C293 Run away from Home

He believed that with Secretary Loong's efficiency, it wouldn't be long before they could get rid of these pirated companies. At that time, Tianmu Technology Game's revenue would definitely increase.

After he finished his call, he saw that it was time to get off work, so he asked Lee Mu to organize the staff to have a meal together at the hotel.

Wu Tian went with them, drinking and chatting with the employees, encouraging them to work hard for their careers and dreams.

It was already eight in the evening. Wu Tian told Uncle Fugui to go back first as he was wandering alone on the street.

The night of the Luzhou was very restless and there were lanterns and wine everywhere. Everyone had been busy the whole day and only at this time did they relax the most.

Walking alone on the dim yellow street, letting the night breeze blow against his face, his mind couldn't help but let his imagination run wild.

He recalled everything that had happened during this time. It felt like a dream.

Ever since he learned of his true identity, he had been transforming at a rapid pace from the inside to the outside, becoming an elite in the business world.

He kept learning, improving, and growing. He kept getting stronger and stronger.

The once ignorant child no longer existed. The current him had long since been reborn, and his strength was so great that even the people around him were afraid.

Now that he could no longer stop, he still had a larger mission on his shoulders. He had to make him stronger so that he could live up to the expectations and nurturing his grandfather had given him.

The little success he had gained in front of him was only the beginning. The road to the peak was a long one, and he would never stop.

As he was thinking, he looked up and saw a familiar figure across the street.

Jiang Xue?

The girl was squatting alone on the side of the street. Beside her was a large leather suitcase and there were still some tears on her face.

In the middle of the night, when the girl was not sleeping at home, did something happen to her as she dragged her suitcase along the street?

Thinking of this, he quickly walked to the other side of the street, approached River Snow, and patted her on the shoulder.

Jiang Xue was so scared that her body shrank. When she turned around and saw Wu Tian, she immediately revealed a smile: "Hey, why is it you?"

"I was taking a walk across the street. I saw you squatting here, so I came over to take a look." Wu Tian explained and couldn't help but to ask with concern, "You came out so late by yourself, are you alright?"

"I ..."

Jiang Xue jumped into Wu Tian's arms and started crying before she could finish her words.

"Ugh ..."

Wu Tian was stunned on the spot like a wooden block.

He could feel this soft and fiery warmth. For a moment, he was somewhat distracted, and his body was inexplicably restless.

This couldn't be blamed on him. This girl's figure was simply too perfect. He couldn't help but let his thoughts run wild when they were so close to each other.

He quickly put aside the messy thoughts running through his mind and said with concern, "Xue, don't cry. Tell me, what happened?"

"I had a few words with my mother and ran away from home." After Shen Xue finished her sentence, she hugged Wu Tian even more tightly.

"Arguing?"

"Yes."

"Then why did you quarrel with your mother?" Wu Tian couldn't help but ask.

In his impression, Shen Xue was a kind-hearted and sensible child. Logically speaking, she shouldn't have quarreled with her parents.

"My mom forced me to go on a blind date. I didn't want to, so I started arguing." Shen Xue sniffled in grievance.

"Then you should properly communicate with your mother ..."

"I just don't want a blind date." Shen Xue pushed Wu Tian away and wiped the tears from the corner of her eyes, "Anyway, I won't go out for a blind date no matter what."

She was like a wronged cat right now, and her appearance was quite heartbreaking.

"Here you go!"

Wu Tian took out a tissue and handed it over, and tried asking: "Then what do you plan to do now?"

"I told dad and mom to rent a house first, then go back later." Shen Xue took the tissue and wiped the tears off her face.

Thinking about how she cried like a child in Wu Tian's arms just now, she felt a little awkward and her face inexplicably blushed.

"Where are you going to rent a house so late at night?"

"I don't know."

"Why don't you come live at my place first?" Wu Tian couldn't help but make this suggestion.

It was too late now. Renting a house was not so easy, and it was not safe to leave a girl alone.

"To your house?" Shen Xue hugged her body vigilantly as she warned, "I'm not such a casual girl."

"I didn't mean it that way. I wanted you to stay at my house for a few days and move in when you find a house."

"Is it convenient?"

"Yes."

"Alright then."

"Come, I'll take you home." Wu Tian walked to the side of the street with a large suitcase and stopped a taxi.

Afterwards, the two of them went back to the Sea Heaven Garden.

Taking the elevator up to the 11th floor, Wu Tian pointed at the rooms on both sides of the corridor and introduced, "These three rooms are all mine, that one is for Uncle Fugui's family, and this one is for Azure Dragon. I'll live in this one."

After introducing himself briefly, he took out his key and opened the door.

A fresh fragrance wafted into his nose. Loong Yun was sitting on the sofa in the living room, reading a book after she had finished her shower and put on her nightgown.

Seeing the woman in pajamas in the room, Shen Xue's expression darkened. She questioned, "Who is she?"

This was Shen Xue's first time coming to Wu Tian's residence. She had never seen Loong Yun before, so she naturally did not know her identity.

"Let me introduce you, this is my secretary, Loong Yun." Wu Tian pointed at Loong Yun and introduced her to Shen Xue.

"Secretary?" Shen Xue heaved a sigh of relief, but she still felt uncomfortable.

She couldn't help but suspect in her heart that this woman was extremely beautiful, with a sexy and spicy body. Was she really just a secretary?

Do all the secretaries now live in the boss's house?

"Right." Wu Tian nodded and said to Loong Yun, "This is my guest Shen Xue. She's been staying here recently. Secretary Loong, please take good care of her for me."

"Yes."

Loong Yun responded and walked over to take the suitcase from Wu Tian. She couldn't help but glare at Shen Xue.

In her opinion, the girl in front of her was probably trying to seduce the young master, relying on the young master to get some benefits.

Of course, as a secretary, she couldn't say much, so she could only turn a blind eye to it. At the same time, she scolded the young master in her heart.

"Xue, let me introduce you." After saying that, Wu Tian pulled Shen Xue and introduced the room.

There were a lot of rooms at home. Besides the master bedroom of Wu Tian and the second bedroom of Loong Yun, there were also four guest rooms.

He brought Shen Xue into the largest guest room and said, "The blankets are all clean here. You can stay here temporarily. If you need anything, just let me know."

"Hey!"

Shen Xue was not in the mood to look at her room. She closed the door and asked curiously, "Why did you let your secretary stay at home?"

"This isn't an ordinary secretary, it's an assistant that Grandpa arranged for me. Let her stay by my side to supervise my studies and work."

"So that's how it is." Shen Xue was satisfied with this explanation. "Why do I feel that your secretary is full of hostility towards me?"

"She's like this for everyone, cold as ice."

"But I keep having the feeling that ..."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 294 - Guests from Home

C294 Guests from Home

"Don't think too much. If she dares to bully you, tell me and I'll help you deal with her." Wu Tian smiled and comforted her.

"Alright!" Shen Xue smiled strangely, feeling slightly disappointed.

She thought she could enjoy the world with Wu Tian, she didn't think that there would be such an inconvenient secretary at home.

Knocking sounded on the door as Loong Yun barged into the room. She rolled her eyes at Shen Xue as she reported to Wu Tian, "Young Master, a guest has arrived."

"What guest?"

"Police Officer Su."

"Su Ruyun?"

"Right."

"Why is she here?" Wu Tian frowned.

Why did this violent policewoman come to his home? He didn't seem to have done anything recently.

"Young Master." Loong Yun walked over and whispered in Wu Tian's ear, "Police Officer Su came here to protect you."

"Protect me?"

"Right."

"Why did she suddenly come here to protect me?"

"I was the one who greeted the bureau. The bureau gave me face and sent Su Ruyun to protect you." Loong Yun explained in a low voice.

"You arranged it?" Only then did Wu Tian understand that Secretary Loong had used her family to arrange for Su Ruyun to protect him.

"Right."

"Who told you to act on your own and find a woman to protect me?" Wu Tian narrowed his eyes, with a hint of anger in them.

"Young master, this is an emergency, I want to ensure your safety."

"Extraordinary times?"

"Right."

"What do you mean?"

"This ..." Loong Yun hesitated for a few seconds before replying coldly, "There are some things that I can't tell you right now, but I believe you will soon know the answer."

"It was Grandpa's order, right?"

Loong Yun didn't say anything, admitting it tacitly.

"What happened? Why was he suddenly so strict with me? He even sent the police to protect me at home? "

"You're not talking about it, right?" Wu Tian slowly approached Loong Yun, forcing her into a corner. He reached out his hand to pinch her chin, "Do you believe that I won't be polite to you?"

Loong Yun remained silent, standing at the corner like a log. Cold air poured out from her entire body.

Wu Tian really couldn't stand Loong Yun's cold look. He reached out his hand to teach the woman a lesson.

Before his hand could even touch Loong Yun's body, he was stopped by Shen Xue's angry shout, "Wu Tian, what are you doing?"

"I... That... Teach her. " Wu Tian retracted his arm in embarrassment. Only then did he remember that Shen Xue was still behind him.

"You're really shameless, even taking advantage of the secretary." Shen Xue disdainfully said, her eyes filled with disdain.

She didn't know why she would fall in love with a playboy like Wu Tian, who was close to other women in front of her.

"Don't misunderstand, I just ..." Wu Tian wanted to explain more, but the door was kicked open and Su Ruyun barged in.

This woman was wearing gray jeans and a denim shirt. Her body was tight and flexible, and her long legs were slender and straight. Just looking at her made people want to look at her.

"Wu Tian, you really know how to play. You're still hiding your charms in the Golden Room!" Su Ruyun glanced at Jiang Xue and said disdainfully.

Before Wu Tian could reply, Jiang Xue, who was beside him, couldn't help but ask: "Who are you? Why are you in Wu Tian's house?"

"Who I am doesn't seem to have anything to do with you." Su Ruyun said coldly as she folded her arms and leaned against the door.

"You ..."

The corner of Shen Xue's mouth twitched in anger. She turned her head to look at Wu Tian and questioned, "Who is this woman?"

"She's the captain of the police station in the east city, Su Ruyun." Wu Tian explained with a smile.

"Police, then why is she in your house?"

"She protects me."

"You really know how to play." Shen Xue rolled her eyes at Wu Tian and angrily bit her lips, "You have such a sexy and cold beautiful secretary at home, and now you're using the beauty police to protect you."

She really didn't expect that there were so many women around Wu Tian, and they were all of the best quality. They all had good bodies and beautiful faces, none of them were worse off than her.

"I have no other choice." Wu Tian didn't know what to say.

The beautiful secretary was arranged by his grandpa, and even the beautiful police flower was ordered by the secretary to come. It wasn't his original intention.

"Never mind, you guys go ahead and chat. I'm going to take a bath." Shen Xue noticed that her reaction was a little too extreme, so she hugged her pajamas and went into the bathroom.

Although she liked Wu Tian in her heart, they didn't have that deep relationship. As for who Wu Tian was with, it didn't seem to have anything to do with her.

She knew that she shouldn't interfere in this matter, but she still couldn't help but feel infuriated. She had nowhere to vent her anger on, so she could only rush into the bathroom and use hot water to reduce the fire.

"Is she your girlfriend?" Su Ruyun glanced at the direction of the bathroom and couldn't help but ask Wu Tian.

"This has nothing to do with you."

After answering, Wu Tian approached Su Ruyun. "Officer Su, what are you doing at my house?"

"You think I want to come!" Su Ruyun changed her position and leaned against the door, saying impatiently, "I don't know what the higher ups are thinking, but they actually sent me to protect you. They really have seen a ghost."

"Did your Superintendent send you?"

"No, it's the City Council's order to protect you during this time."

"The city police?" Wu Tian couldn't help but glance at Loong Yun.

He didn't think that she would use her family's influence to have the city's police assign people to protect him.

He had never seen Secretary Loong like this before. Was something really going to happen in the family?

"I really don't understand why the city's police sent me to protect a brat like you." Su Ruyun grumbled in her heart before she turned around and left the room.

Wu Tian didn't say anything. He secretly let out a sigh of relief, turned around and instructed Loong Yun, "Since they are all guests, let's properly settle them down."

He turned and went into the study.

He opened the book on economics, but could not read it. His mind was a mess, and he had the feeling that something big was going to happen.

Staring at the few pages of the book, Wu Tian finally put it away and put it back on the shelf.

He picked up his cell phone, opened the phone book, and looked at his grandfather's number.

His fingers moved back and forth on his phone. After hesitating for a long time, he finally decided to call his grandfather.

He waited for a long time before he answered the call.

Hearing his grandpa's heavy voice from the phone: "Tian, calling this late, is there anything you need?"

"Grandfather, I want to talk to you." Wu Tian's tone was as soft as a child's.

Every time he spoke to his grandfather, he felt both nervous and warm. His mood was especially complicated.

"Just nice, I want to talk to you too." On the other end of the phone, Wu Zhihe's voice was kind and stern.

"Grandfather, has something big happened to our Wu Family recently?" Wu Tian asked his phone.

From Secretary Loong's abnormal behavior recently, it could be seen that something had happened in the family.

In the past, Secretary Loong had never urged him to study or practice martial arts, but lately she had been especially urging him to do so.

Secretary Loong had never sent anyone to protect him before, but this time was different. She had used her full strength to get the police to protect him.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 295 - Family Contradictions

C295 Family Contradictions

"Tian, why do you ask?" There was a few seconds of silence before Wu Zhihe's voice came over.

"Recently, Secretary Loong's behavior has been abnormal. I suspect that something has happened to our family." Wu Tian explained and asked anxiously into the phone, "Grandpa, what happened in the house?"

"You are indeed very meticulous. There are some things that I originally did not plan to tell you so quickly, for fear of causing unnecessary pressure. It seems that I am unable to conceal them anymore."

"Grandfather, what's wrong with the family?"

"It's nothing." Wu Zhihe paused for a moment and continued, "The 25th Year Clan Assembly is about to be held, do you know what this means?"

"I don't know."

"The Clan's Assembly is the most important gathering of the Wu Family. The candidates to be the successors of the clan will be selected in this Assembly."

"Choose an heir?"

"Right." Wu Zhihe was silent for a few seconds, as if he was waiting for Wu Tian to ask.

However, Wu Tian didn't have any concept of the Clan Assembly, so he didn't know what to ask, so he simply didn't say anything.

After a brief moment of silence, Wu Zhihe's voice came over the phone again: "In other words, a new heir will be born during the family convention. This will affect the family's rise and fall over the next twenty years."

"How come I've never heard of such an important meeting before?"

"I've been hiding it from you on purpose. I don't want to create too much pressure on your psyche."

"So that's how it is."

"I put you in the people's care as an abandoned baby, and spent a lot of effort and energy to let you experience and grow. It's all in order to one day be able to become the successor and the one at the helm, and bring glory to your Wu Family." When he said that, Wu Zhihe basically clenched his teeth.

"I didn't expect grandpa to be so considerate towards me." Wu Tian could feel the care and love his grandfather had given him.

However, this kind of love was different from the love of an ordinary family. There were even more expectations contained within this love.

"I've painstakingly nurtured you in this way for more than twenty years, but you have not disappointed me." Wu Zhihe then revealed a pleased smile, "After passing the test in this period of time, your performance was extremely outstanding, and your ability in all aspects surpassed the other descendants of Wu Family. You are the best candidate to be the successor."

"Grandfather decided to let me become the successor, to become the Patriarch of Wu Family?"

"Right." Wu Zhihe said with a firm tone, "I've decided to let you inherit my position and become the head of the family."

"Grandfather, don't worry. I promise I won't let down your expectations and nurture me." Wu Tian quickly expressed his opinion.

Ever since he knew of his grandfather's efforts, he had been working hard to make himself stronger in every aspect.

He only hoped that one day, he would be able to live up to his grandfather's expectations and not fail to live up to the love and nurturing that his grandfather had given him all these years.

"Tian, I believe you can do it." After Wu Zhihe said this, he changed his tone and said, "But right now, you still face a lot of crisis and trials."

"What crises?"

"Maybe you don't know the relationship between the Four Great Clans."

"I don't know."

"Our Wu Family is on good terms with the Ouyang Family, but is opposed to them." Wu Zhihe brewed for a while, then continued: "Simply put, Wu Family has been working with the Ouyang Family to resist the Hundred Miles and the Shangguan Family. The four great families are currently mutually controlling."

"This kind of relationship should be the most stable."

"No!" Wu Zhihe sighed and continued, "On the surface, it looks stable, but the truth is, it's filled with rain and wind."

"What does that mean?"

"In order to fight for the successor's position, many of our descendants have become traitors. They have secretly joined hands with the Baili family and the Shangguan family to rebel at the Clan Assembly."

"There's such a thing?"

"This is a great hidden danger for Wu Family." As Wu Zhihe said this, his tone became serious again, "The descendants of Wu Family will certainly take advantage of the Baili and Shangguan Families to attack you, and the two families will definitely take this opportunity to disrupt our Wu Family to the point that our dogs and chickens."

"So you're saying, the Baili and Shangguan Families have always been the biggest threat to our Wu Family?"

"Right."

"Then let's think of a way to eliminate the two great families, Baili and Shangguan."

"Ai!" Wu Zhihe sighed and said, "Killing these two families is easier said than done."

"Grandfather, don't worry. I promise that one day, I will annihilate these two great families and expand our Wu Family."

"Good kid, your ambition has the grace of your grandfather's youth." Wu Zhihe acknowledged and could not help but sigh: "Looks like our Wu Family has successors."

"As the saying goes, no matter what, we have to get inside out. Our top priority right now is to get rid of our internal conflicts, so that we can unite and go abroad together."

"Well said, but don't worry, I will send someone to deal with this matter." After Wu Zhihe said this, he remembered something else and added, "Recently, I have been thinking of a way to secretly transfer the assets back from abroad to prepare for your future inheritance."

"Grandpa's thoughts are truly thoughtful."

"Right now, you are in an extremely critical period. Not only must you speed up the learning process to increase your strength, you must also protect yourself well. You must not make any mistakes." Wu Zhihe said sincerely.

"Don't worry, grandfather. I will definitely protect myself."

"That's good, that's good."

"Grandpa, rest early. I won't disturb your sleep anymore. Goodbye grandpa." After Wu Tian said this, he waited for a while before hanging up.

After making this call, he laid down on the desk and quietly stared blankly, as he recalled what his grandfather had just said.

From the conversation just now, he found out that Wu Family was currently facing internal and external troubles. On the outside, there were the two enemies: the Gurie Family and Shangguan Family.

The internal divisions were all fighting for the succession, seriously affecting the family's internal unity.

Although Wu Family was huge in size and was spread throughout the entire world, the challenges they faced were still very big.

Right now, all of the descendants of Wu Family were fighting for the successor. If they knew that Wu Tian was listed as the successor, they would definitely target Wu Tian.

That is to say, he had to keep this matter a secret from everyone so that no one would know of it.

Only now did he understand Secretary Loong's good intentions. She intentionally kept Police Officer Su by her side, just in case something happened, she would have to take care of him.

No matter how arrogant the opponent was, he had to take into account Su Ruyun's identity as a police officer.

There was one more thing. If Police Officer Su stayed by his side and something really happened, she would be able to respond quickly and mobilize the police to assist her.

It seemed that Secretary Loong was quite considerate.

After sitting in the study room thinking for a while, Wu Tian picked up the book and started reading again. When he saw that it was late, he noticed that someone was peeping outside the study room.

Needless to say, it was Secretary Loong who was secretly observing him.

Even though this woman was usually as cold as a stone, she still took care of him at the critical moment.

Pretending not to notice Secretary Loong, Wu Tian continued to study. He did not bathe and sleep until very late.

The next day, Wu Tian was awakened by a knock on the door.

He stretched lazily as he opened the door and saw Shen Xue standing outside. She said sweetly, "You lazy bum, it's time to get up and eat."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 296 - Delicious Breakfast

C296 Delicious Breakfast

"You finished cooking so early?" Wu Tian took out his phone and checked the time. It was not even 7 o'clock.

"I'm used to waking up early." Shen Xue smiled, tilted her head and said, "Go wash your face and brush your teeth, then we can eat."

"Ok!" After Wu Tian answered, he went into the bathroom to wash up.

When he walked out of the room, he saw that the dining table was already filled with a sumptuous breakfast.

Secretary Loong and Su Ruyun were eating ravenously at the table and couldn't help but stick out their thumbs in appreciation of the delicious food.

Needless to say, Shen Xue's cooking skills were at least a hundred times better than that of Michelin. Everyone would praise her cooking skills.

Shen Xue didn't eat. She just sat at the table and waited for Wu Tian.

When she saw Wu Tian walk out after washing his face, she quickly waved and urged him: "What are you waiting for, come and eat!"

"Alright!" Wu Tian nodded and walked over to sit beside Shen Xue. "Xue, thank you for making breakfast for everyone."

"I basically made breakfast for you, along with some breakfast for them." After saying that, Shen Xue took a few rolls and placed them on the dining plate. "How about a taste?"

"Let me try." Wu Tian picked up the cake and took a bite. He couldn't help but exclaim, "Delicious, it's so f * cking delicious."

With that said, he began to wolf down his food.

"Eat slowly, don't choke." Shen Xue poured a cup of milk and handed it over. "Here, drink some milk first."

"Alright, you eat too." Wu Tian took a sip of the milk and couldn't help but exclaim once again, "Xue, your milk tastes really good."

"Cough, cough ..."

Shen Xue coughed anxiously, her face red with anger, "Wu Tian, what nonsense are you talking about?"

"I'm talking about your milk ..."

Halfway through Wu Tian's sentence, he noticed Shen Xue's face blushing. Only then did he realize he had said something wrong. He quickly changed his words, "Don't misunderstand. I said the milk you made is delicious, not yours."

As he said this, he shifted his gaze downwards and couldn't help but glance at Shen Xue.

"You're a pain in the ass." Shen Xue turned her body to the side, her face blushing even more deeply than before.

"Come, let's eat." Wu Tian gave Shen Xue a roll cake and continued to wolf it down.

They all ate a lot of breakfast this time.

Everyone was deeply attracted by this delicacy. Even Loong Yun, who rarely spoke, could not help but praise Shen Xue's cooking.

Seeing that everyone was eating so happily, Shen Xue couldn't help but secretly feel pleased with herself, as though flowers were blooming in her heart.

"Hello."

Su Ruyun moved closer to Wu Tian and asked in a low voice: "Who exactly is that woman? Why is the cooking so delicious? "

"Let me introduce you solemnly." Wu Tian wiped his mouth with a tissue, pointed at Shen Xue and introduced her to them, "She's the top chef of Fortune Restaurant. Some of the custom-made food was made by her."

"I didn't expect her to be a chef at such a young age. No wonder the cooking is so delicious." Su Ruyun lamented from the bottom of her heart.

To tell the truth, she had never eaten such good food in her life before. Just now, when she ate breakfast, she felt that her mouth and taste buds enjoyed an extreme amount of delicious food.

"Police Officer Su, Secretary Loong, be nice to Xue from now on or you won't be able to eat the delicacies she makes." Wu Tian reminded them with a smile.

"Then can you let Miss Shen cook for us every day?"

"Tell her." Wu Tian shrunk his head back as if it had nothing to do with him.

"Scram!"

Su Ruyun viciously kicked Wu Tian's chair, walked over and extended her right hand towards Shen Xue, "Let's get to know each other again. My name is Su Ruyun, I'm the captain of the East City Police Station's Enforcement Squadron."

"Police Officer Su, hello." Sofia got up and shook hands with Su Ruyun, returning a warm smile.

"Don't call me Police Officer Su. Just call me Elegant from now on." Su Ruyun took Shen Xue's arm, walked to the sofa and sat down as if they were familiar with each other, "We are friends from now on. If anyone dares to bully you, tell me and I will beat him up for you."

"Thank you!"

"Don't be so polite with me. Right, your culinary skills are really too good. Your food is addictive. Can you cook for us more often in the future?" After a short conversation, Su Ruyun went straight to the point.

"Of course."

"Xue, you're really nice."

"I don't have any hobbies. I usually like to cook and when I see everyone eating happily, I'm very happy too. What do you like to eat, I'll make it for you tonight."

"I like spicy food ..."

The two began to chat around the delicacies. Soon, they were chatting and laughing like sisters.

As they finished their conversation, Su Ruyun couldn't help but warn him, "Wu Tian isn't a good person. You'd better stay away from him."

"What happened to him?" Shen Xue moved her head closer to Police Officer Su and asked in a low voice. She didn't expect Police Officer Su to hate Wu Tian so much.

She had been worried that the relationship between the two of them wasn't clear, so it seemed that her worries were unnecessary.

From Police Officer Su's attitude, it could be seen that she had no interest in Wu Tian. Her eyes were filled with disdain and contempt.

"Wu Tian is a hoodlum, and he even took advantage of me earlier." Su Ruyun gritted her teeth as she whispered.

"What a bastard." Hearing this, Shen Xue cursed loudly. Her heart was not at all pleasant.

"You must be careful, don't let that guy take advantage of you." Su Ruyun instructed. She didn't forget to comfort him, "If that guy takes advantage of you, then tell me and see how I'll deal with him."

"En!"

Shen Xue nodded and didn't say anything. She just glared at Wu Tian with a complicated expression.

Wu Tian naturally didn't know what the two girls were talking about. Seeing the two of them getting along so well, he also felt more at ease.

After he finished his breakfast, he bid farewell to the two girls and took a bus to school.

On the street not far from the school, Wu Tian saw a familiar figure. It was Teacher Mu Ran.

She was wearing a black suit today and was running down the street in a fluster with a drunk following behind her.

Could it be that Teacher Mu was being held back by the drunkard?

Thinking of this, Wu Tian quickly shouted at Uncle Fugui, "Uncle Fugui, hurry and stop the car."

"Creak!"

After shouting, the Red Flag Carriage came to a stop by the side of the road.

"Uncle Fugui, you go back first. Don't worry about me. I'll go to school by myself later." Wu Tian instructed Liu Fugui as he got off the car and ran in the direction of Teacher Mu.

Since it was very close to the school, it would only take a few minutes to walk, so Uncle Fugui didn't need to wait here.

When he crossed the street, Teacher Mu had fallen on a rock and was kneeling on the ground in agony.

The moment Teacher Mu fell to the ground, the drunkard quickly followed her. He opened his arms wide and pounced towards Teacher Mu.

"Ah, don't come over." Mu Ran screamed in fear as he tightly hugged his body and curled into a ball.

"Beauty, you are mine." The drunkard licked his lips and reached out to grab Mu Ran's thigh.

In a moment of desperation, Wu Tian flew over, raised his leg and kicked the drunkard hard. The drunk man was knocked over and Wu Tian then punched and kicked him.

"Hu!"

Mu Ran heaved a long sigh. Seeing Wu Tian suddenly appear, she felt more at ease.
