C556 Anger due to Embarrassment

He was also a normal man who was full of vigor. When he saw this kind of naked temptation, he instantly felt as if a certain part of his body was about to move.

He immediately took a bottle of mineral water from the table and fed it to Su Ruyun.

This woman was obviously under the effect of the Bewitching Powder. If he did not stop her, it might have been a scene that was even more eye-catching.

Wu Tian immediately extended his finger and pointed at the acupoint behind the other party's ear.

Su Ruyun let out a stuffy groan. Her whole body was suddenly weak and powerless. The torn collar made her look extremely tempting.

He took the mineral water and fed it to Su Ruyun before slowly waking up.

When Su Ruyun woke up, she immediately saw the enlarged handsome face. She immediately sat up and slapped Wu Tian.

"You rascal! What did you do to me? "

Wu Tian got slapped for no reason and became angry due to embarrassment. However, this woman did not know the truth, so it was normal for her to have such a reaction.

He started to explain.

"Just now, I was just helping you ..."

"Stay away from me, scram!"

Su Ruyun became more and more agitated as she pushed Wu Tian away.

Since he couldn't explain it clearly, Wu Tian simply grabbed the back of the other party's head and kissed him.

He directly kissed until Su Ruyun was unable to breathe. He let go of her and wiped the liquid from the corner of his mouth.

"This is what I did!"

After saying that, he turned around and walked out of the presidential suite.

Since his explanation wasn't clear, there was no need to waste his breath. Didn't that woman think that he had done something? Then he did.

He walked to the hall on the first floor and pulled Huang Lan away from the banquet.

Su Ruyun touched her lips that were hurting from the kiss. After a while, she calmed down and suddenly saw the camera in the corner.

"This beast!"

She scolded him without thinking and adjusted her torn collar before getting off the bed and walking towards the corner. She picked up the monitor and switched the scene back to half an hour ago, watching it slowly.

If Wu Tian did something to her, she would definitely cripple him so that he wouldn't be able to climb onto a woman's bed for the rest of his life.

After she finished watching the monitor screen, she instantly fell into deep thought.

So it turned out that Wu Tian had been saving her just now. She had also seen the scene of Chen Tianhao being chased out of the room by Wu Tian.

She touched her lips and a faint smile unconsciously formed on her lips.

Wu Tian returned to his living quarters. As soon as he entered the door, Loong Yun immediately looked at the lipstick on his face, showing a moment of confusion.

"Young master ..."

She wanted to open her mouth, but Wu Tian had already rushed into the bathroom with his clothes in hand.

He turned to Huang Lan and asked.

"What happened to you at the party?"

Huang Lan shook her head in confusion.

"It's nothing. Cheng Yaotian called him to his office, but when he came down, he pulled me and left. I didn't know anything!"

Huang Lan didn't lie. It was clearly like that just now.

As for the lipstick print beside Wu Tian's lips, she only noticed it after she came back and was very surprised.

Wu Tian came out from his shower and looked at the two women with surprise on their faces. he said.

"What's wrong with you guys? Am I that good-looking?"

Huang Lan couldn't help but burst out laughing.

"Wu Tian, aren't you too narcissistic?"

"Young Master, are you alright?"

Loong Yun originally wanted to ask, but she didn't know how to. She could only quietly ask.

"What can happen to me, but you didn't tell me that I should bring an invitation at the banquet, I almost ..."

Wu Tian didn't even want to complain anymore. She had been an able secretary, but now she had forgotten such a small thing.

He could only shake his head and turn around, wanting to return to his room.

"Young Master, for someone like you to attend a banquet is already giving them face. What kind of invitation do you need?"

Wu Tian immediately paused for a moment, turned around as if he remembered something, and asked.

"At the competition, I want to disqualify Cheng Yaotian!"

The moment he thought about how Chen Tianhao had almost destroyed Su Ruyun's innocence, he immediately became infuriated.

Cheng Yaotian was the boss of Chen Tianhao, so he should be punished. If he did not manage his subordinates properly, he would be severely punished as well.

"Yes, Young Master!"

Although Loong Yun didn't know why Wu Tian did that, she still spoke respectfully.

Wu Tian turned and walked into the room. Huang Lan and Loong Yun were both surprised to see the door shut.

"He came back from a banquet. Could he have gone mad?"

Huang Lan asked with a surprised expression.

"Don't spout nonsense! Young Master naturally has his own decision to make!"

Loong Yun was the secretary sent by the old man Wu Family, so she definitely wouldn't allow anyone to be disrespectful to Wu Tian.

She turned back to her room and slammed the door.

Huang Lan's face was instantly filled with innocence.

"Who did I offend?"

She shook her head and went back to her room.

After Wu Tian returned to his room, he started to practice Alien Fist and realized that he had made great progress this time.

He once again flipped open the handwritten book and discovered that the Alien Fist manual was actually divided into the upper, middle, and lower parts. However, the first step was currently being practiced.

No matter how much he trained, he was unable to break through the entry level technique for step 2.

After practicing for a while, he felt that he had made no progress, so he immediately opened the door and walked out. He came to Tianxin Park in the center of the city.

At this moment, a cry for help sounded out.

Wu Tian looked towards the direction of the sound.

A few hoodlums were flirting with a girl beside a rock garden in Tianxin Park.

The girl struggled with all her might. In the end, she couldn't escape the Demon Claw, and was forced to the fake mountain by the two men.

"What do you want?"

The girl roared in anger as she scanned her surroundings, hoping to find her savior.

"What we want to do, every woman likes! You'll beg me to pamper you if you taste the sweetness later! "

The leader of the hoodlums walked towards the girl in a wretched manner. He extended a finger and hooked the girl's chin with a vulgar smile.

Another man held the girl's hands, and the girl, struggling, could only scream for help.

"Help!"

"It's already past 12, there's no one left in Heavenly Heart Park. Even if you shout until your throat breaks, no one will come to save you."

As she spoke, she saw Wu Tian, who was standing not far away, scream for help even louder.

"Let her go!"

Wu Tian roared at the two hoodlums. Then, he gradually approached them and clenched his hands into fists.

The leader of the bullies turned around and glanced at him.

"Where did this idiot come from, hurry up and get the hell away from laozi, don't f * cking interfere with laozi's good business!"

He looked at Wu Tian, who was wearing ordinary clothes. Wu Tian did not put him in his eyes at all. At the same time as he shouted, he approached the girl again, one hand already reaching for her face.

Wu Tian took a big stride forward, reached out his hand to grab his wrist and twisted to the side. When the man was half squatting and in pain, a wrist directly hit him on the back.

The sound of ribs breaking could be heard clearly as the leader was instantly beaten to the ground.

One of them pulled out a dagger from his waist and quickly stabbed at Wu Tian.

"Be careful!"

Seeing it was too late, Yao Linlin, who was just saved, rushed to Wu Tian's back and hugged him tightly, preparing to block the dagger for him.

Wu Tian hugged Yao Linlin's slim waist and did a quick mid-air spin.

He grabbed Yao Linlin's foot and kicked her in the face.

A blood-curdling screech rang out, and the leader felt a powerful force that sent him flying far away in an instant.

His internal organs all felt a sharp pain and he instantly fainted.

The other gangster was scared out of his wits and took a few steps back, not daring to approach.

Wu Tian rushed forward and grabbed his throat, then quickly slapped his face with his Eighteen Subduing Phantom Palms left and right.

The little hoodlum was beaten until his head was swollen like a pig's head and he fell to the ground miserably.

Recalling the humiliation she had just suffered, Yao Linlin stepped forward and stomped on him.

"I told you to bully me, let me trample you to death today!"

"Grand aunt, please spare me ..."

The little hoodlum instantly got up and knelt on the ground, begging for his life as he repeatedly kowtowed to Yao Linlin.

"I'll let you off, I still don't know how many good women I'll harm. If I beat you to death, it would be perfect to eliminate all harm for the people!"

Yao Linlin said as she sent another slap onto the delinquent's face.

His face, which was originally swollen like a pig's head, suddenly felt a burning pain.

The little hoodlum was instantly beaten senseless.

Wu Tian went forward and grabbed Yao Linlin's hand.

"Well, we'll leave them to the police."

After saying that, he took out his phone and dialed the police.

In less than 20 minutes, the police officer led by Su Ruyun arrived at the scene.

Looking at the valiant and formidable Su Ruyun, Wu Tian suddenly recalled the scene where he forcefully kissed Su Ruyun. He couldn't help but reach out to touch his lips.

Su Ruyun happened to notice this action and her emotions were mixed.

She misunderstood Wu Tian, so she immediately ordered her subordinates.

"Bring these two back to Police Station!"

After saying that, she directly walked to Wu Tian's side.

"Wu Tian, what happened before ..."

"You don't need to say anything. Neither of us owes the other anything, Byebye!"

After Wu Tian said this, he immediately walked out of the park. After taking a few steps, he found that Yao Linlin was still standing blankly on the spot.

he said over his shoulder to her.

"You're not going?"

Yao Linlin quickly followed him.

"You're sending me back?"

"Otherwise, I can't possibly leave you here by yourself and wait for the next round of hoodlums to continue your flirting scene, right?"

After saying that, Wu Tian led the way, sending Yao Linlin directly to the Gui Hua district before turning back.

He returned to the villa.

Loong Yun had already prepared the details of the meeting for this afternoon.

Wu Tian changed into a clean yak suit and sat in the back of the luxury car.

"Young master, this afternoon's meetings are all about our company, about this real estate auction."

She paused, as if remembering something, and added.

"Old Master called last night. I hope young master can get rid of all the worms in the company!"

The documents Old Master sent over previously mentioned that spies from other companies had entered the company and had to be completely eliminated.

This time's competition was naturally a great opportunity to get rid of these worms.

Wu Tian was going to do a cleaning up inside the company. He had to get rid of all the spies at today's meeting.

When he arrived at the company, the meeting room was already filled with shareholders and managers from various departments.

Wu Tian sat in his seat and tapped the surface of his desk with his fingers randomly.

The group of people below immediately fell silent. Not one of them dared to speak first.

Ever since Wu Tian had taken over the management of real estate development, he had a weird personality that no one could understand.

They were afraid that if they were the first to speak, they would attract unnecessary trouble. When that happened, they would even lose their job.

"Young master, here is the information for today's meeting!"

Loong Yun reminded him as she placed the documents on her desk.

Wu Tian picked up the documents and glanced at them. Then, he coldly swept his eyes over everyone present. Finally, his gaze landed on the construction department manager, Wang Xiaohao.

"Manager Wang, the Heavenly Altar Garden's duration is approaching. The Finance Department has already allocated the funds. Do you have anything to say?"

Wu Tian pointed out the name and asked specifically about the development of the Heavenly Altar Garden.

"President Wu, this... The Finance Department's allocation is completely insufficient, so the duration has been delayed! "

At this moment, Wang Xiaohao's forehead was covered in beads of sweat. The funds from the Finance Department had already been taken away by him. He was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan.

"I have records of all the funds allocated to us by the Finance Department. I'll give you half a month. If the Heavenly Altar Garden District is not completed, then you don't need to be the manager!"

After Wu Tian said this, his mouth revealed a sinister smile.

Wu Tian noticed that something was wrong with the second phase of the project, which was funded by the Heavenly Altar Garden.

It was impossible for Wang Xiaohao to finish the project within half a month. This was the best excuse to fire him.

Previously, he had learned from the HR Department that Wang Xiaohao relied on relationships to get in. He was a complete worm.

"Yes, President Wu!"

Although Wang Xiaohao was not convinced, he didn't even have the chance to refute.

The shareholders beside him, as well as the company's top executives, were all sweating for themselves when they saw what happened to Wang Wei.

Before this, Old Master had been living abroad, Wu Tian had just come into contact with the company's affairs, so he was not familiar with them at all. Most people did things that went against their conscience.

Wu Tian saw everyone's expression clearly, and said without any rebuttal.

"In half a month's time, it will be the company's bidding. If you still haven't adjusted by then, leave the company."

These words clearly gave everyone room for manoeuvre, but he absolutely would not allow the bad mood from before to continue.

All the employees nodded their heads. Even the major shareholders and senior leaders did not dare to have any doubts.

"Dismissed!"

As the cold voice sounded, everyone finally let out a sigh of relief. They all anxiously planned to adjust the situation within each department.

He walked out of the conference room.

Wu Tian turned around and glanced at Loong Yun.

"Secretary Loong, from today onwards, you will use a private detective to monitor every suspicious person."

The company had plenty of money, and if he wanted to find out the background of these people, it would be a simple facade.

At this moment, his phone rang. Wu Tian immediately answered.

"Young Master, when we were collecting Blood Lingzhi in the back mountains of the suburbs, we discovered a karst cave. It's quite suitable for people to cultivate inside!"

Azure Dragon's excited voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Alright, I'll be right over!"

Wu Tian wasn't as excited as before when he heard about the cave. The thing that attracted him the most was the commonly known Soul Returning Grass, the Blood Lingzhi.
