C801 Conflict Outbreak

Just from the loud sound of the siren outside, one could tell how many officers there were outside.

At this time, the people from the Red Power were all panicking, and looked at Liang Zhenhai one by one.

"Boss, the cops are here. What should we do, fight back or run away?"

Liang Zhenhai's eyes were filled with killing intent now and he looked very unhappy.

"Boss!"

When the people on the dance floor heard this, the hundreds of people in the ballroom immediately fell into a mess.

However, a few smart guys knew better and immediately closed the door.

Liang Zhenhai didn't have time to let him think about it more carefully, so he could only make a decision quickly.

"F * ck, we're going to fight them!" Although that wasn't Liang Zhenhai's wish, since the police officers had already reached their door, if they were to come in and search, and find these weapons, they definitely wouldn't be able to escape.

Since death was the only option left to him, he might as well risk it all to find an opportunity.

Once this order was given, quite a few people rushed towards the warehouse.

Liang Zhenhai quickly picked up the gun on the floor and ran back to put on his pants.

"You are surrounded. Open the gate and let us inside to search. Otherwise, we will treat you as a form of resistance against the law!"

The police officer leading the team outside was the opponent of these underground organization, Sunn Hongsheng.

He did not know where he got this email, but when he opened it, he saw that it was a video showing a bunch of guns.

This place was also a dance hall of their S City. After getting the news, Sunn Hongsheng obviously wouldn't miss such an opportunity. Although he didn't know where this evidence came from, he still applied for the order to search.

In order to prevent Red Power from seeing that they had less people, this time Sunn Hongsheng had almost gathered all of his squad members together. There were more than ten cars and they arrived in a hurry to watch the Red Power people seal their doors.

It was obvious that the Red Power was very afraid, otherwise it would be impossible for them to make such a move.

"Hurry up and report this to the higher ups, request for the support of the armed forces." Sunn Hongsheng couldn't help but feel that it wasn't good to continue like this. He had to think of a way to deal with this quickly.

They needed to apply, but the mission had to be completed. Sunn Hongsheng and a few others looked at the situation and decided to check it out.

A few police officers with guns slowly approached from the side of the police car. The ballroom was now completely silent, completely different from the chaos earlier.

Sunn Hongsheng moved closer to the entrance of the ballroom, his heart was beating rapidly.

He hadn't done this for a long time. Normally, he wouldn't need to use a handgun. However, he didn't know what the people in the ballroom were doing.

"Listen up, people inside. We are here to conduct a search. Hurry up and open the door. Otherwise, you'll be resisting the law!"

Sunn Hongsheng shouted a few times, so they definitely heard him. It seems like they will still force their way in this time.

The two officers pushed at the door a few times but did not push. This door must be sealed.

"Captain Sun, I think we can enter from here." A police officer on the other side seemed to be making progress. He opened a window. Drilling in.

Sunn Hongsheng wanted to stop him, they couldn't be in such a hurry, there would be a big problem.

However, before he could finish his sentence, a gunshot came from the dance hall and a bullet shot towards the police officer who just spoke.

Sunn Hongsheng and the others were stunned. They immediately rushed over, caught their colleagues and ran towards the back.

Suddenly, the police officers and the thugs started fighting. Although the police officers were outside, they only had pistols in their hands and the number of people was inferior. Injuries started to occur one after another.

Faced with the scene, Sunn Hongsheng knew that he couldn't rely on them alone anymore. He quickly led his men to retreat, and continued to pester these people. On the other hand, he also hurried to inform his superior.

Soon, the reinforcements they needed arrived. More than ten armored vehicles arrived and over a hundred armed soldiers alighted from the vehicles. They quickly took over Sunn Hongsheng's position and started to attack from the inside.

Even the director of Police Station had come over to personally take charge, causing things to become troublesome at once.

Liang Zhenhai commanded his men to defend inside. However, they were only bullies after all. If they really met a well-trained army, they would be beaten to a pulp immediately. People were constantly hit and injured, or even killed.

All of a sudden, the entire ballroom was filled with grief, and Liang Zhenhai himself was in complete chaos.

"Boss, we're almost at our limits. What should we do?"

People kept coming to complain to Liang Zhenhai, but he didn't have any better idea. He just looked at everything in front of him in a daze.

"Hurry, take my phone and call Chang Zairong!"

At this time, this was the only thing Liang Zhenhai could do.

However, the phone kept getting busy, so Chang Zairong didn't choose to pick up his phone. Because a lot of reporters had already rushed to the scene, reporting that the police had attacked this stubborn group of gunmen.

Since the situation was like this, Liang Zhenhai obviously knew that Chang Zairong had already given up on him.

"What are you standing there for? Run!" Liang Zhenhai shouted to his trusted aides, then quickly threw away the phone in his hand and ran towards the back door.

At this time, the armed forces had already barged in. Those thugs, who originally wanted to resist stubbornly, all put down their weapons and chose to surrender.

Liang Zhenhai saw that the situation had turned for the worse, so he quickly ran for his life. Luckily, he had set up an escape route here in case something like this happened.

Several people crowded around Liang Zhenhai and ran towards the tunnel with all their might.

"You guys can wait at the back for a bit. I need to open the door."

There was a big lock at the entrance of this secret passage. He had to open it before he could enter.

Without any hesitation, his trusted aides immediately turned their guns around and started shooting at the police officers chasing after them.

Liang Zhenhai unlocked the door, took the pistol and quickly went inside. However, he didn't call for his own people and closed the door instead.

"Boss, Boss, Liang Zhenhai, you bastard!"

At this moment, his trusted aides realized that they were betrayed by Liang Zhenhai. They cursed, but were immediately pushed down by the police.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 802 - Last Failure

C802 Last Failure

Liang Zhenhai, who was going wild alone in the tunnel, couldn't help but to burst out laughing.

Why was it that in a single day, the time it took for this to happen didn't even exceed an hour?

From being the boss of the biggest underground organization in the entire S City, he became a homeless person.

Previously, even if the police officers wanted to make a move on them, they didn't have enough evidence to capture someone from the Red Power.

Therefore, Liang Zhenhai felt that he didn't have to worry about his own safety. It was just that, why did his people suddenly start using guns against the police officers?

Liang Zhenhai couldn't understand it no matter how hard he tried. Right now, Red Power could basically be said to be completely destroyed, there was no hope for Red Power at all.

If he could escape, that would be his good fortune.

This escape route stretched for hundreds of meters and came out from the other exit. Liang Zhenhai quickly jumped into a car he had prepared earlier and sped up to run.

As long as he was allowed to drive out — and if there was no surprise, the officers had no way of dealing with him. He just needed a chance.

With Chang Zairong's financial support, he could start over from the beginning.

The car had been moving for only a few minutes when the tires seemed to have pressed down on something, causing all the tires to explode.

Liang Zhenhai was extremely angry. He got off the car and cursed as he looked around. There were a few nails on the ground that broke all the tires.

"F * ck!" Liang Zhenhai hit the car hard. Unlucky things always happen at the same time, so why was he so unlucky at this time?

However, escaping was still the most important thing. Liang Zhenhai didn't have the time to think about that, he just grabbed his pistol and started to flee to the side of the road.

However, a person suddenly appeared in front of him. Liang Zhenhai didn't get a clear look at the person and directly ran into him.

"Are you blind?" Liang Zhenhai felt that he was really unlucky. How did things turn out like this?

However, when he raised his head and saw the incomparably sturdy man standing in front of him, he was immediately stunned.

Right now, the situation was rather critical, so it was better for him not to cause any trouble.

He didn't even say anything as he crawled up, wanting to continue escaping.

But there was no way Azure Dragon would give him such an opportunity. He immediately stopped Liang Zhenhai, not giving him the chance to escape.

Liang Zhenhai was almost dragged down to the ground. He was so angry that he immediately pulled out his pistol and pointed it at Azure Dragon's head.

"Are you trying to cause trouble with me? Are you a police officer as well?" Liang Zhenhai couldn't care less anymore. He had to escape.

The officer's footsteps were getting closer and closer. If he didn't get out of this place soon, he would be finished.

"Stop!" The police officers were rushing towards him. Liang Zhenhai was anxious, so he quickly pointed his pistol at Azure Dragon.

"Get out of the way. If you don't move, I'll shoot."

Hearing Liang Zhenhai's threat, Azure Dragon smiled and did not move. He did not care what Liang Zhenhai said at all. He just didn't want Liang Zhenhai to leave.

Liang Zhenhai pulled the trigger decisively, but the fire at the muzzle he was waiting for didn't appear. There wasn't even any sound. Azure Dragon did not fall.

Nothing happened. Liang Zhenhai could not believe it. He pulled the trigger a few more times, but the result was still the same.

He was on the verge of breaking down, which meant that he was extremely unlucky this time.

This pistol was actually a fake, even though it looked real.

Liang Zhenhai lost the chance to run. The police officers behind him already rushed over. They first took away Liang Zhenhai's gun, then they pinned him to the ground and cuffed him.

Azure Dragon let out a long sigh of relief when he saw Liang Zhenhai being taken away by the police officer. He gave a thumbs up to Liu Tie, who was observing the scene not far away, with a proud expression.

"I almost thought something was going to happen to you when I saw him take out the gun." Wu Tian was really worried. Under those conditions, a person could do anything.

"I was worried at first, but then I realized he was holding a fake gun that we bought." Azure Dragon laughed. This was really their luck.

The Red Power that was once arrogant and proud, had now been almost completely arrested by the police. Besides Yin Rumeng's group of people, almost no one succeeded in escaping.

Looking at all this, Wu Tian was extremely pleased. This matter could finally be considered to have come to an end, and if this were to happen, then the Red Power would no longer be able to go against him.

"Let's go back." Wu Tian turned around and was about to leave. bamboo pole had nowhere else to go, so he rushed over to ask Wu Tian.

"President Wu, what should I do?"

Hearing bamboo pole's question, Wu Tian finally remembered that there was such a guy.

"Honestly, you're important, but I don't want a drug addict living with me."

Wu Tian also had his own principle, and this principle was that he didn't want someone who had an unclean past.

bamboo pole was stunned for a moment and then burst into laughter.

"Did you misunderstand something? Looking at how thin I am, you think I'm the same as those drug addicts. You're wrong, the reason why I'm so thin is because I owe the underground organization a lot of money and have another illness. That's why I look like this ..."

bamboo pole quickly explained and even showed his arm to Wu Tian — he had indeed never done anything improper.

"If you really aren't a drug addict, then alright, go to the police station and do an inspection. If there's nothing wrong with your body, then you can come to the Wu Group company to find me. I can't guarantee you will be able to join the company with 100 percent certainty. "

Wu Tian was still worried. He had to see the police officer's proof before he could be at ease.

However, this gave bamboo pole a way out, so he quickly ran towards the police station.

Wu Tian and Azure Dragon returned to Wu Group Company leisurely. At this time, the matter of Red Power had long become the news of S City.

All the citizens were amazed by the matter and thanked the police officers for their actions.

Of course, Wu Group company was the happiest of them all, because this annoying guy who lived in a dark corner was finally going to be removed like a tumor.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 803 - Trouble

C803 Trouble

bamboo pole was grateful that Wu Tian was willing to give him a chance.

However, he still followed closely behind Wu Tian and co. like a slug.

"Why are you still following us?" Although Azure Dragon's attitude towards him had improved a lot, it still made people feel that Azure Dragon's attitude was very unhappy.

"Brothers, I don't have a place to go. Be kind and find me a place to stay ..."

bamboo pole was very thick-skinned and did not have any feelings of embarrassment.

Azure Dragon was also annoyed, but there was nothing he could do because Wu Tian had already tacitly allowed him to get on the car.

bamboo pole sat in the back seat with an excited expression.

"I can tell from one look that the two of you are definitely not ordinary people. Just your clothes alone are already very expensive."

"I found that you're quite good at talking. You're a professor, how could you be like this?"

Wu Tian thought it was strange. bamboo pole always said he was a professor in the field of chemical materials. How could he end up like this with such eloquence and good eyesight?

"Don't mention it, I have a nemesis. Originally, we were classmates, but I pointed out to him that his thesis was fake, and he remembered it. Many years have passed, and now that he has become the principal of my school, he directly expelled me."

Although bamboo pole had a smile on his face when he said that, he was sad.

"What university?" Wu Tian was just about to ask out of curiosity. Coincidentally, he was cooperating with the other schools. If this person had intentions to cooperate with him, then he had to be careful.

"Chengnan University, I was previously the head of the chemistry department."

He didn't expect bamboo pole to have some ability, but this Southern City University actually made Wu Tian laugh.

"So it's him. I've met this principal before." Previously, during the meeting, the one who was opposed to bamboo pole was the president of Southern City University. Since it was like this, he needed to make good use of bamboo pole.

When they returned to the company, news of this Red Power was spread everywhere. Even when Lili saw that Wu Tian had returned, she still jogged over to tell him about this news.

"Alright, alright, I already know." Wu Tian was the one who planned this, he knows it better than anyone else.

"This way, our company can go all out." Loong Yun was no longer as serious as she usually was. Instead, she was full of smiles.

She was the one in charge of managing the funds, so she knew this better than anyone else. The reason why Wu Group Corporation had restrained itself from developing greatly was because of the existence of these people. That was why they had some misgivings.

"There's no need to rush. We don't need to dabble in those ordinary industries. We can sell whatever we have in the past."

Wu Tian was completely different from what she had imagined. He had already made up his mind to develop high-tech things.

Those low-end or even mid-end industries are profitable, but they can easily be replaced.

Even though they had suffered such a huge setback when it came to the Shuangxing Company company, they were still an extremely powerful international corporate company, and were among the top two enterprises in the entire nation of Korea.

It was because they had already become an irreplaceable position. Therefore, they would remain safe and sound even after suffering such a huge blow.

Wu Tian had his eyes on this point. If his own Wu Group company had such strength, then wouldn't it be lying down making money? Furthermore, he wouldn't have to worry about anything.

"President Wu, who is this person?" At this moment, Loong Yun noticed a man who was as thin as bamboo pole following behind Wu Tian's butt.

His body was also dirty, and he even emitted a smell.

"I picked him up from the outside. Arrange a room for him and give him normal staff treatment."

Wu Tian greeted and handed the matter to Loong Yun. Then, he quickly went upstairs.

Currently, the company was very lacking in manpower, and even Liu Yueyao had been pulled over by him, allowing her to be in charge of the development of Flower Island.

As soon as he went upstairs, before Wu Tian could catch his breath, he saw Wu Zaiyao rushing towards him.

"Are you looking for me, beauty?" Wu Tian was in a very good mood. He even opened a bottle of red wine and was about to have a drink. Seeing that Wu Zaiyao had arrived, he even took a cup for her.

"President Wu, it's bad." Wu Zaiyao had a serious expression and was holding a newspaper in her hand.

Wu Tian did not reply immediately, but raised his glass and took a sip.

"If you have anything to say, then say it slowly. There's no need to rush."

After going over and over again, it should be those things that Chang Zairong was looking for trouble for.

After all, the Red Power had been overturned by him just now, which meant that Chang Zairong's important strength in the S City was now being expended by Wu Tian.

He definitely wanted to counterattack.

"It's like this, right now the newspapers are saying that our project on Flower Island is a scam, what else was there about the previous press conference, it was all to create momentum for Flower Island's real estate."

Wu Zaiyao said somewhat nervously. Although this news didn't seem to be that serious, it was spreading like a virus across the entire China.

"Will anyone believe this?"

Wu Tian still did not agree with it. Although he participated in Flower Island, the surrounding real estate projects were not related to Wu Group companies at all.

"Many people believe ..." The reason why Wu Zaiyao was so worried was because there was already a wave of denouncement about their Wu Group on the web.

She brought her tablet computer in front of Wu Tian. On it was a statistical system of public opinion, which clearly stated that public opinion was now against Wu Group Corporation.

Some people even started to question whether Wu Tian was doing it on purpose. Some people even started to suspect that Wu Tian's personal life was very lustful and messy.

Very few people would say anything of goodwill.

Wu Tian immediately frowned. It was not easy for him to arrange such a situation. If public opinion was allowed to act in such a way, would anyone still be willing to cooperate with him?

Even if some companies were willing to do so, would they be able to withstand such an attack? Wu Tian was very suspicious of this.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 804 - Stabilizing the Heart of the Army

C804 Stabilizing the Heart of the Army

What Chang Zairong did really made Wu Tian's teeth itch. However, he had no choice but to watch as things got worse.

"See if there's any way to ease the situation. It's not good for us to go on like this."

Wu Tian frowned. He finally got into a good mood and immediately became unhappy.

"I can only try my best. I know some people from the promotional department on the website. They can help us control the situation a little." Although Wu Zaiyao said that, her expression showed that she wasn't really confident about this matter.

"As long as you try your best, you don't have to worry too much about it. If you overdo it, it might backfire on you." Wu Tian warned Wu Zaiyao with a few words and told her to leave first. He wanted to be alone and see if there were any good ideas.

However, as soon as Wu Zaiyao left, a secretary from the front desk called over, saying that a few university principals wanted to meet Wu Tian.

What he was worried about had happened. These universities placed a lot of importance on public opinion, so when something happened to Wu Tian, they reacted very quickly.

"Let them in." This sort of thing could not be avoided. He had to face it.

Wu Tian drank a mouthful of wine and hid his worries.

A few of the principals walked over in distress as if they were worn out from the journey.

Wu Tian welcomed them with a smile. These were the universities that he had previously signed an active contract with, so they could be considered cooperation partners that Wu Tian cared a lot about.

"Gentlemen, what's wrong with you all? You all look very troubled, if you don't come for a cup of wine, then this is the most expensive wine in Cha Er Country. It won't be easy to get it."

The principals were unhappy. When they saw Wu Tian being so nonchalant at this moment, could it be that they don't even know what happened to them?

"President Wu, there's a storm of public opinion on the internet now."

"You have to hurry up and think of a way. Otherwise, if this goes on, won't our partnership be finished ..."

Looking at the principals' expressions, Wu Tian actually laughed.

"Are you all that worried about those rumours online? You guys are engaged in education and scientific research. You should know that the speed at which rumours can spread is much faster than the speed of the truth. "So, you guys didn't see the truth and came over to denounce me?"

Wu Tian's words made the principals speechless.

He was absolutely right, and the principals immediately realized that they had done the wrong thing in this matter.

"This is the news that we just released. Look, the amount of reading we've done is so little, which means that people don't care about the truth. They don't care about it, and you principals don't care about it either?"

"That's not what we mean. We just want to know what's going on. After all, we are a university, and if public opinion is not in the right direction, we will be the ones to suffer the most. "

A principal said helplessly. They were anxious, not because they were afraid of being splashed with dirty water, but because the Institute's project had been cancelled.

If that was the case, then the hope that they had painstakingly seen would be shattered.

Wu Tian shook his red wine glass and took a sip.

"Don't worry, Flower Island's real estate project is unrelated to my Wu Group Corporation. That's a matter of Nan He Group, you can go and verify it, and I can also provide you with photos of the contract, do you have anything to worry about?"

For Wu Tian to be able to do this, he was actually very sincere in his actions.

No one would show the contract to anyone else.

"With what you have said, I am relieved. We are willing to believe in Wu Group."

The other principals dispelled their doubts and left happily.

Wu Tian slightly frowned. He was afraid that it would take a while before he could get rid of the effects.

Their only chance was to do something big that would make the entire country excited.

Furthermore, this matter was difficult enough and had to be of a sufficient scale ...

After thinking about it, the only thing that no one else had ever done was that one thing.

Wu Tian quickly dialed Wu Zaibin's number.

Very quickly, this chubby guy hurried over.

"President Wu, you were looking for me."

Wu Zaibin had always been in charge of Korea affairs. As he was currently negotiating with Korea, he did not need to worry about anything else.

"How is it going with the purchase of the island?"

Wu Tian couldn't wait any longer. If they could launch a rocket as soon as possible, as long as they succeeded, they would be able to turn the current situation around.

"Now that the negotiations are at 75%, the rest should be settled in two weeks."

Wu Zaibin calculated, this progress was already very fast. If not for the fact that Korea needed money very badly, this matter would have dragged on for a long time.

"It's too late, we have to speed up." Wu Tian frowned and took a big gulp of wine.

"I'll think of a way for you. This week, you have to carry this out, and then you have to prepare for the construction."

Wu Zaibin did not expect Wu Tian to be so anxious, so he quickly nodded in agreement.

He had originally thought that he could continue to relax for a while. It seemed that this idea was also impossible.

"Take Hong Xiangtai. I require you to fire a rocket within a month."

Wu Tian was planning to bet all his treasures on this matter.

Wu Tian finally calmed down a little and sighed as he went downstairs. He wanted to go to the cafeteria to find something to eat.

It wasn't time to eat, but the kitchen still prepared a bowl of noodles for Wu Tian. It was too late to cook anything else.

Just as Wu Tian sat down and was about to move his chopsticks, a figure came over and sat in front of him.

He ate even more sweetly than Wu Tian.

Wu Tian looked up, this person was none other than bamboo pole.

"Did you eat just now?" Wu Tian didn't feel bad either, it wasn't bad to have someone to accompany him.

"Yeah, I just moved out." bamboo pole was enjoying his meal. He knew that if it wasn't for Wu Tian, he wouldn't be where he was now.

bamboo pole ate very fast. He had already put down his chopsticks and was watching Wu Tian eat with vigor.

"Why are you looking at me?"

Wu Tian felt bamboo pole looking at him. This made him feel uncomfortable from head to toe.
