C26 A Lot of Money Is Spent!

The reunion ended very late. The students were having fun, and they expressed their gratitude to Wu Tian before leaving.

Seeing his classmates so happy, Wu Tian also felt delighted. After settling the bill, he took a taxi back to his residence.

It was still early. Wu Tian took out his phone and turned on the Seafood TV, directly entering the live streaming room of the masked girl.

Initially, the reason he invested in Seafood TV was mainly because the platform's interface was cool and refreshing. The user experience was amazing, and the platform had great potential for development.

As an audience, he was attracted to the user experience the platform offered, and he believed that the same was true for the rest of the audience.

When he entered the masked girl's live streaming room, he discovered that the popularity of the place had greatly increased, with the number of visitors tripling, and many spectators had become the girl's supporters.

It seemed like the gift he gave this girl the last time had made a huge wave, which had attracted a lot of people.

Upon entering the live streaming room, the masked girl gave a greeting, and specially welcomed Wu Tian with a song.

This aroused the jealousy of others, and they all expressed their dissatisfaction on the public screen.

Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled, and gave the host ten interstellar flying ships worth a hundred thousand.

Seeing Wu Tian act so generously, the audience who were jealous of Wu Tian instantly acknowledged him wholeheartedly and even gave him a Like.

For such a powerful big boss, he naturally had the qualifications to be treated specially by the host. Whoever disagrees can use a gift to retort.

There was really a tycoon in live streaming room who refused to accept this. After Wu Tian sent the ten interstellar spaceships, he immediately followed up with fifteen of them, which was worth a hundred and fifty thousand yuan.

The live streaming room instantly boiled up, and everyone couldn't help but cheer for these Tycoons.

Wu Tian couldn't help but secretly feel happy when he saw that someone was sending a gift. He then tapped the screen and sent 30 more spaceships.

The Tycoon did not show any sign of weakness and followed along with 40 spaceships, hoping to use them to suppress Wu Tian.

After that, Wu Tian immediately sent 200 spaceships.

The entire live streaming room immediately burst in an uproar. No one thought that these big shots would be so generous to actually give the host a two million gift in an instant.

Everyone left their comments on the public screen:

"The big boss is mighty."

"Rich people are indeed powerful."

"This is the most generous person I've ever met."

"This should be the richest person within Seafood TV, right?"

"Sending 2 million spaceships. This is really far too shocking! "

"Formidable."

"I respect him ..."

The public screen was filled with admiration and adoration towards Wu Tian, and the entire live streaming room began to boil in excitement. Wave after wave of currents surged for a long time, which spread throughout the entire Seafood TV.

All of a sudden, many visitors came to the live streaming room of the masked girl to watch the big boss, causing the live streaming room to start lagging for a short period of time.

The big boss who had previously sent a few gifts was also shocked by his opponent's actions. He really didn't think that his opponent would be so generous as to actually gift over 2 million yuan in one go.

He knew that he had encountered with a fierce person, and did not dare to continue this competition. He could only dejectedly leave the live streaming room.

The entire live streaming room continued to surge in popularity for more than half an hour.

Giving out two million gifts at once was a very rare sight, even in the entire Seafood TV. Not only did it attract the attention of the visitors, many hosts also came to join in the fun.

Very quickly, Wu Tian received many female host's private messages, wanting to pull him over to their live streaming room.

Obviously, whoever could snatch a big boss like Wu Tian would be equivalent to having a God of Fortune. In the future, there would be endless presents for them.

There were even some female hosts and tourists who left private messages and phone numbers with Wu Tian, in hopes of getting close to him.

Wu Tian was too lazy to bother with these private messages. Just as he was about to exit the live streaming room, he received a private message from the masked girl.

The masked girl: Big brother, thank you for your gift. You treat me so well, I'm so touched that I'm crying.

Wu Tian tapped on the keyboard and sent a private message: Work hard, I believe you are the best, I will always support you.

Masked Girl: Big Brother, you're giving me so many gifts, do you ... have any other ideas towards me?

Wu Tian: I know you're not that kind of girl, and I'm not that kind of guy either. I reward you just to support you, don't think too much about it.

The masked girl: You are the best guy I've ever met. Thank you. Thank you so much.

At the end of this sentence, there was also a 'touched' emoji.

Wu Tian: Just be yourself. and I hope that you will not have any burdens or psychological pressure. I think highly of you.

The masked girl: "..."

Wu Tian: "What's wrong?"

The masked girl: The company wanted me to reveal my face and dance. But I don't want to expose my face, and I don't want to dance. I don't even know what to do now. Can you help me think of a way?

Wu Tian: Never force yourself to do something you don't want to do. Wait a minute, I'll call somebody and help you deal with it.

After sending this private message, Wu Tian took out his phone and dialed Sun Sheng's number. He went straight to the point, "Boss Sun, there's something on the platform that I need your help with."

"Mr Wu, as an investor, feel free to tell me whatever you want to do." On the other end of the phone, Sun Sheng showed a polite and respectful expression.

"There's a host called the masked girl, and I heard that you want her to take off her mask and dance?"

"I seem to have approved of this plan."

"I was the one who discovered the masked girl's potential. I hope you won't force her to take off her mask and dance, okay?" Wu Tian asked with a rather polite tone.

Actually, with his identity as an investor, he could directly ask Sun Sheng to do something, but he wasn't that forceful of a person

"Mr Wu, I didn't expect the masked girl to be a person of yours. I understand, I will get them to cancel this decision immediately. And don't worry, I will do my best to increase the popularity of the masked girl ..."

On the other end of the phone, Sun Sheng made a series of promises in an attempt to curry favor with Wu Tian.

"Then I'll be troubling you, CEO Sun." Wu Tian thanked him and hung up.

When he once again opened his Seafood TV, he received three private messages from the masked girl:

Big brother, let me tell you some good news. Just now, the company informed me that I can choose to not take off my mask and to not dance, and they even agreed to guide me for my live broadcasting.

Oh right, Big Brother, you're the one who helped me settle this, right?

Big brother, thank you. I really don't know how to thank you.

After reading the three private messages, Wu Tian pursed his lips into a smile and hit the keyboard to reply: This is a simple task, there is no need to be polite.

Masked Girl: Big Brother, who are you? Why would you have so much authority, that could cause the company to change its decision so quickly?

Wu Tian: You'll know about it later.

The masked girl: To be honest, I'm rather curious about you right now. I kind of want to see you now.

Wu Tian: Maybe we'll have a chance to meet in the future.

After sending this private message, Wu Tian left the live streaming room. He put away his phone, went into his study room and began to study seriously.

While he was reading, his cell phone rang. It was a call from an unknown number.

After receiving the call, he found out that it was from the owner of Guangmei City who was selling computers. He said that the workstation computer had already been assembled and told him to go get it tomorrow.

Wu Tian continued to read after he answered the phone.

The next day, Wu Tian woke up early, washed up, and then went to the Guangmei City to retrieve his computer.

As soon as he entered District A, the middle-aged man enthusiastically welcomed him, "Boss, the computer you ordered is ready."
