

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 745 - On the Eve of the Storm

C745 On the Eve of the Storm

After she had settled the matter, Yan'er, on the other hand, started to feel slightly disappointed.

To be honest, it was impossible for her to not have the slightest bit of psychological pressure when doing such a thing.

"What's wrong? Looking at how unhappy you are, do you feel like you've done something bad?" Wu Tian saw the disappointment on Yan'er's face and immediately tried to persuade her.

Yan'er nodded without a word.

But soon, she smiled and raised her head again.

"It's alright, you don't have to worry about me anymore. Since I've decided to do this, then I will go all the way. Don't your China have an idiom? This is called destroying one's family for the sake of justice. By doing so, I can be considered to have become the hero of Korea. "

Wu Tian was impressed by Yan'er's self-mockery.

To be honest, not everyone could be like Yan'er.

At least Wu Tian didn't think he could do it.

"You have to take care of yourself. If anything happens, contact me at the company. Don't go out these days, it will change very soon."

Wu Tian also knew that he couldn't persuade her otherwise, so he didn't say anything and just reminded her.

The outside world was still very beautiful, but there was going to be a huge change soon.

This change was something that no one had expected.

By the time Wu Tian returned with the evidence, Wu Zaibin and the others had not realized what Wu Tian had done.

They didn't even know that Yan'er had appeared.

"President Wu, where did you go?" Wu Zaibin was curious and gossiping. He didn't have any bad intentions in asking this question, but it was purely out of curiosity.

Wu Tian put down his stuff and looked around the office. He didn't see Loong Yun at this place.

"Are you looking for Secretary Loong? She seems to have gone to see Guan Ruonan. There are a lot of people looking for trouble with Guan Ruonan right now, and they seem to be trying to get her to return the money."

Wu Zaibin said while chewing an apple.

"Return the money?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. Why were these creditors looking for Guan Ruonan?

Could it be that when they saw her injured and hospitalized, they felt that they wouldn't be able to get their money back, so they decided to force the debt?

They were really too shameless. At this time, when there was no agreed time to return the money, they actually went this far.

"I'll go take a look." Wu Tian rushed out without saying a word.

He got into a car and went straight to the hospital.

There were already many people standing in the corridor, and the ward was even more crowded.

"Give way, give way." Wu Tian shouted as he used his own strength to break into Guan Ruonan's sickroom.

Beside her bed, several people were asking questions.

Loong Yun was standing by the side and speaking up for Guan Ruonan. The scene looked very tense.

"President Wu?" Loong Yun looked at the man who had suddenly appeared in front of her with a face full of shock. She didn't expect him to come over.

Guan Ruonan was even more surprised. Wu Tian's appearance at this time was obviously unnecessary. Normally, a boss would avoid such a debt.

"It's fine. Don't worry, I'll take care of this matter."

Wu Tian grinned at the two of them, then turned around and looked at the debt collectors.

"You guys should be the people who helped to raise money for Guan Ruonan."

Wu Tian could roughly guess that almost everyone was wearing suits and leather shoes. There were even some who had their own work tags.

"Who are you?"

Wu Tian smiled in the face of these people's questions.

"My name is Wu Tian, and I am the chairman of China company, the patriarch of Wu Family. I've entrusted the debt to Miss Guan Ruonan to finance me, so if you guys want money, you can just look for me. "

When Wu Tian said this, everyone's attention immediately focused on him.

As the room in the ward was too small, Wu Tian specifically borrowed the conference room in the hospital to bring these people there.

"Now that Guan Ruonan is injured, everyone should be clear about it. Therefore, in order to dispel your worries, I'm willing to renew the loan agreement with you.

The managers of these banks were originally very worried, but at this time, they felt a lot more at ease.

"That would be for the best. We were actually worried that no one would come to return the money ..."

Many people let out a sigh of relief. Since they were the borrowers, they obviously didn't want to take the money back so early. If that was the case, they wouldn't be able to get any interest.

"Hmm, this time, if possible, I am willing to lend you guys another sum of money. The interest is absolutely reassuring." Seeing this, Wu Tian decided to strike the iron while it was still hot. While signing the contract with them, he borrowed more money.

As long as they had more money on their hands, the market would have less money and more people would be willing to withdraw the money from the National Fund.

The outcome of this meeting made Wu Tian very satisfied. Thanks to his honesty and generosity, as well as the guarantee from Guan Ruonan and the rest, Wu Tian borrowed another 50 billion yuan from these people.

After sending off these people, Wu Tian looked coldly at their backs and smiled.

"Is it going to change?" Cui Yongji had appeared beside Wu Tian at some point in time, so he couldn't help but sigh with emotion.

Wu Tian looked at him curiously. He didn't say anything, so Cui Yongji probably didn't know that he had evidence.

"Why do you say that?"

Cui Yongji smiled, "Isn't that simple? If you are not sure, will you continue increasing your debt?"

Wu Tian really didn't expect that he could think like this.

But it was true. He was confident now.

"Looks like I can't hide anything from your eyes." This way, Wu Tian admitted it in a disguised manner.

"Let's not talk anymore. I'm going to soak in a hot spring abroad. I'm just waiting for you to have a good show." Cui Yongji was a smart person and he knew that something bad was about to happen, so he decided to leave the Korea early.

After sending Cui Yongji off, Wu Tian quickly returned to the ward.

Loong Yun was comforting Guan Ruonan to rest. Her injuries were much better now, but she still needed some time to rest.

"Loong Yun, I have a very important mission for you." Wu Tian handed over the folder in his hand mysteriously.

The next storm would start from here.
