

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 810 - Confession

C810 Confession

His expression made Wu Tian inexplicably angry.

This was too disrespectful. Did this fellow not know who was in control of the situation?

"Do you think we'll believe you just because you say that?" Wu Tian smiled as he approached the guy and punched him in the stomach.

Zhang Zerui groaned and a painful expression was revealed on his face.

"Let me tell you, it's better for you to honestly tell me. Otherwise, if the night is long, then the bad things will happen to you for a long time."

Wei Jiaming also looked at Zhang Zirui with malicious intent. This guy is really not smart, not smart at all.

This punch knocked Zhang Zerui down to the ground, and he couldn't get up for a long time.

"I really don't have anything you need here. It's useless, even if you kill me, it would be useless." Zhang Zerui's voice was getting weaker. With his body, if he took a few more punches, he would be dead.

Wu Tian signaled Wei Jiaming with his eyes. Wei Jiaming directly went up and kicked him onto the ground.

He took out his dagger, held Zhang Zerui's hand and pulled out a finger.

"If you don't say it now, you'll have to start having one less finger in the future. Every ten minutes, I'll cut off one of your fingers. I just want to see how long you can last!"

Wu Tian gave this guy his final ultimatum, his dagger flashed with a cold light. Looking at the dagger was terrifying.

Zhang Zerui was trembling. No matter how strong he was, he couldn't face such a threat directly. It was too scary.

"I... I said, he only has one thing, maybe he left a clue... "If I say anything, Chang Zairong will definitely know that I revealed it. At that time, I'll still be dead."

Zhang Zerui's face was ashen, as if he had no more thoughts in his mind.

"Don't be so pessimistic. If Chang Zairong falls quickly enough, it won't be much of a threat to you." Wu Tian's face was full of smiles. At this moment, he looked extremely amiable. However, behind Wenxin's smile was an unrelenting and unrelenting attitude towards this kind of enemy.

Since this guy finally opened his mouth, Wei Jiaming let Zhang Zerui go and let him sit up.

"It's like this. A few years ago, I did something with Chang Zairong. At that time, the space agency of Korea was in the process of trading with a person called Tang Liansheng to purchase some equipment."

Zhang Zerui seemed to admit his mistake this time and started to explain the situation in detail.

When Wu Tian heard the name Tang Liansheng, his eyes narrowed.

Wasn't he talking about Tang Yanrou's father? He once heard Tang Yanrou say that her father's death wasn't a form of suicide.

"Later on, the people from Shuangxing Company company started contacting us, hoping to cooperate with us and take down this business. "Tang Liansheng and Chang Zairong are good friends. We tried to negotiate with Tang Liansheng, but he was unwilling."

When Zhang Zerui said this, he let out a soft sigh.

"They were short on time and didn't leave us with any spare time, so at that time, Chang Zairong directly sent people to assassinate Tang Liansheng. That's how we got the business."

What Zhang Zerui said was basically the same as what others told Wu Tian. There wasn't any big discrepancies.

"Then, where is the evidence?" Wu Tian did not care about what the truth was. What he cared about was how to ruin Chang Zairong's reputation so that he would never be able to recover from it.

Zhang Zerui swallowed his saliva and continued to speak slowly: "This matter, he used mail to contact the killers, they are from the underground organization of Korea, and this mail can still be found now."

At this point, Wu Tian became interested. No matter what, he got the first method to suppress Chang Zairong.

"Is that all? This is not enough. If the police want to investigate this matter, they will definitely not be able to do so within a year or two. "

Wu Tian continued to force Zhang Zerui. If he thought he could leave just by revealing this little bit of information, then he was completely wrong and underestimated Wu Tian's determination.

"Other than that, there might be more information, but there might not be any evidence ..."

Zhang Zerui was also helpless. Some things were not that he was unwilling to talk about, but it was useless even if he knew. They had ten thousand ways to get out of this situation.

"Don't worry about that. Tell me everything you know."

Wu Tian took out his phone and started recording. He must have all the information in Zhang Zerui's hand.

When dawn arrived, the two walked out of Zhang Zerui's house in satisfaction.

In Wu Tian's hand, there was an extra document bag.

This was the printout of the email they got, as well as a series of stories Zhang Zerui provided about all the random things they did.

Although empty words had no basis, they still had their uses if they could have an impact on public opinion.

Wu Tian didn't believe it at all. How could there be no one staring at Chang Zairong when the China Chamber of Commerce was as hard as steel?

"Why have you been gone so long? "What's the situation like?"

The two girls waited in the car all night, their hearts anxious. They didn't know what exactly had happened, nor did they know if Wu Tian and the others had made any progress.

Wu Tian waved the folder in his hand and smiled at them.

"The harvest isn't that big, but I'm not going to come back empty-handed."

Both Guan Ruonan and Tang Yanrou let out a sigh of relief when they saw this. Their worries were unnecessary.

The few of them hurriedly got into the car and left the place.

Zhang Zerui watched them leave from a distance. He thought for a while as he stood by the door and revealed a charming smile. Then, he slowly closed the door.

He took out his cell phone and made a call.

"It's me. Chang Zairong can give up now and erase all the traces we left behind. "

After a simple sentence, Zhang Zerui hung up the phone. It was getting late outside. He put on his suit jacket, wiped his face and got ready to go to work.

It was as if nothing had happened on this night.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 811 - Blocking Development

C811 Blocking Development

After returning to the company, Wu Tian quickly gathered everyone to study the information in their hands.

A large part of the items were handed over to Wu Zhangkong. He was an expert in this area. As long as he could activate the public opinion machine, he would be of great help to Wu Tian and the others.

"I can't guarantee 100% for this email to be able to have our police investigate the case, but we should give it a try. Tang Yanrou, take this printout and go to the police to report this. "

Wu Tian had already started to arrange their actions. The task was to manage all of them simultaneously, causing Chang Zairong to fall.

Tang Yanrou nodded. She was very excited. She had waited for such a long time in hopes of making Chang Zairong pay the price. And now, this opportunity had finally come.

"Guild Leader Guan, your task is also very important." Wu Shuangyou shifted his gaze to Guan Ruonan. Guan Ruonan was a woman, but she was Commerce Chamber Chairman, and none of them were ordinary people.

"I know, I'll take care of the matter at the China Chamber of Commerce. "As long as you attack Chang Zairong's side, I will immediately put forward a proposal to distrust him in the Chamber of Commerce."

If he did that, Chang Zairong probably wouldn't have thought that someone would disintegrate him from the inside.

Wu Tian nodded. Before he said anything, Guan Ruonan understood what he meant.

"It's like this. You'll have to put in a lot more effort to get here. If you can settle this, I'll immediately support you in running for president."

This was Wu Tian's guarantee to Guan Ruonan from the start. He reiterated it once again at this moment. If he let her be the guild leader, it would be beneficial to his team's development.

"Wu Zaiyao, I don't need to talk about your side. This Chang Zairong has gone all out against me. Now, we are going to fight back with ten times the intensity!"

Wu Tian clenched his teeth. This was the most infuriating point to him. Kidnapping the public opinion of the entire country to attack him, even though Wu Tian had a large family background, he was still suppressed to the point that he couldn't breathe. This time, he had to let Chang Zairong experience what it felt like.

After their respective assignments had been arranged, everyone dispersed and busied themselves with their own matters.

Wu Tian didn't sleep for the whole night so he took a quick rest. He could clearly feel that his eyelids were fighting.

At this time, Liu Yueyao walked over with big strides. She wanted to talk to Wu Tian about something, but she was stopped by Loong Yun.

Loong Yun didn't give her a reason to stop Wu Tian, she merely pointed at Wu Tian's sleeping appearance.

Liu Yueyao looked over with a smile on her face. She no longer forced her way in.

"It's like this, there's a group of people protesting inside the Flower Island construction site, there's no way to carry out our work. Tell Wu Tian about this matter and see if there's any way to solve it."

Although Liu Yueyao was in charge of the Flower Island Engineering Project, he still did not have the confidence to handle this kind of unexpected matter.

After all, these people were protesting, and were fooled by the public opinion on the internet. They came over to protest, but were not allowed to use violence against this kind of crowd, so it was very troublesome to deal with them.

"Okay, you can go back first. When President Wu wakes up, I will tell him immediately."

The two of them were whispering to each other, but Wu Tian still heard their conversation and woke him up.

"What are you two talking about?"

Wu Tian saw Liu Yueyao coming and knew that something must have happened.

Seeing that Wu Tian had woken up, Liu Yueyao felt a little embarrassed.

"Sorry for disturbing your sleep, I should have lowered my voice."

"Why are you saying this? What were you talking about just now? "

You can sleep anytime you want, but if anything happens, Wu Tian will not be able to sleep well.

Liu Yueyao told Wu Tian exactly what she had said just now.

When the time came, the projects of Luzhou would be somewhat similar.

It's just that this time it's an ordinary crowd. The reasons for their protest against you are all kinds of different things.

Some said that Wu Tian was a swindler, others said that this Flower Island project affected the quality of the water in the environment, and some even said that once the Flower Island was completed, it would affect the lighting in their homes ...

All in all, these people had different reasons, but they all only had one goal, which was to obstruct the construction of the Flower Island project.

"Baili Zhenlin and the others didn't do anything. They are still part of the project, are they going to just ignore this matter?"

Although most of the public opinion these days was directed towards their Wu Group company, Baili En, Zhenlin, acted as if he couldn't see anything, and didn't say anything to clarify things.

"They did deal with it, but with little success. We are currently filling in the sea and building land, but these people are blocking all the main roads, so our engineering vehicles have no way to get through. "

Impeding the progress of this island's construction would have a huge impact on Wu Group Corporation.

They would also like to repair the place as soon as possible and move the companies in, while a large number of recruiters carry out their high-tech research.

"Forget it, I'll go check it out at the scene."

Currently, he felt that there wasn't much use in talking about it, but he needed to know what the people at the scene were thinking in order to have a way to deal with this matter.

"President Wu, you haven't rested for the whole night, is that okay?" Long Yun looked worriedly at Wu Tian. His lack of sleep was not good for his body.

Wu Tian waved his hand nonchalantly. He didn't care about that anymore, it was more important to solve the current problem.

Loong Yun had no choice but to drive the car with Wu Tian and Liu Yueyao towards the seaside.

This Flower Island could not be considered close to the center of the city, it was more than ten kilometers away. After all, it was because of the cheap prices of the remote areas that the projects were set here.

However, the surroundings of this place were very desolate. There weren't even many residential buildings.

However, when they were close to the construction site, they saw a large group of people blocking the road. The cars on both sides of the road were unable to pass through.

"So many people?" Wu Tian was a bit shocked. These people seemed to be a lot of old grandpas and grandpas, and they were holding banners to protest and shouting slogans.

The police were watching closely from the side, but they could do nothing if they did not do something too extreme.

"Isn't this nonsense ..." Wu Tian was instantly angered. These people were not young anymore, and they even said that it would affect the environment.

Let's not talk about other things. How could someone of their age have any concept of environmental protection ... This time, Wu Tian was sure that Chang Zairong was the mastermind.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 812 - Truth of the Protest

C812 Truth of the Protest

There were quite a number of people here. Just the number of people holding up their weapons was already over a thousand.

One could not use forceful methods to deal with such a person, but even more so, one could not surrender. Once one surrendered and fulfilled their wishes, they would immediately face the possibility of advancing an inch or two.

"Find me a set of ordinary clothes." Wu Tian instructed Loong Yun. He wanted to sneak in and see the situation of these people.

In order to not attract attention, Loong Yun even parked the car far away.

Wu Tian and Loong Yun had changed into plain clothes, and Liu Yueyao had been sent over to talk to them.

The two of them could be said to have infiltrated without any problems. The people who protested were all kinds of people, and there were even some children who couldn't speak properly.

Since they had occupied the road, the police had been trying to persuade these people, but the results had not been very good.

"Are we late?" Wu Tian walked into the crowd anxiously and started chatting with the people beside him.

A young kid next to Wu Tian sized him up without a doubt.

"No, no. Are you guys the replacement? So early in the morning? "

When Wu Tian heard that there was a hidden meaning behind his words, he immediately knew that it wasn't that simple and nodded his head quickly.

"Yeah, didn't I misread the time? I thought I came late, but it looks like I came early. Also, who is this time?"

The young man smiled and stretched out five fingers as he looked at Wu Tian complacently.

"Today is the day to demonstrate and protest. Also, how much money is being given to you from there?"

After asking this question, Tian Lingmin immediately realized that there was probably some illegal transaction. No wonder these people were so stubborn. It seemed that someone had deliberately invited them over.

"I'm not sure about that yet. This is my first day here ..." Wu Tian could only say that casually because he didn't know anything. If he spoke carelessly, he might get into trouble.

"They are too stingy. We only gave two hundred yuan to stand here for a day. If you still don't raise the price, then I won't come tomorrow." The young man felt that the money was too little.

In fact, whatever he did in S City, he could easily earn a few hundred dollars. This little bit of money was really not that attractive to people, and this was also the reason why the people here were all elderly people and those who did not have jobs.

"Isn't it just for the money? This is not shameful." Wu Tian said with a smile as he exchanged glances with Loong Yun.

Loong Yun, on the other hand, revealed a recording pen that was hidden inside her sleeve. Of course, they weren't completely unprepared after entering the protest team.

"Do you think the police will arrest us if we do that ...?" Wu Tian pretended to be nervous and scared as he pulled the young man and continued to chat.

This was not the first time that the young man had been here, so he had a better understanding of the situation.

Let me tell you, do you see so many people here? Don't be afraid, and there are so many old men and women here, they don't even understand what they are protesting about. If you want to catch someone, you have to give them to us. "

Hearing this young man's words, Wu Tian felt that it made sense. He nodded. As he was talking, a commotion suddenly came from the front.

"Everyone push to the front, look excited."

A small voice came out from the crowd, and very soon, the crowd began to move according to his command.

"This is?" Wu Tian didn't know what was going on and quickly asked the 'senior' beside him for guidance.

The young man explained to Wu Tian while following the crowd, "This is the field commander, and also the person who gave us our salary. It's said that if he performs well, there will be a bonus."

Speaking of this, Wu Tian became even more excited.

"How can that be considered good?"

"Of course, it's more aggressive. It's best if there's a quarrel or conflict with the engineering team and we still have to pretend to be the victims. Aiya, but I don't think anyone will do that. Why is there a need? There's not a lot of money."

Wu Tian nodded as he listened and started to squeeze towards the front of the crowd.

These few thousand people were not small. If one were to really count them at two hundred, then the cost of a day's work would be several hundred thousand to a million.

It seemed like these people really could bear to spend all of their capital.

When he walked to the front, Wu Tian could already see Liu Yueyao conversing with these protesters.

She had a megaphone in her hand and was telling the grandpas and grandmas below about some of the benefits of this project. However, no one wanted to listen to her.

Wu Tian moved to the front of the group and snuck into the group of grandpas and grandpas. When she saw him, she was stunned.

What the hell is this guy doing?

Wu Tian held a sign in his hand. He had picked it up from the ground on the way here.

It was written very clearly, "Oppose Flower Island, protest the Wu family."

"Objection to the Flower Island project! You are destroying our environment! "

Wu Tian shouted loudly. Instantly, the business turned quiet, and everyone turned to look at him.

Liu Yueyao only felt that she was a bit confused. What was going on? This Wu Tian ... How could he cause trouble for himself? He was supposed to come over to help him solve the problem, but this guy even ran off to the end to hold a demonstration with these people?

Although her heart was already in turmoil, Liu Yueyao still pretended that she didn't know Wu Tian.

"Sir, may I ask why you are opposed to this project? Our project is obviously very beneficial to the locals, and it has also increased the number of jobs ..."

Liu Yueyao simply pointed at Wu Tian and asked with a face full of suspicion behind her smile.

"You actually asked us why we opposed it? You guys have been building such a large island, but have you considered our feelings? I've been swimming here since I was young, and now that you guys have filled the sea, I don't have any place to go. "Then my childhood memories will be gone too!"

Wu Tian casually made up a reason that made Liu Yueyao's face look like she was full of questions.

This damned place didn't even have a village, how could anyone swim here?

"Sir, may I ask where you are staying? As far as we know, there's no one living within a few kilometers. You shouldn't have come here to swim ten kilometers when you were a child, right? And the beach doesn't seem to be very good either ... There are rocks everywhere inside ... "

Liu Yueyao began to refute Wu Tian very generously. Although she was smiling elegantly, she had already complained Wu Tian over and over again in her heart.

"This ..." Wu Tian was stunned when he was asked such a sharp question. He stammered as he looked at the crowd below. All the grandpas and grandpas stared at him excitedly, immediately becoming even more excited.

"Why, I loved sports when I was a kid, can't I?" Although this reason was very far-fetched, Wu Tian still forced himself to say it out loud.

Liu Yueyao had a helpless look on her face. It was not like she could expose Wu Tian's lies.

"If that's the case, please show your identity documents. If it's really someone from around here, we will compensate you."

Of course, this little excuse couldn't stop Wu Tian, so he immediately started to play around.

"That won't do. You can't stop me from claiming my rights in this way."
