C401 Back to Luzhou

After a while, he heard Loong Yun's soft voice from the washroom, "Young Master, can you do me a favor?"

"Say it, what is it?" Wu Tian guessed that the woman probably ran out of sanitary napkins and asked him to buy them for her.

"I'm out of sanitary napkins, can you buy one for me, young master?"

"OK, no problem." Wu Tian agreed readily and hurried downstairs to buy the sanitary towel back.

He took the recently bought sanitary towel and knocked on the door.

"Secretary Loong, everything is ready. Open the door."

"Young master, please wait." After a while, Loong Yun finally opened the door of the bathroom a crack.

Wu Tian looked into the washroom with shifty eyes. Unfortunately, he couldn't see anything as Secretary Loong was hiding behind the door.

"Here, yours." Wu Tian smacked his lips in disappointment a few times, then stuffed the sanitary towel into the gap.

"Thank you, Young Master." Loong Yun took the sanitary towel and quickly closed the door and locked it, afraid that her young master would see.

Wu Tian shook his head with a wry smile. He lazily laid on the bed and watched TV. He waited for a long time before he saw Loong Yun walk out from the toilet.

She glanced at Wu Tian and then walked to the bed. She sat down. Her face was blushing and her eyes were filled with the gentleness of a mature woman.

"Are you hungry? Do you want to go out to eat?" Wu Tian stretched his back, feeling sleepy and hungry at the same time.

Loong Yun gritted her teeth and suggested, "It's already so late. Why don't we order some takeout?"

"Alright." Wu Tian nodded his head, and then instructed: "Then order two takeouts, and also book the plane ticket to Luzhou for tomorrow."

"Yes." After Loong Yun answered, she took out her phone and began to busy herself.

In less than twenty minutes, the takeout they had ordered arrived.

After dinner, the two of them cleaned up and went to sleep on their respective beds.

Maybe it was because he was too tired, Wu Tian fell asleep very quickly. Even with a beauty like Loong Yun lying beside him, he couldn't muster up any interest.

Firstly, his arm was injured last night, and he had lost a lot of blood. Secondly, Secretary Loong had her period, so no matter how pretty she was, she couldn't touch him.

For these two reasons, Wu Tian went to sleep early.

When he woke up in the middle of the night, Loong Yun was sitting up in bed, staring at him with tears in her eyes.

Maybe it was because he was too sleepy, Wu Tian did not pay attention to Secretary Loong. He rolled over and went back to sleep.

When he woke up the next day, he found that Loong Yun had already finished packing, except for the dark circles around her eyes.

"You didn't sleep all night, did you?" Wu Tian got out of bed and tried to care about her.

"I... I can't sleep." Loong Yun looked straight ahead, her tone slightly cold.

"Why can't you sleep?"

"I don't know."

"When I woke up last night, you were staring at me in a daze. You can't be thinking about me and couldn't fall asleep, right?"

"Nope." Loong Yun bit her lips indifferently. Looking at the time, she said, "Young master, boarding time is almost up. Get up and get ready. Let's go."

"Alright!" Wu Tian didn't ask any further questions. Secretary Loong felt like her usual indifference had returned overnight.

Only the night before and the day before yesterday had Secretary Loong been especially gentle and feminine, and now her womanly aura had disappeared.

After a simple wash, Wu Tian brought Loong Yun to the airport in the capital, then took a flight back to Luzhou.

The three-day trip to the capital was over. Wu Tian finally got his wish, and he saw the world's closest grandfather.

From his actions and words, it could be seen that his grandfather still loved him a lot. He had poured a lot of feelings into his heart, wanting him to become the best successor.

This meeting with Grandfather also allowed him to clearly understand the current situation of Wu Family. At the moment, Wu Family could be said to be fraught both internally and externally.

There were the sons of the inner clan fighting for power, and outside, Shangguan Family were eyeing them covetously. Right now, there was a great threat to the Wu Family.

While his grandfather had given him a mission this time, asking him to think of a way to eliminate a portion of the power of the Shangguan Family. This was a test for him.

The only flaw in this meeting with his grandfather was that he had contradicted his grandfather in order to protect Secretary Loong, causing his grandfather to become furious.

There was nothing that he could do. If he didn't show himself, Secretary Loong would be destroyed. No matter what, he couldn't just watch as Secretary Loong was destroyed.

To him, protecting his secretary was only a matter of course. It was something every man should do.

However, this matter had left a deep imprint in Loong Yun's heart.

For a lowly secretary like her to be so highly regarded and protected by her young master made her feel especially touched.

To be able to meet such a loyal master like Wu Tian. Loong Yun felt honored and swore in her heart that she would stay and serve the young master for the rest of her life to repay his kindness to her.

Before boarding, Loong Yun had already called Uncle Fugui and arranged for him to pick up the plane at Luzhou Airport.

After the plane landed, the two walked out of the hall and saw Uncle Fugui waiting at the entrance with Azure Dragon, Xiaofeng, and Huang Lan.

"Why are all of you here?" Wu Tian quickly greeted them.

Huang Lan leaned against her red sports car and didn't say anything. On the other hand, Xiaofeng sweetly spat out, "My brother came to pick you up, so I came with him."

"Xiaofeng, why aren't you in school?" Wu Tian rubbed Xiaofeng's head and said with a face full of concern.

"I don't need to attend class this weekend."

"Right, I almost forgot."

"Sister Xue and Sister Su are waiting for you at home to cook. Let's go." Xiaofeng reached out to hug Wu Tian's arm as she said this.

She hugged Wu Tian right at the wound on his arm, causing Wu Tian to grimace in pain and gasp a few times.

Xiaofeng was so scared that she quickly let go of her arm and asked with concern, "Elder Brother Tian, what's wrong?"

"I'm fine." Wu Tianqiang endured the pain in his arm as he forced out an ugly smile.

"Hurry up and let me see, are you injured?" Xiaofeng quickly rolled up Wu Tian's sleeves after asking this question.

When she saw the bloody marks on the bandage on Wu Tian's arm, she asked with concern, "Elder Brother Tian, how did you get injured?"

Huang Lan, who had been silent all this time, also hurried forward and asked while staring at Wu Tian's wound: "Hey, how did you get injured like this after travelling for a few days?"

"It's just a small wound, nothing serious." Wu Tian pulled down his sleeves to cover his wound. He didn't want to explain to Ye Zichen that he was hurt.

"You're already so injured, and you still say you're fine." Huang Lan's expression stiffened as she turned to look at Loong Yun, "Secretary Loong, what's going on?"

"We met a few hooligans in the capital. In order to save me, Young Master accidentally got injured." Loong Yun explained with an expressionless face.

"If we knew this would happen, we should have let Azure Dragon go with us."

"Alright, this is no big deal." Wu Tian grinned and said to Huang Lan and Xiaofeng, "I'm hungry. Let's go home and eat!"

With that, he pulled Xiaofeng's arm and sat on the Red Flag Carriage.

Azure Dragon followed closely behind. Loong Yun took her luggage and sat in Huang Lan's car. The group returned to the Aifei Castle.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 402 - A Cozy Dinner -

C402 A Cozy Dinner

When he returned to the castle, he found that Shen Xue and Su Ruyun had already cooked a lot of delicious food at home. There were almost fifteen dishes, and the moment he entered, he could smell the fragrance of the dishes.

"I'm so happy." When Wu Tian saw so many delicious dishes, he couldn't help but drool. When he walked into the restaurant, he was prepared to directly carry the food with his hands.

"Don't eat!"

Shen Xue slapped Wu Tian's hand and chided him, "You haven't washed your hands yet, how can you grab it with your hands?"

"Ok, then I'll go wash my hands first. I'll catch them after I do." After saying that, Wu Tian walked towards the bathroom.

He had only taken a few steps when he heard Shen Xue's playful voice. "You can't eat with your hands even if you wash them. You can eat with chopsticks."

"Sister Xue, Elder Brother Tian is injured. It might be inconvenient for him to eat." At this moment, Xiaofeng walked into the restaurant and reminded Shen Xue.

"Is he hurt?" Shen Xue's face tightened as she asked urgently, "Where is he injured?"

"Right arm."

"How did he get hurt?"

"I heard that when he was protecting Secretary Loong, his arm was stabbed by a hoodlum."

"I'll go take a look." Shen Xue quickly took off her apron and rushed into the bathroom as fast as she could. She said with concern to Wu Tian, who was washing his hands, "Quick, let me see your arm."

"It's just a small wound, it's fine." Wu Tian raised his sleeves and pointed at the wound, "It's just a superficial wound."

"You're still bleeding. The gauze has been dyed red."

"I'm fine."

"You've already lost so much blood, and you still say that you're fine?"

"Not much blood, not as much as your menstrual blood." When he saw Shen Xue's anxious expression, Wu Tian couldn't help but tease her.

"You ..."

Shen Xue pouted and scolded angrily, "You scoundrel, you're injured to such an extent. You're still in the mood to joke around."

"It's really just a small wound."

"After you finish eating, come with me to the hospital. Your wounds need to be treated and bandaged again."

"Ok!" Wu Tian nodded and dragged Shen Xue out of the bathroom, "I'm hungry, let's go eat first."

Su Ruyun greeted them as soon as they left the bathroom. "I heard your arm was injured?"

"I didn't expect Police Officer Su to care about me." Wu Tian scratched his head in surprise.

"You're thinking too much." Su Ruyun glanced at Wu Tian's arm and viciously said, "For someone like you, it's well-deserved that your arm is broken."

"Police Officer Su's mouth is really malicious."

"Because you always take advantage of me."

"Police Officer Su, I ..." Wu Tian was about to reach out his hand to flirt with this girl, but he was interrupted by Shen Xue: "Alright, let's eat first. We can talk after the meal."

"Alright, let's eat." Wu Tian walked towards the restaurant first, and after taking his seat, he instructed Azure Dragon, "There are so many dishes today. Go and get Aunt Liu and Xiaohao."

Usually, it was Uncle Fugui's family that cooked their meals alone. Today, there were so many dishes, so he called them over to have a meal.

"Yes."

After Azure Dragon answered, he quickly went to bring Xiaohao and Uncle Fugui's wives over.

"Come, Xiaohao, come over here and sit." Wu Tian carried Xiaohao to his side and sat down, "Tell me what you want to eat."

"Big sister Xue's food is too delicious ..." Liu Xiaohao was drooling.

Liu Fugui was beside him, and he gave Liu Xiaohao a little scolding. His words were interrupted by Wu Tian. "It's all right, I'll feed Xiaohao."

"Everyone, don't be lost in thought. Sit, everyone. Azure Dragon, Secretary Loong, you two sit as well." Wu Tian arranged for everyone to take their seats and then took out a few bottles of good wine. "We men drink white wine while the women drink red wine. Let us toast."

"Tian, I can't drink alcohol while driving, so I won't drink." Liu Fugui licked his lips. He looked like he wanted to drink.

He loved wine, too, but his profession was chauffeur, and no matter how much he craved it, he could not drink.

"Uncle Fugui, I'll give you a break today. Drink to your heart's content. Afterwards, accompany Xiaohao for a walk and play football. In the afternoon, you don't need to drive." After Wu Tian finished speaking, he poured Liu Fugui a full cup.

"Thank you, Tian." Liu Fugui carefully raised his glass and said gratefully, "Tian, if it wasn't for you, my family wouldn't be able to live this kind of life. Let me toast you with this cup."

"Uncle Fugui is too polite. You're an elder, so I should toast you." Wu Tian hurriedly held up his wine cup, and after clinking it with Liu Fugui's, he drank the wine in the cup.

After he finished drinking, Wu Tian gave Azure Dragon a meaningful glance, "You're a junior, hurry and toast Uncle Fugui."

"Alright!" Azure Dragon was quite straightforward and didn't say much. He raised his glass and clinked it with Liu Fugui's. Then, he finished it in one gulp.

The three men were drinking heartily while the women were chatting and laughing. They were all teased by Xiaohao to the point of bursting out in laughter.

The only person who didn't speak at all was Loong Yun. She just sat there like a log with no expression on her face.

Everyone was drinking, chatting, and laughing. It was as lively as a New Year celebration.

After dinner, everyone brought Xiaohao and Xiaofeng to play in the winery. They chased each other to have fun, and were especially happy.

In this fast-paced era, everyone rarely had this carefree and happy time. It was as if they had all recovered the feeling of childhood.

Wu Tian lit up a cigarette and instructed Loong Yun, "Go find the medicine box and help me change the medicine."

"Young Master, should we go to the hospital to check?" Loong Yun glanced at the wound on Wu Tian's arm and asked.

"No need, just help me bandage it up."

"Yes sir!" After Loong Yun replied, she found a medicine chest and helped her Young Master change the medicine.

Wu Tian exhaled a breath of smoke, he looked up at the ceiling and said as if he was talking to himself: "How much power does Shangguan Family have in Luzhou?"

"I'm not sure yet." Loong Yun changed the medicine seriously, her expression still calm and indifferent.

"Go and thoroughly investigate them, and figure out the powers behind the Shangguan Family as soon as possible. I need to get hold of their details, then think of a way to deal with them."

"Yes, I'll do it right away." Loong Yun had already changed the medicine, so she left the room with the medicine box after answering.

Wu Tian stood up and walked to the window as he looked into the distance.

On the green field opposite, Shen Xue and Su Ruyun were playing soccer with Xiaohao, and their laughter sounded especially melodious.

Not far away, Huang Lan was teaching Xiaofeng how to write lyrics on the lakeside. From time to time, he could hear the two singing softly.

Closer, Uncle Fugui was drunk and playing chess with Azure Dragon. From time to time, he could hear the two arguing.

*

Wu Tian exhaled a mouthful of smoke. The corner of his mouth slowly rose, revealing a happy smile.

Looking at the scene in front of him, he felt relaxed and comfortable. There was an indescribable warmth in his heart.

He hoped that in the near future, the descendants of Wu Family would be as happy and happy as them. He hoped they wouldn't keep hurting each other over money and power.

After he finished smoking, Wu Tian turned around and went to the study room.

In the past few days, he had gone to the capital, so he had neglected his studies. In the following two days, he devoted all his energy to his studies.

Because neither Xiaohao nor Xiaofeng had gone to school, he had often heard them laughing in the manor house over the past two days.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 403 - Your Mind Has Been Wandering from Class Recently? -

C403 Your Mind Has Been Wandering from Class Recently?

On Monday, Wu Tian got up early to go to school, before the school, received a call from Qiao Fugang.

"Director Qiao, I'm sorry. A few days ago, you called me. I was out on a business trip." The moment the call connected, Wu Tian explained to his phone.

Previously in the capital, he had received a call from Qiao Fugang, telling him about the movie. At that time, he was too busy meeting with his grandfather, so he hung up without saying a few words.

"Boss Wu, the reason why I called you a few days ago was because I wanted you to attend the proclamation ceremony. I didn't expect you to be out of the country." On the phone, Qiao Fugang's laughter was especially candid.

"Are you all right?"

"Very well."

"That's good."

"Also, tell Boss Wu a piece of good news, that our movie premiere was very successful, and that our reputation was very well-known, which is very popular among university students." Qiao Fugang was unable to hide his excitement.

"Great."

"Such a good reputation, our box office definitely won't be bad."

"Oh right, when will the movie be released?" Wu Tian was so busy recently that he forgot about the release time.

Perhaps only an investor like Wu Tian would be so careless and invest 80 million in a movie. In the end, he forgot the release time.

Qiao Fugang was stunned for a moment. Perhaps he did not expect Boss Wu to forget about the release time of the movie.

After a slight pause, he quickly replied, "Boss Wu, our movie will be released tonight."

"Tonight?"

"Right."

"Then I'll go to the cinema tonight."

"Whether the movie will succeed or not will depend on tonight." On the other end of the phone, Qiao Fugang was both excited and nervous, "I hope our movie can be sold very well."

"Hopefully!" Compared to Qiao Fugang's nervous excitement, Wu Tian was very calm.

After all, he was just an investor. If the movie was successful, he would be able to make a huge profit. If he failed, it wouldn't be a big loss to him.

However, it was different for Qiao Fugang. After all, he had put too much effort and effort into this movie, so he hoped that the movie would go viral and he would become famous.

After a simple conversation with Director Qiao, Wu Tian hung up the phone and booked a ticket to the Flowers Bloom That Year. Then, he walked towards the classroom.

There was still half an hour before class, and the classroom was bustling with activity. He hadn't expected everyone to be talking about the movie that was going to be released tonight.

Perhaps it was due to the initial publicity, coupled with the fact that his name had exploded on the screen, and the fact that the plot happened to be a youthful love story that suited the tastes of university students, which was why it had such a far-reaching impact among the students.

Many of the students in the class were discussing the plot of the Flowers Bloom That Year, some talking about the actors in the movies.

He learned from the discussion that everyone was looking forward to the plot, but the actor's popularity was too low and everyone doubted the actor's acting skills.

Some even worried that because of the actor's low popularity and poor acting skills, he would end up ruining the movie.

Wu Tian turned a deaf ear to these comments. He opened the book and started to seriously read, reviewing the studies that he had left behind during the past few days of truancy.

While he was staring at the book and reading earnestly, Lee Meng walked over. She was wearing a short dress with a sling on it, and her makeup was slightly thick as if she had intentionally dressed up for this occasion.

Lee Meng cleared her throat, took out two tickets from her pocket and handed them over. "Are you free tonight? Can I invite you to a movie?"

"I don't have time." Wu Tian looked up at the two tickets and realized that the tickets that Lee Meng had bought were the new Flowers Bloom That Year s that he had invested in.

Coincidentally, the two films and the one he bought were both in the Milky Way studios on Youth Road.

It was just that he didn't want to have anything to do with Lee Meng anymore, so he refused very decisively without the slightest hesitation.

Previously when he was pursuing Lee Meng, this girl was also ruthless. Every time she rejected him, she was decisive and he would never care about his dignity and face.

"Don't misunderstand, I just want to watch a movie with you." Lee Meng stroked her hair and pleaded, "This is the only time, okay?"

"No." Wu Tian still refused bluntly.

Surprisingly, he didn't expect Lee Meng to be so thick-skinned. After being rejected by him several times, she was still so brazen as to come and beg him.

Lee Meng looked exactly like the person he used to pursue her.

Lee Meng didn't give up. She pinched the ticket in her hand and gathered up her courage. "Since we're classmates, can't you accompany me to a movie once?"

"No." Wu Tian already lost his patience and warned coldly: "Remember, don't bother me anymore. The more you are like this, the more disgusting I feel."

"You ..."

The corner of Lee Meng's mouth twitched in anger. She raised her head slightly and gritted her teeth. "Do you really think I can't find a man just because I left you?"

"That's your problem, it has nothing to do with me." Wu Tian smiled coldly and lowered his head to continue reading.

"Wu Tian, remember, I will definitely find a boy stronger than you." After saying that, Lee Meng stomped back to her seat.

Wu Tian didn't care about what Ye Zichen said and continued to read seriously.

Today's first class was Teacher Mu Ran's class. When Wu Tian saw Teacher Mu walk into the classroom, his eyes lit up.

He did not expect Teacher Mu to wear a short skirt today. She had also done her hair, and she wore a light makeup on her face. She was more exquisite, more mature, and more sexy than before.

He never thought that Teacher Mu would dress up so prettily. Not only Wu Tian was dumbfounded, all the male students were staring with their eyes wide open.

Mu Ran was obviously not used to these gazes, but she didn't say much. She just stared at Wu Tian for a few seconds and then began to lecture seriously.

Usually, Wu Tian would be very serious during class, but today, his mind was wandering and he would occasionally look at Teacher Mu's thigh.

He hadn't realized before that Teacher Mu's figure was so pleasing to the eyes. Her two slender and beautiful legs were like sculpted jade, dazzling the eyes of her classmates.

Mu Ran slammed her palm on the table and reprimanded Wu Tian: "Wu Tian, what are you looking at?"

"Nothing." Wu Tian came back to his senses and quickly looked away from Teacher Mu's legs.

"Listen well to the class and don't get distracted." Mu Ran rolled her eyes at Wu Tian and continued with the class as if nothing had happened.

In her heart, however, she couldn't help but feel regret. She really regretted buying such a short skirt, not letting these male students have the mood to attend class.

Especially Wu Tian, his eyes were unbridled. He stared at her legs and kept swallowing his saliva.

This wretched look made her angry and embarrassed, but she couldn't say anything. She could only endure and continue with her lecture.

Fortunately, Teacher Mu only had one lesson today. After she finished her lesson, she said to Wu Tian, "Classmate Wu, come with me for a while."

"Yes." After Wu Tian answered, he could only obediently follow them out.

Without even thinking about it, he knew that the reason Teacher Mu called him out alone was definitely to criticize his education.

After walking out of the classroom, Mu Ran asked in a deep voice, "What happened to you today? Why do you keep getting distracted during class? "

"I've never seen you in such a short skirt before. I thought you looked really good today, so I was distracted." Wu Tian told the truth.

"You ..."

Mu Ran was inexplicably happy when she heard this.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 404 - Film Release -

C404 Film Release

As a teacher, Mu Ran naturally didn't show her happiness. She reprimanded him sincerely, "Classmate Wu, do you know that it's rude for you to be staring at your teacher's body like that?"

"I'm sorry teacher, I was wrong." Wu Tian immediately became a good kid and apologized to the teacher.

"In the future, you must not use this kind of gaze to stare at my body in class. Do you understand?"

"Understood." Wu Tian first nodded his head and then couldn't help but ask: "If I leave the classroom, would it be possible for me to appreciate the teacher's figure?"

"No."

Embarrassed, Mu Ran scolded angrily, "No matter what the time is, you must not stare at my body."

"In the future, when I talk to Teacher Mu, I will look at the ceiling so that I won't accidentally offend Teacher." After saying that, Wu Tian raised his head and looked at the ceiling.

"Are you purposely bragging?"

"I don't dare."

"You're rude." After reprimanding him, Mu Ran turned around and left at a brisk pace.

As soon as she went downstairs, her cheeks gradually turned red, and her heart began to beat faster.

She didn't know what was going on, but it made her feel nervous when facing Wu Tian, especially when Wu Tian's eyes were on her legs.

She could be calm and collected when facing other guys, but every time she was in front of Wu Tian, she felt uncomfortable all over.

It seemed like she had to keep a distance from Wu Tian in the future, so she couldn't get too close to him.

"What's going on?" Looking at Teacher Mu's fleeing figure, Wu Tian couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

To be honest, Teacher Mu looked a little weird today. Not only was she wearing makeup, but she was also wearing a short skirt. The look in her eyes was very strange.

Could it be that Teacher Mu had fallen in love, which was why she had such an abnormal behavior?

Teacher Mu had such high standards. What kind of man could she possibly have her eyes on?

Wu Tian returned to the classroom with a bit of curiosity and continued his lesson.

After school, Wu Tian went directly to the Milky Way Cinema on Youth Road. He didn't expect that the attendance in the cinema would be quite high.

After finding his location, he prepared to take a seat when he saw a familiar figure walking in his direction.

It was Teacher Mu Ran. He did not expect Teacher Mu to also be here to watch movies.

Just as he was about to greet Teacher Mu, he saw her walking over with the movie ticket.

Mu Ran was still wearing the same short skirt. When she saw Wu Tian, she was stunned and couldn't help but ask in surprise, "Student Wu Tian, why are you here?"

"What a coincidence, Teacher Mu. I'm here to see a movie too." Wu Tian grinned. Coming to the cinema was obviously to watch a movie, it's not like they were going to eat!

"What a coincidence." Mu Ran stroked her hair. She did not expect to be in the same movie theater as Wu Tian.

She had wanted to keep her distance from Wu Tian this morning, but she didn't expect to see him again so soon.

"Oh right, Teacher Mu, where's your seat?" At the same time Wu Tian asked, he had already received the movie ticket from Mu Ran.

When he saw the position on the ticket, he couldn't help but exclaim once again, "Teacher Mu, what a coincidence. You're right next to me."

Mu Ran took the tickets and looked. Sure enough, it was right next to Wu Tian.

To be honest, even she was surprised by this coincidence.

She casually bought a ticket, but she didn't expect to sit with Wu Tian.

"Teacher Mu, please take a seat." Wu Tian helped Teacher Mu to wipe the chair politely and asked with a smile, "Is Teacher Mu alone?"

"That's right!" Mu Ran smiled awkwardly and sat down next to Wu Tian. She felt uncomfortable all over.

If her classmates saw her sitting with Wu Tian watching a movie, they might gossip behind her back.

However, there was nothing she could do. Since she had already come, she couldn't just leave.

"What a coincidence, I'm also alone." After sitting down, Wu Tian asked, "Why did Teacher Mu want to watch a movie here?"

"This movie is an adaptation of my favorite novel. I heard that its reputation is exceptionally good. I came to take a look."

"I didn't expect Teacher Mu to like this kind of young love drama."

"Am I old?"

"No, I didn't mean that." Wu Tian waved his hand and hurriedly explained, "Teacher Mu is usually dignified and calm, giving off a very mature feeling."

"Alright, let's watch the movie!" Mu Ran stared at the screen without saying anything.

There were still a few minutes until the movie would be officially shown. On the screen, it was showing the trailer and a few highlights.

Wu Tian still wanted to chat with the teacher, but seeing that Teacher Mu was ignoring him, he swallowed his words back.

At seven in the evening, under everyone's expectation, the Flowers Bloom That Year officially opened.

The film tells a beautiful love story, the beginning of the story to attract the eye by the reverse, and the people into the situation.

Love between a man and a woman, after all kinds of tribulations, ends with a happy ending.

The whole story is very good, the actors acting well, especially the climax part, can lead everyone into a kind of heart-wrenching grief.

After experiencing this kind of grief, everyone was finally comforted by the warm and blissful scene in front of their eyes.

After watching the movie for a long time, the audience was still immersed in the joy and happiness.

Wu Tian was quite satisfied with this movie. Seeing how much the audience liked it, he felt more at ease.

Judging by the reputation and audience reaction, this was a very successful movie and he was only waiting for tomorrow's box office income.

For a movie, the box office directly determines whether the movie is good or bad, and the box office is the best test for the film in the market.

"Teacher Mu, how's this movie?" After watching the movie, Wu Tian could not help but ask Teacher Mu for her opinion.

"Alright, this is the most beautiful movie I've seen in recent years." Mu Ran nodded in satisfaction and commented, "The story is novel, full of emotions and exquisite. The acting skills of the actors are all very good. It's really a good play."

"I didn't expect Teacher Wu to have such a high opinion of this movie. It looks like my investment this time wasn't wrong." After hearing Teacher Mu's evaluation, Wu Tian felt a lot more relieved.

"What did you say?" Mu Ran's brows tightened as she vaguely understood the meaning behind Wu Tian's words.

"To be honest." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled, he pointed to the ending on the screen and said: "I invested money into this movie about Flowers Bloom That Year."

"I saw it." Mu Ran's eyes lit up as she stared at the screen. "The ending of the movie does indeed have your name."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian didn't notice. Hearing Teacher Mu's words, he really did notice his name at the end of the movie.

"I didn't expect you to invest in this movie." Mu Ran stroked her hair and said with a face full of gratification, "You sure are capable."

"Back then when I saw the script, I really liked this scenario. That's why I invested into this movie. I didn't expect the effects to be so good."

"You picked this movie. You have good eyes."

"It's still hard to say." Wu Tian stopped smiling and said seriously, "Whether we can sell it well will depend on tomorrow's box office."

"There's no doubt that this movie will definitely be sold very well." Mu Ran stroked her hair and smiled. "I'll come and take a look again tomorrow."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 405 - The Big Star Came -

C405 The Big Star Came

"Thank you, Teacher Mu, for your praise." Wu Tian stood up and bowed deeply towards Mu Ran. He pretended to exaggerate his words of gratitude as he said, "I will never forget Teacher Mu's kindness towards me."

"Don't tease me." Mu Ran rolled her eyes slightly and said sternly, "I didn't mean to support you. I just thought this movie was really good."

"No matter how good the movie looks, it's not as good as Teacher Mu."

"Screw off." Mu Ran scolded and stood up. "It's getting late tonight. I'll go back first."

"Teacher Mu, I'll send you back."

Wu Tian was about to follow her, but he was stopped by Mu Ran. "Don't, I don't need you to send me off. Wait here for a while, when I'm out of the movie theater first, then you can leave so we won't be seen."

"We didn't do anything, why should we be afraid of others seeing?"

"Listen to me, I'll leave first. You can leave later." Mu Ran's tone was very strict.

"Alright!" Seeing Teacher Mu's insistence, Wu Tian could only nod and reply, "Then Teacher Mu, be careful."

"Don't worry, I'll be fine." Having said so, Mu Ran turned around and quickly left the cinema.

Wu Tian sat in his seat and waited for a while. He only stood up to leave after he saw that most of the people in the movie theater had left.

After taking a few steps, he saw Lee Meng and a boy with oily hair and powdered cheeks walking out of the cinema.

Wu Tian had refused Lee Meng's invitation and didn't accompany her to the movies. He didn't expect this woman to find a guy to accompany her.

He seemed to have seen the boy somewhere before, but he couldn't remember where.

Wu Tian didn't want to greet Lee Meng at first, but who knew that she walked over while holding the arm of a boy with a face covered in oil and powder.

"Let me introduce you." Lee Meng held onto the man's arm and boasted, "This is my new boyfriend. How about it? He's not worse than you, right?"

"Congratulations." Wu Tian smiled lightly, turned around and continued to walk outside.

In the end, he was blocked by Lee Meng. He pointed at the boy with the face covered in oil and powder and said, "Don't be in such a hurry to leave. I want you to get to know my new boyfriend."

"Is it necessary?" Seeing Lee Meng's persistent look, Wu Tian's expression was extremely ugly.

"Of course it's necessary." Lee Meng gritted her teeth and pushed the greasy-faced man in front of Wu Tian, "His name is Su di, he's a famous movie star with great Luzhou."

She was chased by Su di for a long time before she agreed. This time, she suddenly agreed to watch a movie with Su di because she wanted to tell Wu Tian that someone loved her.

A movie star could still be her boyfriend if she wanted to.

"Su di, right?" Wu Tian looked at the man before him and asked, "Have we met you somewhere before?"

"Don't you think it's a bit old-fashioned for us to get close to each other like that?" Lee Meng mocked him coldly, thinking that Wu Tian was trying to get close to a famous celebrity.

She had repeatedly put down her figure and begged to be reunited with Wu Tian. However, this man would mercilessly reject her every time, not giving her any face at all.

Now that her patience had run out, she only wanted to find a man better than Wu Tian, so she chose to be together with Su di.

It seemed like the halo of being a celebrity was really amazing. Even Wu Tian couldn't help but get close to him. At this moment, she was very proud of herself.

"I don't need to get close to anyone." After Wu Tian said this, he turned around and prepared to leave.

"Halt!"

At this time, Su di, who had been silent all this time, suddenly opened his mouth. He stared at Wu Tian for a few seconds, then turned to Lee Meng and asked, "Who is he? What is his name?"

"His name is Wu Tian, he's my ex-boyfriend." After Lee Meng said this, she grabbed onto Su di's arm and purposely attacked Wu Tian, "Compared to you, he's too far behind."

"You said he's Wu Tian?" Su di couldn't help but exclaim as if he had just discovered a new continent.

"That's Wu Tian, what's wrong?"

"Boss Wu." Su di pushed Lee Meng away and grabbed onto Boss Wu's arm, trying to curry favor with him, "I was wondering why you look so familiar. So you really are Boss Wu."

"We've met before?" Wu Tian felt that Su di's face was very familiar. He must have seen him somewhere before.

But he still couldn't remember where they had met.

"The last ceremony ended. I met Boss Wu at Shangri-La Hotel." Su di held Wu Tian's arm and said excitedly, "What a coincidence! I didn't expect to meet Boss Wu so soon."

"Stop!"

When Lee Meng saw her new boyfriend being so enthusiastic about Wu Tian, she immediately got angry and grabbed Su di's arm, "Hey, what are you trying to say?"

"Lee Meng, since Boss Wu is your ex-boyfriend, you two must know each other. Hurry up and introduce me." Su di pleaded with Lee Meng in a fawning manner.

"You're a big star, why do you have to know people like Wu Tian?" Lee Meng questioned with a puzzled expression.

In her opinion, Su di was very famous in the Luzhou and entertainment industry. Although he was not as rich as Wu Tian, his fame and influence must be much stronger than Wu Tian.

There was no need for such a movie star to curry favor with a businessman, right?

"What do you know?" Su di glared fiercely at Lee Meng, pointed at Wu Tian and explained, "Boss Wu is a famous figure in the entertainment industry. How can a star like me be compared with Boss Wu?"

He had previously seen Boss Wu's strength during the slaughter ceremony. Even Changshan's movie and Huamei Group could not compare to Boss Wu's, so it showed how powerful Boss Wu's power was.

"You said that Wu Tian is a big shot of the entertainment circle?" Lee Meng frowned slightly in doubt.

She only knew that Wu Tian ran two flow restaurants and a Technology Company restaurant, and was also the school's Martial Arts Club president. She never knew that Wu Tian was involved in film and television entertainment.

"Of course, Boss Wu is very important in the entertainment circle." After Su di said that, he pointed at the screen and said, "Oh yeah, the Flowers Bloom That Year movie was filmed by Boss Wu."

"What? He invested in this movie?" Lee Meng's eyes widened in shock, her eyeballs almost popping out of their sockets.

The Flowers Bloom That Year was her most beloved movie. It took away her countless points of laughter and tears, allowing her to find the power to move forward amidst her helplessness and disappointment.

It was exactly this kind of movie that had such a huge impact on her and had hit her heart, but it was actually Wu Tian who had invested money to shoot it.

Why did she suddenly feel that this man was omnipotent? He had suddenly created a lot of things that she loved.

Previously, she fell in love with the weekly Mobile Game, but didn't expect that this game was created by Wu Tian. Afterwards, she was infatuated with the work of the Martial Arts Club Guild Leader, she didn't expect Wu Tian to be the President. Now that she had produced her most beloved movie, she didn't think that it was also Wu Tian who invested in it behind the scenes.

All the things she liked were related to Wu Tian. Even her favorite restaurant was invested by Wu Tian.

Wu Tian, who she didn't pay attention to before, suddenly became omnipotent and created a lot of things she liked.

She actually brought a big star along to be cocky in front of Wu Tian.

In front of Wu Tian, this so-called superstar was just a small character, not even worth mentioning.

Lee Meng Mu Na stood on the spot, the corner of her mouth slowly rising in a self-deprecating smile.

She felt like she was a clown in front of Wu Tian.
