Chapter 2141: Honey Trap

Han Xiao held the girl tightly as if he was clinging onto his own life. "I'm sorry... It's my fault... I couldn't find you..."

Annie had no expression on her face, yet she could not control her tears. She was not sure why she was crying. The moment he heard the man say that, her tears flowed out...

"Follow me, I'll help you remember everything." Han Xiao took the girl's hand and left quickly.

Ning Xi almost went crazy. "Master! Wait! A-antidote!"

Han Xiao paused in his steps, then he looked at the girl who was just being dragged along. "Youge, where's the antidote?"

Annie looked at the man in the eyes. As if her soul was being controlled, she took out a small medicine pouch.

Han Xiao took the medicine pouch and tossed it over to Ning Xi, then he picked up the exhausted Annie. Their figures disappeared into the forest.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Ning Xi mumbled as she had the antidote in her hands, "The Master is sick! He got the antidote with a honey trap..."

"Just what kind of relationship does the Master have with Annie?" Feng Xiaoxiao was curious

"That lady seems to be Mr. Han Xiao's lover, Ms. You Ge. However, she seems like she's lost her memory," the European King said.

"Lost her memories..." Ning Xi tried to speculate. "Could it be that Youge did not die back then? The Yun family accidentally saved her, but she lost her memory. The Yun family was interested in her abilities, so they took her in.

"Yun Qingze looked a lot like Han Xiao. Youge, who lost her memory, developed a sense of intimacy with him. She cared about him so much that his death left a lasting impact on her, causing her to carry out her series of revenge..."

"Ah! No wonder Annie was so obedient just now! Han Xiao was her true love!" Tang Lang seemed to have realized.

Feng Xiaoxiao mumbled, "Hmm, I wonder what will happen to Annie and the Master..."

Ning Xi held the antidote tight in her hand, then she looked in the direction that the two had left. "I hope Annie can regain her memories. I believe Master will have a way to do so!"

Ning Xi then turned around and thanked the European King. "Grandfather Jace, thank you for your timely appearance and help today."

If it were not for Jace, even if more than half of the snipers had gone down, there would certainly have been a bloodbath today.

"It was I who caused the trouble here," Jace sighed.

"I really didn't expect that you'd..."

Ning Xi felt amazed. A producer, who was also a kind old man, had suddenly become the legendary underground king of Europe, .

Jace smiled. "I'm now just a producer who loves making movies."

Jace looked at Ning Xi and sighed again, "Xiao Xi, you really look like Caroline... Back then, Caroline ignored my warnings and went into acting. Similar to you, she started off being a stuntwoman. She worked hard on her own and she said acting was the one thing she loved the most. It was her life.

"She wanted to earn my recognition. Unfortunately, when I finally understood her, an accident happened in one of the shoots. Seeing you just reminds me of her..."

"I have a lot of sons, but only two daughters. My youngest daughter ran away from home because I wanted her to marry Mr. Han. She doesn't even want to call me Father up until today. Caroline also died because of my stubbornness. She wanted my recognition, which led her to her accident..."

Chapter 2142: Too Boring

As she listened to this old man reminisce about the past, seeing the way he blamed himself, Ning Xi felt a mix of emotions.

The elder before her was not some European King who shocked the entire underground world. He was just a regular father.

No wonder the first time they met, he was already so friendly to her. It turned out that he had seen his daughter in her.

"Even though Miss Caroline has passed away, she left the most beautiful scene for everyone. She didn't only work hard for you. It was also for her dreams. I believe that she has never blamed you!" Ning Xi said.

"You really think so?" Jace's eyes suddenly glistened.

Ning Xi nodded. "If it were me."

"Thank you..." Jace let out a long sigh as if he could finally put his burden down.

Then, he looked at Ning Xi and said, "I'm returning to Europe tomorrow. Xiao Xi, if you ever come to Europe, you have to contact me. Let me do the honor of being your host."

"I definitely will!"

With Jace's departure, the European King's people all retreated. Lu Tingxiao's and Yun Shen's people all followed suit and went back too.

The huge Heavenly Spring Resort returned to its usual tranquility. The scenery was beautiful and it was a wonderful spring day. It was as if all the things earlier had not just happened.

As for the huge battle this time, the only person who had died was unexpectedly... Qiao Yi...

Ning Xi looked at Qiao Yi, who lay on the ground and had unfortunately died in Han Xiao's hands. She felt a mix of emotions.

Tang Ye walked step by step over to Qiao Yi. He took his jacket off and covered Qiao Yi with it, then he personally carried his corpse and left.

Once a teacher, always a teacher.

Even if Qiao Yi had done those sorts of things, he still could not bear to see his body exposed in the wilderness.

Tang Lang watched Tang Ye's departing figure and did not say anything.

"Tsk, boring." He did not get to fight, so Yun Shen lazily yawned.

The assistant who had come along quickly rushed up to ask for instructions, "CEO Yun, what do we do on the company's end? This time, the entire corporation was inflicted with serious damages. The people below are waiting for your response..."

Yun Shen took a look at him and said nonchalantly, "Oh, then I don't want it anymore."

"Don't... don't want it anymore?" The assistant was confused.

Yun Shen smiled and looked at him. "From now on, you're the boss."

"Uhh... I... I'm the boss?" The assistant was completely puzzled. "Then, what about you, CEO Yun?"

The white-haired man looked at the faraway horizon and said, "I'll be a pirate!"

"W-what?" The assistant was stumped.

On the side, when Ning Xi heard Yun Shen, she instantly frowned.

Yun Shen obviously noticed her expression. He smiled faintly and said, "What? Do you think I'm going to resume my old trades and destroy the Lu family again? Hah, don't worry, I'm not interested. This guy..."

Yun Shen's gaze fell onto Lu Tingxiao with hints of disdain. "Too boring."

With this girl around, their previous battle was doomed to never start.

Ning Xi looked earnestly at the person before her. "Thank you."

Yun Shen's indifferent expression suddenly looked a little unnatural. "Fool! There's nothing to thank me for!"

Then, he turned around to leave.

Feng Xiaoxiao quickly followed after him. She scuttled as she waved to Ning Xi and bade her farewell. "Little Junior Sister, I'm leaving now. When your wedding happens, remember to let me know!"

When a certain someone who was walking fast ahead heard that, he turned around and gave Feng Xiaoxiao a furious look.

Feng Xiaoxiao felt attacked by the look. "Eh? Did I say something wrong?"

Beside her, Tang Lang clicked his tongue and shook his head. You have stabbed his heart, Third Junior Sister!

Chapter 2143: Definitely Not Getting A Divorce

After she went back, Ning Xi immediately fed Little Treasure the antidote and he started to recover day by day.

Ning Xi tried to contact Han Xiao and Annie several times. Unfortunately, she could not get a hold of any news on them.

As for the world outside, the Lu Corporation did not topple amidst the storm. The foreign investments withdrew from the Chinese market one after another, and the economic crisis gradually dissipated.

Not long after that, what shocked the entire business world was that the influential Yi Lan Innovative Investment Group had chosen to entirely withdraw from China's market at their prime.

Half a year later.

A large-scale case of drugs being smuggled across international borders was about to begin court session. What everyone paid the most attention to was the fact that one of the suspects was unexpectedly a former popular female star in the entertainment industry and Yifeng Corporation's young lady of the house, Ning Xueluo. Everyone kept crying out in disbelief.

In a certain prison in the suburbs of Beijing.

Ning Xueluo scoffed when she saw who had come. "Huh, Su Yan! Forget it... There's no way I'll divorce you..."

Su Yan looked expressionlessly at this woman before him who was evil all over without any hint of tenderness from the past. "I'm not here to talk about the divorce."

"Then, what do you want to say?"

"We're married, after all. I've come to see you one last time."

Ning Xueluo frowned. "What do you mean?"

Su Yan did not say anything.

Ning Xueluo suddenly thought of something and her expression changed abruptly. "Could it be that I... No way! I'll just be charged with hiding drugs at the most, plus about those illegal activities outside of the country's borders, I just threatened a few people and attempted murder by hiring a hitman. Even if I get several charges, I'll just be sentenced to 20 or 30 years. There will come the time when I see the day of light!"

Su Yan's voice did not have a hint of emotion. "Not charging you for hiding the drugs, but illegal possession of drugs."

The color drained from Ning Xueluo's face instantly. She said emotionally, "Illegal possession of drugs? What illegal possession of drugs?! I was just helping someone else hide the drugs! The drugs aren't even mine! This is slander!"

Ning Xueluo finally panicked.

If it was illegal possession of drugs, with the amount of drugs involved, it would be enough for her to be sentenced to death.

No wonder Su Yan said he was not here to talk about divorcing her. Once she died, he would naturally be relieved of their marriage!

She could not figure it out!

No matter what, she could not figure out how the police had gotten hold of the evidence that she had hidden drugs, and how they knew everything she had done like the back of their hands, and with sufficient evidence.

She knew that those people must have sold her out, yet she could not figure out why!

Even if it were because those people were from abroad and their whereabouts were uncertain, even if they were exposed, the police in this country could not do anything, but hand the evidence over to the Chinese police, how did it benefit them?

Could it be... Ning Xi again!? Was it Ning Xi who had bribed them again?

After Su Yan left, Ning Xueluo had demanded to meet her lawyer.

"Am I going to be sentenced to ten or twenty years this time? How confident are you?" Ning Xueluo quickly asked.

The lawyer's expression was a little vague. "Well..."

When she saw her lawyer's expression, Ning Xueluo's blood turned cold. "What is happening?! Tell me the truth!"

She had evidence about the Su family's corruption, so why was Su Yan's tone earlier so fearless?

The lawyer hesitated for a moment, then said, "Madam Su, forgive me but my hands are tied. The Su family has people up there. For your case, I'm afraid I can't help you. It's best if you just expect the worst."

"People up there? What kind of people would they have?!"

The lawyer cleared his throat. "You haven't heard? I thought Mr. Su has already told you... Mr Su is going to marry the heiress of the Liang family from City S next month."

Chapter 2144: Repentance That Came Too Late

“What did you say?!”

No wonder... No wonder the Su family was rushing to kill her! It turns out that she needed to give up her spot to the new lady!

Ning Xueluo had a malevolent expression. “I want to report! I want to report that Su Hongguang gives huge amounts of bribes! Even if I die, I won’t let them live well!”

The lawyer looked sympathetically as he sighed, “Miss Ning, forget it. Did you forget about the Liang family’s background? It’s useless. With the Su family and the Liang family’s current relationship, all those proof you have will be blocked by someone mid-way...”

When Ning Xueluo heard this, she turned as white as a sheet and slumped onto the cold metal chair.

Impossible...

This was impossible...

Su Yan... Su Yan!

How could you treat me like this?!

A few days later.

At the city centre central plaza in Imperial, there were rushing tides of people and traffic was coming from both sides.

All of the passersby could not help but stop in their steps to look up at the large screen above their heads.

It was the scene of an intense fight and shoot out. The awe-inspiring special effects, the classic plot, and an incredibly familiar face to all of the people in China caught everyone’s attention...

After the movie trailer ended, the large screen showed a promotional banner: “First Day of the Lunar Year. ‘Assassin’, the return of the king. Stay tuned!”

“Ah, ah, ah! It’s Bro Xi’s ‘Assassin’! We’ve waited for half a year and it’s finally going to show in theatres! But it’s much faster than I expected! I thought it would be the same as ‘Thunderbolt Secret Service Squad’ and take at least one or two years!”

“The filming crew has enough funding. I heard that the special effects team that they hired is super awesome, so naturally they’re very efficient too!”

“My Bro Xi is so handsome, oh, oh, oh! Right, who’s that icy beauty who was fighting alongside Bro Xi in that scene? She’s so beautiful!”

“Mmm, if I’m guessing correctly, that might be our Bro Muye!”

“What the heck!? Jiang... Jiang Muye? Are you for real? That’s Jiang Muye in a female outfit? Isn’t he gorgeous? Is he even letting us females live!?”

Ning Xi had just finished having dinner with the “Assassin” crew. When she went to get her car at the hotel car park, she unexpectedly saw someone.

“Xiao... Xiao Xi...” Ning Yaohua looked uneasy as he stood across her car as if he had especially waited there for her.

Ning Xi paused in her footsteps. “Director Ning, is there anything I can help you with?”

Ning Yaohua cleared his throat. “Next month will be the New Year...”

Ning Xi did not know what he was trying to say. She just stood there quietly.

Ning Yaohua wanted to ask whether Ning Xi would go home for the New Year, yet he still could not utter the words.

“Xiao Xi, I... I’ve been wanting to chat with you, but you know the Ning family’s situation in this half year hasn’t been great. The company was impacted hugely. Your mother encountered that unfortunate incident and she became more and more absent-minded. She can’t be left alone. I really couldn’t pull myself away...” Ning Yaohua spoke without really getting to the point.

Actually, after he had said so much, the real reason was still that he did not know how to face this daughter of his.

Ning Yaohua took a deep breath, then he said, “That incident years ago... Your mother and I know the truth now, we know that it wasn’t your fault, and that Xueluo had set you up.”

Ning Yaohua looked quite embarrassed. “I know that it’s too late to say anything now... but I’m sorry, Xiao Xi, for not believing you back then. Xueluo has been sentenced. She has already received the punishment she deserves.”

Regarding Ning Xueluo’s matter, Ning Xi knew a little about it. She had also just received news that Ning Xueluo had been sentenced to death.

Countries abroad did not prohibit drugs, but China was very strict about it. Ning Xueluo had been involved with too huge an amount of drugs, and it was enough for the gauntlet to fall.

Chapter 2145: Pregnant

Actually, Ning Xueluo was just guilty of hiding drugs. Because the drugs were not hers, she could not be charged with illegal possession of drugs. If she got herself a decent lawyer, she could avoid the death penalty.

However, the issue was that there were people who wanted her to die.

Although Su Yan and Ning Xueluo had not gotten a divorce yet, Zheng Minjun quickly arranged a blind date for Su Yan the moment Ning Xueluo was sent to prison.

Su Yan's situation with Ning Xueluo was well known within their circle, so it was nearly impossible for the Su family to find another rather prestigious family to connect with.

Unexpectedly, Su Yan had fortune on his side. The lady of the Liang family from Shanghai fell in love with Su Yan at first sight, and said that she would only marry him if Ning Xueluo got out of the picture. Because the Liang family had relations with the courts, they sentenced Ning Xueluo to death, and also stopped the evidence of the Sus' bribing from surfacing.

Of course, a coin had two sides. This lady from the Liang family was not an easygoing person at all. She chased Zheng Minjun and Su Hongguang out before she even married Su Yan. She did not want to stay with people from the Su family because she said they reeked of business.

They could not do anything else aside from giving in. Even then, this lady was still unsatisfied. Every few days, she would cause a big fuss and she easily became jealous. Some time ago, she made it to the headlines of the entertainment news because she got into a fight with one of Su Yan's past lovers.

Zheng Minjun never expected this lady to be so difficult to be with, but it was already too late when she started to regret it.

Ning Yaohua never expected Ning Xi to reply, so he left after leaving those words.

Ning Xi looked at the figure of Ning Yaohua's back and thought, "Even though Ning Yaohua found out about everything now, the harm has already been done. I'm not generous enough to forgive them."

As she got into her car and was about to drive off, she felt an intense wave of nausea.

She quickly grabbed a trash bin in the car and threw up. Her face looked pale.

She drank some water and rested for about ten minutes before she finally calmed down.

Ning Xi grinned as she touched her stomach. "Your brother was so obedient back then..."

A month ago, she frequently felt a strong urge to sleep and had a loss of appetite.

At first, she thought she was just exhausted from work, but then she found out things were odd after the conditions persisted for a long time, so she quickly went to check at the hospital.

She received a shocking news. She was pregnant...

She planned to slow down on work after finishing the filming for Chen Mian's movie and then announce her marriage. In her rush for progress, she did not have time to notice her own body condition. She did not even notice that she had missed her period. She only went to check after she realized that her body had been acting up for nearly a month...

The results totally shocked her.

She was pregnant. Another little guy was inside her womb.

It was an amazing feeling...

However, this little one was not as obedient as Little Treasure. Everything was fine when she had Little Treasure, but this new little one gave her quite some trouble.

Fortunately, Chen Mian's movie was already finished and the promotional activities for "Assassin" were all done as well.

She was about to go back to the company to look for Chen Mian and discuss the film's promotional activities with him.

As for Lu Tingxiao...

He had gone outstation for a few days and would not be back for three days.

She should have finished preparing everything to announce their relationship to the public when he returned.

Hmm, Darling's reaction was something to look forward to!

He would definitely be very surprised!

Chapter 2146: This Time, I Want To Go Public

Ning Xi did not want to drive on her own, so she called Xu Tao to go over and pick her up. She wanted to discuss something with him as well.

Xu Tao rushed over soon although his phone was ringing non-stop.

"Bro Tao, what's wrong?" Ning Xi handed him a bottle of water as he was drenched in sweat.

Xu Tao drank half a bottle in one go. Once he could finally talk, the first thing he did was... to start crying...

"Uhh..." Ning Xi was shocked but she quickly comforted him, "What's wrong, Bro Tao? Just what happened? Tell me!"

Xu Tao had been dealing with all sorts of matters well, but she had never seen him like this before.

"Who is it!? My queen! Tell me which bastard it is!" Xu Tao was incensed...

Ning Xi was confused. "What bastard? Who are you talking about?"

Xu Tao stared at Ning Xi's womb with his red eyes, "The baby in your womb..."

Xu Tao was hit by a wave of sadness, then he started crying before the steering wheel again. "I'm so frustrated! My queen!"

Ning Xi was stunned. "How did you know I was pregnant?"

"So, it's true... It really is true..." Xu Tao's heart was breaking apart. He handed his phone over to Ning Xi.

"Liang Feixing sent me a message after you called me. Someone leaked the news of your pregnancy!"

"What?" Ning Xi quickly took a look at Xu Tao's phone.

The Weibo status was just posted an hour ago, yet it was now on the top of the hot topic section. All the popular searches included phrases similar to "Ning Xi is pregnant".

"Which hospital did you go for the check up?" Xu Tao asked.

"The one that people usually go to." Little Treasure had gone there when he was sick. In addition to the fact that Ning Xi tended to overthink a lot recently, she thought that her body was facing grave stress issues, so she did not tell anyone about it and did not go to military hospital either. She just went to a hospital that was known for maintaining people's privacy.

Xu Tao then said, "That hospital was good at keeping secrets, but your pregnancy was too big of a news. Someone probably couldn't fight the urge and leaked it..."

Xu Yao clenched his teeth. "We'll insist that you're not pregnant, and claim that those results are forged!"

Ning Xi laughed seeing Xu Tao so mad. "Bro Tao, this time, I want to go public."

"What did you say!?" Xu Tao nearly wept again.

Which bastard had made his queen fall in love so much that she would sacrifice her career for him!?

"I'm sorry, Bro Tao. I didn't give you any time to prepare because I only received the results today myself."

"That's not the point! The point is who's that bastard? Please think properly about it, my queen. This is not a small case. It'll affect you greatly if you let this go public! While the entertainment industry would be pretty lenient to you being pregnant before marriage, the fans wouldn't think so!"

Suddenly, someone knocked on the window when Xu Tao was talking.

"Who is it!?" Xu Tao was alert.

"It's me." Liang Feixing's voice came from outside.

Xu Tao then unlocked the doors.

Chapter 2147: Fans Riot

Liang Feixing went into the car and handed a thick pile of documents to Ning Xi as he said swiftly, "The arrangement for the public announcement is all prepared. Now, we only need you to give me a time and I'll arrange for the reporters and the rest."

Xu Tao was stunned when he heard Liang Feixing's words. "What!? Who's doing a public announcement!? I'm still discussing with my queen! What is this? When did you start preparing this?"

A glance at it told him that it would take at least several months to prepare, so how come this guy had started preparing for it so long ago?

Xu Tao's expression darkened. "Liang Feixing, are you crazy? Look at what people are saying online! So many people were waiting for it! They keep saying that Ning Xi was just acting pure and how messy her private life is. Some even said she cheated the feelings of her fans. Think about how many people were jealous of Ning Xi and wanted to drag her down all over the years! Many people would surely aim for this chance!”

As Xu Tao was arguing with Liang Feixing, his expression changed suddenly. A big group of reporters had surrounded them from all directions.

“Ah! It’s there!”

“That’s Ning Xi’s car!”

“Let’s go!”

The reporters had their cameras ready as they surrounded the car. Xu Tao managed to drive the car out of the parking lot, but they could not move any further beyond that.

The reporters risked their lives and stood right in front of the car, their cameras flashing wildly into the car.

“Damn!” Xu Tao cursed.

Liang Feixing did not look too great because Ning Xi was puking at the moment.

Ning Xi’s reaction just made the reporters have a larger reaction. Most of them even started to live stream with their handphones.

“Ms. Ning Xi, do you have anything to say about your pregnancy before marriage?”

“Ning Xi, are the rumors about you being pregnant true? Who’s the father? Is it really Jiang Muye?”

“Someone asked you before if you were in a relationship, and you denied it, yet now you’re three months pregnant, so were you lying to your fans and the public the whole time?”

Xu Tao unlocked his phone and took a look on the streaming sites. The fans had all gone crazy.

[Bro Xi is pregnant before marriage! Impossible! I’ll never believe it!]

[Please, the video just now showed Ning Xi vomiting!]

[Can’t she just be feeling unwell? The results might be forged too!]

[Wake up, Ning Xi’s fans! Ignoring the fact whether the results are true or not, why would Ning Xi need to go for a check up at midnight? The pictures have to be real!]

Xu Tao’s expression looked worse by the minute. “Liang Feixing, prepare me a new proposal right now! This matter can never be found out by the public! That bastard is irresponsible enough to let Ning Xi get pregnant before marriage. He sure is a bastard! Ning Xi isn’t clear-headed enough to see that. How could you go along with her as well?!”

It was so noisy outside that it made Ning Xi’s condition worse. She just kept on vomiting and she could not notice anything else.

Liang Feixing was silent as he faced Xu Tao's questioning.

At this moment, the reporters outside also went insane. All of them were hitting the car windows. Although the hotel security guards tried to chase them away, it did not work at all.

Chapter 2148: Admit

Worse still, because someone had live streamed the incident, many fans had recognized the place. The number of inquiring passersby and fans started to increase until the entire hotel and area nearby were fully surrounded by people...

Now, they really would not be able to leave!

The entire hotel entrance was crowded and chaotic. The security guards were busy and sounds of sirens came from all around.

The crazy media and emotional fans were not willing to leave no matter what...

"I don't believe it unless Bro Xi tells us that this is true!"

"Yes! I don't believe it! I don't! Bro Xi is definitely not that kind of person!"

"To hell with it! Ning Xi's idiotic fans are still muddleheaded until now!"

"Who are you calling 'idiotic fans'?!"

"I'm calling whoever that's answering me right now!"

"You... I'm going to kill you! No one's allowed to insult my Bro Xi!"

When she saw the fans rioting but she was still puking her guts out, Ning Xi looked outside the car window with a pale face and said, "Bro Tao, open the door. I want to go out!"

Xu Tao was shocked. "What?! Ning Xi, you're crazy!"

Liang Feixing, who had not said anything from the backseat of the car, quickly said, "You can't! It's too dangerous!"

Ning Xi's eyes were cold. "Open the door."

How could she watch as her fans argue and even fight for her while she sat in the car not being in the least concerned?

"But..." Xu Tao met with Ning Xi's stern gaze and was suddenly tongue-tied.

Ning Xi was usually very kind, especially towards staff like them, but when it involved a matter of principle, no one could advise her.

"No, you can't open the door!" This time, Liang Feixing was on Xu Tao's side.

There were so many people outside, and the Lady Boss was pregnant. If anything happened, he would not be able to repay with his little life.

Just as Xu Tao was hesitating, Ning Xi had already surpassed him and clicked the control panel. Then, she pushed the door open and got down from the car.

“Ning Xi...” Xu Tao cried out. He and Liang Feixing quickly got down from the car and protected Ning Xi by her side.

“I’d like to trouble everyone to please keep quiet first.”

The girl looked a little weak and exceptionally pale, but those pair of eyes were akin to the sharp edge of a knife. They actually made everyone stunned for some reason, and they quieted down.

“I’ll tell you the response that you guys want now,” Ning Xi continued.

The media, fans, and everyone in the live stream sites... all revealed a shocked expression. They waited nervously for Ning Xi’s response.

“That medical report is real. I am pregnant.”

The girl’s clear and melodious voice rang in the silent air. The crowd was dumbstruck for three seconds before they instantly exploded into a commotion.

“Oh my God! Ning Xi admits it!”

“She’s really pregnant!”

“How... how is this possible!”

The media that had just been quiet for a moment earlier started to be stimulated again...

“Ning Xi, who’s the father!?”

“From what we know, you don’t even have a boyfriend. Do you and the child’s father have an improper intimate relationship!?”

The fans went completely crazy too. “How could this be!? Who does the child belong to!?”

Some of the haters seized the opportunity and popped up. “Tsk tsk, I thought that Ning Xi was a fresh air in the entertainment industry. Who would’ve thought that she would also be exposed for an unmarried pregnancy scandal!”

“She’s no different from Ning Xueluo, Han Zixuan, and people like that! For all we know, she might be even skankier in private! It’s just that she’s better at pretending and hasn’t been found out!”

“For all we know, the child’s father might be some married man. Otherwise, why would she have tried to cover it up?”

Chapter 2149: The Child Is Mine

When he heard those words, Xu Tao was about to break down. “Liang Feixing, look at what those people are saying! Ning Xi has finally made it to this stage, and now are we going to ruin it all for a bastard?”

With Ning Xi’s acknowledgment, the crowd started to riot again and everyone began to push forward like mad.

Right at this moment, behind the crowd, there was suddenly an ear-piercing sound of a car hitting the brakes. Seven to eight black cars had stopped in uniform across the hotel.

More than 20 well-trained bodyguards in black got down from the car one after another. The door of the leading car was opened by a bodyguard and a tall, lofty man with an icy-cold face got down from the car.

Someone in the crowd instantly cried out in surprise when they recognized who it was. “Oh my God! It’s... it’s Lu Tingxiao!”

“Oh gosh! I’m about to go crazy! It really looks like him! He’s so... handsome in person!”

“Why would Lu Tingxiao be here?”

At this moment, the man’s handsome face had a terrifying expression. It was as if storm clouds were approaching. He took huge strides and was walking towards the crowd.

Those bodyguards all had a solemn expression on their faces while the man leading them had an even more terrifying aura around him as if anyone who exchanged a look with him could have their blood frozen.

The chaotic crowd all subconsciously opened up a path.

The further inwards the man went, the scarier his face looked. One could almost hear the sound of him stepping on ice slabs wherever he walked.

Finally, under everyone’s watchful eyes, the man unexpectedly walked right up to Ning Xi. His face seemed to have an incredibly turbulent storm and terrifying hostility written on it. He stared straight at this pale-looking girl and his expression darkened as he lifted the girl by her waist...

“Ah! This...” The crowd let out a startled cry.

Even though Lu Tingxiao’s face was extremely scary, but the way he carried the girl was beyond careful. He even seemed a little at a loss, unsure where to touch her. It was as if just touching her would hurt her. From the crowd’s point of view, Lu Tingxiao’s movements even seemed a little clumsy...

“Ah! What... what’s happening?”

“Oh my God! Lu Tingxiao and Ning Xi? What’s going on?”

Apart from the media and fans, Xu Tao was probably the most shocked one. At this moment, Xu Tao watched blankly as the Big Boss carried Ning Xi. His expression was the same as a fool.

Could it be... could it be that the bastard who had impregnated Ning Xi was...

Liang Feixing let out a long sigh of relief. Thankfully, the Boss had made it in time. He was about to get a heart attack!

Amid the shocked gazes, the man's cold eyes swept everyone present. "The child in Xiao Xi is mine."

Everyone was speechless.

Uhh... what did they just hear?

This sentence was like an atomic bomb, exploding in the dense crowd.

There was a momentary strange silence from the crowd when suddenly someone cried out loud, "What the heck!? This is crazy!"

"Ning... Ning Xi's child is Lu Tingxiao's!"

"I am indeed a married man," the man continued to say.

"What?"

Before the crowd's shocked and taunting gazes towards Ning Xi could start, they heard the man continue, "Ning Xi and I have already been registered for two years, six months and 17 days."

Everyone was speechless yet again.

They must be dreaming...

This was the entertainment industry's heaviest-duty, most shocking, big news of the year!

The queen of movies, Ning Xi was pregnant, and the child's father was unexpectedly the executive director of the Lu Corporation, Lu Tingxiao. The two of them had already registered two and a half years ago, and had kept their marriage a secret until now!

Chapter 2150: Calm Down Okay, Darling

Still, he was not finished. Lu Tingxiao followed up to say, "As for getting pregnant before marriage, there was indeed such a thing."

When they heard this, the crowd was dumbfounded. Even Xu Tao was worried. He subconsciously wanted to rush over to stop him, yet he was pulled back by Liang Feixing, who quickly muttered something into his ear.

Then, Xu Tao became confused. "What?!"

At this moment, the fans and media who did not know the truth were still completely puzzled.

"What?! Ning Xi has really gotten pregnant before marriage before?"

"Why would Lu Tingxiao even expose such a thing?!"

"He clearly knew that Ning Xi had gotten pregnant before marriage and still he's staying with her?"

Lu Tingxiao's eyes swept the crowd. Instantly, it was as if someone had pressed on the "keep quiet" switch for everyone and the crowd returned to its pin-drop silence.

Lu Tingxiao said, "But the person at fault in this matter is me, back then, Xiao Xi hadn't entered the entertainment industry either, so there shouldn't be anything that she needs to explain to everyone."

Damn! The person at fault was Lu Tingxiao. What did that mean?

Could it be what they thought?

Could it be that the legendary little prince of the Lu family was...

Lu Tingxiao continued, "Ning Xi is my son's biological mother."

The child inside Xiao Xi, is mine.

Ning Xi and I have registered for two years, six months, and 17 days.

Ning Xi is my son's biological mother.

Lu Tingxiao had just appeared for a few minutes and yet with just a few short sentences, he had shocked the entire entertainment industry, and all of China's citizens, then he left the stunned crowd and carried his wife home...

Inside the car.

Ning Xi was still in Lu Tingxiao's arms in the backseat.

Ever since the latter had gotten into the car, he did not say a word and he seemed extremely unhappy.

Ning Xi looked at her fingers and admitted to her wrongdoings, "Mmm, Darling, sorry... Actually, I wanted to give you a surprise..."

Lu Tingxiao was speechless.

Yeah! He was surprised enough! His entire soul almost left him from being frightened by her!

"I..." Ning Xi was about to speak again when she felt the urge to puke.

"Drive slower!" Lu Tingxiao frowned.

Cheng Feng, who was driving up front, was speechless.

I am already driving the Maybach like an electromobile, Boss...

Forget it, he will take the challenge and go for a bicycle's speed...

Lu Tingxiao patted the girl's back lightly, seeming like he was about to go into battle. "Go to the hospital!"

Ning Xi quickly waved her hand. "Ahhh, no need. This is just the normal reaction of vomiting during pregnancy. If I have to go to the hospital for this, then wouldn't I need to stay in the hospital?"

Lu Tingxiao replied, "You can."

“Calm down, okay? Darling...”

Lu Tingxiao took a deep breath but he still could not calm down.

Ning Xi looked at the man’s tensed up expression from being overly nervous and said helplessly, “We’ve already had Little Treasure before. This isn’t our first one. Why are you still so tensed!”

Just tensed?

When he had heard the news of her pregnancy from someone else, he wished he could put on wings and fly to her side.

The sound of an urgent ringtone rang and Lu Tingxiao picked the phone up. “It’s fine. She’s beside me and we’re on the way home. Okay.”

“Call from home?” Ning Xi asked.

Lu Tingxiao nodded. “We’re going to the old residence first. Father and Mother knows.”

“Oh...” Ning Xi did not know why but she had a bad feeling about this...

When they reached the Lu family’s old residence.

Ning Xi got down the car and was dumbstruck when she reached the entrance. She almost could not recognize the place.

From the yard outside all the way to the door, the floor was covered by a thick layer of soft rug. The door’s hard frame and the walls were all wrapped with a layer of pad. Not too far away on the pebble path, Little Treasure was directing for a few robots to take out the pebbles one by one, and then covered it again with soil...

Ning Xi gulped. She turned to Lu Tingxiao and said, “Darling, sorry, I accused you wrongly earlier.”
