

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 481 - Employee Quarrels

C481 Employee Quarrels

The other employees were also surprised, they never thought that this strange man in front of them was the boss of the company.

So, the boss had come to investigate in secret. No wonder he had come to the marketing department to manage the employees' fights.

The staff were all secretly afraid. They did not expect the big boss to come and they did not know anything at all. Luckily, they did not offend the big boss, otherwise it would be troublesome.

On the other hand, the two fighting staff members broke out in a cold sweat when they heard that the kid in front of them was the company's boss.

To think that they had been rude and insulted their big boss just now, it could be said that they had caused a huge mess this time.

After a slight pause, the two of them hurriedly apologized to Boss Wu: "I'm sorry, we didn't know you were the big boss, we had offended you before."

"The ignorant are not guilty." Wu Tian magnanimously waved his hand, then changed his tone, "But it's not right for you two to quarrel in the office."

"It's a misunderstanding, we're just playing around."

"The office isn't a place for you to play." After Wu Tian said this, he turned to Huang Lan and asked, "Elder Sister Lan, how do you think we should deal with this?"

"Directly expelled." Huang Lan could not stand the sand in her eyes and directly fired the two of them.

The Market Department had recently recruited a lot of new employees, many of whom were ignorant of the rules and regulations and had messed up the entire department.

She took advantage of this opportunity to fire the two of them. It could also be considered as killing chickens and honoring monkeys to awe the other employees.

When they heard that they were going to be expelled, the two staff were so scared that they quickly begged for forgiveness: "Boss Wu, CEO Huang, give us another chance, we won't dare to do it again."

"I will never tolerate your actions. You can leave now." Huang Lan had no room for negotiation and was determined to expel them.

Previously, from the manager's reaction, these two employees had always been causing trouble and never listened to any rules and regulations. It just so happens that by expelling them this time, they would be able to avoid any future troubles.

One of the male employees sighed. Seeing how determined CEO Huang was, he could only pack up his stuff and leave.

The other employee didn't seem to be convinced and scolded without mercy, "Huang Lan, aren't you just the CEO of a company? What's the big deal? Your lousy company will close down soon."

"This has nothing to do with you, you can scam now." Huang Lan shouted coldly as she pointed at the office door.

"I'm going, what's so great about this place?" The employee tugged at his collar and shamelessly said, "In my eyes, you're just a piece of trash, a scum ..."

He had suffered too much from this woman before and was about to be fired anyway. He might as well give her a few curses to vent his anger.

"Pa!"

Without waiting for the brat to finish his words, Wu Tian raised his hand and slapped him hard, causing the brat to feel dizzy.

The employee was slapped, how could he be willing to accept it? He pointed at Wu Tian's nose and asked: "So what if you're the boss, what right do you have to hit me?"

"As long as you dare to humiliate Elder Sister Lan, I'll beat you up." Wu Tian had a righteous look on his face.

"If you hit me, I'm not done with you." The employee took off his clothes and threw it fiercely on the ground. "You have to give me an explanation today."

"What do you mean?"

"Apologize to me or pay me."

"I won't apologize, and I won't lose money. What can you do to me?"

"You ..." The employee clenched his teeth and said fiercely, "If that's the case, then don't blame me for being impolite."

With these harsh words, he took out his phone and made a call: "Brother Zi, I've been bullied, please come and save me."

After the call, he sat back in his chair, his face dark with anger.

"Young man, there's too little reinforcements, so it's useless. I suggest you call a few more." Wu Tian smiled at the employee and reminded him with good intentions.

"We don't need that many people to deal with you." The male staff gritted his teeth and said with a vicious face, "Boss Wu, CEO Huang, I'll teach you guys a lesson later."

"Then I want to see how capable you are." After Wu Tian said this, he pulled a chair over and sat down.

Today's matter had to be dealt with properly, or it would be hard to convince the employees present.

"Wait a moment, I'll teach you a lesson very soon." After saying this, the employee made another call.

Not long after, a few hoodlums broke into the marketing department's office. There were not five hoodlums, but ten hoodlums.

Wu Tian's eyes immediately lit up when he saw the hoodlum that walked in. He recognized the hoodlum in the lead, it was the hoodlum leader of East District, Xu Chengzi. He had taught him a lesson before.

Seeing so many hoodlums, the staff were all a bit panicked. They shrunk their bodies into a defensive position out of habit.

"Brother Zi, you finally came." When the employee saw these hoodlums, he took the initiative to go up and curry favor with them.

"Qiang, who bullied you?" Xu Chengzi shook the cigarette ash in his hand, then raised his head and asked the employee.

"That's the kid." The employee pointed at Wu Tian and complained to Xu Chengzi, "That brat hit me just now."

"How preposterous ..." Xu Chengzi was about to explode, but when he saw Wu Tian's face, he quickly swallowed his words.

Only after looking at Wu Tian carefully for a while did he recognize Wu Tian's gaze. He hurriedly smiled with a thick face as he said, "Brother Tian, how is it such a coincidence? "Why is it you?"

"Brother Zi, this brat hit me just now." The employee thought that Xu Chengzi didn't hear it and pointed at Wu Tian to report it again.

"Pa!"

Who knew that Xu Chengqi would be so angry. He swung his hand and slapped Chen Qiang's face, then scolded, "Open your dog eyes and look carefully, this is Brother Tian."

"What Brother Tian?" Chen Qiang was baffled by this slap.

"Cut the crap. If I say he is Brother Tian, then he is Brother Tian." After Xu Chengzi finished shouting, he held his throat and scolded Chen Qiang, "You dared to offend Brother Tian, you brat, you must be tired of living."

"What's going on?"

Chen Qiang was stunned. He didn't expect Brother Zi to know Wu Tian. It seemed that Brother Zi was quite afraid of this Boss Wu.

Just as he was secretly stunned, Xu Chengzi leaned his head over and cursed quietly, "Even I don't dare to offend Wu Tian, how did you offend him?"

"Why don't you dare to offend him?"

"We've fought with this kid before, he's very strong. Even if we fight him together, we still won't be his match." Xu Chengqi explained in a low voice.

"Then what should we do?" Upon hearing those words, Chen Qiang knew that Zhang Xuan had caused a huge calamity and hurriedly asked for a solution.

To be honest, he never would have thought that the weak owner of this film company could be so powerful.

"What are you standing there for? Hurry up and apologize to Brother Tian." Xu Chengzi roared and simultaneously gave Chen Qiang a look.

"Yes." Chen Qiang knew that this brat was not easy to provoke. After answering, he hurriedly apologized to Wu Tian, "I'm sorry, I had eyes but failed to recognize Mt. Tai. I shouldn't have offended you."

"You shouldn't apologize to me, you should apologize to Elder Sister Lan." Wu Tian didn't even look at Chen Qiang.

Chen Qiang was slightly surprised, but he could only walk to Huang Lan with a thick face, "CEO Huang, I've said the wrong thing earlier. I'm really sorry. I apologize to you."

After saying this, he even tremblingly bowed twice.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 482 - Dismissal

C482 Dismissal

Huang Lan did not give him any face. She slapped Chen Qiang in the face and scolded, "In my eyes, you're not even comparable to a dog."

"You ..." Chen Qiang clenched his teeth in anger, but didn't dare to retaliate.

With Wu Tian on the side protecting her, he had no way to deal with this woman, so he could only swallow his anger.

Who would have thought that Huang Lan would slap Chen Qiang's face again and scold, "Stupid dog, if you dare glare at me again, I'll dig out those two eyeballs of yours."

"I don't dare." Chen Qiang could only lower his head. He didn't even dare to fart.

Even Brother Zi didn't dare to offend Wu Tian and Huang Lan. With his strength, he wouldn't dare to offend them.

"Scram, don't let me see you again in the future." Huang Lan was relieved after she slapped him twice. She pointed at the office door and yelled impatiently.

"Alright." After Chen Qiang replied, he left with a face full of dust.

The office was silent. After seeing Boss Wu and CEO Huang's methods, the employees were all trembling in fear.

"Brother Tian, sorry to bother you. I'll take my leave." After saying this, Xu Chengqi led his subordinates and prepared to leave.

"Stop."

Wu Tian frowned and reached out his hand to block Xu Chengzi's path, "Do you take me as a marketplace? You think you can just come and go as you please?"

"Then ..."

Xu Chengzi was slightly surprised, but quickly recovered. "Then I'll book a table at the Sea Heaven Restaurant and treat it as an apology."

"With so many people in our company, I'm afraid one table isn't enough."

"Then ten tables." After saying this, Xu Chengqi quickly took out his phone to call for a meal.

After he finished making his call, he quickly reported to Wu Tian: "The ten tables have already been reserved, so all the expenses will belong to me."

"That's good. You can wait at the Haitian Hotel for the staff to come over after work."

"Alright, I'll make the arrangements." Xu Chengqi nodded his head repeatedly, appearing especially respectful.

"Alright, then you can leave first."

"Then I won't disturb you any further." Xu Chengqi gave a hollow laugh, then led the ten odd thugs out of the office.

Looking at the scene in front of them, the staff were all dumbfounded.

They didn't expect Boss Wu to be so capable. With just a few words, he managed to tame all the hoodlums in East District. More than ten hoodlums were so obedient.

After Xu Chengzi and the hoodlum left, the office gradually quieted down.

Huang Lan walked to the front and said to the staff, "Let me introduce him to everyone. This is our company's boss, Wu Tian."

The staff applauded in unison.

After the applause, Huang Lan spoke again, "Next, let's welcome Boss Wu to speak up for us."

"Alright, then I'll say a few words to everyone." Wu Tian walked to the front, looked at the employees, smiled and said, "Being able to gather together to work together, that is fate, I hope this fate can continue ..."

Before she could finish, the office burst into applause.

Wu Tian pressed his hands together, signalling for everyone to quiet down, and continued: "Right now, the company is managed by Elder Sister Lan, I hope everyone will cooperate with Elder Sister Lan and expand our Huaxing."

"Alright." The staff all cheered in unison.

"That's all I have to say." Wu Tian clapped his hands and said with a smile, "Someone is treating us to dinner at the Haitian Hotel tonight. No need to be polite, let's go together after work."

After he said this, the applause in the office was especially warm.

"Alright, everyone get busy." After Wu Tian said this, he brought Elder Sister Lan out of the marketing department and walked towards the CEO's office.

The CEO's office was at the end of the corridor. It was a large, independent office. The decorations were quite good, with a lounge and a bathroom.

"Here, have a cup of coffee." After entering the office, Huang Lan poured a cup of coffee and handed it over. She smiled and asked, "Why are you thinking of the company today?"

"I was afraid that Elder Sister Lan would be too tired, so I came here specifically to see you." Wu Tian took a sip of the coffee and asked with concern, "How do you feel? "Is it going smoothly?"

"It was successful, but ..." Huang Lan opened her mouth, but the words that were about to come out were swallowed back down her throat.

"Elder Sister Lan, did you encounter some trouble?"

"It's a matter of the company's accounts."

"Tell me, what's the problem?"

"It's like this." Huang Lan walked over to the desk and sat down. With an expressionless face, she said, "There's an advertising company that owes Huaxing television and film a lot of money, but the other party is so shameless that they don't intend to pay it back."

"How much do they owe us?"

"80 million."

"How long?"

"Nearly three years. This is a problem that was left behind. However, the debt is in our company's account. I went to ask for it, but the other party purposely delayed it and played all sorts of tricks." Huang Lan gritted her teeth as her heart was filled with rage.

"Elder Sister Lan, don't worry. I'll go get it for you." Wu Tian put down his coffee cup, walked over and comforted him with a smile, "I promise I'll help you get your debt back."

"Are you sure?"

"Of course."

"Alright, then go and have a try. If you really can't get it, then forget it." Huang Lan then took out an old note from her drawer. "This is an IOU. Take it."

"Dongyang's advertising company?" Wu Tian took the promissory note and looked at it, and found the official seal of Dongyang's company on it.

"Right, it's Dongyang's advertisement."

"There's no time to lose, I'll go right now." Wu Tian didn't want Elder Sister Lan to be bothered by this kind of thing, so he decided to help the company get back the debt.

This debt was loaned out by the previous boss in the name of the company and was owed to the company's finances. For the company, this could be considered a deficit.

"Wait a moment!" When she reached the door, Huang Lan suddenly said, "I'll have Finance Department follow you. There are some things that are quite clear, you can ask them."

Having said so, she picked up the phone and made a call.

Not long after the call ended, a short-haired girl walked in, "Boss Wu, CEO Huang, is there anything for me?"

"Xu Pei, treasurer." Huang Lan pointed at the short-haired girl and introduced, then instructed: "Manager Xu, go with Boss Wu to Dongyang Advertising Company and ask for that debt."

"This ..."

Xu Pei felt a slight headache whenever she mentioned the debt.

She had been to Dongyang's Advertising Company more than once and had always come back empty-handed. She had been extremely worried about this sum of money.

"Just follow them. Boss Wu will take care of the debts." Huang Lan knew that Xu Pei was also afraid of getting the debt, so she tried to comfort her.

"Alright." Xu Pei didn't say anything else and could only nod in agreement.

"Alright, let's go." Wu Tian pursed his lips into a smile and walked out of the office first. Xu Pei followed closely behind him.

After the two of them went downstairs, they rode in the company's car to Dongyang's commercial.

The car was quiet along the way. Neither of them spoke.

"Manager Xu, I didn't expect you to become a supervisor so young." In order to resolve the awkwardness, Wu Tian took the initiative to talk to him.

"I was a financial accountant before, but thanks to CEO Huang's promotion." Xu Pei did not talk much, and her manner was a little restrained.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 483 - Refuse to Pay

C483 Refuse to Pay

"Tell me about Dongyang's situation." After chatting for a while, Wu Tian started to ask him about the topic he was most concerned about.

"Dongyang mainly deals with film and television dramas and advertising. Before, the company owed a lot of debt due to its poor management." Xu Pei briefly described the business situation of Dongyang's company.

"Why does Dongyang owe our company money?"

"It's because of the three years of advertising cooperation. We planted Dongyang's commercial in the movie and TV series, but they never paid for it until now."

"Have you asked for this debt before?"

"I've asked for debt no less than ten times." Xu Pei gritted her teeth, looking exhausted. "But every time, I would return empty-handed."

"What kind of person is their boss?"

"That man is a cunning liar. He would find all kinds of excuses to refuse to pay. In fact, his company has money, but he just doesn't intend to pay for it."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian rubbed his chin as he thought about how to deal with this type of cunning old fox.

"Rascals like Zhang Dongyang are rare in the industry, I'm afraid this time ..."
Xu Pei didn't finish her sentence, but the meaning behind her words was obvious.

Even if Boss Wu were to personally take action, he wouldn't be able to get that amount of money.

"Don't worry, I'll definitely get the money back." Wu Tian comforted her and didn't say anything else.

Soon, the two of them drove to Dongyang's company.

It was a large advertising company in the northern part of the city. It worked with many other television and film companies to plant and advertise other people's products.

In fact, Dongyang's performance was not bad and his profits were quite impressive. However, Zhang Dongyang, the boss of Dongyang's company, was notorious in the industry for his bad character and was in arrears with a lot of film and television companies' money.

The two of them arrived at the CEO's office and barged in without knocking.

Sitting at the desk was an ugly-looking man. It was Dongyang's boss, Zhang Dongyang.

Someone suddenly broke into his office, making him unhappy. When he saw Xu Pei, he immediately beamed: "Manager Xu, welcome to our company for your inspection."

With that, he stood up and shook Xu Pei's hand. It could be seen that the two of them were very familiar with each other.

"President Zhang, I'm not here to investigate." Xu Pei shook his hand symbolically and went straight to the point. "I'm here to ask for money for the company."

"Manager Xu, didn't I tell you that our company doesn't have any money right now? When my company becomes rich, I will definitely pay it back." Zhang Dongyang pretended to be pitiful.

"As far as I know, you guys have recently invested in a lot of new projects. How can you invest without money?"

"Money is invested in new projects, so there's no money."

"I don't want to talk to you about these useless things." Xu Pei's expression was solemn as she pointed to Wu Tian behind her and introduced: "This is the boss of our Huaxing, Wu Tian."

*

Zhang Dongyang was slightly surprised, maybe he didn't expect the new owner of Huaxing film to be so young and dressed so low-key.

After a moment of surprise, he hurriedly grabbed Wu Tian's arm, "Boss Wu, I didn't expect you to personally make a trip for such a small matter."

"Hello, Boss Zhang. It's a pleasure to meet you." Wu Tian clenched Zhang Dongyang's arm and pursed his lips into a smile.

He could already tell that the man in front of him was a cunning liar. If he used conventional methods, he definitely wouldn't be able to get the money.

"However, this time I think you came here for nothing. Our company is short on funds and we really have no money ..."

"What money?"

Zhang Dongyang was stunned and asked, "Didn't you come to ask us for money?"

"Boss Zhang is thinking too much. I'm not here to ask for money." Wu Tian waved his hand. The smile on his face made people not understand what he meant.

*

Xu Pei was stunned. They had clearly come to collect their debt, so why didn't Boss Wu admit to it?

Zhang Dongyang was stunned for a few seconds and then asked with a smile, "Since Boss Wu is not here to collect his debt, what do you want?"

"I just want to come over and chat with Boss Zhang." Wu Tian took out the promissory note from his pocket and moved it over, "Does Boss Zhang know this?"

"Of course I do. This is the promissory note I sent to your company three years ago." Zhang Dongyang said with a smile.

He wrote the promissory note himself, he had to admit, or he would be indicted.

*

Wu Tian directly tore the old promissory note into pieces without saying anything. Then, he rubbed it and threw it into the trash can.

Xu Pei coughed violently a few times and almost choked to death on her own saliva. She did not expect Boss Wu to tear up the promissory note.

They had a promissory note, but President Zhang wasn't willing to pay it back. If the IOU was torn, President Zhang definitely wouldn't pay it back.

Zhang Dongyang was shocked. He didn't expect the young man in front of him to directly tear up the promissory note. He didn't understand what he meant at all.

Obviously, this brat was here to collect debts on behalf of the company, but he suddenly tore up the IOU. Why is that?

"Boss Wu, you ..." Zhang Dongyang stayed where he was like a fool, completely clueless about the situation.

"Let's not talk about money today. I just want to become friends with Boss Zhang." Wu Tian shook his sleeves, raised his head and said proudly, "Several tens of millions is just a small matter to me."

"Alright, you and I will definitely become friends." When he heard that Wu Tian didn't come to ask for money, Zhang Dongyang immediately let down his guard, "Wait, I'll go make tea for you guys."

"I don't drink tea. Let's drink red wine."

"I just happen to have two bottles of good wine ..."

"No!" Wu Tian waved his hand and said with a smile, "Let's not drink at the company. I'll treat Boss Zhang to a drink."

"How can I let Boss Wu treat? I'll treat you." At this time, Zhang Dongyang was naturally very generous.

After all, Wu Tian didn't need him to pay several tens of millions, so he was naturally the one who would treat his guests.

"Alright, then I'll accept it."

"Boss Wu, after you." Zhang Dongyang was very happy as he extended his hand and made a gesture of "please".

"Alright." Wu Tian nodded and walked out of the office first. Zhang Dongyang followed behind him happily.

Xu Pei, on the other hand, stood on the spot like a fool. She had no idea what was going on.

Didn't they say that they would come together to collect the debt? Why did they become friends and go out to eat and drink together?

After seeing the two of them walk away, she followed them out with a foolish expression on her face.

When they went downstairs, Zhang Dongyang smiled and suggested, "Boss Wu, there's a big restaurant nearby that tastes pretty good. I'll take you over there to eat."

"No." Wu Tian waved his hand and refused: "Let's not go to the restaurant. I'm sick of the restaurant, it's boring."

"Then Boss Wu's meaning is ..."

"How about we go to the Red Rose Club? They have everything there. After we finish eating, we can find two girls to relax."

"Alright." Zhang Dongyang nodded in approval, then he suddenly moved his head over, "Isn't it inconvenient for us to take Manager Xu with us?"

"It's fine. Let's go." After saying that, Wu Tian threw the car keys to Xu Pei, "Manager Xu, help us drive to the Red Rose Club."

"This ..."

Xu Pei hesitated for a few seconds as she held the keys. Finally, she nodded. "Yes."

She really didn't know what the boss was up to, but she had no choice but to obey Boss Wu's orders.
