

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 776 - Front Back Attack Together

C776 Front Back Attack Together

This passageway was at least a few hundred meters long, and the further back it went, the darker the light became.

It took a lot of courage to move forward in the dark.

However, at this critical moment, how could Wu Tian care so much? The few of them hurriedly ran towards another direction.

Loong Yun took out her cell phone and typed in a password. She opened it slightly.

Wu Tian stuck his head out towards this place. They were in another farmhouse's room.

It didn't seem to be anything out of the ordinary and it was very quiet outside, so Wu Tian didn't feel that murderous intent.

"It should be safe outside. Let's hurry up and go up." Wu Tian quickly brought Wu Zhi out.

However, just as Loong Yun walked out, she heard the sound of an iron door collapsing from inside the tunnel.

This is bad, the enemy has already broken through the door on the other side.

"Close the door!" Wu Tian shouted nervously. Loong Yun also knew that and had already started to do so.

However, the metal door seemed to be in a state of disrepair. After opening, she found that she could not push it open, and had no way to close it.

Some of the key parts of it were already rusted to death.

"It can't be locked!" The sound of hurried footsteps came from inside the tunnel as the enemy chased after them.

Seeing the situation, Wu Tian did not care too much and handed Old Master to Loong Yun. He waved her away.

He backed up a few steps, then with a run, he kicked the metal door.

The strength he used was too great. The metal gate and the door frame produced a series of loud bangs.

At the same time, Wu Tian also couldn't help but twist his mouth. He was also heavily injured by this kick. Wu Tian was already injured before this, and now, due to the rebound force, a lot of his wounds were split open.

Loong Yun locked the iron door. Seeing Wu Tian in pain, she quickly went over to take care of him.

"President Wu, are you alright?" With this situation, how could he be fine?

"It's nothing, it's nothing. Let's hurry up and go!" Wu Tian knew that this metal door might not be able to trap the pursuer, so it was the right decision for him to escape.

Seeing his grandson's pained look, Wu Zhi quickly said, "You guys hurry up and leave. Don't worry about me. I'll buy you guys some time." After saying that, Old Master Wu Zhi stood at the door of the metal door. He firmly grabbed onto the handle and said nothing, not leaving at all.

"Grandfather, what are you doing? Quick, we're almost out of time."

The sound from the tunnel was very close. This might be their last chance.

"Wu Tian, I, your grandpa, have nothing that I can help you with. In other words, I can help you with something right now." I've lived so long, and only now do I know that life is more important than anything else, so I hope you can live on. "

Wu Zhi was in tears. If it wasn't for Wu Yingqiu, he wouldn't have been so emotional.

This matter was too much of a shock to him.

"Grandfather, what are you talking about? I don't plan on leaving any of us alive, we won't die." Wu Tian spat out blood in his heart. What's going on with this kind of atmosphere that felt like he was on the battlefield?

They didn't seem to be forced into such a serious situation. It was unclear who the enemies were. They couldn't just give up like this. They felt that they were definitely unable to defeat the enemies.

Saying that, Wu Tian didn't care too much about it. He carried Wu Zhi on his back and ran off without saying anything.

Loong Yun's speed was slightly slower, but she could still keep up.

With Loong Yun leading the way, they quickly followed a small path in the other direction of the village. The Long family had arranged for several cars to be parked near the village's exit. The car was usually idle, just in case.

The car was parked in a small square, covered with canvas.

Loong Yun rushed up and lifted the canvas to open the car inside.

"Those with keys inside, hurry and enter."

Loong Yun started the car as fast as she could and drove out with Wu Tian and Wu Zhi.

There was basically only one road leading out of the village. They needed to drive a kilometer or two before they could see the road outside.

Thus, the most urgent matter for them right now was how to survive for such a long period of time.

Everyone in the car was scared out of their wits, but luckily, it was very quiet at the back and no one chased after them.

"Who is the person who is trying to attack us? Is it Wu Yingqiu? "

Wu Tian mumbled. He wanted to recall it carefully, but he couldn't see it clearly.

While he was deep in thought, the car suddenly came to a screeching halt, causing the tires and the ground to groan.

Wu Tian looked up and saw a car parked horizontally on the road in front. There was a person sitting on the roof of the car smoking a cigarette.

It was a man with a tall and sturdy body. Wu Tian looked at his back under the moonlight and suddenly felt that he must have seen this person before.

"Damn it, our path is blocked."

Loong Yun slammed the steering wheel angrily. She had never thought that the enemy would have a backup plan.

At this moment, a figure slowly walked over from the village entrance.

This time, Wu Tian and Loong Yun were surrounded from both sides.

Wu Tian saw the figure behind him very clearly.

"It's Wu Yingqiu!" Wu Tian suddenly became nervous. Previously, he almost died under Wu Yingqiu's hands. Now that he met her again, it wouldn't be that easy for him to escape now.

Wu Zhi's face had always been sad, as if he was still immersed in the sadness from before.

"Aiya, you won't be able to escape this time." The man on the roof who was smoking slowly stood up, threw away the cigarette in his hand and jumped down.

He approached Wu Tian and the others step by step.

Loong Yun was trying her best to start the car. However, the more she panicked, the harder it was to start the car.

"It's Zheng Taiwen!"

Wu Tian's expression became even uglier. The two protectors of Tianying Sect were both here, could it be that the heavens were going to kill him?

"The last time I let you run away was because of my dereliction of duty. Don't worry, I definitely won't let something like this happen again."

Zheng Taiwen looked at Wu Tian in the car with a smile, then waved at Wu Yingqiu in the distance.

"If you don't hurry up, I'll do it for you."

Before he finished, Wu Tian suddenly scattered a handful of white powder from the car, covering Zheng Taiwen's line of sight.

At almost the same time, Loong Yun finally started the car. They were like arrows that left their bowstrings as they charged towards the car, forcefully opening a gap and escaping out of there.
