said the wrong thing last time and made you angry. I was afraid that you would still be angry." Wu Tian scratched his head awkwardly.

Not long ago, this girl helped him celebrate his birthday. At that time, he didn't say a single word, causing this girl to leave in a huff.

Liu Mengyao crossed her arms over her chest, tilted her head and said, "You know you've angered me, why aren't you apologizing?"

"I'm sorry."

"Now you know what's wrong?"

"I don't know."

"You ..." Liu Mengyao was momentarily speechless and was somewhat lost in thought. She curled her lips and said, "Actually, it's nothing. I'm not such a petty girl."

"It's rare to see a young lady as sensible as you." Wu Tian praised from the bottom of his heart.

In his memory, Liu Mengyao was gentle, refined, and well-mannered, with the appearance of a lady. She was not as headstrong and headstrong as the other daughters.

"What you mean is that none of the other ladies are as sensible as me?"

"Right."

"It seems like you know quite a few ladies."

Laughter rang out.

"Even when I said you were unfaithful, you still smiled." Liu Mengyao was also amused. With her smile, the atmosphere in the room became a bit ambiguous.

At that moment, the downstairs suddenly became lively.

Liu Mengyao frowned slightly. She stood up from the sofa and said, "Please take a seat. I will go downstairs to check on the situation."

"I'll go with you." Wu Tian put down his coffee cup and followed her.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 203 - Friends of Plum and Bamboo Horse? -

C203 Friends of Plum and Bamboo Horse?

At this moment, there was an additional man in a suit standing tall and straight in the hall. He looked handsome and fair, giving off an air of a gentleman.

Liu Mengyao's face turned ugly the moment she saw this man. There was even a hint of disdain and contempt in her eyes.

This was the son of a friend of his father, his name was Chen Junhui. Previously, he had tried to pursue her but was rejected and later had no contact with her after he left the country.

This fellow may appear to be an extraordinary gentleman with an imposing manner, but he was a scum in his bones and had committed many shady tricks in the dark.

Halfway down the stairs, she wanted to return to the second floor to hide, but her father stopped her.

"Mengyao, come down." Liu Jun waved to his daughter, pointed to Chen Junhui, and said, "Junhui's back home. Come and greet him."

"Hello, Brother Junhui."

Liu Mengyao had no choice but to grit her teeth and walk downstairs. The smile on her face was a bit stiff.

To be honest, she was really afraid of meeting this man with a decent appearance. She didn't want to be disturbed by him, but she couldn't think of a suitable reason to refuse.

After all, Chen Junhui's father and her father were good friends, so she couldn't embarrass everyone.

"Mengyao ..."

Chen Junhui was like a lover that had been separated for many years. He quickly stepped forward with eyes full of love and doting.

When he saw Wu Tian, who followed Liu Mengyao downstairs, his face slightly darkened. He couldn't help but ask, "Is this man your servant?"

"He's my friend, Wu Tian." Liu Mengyao feigned a smile, pointed at Wu Tian behind her and explained, "Just now, I took him to my room for a walk."

"To your room?" Hearing that, Chen Junhui's expression turned even worse.

As far as he knew, apart from servants, there were very few men with another surname who could go up to the second floor, let alone enter Liu Mengyao's room.

Even with his deep relationship with the Liu family, he had never been to Mengyao's room. How could this kid in front of him have the ability to do that?

He couldn't help but start to suspect that this Wu Tian had a close relationship with Mengyao. Maybe they were lovers.

"Yes!"

Liu Mengyao nodded and said with a stinky smile, "Wu Tian is an important guest invited by my family. Dad wants me to take him for a walk upstairs."

"Is that so?" Chen Junhui pursed his lips into a smile without any change in his expression. That sentence just now had allowed him to catch a lot of information.

From the looks of it, there was no deep relationship between Wu Tian and Mengyao. However, Liu Jun clearly wanted to match the two of them. Otherwise, he wouldn't have let his daughter bring the man to her bedroom.

Staring at Wu Tian for a while, Chen Junhui stretched out his right hand and introduced himself as a gentleman, "My name is Chen Junhui, I'm Mengyao's childhood friend."

He purposefully emphasized the words 'childhood sweetheart' to show that he had a special relationship with Liu Mengyao.

"Hello, nice to meet you." As the saying goes, don't be impolite. Wu Tian knew the hostility in the other person's eyes, but he still shook hands with him.

He came to the Liu family today as a guest, so naturally, he couldn't embarrass Uncle Liu.

"You are all my friends. We are all guests. Dinner has been prepared. Great-nephew, Tian, please come in." Liu Jun gestured a "please" gesture and said to the two of them.

"Please!"

Chen Junhui bent down at ninety degrees and made a gesture of "please". He appeared to be especially polite and polite.

"There's no need to be polite, come in and have a seat." After Liu Jun said this, he walked towards the restaurant first.

Chen Junhui and Wu Tian followed closely behind him, followed by the Liu Family members and Liu Mengyao.

Originally, it was just a feast, but because of an unexpected guest, her mood had worsened.

At this moment, the table was already filled with delicious food. There were more than 20 dishes on the table, and it looked extremely sumptuous.

After everyone had taken their seats, Liu Jun raised his wine glass and said with a smile, "Let us first welcome the two esteemed guests. We will have a drink together."

"Uncle, I toast you." Chen Junhui raised his wine cup to signal Liu Jun, then raised his head and drank it all in one gulp.

The others also raised their glasses and drank.

When they finished their first glass of wine, the atmosphere in the restaurant was noticeably milder.

"Uncle."

Chen Junhui put down his wine cup, took out a plastic bag from his pocket and handed it over to Liu Jun, "This is a present I brought for uncle, it's a little gift from me, I hope uncle can accept it."

He knew that if he wanted to marry Liu Mengyao, he had to curry favor with Liu Jun first. In the Liu family, many matters were left up to Liu Jun to decide.

In order to curry favor with Liu Jun, he did not hesitate to offer up expensive diamonds as a show of sincerity and respect.

"South African diamond?"

Seeing the diamonds in the plastic bag, Liu Jun's eyes lit up.

Staring at the diamond a few times, he waved his hand and quickly rejected, "Nephew, this gift is too valuable, Uncle cannot accept it."

"This is just a small token of my appreciation, I hope uncle won't decline." Chen Junhui stood up from his seat and respectfully handed over the naked diamond in his hands.

"Alright!"

Seeing Chen Junhui being so sincere, Liu Jun could not refuse anymore. He could only accept the bag of diamonds and asked with a smile, "The value of these diamonds is not low, right?"

"Not much money, just tens of millions." After Chen Junhui said this, he intentionally brought the topic up to Wu Tian, "Mr Wu, how much do you think these diamonds are worth?"

He deliberately asked this because he wanted to show off to Wu Tian that he had money and was willing to spend it on Liu Jun. He also wanted to take this opportunity to embarrass Wu Tian.

From the beginning, he had regarded Wu Tian as a rival in love. Naturally, he wanted Wu Tian to make a fool of himself in the Liu family and be mocked and despised by the Liu family.

From his point of view, Wu Tian was wearing shabby clothes and had no taste at first glance. Naturally, he wouldn't recognize luxury goods like diamonds.

"In my opinion, these diamonds are worth tens of thousands of dollars!" Wu Tian stared at the diamond a few times and answered with a smile.

When these words came out, the Liu Family started to discuss with one another.

They all thought that Wu Tian didn't know anything, and didn't know anything about diamonds at all. He thought that the tens of millions of dollars worth of South African diamonds were worth tens of thousands of dollars.

Even Liu Jun and Liu Mengyao thought that Wu Tian was wrong.

"Mr Wu, why do you say that these diamonds are only worth tens of thousands of yuan?" Chen Junhui asked with a smile on his face.

In fact, he couldn't help but be secretly happy in his heart. It seemed like Wu Tian didn't know anything about diamonds, and he will lose face in a while.

"Your South African Bare Diamond's level is only VS2." Wu Tian grabbed the bag of diamonds and said in a serious tone, "The cutting technique originated from Poole. The color and cleanliness are very ordinary. 50 points for each piece, around 7,000 yuan. Ten pieces are only 70,000 yuan."

Hearing that, everyone was surprised. They didn't expect Wu Tian to be good at analyzing diamonds.

Chen Junhui was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect Wu Tian to be so knowledgeable about diamonds. If he didn't know anything, it would be impossible for him to say what he just said.

However, he still believed that Wu Tian was deliberately mystifying and belittling the value of his diamonds.

He had spent tens of millions on these diamonds, and both the cutting process and the colour and purity were first-rate.

Furthermore, he had previously asked someone from South Africa to appraise it. Furthermore, he also had a professional verification certificate. His diamond market price was definitely not lower than 50 million.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 204 - Cheap Stuff -

C204 Cheap Stuff

"Mr Wu, you definitely saw wrongly." Chen Junhui pointed to the bag of diamonds and confidently said, "My ten diamonds are definitely not lower than fifty million."

"No, your diamond won't exceed seventy thousand yuan." Wu Tian's tone was also very confident.

He had previously come into contact with various types of diamonds from an old professor. Back then, he had only been interested in them and had even specifically learned how to determine the grade of a diamond.

He did not dare to say that it was a high-grade diamond, but he could tell at a glance that it was one of those low-grade diamonds.

The diamond cutting techniques in front of him were ordinary. The color and purity were clearly not that high, just a few ordinary diamonds.

"What right do you have to say that my diamonds are worth tens of thousands of dollars?" Chen Junhui was also a bit worried.

He felt that this brat was purposely belittling the value of the diamonds, making him feel embarrassed in the Liu Clan.

"The value of the diamonds is not up to debate, there's no need for us to argue about it. You can find a professional appraiser to verify it with you." Wu Tian was too lazy to argue and suggested.

"Alright, I'll contact the appraiser now." Chen Junhui had the same idea as he quickly took out his phone and started to make calls.

He had to prove to the Liu Clan that these were rare diamonds. The cutting techniques were all crafted by top masters and were definitely worth more than fifty million.

He wouldn't bring several tens of thousands of dollars worth of diamonds to embarrass himself.

Today, he had to let Liu Jun know the value of the diamonds and their sincerity. It proved that his diamonds were indeed of high value.

At the same time, he also wanted to ruthlessly slap Wu Tian's face, making this ignorant kid lose face in front of everyone.

Everyone quietly waited for the appraiser to arrive. They were all curious about the value of these South African diamonds.

After waiting for more than ten minutes, they saw an old man in his seventies walking in with a yellow bag on his back, followed by two attendants.

This was the famous appraiser of Jiangnan. He was recognized as a living fossil in the gemstone world and had great authority in determining the grade of diamonds.

"Master Jin, I am here to welcome you." Upon seeing the appraiser, Liu Jun led the crowd to welcome him.

"You're welcome. I heard that you have top-notch diamonds. I'm here to broaden my horizons." Master Jin was too lazy to waste words with him, so he went straight to the point. "Where are the diamonds? Quick, show them to me."

"Here."

Chen Junhui quickly handed the packet of diamonds to the Master.

Master Jin took the diamond and looked at it, then he took out the magnifying glass and carefully observed it.

After looking at it for a while, he put away the magnifying glass and expressionlessly said, "I've finished looking at it. I hope you will excuse me. Goodbye."

With that, he turned around and prepared to leave.

"Master Jin, don't go yet." Chen Junhui quickly blocked Master Jin's way and asked with a smile, "Master, what do you think of my diamonds?"

"That's right, it's an authentic South African diamond."

"How much do you think these authentic South African diamonds are worth?"

"It's worth it." Master Jin made a few gestures with his fingers.

Seeing this gesture, Chen Junhui was very excited: "Master, you mean these diamonds are worth seventy million?"

Coughing sounds rang out.

Master Jin seemed to be frightened by these words. He coughed a few times and shook his head, "I'm not talking about seventy million, but seventy thousand."

"What? Seventy thousand?" Chen Junhui's eyes almost popped out when he heard this number.

How could a naked South African diamond that he bought for tens of millions be worth only seventy thousand after it was certified by a foreign expert?

"Seventy thousand. No more." Master Jin nodded his head vigorously and confirmed this answer.

"How is this possible?"

"Nothing is impossible." Master Jin pointed at the bag of diamonds and said in a serious manner, "The cutting techniques of these diamonds are very rough, the color and purity are very poor, there are many flaws."

"But I bought it abroad, and I have an appraisal certificate."

"Sigh!" Master Jin sighed and said with emotion, "Young man, you're still too young. I'm afraid you've been tricked."

"What? I ..."

Chen Junhui was stunned on the spot like a retard. Only now did he realize that he was tricked by someone overseas.

He had originally thought that he would have to spend several tens of millions to obtain a treasure, but what he had picked up was not a treasure, but several tens of thousands of ordinary diamonds.

"I still have things to do, so I'll take my leave first. Goodbye." After saying this, Master Jin turned around and left.

"Take care, Master Jin." Liu Jun hurriedly brought his men to see him off. It was only when he saw Master Jin off did he return to the restaurant. He couldn't help but give Wu Tian a big thumbs up and praise, "Good boy, I didn't expect you to be so knowledgeable about diamonds. You could see the value of these diamonds with a glance."

The Liu family couldn't help but nod in praise. Only now did they understand that Wu Tian was the true expert in appraising treasures.

He could tell the grade of a diamond with a single glance, and he could even accurately determine the value of a diamond. If this wasn't an expert, then what was it?

Even Liu Mengyao couldn't help but look at him with awe.

Before this, she thought that Wu Tian was just spouting nonsense and pretending to know nothing, but it wasn't until now that she dared to confirm that Wu Tian was very proficient in diamonds.

"I'm flattered. I only know a little bit about it." Wu Tian scratched his head and revealed a modest smile.

"Alright, let's continue eating." Liu Jun picked up his chopsticks and realized that Chen Junhui was still standing there in a daze. He reminded him with a smile, "Nephew, let's continue eating."

"Uncle, I ..." Chen Junhui gritted his teeth. At this moment, he wished he could find a hole to hide in.

He had never been as humiliated as he was now. He bought tens of thousands of yuan worth of diamonds and gave them to Liu Jun as tens of millions.

Originally, he wanted to use this opportunity to curry favor with Liu Jun. However, when he found out that it was a fake, he was ruthlessly slapped in front of everyone.

"Nephew, don't take it to heart. I'll accept the diamond. I appreciate your kindness." Liu Jun kept the diamonds and stuffed them into his pocket, trying to ease the awkwardness.

"Uncle, I didn't expect it to be like this." Chen Junhui was embarrassed.

Although Liu Jun said he didn't care, he definitely called him a retard in his heart. At this moment, the Liu family were all looking at him with a playful look.

Especially Liu Mengyao, she looked at him with disdain and contempt. On the contrary, she looked at Wu Tian with infatuation.

Seeing this gaze, he was about to go crazy.

"Let's put off the matter of the diamonds for now, let's eat first." After Liu Jun said this, he gave Chen Junhui a pair of chopsticks and said, "This is our local specialty, how about you try it?"

"Not bad, it really is delicious." Seeing that Liu Jun gave him a way out, Chen Junhui quickly took the opportunity to change the topic, "It's been a long time since I've been back home. Even the dishes at home are so delicious."

"Do you think that your hometown has changed a lot?"

"Yes, the change is too great. I can't tell which direction is which." After saying that, Chen Junhui changed to a gentle tone and said to Liu Mengyao, "Mengyao, after dinner, can you be my tour guide and take me for a walk?"

"Sorry, I don't have time today." Liu Mengyao tactfully refused.

"You don't have time?"

"Right, Wu Tian is an important guest of our Liu family. He came here with great difficulty, of course I have to spend some time to entertain him." Liu Mengyao came up with a reasonable excuse.

Chen Junhui's heart sank after hearing this. It seemed that in Mengyao's heart, Wu Tian was more important than him.
