

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 39 - Dispelling Moth

C39 Dispelling Moth

Walking out of the office, Zhang Tao stopped, turned around and said to Wu Tian, "Brat, you are just a country bumpkin. You don't have the qualifications to take the driving license test at our driving school. Get the hell out of here."

"Why am I not qualified?" Wu Tian asked coldly.

"You can't afford a car even if you get a driver's license, so get the hell out of here and don't waste your time." Zhang Tao waved his hands in annoyance, anxious to chase Wu Tian away.

"I want to see the principal."

"Who do you think you are, meeting the principal whenever you want to?" Zhang Tao shook his fist and yelled impatiently, "Get lost!"

At that moment, the door to the principal's office was pushed open. A middle-aged man wearing glasses walked out.

Seeing the bespectacled man, Zhang Tao quickly went forward to please him. "Principal Lu, if there's anything you want me to do, just tell me. Why would you do it by yourself?"

"Boss is here. Go out and welcome him immediately." Lu Dahai adjusted his glasses, holding up his status and ordered in a deep voice.

He was the principal of the Tengda Driving School, and was in charge of managing the driving school's affairs.

"Alright, I will immediately arrange someone to greet the boss." Upon hearing that the boss had arrived, Zhang Tao became nervous.

"Wait!"

The moment he raised his head, Lu Dahai's eyes suddenly lit up, staring at the young man in front of him.

He had just received a call from Boss Long. He heard that the big boss had come to the driving school and told him to come out and greet him.

At the same time, Boss Long also posted a picture of the big boss, which looked exactly the same as this young man in front of him.

Lu Dahai stared at the young man for a few moments and then took out his phone to look at the photo again. Soon, he confirmed that the young man in front of him was the big boss behind the scenes, Wu Tian.

He was so scared that his face tensed up. He quickly went up and bowed to greet them: "Oh, it's Mr Wu. Welcome Mr Wu."

Before Wu Tian could say anything, Zhang Tao couldn't help but remind Lu Dahai: "Principal Lu, why are you bowing to a country bumpkin?"

"What bumpkin?" Lu Dahai angrily cursed, pointed at Wu Tian and introduced: "This is the big boss behind our driving school, Wu Tian. Hurry up and greet the boss."

"What? H-he's the big boss?" Zhang Tao's eyes were wide open as he opened his mouth in disbelief.

"Nonsense, he's our boss."

The sound of something falling to the ground rang out. Zhang Tao was so scared that both his legs went limp and he fell onto the ground like a pile of mud.

Never in his wildest dreams did he expect that the cowardly bumpkin in his eyes was the big boss behind the scenes. This was simply a joke.

Why was his boss so young? Why was a Tycoon wearing such shabby clothes? Why was the big boss with Shen Xue?

Countless doubts assaulted his mind, causing him to feel dizzy.

Regardless of whether he was willing to believe it or not, the truth was right in front of him. This stupid brat in front of him was his boss.

To think that he was mocking and ridiculing this brat just now, ruthlessly humiliating this brat, even threatening him with his fists.

It's over, it's all over this time, this time he's in big trouble.

"Vice President Zhang, why are you lying on the ground when you see the boss? Hurry up and get up." Lu Dahai did not know what was going on, but seeing Zhang Tao lying on the ground, he quickly urged him to stand up.

"I ..."

Zhang Tao wanted to get up from the ground as well, but his legs were weak and cold sweat was dripping down his forehead.

This time, he had offended the big boss, and provoked huge disaster. Just thinking about the consequences made him afraid.

"What a Vice President! Relying on his power and bravado to bully others! Truly infuriating!" Wu Tian glared at Zhang Tao and scolded him angrily.

"Boss, I was wrong, I had eyes but could not recognize Mount Tai, I am a bastard ..."

Only then did Zhang Tao regain his senses and desperately tried to confess and apologize. Then, he raised his hand and viciously slapped a few times.

"You're fired." Wu Tian waved his hand and impatiently said, "Don't let me see you again in the future. Scram."

"Boss, I ..."

Seeing how determined Wu Tian was, Zhang Tao lowered his head. Tears of regret welled up in his eyes.

He had never regretted anything like this before. He had only acted tough in front of Shen Xue and ended up with such a miserable ending.

He had spent a lot of money to become the vice-principal of Tengda Driving School, and before he had even worked for even three days, he was fired by the big boss.

Lu Dahai still didn't understand the situation. He tried to ask: "Mr Wu, what, what is going on?"

"This bastard insulted me, and even threatened me with his fist." Wu Tian pointed at Zhang Tao, who was lying on the ground, and explained.

"What?"

"He was recruited by you?"

"Yes, yes, yes ..." Lu Dahai lowered his head. He was so scared that cold sweat was dripping down his forehead.

"Look at who you're recruiting, a scum like him can even enter our driving school?"

"Sorry boss, I was wrong."

"Throw him out."

"Yes, yes, yes." Lu Dahai wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. He quickly ordered his men to throw Zhang Tao out.

He did not want to provoke his anger just because of this matter.

Just like that, Zhang Tao was carried out of the driving school by someone and thrown away. This could be considered to be the removal of a tumor from the driving school.

"You are the principal of our Tengda Driving School?" Wu Tian asked with a low voice. The anger on his face did not dissipate.

"Yes sir!"

Lu Dahai slightly nodded his head and carefully introduced: "My name is Lu Dahai, Boss Long asked me to come over to manage Tengda Driving School."

"What are your plans?"

"I plan to first recruit students for free, expand the market, force the other ten driving schools in Luzhou onto a dead end, and then acquire them one by one ..."

Lu Dahai earnestly recounted his management strategy.

"Very good." Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. These strategies were in line with his own thoughts.

From the looks of it, the principal that Long Yun had chosen was not a useless person.

"Right." Wu Tian thought of Huihuang Driving School and could not help but ask: "How is Huihuang Driving School now?"

"They have already been forced into a corner by us. I believe they will not be able to hold on for long and will come to plead to us." Lu Dahai had a confident smile on his face.

The moment his voice fell, a woman in a suit hastily ran over, "Principal Lu, Huihuang Driving School's Shao Jinlong has brought people over ..."

Before she could finish, Shao Jinlong barged in with his nephew Shao Qiang and a few other driving school executives.

Shao Jinlong was no longer as arrogant and domineering as before. In just three days' time, he looked much older and more decadent.

"Principal Lu, I came here specifically to negotiate with you." Shao Jinlong licked his old face and smiled.

"Principal Shao came at the right time. Let me introduce our boss to you." Lu Dahai pointed at Wu Tian, who was beside him, and introduced him: "This is the big boss behind our Tengda Driving School, Mr. Wu Tian."

"It really is you." Seeing Wu Tian, Shao Jinlong's mouth twitched a few times and his old face instantly turned dark.

He had already suspected that the mastermind of Tengda Driving School had something to do with Wu Tian.

Only now did he dare to confirm that everything was Wu Tian's doing. As expected, this brat controlled Tengda to deal with their Huihuang Driving School.

However, he never expected that the kid in front of them would have such shocking power. He only needed three days to form the a dominating driving school and force them, the Huihuang Driving School, into a desperate situation.
