

Hidden Billionaire / C29 Buy a Luxury Car

C29 Buy a Luxury Car

"Cough, cough!"

Wu Tian coughed dryly and reminded her, "Sister, can you help me handle the procedures first?"

Only then did Ling Ling realize that she was far too excited. She calmed herself down and looked at Wu Tian again with a measuring gaze.

To be honest, she had never seen such a low-key rich person before. He was dressed in ordinary clothes and had an ordinary appearance, but the amount of money in his card was astonishing.

He bought the car as if he was simply buying vegetables from a market. Without bargaining and saying a single word, he freely and easily took out his bank card the moment he saw something that caught his eye.

Having sold cars for two years, this was the first time she had met such a customer. It was no wonder that she couldn't help but feel overjoyed.

"Please wait for a moment, I'll complete the procedures for you right away." Ling Ling came back to her senses and ran to complete the paperwork.

When the other two salesmen heard that Ling Ling had sold a top tier luxury car, they were also delighted and rushed to help with the procedures. With the three of them working together, the procedures was very quickly completed.

"Big Brother, congratulations on becoming the owner of the L5 luxury car." After completing the formalities, Ling Ling handed the bank card to Wu Tian with both hands, "I'll accompany you out to test your car."

"Okay." Wu Tian nodded and got into the driver's seat of the L5 to start the car.

The roar of the engine made him exhilarated. This was the first car in his life, and it was not strange to make him feel excited.

He put the car in gear, stepped on the accelerator and drove out of the 4S store.

As they passed the Mercedes-Benz 4S store, Liu Hui and the sales staff came out and stood in front of the L5 car.

"Yo, isn't this that pauper from before?" Liu Hui glanced at Wu Tian, who was sitting in the driver's seat, and said with a sharp tone of sarcasm.

Wu Tian didn't say anything, but Ling Ling, who was beside him, impatiently said, "Liu Hui, get out of the way, I'm taking my customer to test his car." They had known each other before.

In fact, Ling Ling was a colleague with Liu Hui and the others and had worked as a salesperson at the Mercedes-Benz 4S store.

However, she was targeted and ridiculed by Liu Hui and the others. In the end, Ling Ling swallowed her anger as she left the Mercedes 4S store and went next door to the Red Flag 4S store to sell cars instead.

"Lingling, you're so stupid. Bringing a pauper to test the car? A poor bastard like him can't even afford a car, him trying it is just a waste of time." Liu Hui couldn't help but sneer.

"Yeah, yeah!"

The sales clerks behind her echoed, "This kind of country bumpkin is so poor. Just now, he was even kicked out of the store by us."

"To tell you the truth, Mr Wu already bought this car." Ling Ling shouted.

Upon hearing this, Liu Hui and the sales staff behind her burst out into laughter.

A burst of mockery.

Liu Hui crossed her arms across her chest and said, "If this bumpkin actually has the money to buy this car, I'll eat the tire."

Several salespeople echoed her words. No one believed that a bumpkin like Wu Tian could buy the L5.

After all, this car was worth nearly six million, even someone rich necessarily wouldn't be able to afford it, much less this bumpkin in front of him.

"Look, five million eight hundred thousand." Ling Ling was too lazy to waste her words, directly handing over the invoice.

Seeing the amount on the invoice, Liu Hui and the sales staff felt as if they were struck by lightning.

Their bodies trembled violently a few times.

Anything can be faked, but the invoice could not be faked, because the 4S store must take the invoice to pay for the tax.

It was clearly stated on the invoice that Wu Tian had spent four million eight hundred thousand to buy the Red Flag L5.

"Oh my god!"

Staring at the invoice dumbfoundedly for a few seconds, Liu Hui couldn't help but exclaim in surprise, This bumpkin actually ...

No.

This wasn't a bumpkin at all.

Being able to spend close to 6 million to buy a L5, this was definitely a tycoon amongst tycoons.

At this moment, she felt mixed emotions in her heart, and this feeling was even worse than eating dog shit.

The man they had previously humiliated and chased out of the store was in fact a true tycoon.

Liu Hui and the sales staff behind her were truly regretting their decision. The wealthy tycoon who was delivered to their doorstep was rejected by them just like that, and they stupidly gave up their business to the Red Flag's 4S store.

They couldn't help but give themselves a few harsh slaps in their hearts.

"All of you, get out of the way."

Wu Tian glared at the salespeople coldly and yelled impatiently.

Liu Hui and the sales staff finally woke up from their daze.

They changed their attitude and took out their business cards, licking their faces while fawning, "Boss, this is my business card. If you want to buy a car, you can always find me."

If they could get this kind of super rich person and sell a car to them, the commission would be enough for them to enjoy for a very long time.

Wu Tian took the business card and threw it on the ground mercilessly. "Even if you gave it to me, I would never want your car."

With that, he drove away, leaving Liu Hui and the sales representatives with regretful expressions.

Seeing the tycoon slip away, Liu Hui raised her hand and slapped the salesman behind her, cursing, "Trash! Such a rich boss, how dare you try to mock him?! Do you think you have too much money?"

The salespeople kept their heads down and didn't say anything.

"You fools, open your eyes wider in the future, and stop trying to judge a person by his appearance." Liu Hui stomped her feet angrily and returned to the 4S store after she finished yelling those words.

The salespeople gritted their teeth in dissatisfaction and returned to the 4S store dejectedly, as if they had just lost a war.

In the car.

"Hu!"

Ling Ling raised her head and let out a long breath. After being suppressed by them for so long, she was finally able to lift up her head with pride today.

Especially when she saw the looks of regret and vexation on Liu Hui and the group of people, she felt that her anger had been greatly relieved.

"Big Brother, thank you." Ling Ling turned around and looked at Wu Tian with a sweet smile.

"You're a pretty good girl, I'll look for you in the future when I buy a car."

"Really?" Ling Ling became excited and hugged Wu Tian's arm tightly.

Very soon, she retracted her hands and embarrassedly bit her lips. "About that, I'm sorry, but I'm was just too happy."

"It's fine, I don't mind." Wu Tian couldn't help but glance at Ling Ling, and he noticed that she was blushing.

He did not continue to joke around. He drove around on the road and felt that the car was perfect in every aspect. After sending Ling Ling home, he drove away.

Now that he had bought a car, it was imperative for him to get a driver's license.

After returning home, he registered on the internet.

Three days later, he arrived at the scheduled time to study driving.

As soon as he arrived at the driving school, he met someone he knew. It was the head chef of Fuyuan Restaurant, Shen Xue. She was wearing a knee-length dress, and her two white calves were very pleasing to the eyes.

"Shen Xue, why are you here?" Wu Tian took the initiative to greet Shen Xue.

This girl was definitely a beauty within the driving school. From time to time, she would attract the attention of countless men.

"I'm learning to drive here!" Shen Xue lifted the hair from her ears, her tone sweet and gentle.

Only in front of Wu Tian would she show such a delicate side to him.

"What a coincidence, I'm also learning how to drive a car here. Looks like we'll be classmates from now on." Wu Tian laughed.

After their last meeting, he had a pretty good impression of Shen Xue. Not only was this girl pretty, but her heart was also very kind and her personality was especially good.

While the two of them were chatting, a man in a suit and leather shoes walked over with a handful of roses in his hands.
