

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 651 - Baili Family

C651 Baili Family

maybe Baili Family were also worrying at this time, and they might not know what they should do either.

If they were to cooperate with Shangguan Family, it would be no different from being a traitor, and get scolded to death by others.

Although they could earn money and take advantage of this opportunity to fiercely strike at the Wu Family and the Ouyang Family, regarding the overall effect, the economy of the entire China Nation would very likely be severely injured.

The people from the Baili family were also very worried. They did not wish to see this happen either.

Therefore, Wu Tian's arrival made all of them very surprised.

Perhaps it was as Nangong Ying had said, the Baili family was truly an old-fashioned, dogmatic family.

"Aren't you dead?"

Although this kind of news wasn't known to everyone, but to the four families, they would be very concerned about each other's situation, so the news of Wu Tian's accident immediately spread to their ears.

"In any case, I'm sitting here right now. I'm willing to break this rumor to see you. It can also be considered as my respect for you."

Wu Tian slightly bowed. Since the Baili family valued tradition very much, then he must be polite in order to be perfect.

"So it was a fake death! I was just wondering why the brat from Wu Family suddenly died, and why was he still in the limelight earlier! "

Baili Chenghong did not reveal a smile because of this. He was still as prim as ever, so it was impossible to tell what he was thinking.

"I've come to find you this time because I want to ask you for your opinion on the current situation. It's the Shuangxing Company Group. What do you plan to do? "

After Wu Tian finished speaking, he quietly looked at Baili Chenghong. His eyes never left his expression, hoping to find even the slightest change in expression from him.

Because for people like them, any expression would most likely represent what they were thinking.

If he could see through all of this, then he could seize the initiative in the negotiations and understand the other party's bottom line.

"I don't know what Shuangxing Company Group ... If there's nothing else, please go back. "

Baili Chenghong's expression did not change. He calmly rejected Wu Tian's idea of continuing the conversation.

There was no expression on his face, but the other Baili Family people were not like this.

When they heard that Baili Chenghong wasn't going to talk about it, they couldn't help but feel a trace of anxiousness flash across their faces.

Wu Tian was smart enough to grasp this change. He smiled and nodded. Now, he knew what the situation in the Baili family was like.

Their family also has a very large business, so Nanhe Securities Corporation should only be one of them. Therefore, they should also be very worried now, because if Shuangxing Company Group were to purchase them on a large scale, it would have an extremely large impact on them.

Because they didn't have the capital to directly fight against Shuangxing Company Group, unless everyone gathered together to keep warm.

It had to be known that the Shuangxing Company Group was groomed by almost the entire nation. He seemed to represent one of the manifestations of national power in the nation of Korea.

Therefore, that scale was not something that an ordinary person could imagine.

"Lord Clan Chief, I've come this time to ask for your opinion, because I actually don't know what to do right now. You're an elder, so you'll definitely be of some help to me."

Wu Tian changed the way he said it. He didn't intend to give up just like that. This kind of situation happened way too often in the business negotiations.

"Wu Zhi is not dead yet, do you need to ask for my opinion? Or were you sent by Wu Zhi to humiliate me? "Let me tell you, there's nothing to talk about between the two of us ..."

Baili Chenghong seemed to be rather agitated as he spoke. In the end, he seemed to have choked and started coughing.

As soon as he coughed, the rest of the family quickly surrounded him and took care of him. They had been busy for a long time. Finally, Baili Chenghong was able to settle down.

Wu Tian saw all of this happen. With this happening, it meant one thing, and that was that this Baili Chenghong might be suffering from some sort of disease.

Therefore, he should be unable to persevere in the long negotiations. Since that's the case, then Wu Tian had the best technique, which was to stall for time.

As long as he could drag it out until Baili Chenghong couldn't hold out any longer, he would have to admit his defeat during the negotiations.

"No, no, no. This matter has nothing to do with my grandfather. He is no longer in charge of managing the Wu Family anymore."

"You still have the nerve to talk about Wu Family. I heard that you chased out all your relatives and now that you have Wu Family, I think it's time to change your name. It would be better to call you two father and son of the Wu family. "

Shangguan Family even used this matter as a laughingstock, but to Baili Family and Ouyang Family, they were more shocked.

There had never been a person who could have the courage to cut off his family.

At least in the past hundred years of their fights, it had never happened before. Wu Tian was the first person to do so.

"If a person's body is sick and they have a tumor, they need to go to the hospital to be resected. The same goes for the company. If they have any bad assets, they should be removed. Otherwise, it might affect the benefits of the entire company. It was the same for Wu Family. Those malignant tumors, if we do not remove them, my Wu Family would probably be completely destroyed by now. "

Wu Tian didn't think so. He did not react to these words at all, he did not care about them at all.

"You are really young and reckless. Do you think that for a family, what you are doing is right? If I am the Patriarch of Wu Family, I will chase you out first! "

Baili Chenghong seemed to have an opinion of Wu Tian's way of handling this matter. This was probably the reason why he was unwilling to talk to Wu Tian.

"If that's the case, then I really have the honor. However, if we don't kick people like Wu Yongan out, then Wu Group company should have already closed down, and the four great families would become the three great families. But now, the Wu Group was still there. In the Four Great Clans, the Wu Family was also still there. Although it's just the two of us. "

Not only did Wu Tian not feel any sorrow or self-blame, but he also felt very proud.

He didn't feel like he had done anything wrong. Was there something wrong with removing the tumor? Did they need him to pray for this tumor?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 652 - Prepare Two Scenarios

C652 Prepare Two Scenarios

Although Baili Cheng Hong and Wu Tian had been arguing about this matter, it didn't seem to have much to do with the Shuangxing Company Group.

Actually, Wu Tian already felt very good, the progress was already pretty good.

This was because he could at least converse with Baili Chenghong. If he was unable to converse with Baili Chenghong, then he would truly be doomed.

"You are just spouting nonsense, forcing logic!"

Baili Chenghong summed up Wu Tian's actions using these words. He did not kick Wu Tian out like he did in the beginning.

Although on the surface, Old Master and Wu Tian were like parallel lines that could never be crossed, but Old Master's attitude towards him had become a lot more relaxed. From this, it could be seen that.

Loong Yun stood on the sidelines, watching the whole process. She basically had no say in this kind of meeting.

"Young Master, can we get any results today?"

"It's quite big."

Right now, they couldn't afford to delay any longer. Every single day that passed, Shuangxing Company Group would buy more and more assets.

One must know, most companies will choose to go public after they have done a big job. Going public is equivalent to taking out and selling their shares.

Of course, rich people can buy it, and Shuangxing Company Group can use this way to take control of an enterprise.

Although it may not be able to control all of the company's shares, as long as it becomes a major shareholder, it will be able to exert a great influence on the company.

After all, if he had a huge stake in the company, as long as he threw it out, the stock would plummet. The next effect is that the company benefits are also a cliff - like decline.

It wasn't a big deal for one or two companies to be bullied like this, but if he was in control of a large number of companies, then doing such a thing in an instant would be terrifying.

It would cause countless companies to go bankrupt and countless workers to be laid off. At that time, if Shuangxing Company Group were to pop up again and purchase these companies at an extremely low price, it would be equivalent to using an extremely despicable method to complete a bottom price purchase.

This was a principle that anyone who dealt in business would understand.

However, what was placed in front of them wasn't just the risks, but also the high benefits.

If some companies were to be acquired by Shuangxing Company Corporation, they might not end up bankrupt. Perhaps this way, they could raise their share prices. When Shuangxing Company Corporation purchased the shares, the average market owner would choose to purchase them along with Shuangxing Company Corporation. Therefore, the price of the shares of the company would rise rapidly.

This was a huge benefit, and not everyone could have a clear understanding of it in the face of benefits.

However, Baili Chenghong was undoubtedly clear-headed. After becoming the Patriarch of Baili Family for so many years, he would naturally not be a fool. If he didn't have the brains for business, he probably wouldn't have the position of clan head.

When it was time for lunch, Baili Chenghong and Wu Tian specifically ate dinner alone, so no one else was allowed to come in.

The food placed in front of them was just an ordinary western steak. It didn't seem like a big deal.

"It's not expensive to treat you to this kind of food, fill up your stomach for now. "Brat, you don't think that this old man has treated you unfairly, right?"

Even though Baili Chenghong's tone wasn't very good, it was already much better than before.

"It's already good that you're willing to eat with me. How could I be so picky? I'm not an idiot."

It had to be said that although the steak looked average, when it entered his mouth, it tasted completely different. It was very tender and juicy.

Although Wu Tian had eaten a lot of delicacies before, this was the first time he tasted something like this. He was instantly very surprised.

"Haha, this was made by our Baili Family, a very young chef. I'm afraid no one in the entire country can surpass him! "

Baili Chenghong was extremely proud of himself. For the Baili family to possess such a person, it was natural that they would be very happy.

"Thank you so much. If there's another chance, I hope to have this steak again."

"Aren't you ..."

Wu Tian remembered that he had heard everything before, Baili Zhenlin had a bad relationship with Baili Family, when he went to Nanhe Securities Corporation, it seemed that he was also sent by the family.

"Do you also think that Baili Zhenlin is not on good terms with the people in our family?" Baili Chenghong smiled and patted Baili Zhenlin's shoulder affectionately. He had an evil smile on his face as he spoke to Wu Tian.

"The Lord Patriarch is my uncle. The two of us have been very close since we were children."

Baili Zhenlin quickly explained that all of this was actually a trap that they came up with on purpose.

Although their Baili Family was relatively close to the Shangguan Family, they could still clearly feel the Shangguan Family's recent movements, and was moving more and more sideways.

So they had already specially prepared two plans before, they couldn't possibly only have Shangguan Family as a choice, right?

If something were to happen to their Shangguan Family in the future, then the resulting storm would blow on their Baili Family and the losses would not be worth it.

"In other words, you intentionally allowed him to leave so that he could come in contact with Wu Family and Ouyang Family ..." Wu Tian quickly came to his senses. No wonder Baili Zhenlin's cooperation with him was so decisive.

So they had already prepared two plans from the beginning. If this was the case, then Baili Family and Baili Zhenlin were practically cut off from each other on the surface. No matter what Baili Zhenlin did, it could be said to have nothing to do with Baili Family, and it could be said to be very related.

Even if Baili Zhenlin and Wu Family were to join hands, Baili Family could also indicate to Shangguan Family that it had nothing much to do with them.

To put it bluntly, it was a deceptive trick. They secretly prepared another plan. Although they thought it was very simple afterwards, this effect was really good. Even Wu Tian was deceived by it.

"Awesome!" "Awesome!" Wu Tian couldn't help but admire them. Even though he hadn't really paid attention to Baili Family, he never thought that they were actually such intelligent people.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 653 - Successful Negotiation

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 654 - Forgotten Artists

C654 Forgotten Artists

In any case, this business battle was about to begin. In other words, it had already been going on for quite some time.

Right now, the enemy had finally revealed his identity. Relying on just a single company was not enough, and the others should also know that the relationship between their interests was very close.

"This can be said to be our trade war! No matter if we succeed or fail, the China business circle will definitely bring about a huge reshuffle. If we are able to gain a foothold in the chaos this time, it will also mean that we are about to occupy the top position of the entire China business circle! "

When Baili Zhenlin said this, his eyes lit up. He was very excited and also very looking forward to it.

Perhaps there would be many people who would never have the opportunity to do so in their entire lifetime. And now, they could. Whether they succeeded or failed, it would be an unforgettable experience for the participants.

"Yes, perhaps in the future, our four great clans will become history, and perhaps there will be new clans that will rise to prominence in the China."

Wu Tian was also very emotional. In fact, he still wanted to say something, but due to the current situation, he didn't say it in the end.

For people like Wu Tian and Baili Zhenlin, the number of people who left the family to work alone would increase, or their grades would get better and better.

As this phenomenon becomes more common, it also means that the family business will slowly wither away, replacing the more efficient and profitable model.

There were already signs of this happening. Wu Group Corporation was a very good example. Previously, its structure was huge and its command was ineffective, but after going through a series of reforms, it had already started emitting a very strong life force.

However, this matter was not something that could be said in front of the older generation. They had the necessity and responsibility to adhere to their traditions.

"I look forward to that day. Wish us luck."

Once he got the Baili Family together, the rest of his words would be to contact the Ouyang Family. On the other side, he did frequently contact them, but actually, there was no need to worry.

That was simpler. The relationship between Ouyang Family and itself had always been very good. It's just that Wu Tian didn't interact much with them and this matter might be left in Su Cancan's hands, so Wu Tian was too lazy to manage it.

On the way back, Wu Tian finally let out a sigh of relief. At least this was a good start.

"Young master, there's one thing. Have you signed an artist before? Someone often emails me asking if I should prepare some activities for her."

Loong Yun mentioned it while she was driving. Recently, she didn't mention it as she was a bit busy with Wu Tian, but now that he was in a good mood, it was a good opportunity to mention it.

"What artiste?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. He thought about it and suddenly realized that he did indeed do it. At that time, he had considered that since Huaxing had just developed, there were no artistes available, which was the same as having no merchandise.

Thus, when he found Xi Chengwen in the bar, he had decisively signed the contract with her and even paid the penalty fee for her actions. After that, Wu Tian never asked again.

"Are you saying that Xi Chengwen sent a document?"

Loong Yun nodded and confirmed, "That's right, that's her. I told her to discuss it with the Huaxing Film and Television Company, but she said that the company wasn't fully staffed, and didn't really understand how things were developing, so she still wanted to ask you. "

Wu Tian was silent for a while. Indeed, it was a waste of resources to drag this matter on for so long.

Although he had signed Xi Chengwen over, she probably wouldn't feel good if he ignored her.

"Does she still not know about me? Isn't it just that I'm already dead outside ..."

Wu Tian originally wanted to go see Xi Chengwen directly, but he was afraid that this matter would be exposed.

"She doesn't know. She probably thought that you were dead, so she sent out some documents to inquire what to do. She was probably afraid that once you died, no one would pay attention to her."

Loong Yun guessed that many people were like her during this period of time. They were worried that the development of Wu Group Corporation might be a little unclear.

Fortunately, Yu Naixin and the rest could now take on the heavy responsibility alone. Many things in the company could be done by Yu Naixin and the others without Wu Tian having to deal with it.

"This is a problem, let me think... How about this, I will just say that I was sent here by Huaxing Film and TV to be responsible for her business. I can just directly discuss this with her. If we can get Huaxing Film and Television to operate it, it would be great if Huang Lan could come over. "

Huang Lan had so much traffic, and she was a celebrity. If she could personally help push this matter forward, she would definitely achieve twice the results with half the effort.

"I can't. Sister Huang is very busy right now. There are quite a few issues that I can't push away."

Loong Yun had probably contacted Huang Lan a long time ago, so she immediately told Wu Tian that this wouldn't work.

"Then let's do it like this, I'll come alone!"

Wu Tian directly asked Loong Yun to take him to the branch office of Huaxing Film TV, in fact, it was only to return to Wu Group.

Other than those branches that needed to do business outside to rent a house, the rest of the branches were basically located inside the Wu Group Building.

In any case, the previous departments had all been abolished, leaving the majority of the floors free for them to use. This way, they could avoid wasting their space.

It also made the Wu Group Tower look more lively and alive.

Wu Tian followed behind Loong Yun while wearing a mask. In order to make him more like a manager, he intentionally wore sunglasses and held some notebooks in his hands. He looked like a manager.

The Huaxing Film and Television branch occupied an entire floor, but there weren't many people.

Loong Yun quickly told the people in her company as she directly brought Wu Tian and ran towards the meeting room.

Everyone in the company knew that Loong Yun was Wu Tian's secretary, so they took her words seriously. Soon, the meeting room was filled with people.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 655 - Rapid Promotion

C655 Rapid Promotion

Everyone in the room looked at Wu Tian strangely. They didn't understand why a general manager would suddenly appear at this moment. It was obvious that no one had arranged this before.

However, since it was someone Loong Yun brought over, it meant that it must be the company's decision and they could only accept it. There was nothing bad about it for them. At least, it would be able to solve the current situation of having no leader in the company.

"New General Manager, what should I call you?"

Xi Chengwen felt that since she was the only artiste now, she should take the initiative to speak up.

After all, the company's development was the best for her. In their industry, the company's development complemented the growth of a single person. A situation where one side was strong while the other side was weak and could develop well was non-existent.

"I... My Name... That... My last name is Zhao... "Just call me Zhao Qiang."

Wu Tian was shocked when he was suddenly asked this question. He didn't think about it before, so he quickly thought of one and took it out to deal with it.

"Alright, General Manager Zhao Qiang. Welcome to the branch office. We can ask, what are we going to do next?"

Xi Chengwen didn't plan to waste time talking. This was what she was most concerned about right now, and also what she hoped to get the answer to.

"Don't worry, don't worry. Since you are the only artiste in our company, the company will use all of our resources to help you. Don't worry about that."

Wu Tian smiled, but he didn't express any disgust. He really liked to speak in such a straightforward manner. If you have something to say, then just say it. Only by doing so can you save time and cost.

"Then what are you going to do? Are we going to make a movie or a TV show? "Or go to some variety shows or something ..."

Zhang Chi was also puzzled. Ever since they came to this company, they had nothing to do. Perhaps to others, they would be more than happy. However, to the two of them, things were different.

Xi Chengwen wasn't the type of person who was willing to be at ease. She really wanted to be famous, and she also wanted to go further on the path of an artist. Zhang Chi was also willing to help her because the two of them had their own goals. If they were always hidden by the company, they would rather not develop in it.

All of these are fine, but we have limited funds right now, so let's just let Seafood TV and Odd Fish Live Broadcast discuss it for a bit and see if we can create an internet variety show. I see that this thing is pretty popular right now, so they should have a good idea already, you, Xi Chengwen, can go and be a long-term guest or host.

This was the easiest method. Using their existing resources to integrate directly, and then giving Xi Chengwen long-term exposure would have the effect of promoting her growth.

"It's not that I don't want to, but if you let me preside over it, I'm afraid I won't be able to do it well ..." Xi Chengwen felt a little embarrassed because she felt that the host was a rather professional person. If she were to casually go, it might bring about a very bad effect.

"What are you afraid of? You'll know once you try ..."

Wu Tian didn't take her words seriously at all. Whether it's okay or not, you do it first. Besides, there was no need for so many requests in the variety shows.

Xi Chengwen had a different opinion about this matter being decided so simply, but she could only accept such an outcome.

"Oh right, as for the big issues with the company, you can report them to Secretary Loong Yun. As for the small matters, I'll leave them to you now. Zhang Chi, you take over as the manager."

Zhang Chi was stunned. He was originally just a manager for Xi Chengwen. Honestly speaking, he didn't have such a high position and was more like a errand boy.

However, Wu Tian still bluntly chose him at this time. This didn't mean that he had to pull out a tall man from the crowd.

However, Wu Tian could feel that Zhang Chi sincerely wanted to help Xi Chengwen grow. With this kind of intention, he would definitely be very serious when doing things.

Just for this reason, it wouldn't be a problem for him to become the manager.

"President Zhao, are you not here?"

Zhang Chi said in a daze. He hadn't fully digested what he said just now. This was too sudden.

"I'm not here most of the time, but you guys can contact me on email. I'll tell you guys anything and everything through this method. As for how exactly to do it, Zhang Chi, it's up to you to decide."

After all, this was an opportunity to train them. They couldn't leave everything to Wu Tian to decide, could they?

If his company grew bigger and bigger in the future, he wouldn't be able to keep an eye on everything.

"Then ..."

Zhang Chi was still a bit hesitant. It would be a lie to say that he didn't want to, but he would definitely be a bit hesitant in his heart.

"Yes! Of course I'm willing! "

"Alright, then do as I say. The meeting is adjourned."

The meeting ended in a hurry, but Xi Chengwen didn't leave. Instead, she came to Wu Tian.

As an artiste, she had to communicate with this general manager and build a good relationship with him.

"What's wrong? Didn't I already arrange everything, what else do you have to worry about? "

He watched as Xi Chengwen came to him. Her eyes were extremely sharp, as if she was suspecting something.

Xi Chengwen stared at Wu Tian. It was obvious that she wanted to know more.

"I still have some things to take care of at Luzhou, so I can't stay here for long. That Huang Lan over there has been given too much work, so I can't do anything about it. Actually, we treat you equally."

Wu Tian casually gave a reason, it was fine as long as they believed it.

"So that's how it is. Did President Wu say anything?"

Wu Tian thought to himself, I've said everything I have to say... What else do you have to ask?
