

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 798 - Secret Passage

C798 Secret Passage

Wu Tian didn't always reject bamboo pole.

He admired such a person from the bottom of his heart. Such a person had such a desire to improve.

However, if this thought could be used for the right purpose, then he would definitely be able to achieve a much greater achievement.

Hearing Wu Tian's request, bamboo pole rolled his eyes and immediately had an idea.

"You two, although I don't know what you two want, but didn't I just say that I am very familiar with this place and can be your guide?"

bamboo pole said in a flattering manner. However, he didn't feel that there was anything bad about this. As long as he didn't cause them any trouble, perhaps he was someone they could use.

"Fine, we want to go to this place. Find us a clean path." Wu Tian pointed at the Red Power's large ballroom and stared at bamboo pole with shining eyes.

bamboo pole looked at the place beside him and immediately understood what was going on.

"If you find someone else, that person might really be unable to help you. However, since the two of you found me, it's different."

bamboo pole waved at the two of them as he spoke, then led them in another direction.

Azure Dragon looked at this guy and muttered in his heart. He went close to Wu Tian's ear and looked at bamboo pole, who was walking in the front, very vigilantly.

"President Wu, we have to be careful. This guy might have come to trick us."

Wu Tian smiled faintly, "Don't worry. If he wanted to do us harm, he would have had the chance just now."

Even though he said that, Azure Dragon didn't let down his guard and kept a distance from bamboo pole. The dagger remained in his hand to prevent this guy from suddenly harming the two of them.

Not long after they walked, they crossed a road. bamboo pole brought the two of them to an abandoned factory. The place was littered with trash, as well as ruins. The things here were shocking to look at.

This area was unexpectedly so desolate, and it simply didn't match with the buildings in the S City.

"What is this place? What did you bring us here for?" Azure Dragon felt very uneasy in this kind of place. He waved his dagger and said to bamboo pole in front of him.

Although this bamboo pole looked very thin, but in this kind of place, he walked as if he was flying. He was much faster than Wu Tian and Azure Dragon.

"Don't worry, the path that I'm going to take you guys on is definitely the most concealed and the cleanest path."

bamboo pole turned around with a mysterious smile. He didn't have much of a reaction to Azure Dragon's threat.

Azure Dragon was a bit angry. He wanted to rush up to catch this guy to see what he was doing, but he was caught by Wu Tian in the end.

"Don't worry, he probably has other ideas."

Wu Tian was guessing, but this guess wasn't without reason.

Very quickly, bamboo pole stopped in a very remote room and opened up a broken mat from under the dust on the ground.

Wu Tian and Azure Dragon looked at bamboo pole with interest. They didn't know what bamboo pole was planning.

They saw that bamboo pole had pulled open the mat, and there was another layer of wood beneath it. Just this small amount of work was enough to tire bamboo pole to death.

Fortunately, he managed to complete his own thoughts and tasks.

Under the cover was a dark hole, which looked like an abandoned sewer.

"This is the place." bamboo pole waved excitedly at Wu Tian and the other two, gesturing for them to go over.

Just as Wu Tian was about to move, Azure Dragon stopped him.

"President Wu, let me go first. If there really is something wrong, then I can be the first to touch on this bad luck."

Azure Dragon had always been wary of bamboo pole, so it was impossible for him to let Wu Tian take the risk.

He took out a dagger from his waist and handed it to Wu Tian, asking him to protect himself. Then, he decisively ran to bamboo pole's side.

"Big Bro, this is the place. This is a sewer that has been abandoned for a long time, and it leads directly to the ballroom's kitchen. I have walked past this place many times before to steal food from there. There's absolutely no problem. " bamboo pole's words were full of joy, as if he was eager to prove his worth.

"Cut the crap, you go ahead!" Azure Dragon couldn't care so much. He pointed his dagger at bamboo pole.

bamboo pole just smiled. He was rather open-minded about this.

"It doesn't matter if I walk in front. Don't be nervous, Big Brother." Then, bamboo pole dived in. Although this place had been abandoned for a long time, it still gave off an unbearable smell.

Azure Dragon was a tough guy. However, even he couldn't help but frown and cover his mouth and nose with his clothes.

bamboo pole looked back at Azure Dragon and chuckled, showing his two rows of white teeth in the darkness.

"It's good that you're used to this smell. I'm used to all kinds of smells in the laboratory, so I don't care about it." bamboo pole was rather open-minded about it.

He walked in front and Azure Dragon followed closely behind. The distance from the sewer to him was not short, about a hundred meters.

The ground was completely dark, devoid of any light. Just this point was enough to make them feel like they were about to collapse.

What's more, there was such a pungent smell. If Azure Dragon didn't rely on his strong willpower to persevere, he probably would have given up by now.

After walking for about 10 minutes, Azure Dragon noticed that bamboo pole finally stopped. He approached him vigilantly and poked bamboo pole with a dagger.

"What's wrong?"

bamboo pole turned around and shushed Azure Dragon, then pointed to the top.

Azure Dragon looked in the direction where his finger was pointing and saw that there was a well cover on top of their heads. Above the manhole was what seemed to be the interior of the ballroom. He could already hear some voices.

"This is the place. Above the well is their kitchen. That place is almost empty. Last time I stayed there, no one noticed me."

bamboo pole's words finally made Azure Dragon feel a little more relieved. He wanted to go up, but was afraid that this guy had evil intentions. In the end, he took bamboo pole and went back.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 799 - Sneaking in

C799 Sneaking in

Wu Tian had been waiting impatiently on the other side. When he saw them come out, he immediately rushed over to ask about the situation.

"No problem. It was basically as he said." Azure Dragon nodded. This also confirmed that bamboo pole's information was indeed true.

"Alright, let's move." Wu Tian was very excited, it was the first time he did this. He looked just like 007 in a movie, very cool.

bamboo pole looked at the bag on their back. Looking at the shape of the bag, he was very curious, so he reached out his hand to touch it.

Unexpectedly, his actions were discovered by Azure Dragon. Azure Dragon went up and pressed him onto the ground, causing him to be unable to move.

Wu Tian didn't even have time to react, as he saw the two of them instantly clash.

"Azure Dragon!" Wu Tian quickly stopped Azure Dragon.

"President Wu, I think he has a bad idea, he actually touched our backpack."

Azure Dragon held bamboo pole back fiercely. To be honest, he basically didn't need to use any strength. As long as he pressed down on bamboo pole — naturally, bamboo pole wouldn't be able to break free.

He was so thin that a gust of wind could blow him away.

"What's going on?" When Wu Tian heard Azure Dragon's words, he also became alert. Looking at bamboo pole, he also started to feel displeased.

"Brothers, don't be so excited, I'm just curious." "I was a researcher before, so I'm curious about everything. Besides, I don't think the guns you're carrying are real."

bamboo pole quickly explained. If what he said was wrong, he might be killed by these two strong people.

"Fake?" Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. These things shouldn't have happened. Didn't Azure Dragon spend a lot of energy to buy them?

With a backhand slap from Azure Dragon, bamboo pole almost spun in the air.

He said in a bad mood, "Don't joke with me. The things I have here aren't fake. You don't know how to use a gun, so don't spout nonsense!"

He didn't pay attention to the main point. They had more than ten guns in their bag, how could this guy find out about this?

"How do you know?" Wu Tian squinted his eyes. This time, he really didn't dare to underestimate this man. It seemed that he was indeed much stronger than he imagined.

bamboo pole came back to his senses. He was really scared by Azure Dragon. Just now, Azure Dragon had slapped him so hard that his teeth almost fell out of his mouth.

"It's nothing. Previously, I was also a military fan and was quite interested in these things. Your barrels have already revealed traces in the bag. I can tell with a glance."

"Why did you say they were fake?" Wu Tian was in disbelief. Could this guy be speaking nonsense?

"This is much simpler. A single gun weighs at least a few kilograms. If each of you were to carry so much, you would weigh at least a few dozen kilograms. Even if the two of you have a lot of strength and you don't think that the stuff is too heavy, the inertia of your backpacks won't change. "

When he spoke of these things, bamboo pole suddenly had a different feeling. His every move seemed to be like that of a real professor, as his thoughts were very clear.

"When you guys moved just now, I could feel that your backpacks weren't that heavy, which means that there's something wrong with the weight of your guns. So I guess it's a simulation gun. " bamboo pole said, and started coughing, and then continued: "Also, do you know where the largest armory in S City is? If you want to buy a gun, that's almost impossible, because before this, I had already discovered the armory for the Red Power! In this ballroom. "

Wu Tian immediately widened his eyes. He didn't expect there to be a surprise here. He quickly got Azure Dragon to stand up, helped bamboo pole up, and treated him politely.

"Are you speaking the truth?" Wu Tian confirmed nervously. If it's really like this, then it looks like they have to move faster. And they have to figure out a way to get more police officers.

"Absolutely, I wouldn't lie."

bamboo pole promised solemnly. On the other side, Wu Tian and Azure Dragon glanced at each other and decided to follow their previous thoughts.

"What you had better say is all true, or else I will kill you." Azure Dragon then grabbed bamboo pole to let him lead the way in this sewer. The three of them quietly went in.

Soon, they touched the cover of the well again. Azure Dragon heard nothing from the outside and pushed open the cover — — He climbed up.

Wu Tian followed closely behind him. bamboo pole also carefully climbed up and followed the two of them.

"You can stay here. You don't have to follow us. If something happens, we won't be able to take care of you. " Wu Tian reminded him with good intentions. The danger factor here was obvious. If they were found out — If they couldn't escape, then they would basically die in this place.

"It's fine, I can take you to that armory." bamboo pole squinted his eyes and revealed a dazzling smile.

"After all, I only have a rotten life. It doesn't matter if I die. However, if I can help you succeed this time around, you must give me some benefits."

This guy, he was still thinking about this even at this time. Wu Tian was almost amused by him.

"Alright, alright, alright. I'll listen to you." Since he was willing to follow them, they would just let him follow them.

The kitchen was a mess. It was unknown how long it had been since someone had cleaned it.

This place was almost impossible to walk in.

Wu Tian and Azure Dragon put two guns here and then started to sneak out.

It seemed that at this time — the people of this place were all gathered on the dance floor in front of them. The corridor outside was also empty.

Azure Dragon bolstered his courage and was the first to walk out.

Just like that, the three of them fearfully moved their guns to different positions and then used their phones to take some pictures.

If a police officer wanted to arrest them, he had to have a relevant reason, so they had to create evidence.

After doing all this, bamboo pole brought the two of them to a more secluded place in the dance hall.

This was a corner of the building. Although it looked very unremarkable, there were actually quite a few guards here.

If it wasn't for bamboo pole, the three of them probably would have already been discovered before they got close.

The enemy had set up several secret sentries in this direction, but fortunately, bamboo pole knew where they were. Wu Tian and Azure Dragon knocked down all the sentries one by one, and only then did they get close to the warehouse in the corner.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 800 - Arsenal

C800 Arsenal

However, if they wanted to go deeper into this place, it wouldn't be that simple.

There were two hooligans by the door, with two guns on their legs and seeds in their hands. There seemed to be a phone in front of them, and they seemed to be looking at something.

The two of them chatted and laughed, making it seem quite lively.

"There are only two of them. If the two of us go up, they won't be able to react and we can knock them down."

Azure Dragon didn't think this was a problem at all. In his eyes, these two enemies were nothing but a piece of cake.

"Be careful, don't be rash, they have guns in their hands." Wu Tian was a lot more cautious, he couldn't act on impulse on this matter.

At this time, bamboo pole suddenly walked out without any warning.

Azure Dragon opened his eyes wide as if he knew it all. Just as he was about to charge forward with the dagger in his hand, he was stopped by Wu Tian.

"Wait a minute, let's see what he's up to." Wu Tian also felt that it was strange. What was this guy doing when he went out at this time? Was he trying to leak the information?

This wasn't the best time to spread the news. If he wanted to do so, he could completely avoid telling Wu Tian and the others that there were hidden guards here.

Wu Tie was angered to the point that his veins almost popped out. Today, there were many things that made him very unhappy, because bamboo pole's way of doing things was really not within his expectations.

"Who is it?"

The moment bamboo pole went out, it immediately attracted the attention of the two guards. They immediately raised their guns and pointed them at the guy who was as thin as a stick.

"Brothers, sorry for disturbing you. Can I ask where the toilet is?"

bamboo pole was not scared at all, he sounded like he was speaking the truth.

The two Brawlers looked at each other in doubt because this was the first time they had seen someone like this come to their side.

"What do you do?" For the sake of safety, they still pointed their guns at bamboo pole's head.

"I'm really sorry, I kind of want to go to the toilet, and I just can't hold it in ..."

When bamboo pole said this, his tears and snot almost flowed down and he kept yawning.

Seeing this, the two guards didn't have any wariness towards him.

They could tell what was going on with this guy with a single glance. A single child could kill him, so there was really no need for them to care about him.

"The toilet is over there. Don't come over if you have nothing to do." The two thugs put away their guns again and sat back in their chairs to look at their cell phones.

bamboo pole saw that the two of them were no longer afraid, so he moved closer to them.

"Brothers, what exactly is this thing that you're looking at? It seems to be very interesting."

"Are you also looking at this? This is the most popular TV series in recent days! Those who do not like to watch this TV show are blind, how beautiful is this heroine. "

Wu Tian and the others listened from afar and felt a burst of surprise. There was actually such a guard.

However, this was good as well. bamboo pole did not bring anything bad to the two of them, but rather diverted their attention.

Wu Tian knew that this was a very important opportunity, so the two of them quickly went around to the back and side of the warehouse.

Originally, such an action was impossible for the two guards to not notice. However, since bamboo pole was talking nonsense with them at that place, no one noticed Wu Tian's actions.

Very soon, the two of them had arrived behind the two of them. Wu Tian and Azure Dragon attacked at the same time and hit the back of their necks. Instantly, the two guards fainted.

Wu Tian and Azure Dragon held the two hoodlums while their bodies still hadn't fallen down, allowing them to lean against the chairs.

Noticing that there was no one around, Wu Tian and Azure Dragon quickly walked into the small warehouse behind them.

As soon as they entered, they were shocked by the scene in front of them.

This place was full of weapons of all kinds. There might be more than a hundred guns and even some big sabers.

They were all placed on the shelves, so that everything was in order.

"Could they have brought almost all of their S City and weapons here?"

Azure Dragon was a little surprised. No wonder it was so difficult for him to collect a few weapons. It was probably because of this reason.

If no one else had it, then Azure Dragon was not unreasonable to have received a fake copy.

"This scale is probably enough to trigger a riot. What is Liang Zhenhai trying to do?"

Wu Tian was surprised, but he felt lucky.

If he knew later, if Liang Zhenhai used so many weapons against him, then no matter how powerful Wu Tian's company was, it would be useless.

They had no way to fight against so many guns.

They quickly recorded the situation and sent out an email.

Basically, he had achieved his goal after all that he had done. Wu Tian and Azure Dragon also started to prepare to leave.

These people had been negligent in their duties, and they actually managed to return unhindered. They easily returned to the abandoned factory through the sewers.

However, Wu Tian didn't plan to leave this place just like that. The three of them found a relatively good position with good vision and took out their binoculars to carefully observe the movement in the ballroom.

Liang Zhenhai was in a room at this place, enjoying a massage from a few girls. Suddenly, a lackey rushed in and said something in his ear with a flustered expression.

Suddenly, Liang Zhenhai rushed out of the room with his underpants on.

"What's going on?" Liang Zhenhai saw a few people surrounding a place. He walked over and separated the crowd. He saw a gun in an unremarkable corner on the ground.

"Boss, we don't know either. Just now, when Liu San passed by, he saw us."

"Didn't I say to put away all the guns? Now is not the time for us to act, so we have to be careful."

Liang Zhenhai was extremely angry and shouted at them. However, what they didn't expect was that the sound of sirens suddenly came from outside the dance hall.