C37 Capturing the Azure Dragon

"Help me bring him to the Second People's Hospital." Wu Tian stared at the dazed and drowsy Azure Dragon for a few seconds before turning his head to look at Lin An.

"No problem." Lin An nodded. He immediately instructed his attendants to send Azure Dragon, who was on the verge of fainting, to the hospital.

"Thank you!" Wu Tian thanked him and left the underground boxing ring with Liu Jun.

The two of them played in the club for a while. When they felt that it was getting boring, they went their separate ways.

After returning home, Wu Tian first went to the bathroom to take a bath, then went to his study to read.

He has recently read a lot about futures, which has rekindled his interest in the futures market.

After reading and studying for a while, his view of the futures market had greatly improved. He decided to play futures once more.

This time was completely different from the last time, and he did not blindly invest. Before entering the market, he did a lot of analysis and preparation, and even used a few blueprints.

He was busy until the middle of the night before he made his preparations for entering the market.

In order to test the effectiveness of his studies during this period of time, he directly invested 15 million to purchase futures without setting a loss limit.

This time, his state of mind was calm, and was not as excited as when he first bought a futures.

After he bought it, he went to sleep.

Although he turned on the computer again the next day, Wu Tian didn't have much expectations within his heart. However, the moment he saw it, his eyes went wide open.

He never expected that the futures he bought last night would have their price skyrocketing by three times!

Now, he had earned a net profit of over 30 million!

Looking at the long string of numbers on his account, the corner of Wu Tian's mouth curled up and his blood started to boil in excitement.

Damn, he didn't expect that making money on the futures market was so quick, which actually caused his wealth to grow so much in one night.

It seemed that learning from books had been very effective during this period of time. His ability to analyze the futures market was very strong. This was a key factor in making money.

Of course, luck was also a big part of it. Futures were, after all, a form of prediction.

Excited, Wu Tian quickly withdrew from the market. He understood that he should just play around with this kind of thing. He must not indulge in it in order to avoid becoming addicted to it.

After breakfast, Wu Tian headed to the City Second Hospital. Seeing that Azure Dragon was getting better, he packed his stuff and prepared to leave the hospital.

"You're okay?" As he walked into the ward, Wu Tian glanced at the energetic Azure Dragon and sat down beside the sickbed.

Azure Dragon himself was fine, but because he had overused his stamina while fighting with others last night, along with sustaining a few superficial wounds, thus he passed out.

"You saved me last night?" Azure Dragon looked at Wu Tian and spoke with an unfriendly tone.

There was even a hint of rejection in his tone.

This kind of rejection was like the hatred ordinary people had towards the rich and powerful.

"It's me." Wu Tian nodded.

"Don't think that just because you saved me, I will be grateful to you." After Azure Dragon said this, he turned around and left without looking back.

Wu Tian was not angry with Azure Dragon's attitude. He said lightly, "You seem to have misunderstood me."

A disdainful voice rang out.

After passing by Wu Tian, Azure Dragon suddenly stopped paused in his steps, "In the eyes of you rich people, us lowly boxers are nothing but toys."

"You misunderstood."

Wu Tian stood up from his chair, walked over to Azure Dragon and said, "In my eyes, you are not a toy, but a a real and tough man."

"Is that so?"

Azure Dragon's eyes turned cold. He suddenly threw a punch at Wu Tian's face.

This punch was surprisingly fast and powerful. It was akin to an earth-shattering punch that caused a gale of wind to blow across the air.

The moment the fist came down, Wu Tian's heart trembled. He was instantly enveloped by fear and felt an aura of death that he never felt before. However, he did not dodge. Instead, he just stood there motionlessly without even blinking his eyes.

The toughness radiating from Azure Dragon's body had influenced his body. In front of this tough man, he was not afraid of death at all.

When the strong wind blew by, his fist finally stopped in front of Wu Tian's nose.

"Aren't you afraid of death?" Azure Dragon seemed to be shocked by Wu Tian's aura and his pupils slightly contracted.

Ever since he started fighting, he had never seen a man as calm and composed as this one. He looked down on the world with a grand demeanor, and he did not panic in the face of sudden danger.

"I'm afraid of death!"

Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled, "There is no one in this world who is not afraid of death, and I am no exception."

"Then why didn't you dodge just now?"

"If I dodge, I lose." Wu Tian slightly raised his head, "I have something in common with you, we both won't easily admit defeat."

"Is that so?"

Azure Dragon lowered his fist, and the look in his eyes became warmer, "It seems like you're different from the other rich people."

At this moment, he had already let down his guard, hiddenly having a good impression and sense of trust towards Wu Tian.

"Why do you want to be a boxer?" Wu Tian fished out a cigarette and handed it to Azure Dragon.

At the same time, he lit one.

Azure Dragon lit up his cigarette and slowly walked to the window. He took a drag from his cigarette and said, "In order to treat my sister's illness, I can only earn money from boxing." When he mentioned his sister, his tone became much gentler.

"What's wrong with your sister?"

"Obstructive anemia."

"This disease isn't easy to treat, but don't worry, I'll contact the best hospitals and specialists to treat your sister." Wu Tian took a few puffs and extinguished the cigarette in his hand.

It had been a long time since he had smoked, and he suddenly felt unaccustomed to it.

"You want to use this method to tie me down and let me fight for you?" Azure Dragon frowned and questioned coldly.

"You're thinking too much." Wu Tian looked up at Azure Dragon and said, "From now on, you are free. You don't need to fight anymore."

After saying this, he turned around and walked out of the ward.

"Stop!"

Azure Dragon's eyes narrowed. He couldn't help but ask, "Why are you helping me?"

"You are a tough guy with a backbone. You don't admit defeat, and you're not afraid of death. I really admire you. A person like you should be able to do more and not be trapped in the fist arena." Wu Tian's words were sonorous and his tone was very sincere.

These were his heartfelt words.

From the first time he saw Azure Dragon on stage, he already felt that this man was a moldable person and had wanted to win over him.

"Alright!"

Azure Dragon put out the cigarette in his hand, "Not for anything else, just based on your words alone, I, Azure Dragon, will follow you until my death."

He was hot-blooded, but depressed and frustrated. Ever since he was young, no one had ever admired him. In the eyes of those rich people, he was just a toy that could fight, and no one ever treated him as a human being.

Wu Tian's words seemed to have triggered the pain in his heart, allowing him to find a spiritual place to entrust himself to.

"I'm called Wu Tian. From today onwards, we are brothers. Let's fight together." Wu Tian walked over and patted Azure Dragon's shoulder.

To be able to make such a tough and resolute man bow his head made him feel extremely gratified and happy.

"Big Bother!" Azure Dragon cupped his hands and shouted.

This call of "Big Brother" was a sign of his submission to Wu Tian.

For someone like him, even if you killed him, you couldn't make him lower his head. But if you tamed him, he would be completely devoted towards you.

"Good brother." Wu Tian patted Azure Dragon's shoulder, "The most pressing matter now is to cure your sister. I will contact the hospital right now."
