C263 Folk Style Is Simple and Honest

After the supplier was chased away, not only did Sunn Xiaohao and Lu Kang feel relieved, even the waiters were extremely proud and felt refreshed.

"Previously, when I was begging them to cooperate with these supplier, they were all acting arrogantly and not making a move. I didn't expect them to come beg for us now. " Sunn Xiaohao couldn't help but sigh.

"We do business to earn money, but we can't sell our dignity to earn money." Wu Tian patted Sunn Xiaohao's shoulder and said with a smile, "In front of everyone, let's not be so humble."

"Sigh, sometimes it's really uncontrollable."

"Xiaohao, if you encounter any difficulties in the future, tell me. I'll think of a way to deal with it."

"Thank you!"

"Alright, you can busy yourself first, think of a way to make the hotel run, and I'll be in charge of setting up the food supply chain." After saying that, Wu Tian turned around and left the hotel.

Then he took a bus to a nearby market.

If he wanted to set up his own food supply chain, he would have to first investigate the situation on the spot and find the raw materials that matched the high-end food.

When he arrived at the market, he began to wander around. He looked around here and there, but he didn't really know much about vegetables and meat.

Just as he was about to ask Secretary Loong for help, a gentle voice rang in his ears.

"Hey, what a coincidence." Shen Xue, who wore a long white dress, walked over. Her long hair fluttered in the wind, giving off an aura of immortality. She was gentle, charming and beautiful.

He hadn't seen the girl in a long time. She looked cleaner than she had before, like a spring in the mountains that hadn't been contaminated.

"Xue, why are you here?" Seeing this girl, Wu Tian felt an inexplicable sense of intimacy.

"I'm here to help the restaurant choose the ingredients." After answering her question, Shen Xue put her hands behind her back and asked doubtfully, "You are a man, why are you coming to the market? Are you trying to buy vegetables and cook? "

"No, actually, I was just picking ingredients for the restaurant."

"Whose hotel did you choose for the ingredients?"

"I recently invested in a new hotel and am preparing to build my own food supply chain." After Wu Tian said this, his eyes suddenly lit up: "Why don't you help me!"

This girl was a top chef. If he had her help, he could easily set up a supply chain.

"Wow." Shen Xue nodded and changed her tone. "What's the benefit of me helping you?"

"This way, I can give you a portion of the shares of Fuyuan Restaurant."

"Pfft, who cares about your shares?" Shen Xue turned her body to the side and was infuriated.

"If you don't want the shares, then what do you want?"

"I ..." Shen Xue bit her lips and swallowed the words that she wanted to say.

After a few seconds of silence, she suddenly asked, "Do you hang out with the woman called Huang Lan a lot?"

"Right."

"Shameless!" Shen Xue punched Wu Tian and stomped angrily out of the market.

"Hey ..."

Wu Tian rushed over and grabbed Shen Xue's arm, "Xue, why are you so angry?"

"Don't touch me." Shen Xue retracted her arm forcefully and said angrily, "Go find your Huang Lan. Why are you pulling me?"

"Elder Sister Lan and I are only partners."

"Then what is your relationship with me?"

"Good friend."

"Words don't mean what they say." Shen Xue rolled her eyes. The anger in her heart had yet to completely dissipate.

Thinking about the intimate relationship between Wu Tian and Huang Lan last time, she felt a little uncomfortable in her heart.

"Don't be angry, I'm serious!" Wu Tian didn't know what was going on either. Just a moment ago, he was just talking about the ingredients, but Huang Lan somehow got into his way.

Wu Tian smiled bitterly and shook his head, "I want to set up the food supply chain, can you help me?"

"Why did you set up the food supply chain?" Shen Xue blinked her round eyes as she asked with a puzzled expression on her face.

For food and beverages, the upstream supply of ingredients was very complex, and the profits were also very low. It was a thankless task.

Generally, large hotels do not set up their own supply chains.

"This broken supply chain makes me understand that I have to take control of the chain to prevent my neck from being broken at critical moments." After Wu Tian said this, he opened his mouth and analyzed, "There are many benefits to building your own supply chain. It can stabilize the quality of food and food safety, centralize management and guarantee the freshness of food materials. I can make my own brand through the chain."

"Makes sense." Shen Xue nodded in agreement.

She had to admit that Wu Tian was a very business-like person. The way he thought of things was clearly different from the norm.

"Help me pick out a batch of high-quality ingredients. When the time comes, I'll get the hotel to send people to gather the ingredients."

"No problem. Let's go." Shen Xue walked out of the market as soon as she finished her sentence.

Wu Tian held onto Shen Xue's arm and said with a puzzled expression, "You can help me choose ingredients in the market, where are you going?"

"The dishes in the market are all large scale cuisine. The quality is very poor."

"Besides the market, where else would there be dishes?"

"Don't ask so much, just come with me and you'll know." Shen Xue was too lazy to waste her breath and dragged Wu Tian's arm as they left the market.

They arrived at the parking lot. Shen Xue walked over and opened the door of a red car. "Get in. I'll take you somewhere."

"Where to?"

"You'll know in a while."

"You're not going to sell me out?" Wu Tian joked and obediently got in the front passenger seat.

"How can you buy a man like you, with so many in the street!" Shen Xue giggled, got into the driver's seat and drove away.

The car ran around the city for about 10 minutes and finally left the city by the Northern Ring Road. It didn't take long for them to reach the northern suburbs.

Seeing that it was getting more and more desolate, Wu Tian frowned and asked in confusion: "Why are we going to the suburbs?"

"Buying vegetables."

"Buy vegetables?"

"Right."

"Chef Shen, are you sure you didn't make a mistake by coming to the suburbs to buy vegetables?"

"Don't you want the best ingredients? We'll talk about it when we get there." Shen Xue couldn't be bothered to waste her breath and kept driving.

After driving for over half an hour, the car finally stopped at a small village in the distant district.

After getting off the car, Shen Xue pointed at a small house that was arranged neatly and neatly nearby, and said: "This is the poorest Stone Flower Village in Luzhou City, it has a very simple and honest folk style."

"You brought me here to buy vegetables?" Wu Tian also noticed a lot of vegetables growing near the village.

"Look at those dishes, they are all grown by the villagers. They are artificially fertilized and the climate here is suitable. The soil selenium content is very high, so the dishes here are not only fresh, but also have a very unique taste." Shen Xue said this with a warm smile on her face.

"How did you find this place?"

"There was a friend who came here to pick up the wind. I came with her and found that the vegetables here were of high quality."

"My god." After hearing this, Wu Tian was instantly interested, "Come, let's go take a look."

Saying this, he took the lead and walked into the village.

This mountain village was indeed very backward. The villagers relied on traditional methods to grow their crops, so they basically didn't have any source of income.

Wu Tian looked around. The reason why Stone Flower Village was lagging behind was because of the natural environment and its location.

The village was surrounded by two large mountains, and the village was wedged between them.

It was caught between two railway lines and a high-speed road, which made the position of the Stone Flower Village very awkward.

Simply put, Stone Flower Village was surrounded by two huge mountains and two iron railways. There was no room for development.

The village seemed to have long been forgotten. Only the Northern Ring Road was close to the village. This was the only way out of Stone Flower Village.

"Come, I'll bring you somewhere." Shen Xue took out her cellphone and took a few pictures. Then, she pulled Wu Tian's arm and walked towards one of the farmers.

There were two people in their seventies living in the farmhouse. They looked quite healthy and their bodies were quite robust.

"Grandpa, grandma, I'm here again." As soon as they entered, Shen Xue bowed and greeted the two old men.

"It's Xue!" The grandma recognized Shen Xue, then her gaze landed on Wu Tian, "You even brought a boyfriend this time?"

"He's not." Shen Xue blushed as she quickly took her hand away from Wu Tian's arm.

"Shy." The old granny grinned a few times. "You guys sit. I'll go make some tea."

With that said, the old granny went into the inner room, looking very happy.

"Sit down!" Shen Xue pulled Wu Tian to a seat and explained in a low voice, "I met Grandma Han here with a friend last time, she's a very nice person."

"So that's how it is."

"Take a seat first, I'll help Grandma Han cook." Shen Xue turned and walked into the kitchen after she finished her sentence.

After waiting for half an hour, she came out with a few dishes and urged impatiently, "Wu Tian, come here and have a taste of the dishes I made."

"Let me try." Wu Tian licked his lips, walked over, picked up his chopsticks and started enjoying the delicious food.

"How is it?" Seeing Wu Tian eating so enthusiastically, Shen Xue's face was full of anticipation as she waited for the answer.

"Delicious." Wu Tian couldn't help but stick out his thumb, praising, "Fresh and elegant, with a strong fragrance, and a rich and unique taste. It's even more delicious than all the dishes you've cooked before."

"At least you're smart." Shen Xue was very satisfied with this evaluation. Smiling, she said, "The reason why these dishes taste so unique is because I used the ingredients from Stone Flower Village."

"You cooked for me because you wanted me to have a taste of the Stone Flower Village's food?"

"Of course."

"That's right, it's a hundred times better than those vegetables in those big sheds."

"Then do you want to purchase the ingredients from Stone Flower Village?"

"It's a pity that there are only vegetables and no meat."

"Who says there isn't." Shen Xue pointed at the mountain opposite them and said, "That's a natural pasture. There's beef and lamb meat there, as well as pork, fish and chicken. They are all fed with food and have a very good taste."

"Great." Hearing this, Wu Tian was especially happy, "Xue, thank you for helping our hotel find such a good food supply base."

"It should be me thanking you for helping the villagers find a way to get rich." Shen Xue stroked her hair and explained with a smile, "Actually, I'm cousin to the Village Head here. He asked me to find a way out for him."

"Why didn't you say so earlier?"

"I don't want to force you to purchase the ingredients here because of me. I just feel that the ingredients here are really good, so I suggest that you purchase them."

"Alright." Wu Tian immediately made a decision: "From now on, this is our hotel's direct mining base. Our Tianhao Hotel will purchase all the ingredients here at a price higher than the market price."

"Alright, I'll get the village head to sign the contract with you." Shen Xue was so happy that her hands and feet were dancing, and she ran out laughing.

Not long after, she brought many villagers to the old lady's house.

When the villagers heard that a big boss had come to the village to purchase ingredients, they were especially happy and expressed their support and gratitude.

Very quickly, Wu Tian had discussed the specific cooperation between him and the villagers and signed a contract with the Village Head on the spot.

Along the way, he also asked the village to find a few villagers and form a small team, specifically responsible for delivering goods to the hotel every day, with a normal salary and also enjoying the hotel's treatment.

Thus, the matter of the food supply chain was perfectly settled. The hotel had solved the problem of supplying the food and obtained the best food in the entire Luzhou.

At the same time, the villagers had also found a way to get rich. Both sides had reached a mutually beneficial cooperation, and both sides were very happy.

After settling the contract, Wu Tian accompanied the villagers for a light lunch before returning to the city in the afternoon.

On the way back, Shen Xue was especially happy. To her, it was as if she had done something that she was especially interested in.

"Xue, there's something I need your help with." Wu Tian tried to open his mouth as he thought of something else.

"What is it?" Shen Xue was holding onto the steering wheel with a warm smile from start to finish.

"Our restaurant's dishes are too poor. I want to improve the quality of the dishes and send a few chefs to study in your restaurant."

"Hotels and restaurants are your business and you're the boss. You can decide on that."

"You are the head chef. I have to discuss this with you and respect your opinion."

"I have no objections." Shen Xue smiled gently. Naturally, she would unconditionally support Wu Tian's suggestion.

Seeing how obedient Shen Xue was, Wu Tian was secretly gratified. He couldn't help but praise her, "Xue is such a good, empathetic woman."

"Am I better, or is Huang Lan better?" Shen Xue suddenly asked this strange question.

"Of course, Xue is the best." Wu Tian gave an answer that went against his heart.

In fact, these two women were quite outstanding when compared to each other.

Regardless of appearance, figure, character, or skill, they all had their own strengths and strengths, almost to the point of being on par with each other.

Hearing this answer, Shen Xue was exceptionally happy. She couldn't help but ask, "Then, where do you think is the best place for me?"

"The butt is the best, your farts are all very fragrant." Wu Tian couldn't help but start talking nonsense.

"Fuck you." Shen Xue charmingly rolled her eyes, then grinned foolishly.

"Xue, you look so pretty when you smile." Wu Tian praised from the bottom of his heart.

This girl had a sweet and charming appearance. When she smiled, her smile was like a blooming lotus flower. She was extremely beautiful.

"Really?" Shen Xue withdrew her smile and her face gradually turned red.

It was the first time Wu Tian praised her so highly. She felt as if she had eaten honey in her heart.

"Of course it's true." Wu Tian nodded forcefully, then changed his tone: "Yes, yes, but it looks a little silly when you smile."

"Fuck you." Shen Xue's face turned slightly cold as she said angrily, "Wu Tian, are you praising me or insulting me?"

"Of course I'm praising you."

"Humph, who dares to praise others like you?"

"Hehe!"

"Oh yeah, let's go back to the city and watch a movie, shall we?" Shen Xue gathered her courage and suggested in a low voice.

"I've been a bit busy recently. I think I'll have to wait for another day."

"Oh!" Shen Xue pursed her lips in disappointment, but didn't say anything as she drove back to the city center.
