C571 Victory in the First Battle

The moment Wu Zhi finished, he clapped his hands and a few people wearing the uniform of a public official walked into the meeting room.

On their shoulders were a few bright epaulettes, belonging to the notary's office and the court.

"Director Wang, Judge Li is really embarrassed. I'll have to trouble you to come over." Wu Zhi quickly nodded to the few people at the head and shook hands with them cordially.

Old Master's relationship with the public security personnel in S City was pretty good. These people in the notary's office and the court were his old friends.

The people from the Wu Family were dumbstruck. They did not expect Wu Old Master to be serious, and if he really obtained the recognition of the law, then they, the disciples of the Wu clan, would have no way at all.

No matter how hard they tried, they couldn't make fun of the law.

"What? Have you all thought about it? Your list of names has already been prepared. Director Wang is already prepared." Wu Zhi finally laughed happily.

The descendants of Wu Family looked at each other, feeling extremely awkward. This time, they were in trouble. It was hard to tell which side was which.

Although they currently had shares in Wu Group, Wu Old Master's inheritance right was even more valuable than this thing.

Some people could not sit still any longer, and brazenly signed Old Master's agreement, some chose to withdraw from the Wu Group, while others chose to hand in their shares.

In the end, the only one left was Wu Yongan, who was standing not far away from Wu Tian. He had been standing there without moving from the moment the notary from the notary's office came in.

Seeing that these people were beginning to compromise, his expression also became more and more unsightly.

He was the only one left, the focus of the audience also fell on Wu Yongan.

"What are you going to do?" Wu Zhi squinted his eyes and looked at Wu Yongan with a taut face, leaving him with the biggest thorn in his side.

Right now, the two agreements were almost done, and he had already retracted quite a bit of the shares. The crisis shouldn't be too much trouble for him.

If Wu Yongan wanted to go against him, Wu Zhi really didn't mind giving him an example.

Wu Yongan's expression turned dark for a while, but he still gritted his teeth and walked to the side of the table.

"I'll sign!" He was very conflicted and signed his name on the agreement to sell the shares, which meant he had to hand over 5% of the shares to Wu Zhi.

Seeing that he finally succeeded, Wu Tian couldn't help but look towards Su Cancan, using his gaze to tell her that this was his victory.

"Humph, such an insignificant skill!"

Su Cancan hugged her arms and turned to the other direction with a stern expression.

The meeting ended in a very depressing atmosphere. Wu Zhi was currently in a very happy mood. Wu Tian's plan had really helped a lot.

"Brat, if it wasn't for you today, how could these people have taken out their shares so easily!" Wu Zhi patted on Wu Tian's shoulder excitedly. His excitement was palpable.

Wu Tian nodded modestly. Actually, this was just a stopgap measure, it didn't mean that the anti-acquisition war was over.

"We should only have 45% of the shares now. If that's the case, there are still some in their hands. If they sell it, it will still be very disadvantageous for us."

Loong Yun quickly brought up the statistics. Today, some people had chosen to split their families and separate them out from the Wu Group.

Wu Zhi didn't say anything. Everyone had their own ambitions. Since they wanted to leave, there was no need to stay.

"They still have some of their own, but now they can do whatever they want. If it was taken by that Shuangxing Company Group, it might even exceed fifty percent! " After Su Cancan analyzed the situation, the color of her face immediately dimmed.

Wu Zhi also became silent. This operation was indeed a double-edged sword. Although they consolidated their shares, it also caused a portion of their shares to be lost.

However, Wu Tian was smiling, he was not afraid at all, Wu Zhi currently had forty-five percent in his hand, but there was still ten percent in Wu Tian's wager agreement, adding both sides together, it would only be fifty-five percent. Even if Shuangxing Company took all the other shares, they would not be able to completely take control of Wu Group.

"You guys don't have to worry, we should be preparing for the rest of this by now." Wu Tian was very confident now. He took a piece of paper, wrote something on it and gave it to Su Cancan.

"Find someone to spread this news as soon as possible!"

Su Cancan seemed reluctant on the surface, but since Wu Zhi was still beside her, she had no choice but to accept this mission.

"Aunt, I'm not working for you, I'm working for us, Old Master ..."

"Right, right, we're both the same, so go quickly!" Wu Tian didn't want to argue with this guy, he pushed and chased Su Cancan out of the room.

Wu Zhi looked at the two of them fighting and started to consider whether it was time to prepare for the wedding.

"Just now, what was written on that note?"

Wu Zhi was still curious. If possible, he really wanted to pry open the head of this grandson of his and see what was inside.

Wu Tian wasn't hiding anything, there were no outsiders here.

"Right now, the prices of the Wu Group outside are shockingly high. It's all because of those people who started it, so I want to cool them down!"

Wu Zhi became happy when he heard that. This guy really has a lot of thoughts.

"Then I'll be waiting for your good news!"

Old Master left while smiling. Since Wu Tian had nothing else to do, he decided to take a look around S City.

S City were far more prosperous than the places Wu Tian stayed in. It was not easy to be able to stand firm here.

And for Wu Group to be able to achieve this, it was a result of an extremely great effort and sacrifice.

Thus, this masterpiece of Old Master Wu Zhi's must not be destroyed by outsiders no matter what!

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 572 - All Roads Lead to Rome

C572 All Roads Lead to Rome

Sitting in Loong Yun's car and looking out the window, Wu Tian couldn't help but wonder if he could have a place in this city.

To be honest, Wu Tian didn't know what it would be like.

Perhaps he would succeed, perhaps he would fail.

"President Wu, where are we going?" When they got on the car, Wu Tian didn't say where he was going, he just told Loong Yun to drive as she liked.

They were now at the center of S City, surrounded by the neon lights of the fanhua s. They look very beautiful.

"I don't know either. Let's just find a place to play. Do you know where it's suitable for us?"

Wu Tian remembered that Loong Yun used to live in this city, so he asked quickly. If there was a local to take him, they could have a good time. They would not be as blind as they were now.

"About this, I spend most of my time with Wu Old Master. I haven't come to the city that often ..."

"Sigh, then I'll just find a random place." Wu Tian didn't pick anything at all. He got Loong Yun to find a seemingly luxurious place to park the car, and the two of them prepared to walk around nearby.

They had only walked a few steps down the street when they saw a large group of luxury cars enter an entertainment club.

Wu Tian had been to this kind of place before, but he rarely saw so many luxurious cars coming and going. Thus, he was interested.

"Let's go to the clubhouse and take a look. There's nothing to do anyway." Wu Tian called Loong Yun and the two of them headed straight for that place.

Wu Tian's eyes were very sharp. Just now, he saw that there were a few super cars in the fleet that were very rare in the entire country. Those cars couldn't be bought with money, they still needed to have connections.

This club was decorated very extravagantly, with a certain culture behind the scenes to be decorated in such a manner.

Before Wu Tian entered, he was already very interested in this place.

"Halt, what are you doing!" A few security guards wearing crooked hats stopped the two of them before they could enter the door.

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment, then pointed at the clubhouse's sign, "Isn't this the clubhouse? Can't I go in and play?"

Why is there such a snobbish b * tch everywhere? Wu Tian even felt that he finally understood to a certain extent why many rich people wear expensive clothes. At least, they would be able to avoid a lot of trouble like this.

"Hey, friend, this place is not a place that ordinary people can come to. Only the members here can enter, outsiders are not allowed. We are just gatekeepers. If you can't bring out your membership, you should leave earlier."

The security guard was still very arrogant, but he wasn't without reason.

Wu Tian turned around to look at the convoy and found that there was indeed a black mark of a dog's head with a gold chain on the window of their car. It seemed to be the symbol of their club.

"So that's how it is. Then how can I join this guild? I do have a little bit of money."

The security guard looked Wu Tian up and down in disbelief and snorted.

"Come on, the clothes you're wearing are all bought by You Yi. I advise you not to trouble us any further. Otherwise, don't blame us brothers for being impolite! "

While they were talking, a few of the security guards surrounded Wu Tian and prepared to use violent means to drive him away.

"Alright, alright, alright. I'll be leaving ..." Wu Tian took a few steps back, but not only did he not plan to leave, he became more interested in this place.

However, he then looked at the convoy and winked at Loong Yun. Loong Yun had picked up a brick from somewhere and passed it to Wu Tian.

Wu Tian looked at Fei Ang's luxurious car that lit up in the team of cars that was about to enter the sports car and threw out the brick in his hand.

The brick hit the front windshield of the car evenly, startling the young man in the driver's seat.

"Fuck!" The driver stepped on the throttle to stop the car, and all the cars behind him also stopped. Everyone got out of the cars and came over to check.

"What's going on? Dakai, why did you stop! "

The unlucky driver called Dakai swore as he got off his car. He checked the damage to his car with an angry face and looked at Wu Tian and Loong Yun, who were smiling with their arms crossed beside the road.

"You did this?!" Dakai seemed to be angry to the point of anger. He turned around and ran to the trunk of the car as if he was looking for something.

A few of his companions quickly ran over and stopped Dakai.

"What are you doing? This is the city center, if you take this guy out and let the police see you, it'll be troublesome!"

"Then what do we do? My car was smashed by someone!" Dakai roared at the top of his lungs, but his companion's persuasion was still effective. He did not take out his weapon, but brought his own group and surrounded Wu Tian and the other two in one go.

"Did you smash the car? I tell you you're finished! What do you think we should do? This car costs over ten million yuan, and this brick smashed into such a big hole. Do you know how much it would cost to repair it? "

A few oil-and-gas guys on the side took the initiative to stick their heads out for Dakai and started to talk to Wu Tian.

"Look at how shabby his clothes are. I'm afraid he can't afford it. He'll never be able to earn that much money in his entire life!"

"Dakai, you must have had a bad luck this time. He definitely won't be able to compensate for it."

Dakai was even more unhappy when he heard what they said.

He rushed forward and grabbed Wu Tian's neck, staring at him fiercely. He clenched his fists tightly and looked like he was about to hit Wu Tian.

"Dakai, Dakai, we can't beat him up here. It's a public event!"

"Yeah, there's a lot of people here ..."

Dakai turned around and looked at these young masters who were taking advantage of the money. He was extremely afraid of what would happen, he really didn't have any manliness at all.

"Fine, we can't be outside. Fine, I'll show you our club!"

As he spoke, Dakai led a group of people to drag in Wu Tian and Loong Yun.

The security guards from a moment ago were all stunned.

"Damn, is he really going to go in like that? He's going to lose his life!"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 573 - Entering Club

C573 Entering Club

Although this method was not very elegant, after all, he was brought in by someone else, but Wu Tian still successfully achieved his goal.

Dakai led a group of people to bring Wu Tian into the club. Not long after they entered, a very pale looking person noticed that something was wrong over here and quickly came over to take a look.

"What is this? Dakai, I told you before, outsiders are not allowed to bring them in!"

Chen Cheng looked angry. This rule could be said to be emphasized at any time, but this guy refused to listen.

"Brother Chen, there's no other way but to let me down. This grandson smashed my car, so I'm thinking of a way to make him pay!" Although his family was quite rich, Dakai still knew that he offended the humble Chen Cheng. After all, he was the founder of this club, and everything here was up to him.

Chen Cheng glanced at Wu Tian, and said unhappily: "I don't care what reason you have, if everyone breaks our rules, then after today, will my Jingou Club still be activated?!"

No matter what you say, no matter what I say, no matter what, Chen Cheng's attitude is very determined.

Dakai, on the other hand, felt troubled. He couldn't let Wu Tian and the others go, but if he offended Chen Cheng because of this matter, it would be a huge loss he wasn't willing to bear.

"Alright, I'll give you face, Brother Chen. Isn't this just a few hundred thousand yuan for a car repair? What's the big deal!" Dakai said while clenching his teeth. In fact, he really cared about the hundreds of thousands of dollars, but there was no other way. He had to do it.

Chen Cheng didn't care about Dakai's flattery at all. He just looked at the others coldly and said slowly, "I made a rule that if you want to come in, you have to follow it. Otherwise, you better get out of here as soon as possible!"

The surroundings were completely silent. These rich second generations, who usually numbered five or six, were all mute.

"Both of you, scram. I'll tell you, this time you should consider yourselves lucky. Next time, don't let me see you again!" Dakai pulled Wu Tian's clothes in annoyance and said fiercely. If it wasn't for Chen Cheng, Wu Tian would probably have been beaten up just now.

Wu Tian didn't care about this guy at all. From his point of view, this guy was not qualified. However, Chen Cheng, who reprimanded Dakai just now, had piqued Wu Tian's interest.

In addition, what exactly was this club doing? It was truly strange.

He had originally thought that this club was just like other nightclubs, some sort of bars or ktv. Could it be that there was a striptease dance with such a strict security? But when he came in, it was completely different from what he had imagined.

It looked like a huge conference room, with many small round tables at the bottom. There were a few buttons on the table for unknown purposes.

"Um, what are you guys doing?" Wu Tian walked out somewhat unwillingly. He was still in the mood to go out at once, so he wanted to figure it out no matter what.

"If I tell you to f * * k off, then f * ck off. Stop wasting your breath on me!" Dakai was even more unhappy now. The next auction was about to start. If he didn't kick them out, who knew if Chen Cheng would drive him out.

"Ai ai ai ai, big brother, let's talk properly. I did smash that car of yours. Sorry, I'll compensate you. You can compensate me with as much money as you want. I'm really curious about what your club is doing ..."

Wu Tian looked at those rich people who were about to take their seats. And Dakai started to feel anxious as he saw something seemed to be prepared on the stage.

Who has the time to care about you now! Hurry up and f * ck off! " As he said that, he opened the door and could not hold it in any longer. He kicked Wu Tian away, intending to kick him out.

However, Wu Tian saw through his every move. Wu Tian only turned around slightly to avoid the kick. On the contrary, Dakai couldn't control his strength properly and threw him to the ground.

This guy shrieked miserably, and then the gazes of everyone present shot towards them.

"Dakai, what are you doing? "Hurry up and kick that random person out!" Chen Cheng's face was already dark. He did not even care about his image as he began to point and curse.

Dakai actually wanted to do that, but he overexerted himself just now and now, he was lying on the floor clutching his crotch and couldn't even stand up.

"What did you do to him?" A few young men from nearby surrounded him, pointed at Wu Tian and started to interrogate him. However, none of them were good at it.

"Oh heavens and earth, I didn't do anything. He did this all by himself ..."

Wu Tian quickly raised his hand and stood to the side to show that it had nothing to do with him.

Not long after, Chen Cheng walked over with a few robust security guards. He looked at Dakai on the ground with disdain and had the security guards pull him out.

"There's still these two ..." Chen Cheng looked at Wu Tian, hesitated for a moment and continued, "Also get out."

The security guard immediately opened the door and walked outside, not caring at all that Dakai was crying for his mother.

"Brother Chen, please don't, please let me stay, Brother Chen ..." As Dakai's voice got further and further away, Wu Tian stared at the man in front of him and started to ponder.

Just what was the charm of this place? It could actually make people want to stay here even if they had to grovel here.

"Wait a moment, please wait." Wu Tian saw the security guard walk towards him and knew that if he didn't say anything, he might miss this opportunity.

Chen Cheng heard someone calling him from behind and turned around to look at Wu Tian in confusion.

"We're not the ones looking for trouble with you, it's the guy outside. Hurry up and leave."

He thought Wu Tian wanted to go against them or something. After all, Wu Tian didn't seem like he had much money.

"I'll join your club." Wu Tian's tone was extremely calm, as if he was talking about something that wasn't that big of a deal.

Chen Cheng was amused by Wu Tian. He turned around and patted Wu Tian on the shoulder. "What's your name?"

"Wu Tian." Wu Tian originally wanted to tell them his fake name, but then he thought, in front of these people, whatever he hid from them would easily be investigated, so it was better for him to be honest from the start.

Chen Cheng nodded without a care. Then, he tore a cheque from his cheque book and handed it to Wu Tian.

"Take this 10,000 yuan, go back and have a good meal and a good dream. As for the rest, I won't be accompanying you. I still have other things to do." After saying that, he signaled the security guards with his eyes and kicked Wu Tian out of the room without saying anything.

After Wu Tian left, Chen Cheng called a masked man in a tight suit and whispered to him, "Get rid of this person, we can't let any of this information out."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 574 - Anti-guest Predominant

C574 Anti-guest Predominant

Wu Tian stood outside the club, looking at the cheque in front of him. He didn't know what to say anymore.

"Not bad. Not only did you destroy someone's car, you even earned ten thousand yuan ..." Loong Yun teased from the side. She hadn't interjected just now and the other party basically didn't notice this well-dressed, knowledgeable beauty.

"That is true, but I still want to know what exactly this club is." Wu Tian still had some thoughts as he looked at the Jingou Club behind the tightly shut gates. In his mind, he had never heard of such a place or organization.

Loong Yun suddenly pulled Wu Tian's sleeve and said beside him, "If anyone knows what's going on here, we really do have someone we can ask."

Wu Tian followed the direction of her finger and looked over, while he himself was amused. Dakai, who was thrown out a moment ago, was squatting beside his sportscar. One of them was sulking.

"Fuck, that grandson, if he didn't smash my car, I wouldn't have been driven out!"

He was still bearing a grudge towards Wu Tian for what he did just now.

However, when he raised his head, he saw Wu Tian and Loong Yun smiling as they walked towards him. They were truly enemies with a narrow path. He was just worrying about who to vent his anger on. This brat actually came looking for him.

"I was looking for you. It doesn't matter if I enter the police station or stay in jail. I'm going to cripple you today!"

With that, Dakai took out a baseball bat from the trunk of his car and waved it in his hand. Then, he charged towards Wu Tian and the others.

Wu Tian looked at him with a smile and remained unmoved.

Dakai smashed his face down with his bat. This time, he was using all of his strength.

However, compared to Wu Tian, his movements were as slow as a playback.

Before the baseball bat landed, Wu Tian had already punched Dakai's neck. Suddenly, his elbow struck Dakai's chest, making him unable to breathe.

Dakai was very aggressive just now, but in less than a second, he was as soft as a noodle in front of Wu Tian. His baseball bat fell to the ground with a thud.

"I thought you were very good at fighting ..." Wu Tian watched in surprise as Dakai fell unconscious in front of him. He originally wanted to teach Dakai a lesson, but he accidentally went too far.

"What should we do? We can't leave him here alone ..." Loong Yun looked around with a troubled expression and reminded Wu Tian in a low voice.

Wu Tian looked at Dakai and sighed, "Forget it, let's take him away. After all, it's my fault, I have to be responsible for him. Let's not recruit the police."

If they took him away, they could still find a way to get the information they wanted from him. In general, it wouldn't be a loss.

Soon, Loong Yun drove the car over. The two of them put Dakai into the car and disappeared, leaving Dakai's damaged sports car alone on the spot.

After a while, the sports car was also towed away by the traffic administration.

It was as if everything had never happened. There were no traces left on the road.

When Dakai woke up, he found himself in a strange place. It was a huge office and he was lying on a leather sofa.

"Where is this?" Dakai started to recall what he did before, but for some reason, he couldn't think of anything.

"Oh, you're awake." Wu Tian was sitting not far away with a cup of coffee and a newspaper in his hand, reading it with relish.

Dakai saw that it was this brat. He suddenly remembered that he was going to beat him up earlier, but he didn't know what happened and lost consciousness

"Kid, you still dare to appear in front of me ..." As he spoke, this fellow seemed to want to charge over again. However, when he stood up, he was able to clearly see the entire appearance of this place.

This was an office that was built using a whole floor of space!

As for the kid who had provoked him, he was sitting on a boss chair right now ...

Dakai was a little confused. He turned around and looked around, and was shocked to see the Wu Group on the wall.

"This is the Wu Group?" Dakai was in disbelief. Did he offend someone he shouldn't have?

Wu Tian laughed and let Loong Yun pour a glass of water for Dakai, confirming his conjecture.

"That's right, this is my second time here. To be honest, this is a place beyond ordinary people's imagination."

The field of view of this office was extremely good. Standing in front of the french windows, one could almost take a bird's eye view of the entire S City.

Dakai started to sweat after hearing Wu Tian's words. Although he had some money, it didn't mean that he could do whatever he wanted.

Within S City, there were people that he could not afford to offend, and this Wu Group was one of them.

"If I've done anything wrong before, please forgive me ..."

Dakai wasn't as arrogant as before, so he took the initiative to apologize humbly.

"Why did you do that? You didn't do anything wrong. After all, I did smash your car. If someone did, I might be more impulsive than you."

Wu Tian didn't have any objections towards Dakai. Honestly speaking, he wasn't such a petty person.

Furthermore, he did do it on purpose to provoke Dakai, and his goal was to sneak into that Jingou Club.

"Are you still in pain?" Wu Tian walked over, took out a cheque and handed it to Dakai, "This is the cheque for 30 million, I don't know if it's enough for your car, so consider it as my compensation to you. If it's not enough, you can say it, I'll make it up to you."

"Enough." Dakai quickly took the cheque. He really didn't expect Wu Tian to give him such a large sum of cheque. One must know that his sports car was only worth 10 million and this cheque was enough for him to buy two.

Wu Tian nodded his head in satisfaction as he saw him accept the cheque.

"Then, can we forget about the grudge between us from before?"

Dakai immediately nodded.

"Alright, I have some questions I want to ask you." Wu Tian squinted at the man in front of him. It was time to reveal everything you know.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 575 - Persuade Others with Morals

C575 Persuade Others with Morals

Dakai agreed. Not only did he take advantage of others, just for the sake of the Wu Group, he couldn't even say no.

"Actually, it's very simple. I just want to know what that Jingou Club is for. I was very curious when I passed by, but the security did not let me in, so I had no choice but to smash your car." Wu Tian didn't hide anything. He felt that it was no big deal.

Dakai wiped off the sweat on his forehead. He was really speechless. I can't do anything if you want to go in, you have to smash my car ... However, it was meaningless to talk about it now that it had already happened.

"About that, there's a rule within the Jingou Club. It's that you can't reveal a single thing to outsiders, or else if it's light then you'll go bankrupt, and if it's heavy, you'll be ..." Dakai gestured horizontally on his neck as he spoke.

Wu Tian saw his cautious look, he wanted this guy to say it even more.

"What's so special about this club? It's worth it for you to do this, and you're not allowed to spread the news?"

Dakai looked troubled. What he was worried about was not just empty talk, it was something he really didn't dare to do.

"Big brother, I'm really not joking, even if I was given ten guts, I wouldn't dare lie in front of Wu Group, it's just that the rules of this club are really unbreakable, they know all the information about our family, if they knew I leaked it, then I wouldn't be the only one who would be unlucky."

Wu Tian stared at Dakai. Suddenly, a ray of cold light burst out from Wu Tian's eyes and shot directly at Dakai's face.

"You said that you would die, but do you think that if you do not say anything, there will be a good result? Don't forget where this place is. Even if the police come here, I can guarantee that even if they inspect every inch of this place, they will never find anything useful. Do you think only others can find out about your family? Do you think I can't find out anything about your family? "

Dakai was shocked by this gaze. He kneeled on the ground with a thump and was trembling all over.

"Big brother, don't be like this. We have things to discuss and really things to discuss. This matter really can't be blamed on me. It was because someone really leaked the information in the club and the next day, that person and his family all died."

Dakai cried at the top of his lungs, hoping that he could keep his life. Right now, he was in a dilemma. If word of this got out and the club found him, he would definitely die.

But now, this person from Wu Group, his eyes were also so cold. Dakai believed that if he did not agree, Wu Tian would not think highly of his life.

"..."

The two remained silent for a while. Wu Tian looked at Dakai and finally sighed. He waved his hand and said, "Forget it, since you are unwilling to talk, just pretend that I didn't ask."

When Dakai heard Wu Tian let out a sigh of relief, he immediately let out a sigh and kowtowed several times on the ground.

It wasn't easy to survive at this time. What did he care about dignity and shame?

The elevator door suddenly opened, and an extremely good-looking girl walked out. Her close-fitting clothes wrapped around her fair skin, showing her curvaceous curves perfectly.

"What are you in such a hurry to find me for?" Su Cancan looked at Wu Tian in annoyance and pulled her face down from a distance.

She wasn't his old lady, why would she come here whenever she was called? Did this guy really think that he was the boss here?

While thinking, Su Cancan suddenly realized that other than Wu Tian and Loong Yun, there was another stranger standing in the office.

This place was a confidential place of the Wu Group, so ordinary people could not enter at all.

"Wu Tian, who is this person?" Su Cancan's face immediately darkened. If the information inside was found out by others, their Wu Group might very well be damaged.

"Oh, let me introduce you. This person... What's his name? "

Wu Tian pointed at Dakai and then got stuck when he said his name.

"Just call me Dakai." Dakai quickly said. He turned around to look at a beauty and his eyes were staring straight at her.

Su Cancan didn't like it when people looked at her that way. She could already see the dirty thoughts in their heads from just their eyes. It was really unbearable to look at.

"No one asked you!"

"It's precisely this person. Originally, I wanted to ask him about something, but he was unwilling to say it. So, I had no choice but to give it to you." Wu Tian was still smiling, but what he said sounded like the end of the world to Dakai.

"Big Brother, didn't you already let me go?"

"I let you go. That's right, I won't find trouble with you anymore. It's just that this place you came from was a bit unlucky and outsiders can't come in, but you were unconscious at that time, so we had no choice but to bring you in. So I'm sorry, it's just your bad luck. "

Wu Tian looked at Dakai pitifully. He extended his hand and made a farewell gesture.

Su Cancan walked over with a gloomy face and grabbed Dakai's collar. She looked at Wu Tian and said coldly, "You owe me a favor!"

"Alright, I remember." Wu Tian nodded and watched as Su Cancan carried Dakai with one hand into a small dark room inside the office.

Not long after, a heart-wrenching scream was heard from the dark room. It was probably the most terrified scream a man could make.

Fortunately, the soundproofing on this level was very good and it was impossible for the sound to be transmitted out. Wu Tian and Loong Yun looked at each other and laughed out loud.

"I heard that this Wudu Sect is a first class torture method to force a confession. It seems like it's really true."

He had to admit that this Dakai was really miserable. If he didn't go and find trouble with Wu Tian, he might not have had such a painful experience.

It had only been ten minutes, but Su Cancan had already dragged Dakai out of the small dark room. No one knew what they had experienced inside ...

However, Dakai's entire body was drenched in his own sweat.

"Stand up and tell me everything you know. If you have anything to hide, I don't mind doing it again."

Hearing Su Cancan's words, Dakai immediately stood up like a conditioned reflex. His entire body was trembling and his eyes were filled with incomparable fear.
