

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 431 - She Is Jealous

C431 She Is Jealous

"Alright." Pausing for a few seconds, Wu Tian continued: "I know that you all hope that Huaxing Company will develop well. Now that I have already signed the contract with President Zhang, and I have officially joined the company, this fact cannot be changed."

"How about this, give me three months. If I can turn the situation around and win within three months, you guys can stay. If the company still loses after three months, it won't be too late for you to leave." Seeing that the fight was not going to end, Wu Tian could only find such a way out.

He was confident that he could turn the company around and win within three months.

Even after three months, the company won't be able to make a profit. By then, the company will be in order, and even if some of the executives leave, it won't make much of a difference.

Simply put, this was the so-called strategy of delaying the war.

The executives discussed in hushed tones. In the end, they could only accept this suggestion.

After all, everyone only wanted to force Zhang Huaqiao to stay, and not really to leave the Huaxing. Seeing that the truth had been revealed, there was nothing else to say.

What's more, Wu Tian had a wide range of businesses. He had many good companies under his management, so he didn't have to worry about not being able to pay them.

As for whether Boss Wu could develop the Huaxing company, that was a story for the future. They could only take things one step at a time.

"I've said what I needed to say. Those who are willing to stay, I will increase the treatment by 10%." After Wu Tian said this, he changed his tone, "If you want to leave, I will not force you. You can decide on your own."

After those words were said, the scene turned into a brief mess as everyone began to discuss and whisper to each other.

Wu Tian gave everyone enough time before he asked: "Who doesn't want to work anymore, just stand out now."

The scene was silent. No one spoke, and no one stood up.

"Alright, since you all aren't going to stand up, then I'll take it that you all are willing to stay." Wu Tian secretly heaved a sigh of relief, and immediately announced: "From today onwards, I will officially take over Huaxing."

Applause rang out.

Led by Zhang Huaqiao, the meeting room burst into applause.

Wu Tian pressed his hands, signaling for everyone to quiet down. He continued, "Let me introduce to everyone, this is the famous singer, Miss Huang Lan. She will be the CEO, and will be the one to manage the company."

Applause rang out.

After Wu Tian said this, he led the applause. The others followed suit.

After the applause, Huang Lan stood up from her chair and swept her cold eyes over the crowd. "From today onwards, I will lead everyone to create a new world in the film industry ..."

After her speech, Huang Lan asked everyone to make a brief introduction. She had an initial understanding of the company's top executives.

After the meeting, accompanied by Zhang Huaqiao, the few of them went to various departments for a tour. He knew the company's details.

The company has seven departments, the administrative department, the marketing department, the planning department, film production and development, finance, personnel law and other departments.

Among these seven departments, the film and television manufacturing and development department was basically in a rather unconventional state. It was just that there were still a lot of professional people that could be used here.

The other departments were doing nothing, but the film and television departments had to start operating as soon as possible, only with a large amount of funds.

After understanding the situation, Wu Tian quickly called Qiao Fugang, telling him to come to Huaxing company as soon as possible to take over the film production department.

He waited for less than a moment before Qiao Fugang brought Yan Jie and the others to Huaxing company.

When they met, Qiao Fugang found it hard to hide his excitement, "Boss Wu, how did you convince Zhang Huaqiao, and how did you acquire his Huaxing Film and TV?"

"This is a long story, I'll explain it to you slowly in the future." Wu Tian didn't have the time to explain so much at the moment, so he avoided it with a single sentence.

"Boss Wu is really amazing. It seems like there's nothing in this world that you can't handle." After Qiao Fugang said this, he raised his head and laughed out loud.

He admired Wu Tian more and more, he was practically full of admiration for this young man.

In the film industry, many people failed in their attempts to buy Huaxing, but who would have thought that Boss Wu would be the one to eat this piece of fat.

"Alright, let's not talk about that for now." Wu Tian patted Qiao Fugang's shoulder, and said in a serious tone: "From now on, I will hand over the Huaxing film department to you to manage. You have the final say in the filming project, if you want money, just go to Elder Sister Lan. She is the CEO of the company, she will help you settle it."

"Thanks for Boss Wu's support and trust in me. Don't worry, I promise I will make the best movie and live up to your expectations." Qiao Fugang promised.

"Then I'll be troubling Director Qiao." Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. He gave a few instructions and left with Elder Sister Lan.

Just as the two of them walked out of the Huaxing company lobby, he saw Zhang Xinyi twist her small waist and chase them out, "Wu Tian, don't leave first, wait for me."

"Miss Zhang, is something the matter?" When Zhang Xinyi walked closer, Wu Tian asked.

"That ..."

Zhang Xinyi put her hands behind her back and asked shyly, "We know each other today, can I play with you in the future?"

"Of course, I'll treat you to a meal when I have time." Wu Tian said politely.

Honestly speaking, it was also thanks to Zhang Xinyi's help that he was able to successfully acquire Huaxing Film and TV this time around.

"Then can you give me your number and I'll call you another day?"

"This ..." Since Wu Tian couldn't find any reason to decline, he nodded in the end: "Alright, no problem."

He then gave her his phone number.

After Zhang Xinyi had memorized the number, a dubious smile appeared on her face. "Alright then, I'll call you another time."

"Alright, then I'll be leaving first. Goodbye." After bidding farewell to Zhang Xinyi, Wu Tian turned around and left with Elder Sister Lan.

When they got into the car, Huang Lan said sourly, "Isn't that girl surnamed Zhang beautiful?"

"Not bad." Wu Tian didn't understand the meaning behind her words, he just nodded out of habit.

"Then is she prettier than me?"

"Of course she's not as beautiful as Elder Sister Lan." Only then did Wu Tian notice the jealousy in Elder Sister Lan's tone. He immediately praised, "Elder Sister Lan is the sexiest and prettiest woman in the world. No woman is prettier than you."

"Stop wasting time with me." Huang Lan rolled her eyes in annoyance. She leaned her head over and muttered, "I think Zhang Xinyi is attracted to you."

"It can't be. We just met today, how could that girl be interested in me?"

"You're so handsome and your martial arts are so amazing, I'm afraid even a little girl would be tempted by you." Huang Lan said sourly.

It was only because Tian was too outstanding. No matter where he went, he would be able to enchant the little girl.

"I'm not as good as Elder Sister Lan said." Wu Tian scratched his head with an awkward expression.

"Do you like Zhang Xinyi?"

"Of course not. I don't have any interest in that girl."

"Bring the phone over."

"What?"

"Give me your phone." Huang Lan took the phone from Wu Tian's pocket in a domineering manner. Soon after, she blacklisted Zhang Xinyi's phone number.

"Why did you pull her into the black list?"

"I don't want that girl to disturb you in the future." Huang Lan pursed her lips into a smile before driving away.

"..."

Looking at Elder Sister Lan's actions, Wu Tian didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 432 - Ten Schools League

C432 Ten Schools League

Just like this, in less than half a day, Wu Tian had completed his purchase of Huaxing film and television, and officially entered the film and television industry.

Initially, they wanted to drive home. However, when they passed a western restaurant, Huang Lan couldn't help but ask, "Tian, why don't you treat me to a meal?"

"Xue has prepared dinner at home. Let's go back and eat." Wu Tian was a bit tired, he wanted to go straight home.

"Everyone says that a woman's culinary skills can tie a man's heart. Can you not leave that girl Shen Xue?"

"No, I just ..."

"Today, I want you to treat me to western cuisine." Having said so, Huang Lan drove the car directly to the entrance of the western restaurant.

"Alright!"

Since things had come to this, Wu Tian did not say anymore nonsense. He directly opened the car door and said, "Let's go, I'll take you to eat western cuisine."

Afterward, he brought Elder Sister Lan into the restaurant and found a remote seat to sit down.

The two of them ordered steak and red wine, and before long the waiter brought two sets of dinner.

The two chatted as they ate.

Huang Lan put a piece of beef in her mouth and asked with a smile, "Is the western cuisine here delicious, or is it delicious from the western cuisine that Chef Shen cooked?"

"Xue cooked it delicious, of course." Wu Tian ate a piece of beef and commented seriously, "The western cuisine made by Xue tastes even more pure and exquisite. The roast beef has a unique method. When the fire is in place, the sauce is even more..."

"You shut up." Huang Lan interrupted Wu Tian in a sour tone. She snappily said, "Shen Xue's cooking is so delicious. You should go back and eat."

"I mean, as long as I'm with Elder Sister Lan, I don't care what I eat."

"Eat, don't talk to me about that girl again."

"Alright, I won't say anything." Wu Tian shook his head with a wry smile. From start to finish, it seemed like Elder Sister Lan took the initiative to mention Xue. He didn't expect her to be jealous in the end.

Afterwards, the two of them took the initiative to change the topic and talk about the entertainment industry as well as the future direction of the film and television industry.

It wasn't until eight in the evening that the two finished their dinner and left the restaurant. They drove back to Aifei Castle Wine House.

Now that the winery had been renovated and added entertainment facilities, Shen Xue had set up a small amusement park, which looked more and more like a private estate.

This manor was very large, and as long as it did not destroy the grasslands and landscape forests, no matter how it was renovated, it would not be a problem.

Later on, Wu Tian also planned to tidy up the golf course and get himself a soccer field and basketball court to add some outdoor fitness projects.

When the two of them returned to the castle, they saw a few people eating in the dining hall.

Shen Xue's face darkened as she stood up and questioned, "Why did the two of you come back together?"

"Elder Sister Lan and I went to purchase the Huaxing Corporation. We are preparing to enter the film and television industry." Wu Tian explained with a smile.

"Alright!"

Shen Xue had nothing to say when she heard Wu Tian was taking that woman out to do some serious business. She said sourly, "You guys can come over for dinner."

"No need, we just had a western meal outside." Before Wu Tian could say anything, Huang Lan interrupted him.

She wanted Shen Xue to know that Wu Tian had taken her out to eat western cuisine just now.

"You all ..."

Shen Xue rolled her eyes at Wu Tian. She sat back down to continue eating angrily. The whole restaurant was filled with the smell of acetic acid.

"You guys take your time, I'm going upstairs to read." After Wu Tian said this, he quickly ran up to the second floor and started reading in his study.

The night passed in silence.

The next day, Wu Tian woke up early and took a taxi to Martial Arts Club.

The members of the club and the cheerleaders had already made their preparations to head to Luzhou University to participate in the tenth tournament.

Gu Xiaoman jogged out of the dojo and said with a smile, "You're finally here. I was just about to call you!"

"No rush, how are your preparations?" At the same time that Wu Tian asked, he looked at the members at the scene.

"It's all ready. The members are in high spirits and full of fighting spirit."

"That's good." Wu Tian nodded with satisfaction. He suddenly thought of Mu Ran again and couldn't help but ask, "Teacher Mu didn't come?"

"Teacher Mu has class in the morning. She might be late."

"Alright, let's go to Luzhou University first." Wu Tian looked at the time and ordered the other members: "Everyone, head to Luzhou University now. When the time comes, we'll gather outside the gymnasium."

"Alright!" Dozens of members received their orders and walked towards the outside of the building in an orderly manner. The cheerleaders were walking in the middle, making it look quite spectacular.

After all the members and members of the team had left, Wu Tian turned around and said to Gu Xiaoman, "Come with me, let's go in the car."

"Alright." Gu Xiaoman nodded obediently and followed Wu Tian out of the Industry University Martial Arts Club Club.

The members of Industry University Martial Arts Club came to the Luzhou University one after another, gathered outside the Grand Gymnasium, and finally entered the stadium together.

This was an indoor basketball court. The stadium was very large and could accommodate thousands of spectators.

A stage similar to the arena had been set up in the center of the basketball court with all sorts of defensive measures put in place.

As soon as the members entered the building, a large group of students came to welcome them.

These students did not come to welcome the members of the Polytechnic University, but to mock and ridicule them.

The members of the club ignored the jeers and walked over to their area to sit down, waiting for the match to begin.

Wu Tian and Gu Xiaoman were seated at the very back. Faced with the ridicule from others, he turned a deaf ear to them.

"President Gu." Before the two of them could even warm up their butts, a large student came over to greet Gu Xiaoman, "Long time no see. You're getting more and more beautiful."

"Tang Jun?"

Gu Xiaoman frowned slightly when she saw the boy in front of her. Her eyes were filled with obvious disdain and contempt.

The boy in front of her was a student from Luzhou University. They had met at a joint school event before, and he had chased after Gu Xiaoman relentlessly. However, she had always rejected him.

"It seems that President Gu still remembers me." Tang Jun chuckled as his gaze fell on Wu Tian. He frowned and questioned, "This brat is your boyfriend?"

"No." Gu Xiaoman spat out the two words in a nonchalant manner.

"Didn't I say so? Your eyesight shouldn't be so bad." After Tang Jun said this, he poked Wu Tian on the shoulder and reminded him, "Silly boy, the seats here aren't suitable for you, sit on the side."

"Whether it's suitable or not is not up to you to decide." Wu Tian sat on the spot, he was too lazy to care about this brat.

"You ..."

Tang Jun did not expect Wu Tian to have such a big temper even though this brat seemed honest and easy to bully. He changed his tone and asked, "Student, can you sell your position to me?"

He just wanted to buy this seat to get close to Gu Xiaoman and use this opportunity to harass this girl.

"This seat of mine is very expensive. Ten thousand yuan." Wu Tian directly stretched out a finger.

"Alright, 10,000 is 10,000. I have plenty of money." Tang Jun acted like he was rich, he then took out his phone and said, "Come, open your Alipay. I'll transfer the 2-D code to you."

"Are you really going to pay ten thousand for my seat?"

"Of course."

"Then don't regret it." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. He took out his phone from his pocket and opened the Alipay receipt code.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 433 - Is He Afraid?

C433 Is He Afraid?

"I have plenty of money." After Tang Jun said this, he took out his phone boldly. He opened the Alipay and paid ten thousand.

"Ok!"

Seeing that Fu Bao paid up, Wu Tian put away his phone and smiled, "From now on, this seat is yours."

With that, he pulled Gu Xiaoman along and left.

"You ..." Tang Jun was suddenly struck dumb. He had bought Wu Tian's seat in order to sit with Gu Xiaoman, but Wu Tian had taken Xiaoman away.

Seeing this, he hurriedly opened his mouth to stop him. "You can leave, keep President Gu here."

"I only said that I would sell my seat to you, but I didn't say that I would sell you President Gu." Wu Tian turned around and looked at Tang Jun with a brilliant smile on his face.

"You, you, you ..."

Wu Tie was so angry that he couldn't say a word for a long time. At this moment, he finally understood that he was played like a monkey by Wu Tian.

The reason why he spent ten thousand yuan was to buy the seat next to Gu Xiaoman. If Gu Xiaoman had already left, what was the use of buying this seat?

There were so many empty spots on the basketball court, and they were all free. He could sit anywhere he wanted, and why would he need to spend money to buy one?

"There's no need to stand on ceremony. Come, take a seat." Wu Tian put his hand on Tang Jun's shoulder to let him sit down. He asked with a smile, "How does it feel to buy a seat for 10,000 yuan?"

"You ..."

Tang Jun was so angry that the corner of his mouth twitched. He gritted his teeth and cursed, "Bastard, are you purposely playing with me?"

"You look like a monkey after all!" Wu Tian grinned and pulled Gu Xiaoman to a corner to sit down.

How could Tang Jun swallow his anger? He quickly followed and said, "Brat, I'm not buying your seat anymore. Hurry up and return the money to me."

"Your seat is already dirty, I can't repay the money." After Wu Tian said this, he couldn't help but laugh.

Gu Xiaoman pursed her lips and laughed along with him. She looked like a happy little sparrow, extremely happy.

Tang Jun was infuriated by Wu Tian's mockery. He pointed at Wu Tian's nose and threatened him, "Brat, you dare to mess with me. Are you looking for a beating?"

"You want to hit me? But I don't think you have the guts. " Wu Tian raised his head with pride. He did not put this kid in his eyes at all.

"Don't forget, this is our territory. You deserve to be beaten." After Tang Jun said this, he reached out his hand to cover Wu Tian's collar.

His action instantly aroused the dissatisfaction of the members of Industry University Martial Arts Club. More than fifty people stood up in unison and rubbed their fists as they prepared to teach Tang Jun a lesson.

Tang Jun was so scared that his neck shrunk. He turned around and looked at the members, "I'll teach this brat a lesson. It's none of your business, you guys better not meddle in other people's business."

"Of course it's our business if you hit our president." one of the members shouted, jumping to his feet.

Usually, Proprietor Wu was generous and spent a lot of money on them. Everyone trusted and was grateful to Proprietor Wu, so they naturally had to protect the president.

"What? He's your president?" Hearing that, Tang Jun's body instantly became much shorter.

He didn't think that this weak and foolish brat in front of him would actually be the president of Industry University Martial Arts Club. How could this brat be the president?

"As long as you dare to attack our president, don't blame us for being impolite." the member threatened.

"I don't dare." Upon hearing that Wu Tian was the president, Tang Jun was immediately terrified. He quickly changed his tone, "Gentlemen only speak and don't hit people. We are here to participate in the tenth tournament today. Don't hurt our relationship because of such a small matter."

"Be a bit more courteous when you speak to our president." The members of the club gave a warning before retreating into their respective positions.

"I am relieved!"

Tang Jun secretly breathed out. Luckily, he didn't attack Wu Tian just now, otherwise, he would have been brutalized into meat paste by these members.

Although he didn't dare to do anything to Wu Tian, he still found it hard to swallow his resentment. He coldly ridiculed, "I really didn't think that you could become the president."

"If I have the strength, I can become the president. What, are you not convinced?" Wu Tian looked at Tang Jun with a faint smile.

A disdainful voice rang out.

Tang Jun couldn't help but spew out a mouthful of saliva, then mercilessly beat the crap out of him: "You're the weakest Martial Arts Club Guild Leader, I really don't know what are you so proud of?"

"That was in the past. Our Martial Arts Club is very strong now." Wu Tian looked up confidently.

"Then just wait for our great Martial Arts Club to brutally oppress you!" After Tang Jun said this, he sat down beside the two of them as if he was waiting to watch a good show.

At this time, a few members of the school's Martial Arts Club entered the stage one after another.

When they passed through the Industry University Martial Arts Club, they couldn't help but mock and ridicule the members of the Polytechnic University.

The last to enter the arena was Great Martial Arts Club. They directly stood in front and humiliated the members of Industry University Martial Arts Club. All sorts of derogatory and sarcastic remarks were made.

The members of Industry University Martial Arts Club gnashed their teeth, wishing that they could rush up and fight against the members of the Lulu Clan, but were suppressed by Wu Tian in the end.

The members endured all sorts of humiliation and mockery as they quietly waited for the official start of the match to erupt on the field.

At 10 AM in the morning, the tenth tournament officially began.

The competition was divided into two. The first half would be an elimination round. Six teams out of ten would be eliminated, leaving only four to enter the second half.

The leader of Lu University gave his opening speech. Following that, the host announced the rules of the competition. Half an hour later, the competition officially began.

The first match would be between Industry University Martial Arts Club and Great Martial Arts Club.

The moment the members of Industry University Martial Arts Club stepped onto the stage, waves of ridiculing laughter rang out, and everyone below the stage were watching with glee.

All along, Industry University Martial Arts Club was the weakest society amongst the 10 schools. It was at the bottom of every match and its position in everyone's hearts was pitifully low.

Seeing this situation, Tang Jun could not help but mock Wu Tian, "In this match, your Polytechnic University will lose for sure."

"It's still too early to talk about winning or losing." Wu Tian was relatively calm in the face of mockery.

"With your strength, you will definitely lose if you fight with us." After Tang Jun said this, he stretched out his head and said provocatively: "If your Polytechnic University can win, I will cut off my head for you to kick."

"This is what you said, let's wait and see!" After Wu Tian said this, he ignored Tang Jun and raised his head to look at the arena, waiting for the match to start.

Soon, the match officially began.

After the members of the Great Martial Arts Club had gone up on stage, they mocked the members of the Polytechnic University. Only then did the battle officially begin.

In the end, the first round of Industry University Martial Arts Club won by an absolute margin, while the second and third rounds also won.

In the end, Industry University Martial Arts Club easily defeated Great Martial Arts Club and obtained victory in the beginning.

Great Martial Arts Club was originally of ordinary strength, and adding that they underestimated their opponent, their loss this time was extremely tragic.

At this moment, how could the members of Lulu University still laugh? All of them were speechless. Never in their wildest dreams had they imagined that they would lose to Lulu City's weakest person.

They also did not expect that the Conference would become so powerful, defeating them all in three rounds. Now they were like defeated roosters, all looking downcast.

The onlookers in the audience lost their voices, and the mocking laughter and humiliating voices also disappeared in an instant.

Only now did they realize that their Industry University Martial Arts Club was much stronger than before.

They no longer dared to mock the members of the Polytechnic University. The way they looked at the members had clearly become more serious.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 434 - Unforgiving

C434 Unforgiving

Tang Jun was originally gloating while waiting to see a joke. When he lost his Industry University Martial Arts Club to Great Martial Arts Club, he would then ruthlessly mock Wu Tian.

However, the result made his eyes drop. He did not expect that Industry University Martial Arts Club had actually won this competition.

In the first round, Great Martial Arts Club was the first to fall, directly losing to Industry University Martial Arts Club, whose strength was the weakest.

Seeing the situation in front of him, how could he still laugh? He stood there like a huge idiot.

Just like the other students, he never dreamed that they would lose so much Martial Arts Club to Industry University Martial Arts Club.

To think that he was mocking Industry University Martial Arts Club in front of Wu Tian, and ended up making a big joke. Now, he felt like his face had been slapped noisily.

"Your Great Martial Arts Club has lost. What do you think?" Wu Tian turned his head and looked at Tang Jun with a smile.

"I ..." Tang Jun gritted his teeth and couldn't say a word for a long time.

"Right, I remember you saying that if our Industry University Martial Arts Club wins, you will cut your head off and use it as a ball to kick, right?"

"I've never kicked a meatball before." Wu Tian took out a dagger from his pocket after saying that.

Tang Jun was so shocked that he hurriedly stood up from his chair, "Don't mess around in front of so many people."

"You truly are a coward. A single dagger has scared you to the point of making you a coward and a coward." Wu Tian laughed dryly and hid the dagger again.

"You ..."

Tang Jun gritted his teeth in dissatisfaction. Since he couldn't do anything to this brat, he could only leave this place dejectedly.

The match continued, and the second and third matches continued.

This kind of competition was very simple, in the end, with the method of ten to six, Industry University Martial Arts Club was successfully entered into the finals.

As soon as the first half ended, Mu Ran rushed over. "Sorry, I'm late."

"It's nothing. We just finished the first half, so we'll continue with the second half in the afternoon." Wu Tian reported the situation to Teacher Mu.

"How is it? Has our society entered the finals? "

"Our society has successfully squeezed into the finals."

"Great." Hearing this news, Mu Ran was extremely excited. "Our Martial Arts Club is indeed formidable."

"Of course, the members that I nurture are stronger than the ones before."

"Being able to enter the finals is already not bad. Come, let's go eat first. Teacher will treat us today." Mu Ran stroked her hair and led the way out of the basketball court.

Wu Tian and Gu Xiaoman followed closely behind.

The three of them left the basketball court. They didn't go far before they found a restaurant at Luzhou University. After ordering their dishes, they started to chat.

"Tian, quickly tell teacher about the competition this morning." Mu Ran couldn't wait to ask about the details of the competition.

"The first match of the tournament, we'll fight against Luzhou University, and we'll brutally beat them the moment it starts ..." Wu Tian spoke frankly with confidence as he narrated the match that morning.

After listening to the first half of the competition, Mu Ran could not help but praise repeatedly, "Our Industry University Martial Arts Club is amazing, really amazing."

"The second half of the finals is the time for us to show off. Teacher Mu will definitely broaden her horizons in the afternoon."

"I look forward to your brilliant performance." After Mu Ran said this, she saw the waiter serve the dishes and said to the two of them, "Let's eat first, there's no need to be polite."

Having said so, she even helped Gu Xiaoman pick up dishes with her chopsticks.

"Teacher Mu is treating us to food. There's no need to stand on ceremony. Eat more." Wu Tian picked up his chopsticks and started wolfing down his food. After watching the competition for the whole morning, he was truly hungry.

While the three of them were happily eating and talking, Tang Jun walked over and mocked, "You brought a little sister out to eat, but you actually eat such a shabby meal. What a stingy poor man."

In the morning, he was played like a monkey by Wu Tian in the basketball court. He was even mocked and humiliated for not having the opportunity to take revenge. He didn't expect to meet Wu Tian here.

Honestly speaking, he was quite envious of this kid. To have two beautiful women by his side really made him envious.

"Hurry up and get out of here, don't disturb our meal." Wu Tian stared at Tang Jun and continued enjoying the delicious food.

The sound of someone hitting the table rang out.

Tang Jun raised his hand and slapped the table as he shouted, "Stop eating, I've already wrapped this place up, get out of here."

"If you let me leave, then wouldn't I lose face?" Wu Tian put down his chopsticks and looked up at Tang Jun.

"You have no money, do you still need any face?" Tang Jun shouted. He turned around and instructed the owner, "Throw this kid out."

"Yes, yes, yes!"

After nodding in agreement, the boss went up to Wu Tian and the other two and said, "I'm sorry, our restaurant has already been booked by Young Master Tang. You should go somewhere else to eat."

"And if I have to eat at your place?" Wu Tian wiped his hands with a tissue as his expression turned more and more unsightly.

"This ..."

The owner's eyebrows tightened as he said in a low voice: "Little brother, I told you before that the restaurant was booked by Young Master Tang. He gave you the money, so why do you have to make things difficult for me?"

"Even if he charts the place, he'll have to wait until we're done eating." Wu Tian didn't care that much and continued to enjoy the delicious food.

"You ..."

The owner lost his patience. He threw the menu on the table and pointed at Wu Tian's nose, "Little bastard, are you leaving or not?"

"Like I said, I'll leave after I finish eating." Wu Tian did not show any signs of weakness. Regardless of the time, he would not take the initiative to cause trouble, but he was also never afraid of anything.

No matter where he went, he would never allow himself to be bullied, not to mention the presence of Xiaoman and Teacher Mu.

"Silly boy, since you aren't giving me any face, don't blame me for being merciless." Having said this, the owner coughed a few times towards the kitchen.

After a cough, two robust men walked out.

The owner ordered the two robust chefs, "Throw this brat out. I'll give you a bonus."

"Yes sir!"

The two robust chefs received the order and approached Wu Tian.

Tang Jun stood on the side and looked at Wu Tian with a schadenfreude expression. He was waiting for Wu Tian to be bullied by the robust chef and then Wu Tian would embarrass himself in front of the beauties.

When he saw the two chefs attack Wu Tian, he could not help but laugh.

However, his smile soon stiffened. Wu Tian, that punk, stretched out his right hand and grabbed the strong man's arm. Then, he broke it with force and easily subdued him.

Immediately afterwards, Wu Tian raised his leg and kicked the leg of another robust man, causing the robust man to kneel on the ground. In the next second, Wu Tian swung the bottle of wine towards the muscular man.

"Pain ..."

Accompanied by a blood-curdling screech, the brawny man fell unconscious onto the ground.

In this way, Wu Tian easily subdued the two robust men.

Seeing the scene in front of his eyes, Tang Jun was stunned. Never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that this weak and foolish brat in front of him, Wu Tian, would be so powerful.

How could he still laugh at this moment. He stared at Wu Tian as if he was looking at a monster. He was secretly scared.

The inn owner was also shocked. He also did not expect the young and foolish brat in front of him to be so strong. He had easily taken care of his two strong chefs.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 435 - Winning the Championship

C435 Winning the Championship

"I just want to have a quiet meal. Is that really that hard?" After Wu Tian finished with the two robust men, he turned around and looked at the owner.

"No, it's not difficult." The owner was so frightened that he shook his head. He was no longer as arrogant and domineering as before. He was even more cowardly than a son of a b * tch.

"If you come and disturb our meal again, then don't blame me for being rude." Wu Tian warned coldly as he picked up his chopsticks and continued eating.

"No, I don't dare." The restaurant owner was so scared that he took a few steps back. Then, he threw a stack of bills to Tang Jun, "I'll give you back your money, but I won't do your business. He's too strong, so I don't dare to offend him."

"You ..."

Tang Jun still wanted to say something, but the restaurant owner threw his money away, turned around and ran away, sneaking into the kitchen.

He could only stand there like a fool, not knowing what to do with the few thousand dollars in his hand.

The sound of chopsticks being slapped sounded out.

Wu Tian threw his chopsticks onto the table after finishing his meal, turned around and looked at Tang Jun, "These days, money cannot do whatever it wants."

"You ..."

Tang Jun, who was holding the stack of bills, froze on the spot. He was so angry that the corner of his mouth trembled, and he couldn't say anything for a long time.

"Stay away from Xiaoman." Wu Tian warned. Then he said to Gu Xiaoman and Sofia, "Teacher Mu, Xiaoman, let's go."

With that, he left with the two girls.

The small incident from a moment ago did not affect their moods at all. After eating, the three of them returned to Luzhou University's basketball court.

At 3 PM in the afternoon, the second half of the competition officially began. Next was the final match between the four universities, as it concerned the final ranking.

After the match had begun, the students in the audience were especially nervous. Their eyes were unblinking as they watched the brilliant performance of the members on stage.

After two hours of intense competition, in the end, Industry University Martial Arts Club took first place, becoming the champion of this year's tournament, and Physical Culture Institute became second place.

This outcome surprised everyone. None of them thought that Industry University Martial Arts Club would become the champion.

All this while, Wu Tian's Industry University Martial Arts Club had always been weak. It had always been at the bottom of every match, so they never expected it to achieve such a result.

Everyone no longer dared to look down on Industry University Martial Arts Club, and no longer showed any signs of ridicule and contempt.

After this competition, everyone had no choice but to reevaluate Wu Tian's Industry University Martial Arts Club and acknowledge his strength.

The efforts of the members of Polytechnic University had also overturned the image of Martial Arts Club, changing everyone's impression of Industry University Martial Arts Club.

After winning the championship, the members of the Polytechnic University were extremely excited. They all felt especially proud and proud, and they felt a glory they had never felt before.

The members held each other and cheered loudly, celebrating this victory. Even the cheerleaders were feeling especially excited.

Gu Xiaoman was also excited, she was as happy as a child. She jumped and jumped, and finally threw herself at Wu Tian to protect his body. She shouted excitedly, "That's great, we won, we are first."

"Right ..."

Contrary to Gu Xiaoman's excitement, Wu Tian was very calm. He gently caressed her back, "It seems that our hard work in this period has not been in vain. We have finally won the championship."

"Thank you." Gu Xiaoman hugged Wu Tian even more tightly and said gratefully, "If it wasn't for you, we wouldn't be able to achieve such success."

"This is all our credit." Wu Tian couldn't help but have a physiological reaction when he was hugged by this girl.

Mu Ran, who was standing to the side, did not say a word. Seeing the two of them acting in such an intimate manner, the jealousy in her heart did not feel good.

She didn't know why, but she got really angry when she saw Wu Tian with the other girls.

Coughing sounds rang out.

In the end, it was Wu Tian who broke the awkward silence. He reminded her half-jokingly: "Xiaoman, if you carry me any longer, you'll get pregnant!"

"What!"

Gu Xiaoman came back to her senses and blushed as she rushed out of Wu Tian's arms. She said embarrassedly, "Don't misunderstand, I was just too happy just now."

"Xiaoman."

Wu Tian pinched the girl's cheek and teased, "You are obviously taking advantage of me."

"I didn't!" Gu Xiaoman bit her lower lip, her face full of embarrassment as she lowered her face, looking as beautiful as a flower.

"Xiaoman, I was joking with you, why are you blushing!" After Wu Tian said this, he grinned and giggled.

It was better if he didn't laugh. His smile made Gu Xiaoman even more embarrassed. She was so embarrassed that she felt ashamed.

In the end, it was Mu Ran who broke the awkward silence. Smiling, she suggested, "Let's head back first. We should go back to the school to celebrate."

"Right, let's go back to school first." Wu Tian nodded in agreement, then he brought the trophy to organize everyone to return to the university.

In this competition, besides the wine cup, there was also a cash reward of thirty thousand yuan.

After returning to the school Martial Arts Club, Wu Tian took out a million and gave it to Gu Xiaoman, instructing: "Half of this money is for developing the Martial Arts Club, the rest of the money is for everyone as a reward."

"On behalf of all the members, I thank Proprieter Wu." Gu Xiaoman bowed in thanks, her face still blushing.

"Alright, go and arrange it." Wu Tian tugged on Gu Xiaoman's dress and said, "After you finish giving out the bonuses, take everyone out to eat. You should all properly celebrate."

"Proprieter Wu, you're not coming with us?"

"I still have things to do, so I won't be going. We'll talk next time."

"Alright!" Gu Xiaoman pursed her lips in disappointment. She didn't say anything more and led the members back to the dojo to celebrate.

After arranging the Martial Arts Club, Wu Tian turned around and said to Mu Ran: "Teacher Mu, should we go and find the office of academic affairs Master, Han Dashan?"

"Right." Mu Ran nodded her head in approval, and laughed: "Section Chief Han had previously promised that if our Martial Arts Club can take first place, then he will take out three hundred thousand as our reward."

"Teacher Mu, do you think Section Chief Han will keep his promise?"

"That's hard to say." Mu Ran pulled up her hair and smiled. "Let's go to office of academic affairs now."

After saying that, she took the lead and walked towards the office of academic affairs. Wu Tian followed closely behind her.

The two of them quickly arrived at office of academic affairs and knocked on the door to the chief's office.

Han Dashan was tasting tea in his office. When he saw Wu Tian enter his office, his eyebrows tightened and he couldn't help but ask, "Today's the official start of the tenth tournament. Why did you come here instead of supervising the competition?"

"I came to tell Section Chief Han that the competition of the tenth tournament is over." The corner of Wu Tian's mouth raised into a strange smile.

"The match ended so quickly?"

"Right."

"Don't tell me you guys didn't even enter the finals." Han Dashan mocked and ridiculed him as if he was waiting to see a joke.

"Sorry to disappoint Section Chief Han, but not only did we get into the finals, we even got first place in the league and became champions." At this point, Wu Tian took out the trophy and placed it on the desk.

Seeing the trophy, Han Dashan was instantly dumbfounded. He exclaimed in disbelief: "You guys are really champions, you really took first place?"
