

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 748 - Self-detonation

C748 Self-detonation

Superintendent Liu didn't know what was going on with her, but she felt that what Wu Zaibin said made a lot of sense.

But her job was to not indulge them.

"As long as you are honest, we won't do anything to you." Superintendent Liu felt embarrassed after all. Her tone became very gentle when she spoke.

Compared to before, the way she held Wu Tian captive was completely 180 degrees.

Wu Zaibin also knew that it wasn't good to say all this in front of Superintendent Liu, so he went straight to his office.

Although Superintendent Liu moved freely throughout the company, she could not go to some private places.

In order to have a good meal, Superintendent Liu intentionally found a place near the window. The scenery here was pretty good.

The smell of fried chicken quickly spread inside the company. A person wearing cleaning staff uniform was pushing the car along the floor as he slowly approached.

"Lift your foot. Lift your foot."

When the mop reached Superintendent Liu's side, she immediately stopped eating and stood up in a flurry.

However, what she didn't expect was that when she stood up, she accidentally bumped into a cup of cola.

This time, Cola directly spilled all over the floor. Superintendent Liu and Jie Jie were both shocked as they watched Cola quickly pollute the floor.

This was something that had just been wiped off.

"Sorry, sorry, I didn't do it on purpose. Let me help you clean up."

Superintendent Liu explained in a flustered manner before she took a cloth and wiped it off.

The cleaner didn't say anything and just wiped them together.

"I'm really sorry. I'm really sorry."

"You don't have to keep apologizing. I'll clean up."

The cleaning staff did not take this matter seriously. He did not care whether Superintendent Liu apologized or not.

"Oh right, I wanted to ask you earlier. When you came in, you were frowning. Is there something troubling you?"

Superintendent Liu was stunned for a moment, but she immediately broke out in laughter.

"It's nothing, it's just a matter of work. "The people up there also don't care about what we people who do things think. They just want us to find out something."

Superintendent Liu went along with what she said and did not notice that she had accidentally said it in a vulgar manner.

"A clue? Are you saying that your leaders want to capture Wu Tian and me?"

The cleaner said with a sudden realization before raising his head with a smile.

Superintendent Liu was dumbfounded when she saw this. This person was not a cleaner, he was obviously Wu Tian.

"Wu Tian, why ..."

At this moment, Superintendent Liu's mind was full of one thing. It was over.

She had revealed the important mission of Police Station herself, and had even been heard by the person involved.

Looking at Superintendent Liu's expression, Wu Tian couldn't help but laugh.

"Don't worry, I can understand."

Wu Tian paused for a moment, then held his head and thought for a while. Then, he suddenly slapped his thigh.

"There really is something behind this. Go down to the basement and take a look. How should I say it? Arrest a girl and lock her up there, force her to confess, and listen to my arrangements ..."

Superintendent Liu could not believe her ears. Wu Tian dared to say that in front of her. The most important thing was that she seemed to be in the company's garrison when this happened.

She did not know!

Thinking of this, Superintendent Liufei also ran out towards the basement.

Wu Tian couldn't help but laugh as he looked at her figure. This Superintendent Liu was really innocent, but she was still quite interesting.

He hummed a small tune and continued his job of cleaning up. Although he was the chairman, once he got bored, Wu Tian could really do anything.

Superintendent Liu looked at the mess in the basement and was instantly dumbfounded. This place was indeed as Wu Tian said; it seemed like someone had been locked up here.

This was not the main point. There were water stains on the ground and everything was in a mess.

Without another word, Superintendent Liu went to mobilize the surveillance cameras. Superintendent Liu was immediately angered when she saw it.

Because it clearly recorded how Wu Tian carried Yan'er from the outside to the basement and then brought her to the guest room.

One could even hear the miserable shrieks of Yan'er in the video.

"This deranged fellow!" Wu Tian clearly looked kind and amiable just now, but who would have thought that this guy had such a background?

Superintendent Liu suddenly felt a wave of disgust. It was really too hard for her to accept. Furthermore, it was Wu Tian who took the initiative to tell her this information and she didn't manage to get it from her own investigation.

This made Superintendent Liu feel no pride at all.

However, she still reported this matter to the police station. Soon, Scarface rushed in with a group of policemen.

She first controlled Wu Tian, then transferred all the surveillance videos away.

"You even said that you can't do it yourself. You got there in the morning, but you didn't even find any evidence for an hour."

The scar-faced man couldn't help but feel happy for Superintendent Liu. This was no small matter. If he could really be convicted, Superintendent Liu's promotion would definitely be in the upper echelons no matter how meritorious they were.

She had already been working for this Superintendent for many years. According to the unspoken rules of their Korea, the highest position that female officers have is also here.

Of course, this didn't make sense, but with Superintendent Liu's help now, she would definitely be able to break this limit.

Very quickly, Wu Tian was finally taken away under the sunflower. Once again, he was taken away.

This time, Wu Zaibin wasn't nervous at all as he ate and watched the police move out.

Last time, his influence was also huge, but in the end, Wu Tian was still unharmed and came back in one piece.

Furthermore, on the legal level, Wu Zaibin was too clear on whether there was a problem with their actions.

Even if he came with a magnifying glass, his company would definitely not be able to find any problems.

"Little Liu, you did well this time. If you can get a conviction, it will definitely be your first merit." The bureau chief looked at Superintendent Liu in the police car with satisfaction. As expected, he didn't let him down this time.

Superintendent Liu's expression was serious. She was a bit worried, but she didn't know if she should say it out loud.
