

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 501 - Tacit Understanding

C501 Tacit Understanding

After Shangguan Junjie left, those bodyguards also fled, and the scene quickly became quiet again.

Seeing that those guys were chased away by Wu Tian, Huang Lan secretly let out a sigh of relief. She quickly got out of the car and asked, "Hey, are you alright?"

"I have a stomachache." Wu Tian covered his stomach in an exaggerated manner, while his face showed pain.

"Did they hit you in the stomach?"

"Nope."

"Then why do you have a stomachache?"

"Menstruation is here."

"F * ck off." Huang Lan punched Wu Tian in the chest and snapped, "You want to scare me to death, right?"

"I was just joking with you."

"Don't joke with me in the future."

"Ok, then let's go home!" Wu Tian brought Elder Sister Lan into the car and drove back to Aifei Castle Wine House.

After a simple wash, he went to his study and read. He did not fall asleep until very late in the night.

He had nothing to say that night, so he got up early the next morning. He first sent Elder Sister Lan and Xue to work, then drove to school.

When he met Mu Ran at the entrance of the classroom, he greeted her with a smile, "Good morning, Teacher Mu."

"Wait a moment." Mu Ran called out to Wu Tian and asked in a low voice, "I went to your house last night and knocked on your door for a long time, but no one answered ..."

"Teacher Mu, it was midnight last night. What are you doing at my place?"

Mu Ran made a silencing gesture and said guiltily, "Can you lower your voice?"

Wu Tian nodded and asked in a low voice, "Teacher Mu, why did you come to my house so late at night?"

Mu Ran took out a bank card from her pocket and handed it over, "Your Martial Arts Club has taken first place. This is the reward given off by the office of academic affairs.

"Thank you, Teacher Mu." Wu Tian received the bank card and thanked him with a smile.

"No need to thank me, this is what you deserve." Mu Ran looked at the time and said, "Time is up, let's go to class!"

"Alright!"

Wu Tian turned around and walked towards the classroom. After a few steps, he turned back to Mu Ran and said, "Teacher Mu, I've moved now. I don't live in the same district as before."

"You moved?"

"Yes, I'm staying at the Aifei Castle right now. If Teacher Mu has anything else, she can go find me at the Aifei Castle."

"You live in the Aifei Castle?" Mu Ran's eyes lit up as she asked in surprise.

She was fortunate enough to have gone to Aifei Castle with her friend, which was an international winery. She didn't expect Wu Tian to move to that place.

"Yes."

Wu Tian nodded and remembered that there would be a banquet at home in a few days, so he invited, "I will hold a banquet at Aifei Castle in a few days. If Teacher Mu has time, please come and visit my house.

"No problem, I will definitely be there when the time comes."

"Alright, I'll inform Teacher Mu then. I'll be going to class first." After saying that, Wu Tian turned around and walked into the classroom.

After Teacher Mu's lesson, Wu Tian left the classroom and went out for a meal.

After dinner, he received a call from Blanche, "Mr Wu, I'm ready. Where are you now?"

"I'm at school. I just finished eating." Wu Tian replied to his phone.

Yesterday, he had promised Blanche that they would work together to search for Blood Ganoderma Herba. After they found the Blood Ganoderma Herba, the two would split the Spirit Sesame Grass equally.

Now that he knew that the Blood Ganoderma Herba was hidden in the Eight-Diagram Mountain, Wu Tian decided to take the risk and give it a try.

"Come to Golden Hall, I'll wait for you on the second floor."

"Alright, I'll be right there." After hanging up, Wu Tian rushed to Golden Hall and met the foreign girl at the entrance of the hall.

"Hello, Mr Wu." She was especially polite. After greeting him, she made a gesture to invite him in. "Miss Bu is waiting for you upstairs. Please."

"Alright." Wu Tian glanced at her, then walked into the lobby and walked up the stairs to the second floor.

He soon saw Blanche in the room. She had already changed into a hiking suit and was ready to go.

"I didn't expect Miss Bu to wear such a grand outfit." Wu Tian stared at the sexy girl for a few seconds and tried asking: "Could it be that Miss Bu is going to Eight-Diagram Mountain with me?"

"Yes, I plan to go and see how mystical the legendary Eight-Diagram Mountain is."

"Eight-Diagram Mountain is very dangerous, I advise you to ..."

"You're thinking too much. I'm only looking down from the sky by helicopter. I won't enter Eight-Diagram Mountain." Blanche explained with a smile.

"So that's how it is."

"Alright, let's go. Let's go to the airport first." Blanche took the lead and walked outside after she finished her sentence.

Wu Tian and the foreign woman followed closely behind. More than ten bodyguards outside the door also followed closely behind them, they were responsible for protecting Miss Bu's safety.

When they went downstairs, there were nearly ten luxury cars waiting for them.

Before getting on the car, Blanche turned around and said to Wu Tian, "Mr Wu, take my car."

"Alright!"

Wu Tian nodded and followed Blanche into the luxurious car.

The caravan was very spacious. All kinds of electrical appliances were available, including computers, television, refrigerators, toilets, and resting rooms.

In addition to these basic accessories, there was a special small room for Blanche's personal belongings, including shoes, clothes and cosmetics.

Besides the chauffeur, Blanche and the other bodyguards were all female. They all got on the cars at the back.

"I've seen plenty of rich people. Women like you are really rare." Wu Tian couldn't help but sigh.

"Each person's level is different. One should live a different life as long as one has a certain status." Blanche was reclining on a chair, looking a little tired and lazy.

"To be able to live such a life, you must be the richest person in Char Country, right?" Wu Tian Ban joked.

Blanche smiled without saying a word, and did not deny that she was the richest in Char Country.

After a while, she withdrew her smile, and said with a serious tone: "This time we are going to take out the Blood Ganoderma Herba from the Eight-Diagram Mountain, do you have a good plan?"

"Let's survey the terrain through the helicopter first. We'll talk about it after we understand the terrain of the Eight-Diagram Mountain." Wu Tian was not familiar with Eight-Diagram Mountain, so he could only take things one step at a time.

Before he clearly understood the situation within the Eight-Diagram Mountain, he could not rashly barge in, or else he would never be able to return.

"This is the only way." Blanche leaned back in her chair and closed her eyes to rest after she finished speaking.

He could tell that this woman was very tired. She hadn't slept soundly for a long time.

Her father was severely ill, and she was still waiting for the Blood Ganoderma Herba to cure his illness and save his life. Until she obtained the Blood Ganoderma Herba, she wouldn't be able to calm down.

Seeing how exhausted this woman was, Wu Tian couldn't help but suggest, "Miss Bu, I learned some massage techniques to relieve my fatigue. Do you want to try it?"

"This ..."

Blanche hesitated for a few seconds. Finally, she nodded her head. "Alright. Try it for me."

"Then relax, don't be nervous." Wu Tian stood up, walked behind Blanche and pressed her head with his hand.

His movements were sometimes light and sometimes slow, sometimes fast and sometimes slow.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 502 - Eight Trigrams Mountain

C502 Eight Trigrams Mountain

When he pressed down on her head, Blanche lay still. When Wu Tian's hands slid down her back, her body trembled like it had been electrocuted.

It was the first time her body had been touched by a man.

To be precise, this should be the second time. The first time was also when Wu Tian touched her. That time in the secret chamber, she was forced to do so.

"Relax, don't be nervous." Wu Tian pressed Blanche's shoulder and instructed her in a gentle tone.

"I am relieved!"

The corner of Blanche's mouth slightly let out a sigh. She changed her posture, but she still couldn't help but feel nervous.

The moment her skin was touched by his palm, she felt numb and itchy, numb to the point that it felt like she was struck by lightning.

It was a good thing that Wu Tian's hands were very well-behaved. He pressed down rhythmically on her shoulders, neck, head, and back without any deviation.

It took more than two minutes for her to get used to his hands, and she began to relax.

"OK, that's it." After ten minutes, Wu Tian retracted his hands and asked with a smile: "How are you feeling now?"

"I feel like my upper body is extremely relaxed, as if the burden on me has been lifted." Blanche turned her body left and right, seemingly enjoying the sensation.

"You should always pay attention to your body movements and rest more."

"I really didn't realize that you're quite capable." Blanche smiled slightly and asked half-jokingly, "Do you often massage other girls like this?"

"Not really."

Wu Tian grinned, walked back to the seat opposite and sat down.

"I heard that you China men are a bit dishonest." Blanche scanned Wu Tian with her eyes and said, "But I think you're quite honest."

"How do you know I'm honest?"

"When you massaged me just now, your hands were very well-behaved, and you didn't do anything out of line."

"When I met a beauty like you, I was actually very restless in my heart." After Wu Tian said this, he changed his tone: "But you are an international friend, I naturally cannot lose my identity, I cannot discredit our China men."

This kind of answer can not only show Blanche's charm, but also show the Chinese gentleman style in front of the foreign girls.

"I like that answer very much." The corner of Blanche's mouth curled up and a sweet and magnanimous smile appeared on her face.

While the two of them were chatting, the convoy had already arrived at the Eight Branch Stronghold, not far from Mount Lu. A brand-new helicopter was parked nearby.

This place belonged to the most remote location in the northern part of Luzhou. The north was by the Lushan Mountains, and the south was by the upper reaches of the Lushan River. It was the least developed region in the entire Luzhou area.

This area was far from the city's hustle and bustle, and traffic was extremely difficult. The area with a radius of ten kilometers was completely deserted.

Previously, the city tourist bureau planned to develop Lushan as a tourist attraction to be opened to the public. However, the price was too high, so the plan was put on hold indefinitely.

Nowadays, very few ordinary people would come to Lushan to play, only a few adventurers and outdoor enthusiasts would come to the foot of the mountain to have a picnic.

The 80% stronghold they were in was more than 10 Li away from Mount Lu. This place used to be a military external training base, but since the base had moved away, this place had always been empty.

But there was a lot of open space, which could be used as a temporary tarmac for forests and rescue.

Blanche had relied on her strong diplomatic skills to rent an aerodrome temporarily, and she was qualified to fly within fifteen kilometers of Lushan.

In addition to the brand-new helicopter, there was also a group of international professional explorers who were waiting here for Blanche's orders.

"The helicopters, the expedition team, and all kinds of equipment have been prepared. Go take a look." After getting out of the car, Blanche turned around and said to Wu Tian.

This time, she placed all her hope on Wu Tian. She hoped that this China boy would help her take out the Blood Ganoderma Herba.

"That's right." Wu Tian walked over to take a look at the equipment and was very satisfied with the preparation work.

There were more than 30 unmanned aerial vehicles, with a variety of specifications. In addition, there were various outdoor survival equipment and equipment. There were even remote positioning and survival equipment.

"If you need any other equipment or apparatus, I will have someone prepare them at any time." Blanche assured him confidently, "No matter what you want, I'll get someone to give it to you."

"Not yet."

Wu Tian stared at the device for a few seconds, then turned to Blanche and said, "Let's first fly to Eight-Diagram Mountain in a drone, first survey the terrain, then make a detailed plan."

"Okay, then do we need to bring the equipment?"

"We don't need too much equipment this time. We just need to bring along a drone, a high power telescope, a camera, and long-range positioning and rescue equipment."

"Ok!"

Blanche nodded and then walked over to speak to the foreigners.

A few foreigners nodded and began to busy themselves with a locator and distress alarm device for each of them. They then loaded two long-range unmanned aerial vehicles and binoculars onto the aircraft.

When the pilot was ready, he boarded the helicopter first.

With the help of his followers, Wu Tian and Blanche also prepared themselves for danger.

Before boarding the plane, Wu Tian suggested, "Miss Bu, the Eight-Diagram Mountain is unknown. Why don't you wait here for us?"

"It's fine, I'll go with you." Blanche took the lead in walking towards the helicopter after she finished her sentence.

Seeing that Blanche insisted on going, Wu Tian didn't stop her.

After all, this time they were riding on a drone which circled above the Eight-Diagram Mountain, surveying the terrain, inspecting the dangerous conditions, and not entering the mountains.

In this case, as long as the driver does not make a mistake, nothing unexpected will happen.

The helicopter could seat five people. In addition to the pilots, Wu Tian and Blanche, they also brought two surveying experts.

When everything was ready, the drone was launched into the air. A deafening roar resounded as the propellers were swept up into the air.

The helicopter quickly rose into the air and headed towards the north. It only took it ten minutes to reach the vicinity of the Octagon Mountain.

Beneath him were countless large mountains, tens of different sized mountain ranges, forming the special terrain of Mount Lu with Eight-Diagram Mountain located in the canyon in the center.

This was the only uninhabited area in the entire Lushan City, and the entire Eight-Diagram Mountain was deserted. It looked blurry from a distance.

Wu Tian hurriedly found the high power telescope and looked down with it. He found that the entire valley was covered by the clouds and he couldn't see the situation down there.

This cloud was like a piece of mysterious gauze, covering the entire face of the Eight-Diagram Mountain.

After looking through the telescope for a long time, he couldn't see anything clearly. Wu Tian simply gestured to the pilot to lower the plane closer to Eight-Diagram Mountain.

The pilot made a gesture of refusal. Right now, this altitude was relatively safe. If the helicopter was even lower, it would affect the safety of the plane.

Wu Tian did not make things difficult for the driver anymore. He knew that there were too many mountains nearby, so if he flew too low, it would affect his safety.

He did not want to use his life as a joke, nor did he want to use Blanche's and the others' lives as a joke.

He had no choice but to drop the drone.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 503 - Aircraft Crash

C503 Aircraft Crash

With the help of two surveying and mapping experts, Wu Tian consecutively launched several unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs), and the remote control UAVs entered the Eight-Diagram Mountain to take pictures.

The unmanned aerial vehicle has a high-definition camera attached to it, allowing the image to be projected onto the phone.

It was normal at first, but after the unmanned aerial vehicle entered Eight-Diagram Mountain Canyon, the scene was covered by thick smoke. The visibility was less than a meter and could not be seen clearly.

The images that came back from the drone, except for the fog and fog, did not show anything useful.

Not long after, all the drones crashed in the canyon.

"F * ck!"

Wu Tian cursed, he never thought that even drones would not be able to see the scene inside Eight-Diagram Mountain, what should he do?

He was not satisfied with this outcome. He dropped a few more UAVs in succession, but the result was the same. All of the UAVs crashed in the thick fog.

There was no helping it, the fog below was too thick. It was as if someone had covered their eyes at night and they could not see anything.

He just could not understand, even the other parts of Mount Lu did not have that much fog. How could Eight-Diagram Mountain have this much fog?

Looking from above, the valley over there in Eight-Diagram Mountain was filled with a large amount of dense fog, it was as if it was stuffed with cotton, and the dense fog was simply unable to dissipate.

The Eight-Diagram Mountain was blocked by so much fog, it was hard to see what was going on inside. The helicopter circled in the sky for more than ten minutes, and then the few of them decided to return.

Just as the helicopter was about to return, a hurricane descended from the sky, causing the helicopter to sink into the hurricane's whirlpool.

The sudden tornado caused everyone to become extremely nervous, causing them to panic for a moment.

"Miss Bu, don't worry. I can handle it." At the critical moment, the pilot calmly responded. He quickly drove the helicopter out of the hurricane.

"Thank goodness!"

Blanche breathed a sigh of relief. As she watched the helicopter escape, her hanging heart gradually settled down.

Even Wu Tian couldn't help but be secretly scared. This was the first time he rode a helicopter, so it was also the first time he encountered such a situation.

If an accident really happened to the helicopter and it fell from the sky, none of them would survive.

"Hurry, return to the tarmac." Blanche was so frightened that her face turned pale. She shouted an order to the pilot.

"Yes, Miss!"

The pilot had a strong mental fortitude and a first-rate professional forte. After receiving the order, he was prepared to turn around and return.

However, he quickly discovered that the control of the helicopter had failed. It was possible that the hurricane had destroyed the helicopter's system.

After knowing that the helicopter had malfunctioned, the pilot's face turned ashen, and his forehead was covered in cold sweat.

No matter how skilled he was, there was nothing he could do in this situation. At the moment, he could only wait for death.

"Hurry up and go back, do you hear me?" Seeing that the helicopter didn't return in the direction it had planned, Blanche shouted loudly.

"Report." The pilot was so nervous that he began to stutter. "The control system of the helicopter is out of order. It could crash very soon."

"What? The helicopter is out of order?" Hearing this news, Blanche was so scared that her heart turned cold. "Why did the helicopter suddenly fail?"

"It was the hurricane that destroyed the control system of the helicopter." After saying that, the pilot couldn't help but remind Blanche, "I suggest you jump into the air as soon as possible."

"Damn."

Blanche cursed angrily and ordered the surveying expert beside her, "Quick, help me put on my parachute jumping equipment."

"Yes, Miss!"

Upon receiving the order, the two investigation experts started to help Blanche put on her parachute jumping equipment, not caring for their safety at all.

At this moment, Blanche thought of Wu Tian. She instructed one of the experts beside her, "You, go help Mr Wu put on his parachute jumping equipment."

"Yes." When the foreigners on the side received the order, they hurriedly helped Wu Tian put on his parachute jumping equipment.

At this moment, Wu Tian was a bit panicked. He had never been in a helicopter before and had never thought that an accident would happen. At this moment, he didn't know how to respond to this kind of crisis.

However, when he heard Blanche arrange for someone to help him put on his parachute jumping equipment, he felt touched for some reason.

To be honest, he was indeed surprised. He didn't expect that in such a life or death situation, this foreign woman would still think of him.

If it were anyone else, they would have been scared to death. They would only care about their own lives, not caring about the lives of others.

Unfortunately, before the two could properly equip their parachute jumping equipment, another gust of wind hit them, hitting the helicopter hard.

The helicopter flipped over and slammed into the cabin door. Soon, the door on the right side was opened and two surveying experts were thrown out from the plane.

"Ah ... Ah ..."

Two terrible screams, like two sharp knives, fiercely stabbed Wu Tian's chest, causing him to be unable to breathe.

This was the first time he felt death so close. When death approached, he even forgot to be afraid and his mind went blank.

To say that one wasn't afraid of death was lying to himself. In this world, there was no one who wasn't afraid of death. As long as one was human, they were afraid of death.

Wu Tian was just like a lot of normal people, he was also afraid of death, so he didn't want to just die.

However, when death really came, he had no choice but to accept this fact.

When he was ready to die, he felt a hand holding onto him. He turned around and saw Blanche tightly holding onto his arm.

At this moment, Blanche was also frightened. Her face had already turned pale, and beads of sweat were rolling down her forehead.

Compared to other women, she was clearly much stronger. At least she didn't cry or shout or lose her composure.

"Come, I'll help you tie up the parachute." Seeing this woman's desire to live, Wu Tian decided to tie the parachute on her.

With a parachute, they might still be able to survive. If they didn't have a parachute, falling from high in the sky would be certain death.

"It's too late ..."

Before Blanche could finish her sentence, the helicopter flipped over once again. Under the effect of inertia, both of their bodies fiercely crashed out of the cabin door and rapidly plummeted to the ground.

Under the vast sky, their bodies were like two small birds, drawing a beautiful arc in the air.

Wu Tian no longer knew what fear was. He could only hear the sound of the wind in his ears and feel his heart beating like the beating of a drum.

Everyone was afraid of death, but when death really came, Wu Tian's heart was blank and his mind was also blank.

He had never thought that death would be so close to him, but when it did come, he was left with nothing to think about.

There were too many regrets in his heart, and there were many things he had yet to do.

After falling freely, his body finally sank into a thick fog, as if his eyes were being blinded.

In the entire Mount Lu region, only Eight-Diagram Mountain had a dense fog, which meant, he had fallen into the Eight-Diagram Mountain.

He was dying anyway, so these things didn't matter. He fell through the fog for a short two seconds before his vision cleared up.

His body sank down rapidly, and he fell heavily into the deep water. His whole body was wrapped in ice water and his bones were cold. It was as if his body was pierced by ice thorns.
