

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 507 - Find Exit

C507 Find Exit

"My stomach is so hungry." Blanche pressed her hands against her stomach and muttered, "If only I had a steamed bun."

She had eaten all kinds of delicacies before, had never been hungry, had never worried about food.

Now that she was trapped in this deep mountain valley, a steamed bun was an extravagant hope for her.

"I also want to eat steamed buns." When Wu Tian said this, he couldn't help but look at the part in front of Blanche.

"You're a hooligan!"

Blanche's face reddened as she hurriedly covered her body with her hands. "Where are your naughty eyes looking?"

"Don't get me wrong, I was just looking around." Wu Tian quickly retracted his impure gaze.

"At this time, you're still in the mood to let your imagination run wild." Blanche rolled her eyes slightly and said seriously, "What should we do next?"

"Let's find some food first!"

After Wu Tian said this, he continued to search for food along the rock bank.

"I'll go with you." Blanche followed closely behind him. She could not sit still and wait for death. She followed Wu Tian to look for food.

The two of them went back and forth along the rocky shore, searching every nook and cranny they could find, but to no avail.

The entire canyon was empty without any food.

After a few laps, the two of them had completely lost all hope.

"There is nothing to eat here. It seems that we will starve to death." Blanche's eyes were filled with despair as she looked at the Swallowing Fog in the air.

Ever since they had fallen into the canyon, the fog had been floating overhead like cotton candy, and it hadn't dispersed.

"That's right!"

Wu Tian looked at the fog above his head and said expressionlessly, "As the saying goes, the heavens will not leave us with nowhere to go. I'm afraid this time, we are really doomed."

"Sigh!"

Blanche sighed lightly and said unwillingly, "I've lived for nineteen years and haven't even been in a relationship. If I die now, I would truly feel regretful."

"I can help you with that." Wu Tian leaned his head over and said half-jokingly, "Before you die, I can date you."

Blanche glanced at Wu Tian but did not say anything. She just raised her head and looked into the distance, staring blankly at the calm lake.

In this environment, she was not in the mood to fall in love.

She was cold and hungry and in dire straits. For someone like her who was on the verge of death, no one had the heart to fall in love.

While the two of them were staring at the lake in a daze, huge bubbles appeared in the lake in the distance.

The bubble instantly attracted their attention. Blanche couldn't help but question, "Such a big bubble, there shouldn't be any water monsters, right?"

"The temperature of the lake is too low for monsters to survive." Wu Tian shook his head and rejected this idea.

"What is that bubble?"

"I don't know. I'll go take a look first." Wu Tian stared at the lake for a while, then jumped into the lake and swam towards the bubbling area.

The blisters were coming from the bottom, and he quickly dived into the water to see what was going on.

When he dived into the water, he discovered something mysterious. He didn't expect that there was a big hole in the cliff face underneath the water. It must have come out of that hole.

The hole was inserted horizontally into the stone wall. The cave was oval in shape, and the diameter of the hole was more than one meter.

He swam along the cave and found that the cave was very deep. After swimming for about six meters, he realized that there was light in front of him.

Seeing this light, Wu Tian was happy. Could it be that the other side of the cave was the exit?

With that in mind, he sped up and swam towards the other end of the cave. It took him a long time to swim out of the cave.

Fortunately, he had learned diving before. Otherwise, he would have definitely suffocated to death.

After he swam out of the cave, he entered another area of water. With his fastest speed, he swam out of the water and breathed heavily.

It took him a while to regain his composure. He turned his head and looked around, inquiring about the waters.

This place was similar to the place he was at a moment ago. It was also a large canyon, and its four sides were surrounded by towering cliffs and precipices. He was currently in a deep pond.

The canyon, the deep lake, and the thick fog above the canyon were all the same as the one he was in just now.

He stared at the surroundings for a while. Wu Tian swam to the shore and climbed up. He turned around and looked around and found a lot of irregular stone caves on the walls.

There were dozens of big and small caves, the largest one meter tall and the smallest one less than thirty centimeters tall.

Wu Tian suspected that these stone caves were the exit. He found the biggest one and walked into it. It was dark inside and he couldn't see his fingers in front of him.

After walking for a few dozen meters, he still didn't see the exit. Wu Tian didn't walk any further and returned along the same path.

He was worried about leaving Blanche alone in the valley next door, so he decided to bring her here first before thinking of a way to find the exit.

After almost half an hour, Wu Tian finally returned to the neighboring canyon. Soon, he saw Blanche.

"Hey, where did you go just now?" Blanche was extremely anxious as she waited here. When she saw Wu Tian, she asked him anxiously.

She saw Wu Tian dive into the lake and then disappear. She waited for more than an hour. She thought that China boy had drowned in the lake.

"I'm entering the cave." Wu Tian wiped the water off his face, pointed at the lake and said, "There's a hole under the water that just bubbled out."

"There's a hole?"

"Yes, I went along the cave and discovered that at the other end of the cave, there is also a great canyon like this."

"You mean there are canyons next door?"

"Right, about ten meters away, there is also a great gorge. It's exactly the same as this gorge, with a lake and fog."

"Oh my god, it's so magical."

"However, I found a lot of caves in the neighboring canyon. Perhaps these caves can lead to the outside world."

"Wait!" Blanche's eyes lit up as she asked excitedly, "You mean there's an exit next door?"

"I'm not sure yet."

"Then let's hurry over and take a look."

"Come on, follow behind me. Be careful. That cave is a little long, so you need to hold your breath."

"Don't worry, I'm a good swimmer." Blanche confidently patted her chest. She had absolute confidence in swimming.

"That's good. Then follow behind me. Be careful." Wu Tian gave a few instructions before bringing Blanche to swim towards the bubbling lake.

The two quickly found a cave under the lake and swam towards the other side of the cave.

The cave was too long. When they were halfway through the swim, Blanche obviously couldn't hold her breath and grabbed Wu Tian's arm.

Wu Tian saw that the woman could not hold on any longer, so he hugged her and continued to swim towards the opposite side.

It took more than half an hour to reach the other side.

Wu Tian quickly supported Blanche's body and brought her to the surface.

"Cough, cough ..."

Blanche coughed a few times and spat out a few mouthfuls of water as soon as she stepped out of the water.

She had been in the water for too long, and she couldn't hold it in any longer, so she drank a few mouthfuls of water.

Fortunately, she was being pulled by Wu Tian, otherwise, she would have choked to death a long time ago.

Wu Tian patted Blanche's back and asked with concern, "Hey, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Blanche pressed her hand to her chest, her mouth was wide open as she continued to exhale hot air.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 508 - Dispel Awkwardness

C508 Dispel Awkwardness

"He just said that he's a good swimmer. I didn't expect him to slap his face so quickly." Wu Tian couldn't help but mock him.

"The water is too cold, I'm just not used to it." Blanche stroked her hair, an awkward expression on her face.

Usually, the water temperature for swimming was normal, but the water temperature in this lake was too low, making people uncomfortable.

"You're great." Wu Tian put away the playful smile on his face and said seriously, "Let's go, I'll take you ashore."

He was about to take her ashore, but she turned him down.

"Thank you for your kind intentions. I can handle it myself." Blanche gently pushed Wu Tian away and swam towards the shore on the other side of the lake.

This woman's swimming posture was very sexy, just like a mermaid. Her entire body was filled with charisma.

As the two climbed up the mountain, Blanche soon saw the caves on the stone wall. She exclaimed, "Why are there so many caves in this place?"

"The way I see it, this cave should be natural."

"The supernatural arts of nature are truly magical." Blanche sighed with emotion and quickly walked towards the largest cave. "Come, let's go in and find the exit."

"No rush. Let's take a rest first." After Wu Tian said this, he sat on the stone wall beside him.

The cave was very long and pitch black inside. It was very difficult and slow to walk inside.

It was not too late for him to recover first, and then he would slowly go in to find the exit.

"It's about time. Let's go." After resting for five minutes, Blanche tidied up her hair and led the way into the large stone cave.

After entering the cave, she stopped and turned around to ask Wu Tian, "It's too dark here, do you have a flashlight?"

"No, my phone was already gone when the plane crashed." Wu Tian shrugged with a helpless look.

"Then what should we do?"

"There's no other way. We can only find a way forward." Seeing Blanche hesitating, Wu Tian suggested, "I'll walk in front, why don't you drag my clothes and follow behind?"

"Alright." Blanche felt that this suggestion was pretty good. Pulling Wu Tian's clothes could ease a lot of awkwardness.

"Let's go!" Wu Tian took the lead and walked into the tunnel. Blanche pulled Wu Tian's clothes and followed closely behind him.

The two of them, one in front and one behind, walked along the tunnel.

Their tunnel was very long, and after walking for more than two thousand meters, they still had not reached the end.

"What ..."

When they were about three thousand meters away, Blanche let out a sudden scream and fell to the ground.

"What's wrong?" Wu Tian hurriedly stopped and turned around to ask Blanche about the situation.

There was no light at all within the tunnel, so he couldn't clearly see Blanche behind him. He had no idea what was going on.

"I accidentally twisted my leg just now. It hurts." Blanche hugged her right leg, trying her best to explain while enduring the pain.

"Did you twist your foot?"

"Right."

"Is it serious?"

"It looks swollen. I can't walk."

"There's no other way. Now, I have no choice but to carry you on my back."

"But ..."

"Alright." Before Blanche could say anything, she was interrupted by Wu Tian: "The situation is special. We can't be separated by sex. I can only carry you on my back or we'll die here."

"Alright!" Blanche hesitated for a few seconds before finally nodding her head.

In this situation, if she still considered her to be a princess with a body of gold, then she really wouldn't be far from death.

She gritted her teeth and climbed onto Wu Tian's back while enduring the pain.

Their bodies came into contact seamlessly, causing Blanche's face to immediately turn red, and her heart to beat wildly like a drum.

"Miss Bu, I didn't expect you to be so heavy." Wu Tian couldn't help but tease her as he carried her on his back.

In fact, this woman was not fat, nor was she thin. She was a perfect woman with a sexy figure.

"Stop bullshitting, I'm only a hundred pounds." Blanche's face was filled with embarrassment as she hurriedly retorted.

"I'm saying that your upper body is heavier, so you're pressing down on my back and getting hot."

"You, hoodlum!" Blanche's face reddened. She couldn't help but scold him.

Being mocked by this China man in front of her, she was not particularly angry, she only felt a little shy.

If she was teased by another man, with her identity as the princess of a noble family, she would definitely dismember their bodies into ten thousand pieces.

"Alright, let's continue on our way." Wu Tian stopped smiling and continued to walk along the tunnel with her on his back.

The tunnel was indeed very long. After walking for more than half an hour, his legs were about to break, but in the end, he still had not reached the end.

Having not eaten for two days and walking so far, Wu Tian's legs were weak and exhausted.

Fortunately, he had already trained before. If it were any other man, he would have already collapsed from exhaustion.

"Let's take a break after walking for so long." Blanche was worried that Wu Tian would be exhausted, so she suggested it.

"It's fine, I'm not tired." Wu Tian naturally couldn't be scared in front of a woman. He gritted his teeth and carried the woman on his back as he continued walking.

After walking for another few kilometers, Blanche could not help but exclaim, "Wu, look! There's light up ahead!"

"Great." Wu Tian raised his head and also saw the light in front of him. He smiled and said, "Perhaps it's the exit in front of us."

"Great, we finally found the exit." Blanche couldn't hide her excitement as she hugged Wu Tian's neck tightly.

Coughing sounds rang out.

Wu Tian coughed and complained, "Hey beauty, are you trying to strangle me?"

"Yes, I'm sorry." Blanche was embarrassed and quickly let go of Wu Tian's neck.

"Come, let's go to the front and take a look." Wu Tian quickened his pace towards the light, hoping that there was an exit in front of him.

The further they went, the brighter the light became. After walking for more than a thousand meters, the two of them finally walked out of the tunnel.

Seeing this dazzling light, both of them were in a very happy mood. They couldn't help but laugh happily.

When they walked out of the tunnel, the smile on their faces gradually disappeared, and their moods instantly became depressed as well.

Although they had walked out of the tunnel, there was no exit here. They had only arrived at an even larger canyon.

The canyon was very large, and on all four sides, towering cliffs could be seen. The canyon rose 90 degrees straight up into the sky.

Fortunately, there was no mist covering the valley. They raised their heads and looked at the sky, and could see the sky and clouds outside the cliff face.

At the same time, the canyon had trees and plants, as well as all kinds of flowers, plants and insects.

Looking at the scene in the canyon, Blanche could not help but question, "Why were those two canyons barren? Are there any plants or animals in this canyon?"

"Maybe it's because the two canyons are blocked from the sunlight by the fog, causing the temperature to be abnormal. That's why there are no plants or animals." Wu Tian tried analyzing.

"This explanation is very reasonable."

"Maybe we can find food here."

"Then why don't you put me down first?" Blanche slightly shook her body as she quietly warned him.

"Alright!"

Wu Tian carefully put the woman down on the ground and asked with concern, "How is your sprained foot?"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 509 - New Discovery

C509 New Discovery

"I still hurt." When Blanche replied, she had already rolled up the pants on her right leg.

There was a red swelling on the top of her right ankle. It seemed to be a serious injury.

"Your injuries are very serious, I'll help you deal with them." After Wu Tian said this, he reached out his hand to grab her right foot.

Blanche exclaimed. She was so frightened that she quickly retracted her right leg and frowned. "It's not good for us to do this, right?"

It was too awkward for her to let a man touch her right foot.

"In this place, please don't put too much emphasis on etiquette." Wu Tian grabbed Blanche's ankle in a domineering manner and started rubbing it gently clockwise.

Blanche didn't resist anymore and allowed Wu Tian to press down on her ankles. However, her heart was thumping non-stop.

After a series of compressions, Wu Tian suddenly pulled hard on her foot.

Blanche screamed miserably. She was in so much pain that tears were about to flow out of her eyes. Her entire face had turned pale.

Wu Tian retracted his hands and asked with concern, "Miss Bu, how do you feel now?"

"I feel like ..."

Blanche was about to complain when she suddenly realized that the pain in her legs had completely disappeared.

Not only was her ankle not painful, the swelling on her leg was also gradually disappearing. Her leg looked exactly the same as it usually did.

After stretching her wrists, Blanche slowly raised her head and looked at Wu Tian. "I didn't expect your technique to be so amazing."

"I'm not that amazing. This is just common sense in life." Wu Tian smiled, he didn't take this seriously at all.

To the Chinese, the treatment of sprained leg and wrist was a piece of cake. They only needed to understand a little bit of medical knowledge.

"I didn't think that the China men would be so capable." Blanche complimented and then stood up. She dusted herself off and asked, "What should we do next?"

"I saw a fruit tree over there. Let's go and see if there are any fruits." Wu Tian pointed at the forest not far away and led Blanche there.

Soon, the two arrived at the small forest. They found a lot of trees and some strange-looking fruits.

They had never seen these fruits before, so the two of them did not dare to carelessly eat them. They continued to search for them in the forest.

After searching for a long time, they finally found an apple tree in the forest. They found a lot of green apples hanging on it.

The two of them picked a lot of apples and began to wolf down on them.

The green apple was a bit bitter, but it could still fill his stomach. The two of them ate more than ten mouthfuls before filling their stomachs.

"So delicious." Blanche licked her lips and said happily, "This is the most beautiful food I've ever eaten."

When people are at their hungriest, whatever they eat will taste good.

"With so many fruits, even if we can't find the exit, we won't starve to death in a short period of time." Seeing these apples, Wu Tian felt more at ease.

"Let's find an exit. I don't want to stay here and eat apples with you."

"Ok, let's go find the exit."

After filling their stomachs, the two continued to walk forward through the small forest.

After walking a short distance, Blanche stopped and pointed at the pile of bones in the grass. "Are those human bones?" she asked doubtfully.

"Yes!"

Wu Tian went up to check and confirmed, "These are all human bones. It seems like they have been dead for a long time. Their bodies are rotten and only bones are left."

"Who are these people? How could they have died here? " Blanche questioned with a frown.

She was frightened and frightened at the sight of so many bones, but she did not shout, even calmer than many men.

If it were any other girl seeing so many corpses and bones, they would have already screamed out in fear.

"It could be someone from the expedition team." Wu Tian didn't know whose bodies these were, so he could only guess.

"I heard that in the past, there were many people who entered the Eight-Diagram Mountain Canyon to search for Blood Ganoderma Herba. Could they be people who seek treasures?"

"It's possible."

"If they really are treasure hunters, then the Blood Ganoderma Herba might be nearby."

"What you say makes sense. Let's look around the vicinity!" Wu Tian walked closer and checked the situation inside the bush.

Other than a pile of bones, there was nothing else in the grass. This man seemed to have been dead for a long time, his body was decomposed to the bone.

Just as he was carefully inspecting the pile of bones, he heard Blanche cry out in surprise from behind him. "Wu, there's someone behind us!"

"Someone's here?"

Wu Tian quickly turned his head and found that there was indeed a person lying in the forest not far away. To be more precise, it was a dead body.

It was too far away for him to tell if it was human or animal.

"Let's go take a look." Wu Tian gritted his teeth and bravely walked towards the body.

They smelled Ego's strong stench before they got close to him. It was like the stench of dead rats, disgusting.

When Wu Tian was less than 20 meters away from the dead body, he finally saw clearly that the body lying in the woods was indeed that of a man.

When he got closer, he found that the body had already rotted and become rotten. The body had been bitten by mosquitoes, and only the bones were still connected to the flesh.

From the looks of it, he couldn't tell if it was a man or a woman.

Judging by the rotting state of the body, he could tell that the man had been dead for more than half a year.

As soon as Blanche walked closer, she covered her nose and started to vomit. Not long after that, she started to vomit.

"Are you alright?"

Wu Tian patted her back and quickly pulled her away from the corpse, "Let's not go over there."

"I can't stand the smell." Blanche clutched her chest. She still looked like she was sick and retching.

"The temperature here is just right. If the temperature is high, then it would definitely smell even worse."

"How did those people die? Is he starving to death? " After a while, Blanche gradually recovered and couldn't help but frown as she questioned.

However, she quickly refuted this conjecture and shook her head. "There are fruits here. They shouldn't starve to death."

"Maybe they came in the wrong season. The fruit trees are still blooming and haven't borne fruit yet."

"So you're saying they really starved to death?"

"No!" Wu Tian shook his head and said in a serious tone, "There were bite marks and bite marks on the body just now. He might have been bitten to death by an animal."

"Animals?"

"Right."

"What animal is so fierce?"

"Look." Wu Tian seemed to have noticed something, he pointed at the black ball on the ground and said, "That thing should be animal feces with hair on top."

"If you don't say it, I would have thought it was a fruit core!"

"Let me smell it." Wu Tian sniffed a few times and quickly confirmed, "It really is animal poop."

"You said there are man-eating animals here?"

"Probably."

"But why didn't I see anything?" Blanche turned her head and looked around, but didn't see any animals.

Although this place was very large, if there were any animals here, then there would definitely be a lot of noise, and it wouldn't be hard to find them.

However, throughout the entire canyon, they didn't find any large man-eating animals.
