

Hidden Billionaire / C25 Regret It Now too Late

C25 Regret It Now too Late

After pleasing the waiters, Wu Tian's gaze then fell on the Lobby Manager, "Do you think that there are any flaws or shortcomings in our store?" "Our Huiyue Restaurant is perfect and flawless." The Lobby Manager raised his head proudly.

Within a distance of fifty kilometers, there were no restaurant that could surpass Huiyue Restaurant. Whether it was in terms of scale, grade, quality, or service, no one was a match for them.

"Your attitude isn't right." Wu Tian directly poured cold water on him, and said: "According to my observation, our Huiyue Restaurant's service is not bad, but our waiters' attitude is clearly not that great. Like you, everyone seems a little arrogant."

"Ugh ..." The Lobby Manager was rendered speechless after hearing this.

"In addition, no matter the increase in customers, the quality of our dishes must not drop. We must always be consistent, understand?"

"Understood." The Lobby Manager nodded and promptly replied.

"Do as I say. I'll be leaving first." After Wu Tian said this, he turned around and left Huiyue Restaurant.

Actually, there was no problem with the quality of the Huiyue Restaurant's service and dishes. Wu Tian was worried that they would get carried away, so he gave them a small reminder.

When he returned to the school, he found that the classroom was bustling with activity. The class committee was proposing to organize a reunion. When they heard that the event was a gathering, some of the students were very enthusiastic. Of course, there were also some who were unwilling to participate.

The reason why they didn't want to participate was simple. It was because the dinner was AA style, costing tens of thousands for a single meal, and everyone had to spend around several hundred yuan per person.

To those students with rich families, several hundred yuan was nothing to them. However, to poor students, several hundred yuan was equivalent to their living expenses for more than half a month.

This time around, they might have to eat dirt for half a month after the reunion.

"Let's go to the Stalwart Star Tower together for dinner tonight. All the expenses are of the AA style. Does anyone have any objections?" The class committee began to consult everyone.

"No objections." Half of the students expressed their support.

As for the other students, they all tried to find excuses to say that they didn't have time to attend the party. In fact, many of them didn't want to waste their saved living expenses on the party.

Originally, it was supposed to be an exciting gathering, but because almost half of the class was not attending, the atmosphere turned a bit cold.

"Paupers, I think it is because you don't have much money, and can't bear to spend it for the gathering!" Zhao Yang couldn't help but coldly mock those classmates that didn't want to participate.

The other students also began to jeer and ridicule them one after another.

It was because those students did not participate, that the gathering might become boring and dull, so it made everyone feel displeased.

In a short moment, two factions had formed within the classroom, the Rich Faction and the Poor Faction. Everyone started to argue with each other.

"Quiet!"

Seeing that the students were endlessly arguing, Wu Tian walked to the front and said to the crowd, "Tonight, I'll treat everyone to a meal at the Stalwart Star Tower."

He didn't want his classmates to fall out over this matter, so he simply suggested to treat everyone to a gathering.

"Alright!"

When they heard that someone was treating them, the classroom instantly boiled up in elation, and everyone couldn't help but cheer.

"Only pretending to be rich." Zhao Yang muttered his contempt in discontent.

The moment he said that, it instantly caused the girls to be dissatisfied, and they loudly retorted,

"Zhao Yang, didn't you say that you were quite rich? You can treat everyone to a meal, and also pretend to act rich then!"

"I ..."

Zhao Yang gritted his teeth and didn't know what to say.

He indeed had some money on hand, but he couldn't bear to use it to treat his classmates to a meal. This was simply too much of a waste.

"If you can't bear to pay, then shut your mouth. Wu Tian invited us to a meal out of kindness, don't you dare to scold him." A few girls could not help but ruthlessly despise him.

"..."

Zhao Yang was so angry that his face turned green and he couldn't say a single word for a long time.

"Alright, it's getting late, let's go to Stalwart Star Tower together!" Wu Tian looked at the time and then led his classmates out of the classroom.

They all arrived at Stalwart Star Tower and started chatting happily after they'd ordered their dishes.

A lot of girls were secretly talking about Wu Tian. Recently, everyone's good impression towards Classmate Wu had soared.

Very quickly, the waiter set up several tables with delicious food. The students sat around the table and started to enjoy the delicacies. As they ate, they chatted, and the atmosphere was quite harmonious.

The students didn't go out of their way to curry favor with Wu Tian just because he was rich.

To be honest, Wu Tian really liked this feeling. If everyone fawned on him hypocritically, he would feel disgusted instead.

After eating, Wu Tian took a glass of red wine and walked to the French designed window. Looking at the scene outside, his mind was filled with a countless thoughts.

Never in his wildest dreams had he thought that one day, he would become a billionaire, stepping on the shoulders of powerful individuals and climbing even higher.

Although he did not know how far he could go in the future, but he would definitely work hard and never give up.

While he was holding the red wine, inwardly in a daze, Lee Meng walked over with a glass of wine in her hand.

Tonight, she was wearing a long hanging dress, and her face was covered with a light makeup. She looked delicate and sexy.

Perhaps it was because of the red wine, her face was blushing. She raised her glass and said to Wu Tian, "Sorry about before, I shouldn't have treated you like that."

"The past is over." Wu Tian smiled lightly and took a sip of the red wine.

He no longer felt that way towards Lee Meng.

Looking at this girl before him, he felt extremely calm.

"Tian."

Lee Meng leaned her body close to Wu Tian, blinked her beautiful eyes and said in a gentle tone that she had never used before, "I was foolish in the past, I'm sorry, can you give me another chance?"

"Sorry, there are some things I've missed, but I won't let it go wrong a second time." Wu Tian smiled lightly, turned around and prepared to leave. If he was given a choice now, he would never like this vain and greedy girl again.

Just as Wu Tian took two steps, Lee Meng held onto his arm tightly, "Wu Tian, I've found out that the person I really love is you. Do we still have a chance? "I, I like you ..."

"You like me now? When I was humiliated in the coffee shop, you looked down on me. Why didn't you say you liked me back then?"

Wu Tian retracted his arm.

"There's a good saying. You once gave me the cold shoulder, but now, you are no longer worthy of me."

With that, Wu Tian snorted and quickly left.

He could see Lee Meng's real character now. She was a snob who only liked money.

Unfortunately, this was the kind of person he despised the most.

It made him disgusted.

"Wu ..."

Lee Meng's face instantly paled. She had never thought that she would miss this opportunity to fly up a branch and become a phoenix ...

Read next chapter