

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 578 - Sudden Change

C578 Sudden Change

Nangong Ying drove the car and brought Wu Tian to the restaurant that Chen Cheng had booked.

He didn't think that he would be together with Wu Tian.

Moreover, this Wu Tian was actually someone from the Wu Family.

"Mr Wu really kept a low profile. When he came to my place, I really didn't notice anything. I really thought you came from outside."

Nangong Ying didn't feel awkward at all.

No matter who, they had already signed the gambling agreement. Although they were rivals in the mall, but other than that, Sister Ye had no other conflicts.

"In that case, I should still apologize to you. Hopefully, I didn't give you any trouble." Wu Tian was also very polite. He had heard that this Nanhe Securities Corporation and this Wu Group had once had some unpleasantness, so the two sides basically did not interact much.

Nangong Ying smiled generously: "I am not in any trouble at all. To be honest, I am quite satisfied with this gambling match. To be honest, I just arrived at this Nanhe Securities Corporation, if I don't earn some money, the board of directors will not even give me any face. "

"So it turns out that you're also a newcomer. Actually, I'm pretty similar to you. It's just that I'm here to solve the problem."

Wu Tian and Nangong Ying looked at each other and smiled. From the looks of it, their impression of each other was pretty good.

"Then this time, you won't have a good time. Although your stocks should be saved, this is only the beginning ..." Nangong Ying paused, then slowly said, "Your corporation shouldn't have that much cash right now, right? How will you pay for the gambling agreement?"

After knowing Wu Tian's identity, Nangong Ying was most worried about this.

"Don't worry about this, this money ..."

Before Wu Tian could finish his words, the car they were in suddenly lost control and charged towards the side of the road.

Nangong Ying desperately tried to control his direction. The car issued an extremely ear-piercing sound, and with a loud noise, their car came into close contact with the telephone pole.

The huge impact instantly crushed the car. Wu Tian's head was also mounted on the car. He suddenly felt like he was seeing stars and his entire body was in extreme pain.

Luckily, he didn't lose his consciousness. The car flipped over from the road into the ditch on the side. The gas tank also seemed to be leaking. Wu Tian already smelled a very strong smell of gasoline.

They had to get out of this place as fast as possible. There might even be an explosion ...

Wu Tian struggled to untie his seat belt and climbed out of the broken window. He stretched his arms and legs and realized that he had only suffered some superficial wounds. Looking back at the car, it had already been smashed into a pulp.

"Nangong Ying!" Wu Tian turned around to the driver's side of the car. He hadn't heard any movement from Nangong Ying's side since just now. At that time, he suspected that something had happened to this guy.

The main cockpit door was completely twisted. Wu Tian couldn't open it, so he could only reach into the window and touch Nangong Ying's pulse. Luckily, he wasn't dead yet, but there were a lot of blood stains in the car. Maybe Nangong Ying was injured.

Wu Tian had no choice but to crawl back from the place where he climbed out. He dragged Nangong Ying out of the car and quickly ran towards the open field.

Just now, Wu Tian could smell the burning smell on the car. Sure enough, before they even walked 30 meters away, Nangong Ying's car suddenly exploded. The huge fireball instantly engulfed everything.

If they came out a little later, or if Wu Tian fainted like Nangong Ying in the car accident, the two of them would be dead by now.

At this time, Wu Tian could finally take a break. He quickly put Nangong Ying on the ground and prepared to check his injuries.

Fortunately, the fellow was lucky. A metal needle pierced his thigh and knocked his head against the steering wheel, causing him to faint. However, his life was not in danger.

"Damn it, why is it that there aren't even any cars passing by here?" Although it wasn't too late for them to leave, it wasn't too late either. The only problem was that this road was quite remote and no one had discovered their situation in half a day's time.

Finally, a car finally arrived at a distant place. Wu Tian quickly ran to the road and stopped the car.

"Stop, stop, stop!"

It was a SUV. Wu Tian quickly ran to the driver's side and said to the driver who rolled down the window, "Please help us, we were in a car accident just now, there were some wounded!"

The driver wore sunglasses, so it was hard to tell what expression he had now. He didn't say anything else and didn't even look around. He just stared at Wu Tian and said lightly: "Come up."

Wu Tian didn't have time to be happy. He quickly went back and brought Nangong Ying over.

Wu Tian originally thought that the driver would have some objections, but he didn't expect that his luck was pretty good. After he stopped the car, he was willing to let him take the bus.

Before Wu Tian could say where he was going, the driver took the initiative to start the car.

Wu Tian and co. sat in the backseat, with only the three of them in the car.

Nangong Ying was unconscious and still studying abroad. Wu Tian didn't know how long it would take to get to the hospital, so he could only tear some strips of cloth from his clothes and tie them tightly around Nangong Ying's wound as a simple treatment.

He waited for his work to end, and Wu Tian realized that he hadn't thanked this kind-hearted person yet.

"Thank you, Master. Wait for us to get off the car. I'll leave you a phone number. I'll be sure to give you my thanks later."

Wu Tian wiped the sweat off his face. Although he didn't have much exercise, he was still extremely worried.

The driver strangely ignored Wu Tian. From head to toe, he didn't say anything. He just drove silently like a robot.

Not long after, the car turned at an intersection and entered a relatively dilapidated courtyard.

Only now did Wu Tian notice that the place they went to wasn't a hospital.

"Didn't you take us to the hospital?"

His question didn't get what he wanted, because the moment the car stopped, a group of masked men wearing black clothes surrounded him. They fiercely opened the car door and pointed their black guns at Wu Tian's head.

"Get off!" The sunglasses-wearing driver maintained his indifferent look, but there seemed to be no emotion behind his words.

C579 You've Got the Wrong People

Since someone was pointing a gun at his head, no matter how crazy Wu Tian was, he knew that he could only listen to the other party's request.

After all, survival was more important.

"If you have something to say, then say it. Is there a need to gather so many people?" Wu Tian slowly walked out of the car. He turned around and looked at Nangong Ying. He originally wanted to ask them how they were going to deal with him, but he was pushed aside by the masked men beside him.

He turned around and looked at the driver, who was looking at him with a smile on his face. He looked like he had become a hooked fish, but Wu Tian just couldn't remember how he offended this guy.

"You have guts. Ordinary people would kneel on the ground and beg us to spare him."

The sunglasses guy looked at Wu Tian. He wasn't in a hurry to make a move, he had an entire night's worth of time to play with him.

Wu Tian looked around. The ground they were on seemed to be an abandoned factory, and there were no signs of people around. He reckoned that no one else would be able to see this place.

"Big Brother, is he scared silly?" A masked subordinate sneered at Wu Tian. There were many scars on their bodies and some of them even had fingers missing.

If the other party didn't have a gun, Wu Tian felt that he wouldn't need to waste his breath on them. Even if they attacked at the same time, Wu Tian had enough confidence to kill them.

The dark glasses man looked at him. Wu Tian didn't say anything for a while. He walked over slowly and looked around Wu Tian.

"Do you have anything else to say? If not, then please go to hell!" The man wearing sunglasses took a gun from his companion and pointed it at Wu Tian's forehead.

"Just who are you people? Did you arrest the wrong person? I was just passing by."

Wu Tian had an innocent face, but he didn't have any expression of fear. He didn't have any sense of nervousness about being in danger at all.

"We can't be wrong, the person we want is you. You are Wu Tian, right? You have a pretty good surname. It's a pity that you have become my target now. I can be kind enough to let you leave behind your last words. "

The man with sunglasses remained unmoved. He had seen a lot of people who spoke in such a manner before. When they encountered a situation, they would use all kinds of methods to beat around the bush and even used all sorts of threats. In short, there were all kinds of people, and Wu Tian was the only one to pretend to be stupid at this moment.

Since he couldn't pretend to be stupid, Wu Tian decided to give up on that idea. He wasn't good at pretending to be himself to begin with.

If that was the case, these people should be professional killers. They should have been entrusted with taking his life.

"Did you take the money?" Wu Tian snorted. He reached into his pocket and took out a cheque book. He looked at the killers in front of him with disdain, "No matter what benefits this guy gave you, I'll pay three times the price!"

"People who are about to die can always say anything they want. Aren't you afraid that you'll be laughed out loud?" The sunglasses guy had a look of disbelief. However, based on Wu Tian's current clothes and his muddy appearance, he didn't look like a rich person.

He pretends like a rich man. However, he looked down on them if he wanted to get away with it.

Do you think you're surnamed Wu or something? Are you thinking that you're someone with Wu Group? Furthermore, us brothers do not need your money to do business, we only accept money to do business. If it's because you've broken the rules, then we will not need to do business in the future!

Wu Tian snorted and put the cheque book away.

"I gave you guys a chance to eat your fill. If you guys don't want it, then don't blame me. If you really think that my life is worthless, then you can come over and take it."

Saying that, Wu Tian crooked his finger at the sunglasses guy, "Do you dare to fight with me one-on-one? You should be considered the leader of your group, I wonder if you have the guts. "

The man wearing sunglasses looked at the man in front of him in shock. He really didn't expect Wu Tian to say such a thing. He was really boasting.

And what good would it do him? Wu Tian didn't seem to have any muscles either... If they really started fighting, he probably wouldn't last more than two minutes in his hands.

If he had been faster, it might not have taken him more than two minutes.

"Good, this is a rare opportunity. I haven't made a move for a long time, so I'll use you to practice. Come, come, let's only use our fists and feet!" The man with sunglasses put away his gun, while the people beside them all stepped aside to make way for the two of them.

Wu Tian stretched his fist and all the muscles in his body started to quiver in excitement. It was just as he thought before, a one-on-one fight. This sunglasses guy wouldn't have the chance to defeat him.

However, he couldn't just kill this guy directly. Wu Tian still wanted to know who wanted his life so much.

"I will make you regret it." Wu Tian looked coldly at the people in front of him. Although his body seemed very thin, his words were actually very powerful.

The sunglasses-wearing man felt a little guilty for a moment.

He didn't know why, but the man in front of him was clearly not scary at all.

However, he could not care about that now. The sunglasses guy was the first to make his move. His movements were very fast, his body was like the wind as he floated beside Wu Tian. His steps moved left and right, making it hard for people to figure out what he was doing.

However, these were all targeted at ordinary people. How could Wu Tian be an ordinary person?

The sunglasses guy suddenly punched towards Wu Tian's right side. At the same time, his right foot also started to move, getting ready for the next attack.

Wu Tian saw his movements clearly and did not make a single move. He didn't need to dodge, Wu Tian merely punched the sunglasses of the man with sunglasses at a faster speed.

The sunglasses immediately shattered and the bridge of his nose was broken.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 580 - Reversal of the Situation

C580 Reversal of the Situation

Wu Tian did not plan to stop there. He turned around, grabbed the sunglasses guy's head, and kicked his stomach with his knee.

At this moment, the arrogant guy who was just hooting about taking Wu Tian's knife had already fallen to the ground.

The surrounding was silent. The masked lackeys were all stupefied, and even forgot that they still had guns in their hands.

Wu Tian was not shocked. He jumped away from the middle position and rushed into the crowd. He grabbed a handgun and knocked down several people.

At this moment, these people realized that they seemed to have provoked someone they shouldn't have. But it was too late to react.

"I just gave you a chance, but you didn't catch it. Now, I'm sorry." Taking advantage of his speed, Wu Tian ran back and forth among the crowd. Some people wanted to shoot at him, but Wu Tian's figure was very close to the masked men, so even if they had guns, they couldn't fire.

Not long after that, other than Wu Tian, no one else was still standing.

As for the sunglasses guy from the start, he was still unwilling to give up. Not far away from him, there was a gun lying on the ground.

Previously, he should have just killed this fellow without asking any questions.

The sunglasses wearing man was regretting his decision. This gun should be his last chance.

"What are you doing? We're not just using punches and kicks, how can you go get a gun?" Wu Tian kicked the pistol away with a smile. It also extinguished the last of the sunglasses guy's hope.

Forget it, since everything was already like this, he might as well leave it to fate. In any case, he had to hang his head on his belt every day in order to do this.

"Speak, who are you people? Who was it that wanted to kill me? " Wu Tian knew very well that the other party was here for him. Nangong Ying was still in the car and these people didn't even take a glance at him.

Even Wu Tian didn't know who exactly he had offended, and whether it was someone from Wu Family or not. Wu Yongan and the others might have noticed it, but they shouldn't have known that I was the one who did it.

Who else could it be? Wu Tian thought for a long time, but he still felt that it couldn't be Dakai. He had already accepted his money, and Su Cancan had even personally dealt with it.

If there was no problem, it shouldn't be him.

After eliminating all of these, Wu Tian still didn't understand. He could only ask this guy.

"I advise you not to waste your time on this matter. We are professionals, and with our professional knowledge, it is impossible for us to not keep our customers' secrets." The sunglasses guy was as if he was facing death. To put it bluntly, he was as stubborn as a dead duck.

Wu Tian didn't say anything and just sneered. He took out a phone from these people and sent a message to Su Cancan and the others.

"You don't have to say it, and I don't care. After that, you'll be willing to tell me on your own accord." With that, Wu Tian went to check on Nangong Ying's injuries.

Fortunately, his wound had stopped bleeding, but he still needed to be sent to the hospital as soon as possible.

Not long after, Loong Yun arrived with her car. She was the first one to receive the news. After getting off the car, Loong Yun looked at Wu Tian nervously. Wu Tian was still alive and kicking. Loong Yun heaved a sigh of relief.

"President Wu, it's good that you're fine!" Loong Yun was on the verge of tears. If she had known that he would be so reckless, she would never have left his side.

"I'm fine, I'm fine. Look, I'm fine. These people can't do anything to me. With their abilities, aren't they just wishful thinking?"

Wu Tian was jumping and jumping in front of Loong Yun, showing that he wasn't hurt.

After a while, Su Cancan also arrived with her people. She brought a large truck with a few spirited looking guys who climbed down from it and got into it along with the masked man and the sunglasses guy who were lying on the ground.

Wu Tian pointed at the sunglasses guy and specifically told Su Cancan, "This guy is the mastermind. I asked him who sent him and he didn't even say anything. As for the rest, I'll leave it to you."

"Don't talk to me when I'm not asking you!" Su Cancan shot a cold glance at Wu Tian. He had been forced to come here twice already. Did he take her as a servant or something?

"Sorry sorry sorry, I gave you trouble again, but I had no other choice. You also know that this guy's specialized in the arts right? If I had that kind of ability, I wouldn't have disturbed you." Wu Tian hurriedly coaxed her. Right now, he was all pointing at Su Cancan to give him some information.

Wu Tian originally wanted to go somewhere else to play, but it seemed like he didn't need to do that anymore. If he didn't clarify this matter, Wu Tian was worried that someone would notice him after he left the restaurant.

"Don't worry, this is a favor I owe you!" When this is done, I'll treat you to food!

Seeing that Su Cancan was still unmoved, Wu Tian didn't know what to do. Most girls had their own preferences. As long as he gave her what she wanted, it wouldn't be difficult to coax her.

However, Wu Tian didn't know what the beauty in front of him was thinking or what she wanted from him.

"Keep it for yourself." Su Cancan put away her clothes and noticed that Wu Tian seemed to be a little closer to her. She took the initiative to move closer to the side, leaving Wu Tian with a beautiful view of the back of his head.

"Thank you, really!" Seeing that Su Cancan didn't refuse directly, Wu Tian felt relieved that she agreed to this matter. After that, he decided to head home first.

Even if the mastermind was any stronger, he wouldn't be able to run into their Wu Family and make a move on him, right?

After all, Wu Family Castle was heavily guarded, and Old Master Wu Zhi spent a lot of money on it.

Before he left, Wu Tian called an ambulance and brought Nangong Ying to the hospital while he followed Loong Yun back home in a hurry.

He was covered in blood and dirt. If he did not wash, he would be no different from a mud monkey.

Because Su Cancan despised him, she didn't want to sit in the same car as Wu Tian.

After finally seeing his home, Wu Tian's heart was filled with emotions.

"It really wasn't easy. I thought I would never be able to come back."

Loong Yun bit her lips, lowered her head, and suddenly apologized to Wu Tian.

"It's my fault. If I had been by your side, this wouldn't have happened!"

"This has nothing to do with you. In fact, you're still blaming me. It's just that I didn't expect that someone would actually attack me!" "Loong Yun, go investigate this matter and see if there are any traces left near the scene of the incident."

Wu Tian quickly arranged this matter. The rest was to wait for Su Cancan's message.
