

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 711 - Funds Available

C711 Funds Available

Just like this FTC, which was originally unmanaged, when he started this so-called volunteer organization, it was definitely not out of kindness.

All in all, it was for the sake of profit. Frankly speaking, there would definitely be a lot of people thinking about this place. Everyone knew that taking control of this exchange would bring a lot of profits.

Therefore, Brawne used this method to establish this so-called volunteer organization.

Using the method of a guide, he slowly let the new arrivals think that they were the managers here.

As a result, what Brawne and the others said might very well be considered as a rule by these people.

However, Wu Tian and the others were rather cautious. Most of the time, they would take the initiative to get to know each other and not wait for their explanation.

This way, in terms of rules, he wouldn't be able to use his previous methods to pressure Wu Tian.

However, his persuasion now could only be said as him accusing Wu Tian of having no will to serve the people and not asking for anything in return.

"I think you're just bullshitting... We're all in the business here, and a shopping mall is like a battlefield. If we don't fight to the death, how are we going to make money? "

Wu Tian felt that the Brawne in front of him had a problem with his brain.

He could even say such words.

He was so angry that he brushed his sleeves and left, not even bothering with these people.

Brawne also did not expect Wu Tian to have such a personality...

All the successful moves from the past actually had no effect on him.

"You ..."

Brawne looked at Wu Tian's disappearing figure. He was so angry that he couldn't say anything, yet he couldn't do anything about it.

Loong Yun was surprised to see Wu Tian return after just a short while.

It would be a wonder if they didn't look for him when he stirred up the market like this.

"How is it? Did he say for you to get some of the money back? "

"Of course he did, so I decided to add another 100 million."

Wu Tian shrugged his shoulders. Originally, he didn't want to do this, but who would have thought that this person would take the initiative to come forward? Brawne couldn't blame him for that if he wanted to be beaten up.

Very soon, all the FTC in the market had sold out.

Many of the people who possessed a large number of FTC had made a huge profit because of the increase in the price.

On the other hand, those who truly wanted to buy did not dare to do so. Everyone was watching from the sidelines.

Didn't Wu Zaibin buy a million before? Now, all of them were on the shelf.

Compared to before, the price had increased tenfold.

And in the entire market, this was the only place that could buy it.

Many people felt that such a large-scale acquisition would be sold again in a short period of time, and the price would drop then.

But how could they have predicted Wu Tian's character?

After strolling around for a while, the few of them directly logged out of the game ...

He allowed the two hundred million FTC s to be kept in his account.

After exiting the game, Wu Tian stretched his arms and legs as he laid on the bed. He realized that he had been inside the game for several hours already, but he didn't feel tired after coming out of the game.

Looking at the time again, only an hour had passed.

Could the time inside the game be out of sync with the time outside?

If this was true, it also meant that the flow of time inside would be much faster than in the real world outside.

Wasn't this the same as having a higher efficiency?

Wu Tian immediately realized the importance of this matter.

After he let go, the first thing he did was to find Wu Zaibin and excitedly told him his plan.

"Hurry up and find someone for me. Arrange this matter right now, we need to develop this brainwave device."

Wu Tian felt that everything he saw in the movie might turn into reality.

This revolutionary invention meant that humans could place all their work in the virtual world. In reality, all they needed to do was to provide the physical body with enough energy to survive.

Since the currency of the virtual world already existed, and there was also a world that could move about, the only thing left was to divert the business and assets of the real world into the virtual world.

"This government is not going to let this go, is it... "It's possible, but I don't think it's really going to be accepted by the public."

Wu Zaibin felt that he was thinking of something that was beyond his normal life, so he couldn't help but raise his doubts.

"They definitely won't agree. Right now, the main economy is still the real economy of the real world, and we are only making a small part of it to create the game. However, I will let people earn money to support themselves within the game."

Wu Tian's ambition wasn't small. Originally, there was a large group of professional gamers who relied solely on the game for their livelihood.

All he had done was to pull the group into his hands.

"OK, leave it to me."

Wu Zaibin quickly went to contact his contacts. Since this device was developed by Shuangxing Company company, he had to recruit a lot of people.

Wu Tian also provided a great help to Wu Bin. He directly arranged for the main technical backbone of Tianmu Technology to come over and work on this matter with Wu Zaibin.

The brainwave device and the virtual currency, these two revolutionary inventions appeared at the same time, allowing Wu Tian to see the infinite possibilities.

However, he still had to focus his attention on the matter that he had to deal with now.

Shuangxing Company Corporation is still waging a financial war against China right now ... This matter cannot be forgotten.

The next day, good news came from Guan Ruonan.

She had already raised up to a hundred billion national currencies.

When Wu Tian heard this, he immediately got excited. It was finally time to get back to business.

"Loong Yun, let's go to Wu Zaibin's company now."

Now the battle could finally begin. He had waited so long just for this day.

Wu Zaibin had been busy these past two days with Wu Tian's request to open a new company, so he was nowhere to be seen.

Wu Tian and the others could only drive there themselves. Luckily, this company wasn't that hard to find.

Guan Ruonan was already waiting for them here. She had a laptop in her hand, ready to transfer the funds.

"That's great! I knew you could! "

Wu Tian couldn't wait to give Guan Ruonan a big hug and help when he needed help.

"Of course I'll keep my word. With so little time, I can only raise these."

Guan Ruonan was still a bit shy, but no one expected her to be so powerful.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 712 - It Had Finally Begun

C712 It Had Finally Begun

She really did have quite the ability.

Since Guan Ruonan was able to become the China's Commerce Chamber Chairman, then she definitely had some skills.

As soon as she made a move, she had received over 100 billion funds in just a day. Wasn't this her ability or something?

Originally, Wu Tian was a little apprehensive in his heart about supporting her to become the China Chief, Commerce Chamber Chairman. But now, it seemed that Guan Ruonan did indeed have the strength to do so.

Even if he didn't support her, she was definitely a strong competitor.

"Miss Guan, how did you do it? My subordinate, Wu Zaibin, only managed to raise 300-40 billion with so much effort."

Wu Tian was curious about this point. Why was there such a huge gap between the two of them?

"You don't know about this. The main thing I do in Korea is to borrow money. Those financial institutions and banks are old acquaintances of mine. "

Guan Ruonan smiled faintly. If it had been anyone else, this matter might not have been able to be handled well.

It was exactly because Wu Tian was her specialty that Guan Ruonan agreed so readily.

"So that's how it is. Let's cut the crap. There should be three or four days until the final day of the transaction. We don't have much time, so we can't give them too much time to react."

Wu Tian quickly got Loong Yun to bring the computer over and the two of them transferred the nearly 100 billion Korea currency into Wu Tian's account.

"Is it finally starting?" Loong Yun also became excited as she switched on the live broadcast online. On the other side, Su Cancan and the others who were at S City company were also watching the situation here.

"Yeah, I've waited for so long. It's finally about to start."

Wu Tian gave Baili Zhenlin a call at the scene. With such a big commotion, this important partner should be able to help.

However, Baili Zhenlin seemed to have something on, so it was inconvenient for him to come over.

He could only watch from afar.

"What is your first step? This is the first time I've seen someone start something like this. "

Although the money had already been transferred over, Guan Ruonan still felt curious and stayed behind.

"Just wait and see."

Korea's financial markets were very open, and Korea's currency could also be traded on a few foreign exchange exchanges.

Wu Tian had accounts at all these exchanges, so this 100 billion was just a stepping stone.

After he operated the computer a few times, he listed all of the funds on the board.

On the other side, the computer screen displayed the exchange rates of the Korea and currency of these exchanges falling in a straight line.

In fact, this is a very normal phenomenon, when the supply is larger than the demand, the price will continue to drop.

When supply is smaller than demand, the price naturally rises.

Wu Tian threw out such a large scale Korea country's currency, the market simply did not have time to digest it, and the price directly started to drop.

However, to the huge financial markets of the Korea, this one hundred billion was just a small splashing of water.

"I just threw out 100 billion. Look, the price is already starting to drop." Wu Tian pointed at the screen and smiled.

"But it doesn't matter. This is just the beginning. "The real reason is not because of the money. It's because of other methods. Guild Leader Guan, you need to continue working hard. I need more money."

Guan Ruonan nodded thoughtfully.

"Alright, I'll do it now."

Her identity was actually very representative, and if she made any movements here, it would easily cause China merchants to imitate her on a large scale.

After Guan Ruonan left, Wu Tian quickly connected Wu Zaiyao with the phone.

"How are your preparations going?"

Previously, Wu Tian had already started to let Wu Zaiyao operate in Korea Country, so now was the time to test the results of its operation.

"I'm already fully prepared. I'm just waiting to begin."

Following the order, several large-scale newspapers, magazines, and news websites of Korea received an anonymous letter of complaint at the same time.

What was written in the letter was all about Shuangxing Company Group taking over the national funds of Korea.

This was an explosive piece of news. On the morning of the next day, practically all the headlines in the entire Korea were talking about this matter.

Although there was no clear evidence, there were already people in Korea who had made such guesses. It was just that they did not have any way to criticize Shuangxing Company Corporation.

This anonymous reporting letter was very reasonable, and instantly caused a large scale discussion to take place in the entire nation of Korea.

That was what Wu Tian wanted.

He didn't sell the 100 billion in funds in one go, but rather used it in a few separate trades.

The day before yesterday, he had first sold off ten billion yuan, which did not cause much of a stir.

However, as this news came out, people began to notice the 10 billion.

They didn't know if there was any direct connection between these two matters, so Wu Tian waited for the matter to continue fermenting.

On the other side, Mr Jin looked at the newspaper in his hand. His teeth were about to shatter.

He slammed the table, scaring the others around him.

"What's wrong?"

Director Pu didn't know what was going on. He carefully opened the newspaper and was shocked.

This matter was only known by the upper echelons, and he did not know why it was spread out.

This was indeed done by the refurbishing company, because it was impossible for them to go to so many countries to wage a financial war with their current capital.

Therefore, they could only rely on the national funds of the Korea.

In any case, no one would normally take out this amount of money. Since it was left there, the Korea Empire had the thought of lending it to the Shuangxing Company Group.

"We have to deal with this matter as soon as possible and find out where the news came from!"

Mr Jin said viciously. He couldn't calm down for a long time.

"But, this news came from our country. We are currently in the China, if we want to check, we probably won't be able to find out."

Director Pu felt that this matter had nothing to do with them and should be handled by the people from the headquarters.

"Innocent, do you think there will be anyone willing to go against us within the Korea? Unless it's that Cui Yongji. "

Mr Jin was already very experienced, towards the enemies of Shuangxing Company Group, he clearly knew in his heart.

"That might really be the case. After all, we do not miss out on the hassle of using our Time Company ..."

"No matter what the headquarter does, we're going to do our best to investigate. That way, even if the headquarter sends us a message, it'll be fine."

Mr Jin waved his hand and decided to let the matter go.

He looked out the window and saw that the building opposite him was Wu Group Corporation.

It shouldn't have anything to do with them, Mr Jin guessed, but his heart began to tremble.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 713 - Tang Yan and Tang Jun

C713 Tang Yan and Tang Jun

Shuangxing Company Corporation had used up a lot of energy, so they had come out to clarify things and hold a press conference.

In short, it was with great difficulty that the matter was quietly suppressed.

Wu Tian looked at the people apologizing on the news and found it funny.

It would be too easy if they thought it was done.

Looking at Wu Tian's dark smirk, Loong Yun hurriedly walked in with the documents.

It was hard to tell if she was happy or not with her expression. In short, she seemed to be worried about this matter.

"What's wrong?"

Loong Yun handed over the document. She sat down beside him and gasped.

"Now that exchange prices are starting to pick up, the money we're throwing out has already been bought. "Based on our current situation, it is still quite difficult to achieve our goals."

Wu Tian listened to Loong Yun talking while he opened the document. This was the latest price trend.

"I've already thought of that. This bit of money is just an appetizer."

Wu Tian looked around for a few moments before putting the document aside. Based on the current situation, it still fit one of his expectations.

"Then what should we do next? We don't have that much money either."

Loong Yun was a little worried. There was no way back for them. If there were any problems later on and they needed funding, if they didn't invest in it, all their efforts would be wasted.

"Let's just take things one step at a time. This Shuangxing Company company is not as smart as we thought it was."

Wu Tian waved at Loong Yun, indicating that she should watch the news on TV.

It was just that the news here was all in the language of the Korea, so the two could only see the general picture and guess what it meant.

"They are currently conducting a public relations exercise. Our information will probably be suppressed by them."

Loong Yun felt that their situation would become even more dangerous now.

"This information only makes them more unconvinced. Even if we take out the evidence, the other party would not believe it. The Government of Korea would absolutely not admit it."

Wu Tian said with certainty. He had known about this kind of thing for a long time.

"So we're not going to rely on this as a decisive weapon?" Loong Yun had always thought that this kind of scandal would have a negative impact on the Shuangxing Company Group's reputation within Korea.

For now, though, the effect was real, but it didn't meet their expectations and goals.

"Wrong, this thing is just a tool. You'll know when the time comes. "

Loong Yun was skeptical after hearing what Wu Tian said, but he couldn't tell her how to solve the problem.

"How is Tang Yanrou's brother, Tang Jun?"

A few days ago, he was sent to the hospital. Wu Tian didn't care about this anymore and only knew that Tang Yanrou would accompany him every day.

"It seems that the operation was very successful and the recovery was quite good." Loong Yun was stunned, she did not expect Wu Tian to ask this question.

"Alright, since we have nothing else to do, let's go to the hospital and see him."

Wu Tian stood up, stretched his body and yawned.

The hair on his head was still slightly curled, and his adorable and loose eyes seemed as if they had yet to wake up. It was obviously already noon.

"Young master, you should hurry up and wash up. I'll wait for you outside."

Seeing Wu Tian so disheveled, Loong Yun quickly left the room.

Not long later, Wu Tian walked out and put on a suit.

The two of them rushed to the hospital.

At this moment, Tang Jun had woken up and was sitting on the bed eating something.

Tang Yanrou gently peeled an apple for her. The two of them could be said to have mixed feelings right now.

But it was full of happiness. What could be better than having your family together?

Seeing Wu Tian walk in, Tang Yanrou quickly stood up.

"President Wu ..."

"If there's nothing else, then continue. I just came to take a look at this young man."

Wu Tie waved his hand to let Tang Yanrou continue sitting down. He looked at Tang Jun. Tang Jun seemed to be in high spirits.

"How is it? How are your injuries? "

Seeing that it was Wu Tian, Tang Jun immediately teared up.

"My benefactor, if it weren't for you, I would have already been beaten to death."

Tang Jun cried so much that it sounded like a mess. A few nurses who passed by couldn't help but look inside.

After all, it was very rare to hear a man cry so bitterly.

"Alright, alright, it's fine. I'm just meddling in other people's business. Since you're fine, then I can be at ease and live a good life with your sister in the future." If it isn't possible, let's return to the China. There is no need for you to suffer in such a foreign place. "

Wu Tian lightly patted on his shoulder. This guy didn't feel bad, he wasn't someone who didn't improve at all.

If he was able to work hard, he should be able to gain some results in the future.

"If I could, I would have done so long ago, but I can't. I haven't found the person who killed my father. I can't leave this place."

Tang Jun shook his head. Finding his sister was a good thing, but what happened to his father was a different matter.

"Your father, Tang Liansheng?" Wu Tian frowned. He had heard Tang Yanrou mention it once before, and it was a bit sad.

No matter what, Tang Liansheng was the president of the China Chamber of Commerce, so he was assassinated without anyone knowing.

"It's already been a year, but I still haven't found any useful clues. I know who did it. If I don't pull them down, I won't be able to return for a day."

Tang Jun was very determined when he said this. Although it looked small and skinny, it gave people a feeling of being unusually tall.

"Little Jun, stop speaking nonsense." Tears flowed from the corners of Tang Yanrou's eyes as well, but she still retorted.

"President Wu is doing this out of good intentions. If it's no good, let's go back to China. I really don't want to continue staying in Korea for me."

Every day in the past was like a nightmare for Tang Yanrou. If she didn't stay there for a day, she would feel like that scene was playing out in front of her eyes again.

Not just the threat of life or death, but also the destruction of the mind, as well as the loss of self-esteem.

Honestly speaking, Wu Tian didn't have any better solution to their situation.

He quietly waved at Loong Yun and the two of them walked out of the ward.

"Have you investigated this Tang Liansheng before?"

Loong Yun nodded. Their voices weren't loud, so it was impossible for them to hear each other in the ward.

"Of course we did. It was said that Tang Liansheng had left a batch of goods at that time, which led to his revenge."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 714 - A Fortuitous Encounter on the Road

C714 A Fortuitous Encounter on the Road

Hearing that, Wu Tian's eyes lit up.

As expected, there was something else in there, and it was not simply because he had a bad relationship with the president of the China.

How could someone their age possibly fall out because of such a trivial matter?

"Investigate carefully. I think we can dig deeper into this matter."

Wu Tian instructed Loong Yun carefully, telling her to do this right now.

He then turned around and returned to the sickroom.

"Youngster, you don't need to be too anxious. Since I've already helped you guys, we won't have much time left. You just stay here and rest in peace."

Tang Jun wiped away his tears and was very grateful.

"Thank you. I know you have good intentions, but I'm afraid this matter will bring you some trouble."

Seeing that Wu Tian was so generous and even wanted to meddle in their business, Tang Yanrou couldn't help but feel sorry for him.

After all, they couldn't give anything to Wu Tian, so there was no reason for them to ask others for help for nothing.

"You don't have to worry about that."

Wu Tian smiled, as if everything was in his grasp.

"Oh right, that street in the red light district is mine now. It just so happens that no one will care about it. You've been there for quite a while, so help me keep an eye on it."

Suddenly remembering this, Wu Tian pointed at Tang Yanrou and arranged this for her.

"What?"

Tang Yanrou was dumbfounded. It wasn't easy for her to escape from the red light district ... But she was sent back by Wu Tian?

"What's so strange about that? If I didn't buy that place, I wouldn't have been able to save you. But don't worry, I've already destroyed Shangguan Junyi's store." It's Soong Minji who's in charge there right now. He can't manage it all by himself, so you should go and help him. "

How could Wu Tian not know what Tang Yanrou was worried about? However, escaping was not a good way to face her fear.

"Alright then ..."

Although Tang Yanrou didn't want to, she thought that her benefactor was Wu Tian. If it wasn't for him, she would still be locked in that place.

Therefore, she felt that she had to obey Wu Tian's request unconditionally.

"Don't worry, I let you go for a better purpose. That place is too chaotic, so after you go there, you can take care of it."

Wu Tian had very high expectations for Tang Yanrou. Otherwise, he wouldn't have asked her to manage this street.

After arranging the arrangements for the two siblings, Wu Tian leisurely left the hospital.

Especially when he was alone. He was very free, so he might as well walk around nearby.

Since he had nothing to do, looking at the local customs and customs of Korea was actually quite interesting.

On the way, Wu Tian suddenly wanted to buy something to drink, so he walked into a small supermarket.

Inside the supermarket, there was a TV broadcasting the scene of Korea launching rockets.

The owner was extremely excited, but Wu Tian didn't react at all.

He could understand. After all, this kind of thing was a huge matter, and every citizen should be proud of it.

To be honest, the progress made by the Korea countries were a little lacking. There was simply no way to compare them and the China.

Even when he paid the bill, the owner's eyes were still fixed on the screen. He was afraid that the rocket would fall if he did not pay attention.

The moment he paid the bill, he heard the shop owner's sudden exclamation, which almost scared Wu Tian out of his wits.

"What happened?"

Wu Tian patted his chest to calm himself down. He followed the voice and looked at the owner, who was sitting on his seat with an ashen face.

He turned his head back to the television and saw that the rocket was bursting into brilliant fireworks in the air.

Although it wasn't good to do so, Wu Tian still felt like laughing...

Korea countries were strong in other aspects, why did they have to be so terrible about this sort of things?

The live broadcast of the television soon stopped and changed to another program. It was likely that the television station knew that it could no longer continue broadcasting this kind of thing.

A rocket carrying the hopes of all its citizens failed again after it was launched into the air.

Not only was there no way to boost the mood of the people, it could even deal a certain amount of damage to them.

Wu Tian found it funny when he thought about it.

Just as he reached the street, he saw a streak of fire streak across the distant sky.

The place where the rockets had been fired was not very far from where they were.

He could see, from the center of the city, that the rocket had failed.

This time, they would be even more embarrassed.

If Wu Tian could do this himself, he would really want to help them get this rocket up.

This sort of technical problem wasn't too complicated, so why couldn't these people understand it?

Just as he was thinking, a glasses wearing Korea person nearby Wu Tian coldly snorted, and muttered a few words on Korea in his mouth, as if he was extremely disdainful of this matter.

Wu Tian looked at his clothes. He didn't seem to be an ordinary person.

He was wearing thick glasses and his clothes looked shabby.

He didn't understand the language of Korea well, but that didn't mean he couldn't communicate.

Loong Yun had prepared a headset for him that could be translated at any time, so he quickly put it on his ear.

With this, he would be able to understand what these people were saying.

"They deserved it. The people from the Bureau of Space Affairs only knew how to get paid, such a serious mistake on the part of the supplier, no one cared about them. If they used the parts from the China, how could something like this happen?"

Wu Tian originally didn't really care about it, but when he heard the word China, his ears immediately pricked up and he continued to listen from the back.

"Serves him right, deserves him. This kind of Korea, was it still a Korea? For the sake of a small advantage, he didn't care about the bigger picture. "It also killed the astronaut ..."

This Korea person seemed to be muttering to himself, venting out his dissatisfaction towards the entire society and system.

But about what he said. Wu Tian was interested when he heard that.

He felt that he was an insider. Otherwise, he wouldn't have known about this in such detail.

Furthermore, what this person said afterwards made Wu Tian care a lot.

He had a vague feeling that this matter would be extremely useful to him.

Thinking about this, Wu Tian hurriedly walked forward and stopped this Korea user.

"Please wait a moment. I would like to talk to you, if possible."

The Korea person adjusted his glasses and looked at Wu Tian in surprise.

"You are... Foreigners? "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 715 - A Big Secret

C715 A Big Secret

Under Wu Tian's half-pushing, this person from Korea was somehow brought into a café by Wu Tian.

When he looked at Wu Tian, there was a submissive look in his eyes.

But he didn't say anything, especially after knowing that Wu Tian was from the China, he continued to maintain his silence.

"Do you want to eat something? If you don't want to tell me, then I'll order something for you."

Wu Tian pushed the menu in front of him, but this Korea user quickly shook his head.

Although Wu Tian didn't know what the Koreans were scared of, he didn't care too much about it. Wu Tian ordered the best coffee shop for him.

"Excuse me, is there something you need me for?"

It was completely different from before when he was complaining about the government. The glasses man looked especially scared. He held his clothes with his head down, and even his body was trembling slightly.

"Don't be nervous, I just heard what you said. I was a bit curious and wanted to hear what you had to say."

Wu Tian tried his best to put on a smile to make him look friendlier.

"I'm just spouting nonsense, just pretend you've never heard of it."

The bespectacled man quickly stood up and bowed before leaving.

However, Wu Tian grabbed onto him. His hand was like a pair of pincers, firmly clamping onto the bespectacled man. He was unable to move at all.

"Don't be like that, I came with a lot of sincerity. If you have anything you want to say to me, perhaps we can cooperate."

Wu Tian took out his wallet with his other hand as he spoke.

Then he pulled out a bank card and gently pushed it across the table.

The glasses man looked at Wu Tian's actions, his gaze constantly fluctuating between Wu Tian's face and the bank card.

He slowly turned around and sat back down, silently staring at the bank card.

"Although I don't know what's going on with you, but I'm very interested in what you've just said. But don't worry, I won't do anything that would harm you. I'll forget what we've said today after we leave this room."

Wu Tian quickly reiterated his position and pointed at the bank card.

As the proverb goes, people die for money while birds die for food. Money can make ghosts work for money, this phrase was extremely useful in Korea.

"As the reward for your storytelling, this card has 300 thousand. If you are willing to say it, then this card of mine is yours."

Wu Tian looked at the glasses man with a smile. He seemed very relaxed and at ease.

In order to prevent him from getting nervous, Wu Tian intentionally looked away and called for the waiter to help him get some stuff.

The bespectacled man was at a loss. He clenched his fists tightly. He wanted to retrieve the bank card, but something else stopped him.

"Can you really guarantee that you won't say anything about what I just said?"

The bespectacled man had no other choice in the end. He threw caution to the wind and asked Wu Tian.

"Of course I'll do what I said. If your story is good enough, I might as well double the price."

Money was like a rain of Maomao to Wu Tian. In order to make it easier for this guy to speak, he directly took out a bank card and placed it on the table.

Wu Tian lightly tapped his bank card. Every time he made a sound, it would be a heavy tap on the heart of the bespectacled man.

"I understand. I hope the story I told will satisfy you."

The bespectacled man finally closed his eyes and said with a regretful expression. It seemed that he had already convinced him.

"It's like this. My name is Hong Xiangtai, I'm the main development director of the Space Bureau."

The bespectacled man revealed his identity, causing Wu Tian to be shocked.

He thought that Hong Xiangtai should be someone who knew the inside story, but he didn't expect him to be one of the main figures in the Bureau of Space...

Normally, such people would come in contact with national secrets ...

He only spent so much money to get him to open his mouth ... This was a huge profit.

"My apologies, I really didn't expect that I would be able to talk to you."

Wu Tian said as he quietly handed the other bank card over to him.

Then he took out a new one from his bag.

Hong Xiangtai couldn't help but swallow his saliva as he looked at these bank cards.

"Well, it's like this. I'm no longer the director. I've been fired because of some matters. The Office of Space Affairs was very bureaucratic, but it was not as impressive as it looked on the surface. Look at them this time, isn't launching a rocket a failure? "

Thinking of this, Hong Xiangtai couldn't help but sneer.

It might not have happened if he had been there, but if the Bureau didn't want him, then what was he supposed to say?

"You just said, what part of the China is this, and what is this thing about?"

That was what Wu Tian was more concerned about. As for anything else, he didn't care at all.

"You're talking about this. Previously, the Bureau of Space Administration contacted a company with China and said that they wanted to import a batch of spare parts. In the end, he didn't expect that another China company would come and capture that shipment, which was why he didn't deliver the parts. The other company's product was used in this rocket launch. And you should have seen it too. "

I didn't expect there to be such a thing ... Wu Tian was speechless. We're all from the same country, why compete like this with each other...

Furthermore, using such a despicable method ...

"Could there be a murder in this?"

Hong Xiangtai nodded. He looked around cautiously and covered his mouth with his hand. Carefully, he told Wu Tian what he knew.

"That's right, they seemed to have used some sort of method. Anyway, I heard later on that the boss of the company was killed. That's why there was no way to deliver the goods. The space bureau used the products provided by the company behind it. I remember that the owner seemed to... "It seems like his surname is Tang ..."

Speaking to this, Wu Tian slammed the table, scaring Hong Xiangtai.

"Surnamed Tang?"

With that, everyone in the café looked over. Only then did Wu Tian notice that he had lost his composure.

He quickly lowered his voice again, afraid to speak so loudly.

"The person you're talking about, is his name Tang Liansheng?"

Wu Tian had a bad premonition. Why did he feel that he was getting closer to the truth?

"Yes, yes, you're right, this is the man. "I saw the list when I was at the NASA office. The name of the company's head is indeed that name."

With Hong Xiangtai's affirmation, Wu Tian finally understood what was going on.

Tang Liansheng's death was indeed not that simple. Who would have thought that a dispute would arise here.
