

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 504 - Escape from Death

C504 Escape from Death

This coldness made him feel very painful, but at the same time, it also made him feel very fortunate. From this, it could be seen that he was still alive and hadn't fallen to his death.

He kicked with both legs, paddling with both hands, and it took him a lot of effort to get out of the water.

As soon as he came out of the water, he coughed and spat a few times.

When he fell, he was too fast and had to choke. Fortunately, he could swim, so he was fine.

It took him half a minute to regain his composure. He looked around and saw that he was in a deep pool.

The deep pool was as big as a football field, and it was surrounded on all sides by walls as sharp as a knife. The walls rose vertically at a ninety degree angle.

He looked up along the cliff face and saw that a few hundred meters above him was a cloud cover, as if a piece of cotton candy had been stuffed into the canyon.

This was the dense fog that he had seen on the HD video of the drone. It looked somewhat strange.

He had not expected that the sky above the canyon would be covered with such a thick fog, blocking most of the light within the canyon. Furthermore, the fog would not be able to dissipate at all.

Being covered by the fog was like being sealed inside a well. One could not see the world outside the well.

After staring at the sky a few times, Wu Tian looked towards the lake in the distance and noticed a blue ribbon floating on top of the lake.

"Blanche?"

Wu Tian immediately recognized that this was the blue ribbon that Blancheza wore in her hair, symbolizing elegance and nobility.

He swam towards the direction of the ribbon and searched around for a while before finally finding Blanche.

The woman drank quite a bit of water, choking on the cold lake water until she was on her last breath, her face turning white.

"Hey, are you okay?" Wu Tian shook the woman's body but didn't get any response. He just opened his eyes and quickly entered a semi-conscious state.

"Hello, Miss Bu, Blanche ..."

Wu Tian called out a few times but didn't get any response. He could only carry her and swim towards the shore.

There were as many as three football fields in the entire canyon. The deep pool took up an area of one football field, and the rest were on the lakeshore.

However, there were large stone walls on the shore. It was obvious that it was formed from water washing all year round, which was why it had such a smooth and irregular shape.

After landing, Wu Tian carefully laid Blanche's body flat on the ground and then used both of his hands to give her a stomachic pressure.

He pressed her down several times before he heard the woman cough.

Blanche coughed a few times before spitting out a few mouthfuls of water. After spitting it out, she gradually woke up.

The first thing she said after waking up was, "Oh my god, I'm still alive. I'm really still alive ..."

"Are you okay?" Wu Tian reached out his hand to help the woman up from the ground and asked anxiously, "How do you feel now?"

"My stomach swells ..."

Blanche spat out a few more mouthfuls of water just as she finished her sentence.

She didn't feel much better until she puked out most of the water in her stomach.

Wu Tian patted Blanche's back and comforted her, "It's alright, I was just choking on water. I just need to rest for a while."

"Thank you!" Blanche pushed Wu Tian's arm away in embarrassment and said thankfully, "What an accident. We actually survived after falling off the plane so high."

"It's a good thing we fell into the lake. If we fell on the shore, we would probably be smashed to smithereens."

"Yeah, we finally managed to survive." Blanche stroked her wet hair and asked, "Where is this place?"

"This should be the Eight-Diagram Mountain Canyon."

"So you're saying, the Blood Ganoderma Herba could be hiding in this valley?"

"Yes."

"Then let's hurry to find the Blood Ganoderma Herba." Blanche wholeheartedly wanted to find the Blood Ganoderma Herba and bring it back to save her father.

When she got up from the ground, she saw Wu Tian still standing there motionlessly. She turned her head and questioned: "Why aren't you looking for the Blood Ganoderma Herba with me?"

"Look at this place."

Wu Tian pointed at the deep ravine. "This is a dead end, we can't escape at all, even if we find the Blood Ganoderma Herba."

Only then did Blanche realize that she was trapped in the Valley of Death.

Looking around, the entire canyon was surrounded by cliffs and cliffs, 90 degrees vertically upwards. For ordinary people, they wouldn't be able to climb even if they had the climbing tools.

Furthermore, there was a thick fog above them. They could not see what was happening above the fog, nor did they know how high the valley was from the top of the mountain.

If they wanted to climb up the cliff, that would be impossible. At the moment, they could only look for other exits.

"I think our priority right now is to find an exit." Wu Tian suggested expressionlessly.

If they could not get out, even if they found the Blood Ganoderma Herba, it would be useless. They would only be trapped here and die.

"Right, let's find the exit first." Blanche nodded her head in approval, "We'll look for the Blood Ganoderma Herba when we find the exit."

"Let's go!" Wu Tian reached out his hand to hold onto Blanche's arm, preparing to wait for her to find the exit.

Just as he held her hand, he was thrown off. With a red face, he said, "Mr Wu, there's an old saying in China that men and women aren't intimate with each other. Do you understand what I mean?"

"Seems like you're quite knowledgeable about our China and culture." Wu Tian took the lead and walked towards the other side after saying that.

Blanche glanced at her arm that had been pulled, then quickly followed him. However, she had a strange feeling in her heart.

The two of them searched along the entire stone shore, but could not find any exits.

Aside from the canyons and deep pools, there were only slippery rocks. There were no animals.

After looking around, the two of them started to despair. Blanche, exhausted, sat on the ground. "There's no exit. What do we do now?"

"Don't we have the location and rescue system on us?" Wu Tian suddenly thought of the high-tech stuff on his body and was overjoyed. He quickly took out the device.

It was a pity that the device had failed after the water had been poured in, and now it could not even turn on the machine.

Blanche hastily removed the positioning device from her body and discovered that it was useless and malfunctioning as well.

Blanche slammed the device onto the ground angrily, grumbling to herself, "What lousy thing is this? It's so useless."

"Forget it, let's save some energy." Wu Tian sat beside Blanche and tried to be concerned about her, "Are you hungry now?"

"Hungry!"

Blanche rubbed her belly. She hadn't eaten for an entire day and felt that her stomach was going to starve.

"Just wait, I'll go find something to eat." Wu Tian walked around the shore again and was very disappointed.

There were no animals or plants, not even tree bark, let alone food.

"How is it? Did you find anything to eat?" Seeing Wu Tian return in disappointment, Blanche also started to worry.

"Nope." Wu Tian shrugged and said helplessly, "The entire valley is empty. There's nothing to eat there."

"Then what should we do?"

"Don't worry, let me think." Wu Tian pondered for a long time. Suddenly, his eyes lit up: "Is there any fish or shrimp in this lake?"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 505 - Pretend to be Strong

C505 Pretend to be Strong

"Probably not!" Blanche's big eyes darted around before she analyzed, "The lake is so cold. It's not suitable for fish to survive."

"Everyone says that a big chest doesn't have brains. Your chest is so big, but I didn't expect your brain to be so useful." Wu Tian couldn't help but praise him.

Blanche coughed lightly, looking a bit embarrassed as she lowered her head.

Wu Tian glanced at the lake and said, "Although the temperature of the lake is very low, I still want to go down and have a look."

With that, he jumped into the icy lake.

The temperature of the lake was very low, only a few degrees Celsius. After falling into the water, it was as if he had fallen into a cold pond.

He quickly sank to the bottom of the lake and started searching for fishes and prawns in the water.

In the end, after searching for a long time, he could not find anything. Not to mention fish and shrimp, there were no microbes in the water at all.

Wu Tian had to go ashore after searching for more than ten minutes.

"How is it? Are there any fish or shrimp in the water?" Seeing Wu Tian come ashore, Blanche hurried forward to inquire about the situation.

"Nope."

Wu Tian shook his head and said with a face full of disappointment, "The entire cold pond is bone-chilling cold. It's impossible for fish and shrimp to survive here."

Blanche sighed helplessly and said, "Now that there's no exit and nothing to eat, what should we do next?"

"Don't worry, there will definitely be a way." Wu Tian comforted her.

Actually, he was also secretly anxious. If they were trapped in this kind of canyon, if they couldn't find the exit and didn't have any food, they probably wouldn't be able to hold on for long.

"I didn't expect that I would be trapped in this damned place." Blanche smiled bitterly with a strange look in her eyes.

Compared to the other girls, she was much stronger. Being trapped here and still being able to smile, she could still be considered optimistic and optimistic.

"Since we're here, we can be at ease. It's already fortunate that we didn't fall from such a height and die from the fall." Wu Tian comforted her and then sat down on the stone wall. "By the way, how old are you?"

"Nineteen." Blanche also sat down not far away from Wu Tian. She raised her head and looked at the lake in the distance.

"You're so young?"

Wu Tian was surprised, he didn't expect the woman to be only 19 years old.

It wasn't because she looked old, but because this woman was calm, capable, and possessed the aura of a queen. No matter how you looked at it, she didn't look like a 19 year old girl in the prime of her youth.

"Yeah."

Blanche nodded and stroked her hair. "Then do you think I'm very old?"

"You look very delicate, it's just that your temperament and working style are very mature, and you don't seem to be 18 years old."

"Is that so?"

"Right." Wu Tian nodded and could not help but ask the biggest question in his mind, "Miss Bu, I'm very curious about what exactly you do?"

He had always been curious about Blanche's identity. This woman had both power and wealth. She seemed capable of anything.

"Then what do I look like?" Blanche asked instead of answering.

"I feel that you are a wealthy merchant. However, with your diplomatic skills, you are also like a political figure. You are like a noble princess."

"Congratulations, you got it right." Blanche shook her head full of black hair and said with a smile, "That's right, I am Princess Char Country."

"Are you really a princess?" Wu Tian was just speaking casually, he didn't think that this woman was really a princess.

Princess Char Country was doted upon by a myriad of people, she possessed all sorts of power, money, and status. It was no wonder that she could call the wind and summon the rain from a foreign land.

No wonder this woman was only eighteen years old. She looked so capable and shrewd, her death clearly exuding the domineering aura of a king.

"Yes, I am indeed the Princess of Char Country." Blanche nodded and smiled, "I am the most powerful person in our country besides my father."

"So that's how it is." Wu Tian nodded in understanding.

Previously, he had heard this woman speak a few words. Her body was extremely noble, a true body of gold. No man dared to touch her body.

Once a man touched her body, he would be sentenced to death, and he might even lose his life.

Before this, he did not believe it, but after knowing that Blanche was the Char Country Princess, Wu Tian finally believed this fact.

In other words, Wu Tian was the first man to hug Blanche, and also the first man in the world to touch her body.

"After knowing my identity, you don't seem to be afraid at all?" Blanche questioned with a crooked tone.

"You are just a princess of the Char Country, what is there to be afraid of?" Wu Tian didn't think much of it. As far as he was concerned, this woman was no different from an ordinary woman.

"Then you don't want to please me?"

"There's no need."

"You are truly different from the others." Blanche pursed her lips and smiled. She had a good impression of this man called Wu Tian.

The man in front of him was different from ordinary people.

When ordinary people found out her identity, they would either be scared witless, or they would try their best to curry favor with her.

The man in front of her was different. He remained indifferent even after knowing of her identity as a noble princess. He didn't have any intention of fawning on her.

"I think you're different too."

"How am I different?"

"Other princesses only know how to be domineering, but you have more self-respect, both as a queen and as a woman." Wu Tian gave such an evaluation.

"The smell of a woman?" Blanche blinked her round eyes, feeling puzzled by these words.

"You have a sexy body and a coquettish face. You look like a young woman whenever you smile or frown."

"Is that so?" Blanche's heart was as sweet as if she had eaten a secret meal when she heard this evaluation.

She had heard countless praises, heard all kinds of flattery, and had long hated these words. However, Wu Tian's words made her feel very satisfied.

"Although you are a high and mighty princess, you are a very kind person. Other princesses cannot compare to you in this aspect."

"How can you tell that I'm kind?"

"Before the helicopter crash, in the face of life and death, you didn't forget to have someone help me wear my parachute when you were wearing your parachute. This proves that you are very kind."

"That's not kindness. That's known as repaying kindness." Blanche caressed her wet hair and laughed: "We from Char Country know how to be grateful the most. You saved my life, so of course I will remember your gratitude."

"Repaying kindness with kindness is also a sign of kindness."

"Alright!" Blanche tilted her head. "Thank you for your high opinion of me."

"Why did you come to China?"

"For the Blood Ganoderma Herba."

"So that's how it is."

"My royal father has a serious illness and needs Blood Ganoderma Herba as a guide to cure it." Blanche's mood instantly dropped when her father was mentioned. "If we can't find the Blood Ganoderma Herba, my father ..."

Before she could finish, she lowered her head, and her mood became much heavier.

"You are such a filial child." Wu Tian had a good impression of this beautiful and kind princess in front of him.

"No matter who it is, it's still the same. Seeing that their parents are sick, the children will not feel good." Blanche pursed her lips and smiled, pretending to be strong.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 506 - Warm Each Other up

C506 Warm Each Other up

As time passed, the skies gradually darkened, and the temperature plummeted. It was as if they were stuck in a cave of ice.

The entire canyon was like a sealed space. It was as if the two of them were inside a black box, where they couldn't even see each other's fingers.

More accurately, they were inside a freezer, dark, cold, and hungry. The feeling of hunger and cold was very uncomfortable.

Hunger could be endured for a day, but the cold was unbearable.

The difference in temperature between day and night was so great that during the day they still felt the temperature was high, but at night it was so cold.

As time passed, the night grew colder and colder. Both of them were curled up into a ball, both of them curling up and swinging.

By the latter half of the night, the entire canyon had been frozen to the point that everyone's limbs were as cold as ice.

"I'm so cold!" Blanche gritted her teeth and persevered for a long time. Finally, she was unable to take it anymore.

"It's really cold." Wu Tian was so scared that his teeth were chattering. He took off his jacket and handed it to Blanche, "Here, put on my jacket."

"What will you do?" Blanche didn't take the coat. She didn't seem as selfish as the other women.

"I'm fine, I'll carry the frost." Wu Tian pretended to be strong as he said.

No matter who it was, when faced with such a situation, they would be unable to resist the urge to protect the woman beside them.

"I don't want it, hurry up and dress!" Blanche expressed her refusal, but her heart was very moved.

Under this kind of frozen condition, Wu Tian could still think of giving her clothes to wear. This was indeed rare.

"Alright, hurry up and put it on or I'll throw it away." Wu Tian said in a domineering manner. After that, he groped around to help Blanche put on her coat.

However, there was no light in this place and he couldn't see anything. It was inevitable that his body would come into contact when he helped her dress.

"Don't!"

After her body was touched, Blanche was so frightened that she hurriedly stopped him. "Did you touch my body? I'll wear it myself."

"Alright!" Wu Tian could only withdraw his hand.

He didn't expect Blanche to be so self-loving. She was so resistant to such simple physical contact. She clearly valued purity too much.

"Thank you." After Blanche put on her clothes, she thanked Wu Tian with a serious tone.

"It's nothing." Wu Tian endured the cold and suggested to Blanche, "We can't just squat like this. We should exercise for a bit to increase the blood flow."

"Makes sense."

Blanche nodded approvingly, and the two stood up to do some simple exercise to increase the heat.

After the exercise, the body would indeed feel better, but the energy consumption would be very fast.

After all, the two of them hadn't eaten for a long time and didn't have the energy to do any exercises. Soon, they were so tired that they collapsed onto the ground.

As time passed, the temperature became colder and colder. It was as if the two of them were squatting in a refrigerator.

"Miss Bu, this isn't the way. If this goes on, we'll freeze to death sooner or later." Wu Tian felt like he couldn't hold on anymore. It was too cold at the moment.

If he couldn't even hold on, then Blanche wouldn't be able to take it either.

"Yes, yes, now, what, what should we do?" Blanche was so cold that her teeth were chattering. She couldn't say a word for a long time.

"If it really doesn't work, then let's just group up and get warm."

"What do you mean?"

"Just hugging each other to keep warm."

"That won't do." Upon hearing this, Blanche firmly objected, "Men and women shouldn't be so intimate with each other. I can't just hug you like this."

Last time, she was forced to urinate in the secret room by Wu Tian. That time, it was already a big taboo for her, so that kind of thing must never happen again.

"Keeping our lives is more important, now is not the time to care about small matters. If we want to live, this is the only way."

"But ..."

"Alright, let's just treat each other as a warm stove. Just hug each other and not move about too much." After Wu Tian said this, he took the initiative to hug Blanche tightly.

Although Blanche felt embarrassed, she did not resist. Just like Wu Tian said, this was the only way to save her life.

She still needed to go back and treat her father's illness. There were still many things she needed to accomplish, so she couldn't just die in vain.

She let herself be held by these hands. The two of them stuck closely to each other, and in an instant, she felt a warm current flowing around her. Indeed, it was as comfortable as hugging a large furnace.

Her body felt much more comfortable, but her heart was beating wildly.

Being hugged like this by a man made her blush, and her heart beat like a drum.

She had never felt so awkward before. The sky was still dark and she couldn't see anything. Otherwise, she would be even more embarrassed.

Blanche swallowed her saliva and whispered with a flushed face, "Do you have a girlfriend?"

"Not now." Wu Tian couldn't help but tease him, "What? You want to be my girlfriend?"

"Of course not." Blanche was so frightened that she hurriedly shook her head. She had never thought of looking for a boyfriend so early in the morning, much less a man with China.

"Are you feeling better now?"

"I'm much better."

"Hold on tight." Wu Tian hugged Blanche even more tightly.

Just like that, the two of them used this method to keep each other warm. Although it was still very cold, it was much better than before.

After an unknown period of time, the two of them fell asleep while hugging each other.

The next morning, the temperature gradually rose. The ice-cold feeling from last night gradually disappeared and their bodies began to warm up.

The weather here was quite magical. The temperature was normal during the day, but at night, it would be extremely cold.

After Wu Tian woke up, he felt sore all over his body and his entire arm was sore as if it was beaten.

Maybe it was because it was too cold last night, and he was hugging Blanche too tightly, that his arms were so sore and uncomfortable.

Wu Tian wanted to get up and stretch his limbs, but he saw Blanche sleeping soundly in his arms. He was worried that he would wake the woman up, so he decided to keep his current position and didn't dare to move recklessly.

Honestly speaking, she was indeed good-looking, with blonde hair and blue eyes, and her skin was as white and delicate as jade. She should be the number one goddess in Char Country.

As he stared intently at the woman, Blanche slowly opened her eyes and woke up.

Coughing sounds rang out.

Blanche coughed dryly. She felt uncomfortable being stared at like that. She said softly, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"I think you're pretty good-looking. You're as delicate as a porcelain doll." Wu Tian praised him from the bottom of his heart.

This caused her charming face to flush, and she rolled her eyes: "I never thought that you China men would speak in such flowery words."

"I mean it."

Blanche snorted lightly and reminded him, "Can you let go of me now?"

"Alright." Only then did Wu Tian come back to his senses and quickly let go of Blanche's body.

"I am relieved!"

Blanche stood up from the ground, took off her jacket and handed it to Wu Tian, "Thank you for yesterday, otherwise I might have already died."

"We just want to warm each other up and help each other." Wu Tian stretched his arms and legs and hugged her for the whole night. He was really tired.
