

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 786 - Arrogant Editor

C786 Arrogant Editor

Since the other reporters didn't know much about this matter, they were all listening to the conversation between Cheng Gui and Wu Tian.

Some things, even if Wu Tian didn't say it, a lot of people already understood.

Why not develop it yourself? The first point was that Wu Group needed to be open and transparent.

If I were to develop it myself, the third party's company would probably think there might be some sort of backdoor or loophole.

But if this was originally something that had been developed by someone who was neutral, then this doubt could be dispelled.

"President Wu, I have a question ..."

"President Wu, our television station also has something to interview first ..."

This opened up a topic of conversation. A lot of reporters and media started to ask Wu Tian questions.

However, he could not handle this alone. Wu Tian just ran away and threw all these reporters and media to Yu Naixin and the others.

In any case, these people were more professional, so the answers to these questions were much more accurate.

When Wu Tian left the stage, his gaze was basically on Cheng Gui.

After he came down from above, he also quietly followed Cheng Gui out.

Su Cancan and the other two quickly leaned over. Seeing Wu Tian's sneaky look, they suddenly patted his shoulder.

"What are you doing?"

Wu Tian turned around and saw Su Cancan and the others. Then, he touched his chest.

"You guys almost scared me to death. Stop talking, I'm not busy right now."

"I've seen you look at other people's girls before, but this is the first time I've seen you stare at a man. Could it be that you already have other hobbies?"

Su Cancan's mouth was very venomous. Normally, she would either not speak or say something that could make a person choke to death.

"What nonsense are you talking about? I suspect the identity of this person."

Su Cancan became nervous when she heard Wu Tian. The attack just now had just passed.

"Enemy?"

Wu Tian shook his head. Cheng Gui couldn't possibly be a fighter, as he was just an ordinary person. What Wu Tian suspected was from another direction.

"I'm saying that he is willing to do anything to this FTC." Wu Tian followed behind Cheng Gui with small steps and even walked out of the company.

"Is it related to FTC? Did he buy it too? "

As for this, it was what Wu Tian wanted to know. However, when Cheng Gui came to the parking lot and got on the car, Wu Tian had no choice but to follow him in the car.

He had followed them all the way to his office, which was the metropolis newspaper. This newspaper was actually not very big, and it could be said that its sales weren't very good.

There was no way to compare it to the bigger newspapers. There were a lot of people in the industry who felt that if they worked here, there would be no way out.

A perfect proof that Cheng Gui was an ordinary person was that this guy still hadn't found out that he was being followed.

It was undeniable that he was truly a little slow.

"We've all followed him to this place. What are we going to do here?" It was the first time that Guan Ruonan and Tang Yanrou had ever done such a thing, and they were filled with a sense of novelty and excitement.

"You'll know soon enough. I, Wu Tian, will not let such a talent go."

Wu Tian did not show it at all. From the moment this guy posed the first question, he had already decided that he would get the man for himself.

Cheng Gui returned to the newspaper. Seeing him come back, the editor walked over with an unhappy expression.

"Can you write an article that can be sold at a high price this time?"

This question was very direct and was also a bit too realistic.

"How could I say that correctly? Wu Group's press conference today is indeed very interesting, but I don't know if there's anyone willing to buy it." Cheng Gui was just a reporter. Writing a press release was obviously his job, but he couldn't decide on the sales volume.

"Do you know that your performance is already very poor? If tomorrow's newspaper sales are still not high enough, I can only make you resign." The editor said unhappily. Although newspapers usually had a fixed salary, this matter wasn't absolute.

If the results weren't good, of course they would also cut their jobs.

Cheng Gui was scolded by the editor, but he still had to do his job well.

At this moment, Wu Tian and co. looked over through the transparent glass door. However, they didn't expect to attract the attention of the editor just now.

"What are you guys doing? This is a secret location, observation is not allowed. "

Although he said that, he guessed that in the entire S City, no one would care about their city's commercial newspaper's so-called secret, as there was nothing to listen to.

Seeing that he was found out, the girls quickly went behind Wu Tian and pushed him up.

"That... We're looking for... Find a reporter. "

Wu Tian could only come up with an excuse, but the other side still looked confused.

"Find a reporter? We don't have any reporters with the surname Cheng. I think you guys are here to peep at our draft. " The editor looked at Wu Tian like there were a lot of thieves in the world, so he was very alert.

"No, no, no, you misunderstood, we are really here to find a reporter, that Cheng Gui."

The editor obviously knew about Cheng Gui. He just felt that he couldn't find any good informants to provide information, so he wanted to kick Wu Tian and the others out.

"Who the hell are you? If there's nothing else to do, you'd better hurry up and leave. Otherwise, I'll have to call the police here."

The editor continued to be aggressive. The more he looked at Wu Tian, the more he felt that Wu Tian didn't seem like a good person. He even took out his phone to call the police.

"I am Wu Tian, chairman of Pragmatic Group." Wu Tian proudly revealed his name. He thought that the other party would immediately admit defeat the moment he said it.

However, he didn't expect that the editor would look at Wu Tian with a mocking expression.

"Are you the chairman? "Then I'm the chairman's dad, and I'm still Wu Zhi. Let me tell you, I can kick out dozens of people like you every day, so stop putting on a show here!"

"You!" Even Su Cancan, who was standing at the side, could not stand to watch any longer. She had seen people act so arrogantly before, but she had never seen anyone act so arrogantly before.

He was only an editor, and was also a poor newspaper editor. Yet, he actually looked down on Wu Tian.

If Wu Tian was willing to be interviewed by the media, then they would have to line up for an interview.
