

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 289 - A Descendant of the Ouyang Family

C289 A Descendant of the Ouyang Family

From this, it could be seen how powerful and influential the four great families were. Their wealth was even greater than that of a nation's.

He never thought that an actress like Ouyang Xu would actually be a descendant of Ouyang Family.

Could it be that Ouyang Xu was the same as him, exiled by the family and trained outside to become their successor?

After a moment of surprise, Wu Tian could not help but ask: "Elder Sister Lan, since Ouyang Xu is the Young Master of Ouyang Family, why did he come here to be an actress?"

"This is a long story." Huang Lan pondered for a while and patiently explained, "Ouyang Xu had some conflicts with his family, so he came out to live. Currently, he doesn't have a good relationship with his family."

"So that's how it is."

"Even though Ouyang Xu is a young master from a Wealthy Class family, he works especially hard when he comes out. Although his achievements in the entertainment circle are not great, his acting skills are very good and he has great potential."

"How rare." Wu Tian nodded in approval. He couldn't help but sigh: "This kind of aristocratic young master can work so hard, it's really impressive."

"Actually, I only cooperated with Ouyang Xu a few times. My relationship with him is quite normal, I feel that this man is quite mysterious."

"There's no problem with his character. He's rather well-educated."

"Let's not talk about him." Huang Lan was not interested in these topics and took the initiative to change it. "Let's talk about you instead!"

"What do I have to talk about?"

"Tell me about your family, your parents, I want to hear about them."

"I am a child of a normal family with Luzhou ..."

"No!" Huang Lan shook her head and denied it, "In my opinion, you are definitely not an ordinary person. You have a strong background just like Ouyang Xu."

"I ..." Wu Tian scratched his nose, looking like he wanted to say something but hesitated.

Previously, he was instructed by his grandfather that he couldn't reveal his background and family background. Thus, he had to keep it a secret until he was acknowledged by the clan.

Huang Lan saw through Wu Tian's thoughts and tried to ask, "Tian, do you have something to hide?"

"Right."

Wu Tian nodded and said in a serious tone, "Elder Sister Lan, due to some reasons, there are some things that I cannot tell you right now, but I will definitely tell you in the future."

"Alright!"

Seeing Wu Tian in a difficult situation, Huang Lan did not force him. Instead, she asked him another interesting question: "How many girlfriends have you talked about?"

"I chased a girl at school before, but she ruthlessly rejected me. Afterwards, I left it at that." Wu Tian twitched his mouth and gave a self-deprecating smile.

Previously, he didn't know why he was so stupid as to fall for a girl like Lee Meng. Now that he thought about it, it really wasn't worth it.

"Why did she reject you?" Huang Lan tilted her head as she asked curiously. She was becoming more and more interested in this boy.

"She's a vain girl." Wu Tian turned his head and looked out the window, and said as if he was talking to himself, "At that time, I didn't have any money, she looked down on me and never looked at me directly."

"Then, now that she knows that you're so rich, does she feel extremely regretful?"

"Maybe!" Wu Tian turned around and smiled bitterly: "Maybe this kind of girl will never know what love is, she only loves money and power."

"Other than this girl, have you dated any other girls?"

"Nope."

"Then ..." Huang Lan paused, slowly moved her head closer to him and whispered, "Have you slept with a woman before?"

"Nope."

"Really?"

"Of course it's true."

"Do you want to go to bed with a woman?"

"I ..." Looking at Elder Sister Lan's pair of beautiful eyes, Wu Tian didn't know how to reply.

To say that he didn't want to, that was just lying to himself. However, saying it out loud felt a little strange.

While he was still in a daze, Huang Lan put her mouth next to his ear and whispered, "Do you want to try it out with elder sister?"

"Eh!"

The hot blood in Wu Tian's body was ignited. He swallowed a mouthful of saliva and his whole body became restless.

Such a seductive woman, beautiful, sexy and hot. When she spoke in his ear, any man would be tempted to make a move.

Wu Tian was no exception, he felt like his body was boiling.

Just as he was thinking about how to reply, Huang Lan poured cold water on him. "Silly boy, I was joking with you, and you took it seriously?"

"Elder Sister Lan, you ..." Wu Tian was dumbfounded. His whole body was like a frozen eggplant, instantly discouraged.

Every time Elder Sister Lan provoked the flames of anger in his heart, the result was a bucket of cold water. To him, this was an inhumane torment.

Fortunately, the waiter carried the dishes to the table, which eased the awkward and ambiguous atmosphere a lot.

"Silly boy, don't let your thoughts run wild. Hurry up and eat!" Huang Lan smiled magnanimously, acting as if nothing had happened as she picked up her chopsticks and started munching the food.

Wu Tian shook his head. He didn't know whether to laugh or to cry. He opened the glass of beer and poured it into his mouth to cool down.

"Pah!"

While the two of them were eating, a large black hand slammed on the table, causing the dishes on the table to shake a few times.

Looking up, he saw a big black face with black fur, eyes staring greedily at Huang Lan's chest, swallowing its saliva.

The man in front of them gave off the impression of being ugly, boorish, and wretched.

Huang Lan glared at the man with disdain. She pressed her hand to her chest and said coldly, "Get lost. Don't disturb our meal."

She could only be so flirtatious in front of Wu Tian. In front of outsiders, she was as cold as ice.

"Girl, I like you. How about eating with me?" The bearded man wiped the beard off his face and stared at Huang Lan's body.

It was as if a wolf had seen a lamb and could pounce on Huang Lan and swallow her alive at any moment.

"You're not worthy. Scram." Huang Lan glared at the bearded man and turned her head to the right, too lazy to deal with this disgusting man.

"Why is this kid worthy to eat with you? Am I not worthy?" The bearded man turned around and glanced at Wu Tian, then his gaze landed on Huang Lan.

"I told you to ..." Huang Lan wanted to go berserk, but she swallowed her words back.

She wanted to get rid of the disgusting bearded man in front of her now, but she didn't want to ruin her image.

She thought for a while and came up with a plan. She smiled and said, "It's fine if you want to eat with me. As long as you win against Wu Tian, I'll accompany you in eating."

He had long seen Wu Tian's capabilities. He was definitely more than enough to deal with this big bearded man in front of him.

Most importantly, she also wanted to use Wu Tian's hand to teach this disgusting man a lesson.

"Really? You mean what you say? " Upon hearing the conditions, the bearded man was so excited that he was dancing with joy.

As far as he was concerned, the kid beside him was extremely weak. He wasn't his match at all, and could easily be defeated by him.

"Of course. As long as you win against Wu Tian, I will accompany you to eat." Huang Lan repeated her words with a serious tone.

"Alright!"

After getting his answer, the bearded man hooked his fingers at Wu Tian, "Brat, get up. I want you to see my power."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 290 - Cheap Attack

C290 Cheap Attack

"If I don't fight with you, I'm afraid my hands will get dirty." Wu Tian raised his head and glanced at the bearded man, then he lowered his head and continued to wolf down his food.

"That's not up to you." The bearded man had lost his patience and was preparing to attack.

Right now, all he wanted to do was beat this brat away and date this sexy beauty for a meal.

"Wait!"

Wu Tian put down his chopsticks and stopped him, "First, let's talk. What if you lose?"

"What a joke, how could I possibly lose?" The bearded man puffed out his chest and shouted.

In front of him, a weak and foolish brat like him could be easily dealt with even if there were two more of him.

"Well, if you lose, pay for it and crawl out of here like a dog, will you?"

"Alright!" Without thinking, the bearded man decisively replied, "I'll pay if I lose, and I'll crawl out of here like a dog."

"Bam!"

The moment the bearded man finished, Wu Tian swung his fist and punched him.

This punch was quite fair and landed directly on the big bearded man's head, causing him to fall backwards.

"Pfft!"

Seeing this scene, Huang Lan couldn't help but be amused. She covered her mouth and was extremely happy.

Wu Tian clapped his hands and said to the bearded man with a smile, "How is it, you lost ..."

"F * ck!"

The bearded gangster cursed and crawled up from the ground, enduring the pain. He fiercely criticized, "Brat, you're really despicable. How dare you sneak attack me when I'm not paying attention?"

"I don't think we said we weren't allowed to attack." Wu Tian had put on a handsome hairstyle and was quite pleased with himself.

"If you have the ability, then let's start over."

"Fight again?"

"Right, let's fight again."

"Alright." The moment Wu Tian finished speaking, he swung his fist and hit him hard.

The power of this punch was shocking and it was exceptionally fast. It directly sent Big Beard flying out, causing him to incessantly wail as he fell.

"Pfft, hahaha ..."

Huang Lan covered her mouth and laughed even more happily. Wu Tian was too funny. He had ambushed his opponent twice in a row.

Wu Tian grabbed his glass and drank a mouthful of beer, then reminded Big Beard with a smile, "I didn't expect you to lose again."

"You ..."

The bearded man had to struggle for a long time before he finally got up from the ground, his body trembling in anger. After a long while, he finally managed to hold it in. "Little bastard, you sneak attacked me again."

"It wasn't a sneak attack just now. I was just openly beating you up."

"You were clearly attacking me with a sneak attack."

"How can that not be a sneak attack?"

"You can only do it when I say start."

"Alright, let's do it again."

"I'll count to three. Three, two, one, begin ..." The bearded man shouted, but before he could do anything, he saw another large fist fly towards him.

The fist flew over too quickly and too ferociously. Before he could clearly see what was going on, he was knocked upside down by the fist.

Just like that, the bearded man was once again turned over. At this moment, he felt dizzy and his head was buzzing.

"Are you okay?" Wu Tian said to the bearded man with a smile as he swung his legs.

"I ..."

Big Beard gritted his teeth and spent a long time before finally getting up from the ground.

Only now did he understand that the kid in front of him was an expert. It seemed that he had met a powerful character today.

"Is the previous match counted?" If that's not the case, let's continue. " Wu Tian hooked his fingers, then challenged with a smile.

"I... I'm not going to fight you. " Big Beard was so frightened that his body shrank back and he hugged his head as he retreated.

"So, you admit defeat?"

"Admit defeat! If you don't admit defeat, I'll be beaten to death by you." The big bearded man was no longer as arrogant as before. He immediately became a coward.

"A trash like you dares to fight over a woman with me?"

"I ..." Big Beard turned around and glanced at Huang Lan, gritting his teeth in frustration. "Fine, you win. I admit defeat."

Having said so, he took out 200 yuan from his pocket and threw it on the table, turned around and prepared to leave the restaurant.

"Wait." Wu Tian stood in front of the bearded man, "According to the bet, whoever loses has to crawl out from here like a dog."

"Hehe, I was just joking earlier, don't take it as the truth ..."

"Who the f * ck is joking with you?" Wu Tian yelled impatiently, "Crawl out from here!"

"I'll give you one thousand yuan for this ..."

"No."

"You ..." The bearded man clenched his teeth in frustration. When he saw Wu Tian clench his fist again, he could only obediently crawl out of the restaurant.

This scene attracted the attention of the guests. They could not help but point and discuss with each other.

The happiest was none other than Huang Lan. She looked like she had just watched a monkey show as she laughed heartily and clapped non-stop.

It wasn't until the bearded man climbed out of the restaurant that the scene gradually quieted down.

"Elder Sister Lan, let's continue eating." Wu Tian pointed at the dishes on the table and reminded Elder Sister Lan.

"En!"

Huang Lan nodded her head vigorously and took a sip of her beer. She couldn't help but say happily, "Brat, you're really something. You've tortured the bearded man to such a miserable state in just a few breaths."

"If he dares to go against Elder Sister Lan, it will be his own fault."

"Every time I'm with you, I feel very safe and never worry about being bullied. This feeling is really good."

"It's nothing, it's only natural for a man to protect a woman."

"If only you could protect me like this all your life." Huang Lan hurriedly lowered her head as she finished speaking, her face gradually turning red.

She didn't know why she said that. Was she trying to confess to Wu Tian?

She didn't know why, but ever since she met Wu Tian, she felt her heart become restless and restless.

"You are my sister, of course I will protect you for the rest of my life." After Wu Tian said this, he stuffed the dishes into Huang Lan's bowl, "Elder Sister Lan, the dishes are getting cold, hurry and eat."

"You eat too." Huang Lan brushed away the bashfulness in her heart and also gave Wu Tian some food with her chopsticks.

The two of them looked very much like lovers.

After dinner, the two of them left the restaurant. Huang Lan suddenly had a sudden impulse and suggested, "It's been a long time since I've seen a movie. How about I accompany you to the movie?"

"No problem." Wu Tian nodded and tried asking, "What movie does Elder Sister Lan want to watch?"

"A horror movie."

"Elder Sister Lan wants to use this opportunity to pounce into my embrace?"

"You're thinking too much, big sister isn't that timid." After saying that, Huang Lan turned around and got into the red flag car.

Wu Tian followed closely behind them and instructed Uncle Fugui to send them to the cinema. After buying the tickets, he also bought some popcorn.

Perhaps today was a special day, as most of the people in the movie theater were lovers. After the two of them took their seats, they started eating popcorn.

The atmosphere was quite good, but unfortunately, the movie was not as scary as he had imagined.

Huang Lan had been silent throughout the movie. She wasn't scared like the other girls, and it was even more impossible for her to get into Wu Tian's arms.

After the movie, the two of them went shopping for midnight snacks and didn't return home until very late.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 291 - Major Decisions

C291 Major Decisions

In an ancient decorated room.

An old man was resting with his eyes closed.

On the table was a yellow folder with four small words written at the bottom: "Receive Wu Zhihe."

After a long time, the old man opened his eyes and reached out to pick up the yellow folder. After pausing in midair for a few seconds, he put it down and picked it up again.

After repeating this a few times, he finally let out a soft sigh: "Thinking about me, Wu Zhihe, for my whole life, I didn't expect that I would be troubled by this matter."

With that, he closed his eyes again on the deck chair.

That's right, he's the Patriarch of Wu Family, Wu Zhihe. Recently, he's been worrying about the selection of the new Patriarch.

Not long after, the phone on the table rang.

Wu Zhihe opened his eyes again and picked up his phone to see the caller ID. He smiled and answered the call on the screen.

"Brother Ouyang, I've been waiting for you to call." Wu Zhihe spoke into his phone. His tone was like a lake, calm without any ripples.

"Old Wu, have you seen the things I sent you?" An old man's voice came from the other end of the phone.

"I didn't." When Wu Zhihe answered, he grabbed the yellow folder on the table again.

"Why don't you look at it?"

"I dare not look."

"Take a look. Inside the document is the information on the Patriarch's successor that I recommended for you. This is only my suggestion. In the end, the choice is still in your and Wu Family's hands." The voice on the other end of the line was even slower than before.

Wu Zhihe stared at the folder in silence for a few seconds. His mouth trembled as he spat out: "I'm afraid ..."

In the end, he still didn't say it.

"You're afraid that the person I'm recommending isn't your favorite candidate, right?" That's what the person on the other end of the phone said.

"Ouyang, you know me the best."

"Old Wu, we have been friends for decades. How could I not understand you?"

"Then guess who the successor in my heart will be?"

"No need to guess, it's the same as mine." The voice on the other end was quiet for a few seconds before urging, "Open the folder. The answer is inside."

"Alright!"

Wu Zhihe clenched his teeth and opened the folder with his trembling arm.

The first thing that entered his eyes was a photo. Seeing this photo, Wu Zhihe revealed a smile that he hadn't seen for a long time.

"Alright!"

He stared at the photo and nodded vigorously. He said into the phone, "The person you recommended is the same person as I thought."

"That's good." On the phone, the old man smiled and said, "Take a look. There's a reason for me to choose."

"Alright."

After Wu Zhihe answered, he looked through the information inside very seriously.

He skimmed through the information and couldn't help but say, "Ouyang, you sure are thoughtful. You thoroughly investigated every aspect of this kid's body."

"Since you asked me to choose the successor, I naturally have to treat this matter seriously."

"Thank you."

"Based on our relationship, it's really strange to say those two words." The old man on the other side of the phone laughed and tried to ask, "Do you already have the answer for the candidate to be the successor?"

"That's right, I've already made my decision."

"No matter what, I, Ouyang Hao, will support you." When the old man said this, his tone changed, "The Clan Assembly that is held once every twenty-five years is about to be held. We need to hurry up and increase the strength of our successors."

"I know that."

"There are a lot of things that I don't need to tell you, you understand them better than me. But I still have to repeat myself, the successor of Wu Family is no small matter, you must treat it with caution."

"Brother Ouyang, only you would say something like that to me." Wu Zhihe laughed loudly into his phone.

"Old Wu, do your work first. I won't disturb you any longer."

"Alright!" Wu Zhihe hung up the phone and once again picked up the documents and photos.

He stared at the photo a few times, then slowly looked up at the window.

He looked straight into the distance as if frozen. His eyes seemed to be able to see through everything in front of him.

Wu Zhihe stared into the distance in a daze for a long time before he slowly closed his eyes and laid on the chair without moving.

Time seemed to stop. After an unknown amount of time, Wu Zhihe slowly opened his eyes as if he had made some important decision. He picked up his phone and dialed a number.

After the call was connected, a woman's voice came from inside. "Old sir, what instructions do you have for me?"

"Secretary Loong, where is Young Master now?" Wu Zhihe asked his phone.

"Young Master has just returned home and is currently reading in his study." It was Loong Yun's voice on the phone. Her tone was cold and respectful.

"Very good."

Wu Zhihe nodded in satisfaction and instructed the phone, "Prepare well, I want to make a will."

"Old mister, you mean to establish young master ..."

"Right."

"Have you decided?"

"Of course."

"I see."

"Take good care of the young master, urge him to hurry up and study."

"Alright."

"Also ..." Wu Zhihe thought for a while, then ordered his cellphone, "Don't let him know about the will for now."

"I understand!"

"Alright, go and prepare!" Wu Zhihe hung up after saying that.

After hanging up the phone, he leaned against the reclining chair, closed his eyes and rested. He thought about all the storms of the past few years, thought about the love and hatred between his Wu Family and the other three great clans.

Wu Family had always been the strongest power within the Four Great Clans, and there were disputes with Ouyang Family, Shangguan Family, and the Gurie Clan.

Under his rule, the relationship between Wu Family and the three great families did not worsen. There was competition and cooperation.

These years, Wu Family had always been in the leading position, and this kind of advantage had always persisted until now.

The reason for choosing the successor this time was because he hoped that the successor would be able to lead the clan in continuing to create more glory, allowing his Wu Family to maintain this advantage, forever gaining power over the other families.

Wu Zhihe sat there in a daze, thinking about the family's past and future. Time seemed to have frozen, as if a century had passed.

Sea Heaven Garden.

At this moment, Wu Tian was seriously reading in his study room, and he didn't know that his grandpa was making a big decision on the phone with Secretary Loong.

After separating from Elder Sister Lan, he returned home, locked himself in his study and devoted himself to his studies.

Through this period of study, Wu Tian's progress is very clear, and he has gained a deep understanding of the knowledge of management and finance.

Of course, he was not satisfied with this and continued to study deeper.

He now understood that when you were in a different position, the suffering and troubles you faced would be different, and the things you had to deal with would also be different.

Only when you have enough knowledge and a strong enough soft power will you be able to remain calm in the face of difficulties.

As he was reading earnestly, he felt that someone was watching him from behind.

He turned his head and saw a black shadow flash past the door.

"Secretary Loong?" Wu Tian frowned slightly. From the figure and height of the black shadow, he could determine that it was Secretary Loong who peeped on him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 292 - Mischief

C292 Mischief

Normally, Secretary Loong would have already fallen asleep at this time of day. Why would she be hiding outside the door to peep at him tonight?

Could it be that this woman was plotting something?

Wu Tian pretended that he did not know as he continued to read. He sensed the shadow approaching the door again.

He dashed out of the room like a bolt of lightning and saw Loong Yun panicking as she prepared to escape.

Wu Tian grabbed Loong Yun's arm and asked in an aggressive tone, "Secretary Loong, why are you hiding outside the door and peeping at me?"

"I didn't." Embarrassed, Loong Yun tilted her head to the right, unease evident in her eyes.

"You obviously peeped at me, but you still didn't admit it." Wu Tian reached out his hand to pinch Loong Yun's chin. He stared at her cold eyes and questioned, "Are you trying to plot against me by coveting my beauty?"

"Young Master is overthinking it."

Loong Yun pushed Wu Tian's arm away and took two steps back, replying in a cold voice, "I just want to supervise to see if young master is studying seriously."

"Stinking woman, you're clearly ..."

"Alright, if there's nothing else, I'll go back to my room to sleep." Loong Yun turned around and walked into the room after she said that. After she walked a few steps, she suddenly turned around, "Oh right, Young Master, Old Master called just now."

"Grandpa is on the phone, what's the matter?"

"He told me to urge you to study hard and not to be lazy."

"What else?"

"There's nothing else." Loong Yun turned around and went into her own room without saying a word about the will.

"Why do I feel like this woman is weird tonight?" Looking at Loong Yun's back, Wu Tian muttered to himself.

He had always felt that Secretary Loong was hiding something from him, perhaps it had something to do with his grandfather.

Forget it, it's too late to go to bed now. He would interrogate Secretary Loong another day. Thinking of this, he turned around and went back to his room to sleep.

After that, Wu Tian devoted most of his time and energy into learning. Of course, martial arts were not wasted.

Other than studying, he would usually follow Azure Dragon to learn martial arts.

However, Loong Yun would always urge him during this period of time. She reminded him to study at all times, and it was much more severe than usual.

Now, he suspected even more that his grandpa must have said something to Secretary Loong that night. Otherwise, this woman wouldn't have suddenly turned so strict.

Wu Tian had no objections to Secretary Loong's strict supervision. In his opinion, this was probably his grandfather's intention.

Other than reading books and learning from it, he would also go to the Tianmu Technology during his free time and pay attention to the latest developments in the mobile phone system.

As for the Tianhao Inn and projects, Sunn Xiaohao and Jiang Wan were very much at ease, so he rarely asked about them.

On Tuesday afternoon, he suddenly received a call from Lee Mu, saying that the homemade system had made a big breakthrough.

Receiving this joyous news, Wu Tian felt very excited, he didn't even wait for class to end before he fled the school, and directly came to Tianmu Technology.

"Boss, that's great." Lee Mu came up and grabbed Wu Tian's arm, unable to hide his excitement, "Our new system has achieved a major breakthrough, and its ecology is still in its initial stages of perfection. The initial promotion has had a good effect."

As the founder of the company and the planner of the new system, Lee Mu was very excited about every achievement.

Homemade operating system is like his own child, watching the child thrive day by day, let him have a special sense of accomplishment.

"Good, well done." Wu Tian patted Lee Mu on the shoulder and praised him, "I didn't misjudge you at first. You are really a talent. You have made the new system so good in such a short time."

"The main reason why the homemade system has made such a breakthrough is because of you. If I didn't have Boss Wu's support and financing, even if I had god-like ability, I still wouldn't be able to do it. " After Lee Mu said this, he bowed deeply towards Wu Tian and said, "On behalf of all the employees, I thank Boss Wu."

"Let's not be polite here." Wu Tian helped Lee Mu up, smiled and said, "In terms of credit, all of us have credit. The success of our homemade system cannot be achieved without the efforts of our brothers. "Come, let us applaud ourselves."

"Well said." Lee Mu led the applause while the other employees followed suit.

"Thank you for your hard work during this period of time. I'll personally pay you a million gold coins as a reward."

"Thank you, Boss Wu."

"Pa Pa Pa ..."

The whole office burst into applause and applause.

Wu Tian pressed his hands together, gesturing for everyone to quiet down. He then continued, "To celebrate our new system's victory, after work, let's go to the hotel to eat and drink. Let's have a good celebration."

"Also ..."

After Wu Tian finished announcing the news, he added: "Previously, everyone worked really hard, so we will arrange a break for everyone. Everyone has a paid vacation, so we will take this opportunity to go back and spend time with our family and loved ones, with our parents and children."

"Alright ..."

Cheers rose and fell in succession in the office. The staff were all so excited that they were dancing and cheering excitedly.

They were glad to have a boss like Wu Tian, standing up for their employees and not only giving them bonuses and dinner parties, they even took turns taking leave from their employees.

"Alright, let's all get busy. We'll go out to eat after work." After announcing a few good news, Wu Tian indicated for everyone to continue working.

The staff went back to their posts and got back to work, and seemed to have more energy and enthusiasm than before.

Just after settling the employees down, Wu Tian walked over and patted Yuan Wangchun and Zhou Cheng's shoulders, praising them, "As the backbone of the game board, you guys have done a great job."

Currently, the company's main operating expenses and profits come from the gaming sector.

In other words, the company was mainly relying on the game to earn money.

"Ai!"

Zhou Cheng sighed and said to himself gloomily, "Boss Wu, the profit from the game has been declining recently. The total daily income is only around 100 million."

"Indeed, the decline is very fast. What's the reason for this?" Wu Tian asked about the situation.

"It's mainly pirated versions." At this point, Yuan Wangchun added, "After our game was set ablaze, there were constantly companies developing pirated versions, and now the total revenue from pirated versions has already surpassed our own."

"Piracy is really rampant."

"I really can't accept it." Zhou Cheng gritted his teeth and said with a pained heart, "What's the difference between a game that we spent time, energy, and money to create, and having other people pirate it to make money?"

"It seems like we have to think of a way to suppress the piracy."

"Combating piracy is a thankless task. If we rely solely on ourselves, I'm afraid it will be difficult."

"You guys continue to keep your positions in the game. I'll handle the task of combating piracy." Wu Tian thought for a moment and instructed Zhou Cheng, "Go and investigate what kind of companies stole our game."

"I've already checked that out." Zhou Cheng took out a form from the file box and handed it to Wu Tian, "There are 19 companies on this list that directly or indirectly participated in pirated versions of our game."

"Very good." Wu Tian took the form and viciously said: "I want these robbers to disappear completely."

With that said, he took out his phone and dialed Loong Yun's number. He instructed Secretary Loong to deal with these 19 pirated companies.
