

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 697 - Deal

C697 Deal

How could he say such a thing?

Although it was Wu Tian's truest thought, it was still a secret.

Moreover, it was in front of the people of Korea, so wasn't saying this to embarrass others?

It wasn't that Wu Tian hadn't considered this, but he was clear in his heart that such an action couldn't be hidden.

Even if he didn't say so, there would definitely be people who would doubt whether he was the target or not.

After the manager heard this, he was stunned for a moment before laughing out loud.

"I already said that this matter is not that simple. For the dignified CEO of the Wu Group company to come to me to buy this street, is it just to give vent to others? "

The manager actually already knew Wu Tian's identity. This made Wu Tian secretly admire him.

Honestly speaking, if he were in Zhang Xuan's shoes, he definitely wouldn't do such a thing.

It had to be said that the higher one's sense of justice was, the higher their evil would be. It was only after coming out that one could tell that a person was stronger than another.

The shop assistant, who was on the side, was also stunned, but he quickly changed his mind.

Just like he had said before, in Korea, as long as you have money, you can buy a lot of things.

In this gray area, everything was decided by the money.

"How is it? Do you still feel satisfied with my reason?"

Wu Tian felt a lot more relaxed at this time. After all, he didn't have any burdens in his heart and he didn't have any to hide it, so this was his truest thought.

"Alright, alright, alright. I promise you, regarding this matter. "Sell it!"

The manager was surprisingly straightforward. The two didn't even talk about the price and directly decided to buy one for sale.

It was the first time that the shop assistant saw him do business like this, and it almost refreshed his impression of the store.

"What about the price? How much are you going to pay? "

Wu Tian didn't understand the local market at all, he knew that there was a small trap in the manager's way of asking.

It was just like a small test. Although Wu Tian might not be able to accurately guide the local price, anyone with good eyesight could guess.

Wu Tian had already observed the situation nearby just now.

Every storefront here took up an area of about three to four hundred square meters. It was extremely large, and the entire street had over a hundred shops. Just the area it covered was thirty to forty thousand square meters.

The price of land here was said to be very high, but it wasn't possible to get such an outrageously high price.

It was also a pretty similar number. Even if it was 100,000, the street that bought it would cost 3.5 billion yuan.

This was not even considering the facilities nearby, as well as the increase in the price of land brought about by the geographical location.

"3 billion. That's the maximum price I can get."

Wu Tian felt that this number was already quite a lot and even felt that it was a bit profitable.

He definitely wouldn't lose if he bought it.

The manager looked at Wu Tian with glowing eyes and nodded in admiration.

"This price is a little low, but I am very happy. A young man like you is becoming less and less in our Korea."

Wu Tian was elated upon hearing his words. It seemed that the deal was a success.

As expected, the manager quickly drafted a contract to transfer the street over.

The two of them signed the contract and shook hands.

"I didn't expect you to be so generous. I truly admire you."

At this point, Wu Tian was not as good as this old man.

"No no, this amount of wealth is nothing to me."

The administrator didn't care at all. To him, it really seemed like a drop in the bucket.

The shop assistant at the side looked at him with his mouth agape. He didn't think that this manager would be so amazing.

However, the more he looked, the more he felt that this manager seemed a little familiar.

Suddenly, he cried out in alarm. He could not believe what he had just heard.

"Could you be the hidden wealthiest person in Korea Country, the Chief of Time Company, Cui Yongji?!"

Hearing the clerk said that, Wu Tian also turned his gaze over.

The manager nodded his head with a smile, agreeing with his words.

Wu Tian had heard of this Time Company before, and it was said that it was Korea Country's second largest company.

The first was the Shuangxing Company Group. This was something that no one could doubt, but this Time Company was not inferior to it.

Reportedly, in terms of body size, there was only a small gap compared to the Shuangxing Company Group.

Thus, in the commoners, the boss of Time Company had the saying that he was the richest man in Stealth.

It was rumored that this Cui Yongji had a lot of assets. Although many companies weren't under his name, they were actually started by Cui Yongji.

"Are you really Cui Yongji?"

Wu Tian was very surprised, he had just said that he would attack Korea's financial world ...

This wasn't a declaration of war on the face of a very capable businessman in front of others.

"What? You don't believe me?"

There was no need for Cui Yongji to lie about this.

Even if he pretended to be Cui Yongji, what good was there to him? His street was even sold to Wu Tian at a low price.

It could even be said that he lost money. Wasn't everything he did because he had money, and now he thinks highly of Wu Tian.

"Don't take what I said just now to heart ..."

Wu Tian scratched his head and said embarrassedly. At that time, he was straightforward, so he didn't think too much about it.

"Don't mind it so much. Although I'm from the Korea, I also know that I have to return the favor. You don't need me to tell you what the Shuangxing Company Group is doing outside right now. "

Cui Yongji would definitely understand this more clearly than Wu Tian.

In terms of Time Company, one was the second brother while the other was the eldest. In a sense, they were enemies since birth.

If Wu Tian wanted to attack the business of Korea, from a certain sense, he was also attacking the Shuangxing Company Group.

Due to the collusion between the Shuangxing Company Group and the government, the officials and merchants were very close. This made Cui Yongji very unhappy.

"Because what you did was very beneficial to me."

Cui Yongji did not hide anything and said whatever he wanted to say.

"I did not expect to meet a friendly troop here! This is great! "

Wu Tian was overjoyed. If he could work with Cui Yongji... Then this matter would be a lot easier to handle.

"Cooperation is impossible for us. Normal transactions and business dealings are possible. No matter what, I am still a member of the Korea, so it is impossible for me to go short on stocks with you. "

Cui Yongji had a bottom line, so he had to uphold the principles.

C698 If You Don't Get into the Tiger's Den You Won't Get into the Tiger's Child

After Cui Yongji saw the two of them off, he smiled at Wu Tian's back.

Like he said. It was rare to see a young man like Wu Tian.

Speaking of which, when would he ever have an heir like him?

Thinking like this, Cui Yongji took out the photo of his daughter and looked at it. He sighed, he didn't have a son.

He only had one daughter, but she didn't like business. In other words, in a business empire as big as Cui Yongji's, he could only hand it over to outsiders.

After realizing this point, Cui Yongji had changed his mind. Since his daughter could not inherit his business empire, he might as well find a son-in-law.

He turned around and took out a small notebook. He wrote down Wu Tian's name on it and drew an asterisk on the back of it.

Wu Tian held the title book. The name on it had been changed to his, which meant that the whole street now had to change its name to Wu.

"Mr Wu, what are you going to do next?"

On the way back, the shop assistant was a little excited, because such a large-scale transaction was happening right in front of him.

He could also tell that Wu Tian was not an ordinary person. If he paid a lot of attention to him, he would definitely be able to earn a lot of money.

"Then of course we have to find trouble with Shangguan Junyi first." Wu Tian was already thinking about what to do. He looked at the young man in front of him. He felt that since this guy was so clever, it would be better to let him work for him.

"What's your current job like? If it doesn't work out, you might as well come over to my place. As long as you have the ability, you'll definitely get the money."

The shop assistant was stunned for a moment. It wasn't that he had never imagined such a situation would occur, but he also didn't expect Wu Tian to be so quick and straightforward.

"That... Can I really? "

"Of course you can, but you have to be mentally prepared. I will also tell you the truth, I will definitely have to deal with Shuangxing Company company later on. If you don't have the means to accept this, it would be better for you not to agree."

This premise was very important, Wu Tian didn't want his subordinates to be against him for such a thing. So he had to make this matter clear first.

"Shuangxing Company Group huh ..." The shop assistant, the young man, smacked his lips. This matter was indeed a bit tangled up with him. After all, Shuangxing Company company was one of their pride.

"What's your name?" Wu Tian looked at him hesitantly and decided to add a little booster.

"Soong Minji."

"Mm, do you know why I'm so confident?" Wu Tian beckoned Soong Minji to come closer to him.

Soong Minji secretly put his ear close to his ear. He knew that Wu Tian might tell him something important.

"I already know that Shuangxing Company company and the government colluded to embezzle your citizens' property. This is my ultimate move, and also what I rely on. "

Wu Tian didn't hide it, he didn't have to worry about it being leaked out.

Even if word got out, if they couldn't find any evidence, it would be for nothing. The Shuangxing Company Corporation probably wouldn't be the slightest bit worried about such a thing happening.

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Soong Minji frowned and finally nodded his head.

"If this is true, I'm willing to help you."

"Whether it's true or not, you can only judge for yourself. But don't worry, I won't snatch the market that Shuangxing Company company gave us later, this can also be considered as my promise to you, a citizen of Korea."

This was also the main difference between Wu Tian and Shuangxing Company company.

The purpose of Shuangxing Company company shorting out a country was to plunder their wealth and strengthen themselves.

Wu Tian only wanted to take down Shuangxing Company company, so he would naturally increase his own strength, but he didn't need Wu Group to directly take over.

The two of them chatted and laughed for a while before they soon reached the street in the red light district.

Since it was finally time to start, Wu Tian took a deep breath and pretended to be playing around.

Just like before, Soong Minji continued to act as his tour guide, bringing Wu Tian around everywhere.

The two of them went through several stores in a row, but none of them seemed to be very satisfied with it. Only then did they walk over to Shangguan Junyi's store.

"Sir, this one has been famous for a long time."

Soong Minji introduced them as he brought Wu Tian inside.

When the security guard saw Wu Tian, he immediately went up to stop him.

Wu Tian was the one who interfered when that little boy was making trouble. These people had seen Wu Tian before, so of course they couldn't let him in like this.

"You can't enter!"

The security guard pointed at Wu Tian with his stiff China, then used his own body to block the path in front of him.

"Why should I come here to spend?"

Wu Tian was indignant and argued against these people.

"Hehe, we don't welcome guests like you. This is what our manager said."

The security guard smiled sinisterly. In any case, he didn't plan to let Wu Tian in.

"Big brother, just make it easy for us, no matter what, this is a big customer, and he likes the taste of your shop. You also know that China people have that kind of personality, no one can sit still when they see their own people being bullied ..."

Soong Minji was better at speaking. When no one was looking, he handed a few notes to the security guard.

As expected, money is better. Just as Soong Minji said, in this place, money can buy anything.

"Alright, alright. Please come in."

After receiving the money, the security guard's attitude immediately changed 180 degrees.

Even Wu Tian was surprised by these two or three cuts. The speed at which he changed his attitude was a little too fast.

No matter what, he still came in first.

"I want that boy's sister. You go and arrange this."

Wu Tian revealed his thoughts to Soong Minji in a low voice. Then, he found a quiet place to sit down and drank some wine as he waited quietly.

Inside this place were many small cubicles. Although the outside looked like it belonged to China, the inside was still the same kind of tatami from Korea.

In short, there was something a little out of place. From time to time, a few girls would walk into the corridor.

Wu Tian looked at them and they also looked at Wu Tian.

"Sir, do you need someone to accompany you?"

One of the girls was rather brazen, so she came over to talk to Zhang Xuan on her own accord.

"Come and sit down. What's your name?"

Wu Tian waved at her and moved his butt to give her some space.

"Lily."

"Hmm, just nice. Come and chat with me."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 699 - Learn about

C699 Learn about

It was probably Lily's first time seeing a guest who only wanted to chat in a place like this.

But he would pay anyway, and Lily thought it would be better.

"Although it might be a little inappropriate, I still want to ask, do you guys really like working here?"

Wu Tian used a rather awkward opening remark. People said that men loved to persuade prostitutes to return to normal work, which was true at times.

Lily covered her mouth and laughed. This was not the first time she had encountered this kind of situation, and she had already gotten used to it.

"Customer, why are you saying these kinds of words? Did you not come here to enjoy and play?"

Wu Tian also came, that's right, all of the people here were for fun and entertainment.

"I'm just afraid that you're being forced, so I feel bad in my heart."

"You can rest assured then ..." Lili looked around vigilantly and whispered, "In the past, there were indeed such situations in the red light district. But now, there are less of them."

If they were willing to do this, it could also be considered as their choice. Others could not stop them, after all, they had not violated the laws of Korea ...

is simply to accept moral censure and disdain from others...

However, if they could get a lot of money in exchange, there would still be people willing to do so.

"So that's how it is." Wu Tian nodded. The reason he asked that question was because he was considering whether he should close all these stores.

However, after hearing her words, it seemed like there was no need for that at the moment.

However, these women who came from China were still unable to stay in this place. Wu Tian had already made up his mind.

"If, I mean, if foreign girls like you aren't allowed to work in the red light district, what will you do?"

Wu Tian asked Lily seriously. He also wanted to know how important this job was to them.

If the job was useless, he had nothing else to say.

"If that's the case, I'll go home. When I came to Korea before, I owed a lot of money, and now that I have more or less paid it back, I might go back to school, or I might go back to work. "

In short, it was to draw an ending with the current life.

"Since that's the case, then I don't need to worry. Do you know him or not? The boy who was beaten up at the door this morning."

"You saw it too. I heard about it later. It was a miserable beating."

Lily did know something, and she was not surprised at all.

"Isn't he innocent?"

"He can be considered a pitiful person. Actually, what he said was all true. Her elder sister is indeed there, but she was locked up by the boss and won't be let out easily. "

Lily said in a low voice. These words were only occasionally exchanged between them, they did not dare to let their boss hear them.

"Tell me about it in detail."

Wu Tian took out a stack of bills from his pocket. He definitely had to pay a price for asking for help.

Seeing the money, Lily immediately beamed with happiness.

"Customer, you're being too courteous ..." As she spoke, she put the money into her pocket and carefully covered it, not letting anyone notice.

Because of this, if the shop owner didn't know that she had accepted the money, he wouldn't have taken it from her.

"I'm telling you, I don't know much about this matter. It's said that this woman owed a lot of money to her family, and that they took her into custody to sell her here."

Although it sounded like an ancient novel, it actually happened.

It was just that it did not happen in China but in Korea.

Since they were all foreigners, the Korean police did not want to interfere.

"How could there be such a thing? This is simply insane." Wu Tian clenched his fist in anger, while a surge of violent emotion rose up from within him.

However, there was no way for him to vent his anger here. He could only forcefully hold it in.

"Also, it's said that this girl is very beautiful. The boss hasn't let her see many customers. I heard that she's still very clean."

Lili continued to gossip, but there were a lot of things that happened after that. Wu Tian couldn't stand it any longer.

"Alright, you can leave now."

Wu Tian waved his hand. Right now, he just wanted to be alone.

"Guest ..."

Lili thought she said something wrong and made Wu Tian angry. She looked at him nervously.

"Let's go, I'm not in a good mood right now."

Seeing that Wu Tian was still so insistent, Lily didn't say anything else and hastily walked out.

Soong Minji went for a long time. After a while, he finally found Wu Tian's place.

"I talked to the boss for a long time and he didn't want you to see that girl. I offered him a very high price, but he didn't agree. "

Soong Minji didn't expect the boss to be so tough. He didn't even want to earn money.

Wu Tian lay on the sofa, narrowed his eyes and looked at Soong Minji and said slowly, "I will double the price you gave him. Didn't you say that anything can be done here with money?" Let me tell you, I have plenty of money. "

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Soong Minji hurriedly nodded his head in agreement before hurriedly leaving.

Soon, he returned to Wu Tian's room with a smile on his face.

Behind him was always a woman who seemed to have a grudge against him.

It was the girl in the photo that Soong Minji gave him. She looked more beautiful and three-dimensional than the photo.

She was wearing the traditional clothing of the China and her fashionable makeup was extremely beautiful. Standing there motionlessly, she looked just like a painting.

Wu Tian was shocked when he saw her, but he quickly came back to his senses and invited her to sit across from him.

He sized up this beauty and whispered with Soong Minji for a while before he found out that this beauty's name was Tang Yanrou.

"Miss, don't be nervous ..."

Wu Tian first smiled at Tang Yanrou, then let Soong Minji stare at the door.

The conversation they had later could not be made known to outsiders.

Who knows if the owner of this shop will eavesdrop,

Tang Yanrou didn't say a word. Her eyes weren't on Wu Tian. Instead, she was looking into the distance. From the depths of her bones, she emitted a vengeful aura.

"Um, when I was outside today, I saw your brother fighting with them, and now he's also injured a little. He's been taken to the hospital by me. "

Wu Tian felt a little awkward, so he could only find a random thing to say as an opening.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 700 - Tang Yan Rou

C700 Tang Yan Rou

Hearing Wu Tian's words, the girl's expression immediately changed.

It was just that she looked extremely sad, causing people to be unable to resist the urge to go comfort her.

"He ... Is he okay ... "

Tang Yanrou muttered to herself, a bit absent-minded.

She should know, but with her abilities and identity, she really couldn't save her brother.

"It's nothing serious for now. He's lying in the hospital with a few broken bones."

Wu Tian specifically told Wu Zaibin to accompany him there for surgery. The first thing he did was to inform him of the good news.

"Thank you. "Thank you for saving Tang Jun."

Tang Jun was the boy's name and also Tang Yanrou's brother.

"Your surname is Tang ..." Wu Tian began to ponder in his mind. Wu Tian had understood most of the well-known merchants and knew their names.

But this Tang guy ... And it's related to Korea... Wu Tian thought about it and still couldn't come up with a conclusion.

In his memory, there seemed to be no such person.

"I heard that your father is Commerce Chamber Chairman?"

This was what Soong Minji had told him. If it was really like this, then Wu Tian would be interested in finding out what exactly happened here.

"You seem to know everything now?"

Tang Yanrou smiled bitterly. Even if her father was the president, so what? She wasn't stuck in that kind of place yet.

"What happened?"

Wu Tian continued to ask tirelessly. Perhaps she felt that his way of questioning was a bit too radical, Tang Yanrou looked at Wu Tian nervously.

"Why are you asking so many questions?"

Wu Tian realized that he had lost his composure and quickly tidied up his expression.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I was just curious and didn't mean anything else. "It can be considered fate, since your brother's matter has been decided by me, then I will deal with it to the end."

Although his words were firm and decisive, he did not gain Tang Yanrou's trust.

"Customer, I advise you to return." Tang Yanrou had long since given up hope, and it was impossible for them to escape from such a fate.

For the two of them, death was perhaps the best release.

"What? You don't believe me?"

"Perhaps you are indeed very rich, but I'm afraid you will not be able to take the blame for the people we have offended. So I suggest you forget it. "

Tang Yanrou finally smiled at Wu Tian. It was just that this smile made Wu Tian feel that it was too dazzling.

It was as if she was slapping his face and mocking Wu Tian, saying that if he didn't have the ability, then he shouldn't do such a thing.

If she wasn't like this, Wu Tian might really forget about it. But now, he just didn't want it to end like this.

"little girl, you might not know who I am, but let me tell you, since I have already said that I will handle this matter, I will handle it till the end!"

Wu Tian snorted, then took out his chequebook.

"Tell me, how much do you owe them? I'll help you settle your debt."

No matter what, he had to get Tang Jun's sister out of this place first.

If there was no surprise, the store would be closed and it wouldn't be that easy for him to find Tang Yanrou at that time.

"Mister... You really don't have to. Maybe you're really rich enough to pay for me, but it's not a matter of money. "

Tang Yanrou's tears streamed down. She didn't cry, but she was very sad.

"No, can you not be so naughty? I came over to help you out of good intentions. What exactly are you doing? With my good intentions, do you want to be treated like an idiot?"

Wu Tian suddenly became angry. His temper was always straight, and when faced with such a situation, he felt even more unhappy.

If it wasn't for the fact that this Tang Yanrou could be considered pretty, he probably would have directly left her.

There were so many people who wanted to beg him for help that he almost begged to help Tang Yanrou. She was so secretive that she refused in all sorts of ways.

"Sir, that's not what I meant. I'm very grateful for everything you've done for me. It's just that, just that ..."

"But what?"

"Since things have come to this, I might as well say it. Perhaps this way you might give up. The person we have offended, is the president of the China headquarters ... "

After Tang Yanrou finished speaking, she didn't say anything else. Her face was deathly still.

Although this Chamber of Commerce was a civilian organization, he still had a lot of power.

This was because his reputation had always been good. Whoever offended these companies would very likely be rejected by them.

No one will do business with you then.

"The president of the main chamber of commerce?"

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. He had indeed never touched on this before. With his company's strength, people from the Chamber of Commerce would definitely pay attention to them.

However, no one really came to look for Wu Tian, nor did they cause him any trouble.

"Yes, that's why I didn't want you to come over and take a look at this muddy water. It really wouldn't do you any good."

Tang Yanrou could also be considered to have put a lot of thought into what she said. After she said it, her heart finally relaxed a little.

"So what? Tell me how much money you owe him."

Wu Tian changed the topic of conversation and went back to his previous manner.

Tang Yanrou looked at Wu Tian in surprise. She couldn't believe that the man in front of her was so persistent.

"Customer, you ..."

"Stop chattering, can't you understand my words? I'll pay you back the amount you owe him! As for that Commerce Chamber Chairman, I don't think he would dare to touch me."

No matter what that company was up to, no matter what kind of strength they had, Wu Tian was never afraid.

He had not broken the law, and he had not done any tricks, so why should he be afraid of a bunch of civil society organizations?

Moreover, even if this Chamber of Commerce came over to boycott Wu Tian, how long would they be able to do so?

If Wu Tian left them, he wouldn't be able to live, and Wu Tian wouldn't let the power in this kind of Chamber of Commerce fall into someone else's hands.

It didn't fit his personality.

Tang Yanrou suddenly cried, crying miserably.

She had never thought that she would meet such a person. She had thought that her life had already turned to ashes, and she could no longer see any hope.

"Three million... Just a little. "

She choked with sobs as she watched Wu Tian sign the cheque with three million.

After the cheque was stuffed into her hand, Wu Tian looked like he didn't care at all.

"Take this money and pay the bill. Then I'll wait for you in the coffee shop opposite."
