C826 Get It Done in One Go

The opposition that was loud a moment ago suddenly subsided. And they are beginning to have some reverse direction.

Guan Ruonan was no longer as calm as she had been. It was too late for her to imagine this change.

The situation at the scene immediately became chaotic, with all sorts of things being said. The members of the 2000 members also began to hesitate.

If what Chang Zairong said was true, then they might face up to a trillion yuan in debt.

This was not a small number, even if their China was very rich.

But no one wanted them to suddenly be burdened with a debt for no apparent reason.

Guan Ruonan could only focus her gaze on Wu Tian, hoping that he would give her some good suggestions at this moment.

Of course Wu Tian knew what she was thinking. He nodded slightly at Guan Ruonan as he walked towards the front.

"Don't worry, don't worry."

Right now, the most important thing was to stabilize the situation. As for what Chang Zairong said, it could be considered later.

"Everyone, don't worry. What Chang Zairong said does make sense, but I have a suspicion. Where did this one trillion go? Did they all lose money?" "I feel that with Chang Zairong's ability, he shouldn't have ended up like this."

With Wu Tian's words, many people started to focus their attention on this matter.

It was true that everyone was paying attention to Chang Zairong's debt at the beginning, but they didn't think about what the 1 trillion was spent on.

"If everyone doesn't know and he says he owes a trillion just because he opened his mouth, then who knows if he intentionally transferred the 1,000,000,000?"

With Wu Tian's words, someone quickly realized the seriousness of the situation.

Chang Zairong's face instantly turned pale. This Wu Tian really came for his weak spot.

This one trillion was indeed not something that Chang Zairong had pocketed, but he had indeed invested it into Korea Corporation of Korea.

For the time being, this matter was still a secret.

If this matter were to be leaked out, wouldn't it mean that the funds from outside the United Nations of the Shuangxing Company Corporation would enter their national funds?

This matter is actually very serious, and is not allowed under the laws of Korea.

"Wu Tian, you are not a member of our Chamber of Commerce and do not have the qualifications to speak here! Furthermore, you are not allowed to spread rumors and create trouble here! " Chang Zairong was a bit flustered, but he stood up on the impulse to criticize him. Instead, it was equivalent to him admitting that there was such a possibility.

"Chang Bai, do you mean to say that you really aren't willing to tell us what exactly is behind this?" At this time, Guan Ruonan also started to regroup and target Chang Zairong in all kinds of ways.

Chang Zairong was on his own at this point. His chest was heaving with anger.

He quickly looked to his side as if he was looking for a savior. But at this time, there was almost no one with him. Even his secretary Zhang Zerui, who had accompanied him for so many years, had disappeared.

Was he really going to fail? This thought flashed across Chang Zairong's mind like a meteor, but he was still unwilling to admit it.

If Chang Zairong gave up so easily, he wouldn't have sat in that position today.

"Where did this billion go? Of course it's a normal investment. We can come here to discuss it in the chamber of commerce's plenary meeting. However, this matter involves the company's business secrets, so it's impossible for me to say it here."

Chang Zairong stood straight again. Although he was the only one fighting against so many people from Wu Tian's team, he still stood firmly and did not lose out.

"I think you don't dare ..." Although Wu Tian knew the inside story, without the key documents, no one would believe him even if he talked randomly.

Besides, he didn't have a suitable identity, and what he said didn't have as much weight as what Guan Ruonan said.

"I don't care what you think, but it's impossible today."

Chang Zairong acted like he didn't care at all. As long as he could delay the matter, he would have a very crucial chance to catch his breath.

This was what Chang Zairong cared about: having time!

"Then today's farce should be over by now. I've also said that I don't have much time left ..."

It wasn't a good thing for Chang Zairong to continue staying here, so he decided to take this opportunity to slip away.

"Wait!"

Suddenly, a clear and melodious voice rang out from the entrance of the hall.

Everyone cast their gazes over.

Wu Tian and Guan Ruonan were also very surprised because the person who stopped Chang Zairong was Loong Yun.

Wasn't she supposed to stay in the company? Why did she suddenly come to this place?

"Why are you here ..." Wu Tian also had a weird expression on his face. He didn't receive any news from Loong Yun and she didn't contact Wu Tian regarding this matter.

Loong Yun wore a pair of high-heeled shoes and a valiant looking suit. Her black-framed eyes accentuated the intellectual charm exuded from her entire body.

"President Wu, I'm sorry, I came late ..."

"No, I didn't call you over ..."

"Time is of the essence, I didn't have the time to report to you, this is my mistake." Loong Yun apologized to Wu Tian politely. Wu Tian didn't really care about this.

This matter wasn't really that important. The key point was that if Loong Yun came, what could she do? What could she do ...

Seeing that the media had pointed their cameras at her, Loong Yun stood in front of Chang Zairong and stared at him.

"You must be President Chang Zairong. I obtained a list of some illegal assets that you have in the S City, and a list of how you have laundered the assets that you have transferred to the Korea."

Loong Yun looked very calm, but her words were like a bomb that nearly overturned the roof of the hall.

Wu Tian was even more surprised. How did she get these things?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 827 - Long Yun's High Light Moment

C827 Long Yun's High Light Moment

Not to mention so much information and evidence, as long as she could get one, it would be enough to make Chang Zairong suffer.

However, Loong Yun took out a few at this moment.

It was as if he was deliberately targeting Chang Zairong.

Chang Zairong's hands were already starting to tremble. He already had no way to think about it.

"What, what makes you say that? Do you have evidence?"

These words seemed to have become Chang Zairong's conditioned reflex. Although he could say these words, his language didn't have any power.

"Since I dared to take it out, what do you think?" Loong Yun was expressionless, but she gave Chang Zairong a lot of pressure.

Just this alone was not enough. Loong Yun even took out a document.

She waved the document folder in her hand as her gaze shifted to the live broadcast camera.

"There is one more thing, and that is this murder case you have on your person! This is evidence that you instigated the murderer to kill the former President of China, Tang Liansheng! "

The moment those words came out, the entire audience went into an uproar!

If the so-called evidence before was enough to kill Chang Zairong like bullets, then this evidence was like a bag of explosives, completely crushing this guy to dust without leaving anything behind.

Before, there were still some people who wanted to support Chang Zairong, but now, no one said anything.

Not only the live media, but also the members of the internet connection, and even the audience who were watching the live broadcast online, were all shocked by this development.

With that, a few policemen walked in with Loong Yun.

"Hello, we are the police officers of the S City Public Security Bureau. We suspect that you are involved in a number of crimes, so please come with us!"

The policeman's words were like nails nailing Chang Zairong into a coffin.

He looked at the ground with a deathly pale face, and extended his hands lifelessly to receive the set of shackles.

Although Chang Zairong didn't say anything throughout, everyone knew that he was completely finished. There would never be another person like this in the future.

Wu Tian was also shocked at the side for a long time. He was still in a daze when Chang Zairong was taken away by the police.

"President Wu, is this true?" Guan Ruonan looked at the police car in a daze. She couldn't believe that what had just happened was actually the truth.

To be honest, when Guan Ruonan and Wu Tian came, she had expected them to pressure him to resign.

She didn't think that she could completely defeat Chang Zairong now, especially after Chang Zairong successfully withstood their pressure.

Even Wu Tian started to suspect that they might fail this time.

However, Loong Yun's appearance was just like the arrival of an angel, bringing hope to their side.

"President Wu, I really worried you today." As the main character of the previous scene, Loong Yun didn't feel proud or proud.

Instead, she walked to Wu Tian's side with a calm expression and stood behind him as usual.

"That person, could he be Wu Tian's secretary?"

At this moment, some reporters could probably guess Loong Yun's identity.

However, they were shocked that Wu Tian had such great power, exposing Chang Zairong's huge case in one go.

"President Wu, thank you so much this time. If not for you, I'm afraid we would have been deceived by this Chang Zairong."

At this time, the members of the Chamber of Commerce also hurried to express their thanks to Wu Tian. To be honest, these people could be considered to have let out a sigh of relief.

At least this matter had ended, and their original goal had been achieved.

"Nothing, nothing." Wu Tian nodded slightly. He had a relaxed expression on his face, as if he had already known this was going to happen. He was not the least bit vague.

At this critical moment, Guan Ruonan started to discuss the future with the people from the Chamber of Commerce. Choosing a new president was imperative, as Wu Tian no longer needed to participate.

The event started vigorously and ended in this way. Only Wu Tian was still in a bit of a daze.

Wu Zaibin had already begun instructing the people to pack up the equipment. The people at the scene also started to leave.

Sitting in the car, Wu Tian's gaze subconsciously stopped on Loong Yun.

"Loong Yun, where did you get these things?"

Wu Tian's heart was in pain when he asked this question. He already had a vague feeling that the answer to this question might not be that honorable to him.

Loong Yun seemed to know this as well. She just glanced at Wu Tian and then looked away.

"Of course there's a way. This trip was not in vain. I used the company's funds on my own and spent 50 million to buy it."

Loong Yun was very honest. This was also her first time using the company's funds without telling Wu Tian.

But how could Wu Tian blame her for this?

"This won't affect me. You did very well." "Actually, you don't have to care about my feelings. I know you got it from Chen Cheng, right?"

What Loong Yun did instead made Wu Tian feel that it was a terrible mistake to admit it. He accepted her mistake on his own accord.

Hearing Wu Tian's words, Loong Yun's eyes showed some praise.

"Chen Cheng has always been Chang Zairong's subordinate, and also Chang Zairong's contact with Shuangxing Company company. In his hands, he has a lot of evidence about Chang Zairong. Previously, when Chen Cheng had given up, he had sensed that he might die, so he had deliberately hidden himself. Now that he has found us, he also hopes to borrow our power to overthrow Chang Zairong. "

With this explanation, Wu Tian understood what happened.

However, this was a very good opportunity for Wu Tian. In the future, no one would look for trouble with him.

Then in the future, he could peacefully develop the directions that Wu Tian had planned.

"What I did before was wrong. I was wrong." When Wu Tian said this, he was a bit quiet. It is sometimes more difficult for him to admit his mistakes than to accept criticism.

However, Wu Tian also knew that he owed this to Loong Yun, so he had to say it.

"President Wu, there's no need for that. I will always be your secretary. Everything I do is for your benefit."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 828 - The Trouble Behind Joy

C828 The Trouble Behind Joy

Under the dim light, a black teapot was emitting hot steam.

The boiling water in the kettle turned into a stream of water that poured into a teacup.

Zhang Zerui picked up the cup of tea and placed it beside his nose, sniffing it lightly.

Although it was the best tea in the country and he was already tired of it, this kind of material was extremely coarse and didn't seem to be of particular importance. On the contrary, he liked this kind of tea very much.

"You did a good job on this matter. I'm very satisfied."

There was a person standing in front of Zhang Zerui. He was listening to Zhang Zerui respectfully.

The secretary of the original Chang Zairong was not implicated because of Chang Zairong's accident. He was even more relaxed than before.

"Thank you, Mr. Zhang. Then, can I go abroad?" The person who spoke was either someone else or Chen Cheng, who provided Loong Yun with the information.

If Wu Tian and the others saw this scene, they would definitely be very surprised. They definitely wouldn't dare to believe the truth before their eyes.

No matter what, Chen Cheng was previously the spokesperson for Shuangxing Company of Shuangxing Company. However, at this time, he was like a dog that received a reward, wagging his tail in front of the unremarkable secretary, Zhang Zerui.

"There are some things that I will not emphasize anymore. I believe that you should know about them as well."

Zhang Zerui nodded slightly, agreeing with Chen Cheng's words.

Chen Cheng's face was full of joy. He picked up a backpack beside him and turned around to leave.

He clutched a ticket to a foreign country in his hand. That was his plan for the rest of his life.

If nothing unexpected happened, Chen Cheng didn't plan to come back to take a look at this muddy water.

Not long after Chen Cheng left, a man in a suit with a whip combed came from behind and leaned close to Zhang Zerui.

"Mr. Zhang, should I do it?"

Zhang Zerui lowered his eyes and took a sip of tea.

"Try your best to be quick and not leave any clues."

This time, Chang Zairong left behind a clue due to the fact that he didn't do things cleanly, which resulted in him getting trapped in an entire body.

"Yes, Sect Leader!"

The suited man left quickly. Before long, on the shore of S City, a small boat took advantage of the night to leave the sea. He dropped a heavy bag over the vast sea, leaving ripples on the surface.

On the other side, Wu Tian and the others were cheering excitedly.

The pressure he had been feeling all along suddenly disappeared. It was as if he was someone who had been tied up with a sandbag and had suddenly thrown away all these burdens. His entire body felt extremely comfortable.

Among them, Tang Yanrou was especially touched.

When she saw the news of Chang Zairong being detained on TV, she immediately teared up. All these years, she had been trying to find a way to take revenge for her father.

It could be said that her wish had finally come true.

Wu Tian saw that everyone was thinking too much, so he organized them all to have a party inside the company.

Seeing that everyone was laughing, Wu Tian always felt as if something in his heart was provoking him. He had a nagging feeling that something was wrong.

Guan Ruonan's face was filled with happiness. Seeing that Wu Tian seemed to be a little worried and not in a good mood, she quickly walked over.

"What happened, President Wu, are you not feeling well?"

Wu Tian quickly shook his head and smiled at Guan Ruonan, "I'm fine. You don't have to worry about me. Oh right, how's the situation at the Chamber of Commerce?"

Guan Ruonan beamed a bright smile with a complacent look on her face.

"Everyone has already unanimously elected me as the Acting President of the Chamber of Commerce. After Chang Zairong's matter is over, we can renegotiate the date to proceed with the election. "Moreover, everyone seems to be looking forward to your participation, President Wu."

"That's good. As for those who won't join this company, isn't having you here equivalent to having me here?" I don't really like this kind of small organization. Let's talk about this matter later, when our Wu Group company becomes even more powerful, and also when you become the official president, I will definitely give you face. "

Wu Tian was quite satisfied with the way things were progressing. Guan Ruonan and Tang Yanrou had both fulfilled their wishes.

With Guan Ruonan in the China Chamber of Commerce this time, Wu Group Corporation would also get a wider range of resources in the future.

Seeing the two of them talking, Tang Yanrou quickly wiped her tears away and ran over to thank Wu Tian.

Of course, Wu Tian didn't do these things for the sake of listening to their thanks, but it was also beneficial for him to overthrow Chang Zairong.

"Alright, what plans do you have for the future?"

Tang Yanrou was also stunned for a moment when she heard Wu Tian's question. Previously, she did not consider this question seriously.

Now that she had fulfilled her wish, she had no more thoughts.

"My brother is still in Korea right now, so I think that I might return to Korea for a while. Coincidentally, President Wu, don't you still have a red light area in Korea? I still like to be an administrator there. "

It seemed like Wu Tian's original arrangement made Tang Yanrou happy. She was starting to miss the time when she worked there.

"Alright, that's fine. You can go back." It just so happens that I need someone at the Korea.

Wu Tian was quite satisfied with Tang Yanrou as a whole, but this little girl, no matter what, was still courageous.

This was already better than many others.

Furthermore, she was Tang Liansheng's daughter and had a good head in business. Of course, she could come up with a career.

After drinking a lot, Wu Tian started to feel a little drunk. He couldn't help but feel a little sad.

He didn't know if he could let this happy time continue. This kind of beauty would end sooner or later, but Wu Tian didn't want it to end like this.

"Wu Tian, watch out. It's almost time." Su Cancan could be said to be one of the few people who didn't have a good face at the banquet.

She saw Wu Tian sitting here alone and walked over with a glass of wine.

"Time, what time is almost over?"

Wu Tian wasn't able to think clearly in this moment, so he couldn't think clearly for a while.

"You shouldn't have forgotten about Tianying Sect, right? Looking at the time, tomorrow will be the seventh day. That means they are about to make their move against us."

It could be said that Su Cancan had never dared to forget about it.
